Flathead Reservation Indians

This section is unconstitutional in so far as it requires the payment of a motor vehicle tax or other personal property taxes by members of the Confederated

Salish and Kootenai Tribes residing on the Flathead Reservation. Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes v. State of Montana, 392 F Supp 1325.

84-202. (1998) Exemptions from taxation. (1) (a) The property of the United States, the state, counties, cities, towns, school districts, municipal corporations, public libraries, buildings with land they occupy and furnishings therein owned by a church and used for actual religious worship and for residences of the clergy, together with adjacent land reasonably necessary for convenient use of such buildings owned by a church, such other property as is used exclusively for agricultural and horticultural societies, for educational purposes, hospitals and places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity, evidence of debt secured by mortgages of record upon real or personal property in the state of Montana, and public art galleries and public observatories not used or held for private or corporate profit, are exempt from taxation, but no more land than is necessary for such purpose is exempt.

(b) As used in this subsection, the term "institutions of purely public charity" shall include organizations owning and operating facilities for the care of the retired or aged or chronically ill which are not operated for gain or profit; and the terms "public art galleries and public observatories" shall mean only such art galleries and observatories whether of public or private ownership, as are open to the public, without charge or fee at all reasonable hours, and are used for the purpose of education only.

(2) When a clubhouse or building erected by or belonging to any society or organization of honorably discharged United States soldiers, sailors or marines who served in army or navy of United States, is used exclusively for educational, fraternal, benevolent or purely public charitable purposes, rather than for gain or profit, together with the library and furniture necessarily used in any such building, such property is exempt from taxation, and all property, real or personal, in the possession of legal guardians of incompetent veterans of the World War or minor dependents of such veterans, where such property is funds or derived from funds received from the United States as pension, compensation, insurance, adjusted compensation, or gratuity, shall be exempt from all taxation as property of the United States while held by the guardian, but not after title passes to the veteran or minor in his or her own right on account of removal of legal disability.

(3) All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for furnishing or equipping the family residence are exempt from taxation.

(4) Freeport merchandise shall be exempt from taxation. Freeport merchandise means those stocks of merchandise manufactured or produced outside this state which are in transit through this state and consigned to a warehouse or other storage facility, public or private, within this state, for storage in transit prior to shipment to a final destination outside the state, and which have acquired a taxable situs within the state.

Stocks of merchandise do not lose their status as freeport merchandise because while in the storage facility they are assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged.

Any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, or other group seeking to qualify its property for inclusion in this class shall make application to the state department of revenue in such manner or form as may be required by the department.

(5) [The following agricultural products are exempt from taxation:]

(a) All unprocessed, perishable fruits and vegetables in farm storage and owned by the producer are exempt from taxation.

(b) All nonperishable unprocessed agricultural products except livestock, held in possession of the original producer for less than seven (7) months following harvest.

(c) Livestock, defined as cattle, sheep, horses, or mules, which have not attained the age of nine (9) months as of the last day of any month.

(6) Moneys and credits are exempt from taxation.

(7) A capital investment in a recognized nonfossil form of energy generation is exempt to the extent provided under section 84-7403.

This section is set forth in accordance with Senate Resolution No. 6, signed April 19, 1975.

Amendments

Chapter 266, Laws of 1973, added the second, third and fourth paragraphs.

Chapter 361, Laws of 1973, inserted "all unprocessed, perishable fruits and vegetables in farm storage and owned by the producer" near the beginning of the first paragraph.

The 1974 amendment inserted the numerical subsection designation (1) at the beginning of the first paragraph; deleted the phrase inserted by Ch. 361, Laws of 1973, near the beginning of subsection (1); deleted the paragraphs added by Ch. 266, Laws of 1973, pertaining to the exemption of free port merchandise; and added subsection (2).

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 376, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 30, 1974.

"Educational Purposes"

The term "educational purposes," as used in section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution and this section, exempting property used exclusively for "educational purposes" from taxation, is not defined in terms of common scholastic institutions of grammar school, high school and university or college. Organizations for the social, intellectual, physical, or religious welfare of the children are exempt equally. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Religious education is exempt as an "educational purpose" and not as "actual religious worship" even though elements of the latter may be present and may serve to strengthen the exemption of all the property. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

"Exclusive Use" Defined

The words "exclusive use" consistently have been held to mean the primary and inherent use and not the mere secondary or incidental uses of the property. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Exemption of Church Camp

Where church summer camp, containing twenty-two acres of land and twenty-eight improvements, was "exclusively used for educational purposes" within the meaning of this section and section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution, it was exempt from taxation. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Extent of Exemption

When exempting an institution of charity, sufficient residence and recreation area may also be exempt. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Hospitals

Personal property leased by nonprofit hospital and used exclusively for hospital purposes was exempt from taxation even though the lessor, a private profit corporation, received a profit from the lease; legislature intended to exclude "ownership" of property as a criterion in determining applicability of exemption to property "used exclusively for hospitals." Montana Deaconess Hospital v. Cascade County, — M —, 521 P 2d 203.

Limits of Public Charity

An institution of purely public charity, which is exempt from taxation under section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution and this section, may be devoted to bringing people under religious influence, the beneficiaries of the charity may pay a small portion of the cost, and the activity may be limited to a particular class so long as the numbers who may participate remain somewhat indefinite. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Nonprofit Foundation

Nonprofit foundation operating and maintaining home for aged was entitled to tax exemption under statute granting exemption to institutions of purely public charity, notwithstanding evidence that foundation charged fees and imposed admission requirements. Bozeman Deaconess Foundation v. Ford, 151 M 143, 439 P 2d 915, 37 ALR 3d 558.

84-207. Privilege tax upon possession and use of tax-exempt property—exceptions. From and after the effective date of this act there is imposed and there shall be collected a tax upon the possession or other beneficial use enjoyed by any private individual, association, or corporation of any property, real or personal, which for any reason is exempt from taxation. No tax shall be imposed upon the possession or other beneficial use of public lands occupied under the terms of mineral, timber or grazing leases or permits issued by the United States or the state of Montana or upon any easement unless the lease, permit or easement entitles the lessee or permittee to exclusive possession of the premises to which the lease, permit or easement relates.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

This act became effective March 17, 1969.

Title of Act

An act to provide a privilege tax upon possession and use of tax-exempt property; providing exceptions thereto; fixing the rate of such tax and credit against tax; providing for assessment, collection and distribution of said taxes; providing penalties for failure to pay the tax and preserving constitutional exemption, and providing an effective date.

84-208. Rate of tax same as ad valorem property tax—credit against tax on use of federally owned property. The tax imposed upon such possession or other beneficial use of tax-exempt property shall be in the same amount and to the same extent as the ad valorem property tax would be if the possessor or user were the owner thereof; provided that there shall be credited against the tax so imposed upon the beneficial use of property owned by the federal government the amount of payments which are made in lieu of taxes.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

84-209. Assessment—collection and distribution—taxes shall not become a lien against property. The tax imposed hereunder shall be assessed to such possessors or users of the tax-exempt property upon the same forms, and shall be collected and distributed at the same time and in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners, possessors, or other claimants of property which is subject to ad valorem taxation, except that such taxes shall not become a lien against the property, and no such tax-exempt property may be attached, encumbered, sold or otherwise affected for the collection of the tax imposed hereunder.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

84-210. Failure to pay tax—remedies of county. A tax due and unpaid under this act shall constitute a debt due the county for and on behalf of the various taxing units concerned in the tax. If the tax imposed by this act or any portion thereof is not paid at the time the same becomes delinquent the county auditor may issue a warrant in the name of the county directed to the clerk of the district court in his county and thereupon the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the delinquent taxpayer mentioned in the warrant and, in the appropriate columns, the amount of tax, penalties, interest and other costs for which the warrant is issued and the date when such warrant is filed, and thereupon the warrant so docketed shall have the force and effect of a judgment duly rendered by a district court and docketed in the office of the clerk thereof, and the county shall have the same remedies against the possessor user as any other judgment docket.

84-211. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 84-211 (Sec. 5, Ch. 370, L. 1969), relating to exemptions granted by the 1889

Montana constitution, was repealed by Sec. 58, Ch. 100, Laws 1973, and Sec. 120, Ch. 405, Laws 1973.

CHAPTER 3—CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY FOR TAXATION—BASIS FOR TAXATION

Section

- 84-301. Classification of property for taxation.
84-302. Basis for imposition of taxes.
84-307. Assessment of shares of banks—deductions.
84-308. Basis for imposition of taxes on moneyed capital and bank shares.

84-301. (1999) Classification of property for taxation. For the purpose of taxation the taxable property in the state shall be classified as follows:

Class One. The annual net proceeds of all mines and mining claims, except coal mines, after deducting only the expenses specified and allowed by section 84-5403; also where the right to enter upon land, to explore or prospect, or dig for oil, gas, coal or mineral is reserved in land or received by mesne conveyance (exclusive of leasehold interests), devise or succession by any person or corporation, the surface title to which has passed to or remains in another, the state department of revenue shall determine the value of the right to enter upon said tract of land for the purpose of digging, exploring, or prospecting for gas, oil, coal or minerals, and the same shall be placed in this classification for the purpose of taxation.

Class Two. All agricultural and other tools, implements and machinery, gas and other engines and boilers, threshing machines and outfits used therewith, automobiles, motor trucks and other power-driven cars, vehicles of all kinds except mobile homes, boats and all watercraft, harness, saddlery and robes and except as provided in Class Five (a) of this section, all poles, lines, transformers, transformer stations, meters, tools, improvements, machinery and other property used and owned by all persons, firms, corporations, and other organizations which are engaged in the business of furnishing telephone communications, exclusively to rural areas, or to rural areas and cities and towns provided that any such city or town has a population of eight hundred (800) persons or less; and provided further, that the average circuit miles for each station on the system is more than one and one-quarter ($1\frac{1}{4}$) miles.

Class Three. Livestock, poultry, and unprocessed products of both; furniture and fixtures used in commercial activities; the annual gross proceeds of underground coal mines; and all office or hotel furniture and fixtures, except improvements included in Class Nine.

Class Four. (a) All land, town and city lots, with improvements, except improvements included in Class Nine, and all trailers affixed to land owned, leased, or under contract or purchase by the trailer owner, manufacturing and mining machinery, fixtures and supplies, except as otherwise provided by the constitution of Montana, and except as such property may be included in Class Five, Class Seven or Class Eight.

(b) Mobile homes without regard to the ownership of the land upon which they are situated, except those held by a distributor or dealer of mobile homes as part of his stock in trade, and except as such property may be included in Class Eight.

Class Five. (a) All poles, lines, transformers, transformer stations, meters, tools, improvements, machinery and other property used and owned by co-operative rural electrical and co-operative rural telephone associations organized under the laws of Montana except those within the incorporated limits of a city or town in which less than ninety-five per cent (95%) of the electric consumers and/or telephone users are served by a co-operative organization, and as to the property enumerated in this subsection (a) within incorporated limits of a city or town in which less than ninety-five per cent (95%) of the electric consumers or users will be served by a co-operative organization, such property shall be put in Class Two.

(b) All unprocessed agricultural products either on the farm or in storage, irrespective of whether said products are owned by the elevator, warehouse or flour mill owner or company storing the same, or any other person whomsoever, except all perishable fruits and vegetables in farm storage and owned by the producer, and excepting livestock and poultry and the unprocessed products of both.

(c) The dwelling house, and the lot on which it is erected, owned and occupied by any resident of the state, who has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the armed forces, who is rated one hundred per cent (100%) disabled due to a service-connected disability by the United States veterans administration or its successors.

In the event of the veteran's death, the dwelling house, and the lot on which it is erected, so long as the surviving spouse remains unmarried and the owner and occupant of the property, shall remain within this classification.

Class Six. Property formerly included in this class is now classified by section 84-308, R. C. M. 1947.

Class Seven. (a) All new industrial property. New industrial property shall mean any new industrial plant, including land, buildings, machinery and fixtures which, in the determination of the state department of revenue, is used by a new industry during the first three (3) years of operation not having been assessed prior to July 1, 1961, within the state of Montana. New industry shall mean any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, or other group which establishes a new plant or plants in this state for the operation of a new industrial endeavor, as distinguished from a mere expansion, reorganization, or merger of an existing industry or industries. Provided, however, that new industrial property shall be limited to industries that manufacture, mill, mine, produce, process or fabricate materials, or do similar work in which capital and labor are employed and in which materials unserviceable in their natural state are extracted, processed or made fit for use or are substantially altered or treated so as to create commercial products or materials; industries that engage in the mechanical or chemical transformation of materials or substances into new products in the manner defined as manufacturing in the 1972 Standard Industrial Classification Manual, prepared by the United States office of management and budget; and in no event shall the term new industrial property be included to mean property used by retail or wholesale merchants, commercial services of any type, agriculture, trades or professions. New industrial property does not include a plant which will create an adverse impact on existing state, county, or municipal services. The department shall promulgate regulations for the determination of what constitutes an adverse impact taking into consideration the number of people to be employed and the size of the community in which the location is contemplated. Once the department has made an initial determination that the industrial facility qualifies as new industrial property, the department shall then upon proper notice hold a hearing to determine if the new industrial classification should be retained by the property. The local taxing authority may appear at the hearing, and it also may waive its objection to retention of this classification if the industry agrees to the prepayment of taxes sufficient to satisfy tax requirements created by the location and construction of the facility during construction period.

In the event of a prepayment of taxes, the maximum amount or prepayment shall be the amount without the application of the Class 7 (a) to such property.

If a major new industrial facility qualifies under Class 7 (a) the reduction of its yearly payment of property taxes for reimbursement of its prepaid taxes as provided for in section 84-41-105, R. C. M. 1947, shall not begin until the Class 7 qualification expires. And provided further, that new industrial property shall not be included to mean property which is used or employed in any industrial plant which has been in operation in this state for three (3) years or longer. Any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association or other group seeking to qualify its property for inclusion in this class shall make application to the state department of revenue in such manner and form as may be required by said department.

(b) Business inventories. Business inventories shall include goods intended for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business, and shall include raw materials and work in progress with respect to such goods, but shall not include goods actually leased or rented on the lien date, or mobile homes held by a dealer or distributor as a part of his stock in trade.

(c) Air pollution control equipment as defined in section 69-3923.

(1) a widow sixty-two (62) years of age or older, whether with or without minor dependent children, who qualifies under the income limitations of (4), or

(2) a widower sixty-two (62) years of age or older, whether with or without minor dependent children, who qualifies under the income limitations of (4), or

(3) a widow or widower with minor or dependent children regardless of age, who qualifies under the income limitations of (4), or

(4) a recipient or recipients of retirement or disability benefits whose income from all sources is not more than six thousand dollars ($6,000) for a single person and six thousand eight hundred dollars ($6,800) for a married couple total per annum whether said dwelling is occupied by a single person or a married couple. Provided, further, that one who applies for classification of property under this class must make an affidavit to the state department of revenue on a form as may be provided by the state department of revenue supplied without cost to the applicant, as to his income, if applicable, as to his retirement benefits, if applicable, or, as to his marital status, if applicable, and to the fact that he or she actually occupies or maintains as his or her primary residential dwelling, such land and improvements with right of the county welfare board to investigate the applicant, on the completion of the form, as to answers given on the form. Provided, further, the assessed value of said property shall not be increased during the life of the recipient of retirement benefits or widow or widower covered under this class, unless the owner-resident makes a substantial improvement in the dwelling. For the purposes of the affidavit required for classification of property under this class, it shall be sufficient if the applicant signs a statement swearing to or affirming the correctness of the information supplied, whether or not the statement is signed before a person authorized to administer oaths, and mails the application and statement to the department of revenue. This signed statement shall be treated as a statement under oath or equivalent affirmation for purposes of section 94-7-203, R. C. M. 1947, relating to the criminal offense of false swearing.

(b) A capital investment in a building for an energy conservation purpose, to the extent provided under section 84-7403.

Class Ten. The annual gross proceeds of coal mines using the strip mining method.

New Industry

Classification of new business established for production of eggs on mass scale as "commercial" rather than "new industry property" under Class Seven was improper since use of agricultural products in industry does not eliminate that industry from benefits of Class Seven. *Cherry Lane Farms of Montana, Inc. v. Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 427 and once by Ch. 525. Neither amendatory act mentioned or entirely incorporated the changes made by the other. the new Class 9 items are different in each act. The compiler has followed the directions of the Code Commissioner of the Legislative Council, and has designated the new Chapter 427 item as Class 9, the new Chapter 525 item as Class 10, and the former Class 9 item as Class 11, in a composite section.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "fifteen per cent (15%)" for "twenty per cent (20%)" in Class 8.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 209 and once by Ch. 436. Neither amendatory act mentioned or included the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the exception relating to agricultural lands at the end of the first sentence.

The 1974 amendment deleted "and shall be so valued unless a different use is demonstrated" from the end of the first sentence and inserted the second sentence.

Chapter 209, Laws of 1975, substituted the present language through the first sentence of subdivision (2) for "All taxable property must be assessed at its full cash value except the assessment of agricultural lands shall be based upon the productive capacity of the lands when valued for agricultural purposes"; and added the last paragraph of the section relating to determination of taxable value.

(2) The county assessors of the various counties of the state of Montana are agents of the state department of revenue for the purpose of locating and providing the department a description of all taxable property within the county together with other pertinent information; and for the purpose of performing such other administrative duties as are required for placing taxable property on the assessment rolls. partment of revenue or its agent" for "county assessor"; and substituted references to the county and state tax appeal boards for references to the corresponding boards of equalization.

84-404. (2001.3) State department of revenue to assign percentage basis, when. The percentage basis of true and full value as provided for in section 84-302, shall be determined and assigned by the state department of revenue, when it makes its annual assessment of the property, which it is required to assess under the laws of this state and shall transmit such determination and assignment to the various county clerks with the as-assessments so made, and its determination shall be final except as to the right of review in the proper court.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 100 and once by Ch. 516. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Chapter 100, Laws of 1973, deleted "the constitution or" before "the laws of this state" near the middle of the section.

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

84-406. (2002) Time of assessment—motor vehicles—mobile homes—livestock—snowmobiles. (1) The department of revenue or its agent must, between the first day of January and the second Monday of July in each year, ascertain the names of all taxable inhabitants, and assess all property in each county subject to taxation, except such as is required to be assessed by the state department of revenue, and must assess such property to the persons by whom it was owned or claimed, or in whose possession or control it was at 12 midnight of the first day of January next preceding. It must also ascertain and assess all mobile homes arriving in the county after 12 midnight of the first day of January next preceding. The procedure provided by this section shall not apply to:

(a) Motor vehicles which are required by subdivision (2) hereof to be assessed as of the first day of January, or upon their anniversary registration date; but no mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner of real property renders the assessment thereof invalid.

(b) Livestock which are required by subdivision (3) of this section to be assessed on an average inventory basis in each county. Credits must be assessed as provided in section 84-101, subdivision 6.

(c) Property defined in section 53-642 as "special mobile equipment" which is subject to assessment of personal property taxes on the date that application is made for a special mobile equipment plate.

Provided that such tax shall not be assessed against motor vehicles which constitute inventory of motor vehicle dealers as of January 1, but said vehicles, and all other motor vehicles brought into the state subsequent to January 1, as motor vehicle dealer's inventory, shall be assessed to their respective purchasers as of the dates said vehicles are registered by said purchasers, and purchasers means and includes dealers who apply for registration or re-registration of motor vehicles, except as otherwise provided by section 32-3315. Goods, wares and merchandise of motor vehicle dealers, other than new motor vehicles and new mobile homes, shall be assessed at full and true value as of the first day of January.

Except that this paragraph shall not apply to an applicant for registration or re-registration of a mobile home, nothing herein contained shall relieve the applicant for registration or re-registration of any other motor vehicle so assessed or subject to assessment of the duty of paying taxes thereon as a condition precedent to registration or re-registration in the event said taxes have not been paid by any prior applicant or owner in all cases where required to be paid.

(3) The assessed value of livestock in each county on the assessment date shall be computed by adding the assessed value of all livestock more than nine (9) months of age owned by the taxpayer in each county on the last day of each month since the last assessment date and dividing the sum by twelve (12). For purposes of this subdivision "livestock" means cattle, sheep, horses, and mules.

December 31, 1975, shall be assessed for only six (6) months during the period July 1, 1975 through June 30, 1976.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended four times in 1975, once by Ch. 74, once by Ch. 327, once by Ch. 388, and once by Ch. 507. None of the amendatory acts mentioned the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by all four amendments.

Amendments

Summary JudgmentState Directives

Boards of county commissioners could

In declaratory judgment action in which notice of reclassification was found not to comply with this section, district court did not abuse its discretion in granting plaintiff-landowners' motion for summary judgment without considering further issues raised by plaintiffs since they lacked standing as to those issues. Mittelstadt v. Buckingham, 156 M 407, 480 P 2d 831.

It is hereby made the duty of the state department of revenue to implement the provisions of this act by providing:

1. For a general and uniform method of classifying lands in the state of Montana for the purpose of securing an equitable and uniform basis of assessment of said lands for taxation purposes.

In such classification work, use shall be made of soil surveys and maps and all other pertinent available information. All lands must be classified by forty (40) acre tracts or fractional lots.

All agricultural lands must be classified and appraised as agricultural lands without regard to the best and highest value use of adjacent or neighboring lands.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 512 and once by Ch. 516. Chapter 512 made the same changes as did Ch. 516 and made another change as well. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the preliminary clause.

Basis for Assessment

County board of equalization properly assessed plaintiff's property on basis of "market value" rather than on basis of agricultural land, even though it was being used for agricultural purposes, where property was within commercial area and its value was much greater than that assigned to agricultural property. Mohland v. State Board of Equalization, 155 M 49, 466 P 2d

Board Authority

County board of equalization possesses jurisdiction and authority to direct and sanction classification, appraisal and assessment of rural and urban improvements using "market value" as basis and classifying them according to use or uses other than those to which such land is actually devoted. Mohland v. State Board of Equalization, 155 M 49, 466 P 2d 582, certiorari denied, 400 US 940, 91 S Ct 232.

Boards of county commissioners cannot ignore directives of state board of equalization on subject of timberland valuation and make their own valuation on theory that state board's directives were invalid because not supported by evidence since validity would have to be adjudicated and since, in any event, county boards do not have power of increasing valuations. State ex rel. Conrad v. Managhan, 157 M 335, 485 P 2d 948.

Unlawful Appraisal

The absence of a state-wide uniform appraisal plan prevents lawful implementation of appraisal made by professional appraisers employing different methods than those formulated by the state. Larson v. State, — M —, 534 P 2d 854.

84-429.14. Periodic revaluation of taxable property. The department of revenue shall administer and supervise a program for the revaluation of all taxable property within the state of Montana at least every five (5) years. A comprehensive written plan of rotation shall be promulgated by the department of revenue fixing the order of revaluation of property in each county on the basis of the last revaluation of taxable property in each county prior to July 1, 1974, in order to adjust the disparities therein between the counties. The plan of rotation so adopted shall provide that all property in each county shall be revalued at least every five (5) years or that no less than twenty per cent (20%) of the property in each county shall be revalued in each year. The department of revenue shall furnish a copy of the plan and all amendments thereto to each county assessor and the board of county commissioners in each county.

Title of Act

An act to provide for a cyclical program for the revaluation of taxable property.

84-429.15. Equalization of valuations. The same method of appraisal and assessment shall be used in each county of the state to the end that comparable property with similar true market values and subject to taxation in Montana shall have substantially equal taxable values at the end of each cyclical revaluation program hereinbefore provided.

History: En. 84-429.15 by Sec. 2, Ch. 294, L. 1975.

84-429.16. Use of valuations. No program for the revaluation of property shall be implemented for taxation in any county, other than as prescribed in this act.

84-437.1. Legislative intent as to agricultural property. Since the market value of many farm properties is based upon speculative purchases which do not reflect the productive capability of farms, it is the legislative intent that bona fide farm properties shall be classified and assessed at a value that is exclusive of values attributed to urban influences or speculative purposes.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to provide that agricultural land shall be classified, appraised, and assessed according to its value for agricultural purposes without regard to the value it may have for other purposes; and defining agricultural lands, establishing procedure and providing a penalty; amending sections 84-401 and 84-429.12, R. C. M. 1947.

84-437.2. Eligibility of land for valuation as agricultural. (1) Land which is actively devoted to agricultural use shall be eligible for valuation, assessment and taxation as herein provided each year it meets either of the following qualifications:

(a) The area of such land is not less than five (5) contiguous acres when measured in accordance with provisions of section 84-437.6, R. C. M. 1947, and it has been actively devoted to agriculture during the last growing season and it continues to be actively devoted to agricultural use which means;

(ii) it is used for grazing; or

(iii) it is in a crop-land retirement program; or

(b) It agriculturally produces for sale or home consumption the equivalent of fifteen per cent (15%) or more of the owners' annual gross income regardless of the number of contiguous acres in the ownership.

(2) Land shall not be classified or valued as agricultural if it is subdivided with stated restrictions prohibiting its use for agricultural purposes.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted "any of" following "it meets" in the introductory phrase; expanded subdivision (1) which read: "It is being actively devoted to agriculture"; substituted "value of grazing or crops produced for sale or home consumption" for "value of grazing and field crops" in subdivision (2); inserted "for sale or home consumption" in subdivision (3); and deleted a subdivision pertaining to the application by the owner of land for valuation as agricultural.

The 1975 amendment designated the first paragraph as subsection (1); redesignated former subdivision (1) as subdivision (1) (a); substituted present subdivision (1) (a) for "It is being actively devoted to agriculture or it has been historically devoted to agricultural use and it has been valued and assessed as agricultural land for the taxable years 1971, 1972 and 1973 and it continues to be devoted to agricultural use which means"; redesignated former subdivisions (a) to (c) as (i) to (iii) of subdivision (1) (a); in subdivision (i) inserted "field" before "crops"; deleted a former subsection (2) which read "The area of such land is not less than five (5) contiguous acres when measured in accordance with the provisions of section 8, [84-437.6], when the gross value of grazing or crops produced for sale or home consumption thereon together with any payments received under a crop-land retirement program totals at least one thousand ($1,000) per year; or"; redesignated former subdivision (3) as subdivision (1) (b); added "regardless of the number of contiguous acres in the ownership" at the end of subdivision (1) (b); added subsections (2) and (3); and made minor changes in phraseology.

84-437.3. Agricultural uses only considered in valuation. In valuing land as agricultural, the department of revenue, shall consider only those indicia of value which such land has for agricultural use.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 512, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 56, L. 1974.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment substituted "In valuing land as agricultural" for "In classifying land which qualifies as land actively devoted to agricultural use under the test prescribed by this act, and as to which the owner thereof has made timely application for valuation, assessment and taxation hereunder for the tax year in issue" at the beginning of the section.

84-437.4. Roll-back tax—computation. When land which is or has been in agricultural use and is or has been valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act, is applied to a use other than agricultural, it shall be subject to an additional tax hereinafter referred to as the "rollback tax," which tax shall be a lien upon the land and become due and payable at the time of the change in use.

As used in this act, the word "roll-back" means the period preceding the change in use of the land not to exceed four (4) years during which the land was valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act.

The assessor shall ascertain the following in determining the amount of the roll-back tax chargeable on land which has undergone a change in use:

(1) the full and fair value of the land as determined by the department of revenue under the valuation standard applicable to land in the county not valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act;

(2) the amount of the land assessment as unsubdivided and unimproved land for the period of the roll-back, by multiplying such full and fair market value by the number of years included in the roll-back and by multiplying the product obtained, by the assessment ratio in effect in the year in which the change in use of the land is made as determined by the state;

(3) the average mill levy applied in the taxing district in which the land is located by dividing the aggregate mill levy actually applied in each respective year of the roll-back by the number of years, included in the roll-back; and

(4) the amount of the roll-back tax by multiplying the taxable value computed from the amount of the assessment determined under subsection (2) hereof by the average mill levy determined under subsection (3) hereof, less the amount of real property taxes actually paid during the period of the roll-back.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

84-437.5. Roll-back tax procedures governed by nonagricultural provisions. The roll-back tax collected shall be paid into the county treasury and paid by the treasurer to the various taxing units pro rata in accordance with the levies for the current year.

84-437.8. Continuance of valuation as agricultural land—roll-back tax attaching on change of use. Continuance of valuation, assessment and taxation under this act shall depend upon continuance of the land in agricultural use and compliance with the other requirements of this act and not upon continuance in the same owner of title to the land. Liability to the roll-back tax shall attach when a change in use of the land occurs but not when a change in ownership of the title takes place if the new owner continues the land in agricultural use, under the conditions prescribed in this act.

84-437.11. Tract crossing county line considered as whole. Where contiguous land in agricultural use in one ownership is located in more than one (1) county, compliance with the minimum requirements shall be determined on the basis of the total area and value of farm crops on such land and not the area or value of farm crops on land which is located in the particular county.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

84-437.12. Factual details as to agricultural land to be shown on tax list. The department of revenue has power after giving notice, in writing, to the taxpayer, by registered or certified mail, addressed to him at his last known place of residence, of its intention to increase or lower his assessment contained in the assessment book, so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained therein and make the assessment conform to the true value of such

Powers of Board of County Commissioners

Boards of county commissioners could not ignore directives of state board of equalization on subject of timberland valuation and make their own valuation on theory that state board's directives were invalid because not supported by evidence since validity would have to be adjudicated and since, in any event, county boards do not have power of increasing valuations. State ex rel. Conrad v. Managhan, 157 M. 335, 485 P. 2d 948.

84-603. (2115) Application for reduction in valuations. No reduction must be made in the valuation of property unless the party affected thereby, or his agent, makes and files with the county tax appeal board on or before the third Monday of July, a written application therefor. Said application shall state the post-office address of the applicant, shall specifically describe the property involved and shall state the facts upon which it is claimed such reduction should be made. The department of revenue shall, however, have the right to raise or lower the valuation of all of one class of property in a county, as provided in the preceding section [84-602].

History: Secs. 2113 to 2121 were enacted as Secs. 60 to 70, pp. 96 to 99, L. 1891, appearing as Secs. 3780 to 3790, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Secs. 2572 to 2582, Rev. C. 1907; Sec. 2574, Rev. from the end of the first sentence; and substituted "department of revenue" for "board of county commissioners" at the beginning of the last sentence.

The 1975 amendment substituted "third Monday of July" for "first day of August."

Availability of Statutory Remedies

Class action suit protesting method of assessment as being unconstitutional was properly filed directly against the department of revenue without first exhausting administrative remedies. Larson v. State, — M —, 534 P 2d 854.

84-604. (2116) Examination of applicant. Before the county tax appeal board grants any application or makes any reduction applied for, it must examine on oath, the person or agent making the application, touching the value of the property of each person. No reduction must be made unless such person or agent makes an application, as provided in the preceding section, and attends and answers all questions pertinent to the inquiry. The testimony of all witnesses upon such hearing must be taken in shorthand or by stenotype or electronically recorded and preserved for one (1) year. If the decision of the county tax appeal board is appealed, all testimony must be transcribed or otherwise reduced to writing and forwarded together with all exhibits to the state tax appeal board. The date of hearing, the proceedings before the board, and the decision, must be entered upon the minutes of the board, and the board shall notify the applicant of its decision, by registered or certified mail within three (3) days thereafter. A copy of the minutes of the county tax appeal board must be transmitted to the state tax appeal board no later than three (3) days after the third Monday in August.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 100 and once by Ch. 405. Chapter 405 was later in date of approval. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. The acts appear not to conflict except possibly with respect to the method of appointment of board members. In this respect, the compiler has used the language of Ch. 405.

Chapter 100, Laws of 1973, deleted "created by article XII of the constitution as amended" after "board of equalization" in the former first sentence; deleted second and third sentences relating to the appointment and terms of office of the first members of the commission; deleted "in accordance with the provisions of the constitution" from the end of the present fourth sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Chapter 405, Laws of 1973, substituted two new sentences for the first three sentences in the parent volume; substituted "by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate during the next legislative session" for "by appointment in accordance with the provisions of the constitution" at the end of the fourth sentence; and deleted "biennial" before "session of the legislative assembly" in the final sentence.

his entire time to the duties of the office and shall not hold any position of trust or profit, nor engage in any occupation or business interfering or inconsistent with his duties. The state tax appeal board is transferred to the department of administration for administrative purposes only as is specified in section 82A-108, R. C. M. 1947. However, the board may hire its own personnel, and section 82A-108(2)(d) does not apply. The member designated chairman as provided for in 84-703 shall receive additional compensation of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) per annum payable in the same manner as the salary. The state tax appeal board shall be paid per diem and travel expenses when away from the capital on official business.

To apportion such assessments to the counties in which such properties are located on a mileage basis, or if the property of any company assessable under this section is of such a character that its value cannot reasonably be apportioned on the basis of mileage, the department may adopt such other method or basis of apportionment to the county or counties in which the property is situated as may be just and proper. All lots and parcels of real estate not included in right of way, with the buildings, structures, and improvements thereon, dams and power houses, depots, stations, shops, and other buildings, erected upon right of way, furniture, machinery, and other personal property, shall not be considered as a part of any such single and continuous property, but shall be considered as separate and distinct therefrom, and shall be assessed by the agent of the department of revenue in the county wherein they are situate.

(2) To transmit to the county clerk of each county its apportionment of all assessments made by the department.

(3) To adjust and equalize the valuation of taxable property among the several counties, and the different classes of taxable property in any county and in the several counties and between individual taxpayers; supervise and review the acts of agents of the department; change, increase or decrease valuations made by its agents; and exercise such authority and do all things necessary to secure a fair, just and equitable valuation of all taxable property among counties between the different classes of property and between individual taxpayers.

(4) To have and exercise general supervision over the administration of the assessment and tax laws of the state, and over its agents and any officers of municipal corporations, having any duties to perform under any of the laws of this state relating to taxation to the end that all assessments of property be made relatively just and equal at true value in substantial compliance with law, and to supervise the administration of all revenue laws of the state and assist in their enforcement. Further, the state department of revenue is empowered to organize, and it shall be its duty to schedule and hold area schools within the state for appraisers and assessors as often as is deemed necessary in the judgment of the department and the costs of such appraisers and assessors attending shall be borne by the state. Further, the department shall determine if there is a need for a taxing, assessing, and appraising school, and such school shall be held, when deemed necessary. (7) To require county attorneys to assist in the commencement and prosecution of actions and proceedings for penalties, forfeitures, removals and punishment for violations of the laws of the state in respect to the assessment of property and other revenue laws, in their respective counties.

(8) To collect annually from the proper officers of the municipal corporations information as to the assessment of property, collection of taxes, receipts from licenses and other sources, the expenditure of public funds for all purposes, and such other information as may be needful and helpful in the work of the department in such form and upon such blanks as the department shall prescribe; and it shall be the duty of all public officers so called upon to fill out properly and return promptly to the department all blanks so transmitted and in every way aid the department in its work; to examine the records of all municipal corporations for such purposes as are deemed needful or helpful by the department.

(9) In its discretion, to inspect and examine, or cause an inspection and examination of the records of the officers of any municipality, whenever such officer shall have failed, neglected or refused to return properly the information required by this section within the time set by the department. Upon completion of such inspection and examination the department shall transmit to the clerk, or other proper official of the municipality, a statement of the expenses incurred by the department to secure the necessary information. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the municipality of the above statement, the same shall be audited, as other claims of the municipal corporation are audited and shall be paid into the state treasury and if the same is not so paid the attorney general shall institute an action, in the proper court, against the municipality to recover the same.

The officers responsible for the furnishing of the information collected pursuant to this section, shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss the municipality may suffer, through their delinquency; and no payment shall be made to them for salary, or on any other account, until the cost of such inspection and examination as provided above shall have been paid into the treasury, or to the proper officers of such municipality. They shall also be subject to such other fines and penalties as prescribed by law.

(10) To require persons, as defined above, to furnish information concerning their capital, funded or other debt, current assets and liabilities, cost and value of property, earnings, operating and other expenses, taxes and all other facts which may enable the department to ascertain the value of the relative burdens borne by all kinds of property and occupations in the state.

(15) To consult and confer with the governor of the state upon the subject of taxation, the administration of the laws relating thereto and the progress of the work of the department, and to furnish the governor such assistance as he may require.

(16) To transmit to the governor and to each member of the legislature twenty (20) days before the meeting of the legislature, a report of the department, showing all the taxable property of the state and the value of the same in tabulated form, with recommendations for improvements in the system of taxation, together with such measures as may be formulated for the consideration of the legislature; and to include therein a report showing the selling price of gasoline at the wholesale level in prime market centers of Montana and in surrounding states during the biennium, with indexes tabulated at sufficient intervals to show the comparative state price structures.

Repeal

Sections 84-1310, 84-1311 (Secs. 10, 11, Ch. 155, L. 1921), relating to the penalty for violating license taxes for coal mines and that license taxes are supplemental, were repealed by Sec. 19, Ch. 525, Laws of 1975.

84-1312. Legislative findings and declarations of purpose. (1) The legislature finds that while coal is extracted from the earth like metal minerals, there are differences between coal and metal minerals such that they should be classified in different categories for taxation purposes. The legislature finds that while coal can be utilized like petroleum products, there are differences between coal and petroleum such that they should be classified in different categories for taxation purposes. The legislature further finds that:

(a) coal is the only mineral which can supply energy while being easily found in abundance in Montana;

(b) coal is the only mineral which is so often marketed through sales contracts of many years' duration;

(c) coal, unlike most minerals, varies widely in composition and consequent value when marketed;

(d) coal in Montana is subject to regional and national demands for development which could affect the economy and environment of a larger portion of the state than any other mineral development has done;

(e) coal in Montana, when sub-bituminous and recoverable by strip mining, is in sufficient demand that at least one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the price it commands at the mine may go to the economic rents of royalties and production taxes;

(f) coal in the lignite form is in less demand and producers of lignite are able to pay lesser amounts of royalty and production tax than producers of sub-bituminous can pay;

(g) coal produced in underground mines has higher production costs and underground producers are able to pay lesser amounts of royalty and production tax than strip-mine producers can pay;

(h) coal production in Montana has been subject to an unco-ordinated array of taxes which overlap one another and yield revenue in an inconsistent and unpredictable manner.

(2) The legislature declares that the purposes of this chapter are:

(a) to allow the severance taxes on coal production to remain a constant percentage of the price of coal;

(b) to stabilize the flow of tax revenue from coal mines to local governments through the property taxation system;

(c) to simplify the structure of coal taxation in Montana, reducing tax overlap and improving the predictability of tax projections; and

(d) to accomplish the foregoing purposes by establishing categories of taxation which recognize the unique character of coal as well as the variations found within the coal industry.

History: En. 84-1312 by Sec. 1, Ch. 525, L. 1975.

An act revising the taxation of coal production; providing for a severance tax on coal produced at a percentage of value; deleting coal from the provisions taxing the net proceeds of mines; providing for taxation of the gross proceeds from coal as an element in the property tax system; providing for certain royalties; amending sections 84-301, 84-302, 84-1309.1, and 84-5402; and repealing sections 84-1301 through 84-1309, 84-1310, and 84-1311, R. C. M. 1947.

84-1313. Definitions. As used in this chapter: (1) "Contract sales price" means either (a) the price of coal extracted and prepared for shipment f.o.b. mine, excluding that amount charged by the seller to pay taxes paid on production, or (b) a price imputed by the department under section 84-1318.

(2) "Energy conversion process" includes any process by which coal in the solid state is transformed into slurry, gas, electric energy, or any other form of energy.

(3) "Produced" means severed from the earth.

(4) "Strip mining" or "surface mining" is defined in section 50-1036.

(5) "Underground mining" means a coal mining method utilizing shafts and tunnels, and not regulated under section 50-1039.

(6) "Ton" means two thousand (2,000) pounds.

(7) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(8) "Taxes paid on production" include any tax paid to the federal, state, or local governments upon the quantity of coal produced as a function of either the volume or the value of production, and do not include any tax upon the value of mining equipment, machinery, or buildings and lands, any tax upon a person's net income derived in whole or in part from the sale of coal, or any license fee.

84-1314. Severance tax—rates imposed—exemptions. A severance tax is imposed on each ton of coal produced in the state, in accordance with the following schedule:

Heating quality (Btu per pound of coal) :	Surface Mining	Underground Mining
Under 7,000	12 cents or 20% of value	5 cents or 3% of value
7,000-8,000	22 cents or 30% of value	8 cents or 4% of value
Over 9,000	40 cents or 30% of value	12 cents or 4% of value

The formula which yields the greater amount of tax in a particular case shall be used at each point on this schedule. "Value" means the contract sales price. A person is not liable for any severance tax upon the first five thousand (5,000) tons of coal he produces in a quarter-year.

History: En. 84-1314 by Sec. 3, Ch. 525,

84-1315. Quarterly statement and payment of tax. Each coal mine operator shall compute the severance tax due on each quarter-year's worth of production on forms prescribed by the department. The statement shall indicate the tonnage produced, the average Btu value of the production, the contract sales price received for the production, and such other information as the department may require. The completed form in duplicate, with the tax payment, shall be delivered to the department not later than thirty (30) days following the close of the quarter. The form shall be verified by an officer of the coal mine operator. A person operating more than one coal mine in this state may include all of his mines in one statement. The department may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing statements and payment of taxes due upon good cause shown therefor.

L. 1975.

84-1316. Penalty for delinquent tax. The department shall add to the amount of all delinquent severance taxes a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the delinquent amount plus interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month or fraction thereof computed on the total amount of severance tax and penalty. Interest shall be computed from the date the severance tax was due to the date of payment. The department shall mail to the person required to file a quarterly report and pay any severance tax, a letter setting forth the amount of tax, penalty and interest due, and the letter shall further contain a statement that if payment is not made within fifteen (15) days a lien may be filed as set forth in section 84-1323. The penalty amount may be waived by the department if reasonable cause for the failure or neglect to file the quarterly statement is provided to the department.

History: En. 84-1316 by Sec. 5, Ch. 525,
L. 1975.

84-1317. Annual testing of samples. The Montana state bureau of mines and geology shall test coal production subject to this chapter and may make rules governing the collection of test data. A person subject to this chapter shall submit to the bureau on or before August 1 each year a sample of mine run "as is" coal from each mine producing that year. Additional samples shall be submitted at the request of the bureau. The bureau shall compute the Btu per pound of each sample received and forward this information to the department prior to September 1 each year.

History: En. 84-1317 by Sec. 6, Ch. 525,

84-1318. When value of coal may be imputed—procedure. In a case where

(a) the operator of a coal mine is using the produced coal in an energy conversion or other manufacturing process, or

(b) a person sells coal under a contract which is not an arm's-length agreement, or

(c) a person neglects or refuses to file a statement and tax return under this chapter, the department may impute a value to the coal which approximates market value f.o.b. mine. When imputing value, the department may apply the factors used by the federal government under 26 U.S.C. section 613, or that provision as it may be labeled or amended, in determining gross income from mining, or the department may apply any other or additional criteria it considers appropriate. Each subject taxpayer shall, upon request by the department, furnish a copy of its federal income tax return, with any amendments, filed for the year in which the value of coal is being imputed and copies of the contracts under which it is selling coal at the time. When the department's estimate of market value is contested in any proceeding, the burden of proof is on the contesting party.

84-1319. Disposal of license or severance taxes. License or severance taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter or such sections as may enact a severance tax on coal in 1975 are allocated as follows:

(1) To the county for such purposes as the governing body of that county may determine from which coal was mined for each calendar year prior to January 1, 1980, three cents (3¢) per ton or four per cent (4%) of the severance tax paid on the coal mined in that county, whichever is higher, and for each calendar year following December 31, 1979, three cents (3¢) per ton or three and one-half per cent (3½%) of the severance tax paid on the coal mined in that county, whichever is higher.

(2) Two and one-half per cent (2½%) of total collections per year until December 31, 1979 and thereafter four per cent (4%) of total collections per year to the earmarked revenue fund, to the credit of the alternative energy research development and demonstration account.

(3) Twenty-seven and one-half per cent (27.5%) of total collections per year, until July 1, 1979, and thereafter thirty-five per cent (35%), to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the local impact and education trust fund account.

(4) For each of the four (4) fiscal years following the effective date of this act ten per cent (10%) of total collections per year to the earmarked revenue fund to the credit of the coal area highway improvement account.

(5) Ten per cent (10%) of total collections per year, to the earmarked revenue fund, for state equalization aid to public schools of the state.

(6) For the period ending December 31, 1979, one per cent (1%) of total collections per year to the earmarked revenue fund, to the credit of the county land planning account.

(7) Two and one-half per cent (2½%) of total collections per year, to the sinking fund, to the credit of the renewable resource development bond account.

(8) Two and one-half per cent (2½%) of total collections per year through June 30, 1979, of which portion one-half (½) shall be allocated to the earmarked revenue fund, for the purpose of acquisition of sites and areas described in section 62-304, subject to legislative appropriations, and one-half (½) shall be allocated to the trust and legacy fund, for the purpose of parks acquisition. After June 30, 1979, five per cent (5%) of total collections per year shall be allocated to the trust and legacy fund, for the purpose of parks acquisition. Income from the fund established in this subsection may be appropriated for the acquisition of sites and areas described in section 62-304.

(9) To the earmarked revenue fund, such portions of the severance tax as may be authorized by laws enacted in 1975.

(10) All other revenues from license or severance taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the state.

History: En. 84-1309.1 by Sec. 2, Ch. 432, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 250, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 501, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 502, L. 1975; amd. and redes. 84-1319 by Sec. 8, Ch. 525, L. 1975.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended three times in 1975. It was amended once by Ch. 501, once by Ch. 502, and amended and redesignated by Ch. 525. None of the amendatory acts mentioned the changes made by the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by all three amendments.

Title of Act

An act amending sections 84-1302 and 84-1303, R. C. M. 1947, to change the basis for determining and raising the strip coal mines license tax and removing the reclamation credit; providing distribution for a portion of the strip coal mines license tax to the counties; and providing for a severability clause.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment increased the allocation to the county general fund from one cent to three cents per ton.

Chapter 501, Laws of 1975, substituted "License taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter or severance taxes collected under such statutes as may be enacted in 1975 are allocated as follows" as the first sentence of the section for "License taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter are allocated as follows"; and inserted the present subdivision (2).

Chapter 502, Laws of 1975, substituted the present language of the first sentence of the section for "License taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter are allocated as follows"; substituted the present language of subdivision (1) for "To the county general fund from which coal was mined three cents (3¢) per ton"; and added the provisions of subdivisions (3) through (8). The compiler deleted a provision designated as subdivision (6) by Ch. 502 which read: "Two and one-half per cent (2½%) of total collections per year to the earmarked revenue fund, to the credit of the alternative energy research and development account."

Chapter 525, Laws of 1975, renumbered this section; made the same changes in the first sentence of the section and in subdivision (1) as Ch. 502, Laws of 1975; added the provisions of subdivision (9); and inserted "or severance" before "taxes" in former subdivision (2) which has been redesignated as subdivision (10).

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 250, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 21, 1974.

84-1320. Reporting gross proceeds from coal. Each person engaged in mining coal must, on or before March 31 each year file with the department a statement of the gross yield from each coal mine owned or worked by such person in the preceding calendar year, and the value thereof. The statement shall be in the form prescribed by the department of revenue, which may be co-ordinated with the form used under section 84-1316, and must be verified by an officer of the firm. The statement shall include:

- (1) The name and address of the owner or lessee or operator of the mine.
- (2) The location of the mine.
- (3) The tons of ore extracted, treated, and sold from the mine during the taxable period.
- (4) The gross yield or value in dollars and cents derived from the contract sales price.

History: En. 84-1320 by Sec. 9, Ch. 525, L. 1975.

84-1321. Transmission of gross proceeds from coal to county assessor. On or before July 1 each year the department shall transmit to the county assessor of each county in which coal mines are situated, the valuation of the gross proceeds of such mines for the purpose of taxation, as the same have been determined by the department. The county assessor shall immediately enter the same upon a suitable assessment roll, the form of which shall be prescribed by the department.

84-1322. Taxation of gross proceeds from coal. The county assessor shall prepare from the reported gross proceeds from coal a tax roll, which he shall transmit to the county treasurer on or before September 15 each year. The county treasurer shall proceed to give full notice thereof to each coal producer and to collect the taxes due within sixty (60) days after mailing.

History: En. 84-1322 by Sec. 11, Ch. 525, L. 1975.

84-1323. Lien of tax—enforcement of payment. The tax on gross proceeds from coal shall be levied as taxes on other forms of property, and this tax and the severance tax on coal production are each a lien upon the coal mine and a prior lien upon all personal property and improvements used to produce the coal. These taxes may be collected by the seizure and sale of the personal property on which the tax is a lien, as provided under sections 84-4202 through 84-4211, or by suit under sections 84-4301 through 84-4302.

History: En. 84-1323 by Sec. 12, Ch. 525,
L. 1975.

84-1324. Penalties for neglect or false statement. A person who fails, neglects, or refuses to file any statement required under this chapter, or who makes a false statement commits a misdemeanor. A person convicted under this section shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or be imprisoned in the county jail for any term not to exceed six (6) months, or both.

84-1325. Royalties as percentage of value. (1) If the board of land commissioners leases any state lands for coal mining after the effective date of this act with the royalty to the state of Montana stated as a percentage of the value of the coal, the contract shall define value as the contract sales price as defined in section 84-1313.

(2) In any civil action involving a royalty to any person owning coal in this state, in which the royalty is stated as a percentage of the value of the coal, such "value" shall be construed by the court to be the contract sales price as defined in section 84-1313, unless the terms of the contract plainly indicate a different definition of value.

History: En. 84-1325 by Sec. 18, Ch. 525,
L. 1975.

Repealing Clause

Section 19 of Ch. 525, Laws 1975 read
"Sections 84-1301 through 84-1309, 84-1310, and 84-1311, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 14—LICENSE TAXES—COAL RETAILERS

Section

- 84-1402. License taxes to retail coal—fees.
- 84-1403. Retailers to file statements—contents.
- 84-1404. Payment of license taxes.

84-1402. (2328) License taxes to retail coal—fees. Every person who engages in or carries on the occupation or business in this state of retailing, or selling at retail, coal of any kind must, for the year 1921, and each year thereafter when engaged in such occupation or business, pay to the state department of revenue a license tax, for engaging in and carrying on such business, in an amount equal to five cents a ton for each and every ton of coal containing two thousand pounds sold by such person during such year and for the mining of which coal no "mine operator" has paid, or assumed liability for the payment of, any license taxes to the state of Montana under any law of this state.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 3, Ex. L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 2328, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "pay to the state department of revenue a license tax, for engaging in and carrying on such business, in an amount" near the middle of the section for "procure from the state treasurer a license to engage in and carry on such occupations or business in this state, and shall annually pay to the state treasurer for such license a fee of one dollar, together with an additional sum or amount"; substituted "any license taxes" for "any license fee" near the end of the section; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The net operating loss deduction is the aggregate of net operating loss carryovers to such taxable period plus the net operating loss carrybacks to such taxable period. The term "net operating loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by this section, 84-1502, over the gross income, with the modifications specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection. If for any taxable period beginning after December 31, 1970, a net operating loss is sustained, such loss shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three (3) taxable periods preceding the taxable period of such loss and shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five (5) taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the net income for each of the prior taxable periods to which such loss was carried. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the net income for such prior taxable period shall be computed with the modifications specified in paragraph (b) (ii) of this subsection and by determining the amount of the net operating loss deduction without regard to the net operating loss for the loss period or any taxable period thereafter, and the net income so computed shall not be considered to be less than zero.

(b) The modifications referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be as follows:

- (i) No net operating loss deduction shall be allowed.
- (ii) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed under the cost method.
- (c) A net operating loss deduction shall be allowed only with regard to losses attributable to the business carried on within the state of Montana.

(d) In the case of a merger of corporations, the surviving corporation shall not be allowed a net operating loss deduction for net operating losses sustained by the merged corporations prior to the date of merger.

In the case of a consolidation of corporations, the new corporate entity shall not be allowed a deduction for net operating losses sustained by the consolidated corporations prior to the date of consolidation.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 84-1508.1 (c), R. C. M., 1947, interest shall not be paid with respect to a refund of tax resulting from a net operating loss carryback or carryover.

(f) The net operating loss deduction shall not be allowed with respect to taxable periods which ended on or before December 31, 1970, but shall be allowed only with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 1971.

3. In the case of mines, other natural deposits, oil and gas wells, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, such reasonable allowance to be determined according to the provisions of the internal revenue code in effect for the taxable year. All elections made under the internal revenue code with respect to capitalizing or expensing exploration and development costs and intangible drilling expenses for corporation license tax purposes shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes.

4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

5. Interest income from obligations of the state of Montana, or any political subdivision or municipality of the state of Montana.

6. Taxes paid within the year except the following: (a) Taxes imposed by this act.

(b) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed.

(c) Taxes on or according to or measured by net income or profits imposed by authority of the government of the United States.

(d) Taxes imposed by any other state or country upon or measured by net income or profits.

Taxes deductible under this act shall be construed to include taxes imposed by any county, school district or municipality of this state.

84-1503. (2297.1) Segregation of income within and without state.

(1) Any corporation having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state shall allocate and apportion its net income as provided in this section.

(a) A corporation engaged in a unitary business within and without Montana must apportion its business income as provided for under subsection 9 of this section. A business is unitary when the operation of the business within the state is dependent upon or contributory to the operation of the business outside the state or if the units of the business within and without the state are closely allied and not capable of separate maintenance as independent business.

(b) A corporation not engaged in a unitary business must allocate its business income by means of separate accounting methods, provided its books and records are so kept that the income and expenses attributable to business operations within the state can be properly segregated from total income and expense. If the corporation's books and records do not permit such proper segregation, its business income must be apportioned according to the provisions of subsection 9 of this section.

(2) Definitions:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(c) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(d) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(e) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs 4 through 8 of this section.

(f) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(3) For the purposes of allocation and apportionment of income, a corporation is taxable in another state if:

(a) by reason of the corporation's business activities carried on in that state it is subjected to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or

(b) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

(4) Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in paragraphs 5 through 8 of this section.

(5) (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state:

(i) if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state, or

(ii) in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

(6) (a) Capital gains and losses from sales of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if:

(i) the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or

(ii) the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(7) Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(8) (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state:

(i) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state, or

(ii) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state: If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(9) All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3).

(10) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state in the production of business income during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the production of business income during the tax period.

(11) Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. The net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

(12) The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period, but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(13) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation attributable to the production of business income, and the denominator of which is the total amount paid everywhere during the tax period for compensation attributable to the production of business income.

(14) Compensation is paid in this state if:

(a) the individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

(b) the individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(c) some of the service is performed in the state and

(i) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or

(ii) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(15) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

(16) Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) the property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and

(i) the purchaser is the United States government or

(ii) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

(17) Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if:

(a) the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or

(b) the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(18) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting, provided, the taxpayer's activities in this state are separate and distinct from its operations conducted outside this state and are not a part of a unitary business operation conducted within and without this state. For purposes of this section a "unitary business" is one in which the business conducted within the state is dependent upon or contributory to the business conducted outside this state or if the units of the business within and without this state are closely allied and not capable of separate maintenance as independent businesses;

(b) the exclusions of any one (1) or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one (1) or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

(19) The department of revenue shall prescribe regulations to carry out this section and shall publish such regulations and amendments thereto.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "not less than once every three (3) years" for "not less than once a year" after "board shall publish" and inserted "and all changes * * * as they occur" in the second sentence; substituted "may not change * * * or vice versa" for "cannot change from one method of accounting to another method of accounting" in the last sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

The 1974 amendment rewrote this section which read: "If the income of any corporation from sources within the state cannot be properly segregated from income without the state, then, in that event, the amount of the net income returned shall be that proportion of the taxpayer's total net income which the taxpayer's gross business done in the state of Montana bears to the total gross business of the taxpayer, and apportionment shall be made under the rules and regulations prescribed by the state department of revenue, giving consideration to sales, property and payroll and such other factors as may be deemed applicable; provided, however, that the state department of revenue shall, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, determine that the income from sources within the state of Montana may be properly segregated from income from sources without the state of Montana and shall allow separate accounting. The department shall publish not less than once every three (3) years, all rules and regulations and all changes in rules and regulations as they occur pertaining to this section. All decisions by the department under this section shall be subject to judicial review in an action prosecuted by the corporation in the district court of Lewis and Clark county. The taxpayer may not change from apportionment by formula to separate accounting or vice versa without first obtaining permission from the department."

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 5, Laws 1974 read "This act shall apply to all taxable years on and after December 31, 1973, whether on a fiscal or calendar year basis."

84-1504. (2299) Computation of license tax—return of net income to be filed—definitions. (1) The license fee shall be computed on the basis of the corporation's total net income for the taxable period. The corporation's taxable period shall be its taxable year for federal income tax purposes. In the event a corporation changes its taxable year, it shall promptly notify the state department of revenue.

(2) Every corporation, subject to the license fee imposed under this chapter, shall for each taxable period render a true and accurate return of its net income for the taxable period in the manner and form to be prescribed by the state department of revenue, and containing such facts, data and information as are appropriate and in the opinion of the state department of revenue necessary to determine the correctness of the net income returned and to carry out the provisions of this act. The return shall be signed by one (1) of the following: the president, the vice-president, the treasurer, the assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. If the corporation is reporting on a calendar year basis the return shall be filed with the department of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of May following the close of the calendar year, and if reporting on a fiscal year basis the return shall be filed with the department on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of its fiscal year. Upon application a corporation shall be allowed an automatic extension of time for filing its return of one (1) to six (6) months following the date prescribed for filing of its tax return. The application is to be made on such forms as the department of revenue shall prescribe. The department of revenue may grant an additional extension of time for the filing of a return whenever in its judgment good cause exists. The terms "engaged in business" and "doing business" both mean actively engaging in any transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary gain or profit. The term gross income means all income recognized in determining the corporation's gross income for federal income tax purposes; but shall include interest exempt from federal income tax. No corporation is exempt from the corporation license tax unless specifically provided for under section 84-1501. Any corporation not subject to or liable for federal income tax but not exempt from the corporation license tax under section 84-1501 shall compute gross income for corporation license tax purposes in the same manner as a corporation that is subject to or liable for federal income tax according to the provisions for determining gross income in the federal internal revenue code in effect for the taxable year. The term "net income" means the gross income of the corporation less the deductions set forth in section 84-1502.

Operating Loss Deduction

With the exception of the exempt interest exclusion and dividend deduction contained in the Federal Internal Revenue Code, the legislature left intact the interrelation of state corporation licensed gross and net income and federal income tax gross and net income as provided in the Federal Internal Revenue Code; the net operating loss deduction in section 172 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code was allowable in computing a state corporation tax liability. Lazy JD Cattle Co. v. State Board of Equalization, — M —, 504 P 2d 287.

84-1505. (2300) Assessment and collection of tax. (1) Assessment and payment of tax, penalty and interest. All taxpayers shall compute the amount of tax payable under this act and shall remit such amount to the state department of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable period. If the tax is not paid on or before the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tax, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. If any tax due under this chapter is not paid when due, by reason of extension granted, or otherwise, interest shall be added thereto at the rate of nine per cent (9%) per annum from the due date until paid.

(2) Levy upon and sale of property for payment of corporation licenses taxes. If any tax imposed by this act or any portion of such tax is not paid within sixty (60) days after the same becomes due, the department shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the corporation owning the same, found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the department and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not more than sixty (60) days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall within five (5) days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the district court of his county a copy thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns, the amount of the tax or portion thereof and penalties for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed, and thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in real property or chattels real of the corporation against whom it is levied in the same manner as a judgment docketed in the office of such clerk. The said sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. In the discretion of the department a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any agent authorized to collect income taxes, and in the execution thereof, such agent shall have the powers conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant be returned not satisfied in full, the department shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for taxes against the taxpayer as if the people of the state had recovered judgment against the taxpayer for the amount of the tax.

(3) Action by attorney general. Action may be brought at any time by the attorney general of the state at the instance of the department, in the name of the state to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties and interest due under this act.

M. 1947, when it finds that the liability for the amount of tax assessed, together with all penalties and interest in respect thereof has been fully satisfied. The state department of revenue may issue a certificate of release if it determines that the lien is unenforceable.

(2) The state department of revenue may issue a certificate of discharge of any part of the property subject to any lien imposed with respect to any tax due under Title 84, chapter 15, R. C. M. 1947, if:

(b) There is paid to the state treasurer in part satisfaction of the liability secured by the lien, an amount which shall not be less than the value, as determined by the state department of revenue, of the interest of the state of Montana in the part to be discharged; or

(c) The state department of revenue determines at any time that the interest of the state of Montana in the part to be so discharged has no value.

penalty and accrued interest. In the case of a tax for a current period, the board may declare the taxable period of the taxpayer immediately terminated, and shall mail or issue notice of its findings to the taxpayer together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated. Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

84-1507. (2302) Returns and corrections to be public records. When the assessment shall be made as provided in this act, the returns, together with any corrections thereof which may have been made by the state department of revenue, shall be filed in the office of said department, and shall constitute public records and be open to inspection as such only upon the order of the governor, and under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the state department of revenue.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 79, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 2302, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 146, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 59, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in three places.

84-1508. (2303) Regulations—attendance of witnesses—arbitrary assignment of net income. The state department of revenue shall have power to prescribe forms for the returns and notices and such other regulations as may from time to time be found necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the district court of the first judicial district of the state of Montana, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, to compel attendance of witnesses to testify before the state department of revenue, together with the production of books and such other testimony by appropriate process. When the state department of revenue has reason to believe that the business of any corporation is so conducted as either directly or indirectly to distort the true net income of the corporation and the net income properly attributable to this state, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income through price fixing, charges for service, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another corporation carrying on business under a substantially common control, it may require the disclosure of such facts as it deems necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to this state, and in determining the same, the department shall have regard to the fair profits which would normally arise from the conduct of the business.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 79, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 2303, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 146, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 166, L. 1933; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 186, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 60, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in four places.

84-1508.1. Determination of tax liability—interest on deficiencies and overpayments. (a) Deficiency assessments. If, the state department of revenue determines that the amount of tax due is greater than the amount disclosed by the return, it shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of the additional tax proposed to be assessed. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of the notice, the taxpayer may file with the state department of revenue a written protest against the proposed additional tax, setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is based, and may request in its protest an oral hearing or an opportunity to present additional evidence relating to its tax liability. If no protest is filed, the amount of the additional tax proposed to be assessed becomes final upon the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. If such protest is filed, the state department of revenue shall reconsider the proposed assessment, and if the taxpayer has so requested, shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence presented in the event of an oral hearing, the state department of revenue's action upon the protest is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

When a deficiency is determined and the tax becomes final, the state department of revenue shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and the tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten (10) days from the date of such notice and demand. Interest on any deficiency assessment shall bear interest from the date specified in section 84-1505 for payment of the tax. A certificate by the state department of revenue of the mailing of the notices specified in this subsection shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of the notices.

(b) Overpayment of tax—refunds and credits. If the state department of revenue determines that the amount of tax, penalty or interest due for any year is less than the amount paid, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any tax, penalty or interest then due from the taxpayer and the balance refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger or consolidation, or to its shareholders upon dissolution.

If the state department of revenue disallows any claim for refund, it shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice, the state department of revenue's action shall become final, unless within the said thirty (30) day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of said department to the state tax appeal board. If such appeal is made, the state tax appeal board shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the appeal and evidence presented, the state tax appeal board shall forthwith mail notice to the taxpayer of its determination. The board's determination is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided for, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the department of revenue approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. Interest shall not accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state department of revenue for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (1) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or from the date the return is filed, whichever is later; or (2) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00).

A payment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual corporation license tax liability or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the state department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization, except that in the second paragraph of subsection (b), it substituted references to the state tax appeal board for references to the state board of equalization; deleted "shall reconsider its action, and if the taxpayer has so requested" following "If such appeal is made, the state tax appeal board" in the third sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (b) and deleted "in the event of an oral hearing" following "appeal and evidence presented" in the fourth sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (b).

84-1508.2. Periods of limitation—limitations for notification of additional tax extended if taxpayer fails to report change in federal tax—waiver. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section and in section 84-1513, R. C. M. 1947, no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which a return is filed unless the notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed is mailed within five (5) years from the date the return was filed. For the purposes of this section a return filed before the last day prescribed for filing shall be considered as filed on such last day. Where before the expiration of the period prescribed for assessment of the tax, the taxpayer consents in writing to an assessment after the time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The limitations prescribed for giving notice of a proposed assessment of additional tax shall not apply when

(a) the taxpayer has by written agreement suspended the federal statute of limitations for collection of federal tax, provided the suspension of the limitation set forth in this section shall last only so long as

(i) the suspension of the federal statute of limitation, or

(ii) until one (1) year after any federal changes have become final or any amended federal return is filed as a result of such suspension of the federal statute, whichever is the latest in time, or

(b) when a taxpayer has failed to file a report of changes in federal taxable income or an amended return as required by section 84-1517, R. C. M. 1947, until five (5) years after the federal changes become final or the amended federal return was filed, whichever the case may be.

(2) No refund or credit shall be allowed or paid with respect to the year for which a return is filed after five (5) years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after one (1) year from the date of the overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period the taxpayer files a claim therefor or the state department of revenue has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. If the taxpayer has agreed in writing under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section to extend the time within which the state department of revenue may propose an additional assessment, the period within which a claim for refund or credit may be filed, or a credit or refund allowed in the event no claim is filed, shall automatically be so extended.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "in this section and in section 84-1513, R. C. M. 1947" for "in section 84-1513" in the first sentence of the section; substituted "such last day" for "that day" at the end of the second sentence; and added the provision designated as subdivision (1) (b).

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" twice in subsection (2).

The 1974 amendment inserted the provision designated as subdivision (1)(a) and inserted the subdivision designation (1)(b).

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 101, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 11, 1974.

84-1509. (2303.1) Consolidated returns—computation and procedure on. (1) Corporations which are affiliated may not file a consolidated return unless at least eighty per cent (80%) of all classes of stock of each corporation involved is owned directly or indirectly by one (1) or more members of the affiliated group.

(2) Corporations may not file a consolidated return unless the operation of the affiliated group constitutes a unitary business and permission to file a consolidated return is given by the state department of revenue. For purposes of this section, a "unitary business operation" means one in which the business operations conducted by the corporations in the affiliated group are interrelated or interdependent to the extent that the net income of one corporation cannot reasonably be determined without reference to the operations conducted by the other corporations.

(3) If the conditions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section are met, the state department of revenue may require corporations to file a consolidated return when the department considers a consolidated return necessary.

(4) Any corporation liable to report under this act and owning, or controlling, either directly or indirectly, at least eighty per cent (80%) of all classes of stock of each corporation involved, may be required to make a consolidated report showing the combined net income[,] such assets of the corporation as are required for the purposes of this act, and such other information as the state department of revenue may require, but excluding intercorporate stockholdings and intercorporate accounts. Any corporation liable to report under this act and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation may be required to make a report consolidated with the owning company, showing the combined net income, such assets of the corporation as are required for the purposes of this act, and such other information as the state department of revenue may require, but excluding intercorporate stockholdings and intercorporate accounts. In case it shall appear to the state department of revenue that any arrangement exists in such a manner as to improperly reflect the business done, the segregable assets or the entire net income earned from business done in this state, the state department of revenue is authorized and empowered, in such manner as it may determine, to equitably adjust the tax.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in subsections (2), (3) and (4).

84-1511. (2303.3) Return and payment of tax by corporations, etc.

Sale of Assets in Liquidation

Directors and trustees in liquidation of a liquidated corporation were entitled to a refund of that portion of the corporate license tax paid upon the gain realized by the corporation in the sale of its assets in liquidation. Barth v. Montana State Board of Equalization, 148 M 259, 419 P 2d 484, 485.

84-1512. (2303.4) Where omission deemed committed—certificate of department as evidence. The failure to do any act, required by or under the provisions of this act, shall be deemed an act committed in the office of the state department of revenue in the state capitol building, in Helena, Montana. The certificates of the state department of revenue to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such return has not been filed, or that such information has not been supplied.

partment of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the first sentence and near the beginning of the second sentence.

84-1514. (2303.6) Delinquency — suspension — forfeiture — dissolution. If a tax computed and levied hereunder is not paid or if a return is not filed before five o'clock P. M. on the last day of the eleventh month after the date of delinquency the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer, if it be a domestic corporation, shall be suspended, and if the delinquent taxpayer be a foreign corporation it shall thereupon forfeit its rights to do intrastate business in this state. Provided that, if any domestic corporation shall fail, for a period of five consecutive years, to either file a return or to pay the corporation license tax, the state department of revenue shall notify such corporation by mail addressed to the latest address on file in its office that such corporation will become dissolved if it fails to file all delinquent reports and pay all delinquent corporation license taxes within a period of sixty (60) days from and after the mailing of such notice, and, if such delinquent reports are not made and all delinquent corporation licenses are not paid before the expiration of said sixty (60) day period, the state department of revenue shall certify this fact to the secretary of state and upon receipt of such certificate, the said corporation shall be dissolved and the secretary of state shall indicate, by his records, such dissolution.

The state department of revenue shall transmit the name of each such corporation to the secretary of state, who shall immediately record the same in such manner that it may be available to the public. The suspension, forfeiture or dissolution herein provided for shall become effective immediately such record is made, and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be conclusive evidence of such suspension, forfeiture or dissolution.

partment of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning and end of the second sentence of the first paragraph and at the beginning of the second paragraph.

84-1515. (2303.7) Reviver of corporation after suspension or forfeiture.

Any corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture referred to in the preceding section may be relieved therefrom upon making application therefor in writing supported by a certificate from the state department of revenue showing that the required return has been made and filed and/or that the tax and interest and penalties have been paid, for which the suspension or forfeiture occurred. Application for reviver may be made by any stockholder or creditor of the corporation or by a majority of the surviving trustees or directors, and the same shall be filed with the secretary of state, for which he shall receive a filing and recording fee of five dollars ($5). In case the application is made more than one (1) year from the date the suspension or forfeiture occurred the applicant shall pay twice the amount of the tax and penalties due the state for the taxable year with respect to which the suspension or forfeiture occurred, and upon such payment the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of reviver for which he shall collect a fee of five dollars ($5) and thereupon the applicant shall be revived. The reviver shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of the original suspension or forfeiture. The certificate of reviver shall be prima facie evidence of the reviver. Any certificate of reviver provided for in this section may be recorded in the office of the county recorder in any county of this state.

Section 7, Ch. 473, Laws of 1975 provided: "If House Bill No. 198 and this bill are each enacted into law in 1975, it is the intent of the legislature that section 2 of this act controls the taxation of liquid petroleum gas under section 84-1832.1." This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 473 and once by Ch. 514. Section 7 of Ch. 473 stated that if both laws were enacted, the intent of the legislature was that Ch. 473 would control with respect to conflicting amendments relating to taxation of liquid petroleum gas. The compiler has made a composite section which reflects this intent.

(h) Revocation, suspension, cancellation and surrender of license and permit: The department may revoke the license of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user or any special fuel vehicle permit for reasonable cause. Before revoking such license or permit, the department shall notify the licensee or permittee of its intention so to do, by either certified or registered mail, addressed to his last known address shown in the files of the department, requiring him to appear before the department on a day and hour specified in such notice, not more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from date of such notice, and show cause, if any he has, why the license or the permit, or each of them, should not be revoked; provided, however, that at any time prior to and pending such hearing the department may, in the exercise of reasonable discretion, suspend such license or permit.

Upon revocation by the department of any such license or permit, the holder thereof shall immediately surrender the same to the department for cancellation; and the holder of any such permit, having permanently discontinued the use of any vehicle for which the permit was issued, for whatever reason, shall immediately surrender the same to the department for cancellation.

The department shall cancel any license to act as a special fuel dealer or a special fuel user or any special fuel vehicle permit immediately upon surrender thereof by the holder.

The department shall promptly upon receiving any such request, notify the special fuel dealer or special fuel user who furnished the bond, and unless the special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall, on or before the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, file a new bond, in accordance with the requirements of this section, or make a deposit in lieu thereof as provided in section 84-1831 (i), the department forthwith shall cancel the special fuel dealer's or special fuel user's license.

(j) Additional bond or deposit: The department may require a special fuel dealer or special fuel user to give a new or additional surety bond or to deposit additional securities of the character specified in section 84-1831 (i), if, in its opinion, the security of the surety bond theretofore filed by such special fuel dealer or special fuel user, or the market value of the properties deposited as security by such special fuel dealer or special fuel user, shall become impaired or inadequate; and upon failure of the special fuel dealer or special fuel user to give such new additional surety bond or to deposit additional securities within thirty (30) days after being requested so to do by the department, said department forthwith shall cancel his license.

(k) All special fuel taxes due from any dealer or user under the provisions of this act, together with all penalties and interest thereon shall be a lien upon any and all property of such dealer, user or other person upon the filing by the state department of revenue of a duplicate copy of the statement so made by the state department of revenue, or a certified copy of any statement filed by said department in the office of the county clerk of the county where such property is situated which lien shall have precedence over any other claim, lien or demand thereafter

Chapter 12, Laws of 1971, substituted section "84-1832.1" for "84-1932.1" in the second paragraph of subsection (d), thus correcting the citation to a tax on certain special fuel users.

Chapter 277, Laws of 1971, added the third paragraph to subsection (a); added "unless otherwise provided herein" at the end of subsection (b); inserted "Except as herein provided" at the beginning of the first paragraph of subsection (d); inserted "resident" before "special fuel user" in the second sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (d); substituted "the tax as herein provided is not delinquent or that interest or penalties are not accrued" for "no tax, interest or penalties are accrued" in the second sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (d); and made minor changes in punctuation and style.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" twice near the end of subsection (a).

84-1835. Returns and payments. (a) Returns: For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed, each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file with the department, on forms prescribed by said department, a monthly tax return.

Such user shall make an annual report and return to the department, on forms prescribed by said department on or before the 25th day of January of each year hereafter. Should the department determine that a user filing annual returns as herein provided is delinquent in making reports and payments, it shall require such person to file monthly returns as herein provided. Such return, annual or monthly, shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declarations shall have the same force and effect as a verification. The return shall show such information as the department may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this act; provided, however, that if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the monthly return to the department need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made. The special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file the return on or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the next succeeding calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates; provided, however, that for good cause the department may grant a taxpayer a reasonable extension of time for filing, but not to exceed thirty (30) days.

Any claim, statement, remittance, or other document which is transmitted to this state through the United States mail, shall be deemed filed and received by this state on the date shown by the post office cancellation mark stamped upon the envelope or other appropriate wrapper containing it. Any claim, statement, remittance or other document which is mailed but not received by this state or where received with a cancellation mark that is illegible, erroneous, or omitted, shall be deemed filed and received on the date mailed if the sender establishes by competent evidence that the claim, statement, remittance, or other document was deposited in the United States mail on or before the date due for filing. In cases of such nonreceipt of a claim, statement, remittance, or other document, the sender must file with the state a duplicate within thirty (30) days after written notification is given to the sender by the state of its nonreceipt of such claim, statement, remittance, or other document.

If any claim, statement, remittance or other document is sent by United States registered mail, certified mail or certificate of mailing, a record authenticated by the United States Post Office of such registration, certification or certificate shall be considered competent evidence that the report, claim, tax return, statement, remittance or other document was mailed to the addressee, and the date of registration, certification or certificate shall be deemed the postmarked date.

If the final filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the next secular or business day shall be the final filing date. Such reports shall be considered filed or received on the date or as provided in this chapter.

(d) Refusal or failure to file return or pay tax when due: In case of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user who refuses or fails to file a return required by this act within the time prescribed by subsection (a) of this section, there is hereby imposed a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) or a sum equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the tax due, whichever is greater, together with interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) on the tax due, for each calendar month or fraction thereof during which such refusal or failure continues; provided, however, that if any such special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall establish to the satisfaction of the department that his failure to file a return within the time prescribed was due to reasonable cause, the department shall waive the penalty provided by this subsection.

(f) Deficiency: If it be determined by the department that the tax reported by any special fuel dealer or special fuel user is deficient, it shall proceed to assess the deficiency on the basis of information available to it and there shall be added to this deficiency interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month or fraction thereof from the date the return was due.

(g) Determination if no return made: If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user, whether or not he is licensed as such, fails, neglects, or refuses to file a special fuel tax return when due, the department shall, on the basis of information available, to it, determine the tax liability of the special fuel dealer or special fuel user for the period during which no return was filed, and to the tax as thus determined, the department shall add the penalty and interest provided in subsection (d) above.

An assessment made by the department pursuant to this subsection or to subsection (f) of this section shall be presumed to be correct, and in any case where the validity of the assessment is drawn in question, the burden shall be on the person who challenges the assessment to establish by a fair preponderance of the evidence that it is erroneous or excessive as the case may be.

(h) Fraudulent return: If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax imposed by this act, there shall be added to the amount of deficiency determined by the department a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the deficiency together with interest at one per cent (1%) per month, or fraction thereof, on such deficiency from the date such tax was due to the date of payment, in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law.

Compiler's Notes

Section 7, Ch. 473, Laws of 1975 provided: "If House Bill No. 198 and this bill are each enacted into law in 1975, it is the intent of the legislature that section 2 of this act controls the taxation of liquid petroleum gas under section 84-1832.1." House

Bill No. 198 was enacted and is in section 84-1840.

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 30 and once by Ch. 514. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

The 1967 amendment added subdivisions (1) through (7).

The 1969 amendment substituted "The lesser of the following amounts" at the beginning of subdivision (1) for "One million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000)"; inserted "maintenance" after "reconstruction" in the first paragraph of subdivision (1); inserted at the end of the first paragraph of subdivision (1) clauses reading "(i) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) or (ii) Sixty-six per cent (66%) of the amount of state matching funds saved under the provisions of clause B of section 120 (a) of Title 23, United States Code, but not less than one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000)"; inserted after clauses (i) and (ii) in subdivision (1) a paragraph reading "In any fiscal year when the amount of funds allocated to the counties and incorporated cities and towns under subsection (1) (ii) does not equal three million dollars ($3,000,000) the difference between the three million dollars ($3,000,000) and the funds allocated for that year shall carry forward and be allocated to the counties and incorporated cities and towns in subsequent fiscal years"; substituted "Forty per cent (40%)" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(a) for "Six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000)"; substituted "Sixty per cent (60%)" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(b) for "Nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000)"; inserted "exclusive of the federal-aid interstate system and the federal-aid primary system" in two places in subdivision (1)(b)(ii); inserted "maintenance" after "reconstruction" in subdivisions (2) and (4); added "with the exception that five per cent (5%) of the funds allocated each fiscal year to any county, incorporated city and town or seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), whichever amount is greater, may be expended for maintenance of rural roads and city or town streets without being submitted to bid" to the end of subdivision (4); added subdivision (8); and made minor changes in phraseology.

July 1, 1971, the total amount of funds allocated each fiscal year in section 2 (a)(1) to the counties and incorporated cities and towns shall reduce to one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000)."

The 1973 amendment substituted "Three million dollars ($3,000,000)" at the beginning of subdivision (1) for the language substituted there by the 1969 amendment; deleted the clauses (i) and (ii) and the paragraph inserted in subdivision (1) by the 1969 amendment; substituted "One million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000)" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(a) for "Forty per cent (40%)" ; substituted "One million eight hundred thousand dollars ($1,800,000)" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(b) for "Sixty per cent (60%)" ; increased from 10% to 50% the portion of allocated funds expendable for maintenance and repairs authorized by the proviso to subdivision (2); and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1974 amendment substituted "department of highways" for "state highway department" and added the exception at the end of the first sentence of the section; deleted the proviso added at the end of subsection (2) in 1971 which read: "provided that not more than fifty per cent (50%) or one thousand dollars ($1,000), whichever amount is greater, of the funds allocated each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year starting July 1, 1971, to any county, incorporated city and town may be expended for maintenance and repair of rural roads of city or town streets"; rewrote subdivision (3) which read: "Upon receipt of the allocation provided herein, the county commissioners, in the case of counties, or the governing body, in the case of incorporated cities or towns, shall propose the expenditure of said funds to the state highway commission. The commission may consult with the county commissioners or the governing body proposing expenditures before approving the same provided, however, that before any contract for the expenditure of funds provided herein shall be let, an agreement covering the same shall be executed by both the proposing body and the state highway commission"; rewrote subdivision (4) which read: "All construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair authorized herein shall be pursuant to the design and subject to the supervision of the state highway commission, and all funds hereby allocated to counties, cities and towns shall be disbursed by the state highway commission to the lowest responsible bidder according to the bidding procedures specified in chapter 41, Title 32 of this code except that not more than seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) of the funds allocated each fiscal year to any county, incorporated city and town may be expended without being submitted to bids"; deleted subdivision (5) which read: "The state highway commission shall make and establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent of the act and shall keep records of the funds allocated to each city or town, and the subsequent expenditure of said funds"; redesignated subdivisions (6), (7), and (8) as subdivisions (5), (6), and (7); substituted "furnish to the department of highways and state treasurer" for "furnish to the state highway commission" in the first sentence of subdivision (6); and substituted "department of highways" for "state highway commission" at the end of subdivision (6).

Section 3 of Ch. 384, Laws 1971 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

able and if any of its sections, provisions, exceptions, sentences, clauses, phrases or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect."

Section 4 of Ch. 355, Laws 1969 read "The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its sections, provisions, exceptions, sentences, clauses, phrases or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect."

Allocation of Overhead Costs

City has general budgetary authority in financing construction of city shop complex and has implied power to allocate proportionate share of costs among the various city departments using the facility. Greener v. City of Great Falls, 157 M 376, 485 P 2d 932.

Funds from Sources other than Gasoline Tax

Prohibition against expenditure of gasoline tax revenues for nonhighway purposes has no application to street funds derived from other sources; thus proceeds of levy under another statute could be committed to finance proportionate share of construction costs of city shop complex to be used by various city departments. Greener v. City of Great Falls, 157 M 376, 485 P 2d 932.

84-1840.1. Allocation of funds—participation in railroad grade crossing protection on public highways, roads or streets, other than those designated on the interstate, primary or urban system. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be allocated from the earmarked revenue fund, state highway account for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, and so much for each succeeding fiscal year as may be necessary to reimburse the fund for expenditures and commitments made and to maintain the fund at one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, for participation by the department of highways with railroads in construction of railroad grade crossing protection on any public highway or road, except those designated on the interstate, primary or urban systems, within the state of Montana. The department of highways shall select those grade crossings in the state which in the opinion of the department are most in need of additional crossing protection and shall finance the cost thereof solely from this fund. Signal protection provided under the fund shall be limited to electric or automatic flashing lights or gates depending on the amount and nature of the hazards present at the crossing and participation in construction of such signals shall be on the same basis and under the same standards as are applicable and used in connection with protection of grade crossings on federal-aid roads within the state, provided, however, the fund shall not be used for protection of grade crossings on the secondary system where the protection is considered necessary and the cost thereof is financed in part with federal-aid highway funds. The department, or its authorized representative is hereby empowered to examine the books, papers, records and equipment of any gasoline distributor or any person dealing in, transporting, or storing gasoline as defined in this act and to investigate the character of the disposition which any person makes of such gasoline in order to ascertain and determine whether all excise taxes due hereunder are being properly reported and paid. If such books, papers, records and equipment are not maintained in this state at the time of demand they shall be furnished to the department for review or such dealer shall bear the reasonable cost of examination by an agent authorized or designated by the department at the place where such books or records are kept, provided the taxpayer shall not be liable for such costs for a period exceeding one (1) week or for such longer period as he may consent to in writing, unless the result of such examination is the payment of a tax deficiency.

84-1855. Refund of gasoline license tax—procedure. (1) Any person who shall purchase and use any gasoline, on which the Montana gasoline license tax has been paid, for operating or propelling stationary gasoline engines, tractors used off the public highways and streets, motorboats, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any commercial use other than propelling vehicles upon any of the public highways or streets of this state, shall be allowed a refund of the amount of tax paid directly or indirectly on the gasoline so used. Provided, that such refund or drawback should in no instance exceed the tax paid or to be paid, to the state of Montana [, and no refund shall be allowed of that portion of the tax per gallon upon aviation gasoline allocated to the board of aeronautics by section 1-501, R. C. M. 1947].

Any distributor paying the gasoline license tax to this state erroneously shall be allowed a credit or refund of the amount of tax so paid.

(2) The application for refund shall be a signed statement on a form furnished by the department, accompanied by the original invoice or invoices issued to the claimant at the time of purchase and delivery, showing the total amount of gasoline purchased, the total amount of gasoline on which a refund is claimed, and the amount of the tax claimed for refund. Such further information pertaining to such claim shall be furnished as required by the department, provided that gallons of gasoline used off the roadways, where not verifiable by records of actual use, may be estimated by the applicant according to the following schedule:

(a) on the first one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, forty-five per cent (45%) of gasoline purchased.

(b) on the next one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, sixty per cent (60%) of gasoline purchased.

(c) on the next one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, sixty-five per cent (65%) of gasoline purchased.

(d) on any gasoline purchased in excess of three thousand (3,000) gallons, seventy per cent (70%) of gasoline purchased.

If any invoice is either lost or destroyed, the purchaser may support his claim for refund by submitting an affidavit relating the circumstances of such loss or destruction and by producing such other evidence as may be required by the department.

(3) Any applicant who does not elect to estimate the off-highway use of gasoline according to the schedule in subsection (2) shall maintain records as provided for in this subsection.

(a) Highway and off-highway use of gasoline from common storage. Gasoline purchased and delivered into bulk storage for use in motor vehicles on public roads and nonhighway use must be fully accounted for by detail withdrawal records to accurately show the manner in which used. Gasoline on hand, determined by actual measurement, shall be deducted from a claim and shall be reported as an opening inventory on the next claim. Credit for the inventory is allowed on the next claim if filed within fourteen (14) months from the filing date of the claim which established the inventory.

(b) Highway and off-highway use of gasoline from separate storage. If separate storage tanks are maintained for highway use and off-highway use, the bulk purchase invoices shall be so marked by the dealer at the time of delivery. No further record is required, provided that no gasoline is withdrawn from the off-highway tank for licensed vehicles. Withdrawal of gasoline from the off-highway tank for licensed vehicles will invalidate this method of determining refundable gallonage.

(c) Use of gasoline from restricted use storage. Special storage facilities in the woods, or in farm fields, or for other uses for certain periods, must be identified and explained. If such storage is used entirely for off-highway purposes and is not used in licensed vehicles, no records will be required other than purchase invoices showing the delivery into such storage.

(d) Gasoline purchased for other than bulk storage. Fuel purchased in small containers for nonhighway use must be identified on the purchase invoice and no further record is required.

(e) Resellers. Service stations, bulk dealers and marinas must prepare a separate and complete invoice for each withdrawal of gasoline for own use upon which a refund is to be claimed.

(f) Proof of highway use. When no highway use of gasoline is deducted from the claim, the applicant must substantiate purchases of gasoline and miles traveled for licensed motor vehicles upon request of the department.

(g) Any person who operates a licensed motor vehicle on and off the public roads for commercial purposes may claim refund of the state license tax on the gasoline used to operate the vehicle on roads or property in private ownership, if such person has maintained the following records:

(i) the total number of highway miles operated by each licensed motor vehicle, including private passenger cars;

(ii) total gallons of gasoline used in each vehicle to include both refund and nonrefund use;

(iii) purchase invoices supporting all gasoline handled through bulk storage, as well as all fuels purchased at service stations or received from other sources. Highway use for each vehicle may be determined by actual measurement, or may be computed by dividing the average miles per gallon highway operation consumption rate into the number of highway miles operated.

(4) All applications for refunds shall be filed with the department of revenue within fourteen (14) months after the date on which the gasoline was purchased as shown by invoices or after the date on which the tax was erroneously paid. Provided, however, that a distributor may file a claim for refund of taxes erroneously paid within three (3) years after the date of such erroneous payment. The department shall have one hundred twenty (120) days after receiving the claim to approve or reject

it. If approved, the department shall issue a credit in lieu of refund for the amount of the claim, if the claimant is a distributor. For all other persons, a warrant shall be drawn upon the state treasurer for the amount of the claim.

(5) Should the department of revenue find that the statement contains errors which are not fraudulently inserted, it may correct the statement and approve it as corrected, or the department may require the claimant to file an amended statement. If the state department of revenue determines that any claim has been fraudulently presented or is supported by invoice or invoices fraudulently made or altered or that any statement in the claim or affidavit is willfully false and made for the purpose of misleading, the department may reject such claim in full. If a claim is rejected, the department may suspend claimant's right to refund for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

(6) Any person, other than a licensed distributor, shall obtain a license from the state department of revenue prior to selling gasoline on which a refund may be claimed. The application for license shall contain the applicant's name, address, place or places of business in the state of Montana, and other information which may be required by the department. Licenses issued shall bear a license number and the date of issuance. The department shall keep a record of all licenses issued, canceled, or suspended. A nontransferable license shall be issued for three (3) years upon payment of a fee of three dollars ($3). Licenses must be renewed and the fee paid every three (3) years from date of issuance.

Any person failing to comply with this subsection shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not less than ten (10) days or more than sixty (60) days, or both fine and imprisonment.

Motorboat Fuel

Under prior law which did not provide for tax refund for gasoline used in motorboats, one who consumed gasoline in motorboat in off-highway use was not entitled to refund on basis of due process and equal protection clauses of constitution, since dealer, rather than the consumer, is the taxpayer, and since consumer, as a boat user, was not proper party to represent all nonhighway users. Harvey v. Blewett, 151 M 427, 443 P 2d 902.

84-1855.1. Unlawful use of aviation gasoline. It shall be unlawful for any person to use aviation gasoline, or to sell such gasoline for use, in any motorized vehicle operated upon the public highways or streets of this state. Violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor subject to the penalties provided in section 84-1859, R. C. M. 1947.

Any claim, statement, remittance, or other document which is mailed but not received by this state or where received with a cancellation mark that is illegible, erroneous, or omitted, shall be deemed filed and received on the date mailed if the sender establishes by competent evidence that the claim, statement, remittance, or other document was deposited in the United States mail on or before the date due for filing. In cases of such nonreceipt of a claim, statement, remittance, or other document, the sender must file with the state a duplicate within thirty (30) days after written notification is

If any claim, statement, remittance, or other document is sent by United States registered mail, certified mail or certificate of mailing, a record authenticated by the United States post office of such registration, certification or certificate shall be considered competent evidence that the report, claim, tax return, statement, remittance or other document was mailed to the addressee, and the date of registration, certification or certificate shall be deemed the postmarked date.

Any license tax not paid within the time provided shall be delinquent and a penalty of ten per cent (10%) shall be added to the tax and the tax shall bear interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date of delinquency until paid. Upon a showing of good cause by the distributor, the department may waive penalty.

If any distributor or other person subject to the payment of such license tax shall willfully fail, neglect, or refuse to make any statement required by this act, or shall willfully fail to make payment of such license tax within the time provided, the state department of revenue shall be authorized to revoke any license issued under this act. In addition, the department shall inform itself regarding the matters required to be in such statement and determine the amount of the license tax due the state from such distributor, and shall add thereto a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) or ten per cent (10%) thereof, whichever is greater, together with interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date such statements should have been made and said license tax paid.

All license taxes, penalties and interest due from any distributor under the provisions of this act, shall be a lien upon any and all property of such distributor or other person upon the filing by the state department of revenue of a copy of its statement, or a certified copy of any statement filed with the department, in the office of the county clerk of the county where the distributor's property is situated. The lien shall have precedence over any other claim, lien or demand filed or recorded thereafter. The lien may be enforced in the name of this state in the same manner as judgment liens are enforced. No action shall be maintained to enjoin the collection of all or any part of the license tax. When the amount due is paid in full before the entry of foreclosure decree, the state treasurer shall release the lien by filing in the office of the county clerk where the lien was filed, a written release. At any time prior to the payment of said taxes, penalty and interest, before the entry of foreclosure decree, the state treasurer may release from the operation of the lien a part of the distributor's property to enable the distributor to mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of it in order to procure funds to pay taxes, penalty and interest, provided there remains, in the judgment of the state treasurer, sufficient property subject to the lien to ensure the payment of all the unpaid taxes, penalty and interest.

(a) Two and one-tenth per cent (2.1%) of the total gross value of that portion of all the petroleum and other mineral or crude oil produced by such person from each lease or unit in the calendar quarter not in excess of an amount obtained by multiplying the number of producing wells on such lease or unit by four hundred fifty (450) barrels.

Compiler's Notes

Section 2 of Ch. 412, Laws 1975 read "If a bill to amend section 84-2202 to tax the production of natural gas is enacted in 1975, it is the intention of the legislature that this act applies to natural gas production as well as oil production."

Section 3 of Ch. 412, Laws 1975 read "Nothing in this act may be construed to impair obligations under contracts in force as of the effective date of this act, if such construction would violate the United States constitution."

This section was amended three times in 1975, once by Ch. 245, once by Ch. 262 and once by Ch. 412. None of the amendatory acts mentioned the others except section 2, Ch. 412, wherein it was stated that if a bill to amend this section to tax the production of natural gas is enacted in 1975, it is the intention of the legislature that Ch. 412 applies to natural gas production. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by all three amendments.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "two and one-tenths per cent (2.1%)" for "two per cent" in subdivision (a) and "two and sixty-five hundredths per cent (2.65%)" for "two and one-half per cent" in subdivision (b); and added subdivision (c), now subdivision (d).

Chapter 245, Laws of 1975, inserted "or natural gas" after "crude oil" throughout the section; substituted "severance tax" for "license tax" in the first paragraph and in subdivision (b); inserted subdivision (c) and redesignated former subdivision (c) as (d); and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

Chapter 262, Laws of 1975, substituted "department of revenue" for "state treasurer" in the first paragraph.

Chapter 412, Laws of 1975, substituted the language at the end of subdivision (d) beginning with "except that any of the aforesaid . . ." for "in all leases establishing royalty interests entered into hereafter or in renewals of existing leases, or in division of proceeds orders, or by other contracts, such other owner or owners may agree with every person required to pay such tax that such other owner or owners will pay their prorata share of said tax, and that said prorata share may be deducted from any settlements under said lease or leases or division of proceeds orders or other contracts."

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 359, Laws 1969 read "This act is effective for all taxable years commencing after December 31, 1968."

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 245 and once by Ch. 262. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the section.

Chapter 245, Laws of 1975 substituted "Such severance tax" for "Such license tax" at the beginning of the section; and deleted "license" before "tax for each quarterly period" in the middle of the section.

Chapter 262, Laws of 1975 substituted "within sixty (60) days" for "within thirty (30) days."

84-2204. (2400) Determination of gross value of product. The total gross value of all petroleum, and other mineral or crude oil or natural gas produced each year shall be determined by taking the total number of barrels or cubic feet thereof produced each month during such year at the average value at the mouth of the well during the month the same is produced, as determined by the state department of revenue; provided, however, that in computing the total number of barrels of petroleum, and other mineral or crude oil or cubic feet of gas produced, there shall be deducted therefrom so much thereof as is used by such person in connection with the operation of the well from which said oil or gas is produced or for pumping said petroleum or other mineral or crude oil or gas from the said well to a tank or pipeline.

Upon the filing of such complaint the registrar shall investigate the charge and within sixty days after the filing of such complaint shall render and file said registrar's decision with said registrar's reasons therefor. If the registrar's decision be that the licensee has been guilty of any of such acts or omissions, said registrar shall suspend the contractor's license. In the order granting or denying such rehearing the registrar shall set forth a statement of the particular grounds and reasons for said registrar's actions on such petition and shall mail a copy of such order to the parties who have appeared in

If a rehearing be granted, the registrar shall set the matter for further hearing on due notice to the parties, and within thirty days after submission of the matter, serve said registrar's decision after rehearing in like manner as an original decision.

The filing of such petition for rehearing as to the registrar's actions in suspending or canceling such license shall suspend the operation of such action and permit the licensee to continue to do business as a public contractor pending final determination of the controversy.

Within thirty days after the decision on rehearing, any party aggrieved by such decision of the registrar may appeal therefrom to the district court in and for the county in which the licensee under this act resides or does business as a public contractor, by serving upon the registrar a notice of such appeal. Title of Act

An act providing for additional public contractors' license fees for all public construction work in Montana, defining terms, prescribing method of collection and disposition of fees, allowing a credit on corporation or income tax and personal property taxes paid in Montana by licensees on personal property used in licensees' contracting business, providing a penalty and an effective date; amending

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in three places.

Constitutionality

This act imposing a 1% gross receipts tax is constitutional; it does not violate Art. XII, §11 of the 1889 Constitution since the classification of public contractors separately from private contractors is reasonable; it does not discriminate against the federal government, interfere with its functions or violate its immunity from taxation. Peter Kiewit

Sons' Co. v. State Board of Equalization, — M —, 505 P 2d 102, distinguished in — M —, 507 P 2d 1040, 1045.

84-3514. Corporate license tax credit—additional license fees—treatment of personal property tax as credit. The additional license fees withheld or otherwise paid as provided herein may be used as a credit on the contractor's corporation license tax provided for in Title 84, chapter 15, R.C.M. 1947, or on the contractor's income tax provided for in Title 84, chapter 49, R.C.M. 1947, depending upon the type of tax the contractor is required to pay under the laws of the state.

Personal property taxes paid in Montana on any personal property of the contractor which is used in the business of the contractor and is located within this state may be credited against the license fees required under this act. However, in computing the tax credit allowed by this act against the contractor's corporation license tax or income tax, the personal property tax credit against the licensee fees herein required shall not be considered as license fees paid for the purpose of such income tax or corporation license tax credit.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 195, L. 1967.

84-3515. State department of revenue to establish rules and regulations. The state department of revenue shall establish rules and regulations necessary for the effective implementation of the provisions of this act, including, but not limited to, requiring public contractors to file a contractor's return showing public works contracts performed during a calendar year.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 195, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 145, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" at the beginning of the section.

84-3804. Increase of state tax levy—support of public educational institutions subject to board of regents supervision—library systems. (1) Upon the approval of the electors of this state, to be determined by their vote at the general election to be held in November of 1968, the legislative assembly shall levy a property tax of not more than six (6) mills on the taxable value of all real and personal property each year for ten (10) years beginning with the year 1969. All revenue from this property tax levy shall be appropriated for the support, maintenance, and improvement of the Montana university system and other public educational institutions subject to board of regents supervision. The board of regents may, at their discretion, allocate up to three (3) mills of the six (6) mill levy from the community college district in which the community college is located for the support and maintenance of the community college districts.

Compiler's Notes

This section is substituted for Sec. 1, Ch. 218, Laws 1957 and given the same section number as it covers the same subject matter.

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 218 and once by Ch. 416. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Both 1973 amendments deleted "in addition to any levy authorized by section 9, article XII of the Montana constitution" after "levy a property tax" in the first sentence.

Chapter 218, Laws of 1975, inserted "and other public educational institutions subject to board of regents supervision" at the end of the second sentence in subsection (1); and added the third sentence of subsection (1).

Chapter 416, Laws of 1975, inserted the subsection (1) designation; and added subsection (2).

Chapter 478, Laws of 1973, levied 6 mills for each of the years 1973 and 1974.

84-3806. (2151) Failure of county commissioners to levy. The action of the state department of revenue in fixing the rate of taxation for state purposes is, in the absence of action by the board of county commissioners, a valid levy of the rate so fixed, and imposes upon the county commissioners, and all other officers charged with the performance of any duties under the revenue law, the same obligations as if the board of county commissioners had made the levy at the proper time.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

84-3808. (2153) Tax on personal property lien on realty—separate assessment. (a). Every tax due upon personal property is a prior lien upon any or all such property, which lien shall have precedence over any other lien, claim or demand upon such property, and except as hereinafter provided, every tax upon personal property is also a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof, from and after 12 midnight of the first day of January in each year.

(b). The taxes upon personal property based upon a taxable value up to and including one thousand dollars ($1000) shall be a first and prior lien upon the real property of the owner of such personal property; taxes upon personal property based upon the taxable value thereof in excess of one thousand dollars ($1000) shall be a first and prior lien upon the real property of the owner unless the owner or holder of any mortgage or other lien upon said real property appearing of record in the office of the clerk and ex officio recorder of the county where such real property is situated at or before the time such personal property tax attached thereto shall have filed the notice hereinafter provided for, in which event the taxes upon such excess of one thousand dollars ($1000), of taxable value shall not be a lien on the real property of such owner. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to issue to any mortgagee or lien holder, upon his request, a statement of the personal property tax due upon the taxable value up to and including one thousand dollars ($1000); and personal property taxes upon a taxable value up to one thousand dollars ($1000) may be paid, redeemed from a tax sale as by law provided, or discharged separate from any personal property taxes in excess of such amount. Payment of such taxes upon a taxable value up to one thousand dollars ($1000) as herein provided, shall operate to discharge the tax lien upon the personal property of the owner to the extent of such payment in the order that the person paying such tax shall direct.

(c). The holder of any mortgage or lien upon real property who desires to obtain the benefits of this section shall file in the office of the county treasurer of said county a notice giving;

(d). Provided, that any owner of a mortgage on real estate upon which personal property taxes are by this act made a lien, and where the owner of such real estate and personal property has failed to pay taxes due upon such real estate and personal property for one or more years, may file with the department of revenue or its agent in the county in which such property is located a written request to have the personal property and real estate of the owner separately assessed. Such request must be made by registered mail at least ten (10) days prior to the first day of January in the year for which property is assessed. Upon receipt by the department of revenue or its agent of such request, it is hereby made the duty of the department of revenue or its agent to make a separate assessment of real and personal property of the owner thereof and such personal taxes shall not be a lien upon the real estate so mortgaged of the owner thereof and the said personal property taxes shall be collected in the manner provided by law for other personal property.

84-3809. (2154) Tax upon real property and tax on improvements a lien upon both. Every tax due upon real property is a lien against the property assessed; and every tax due upon improvements upon real estate assessed to others than the owner of the real estate is a lien upon the land and improvements; which several liens attach as of the first day of January in each year.

Extent of Lien

This section does not permit mortgagee who had previously purchased certificates of tax sale to retain a lien upon the real estate for the amount of certificates after sheriff's sale. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 483.

Where, subsequent to purchase of tax certificates, mortgagee foreclosed the mortgage, the foreclosure sale cut off any lien asserted by mortgagee for taxes paid although the mortgage permitted the mortgagee to pay taxes and collect the same upon foreclosure. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 483.

Lienholder's Right to Redeem

One who was occupier of land and assignee of tax sale certificate held lien on such land in accord with this section, and thus could redeem subsequent tax sale certificate at any time before application for tax deed. State ex rel. Burkhartsmeier Bros. v. McCormick, — M —, 510 P 2d 266.

84-4132. (2201) Time for redemption.

Application for Tax Deed

The three-year period for redemption began when the county purchased land by tax certificate, and the notice and application for tax deed by a subsequent purchaser from the county prior to the expiration of the three-year period did not end the right of redemption; rather, the right of redemption continued to the end of the three years, then expired because notice and application had been made. Madden v. Zimmerman, — M —, 532 P 2d 414.

Right to Redeem

Occupier of land who was assignee of tax sale certificate held lien on such land under section 84-4130, and thus had right to redeem subsequent certificate at any time before notice and application for tax deed. State ex rel. Burkhartsmeier Bros. v. McCormick, — M —, 510 P 2d 266.

Check as "Lawful Money"

Use of a check by the small business administration in the redemption of tax delinquent property by the United States constituted "lawful money" under this section and certificate of redemption issued to the government four days before defendant filed application for tax deed was valid. United States v. Johnston, 247 F Supp 707.

Creditors of Owner

This section cuts off the rights of creditors of a deceased landowner unless they can bring themselves within the exceptions stated in this section, and they must look to other assets of the estate for satisfaction of their claims. Madden v. Zimmerman, — M —, 532 P 2d 414.

meyer Bros. v. McCormick, — M —, 510 P 2d 266.

Search of Records

Tax-sale purchaser who complied with this section by registered mail addressed to the owner at her last known address and published notice in newspaper was not required, when the notice was returned marked "address unknown," to search the probate records to determine whether owner was deceased and the name and address of her administrator; rather, the burden was on the owner to keep the taxing authorities informed. *Madden v. Notice

Since this section takes precedence over Rule 77(d) pursuant to Rule 81, RCivP, defendants were not entitled to notice of entry of quiet title decree in favor of petitioner where defendant, after hearing on order to show cause, failed to post the required bond. Rosen v. Midkiff, — M —, 519 P 2d 416.

Presumption of Posting of Notice

Rebuttable Presumption

Order Requiring Deposit
Where defendants in action to quiet title had notice through their attorney that if they did not deposit certain sum with court, decree would be entered against them, and they did not pay, court's order quieting title in plaintiffs was upheld. Rosen v. Midkiff, — M —, 519 P 2d 416.

In action to quiet title defendant's attorney's failure to find affidavit of posting in file was not enough to override rebuttable presumption in favor of posting by clerk in routine and regular manner. Rosen v. Midkiff, — M —, 519 P 2d 416.

Title of Act

An act to provide a ten year statute of limitations on all unpaid taxes levied and 84-4175.2. Treasurers to destroy certain tax records. The treasurer of each county, city, or town in the state of Montana, may destroy all tax records in his possession more than thirty (30) years old.

Section 3 of Ch. 286, Laws 1975 read "This act shall be effective July 1, 1976."

84-4190.1. Purpose. The purpose of this act is to authorize a board of county commissioners to establish criteria for the classification of unsold tax deed lands and other county owned lands, however acquired, and to classify such lands for retention or disposal in accordance with such criteria so that county owned lands shall be used in the best interests of the county and for the public benefit and welfare, to encourage the application of a "multiple use" principle in the utilization and administration of such lands so that the administration of lands classified for retention can be co-ordinated with land-use planning, zoning, grazing and agricultural land improvement, fish and wildlife habitat improvement and enhancement, recreation, access to other intermingled or adjacent multiple use areas, and for any other appropriate uses which are in the best interest of the county or which will advance the public benefit and welfare, and to grant sufficient powers to the board of county commissioners to enable the board to achieve the foregoing purpose.

Title of Act

An act authorizing a board of county commissioners to classify and manage county owned lands and to retain, lease, or dispose of interests in such lands; repealing sections 84-4193, 84-4194, and 84-4198, R. C. M. 1947.

84-4190.2. Definitions. As used in this act:

(1) "Multiple use" means the management of the various surface and subsurface resources so that they are utilized in the combination that will best meet the present and future needs of the county; the most judicious use of the land for some or all of these resources or related services over areas large enough to provide sufficient latitude for periodic adjustments in use to conform to changing needs and conditions; the use of some land for less than all of the resources; and harmonious and co-ordinated management of the various resources, each with the other, without impairment of the productivity of the land, with consideration being given to the relative values of the various resources, and not necessarily the combination of uses that will give the greatest dollar return or the greatest unit output; and the use of said lands, where possible, to afford access in multiple use areas to federal and state lands.

(2) "Board" means the board of county commissioners.

84-4191. Terms of sale—sale contract—deed of conveyance. Such sale shall be made for cash or, in the case of real property, on such terms as the board of county commissioners may approve; provided, however, that if such sale is made on terms at least twenty per cent (20%) of the purchase price shall be paid in cash at the date of sale and the remainder may be paid in installments extending over a period not to exceed five (5) years and all such deferred payments shall bear interest at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum.

If a sale is made on terms, the chairman of the board of county commissioners shall execute a contract containing such terms as shall be provided by a uniform contract prescribed by the board of equalization and upon payment of the purchase price in full together with all interest which may become due on any installment or deferred payments, the chairman of the board of county commissioners shall execute a deed attested to by the county clerk to the purchaser, or his assigns, or such other instruments as shall be sufficient to convey all of the title of the county in and to the property so sold, provided that the county may in the discretion of the board of county commissioners reserve not to exceed six and one-fourth per cent (6- $\frac{1}{4}$ %) royalty interest in the oil, gas, other hydrocarbons and minerals produced and saved from said land.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment increased the deferred payment interest rate from "four per cent (4%)" per annum to "eight per cent (8%)."

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 163, Laws 1969 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 28, 1969.

Mineral Rights Reservation

County has implied power under proviso of this section to make mineral reservation in deeds to tax-title lands sold by it. Smith v. County of Musselshell, 155 M 376, 472 P 2d 878.

In action to determine rights under deed, evidence that all parties to county's deed regarded reservation in deed as royalty interest and not mineral interest and language in deeds that "all minerals contained in and hereafter mined, produced, extracted, or otherwise taken" supported finding that such reservation was royalty interest. Superior Oil Co. v. Vanderhoof, 307 F Supp 84.

84-4192. Land subject to taxation to purchaser—when. On the first day of January following the execution of such contracts or deed the land shall be subject to taxation in the name of the purchaser or his assignee and in the event the taxes are not paid and the same become delinquent said contract shall be subject to cancellation and all payments theretofore made shall be taken, treated, and regarded as rent for said property.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 171, L. 1941; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 388, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "On the first day of January" for "On the first Monday of March."

84-4192.1. Powers and duties of board regarding county lands. (1) Any lands previously or hereafter offered for sale by the county commissioners of any county under section 84-4190, and not sold at such sale, or any lands concerning which the preferential right to purchase has been terminated and barred under the provisions of section 84-4190, and any other lands owned by the county, however acquired may, in the discretion and at the election of the board, be administered by the board under this section. The board may, in its discretion, elect to exercise all or any of the powers and authority granted to it by this act, and to the extent it so elects, the provisions of this act shall be controlling and shall supersede all conflicting provisions of other acts. The board may:

(a) establish criteria for the classification of such lands;

(b) classify such lands, surface and subsurface, for retention or disposal, and for such purposes and uses as the board may determine are in the best interests of the county, and for the public benefit and welfare, and in so doing, the board shall consider the multiple use potential of said lands, and the potential of said lands as access to other intermingled or adjacent multiple use lands or areas;

(c) grant permits or licenses to use the lands in such manner as the board may determine and in the best interests of the county, and for the public benefit and welfare, fix the terms, conditions, and price of such permits or licenses;

(d) enter into co-operative use agreements with individuals, groups of individuals, corporations, associations, co-operative state grazing districts, the state of Montana, the United States of America, and any state or federal subdivision, department, bureau, commission, or agency, including, but not limited to, the Montana department of fish and game, the bureau of land management, conservation districts, and the Montana department of state lands;

(e) trade or exchange such lands with individuals or other governmental agencies, state or federal, such trades or exchanges to be made pursuant to terms, conditions, and procedures adopted by the board;

(f) grant leases of the lands for such purposes and uses as the board may determine are in the best interests of the county, including the exploration and development of oil, gas, and other minerals, and to fix the terms and conditions of such leases and the consideration to be paid by any lessee, and when for oil, gas, or other mineral exploration or development to reserve to the county a royalty interest as fixed by agreement between the board and the lessee, provided that lease of lands, under this act, shall not be made for a consideration less than an amount equal to the taxes these lands would have levied upon them if they were private lands, and the proceeds of any such lease shall be apportioned on the current year's levy as provided under section 84-4195, R. C. M. 1947;

(g) sell such lands or any part thereof pursuant to the procedures hereinafter provided;

(h) in trading, exchanging, or selling such lands, to make such reservations in favor of the county as the board considers proper, including, but not limited to, reserving to the county of any or all oil, gas, or other mineral or royalty interests, sand, gravel, clay, or other material, right of ways or easements for roads, utility lines, and other purposes or uses; and

(i) promulgate rules and regulations for the administration of such lands.

(2) Leases, permits, and licenses shall not extend for a period longer than ten (10) years, except that oil, gas, and other mineral leases may be for a term of ten (10) years and as long thereafter as oil, gas, or other minerals are produced in commercial quantities. However, the board may provide for the renewal of such leases, permits, and licenses.

(3) The board may authorize a lessee to place upon the lands improvements directly related to conservation of the land or necessary for proper utilization of the land for the purposes for which it is leased. Whenever another person becomes the lessee of such land, such other persons shall pay to the former lessee the reasonable value of such improvements at the time the new lessee takes possession of such lands. In case the former lessee and the new lessee are unable to agree on the reasonable value of such improvements, then such value shall be ascertained by three (3) arbitrators, one (1) of which shall be appointed by the former lessee, one (1) by the new lessee and the third by the two (2) arbitrators so appointed. The reasonable compensation that such arbitrators may charge for their services shall be paid in equal shares by the former lessee and the new lessee. The value of the improvements so ascertained and fixed by the arbitrators shall be binding on both parties; provided, however, that if either party is dissatisfied with the valuation so fixed, the dissatisfied party may, within ten (10) days of being notified of the arbitrators' decision, appeal from that decision to the board, and the decision of the board shall be final. Any costs incurred by the board in re-examining the decision of the arbitrators shall be borne by the former lessee and the new lessee in such proportions as the board may determine. The former lessee may, at the former lessee's option, remove or dispose of the movable improvements, but the same must be removed within sixty (60) days from the date of the expiration of the lease and, if not so removed, then all such improvements shall become the property of the county unless the board for good cause grants additional time for the removal thereof. Before a lease is issued to the new lessee, the new lessee shall show that the former lessee has been paid the value of the improvements as agreed upon by them or as fixed and determined as herein provided, or that the former lessee has elected to remove the improvements.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) shall apply to the holders of permits or licenses for the use of county lands.

(5) The board shall make an order for public auction of any lands classified for sale, such sale to be held at the front door of the county courthouse. Notice of the sale shall be given by publishing a notice in a newspaper published in the county once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks preceding the date fixed for the sale. The first publication of the notice shall be made not more than thirty (30) days prior to the sale date. If there is no newspaper published in the county, the notice shall be given by posting copies at three (3) of the most public places in the county at least twenty (20) days, but not more than thirty (30) days, preceding the sale date. The notices shall describe the land to be sold and the appraised value thereof and no sale may be made for less than the appraised value thereof as fixed by the board. The sale shall be for cash, or on such terms as the board may approve, provided at least twenty per cent (20%) of the purchase price shall be paid in cash. The lessee, permittee, or licensee of any of the lands, then subject to a lease, permit, or license, shall have a preference to purchase the lands at an amount equal to that bid by the highest bidder at the sale.

(6) Any of the lands classified for exchange by the board may be exchanged for any other lands pursuant to such procedures as the board may adopt, and all such exchanges must be for equivalent value. If the lands sought to be exchanged are not of equivalent value, any difference may be equalized by a cash payment. Any procedures adopted by the board for the exchange of land must include public notice as provided under subsection (5) of this section and opportunity for public hearing on the proposed exchange.

(7) The board may appoint not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) residents of the county to act as an advisory committee to the board in implementing the provisions of this act. The duties of the advisory committee are to be established by the board. The board may provide for the payment of expenses incurred by the advisory committee in the carrying out of their duties.

(8) When considered in the best interests of the county, the board may enter into agreements for the pooling of acreage with others for unit operations for the production of oil or gas, or both, and for the apportionment of oil or gas royalties, or both, on acreage or other equitable basis, and may modify existing leases and leases hereafter entered into with respect to delay rentals, delay drilling penalties and royalties in accordance with such pooling agreements, and such unit plans of operation; provided, however, that such agreements shall not change the percentages of royalties to be paid to the county from the percentages as fixed in its leases.

(9) All proceeds from any use or disposition of lands pursuant to the terms of this act shall be apportioned and distributed according to the provisions of section 84-4195.

84-4192.2. Limitation to lands not necessary for county business—appraisal required. The sale, exchange, lease or issuance of licenses and permits of county lands as provided in this act shall extend only to those lands not necessary to the conduct of the county's business.

The county commissioners shall, before they sell, exchange or lease lands under the provisions of this act, cause such lands to be appraised by a qualified, independent person or persons who may be but is not required to be an agent of the state department of revenue, to determine the value of such lands for the purpose of such sale, exchange or lease. For the purposes of this subsection a renewal of the lease shall be considered an initial lease, if the renewal is for a term exceeding five (5) years.

Reservation of Royalty Interest

In action to determine rights under deed, evidence that all parties to county's deed regarded reservation in deed as royalty interest and not mineral interest and language in deeds that "all minerals con-

84-41-105. Tax prepayment—new industrial facilities. (1) A person intending to construct or locate a major new industrial facility, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, shall upon request of the board of county commissioners of the county in which the facility is to be located, prepay, when permission is granted to construct or locate by the appropriate governmental agency, an amount equal to three (3) times the estimated property tax due the year the facility is completed. The person who is to prepay under this section shall not be obligated to prepay the entire amount at one time but, upon request of the board of county commissioners of the county, shall prepay only that amount shown to be needed from time to time. To assure this payment or payments, the person who is to prepay shall guarantee to the board of county commissioners and also have a bank or banks guarantee that these amounts will be paid as needed for expenditures created by the impact. When the facility is completed and assessed by the department of revenue, it shall be subject to taxation as all other property similarly situated, during the first three (3) years and thereafter, except that one-fifth (1/5) of the amount prepaid shall be allowed as a credit against property taxes in each of the first five (5) years after the start of productive operation of the facility.

(2) A major new industrial facility is a manufacturing or mining facility which will employ on an average annual basis at least one hundred (100) people in construction or operation of the facility, and which will create a substantial adverse impact on existing state, county, or municipal services.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue or its agent" for "assessor" near the beginning of the first sentence and in the third sentence; and deleted "in his opinion" before "a lien upon real property" near the beginning of the first sentence.

Flathead Reservation Indians

This section is unconstitutional in so far as it requires the payment of a motor vehicle tax or other personal property taxes by members of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes residing on the Flathead Reservation. Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes v. State of Montana, 392 F Supp 1325.

84-4202. (2239) Duty of treasurer. The county treasurer must collect taxes on all personal property, and in the case provided in the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the treasurer immediately upon receipt of the report prescribed by section 84-4201, R. C. M. 1947, to notify the person or persons against whom the tax is assessed and any person who has a properly perfected security interest of record with the registrar of motor vehicles of the state of Montana that the amount of such tax is due and payable at the county treasurer's office. The county treasurer must, at the time of receiving the report, and in any event within thirty (30) days from the receipt of such report, levy upon and take into his possession such personal property against which a tax is assessed, or any other personal property in the hands of the delinquent taxpayer, and proceed to sell the same, in the same manner as property is sold on execution by the sheriff, and the county treasurer may for the purpose of making such levy and sale, direct the sheriff to make such levy and sale, and the sheriff, undersheriff, or any deputy sheriff of such county is, ex officio, a deputy county treasurer for such purposes, and either may act and receive payment of such taxes. Such sheriff shall be entitled to receive the same fees as he is entitled to in making a seizure and sale under execution.

The county treasurer and his sureties are liable on his official bond for all taxes on personal property remaining uncollected by reason of the willful failure and neglect of such treasurer to levy upon and sell such personal property for the taxes levied thereon.

The tax on such personal property may be collected and the payment thereof enforced by the seizure and sale of any personal property in the possession of the person assessed at any time after the date the assessment is made or by the institution of a civil action for its collection in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that a resort to any one of the methods as herein provided for, shall not bar the right to resort to either or both of the other methods, but that any or all of the methods herein provided for may be used until the full amount of such tax is collected.

The county shall have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon any moneys in its possession belonging to any taxpayer, for any amounts due said county for any delinquent personal property taxes not a lien on real estate, of said taxpayer; provided, however, that due notice must be given the lien holder, if any.

The owner of a mobile home or house trailer which is not taxed as an improvement, as improvements are defined in section 84-101, shall pay the personal property tax in semiannual installments on or before January 1 and July 1 each year. The department of revenue shall issue tax-paid stickers to the county treasurers for each six-month period. The treasurers shall issue such stickers to the owners of mobile homes and house trailers upon payment of the taxes thereon, and an owner shall then display the sticker which shall be visible from the exterior of the mobile home or house trailer. No mobile home movement permit provided in section 84-6606 may be issued unless both semiannual installments have been paid to the county treasurer.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 162 and once by Ch. 475. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "report prescribed by section 84-4201, R. C. M. 1947," for "report from the assessor" near the end of the first sentence in the first paragraph; and deleted "assessor's" following "at the time of receiving the" near the beginning of the second sentence in the first paragraph.

Chapter 162, Laws of 1975 inserted "and any person who has a properly perfected security interest of record with the registrar of motor vehicles of the state of Montana" in the first sentence of the first paragraph.

Chapter 475, Laws of 1975 added the last paragraph.

Flathead Reservation Indians

This section is unconstitutional in so far as it requires the payment of a motor vehicle tax or other personal property taxes by members of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes residing on the Flathead Reservation. Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes v. State of Montana, 392 F Supp 1325.

84-4209. (2247) Rate of taxation where property is taxable. All rates of tax levy set by the board of county commissioners on the second Monday in August of each year, shall apply permanently to this class of personal property during the ensuing year, and the treasurer shall, upon collection of any such taxes, immediately distribute the money so collected to the various and proper funds in his charge. Personal property which was in the state and subject to taxation on the first day of January of any year shall be taxable wherever and whenever found in any county in the state, whether the same be owned, claimed, or possessed by the person owning, claiming or possessing it on the first day of January or not; provided, that in case the same property is assessed in more than one county, the county first making the assessment shall be entitled to collect the taxes; provided further, that if the rate of taxation fixed for the year in which the collection is made is an increase over the preceding year's levy, then the said board of county commissioners may direct the county treasurer to collect the amount of such increased levy, but shall not be obliged to do so in cases where, in the opinion of the board, the cost of collection would exceed the amount of such increase, and provided further that if the rate fixed for the year in which the collection is made shall be less than the levy for the preceding year, then the person from whom such excess tax was collected may file with the board of county commissioners a duly verified claim for a refund of such excess tax, at any time before the first day of November of the year in which such an excess was collected, and such claim shall be allowed and ordered paid by the board of county commissioners to the amount of such excess.

If no report be filed as herein required, the department shall, on or before May 1st, ascertain from whatever sources to which it has access the gross earnings of such freight line company within this state from the use or operation of such cars by such railroad company; or if the gross earnings are not capable of being ascertained, the department may estimate the gross earnings of such freight line company within this state from such railroad company and the railroad company which failed to make the report or pay the tax shall be liable for the same together with penalties as hereinafter provided.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 137, L. 1949;

84-4822. Ad valorem tax basis—complaints—notice—testimony—hearing—refunds—valuation of cars as unit. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the legislature that the tax herein imposed be not greater than the amount of tax such freight line company would pay if its cars were taxed on an ad valorem basis. No tax other than as in this act imposed shall be assessed against the business or income of any such freight line company. Any such freight line company or railroad company, on or before June 1st of the year in which the tax herein imposed has been paid, may file written complaint with the state tax appeal board concerning the correctness of the rate used, or the correctness of the amount of the tax imposed, or any other matter affecting the complainant under the provisions of this act. Upon filing such complaint, the state tax appeal board shall set the same for hearing, and shall give written notice thereof to the complainant at least ten (10) days before the date set for hearing thereon. Upon the hearing of any such complaint, the state tax appeal board shall take testimony to determine whether the amount of the tax, as computed and determined by the department of revenue, is greater than the general ad valorem tax for all purposes would be on the cars of such freight line company subject to taxation in Montana, if assessed and taxed on an ad valorem basis. In such cases the state tax appeal board shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to lower or raise the rates herein specified to conform to the facts disclosed at such hearing and to make the amount of the tax due equivalent to such ad valorem tax. If the state tax appeal board shall then determine that the amount of the tax imposed and collected was excessive, the claimant shall be entitled to a refund to the extent of such excess. Within six (6) months after such determination the claimant may present to the state department of revenue a sworn claim for such refund, setting forth the amount thereof. The state auditor shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount of such claim and the same shall be paid out of the freight line company tax fund created by this act, in the same manner as other claims against the state are paid. In order to determine the amount of tax such freight line company would pay, the department may value all cars of any such company as a unit and allocate to Montana that proportion of the total value which the Montana car mileage bears to the total car mileage of the cars of any such freight line company during the twelve (12) months' period ending December 31 of the preceding year, and may then apply to such value, the average total rate of all general property taxes levied for the preceding year by the taxing authorities of the state, counties, school districts, municipalities and other taxing subdivisions for state, county, school and municipal and other purposes.

84-4824. Actions to recover delinquent taxes and penalties—additional taxes. If the taxes and penalties provided for in this act to be paid by the railroad company on the property of such freight line company remain unpaid more than ninety (90) days from the due date, the department shall cause an action to be brought to recover the amount of such delinquent taxes and penalties in the district court of any county within the state of Montana in which service can be had on the railroad company which is liable for the payment of such taxes or penalties, or in which the property of such delinquent railroad company can be seized under attachment or garnishment proceedings in the manner prescribed by law. In the event the state tax appeal board under its authority to raise or lower the rate of the taxes which would be payable on the cars of such freight line company if taxed upon an ad valorem basis, shall, after a hearing as herein provided, find taxes due from any such freight line company in excess of the five per cent (5%) of all gross revenue in this state which is required to be paid by the railroad companies, such additional tax as so determined shall be due and payable by the freight line company upon which the assessment is made, and if such tax shall remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days after notification of such assessment by the state tax appeal board, the board shall cause an action to be brought to recover the amount of such additional tax in the district court of any county within the state of Montana in which service can be had on the freight line company liable for the tax or in which the property of such delinquent freight line company can be seized under attachment or garnishment proceedings in the manner prescribed by law.

partment" for "board" before "shall cause an action" in the middle of the first sentence; and inserted "state tax appeal" before "board" in two places in the second sentence.

84-4825. Disposition of moneys—limitation of actions. All taxes collected under the provisions of this act shall be credited by the state treasurer to the state general fund. An action or proceeding in court to determine the correctness of such tax must be instituted within sixty (60) days after the payment of the tax.

sentence reading: "If any claim for refund be pending before the board, the board shall determine whether a refund should be made."

84-4826. Failure to file report—estoppel to impeach department of revenue's determination. If any railroad company or freight line company affected by this act shall refuse or neglect to make any report required by this act, or shall refuse or neglect to permit an examination of its books, records, accounts and papers upon demand of the department of revenue, or shall refuse or neglect to appear before the department in obedience to its order or subpoena, or shall fail to object to the tax imposed by this act within the time and in the manner prescribed by this act, it shall be estopped to question or impeach the action or determination of the department as to the validity of the tax imposed hereunder.

84-4914. (2295.14) Returns and payment of tax—penalty and interest—refunds—credits. (1) Every single individual and every married individual not filing a joint return with his or her spouse and having a gross income for the taxable year of more than six hundred sixty-five dollars ($665), and married individuals not filing separate returns and having a combined gross income for the taxable year of more than one thousand three hundred thirty dollars ($1,330), shall be liable for a return to be filed on such forms and according to such rules and regulations as the department of revenue may prescribe. A nonresident shall be required to file a return if his gross income for the taxable year derived from sources within Montana exceeds the amount of the exemption deduction he is entitled to claim for himself and his spouse under the provisions of section 84-4910(b), (c) and (d), as prorated according to paragraph (i) of said section:

(2) In accordance with instructions set forth by the department, every taxpayer who is married and living with husband or wife and is required to file a return may, at his or her option, file a joint return with husband or wife even though one of the spouses has neither gross income nor deductions. If a joint return is made, the tax shall be computed on the aggregate taxable income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several. If a joint return has been filed for a taxable year, the spouses may not file separate returns after the time for filing the return of either has expired, unless the department so consents.

(4) All taxpayers, including, but not limited to those subject to the provisions of sections 84-4939 and 84-4943, shall compute the amount of income tax payable and shall at the time of filing the return required by this act, pay to the department any balance of income tax remaining unpaid after crediting the amount withheld as provided by section 84-4943, and/or any payment made by reason of an estimated tax return provided for in section 84-4939; provided however, the tax so computed is greater by one dollar ($1) than the amount withheld and/or paid by estimated return as provided in this act.

If the amount of tax withheld and/or payment of estimated tax exceeds by more than one dollar ($1) the amount of income tax as computed, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of the excess.

(5) As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the department shall examine and verify the tax.

(6) If the amount of tax as verified is greater than the amount therefore paid, the excess shall be paid by the taxpayer to the department within thirty (30) days after notice of the amount of the tax as computed with interest added at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum or fraction thereof on the additional tax. In such case there shall be no penalty because of such understatement, provided the deficiency is paid within thirty (30) days after the first notice of the amount is mailed to the taxpayer.

If payment is not made within thirty (30) days or if the understatement is due to negligence on the part of the taxpayer, but without fraud, there shall be added to the amount of the deficiency five per centum (5%) thereof, provided, however, that no deficiency penalty shall be less than two dollars ($2). Interest will be computed at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum or fraction thereof on the additional assessment. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this subdivision, the interest shall in all cases be computed from the date the return and tax was originally due (as distinguished from the due date as it may have been extended) to the date of payment.

If the time for filing a return is extended, the taxpayer shall pay in addition, interest thereon at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum from the time when the return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 450 and once by Ch. 516. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment, in subsection (1), substituted "not filing a joint return with his or her spouse and" for "filing a separate return" and "not filing separate returns" for "filing a joint return"; in subsection (2), added the last sentence; in subsection (4), made minor changes in punctuation; and in subsection (6), raised the interest rate on delinquent income taxes from "six per centum (6%)" per annum to "nine per centum (9%)."

Chapter 450, Laws of 1973, increased the amounts of income specified in the first sentence from $600 and $1,200 to $665 and $1,330; added the second and third sentences to subsection (1); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization throughout the section.

Effective Dates

Section 2 of Ch. 450, Laws 1973 read "This act shall be effective for all taxable years ending on and after December 31, 1972."

Section 3 of Ch. 450, Laws 1973 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 23, 1973.

84-4919. (2295.19) Time for filing—affidavit—forms—extensions of time for filing. Returns shall be made to the department on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxpayer's fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year. Each return shall set forth such facts as the department may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of this act. There shall be annexed to such return the affidavit or affirmation of the persons making the return, to the effect that the statements contained therein are true. Blank forms of return shall be furnished by the department upon application, but failure to secure the form shall not relieve any taxpayer of the obligation to make any return required under this law. Every taxpayer liable for a tax under this law shall pay a minimum tax of one dollar ($1.00).

Effective with returns to be filed for taxable years ending on and after December 31, 1974, an automatic two (2) month extension of time for filing a return is allowed, provided that on or before the due date of the return, an application is made on forms available from the department, or in writing to the department. The department may grant an additional extension of time for filing a return whenever in its judgment good cause exists, and the department shall keep a record of every such extension and the reason therefor. Except in the case of members of the armed forces of the United States and persons living or traveling outside the United States or Puerto Rico, no extension may be granted for more than six (6) months from the due date of the return prescribed in the preceding paragraph of this section.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" in four places.

The 1975 amendment inserted "taxpayer's" before "fiscal year" in the first sentence in the first paragraph; substituted "following the close of the calendar year" at the end of the first sentence in the first paragraph for "before the fifteenth day of April in each year"; deleted second and third sentences in the first paragraph which read "The department may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns whenever in its judgment good cause exists and shall keep a record of every such extension and the reason therefor. Except in the case of persons who are abroad, no such extension shall be granted for more than six (6) months"; added the second paragraph; and made minor changes in phraseology.

If, in the opinion of the department of revenue, any return of a taxpayer is in any essential respect incorrect, it may revise such return, or if any taxpayer fails to make return as herein required, the department is authorized to make an estimate of the taxable income of such taxpayer from any information in its possession, and to audit and state an account according to such return or the estimate so made by it for the taxes, penalties and interest due the state from such taxpayer. Except in the case of willfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, the amount of tax due under any return shall be determined by the department within five (5) years after the return was made, and the department thereafter shall be barred from revising any such returns or recomputing the tax due thereon and no proceeding in court for the collection of such tax shall be instituted after the expiration of said period notwithstanding the provisions of section 84-4929. In the case of a willfully false or fraudulent return, the amount of tax due may be determined at any time after the return is filed and the tax may be collected at any time after it becomes due, and where no return has been filed, the tax may be assessed at any time.

The department, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making an estimate of taxable income of any person where information has been obtained, may also examine or cause to have examined, by any agent or representative designated, by it for that purpose, any books, papers or records of memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for its information, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

If the taxpayer fails to file a record of changes in federal taxable income or an amended return as required by section 84-4938, the said statute of limitations shall not apply until five years from the date the federal changes become final or the amended federal return was filed. If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of adjusted gross income stated in the return the said statute of limitations shall not apply for two additional years from the time specified in section 84-4920.

The department may abate the penalty if the taxpayer establishes that the failure to file on time was due to reasonable cause and was not due to neglect on his part. If any person, without intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, fails to pay any tax on or before its due date (determined with regard to an extension of time granted for the filing of a return), there shall be added to the tax a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of said tax, but not less than five dollars ($5), and interest shall accrue on the tax at the rate of nine per cent (9%) per annum for the entire period it remains unpaid. The department may abate the penalty if the taxpayer establishes that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause and was not due to neglect on his part.

(2) If any person fails with intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, to make a return of income or to pay a tax if one is due at the time required by or under the provisions of this act there shall be added to the tax an additional amount equal to twenty-five per centum (25%) thereof, but such additional amount shall in no case be less than twenty-five dollars ($25), and interest at one (1) per centum for each month or fraction of a month during which the tax remains unpaid.

If any tax imposed by this act or any portion of such tax is not paid within sixty (60) days after the same becomes due, the department shall issue a warrant under its official seal directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the person owing the same, found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant

In the case of a tax for a current period, the state department of revenue may declare the taxable period of the taxpayer immediately terminated and shall mail or issue notice of its findings to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated.

If the department of revenue discovers from the examination of a return, or upon claim duly filed by a taxpayer, or upon final judgment of a court, that the amount of income tax is in excess of the amount due, or that any penalty or interest was erroneously or illegally collected, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any income tax, penalty or interest, then due from the taxpayer, and the balance of such excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

Effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1959, no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after five (5) years from the date prescribed by statute for filing the return, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, or the department of revenue has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. Within six (6) months after a claim for refund is filed the state department of revenue shall examine said claim and either approve or disapprove it. If said claim is approved, the credit or refund shall be made to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days after the claim is approved; if the claim is disallowed, the state department of revenue shall so notify the said taxpayer and shall grant a hearing thereon upon proper application by the taxpayer. If the department disapproves a claim for refund, review of the determination of the department may be had as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Except as hereinafter provided for, effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1962, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of the overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the department of revenue approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. With respect to tax paid by withholding or by estimate, the date of overpayment shall be deemed to be the date on which the return for the taxable year was due. No interest shall accrue on an overpayment if the taxpayer elects to have it applied to his estimated tax for the succeeding taxable year; nor shall interest accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state department of revenue for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (a) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or the date the return is filed, whichever date is later; or (b) if the overpayment results from the carryback of a net operating loss; or (c) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00). An overpayment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual income tax liability, or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

Net Proceeds

The net proceeds tax does not apply to tale once it is past the beneficiation stage; value of mining product to be taxed is determined after initial processing of raw tale and the value should not include manufacturing processes which further refine tale for use in sophisticated products. Pfizer, Inc. v. Madison County, — M —, 505 P 2d 399.

84-5402. (2089) Net proceeds tax—statement of yield, penalty, extension of time. Every person, partnership, corporation, or association, engaged in mining, extracting or producing from any quartz vein or lode, placer claim, dump or tailings, or other place of sources whatever, precious stones or gems, gold, silver, copper, lead, petroleum, natural gas, or other valuable mineral, except coal, must on or before the thirty-first day of March of each year make out a statement of the gross yield of the above-named metals or minerals from each mine owned or worked by such person, corporation or association during the year preceding the first day of January of the year in which such statement is made, and the value thereof. Such statement shall be in the form prescribed by the state department of revenue, and must be verified by the oath of such person or the manager, superintendent, agent, president or vice-president of such corporation, association or partnership, and must be delivered to the state department of revenue on or before the thirty-first day of March. Such statement shall show the following:

The amount and character of such ores, mineral products or deposits, and the yield of such ores, mineral products or deposits from such mine in constituents of commercial value; that is to say, the number of ounces of gold or silver, pounds of copper or lead, barrels of petroleum or other crude or mineral oil, cubic feet of natural gas or other commercially valuable constituents of said ores or mineral products or deposits measured by standard units of measurement, yielded to such person, corporation or association so engaged in mining, and to said royalty holders and each of them, if any, during the period covered by the statement.

If any person shall fail, neglect or refuse to file the statement required by this section within the time required, or within any extended period of time allowed, the state department of revenue when transmitting the net proceeds valuations to the counties shall inform the county assessor of such failure, neglect or refusal and the county assessor in addition to the net proceeds tax, if any, shall assess a penalty of $\frac{2}{3}$ of 1% of such tax for each calendar month or fraction thereof that the required statement is not filed, deducting therefrom any moneys collected by the state department of revenue required by this section. The state department of revenue shall assess a penalty of \$25 for each calendar month or fraction thereof, not exceeding four months, that the required statement is not filed, to be collected by the state department of revenue and deposited to the credit of the general fund of the state of Montana.

The state department of revenue shall, upon a showing of reasonable cause, grant an extension of time for filing the statement required by this section. This penalty shall be in addition to penalties provided in section 84-5410.

84-5407. (2090.4) False or fraudulent reports, procedure in case of. If any such report required by this chapter contains any willfully false or fraudulent statements as to the gross amount received by any person, corporation or association so engaged in mining as aforesaid, for any mine's product, then the said state department of revenue shall compute the gross value of such mine's product, and such gross value shall be based upon the average quotations of the price of such mine's product in New York City, or the relative market value at the point of delivery, as evidenced by some established authority or market report, such as the Engineering and Mining Journal of New York City, or some other standard publication, giving the market reports for the year covered by the statement; and, provided further, that if any such person, corporation, or association has sold or otherwise disposed of any of its mine's product at a price substantially below the true market price of such product at the time and place of such sale or disposal, then the state department of revenue shall compute the gross value of such portion of said mine's product, so sold or disposed of substantially below the market price as aforesaid, which gross value shall be based upon the quotations of the price of such mine's product in New York City, or the relative market value at the point of delivery at the time such portion of the product was so sold or otherwise disposed of, as evidenced by some established authority or market report, such as the Engineering and Mining Journal, of New York City, or some other standard publication giving the market reports for the year covered by such statement. Should there be no quotation covering any particular product, then the state department of revenue shall fix the value of such gross product, or such portion thereof, as shall have been sold or otherwise disposed of at a price substantially below the true market price at the time and place of such sale or disposal in such a manner as may seem to be equitable.

Amendments

84-5408. (2091) Transmission of net proceeds to county assessor. On or before the first day of July in each year the state department of revenue shall transmit to the county assessor of each county in which such mines and mining claims are situated, the valuation of the net proceeds of such mines and mining claims for the purpose of taxation, as the same have been determined and fixed by the state department of revenue. [The said valuation for the purpose of taxation shall be an amount equal to the average net proceeds from such mine for the five calendar years next preceding, or for as many years next preceding as the mine has produced gross yield, or for as many years next preceding as this act has been in effect, whichever is less. The average net proceeds for valuation shall be computed by dividing the total net proceeds for such period by the number of years for which such net proceeds were taken into account. In determining net proceeds of each individual year for averaging to determine valuation for purposes of taxation, the actual annual net proceeds as defined in section 84-5403, including losses, if any, from such mines and mining claims shall be taken for each year rather than the average valuation for such year. In no event shall there be valuation for the purpose of taxation for a year when there has been no gross yield from such mines and mining claims for the preceding average years and such years shall not be taken into account in computing the net proceeds for any year.] The county assessor shall immediately enter the same upon an assessment roll called "assessment roll of net proceeds of mines," alphabetically arranged, and in which shall be specified in separate columns and under the following heads:

The form of said assessment roll shall be prescribed by the state department of revenue in conformity with the provisions of this act.

Said taxes shall be due and payable. Assessments of royalty on production of metals, and minerals other than petroleum and natural gas, shall be entered by the county assessor in the personal property assessment book in the name of the recipient or owner of such royalty. The county treasurer shall proceed to give full notice thereof to such recipient or royalty owner, and to collect the taxes thereon in the same manner as taxes on net proceeds of mines. In making an estimate of the value of the net proceeds under this section, the state department of revenue shall have the power to subpoena and examine, under oath, any person, members of a partnership or association, officers or agents of a corporation, and the employees of such person, partnership, association, or corporation, and every person who refuses or neglects to appear and testify, when required so to do by the state board of equalization as herein provided, for each and every refusal shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

84-6701. Compact adopted—text. The "Multistate Tax Compact" is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as set forth herein below. Article VIII of the Multistate Tax Compact relating to interstate audits is specifically adopted.

ARTICLE I. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this compact are to:

1. Facilitate proper determination of state and local tax liability of multistate taxpayers, including the equitable apportionment of tax bases and settlement of apportionment disputes.
2. Promote uniformity or compatibility in significant components of tax systems.
3. Facilitate taxpayer convenience and compliance in the filing of tax returns and in other phases of tax administration.
4. Avoid duplicative taxation.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this compact:

1. "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.
2. "Subdivision" means any government unit or special district of a state.
3. "Taxpayer" means any corporation, partnership, firm, association, governmental unit or agency or person acting as a business entity in more than one state.
4. "Income tax" means a tax imposed on or measured by net income including any tax imposed on or measured by an amount arrived at by deducting expenses from gross income, one or more forms of which expenses are not specifically and directly related to particular transactions.
5. "Capital stock tax" means a tax measured in any way by the capital of a corporation considered in its entirety.
6. "Gross receipts tax" means a tax, other than a sales tax, which is imposed on or measured by the gross volume of business, in terms of gross receipts or in other terms, and in the determination of which no deduction is allowed which would constitute the tax an income tax.

7. "Sales tax" means a tax imposed with respect to the transfer for a consideration of ownership, possession or custody of tangible personal property or the rendering of services measured by the price of the tangible personal property transferred or services rendered and which is required by state or local law to be separately stated from the sales price by the seller, or which is customarily separately stated from the sales price, but does not include a tax imposed exclusively on the sale of a specifically identified commodity or article or class of commodities or articles.

8. "Use tax" means a nonrecurring tax, other than a sales tax, which (a) is imposed on or with respect to the exercise or enjoyment of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership, possession or custody of that property or the leasing of that property from another including any consumption, keeping, retention, or other use of tangible personal property and (b) is complementary to a sales tax.

9. "Tax" means an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales tax, use tax, and any other tax which has a multistate impact, except that the provisions of Articles III, IV and V of this compact shall apply only to the taxes specifically designated therein and the provisions of Article IX of this compact shall apply only in respect to determinations pursuant to Article IV.

ARTICLE III. ELEMENTS OF INCOME TAX LAWS.

Taxpayer Option, State and Local Taxes.

1. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party state or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party states may elect to apportion and allocate his income in the manner provided by the laws of such state or by the laws of such states and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with Article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party states or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party states or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. For the purposes of this paragraph, taxes imposed by subdivisions shall be considered separately from state taxes and the apportionment and allocation also may be applied to the entire tax base. In no instance wherein Article IV is employed for all subdivisions of a state may the sum of all apportionments and allocations to subdivisions within a state be greater than the apportionment and allocation that would be assignable to that state if the apportionment or allocation were being made with respect to a state income tax.

Taxpayer Option, Short Form.

2. Each party state or any subdivision thereof which imposes an income tax shall provide by law that any taxpayer required to file a return, whose only activities within the taxing jurisdiction consist of sales and do not include owning or renting real estate or tangible personal property, and whose dollar volume of gross sales made during the tax year within the state or subdivision, as the case may be, is not in excess of $100,000 may elect to report and pay any tax due on the basis of a percentage of such volume, and shall adopt rates which shall produce a tax which reasonably approximates the tax otherwise due. The multistate tax commission, not more than once in five years, may adjust the $100,000 figure in order to reflect such changes as may occur in the real value of the dollar, and such adjusted figure, upon adoption by the commission, shall replace the $100,000 figure specifically provided herein. Each party state and subdivision thereof may make the same election available to taxpayers additional to those specified in this paragraph.

Coverage.

3. Nothing in this Article relates to the reporting or payment of any tax other than an income tax.

ARTICLE IV. DIVISION OF INCOME.

1. As used in this Article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, co-operative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipeline, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a federal, state or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this Article.

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This state" means the state in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this Article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

2. Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this Article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this Article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this Article.

3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this Article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (1) in that state he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

4. Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in paragraphs 5 through 8 of this Article.

5. (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state: (1) if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state, or (2) in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

6. (a) Capital gains and losses from sales of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if (1) the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or (2) the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

7. Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

8. (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state: (1) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state, or (2) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

9. All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

10. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

11. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from sub-rentals.

12. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

13. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

14. Compensation is paid in this state if:

- (a) the individual's service is performed entirely within the state;
- (b) the individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or
- (c) some of the service is performed in the state and (1) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or (2) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

15. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

16. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) the property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (1) the purchaser is the United States government or (2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

17. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if:

(a) the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or

(b) the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

18. If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this Article do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting;

(b) the exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

ARTICLE V. ELEMENTS OF SALES AND USE TAX LAWS.

Tax Credit.

1. Each purchaser liable for a use tax on tangible personal property shall be entitled to full credit for the combined amount or amounts of legally imposed sales or use taxes paid by him with respect to the same property to another state and any subdivision thereof. The credit shall be applied first against the amount of any use tax due the state, and any unused portion of the credit shall then be applied against the amount of any use tax due a subdivision.

Exemption Certificates. Vendors May Rely.

2. Whenever a vendor receives and accepts in good faith from a purchaser a resale or other exemption certificate or other written evidence of exemption authorized by the appropriate state or subdivision taxing authority, the vendor shall be relieved of liability for a sales or use tax with respect to the transaction.

ARTICLE VI. THE COMMISSION.

Organization and Management.

1. (a) The Multistate Tax Commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party state who shall be the head of the state agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency, the state shall provide by law for the selection of the commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The attorney general of each party state or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party state specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the commission, but shall not vote. Such attorneys general, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph 1 (e) of this Article.

(b) Each party state shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the commission member from that state.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its executive committee may determine. The commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notice of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall appoint an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The executive director shall be secretary of the commission. The commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party state, the executive director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(l) The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

Committees.

2. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall have an executive committee of seven members, including the chairman, vice-chairman, treasurer and four other members elected annually by the commission. The executive committee, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall function as provided in the bylaws of the commission.

(b) The commission may establish advisory and technical committees, membership on which may include private persons and public officials, in furthering any of its activities. Such committees may consider any matter of concern to the commission, including problems of special interest to any party state and problems dealing with particular types of taxes.

(c) The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

Powers.

3. In addition to powers conferred elsewhere in this compact, the commission shall have power to:

(a) Study state and local tax systems and particular types of state and local taxes.

(b) Develop and recommend proposals for an increase in uniformity or compatibility of state and local tax laws with a view toward encouraging the simplification and improvement of state and local tax law and administration.

(c) Compile and publish information as in its judgment would assist the party states in implementation of the compact and taxpayers in complying with state and local tax laws.

(d) Do all things necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this compact.

Finance.

4. (a) The commission shall submit to the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: one-tenth in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion to the amount of revenue collected by each party state and its subdivisions from income taxes, capital stock taxes, gross receipts taxes, sales and use taxes. In determining such amounts, the commission shall employ such available public sources of information as, in its judgment, present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the sources used in obtaining information employed in applying the formula contained in this paragraph.

(c) The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under paragraph 1 (i) of this Article: provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under paragraph 1 (i), the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

(d) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its by-laws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(e) The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any person authorized by the commission.

(f) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII. UNIFORM REGULATIONS AND FORMS.

1. Whenever any two or more party states, or subdivisions of party states, have uniform or similar provisions of law relating to an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales or use tax, the commission may adopt uniform regulations for any phase of the administration of such law, including assertion of jurisdiction to tax, or prescribing uniform tax forms. The commission may also act with respect to the provisions of Article IV of this compact.

2. Prior to the adoption of any regulation, the commission shall:

(a) As provided in its bylaws, hold at least one public hearing on due notice to all affected party states and subdivisions thereof and to all taxpayers and other persons who have made timely request of the commission for advance notice of its regulation-making proceedings.

(b) Afford all affected party states and subdivisions and interested persons an opportunity to submit relevant written data and views, which shall be considered fully by the commission.

3. The commission shall submit any regulations adopted by it to the appropriate officials of all party states and subdivisions to which they might apply. Each such state and subdivision shall consider any such regulation for adoption in accordance with its own laws and procedures.

ARTICLE VIII. INTERSTATE AUDITS.

1. This Article shall be in force only in those party states that specifically provide therefor by statute.

2. Any party state or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records or other documents may request the commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

3. The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which he is a resident: provided that such state has adopted this article.

4. The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this Article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this Article.

5. The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

6. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this Article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

7. Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this Article.

8. In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

9. As used in this Article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in Article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

ARTICLE IX. ARBITRATION.

1. Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this Article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of Article VII.

2. The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ Article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of Article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party states or subdivisions thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

4. The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residents within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

5. The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

6. The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.

7. The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoenas, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in states that have adopted this Article.

8. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. 1. This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any seven states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

3. No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

ARTICLE XI. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS AND JURISDICTION.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party state shall be obligated to implement Article III [paragraph] (2) of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax: provided that the definition of "tax" in Article VIII [paragraph] (9) may apply for the purposes of that Article and the commission's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to Article VI [paragraph] (3) may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

ARTICLE XII. CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or of the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

84-7201. Short title. This act may be cited as the Property Taxpayers Information Act of 1974.

History: En. 84-7201 by Sec. 1, Ch. 286, L. 1974.

An act to require taxing authorities to hold hearings prior to increasing property taxation rates; requiring the department of revenue to certify total valuations and millage rates to taxing authorities; and providing an effective date.

84-7202. Certification of taxable values and millage rates. At the time that the assessment roll is prepared and published, the department of revenue shall certify to each taxing authority the taxable value within the jurisdiction of the taxing authority. The department shall also send to each taxing authority a written statement of its best estimate of the total assessed value of all new construction and improvements not included on the previous assessment roll, and the value of deletions from the previous assessment roll. Exclusive of such new construction, improvements, and deletions the department shall certify to each taxing authority a millage rate which will provide the same ad valorem revenue for each taxing authority as was levied during the prior year. For the purpose of calculating the certified millage, the department shall use ninety-five per cent (95%) of the taxable value appearing on the roll, exclusive of properties appearing for the first time on the assessment roll.

84-7203. Increase of tax revenue—advertising of intention required.

No taxing authority shall budget an increased amount of ad valorem tax revenue exclusive of revenue from ad valorem taxation on properties appearing for the first time on the assessment roll, unless it advertises its intention to do so at the same time that it advertises its intention to fix its budget for the forthcoming fiscal year.

84-7204. Resolution or ordinance for increase over certified millage.

No millage in excess of the department's certified millage shall be levied until a resolution or ordinance has been approved by the governing board of the taxing authority, which resolution or ordinances must be approved by said taxing authority according to the following procedure:

(1) The taxing authority shall advertise its intent to exceed the department's certified millage in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, as provided in section 3 [84-7203] of this act. The advertisement shall state that the taxing authority will meet on a day, at a time and place fixed in the advertisement, which shall be approximately seven (7) days after the day that the advertisement is published, for the purpose of hearing comments regarding the proposed increase and to explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The meeting may coincide with the meeting on the tentative budget as required by law.

(2) The taxing authority, after the public hearing has been held in accordance with the above procedures, may adopt a resolution or ordinance levying a millage rate in excess of the certified millage. If the resolution or ordinance adopting said millage rate is not approved on the day of the public hearing, the day, time and place at which the resolution or ordinance will be scheduled for consideration and approval by the taxing authority must be announced at the public hearing. If the resolution or ordinance is to be considered at a day and time that is more than two (2) weeks from the public hearing, the taxing authority must again advertise in the same manner as provided in sections 3 [84-7203] and 4(1) [84-7204(1)] of this act.

84-7205. Approval and copies of resolution or ordinance. The resolution or ordinance approved in the manner provided for in this act shall be forwarded to the assessor, treasurer and the department of revenue. No millage in excess of the department's certified millage can be levied until the resolution or ordinance to levy required in section 4(1) and (2) [84-7204(1) and (2)] of this act is approved by the governing board of the taxing authority and submitted to the assessor and the department of revenue.

L. 1974.

84-7206. Exceptions for decisions of tax appeal boards. The department shall notify each taxing authority of any change in the assessment roll which results from actions by the state or county tax appeal boards. An increase in the taxing authority's millage above that certified by the department, or adopted by resolution or ordinance of the governing body of the taxing authority, which is required solely by a reduction of the assessment roll by the state or county board of tax appeals, may be adopted without further notice.

L. 1974.

84-7207. Additional millage increase—readvertising and revoting. If, after the initial millage vote provided for in section 3 [84-7203] of this act, the taxing authority determines that it requires a greater millage or fails to act in the specified period, it shall readvertise and revote as required in sections 3 and 4 [84-7203 and 84-7204] of this act.

History: En. 84-7207 by Sec. 7, Ch. 286,

(4) consider applications for grants and award grants, subject to the availability of funds, and to the appropriation of such funds by the legislature from the alternative energy research development and demonstration funds for projects that will further the purposes of this act;

(5) appoint an alternative energy advisory committee composed of representatives of state agencies and citizen members with expertise in alternative energy matters. The appointment of any such advisory committee shall be in keeping with section 82A-110.

History: En. 84-7410 by Sec. 5, Ch. 501, L. 1975.

84-7411. Applications for grants. Any person may apply for a grant to enable him to research, develop or demonstrate alternative renewable energy sources. The department shall prescribe the form for applications. Applicants shall describe the nature of their proposed investigations, including practical applications of the possible results and time requirements.

History: En. 84-7411 by Sec. 6, Ch. 501,

84-7412. Criteria for grant awards. The department may award grants to applicants under section 84-7411 in accordance with the following criteria:

(1) A grant may cover a period not exceeding one (1) year, and the department may not commit itself to spending funds anticipated to be available more than one (1) year after the grant period begins. The department may give an applicant a statement of intent to renew its support of his work, subject to the availability of funds and such other conditions as the department may express.

(2) The department may give preference to projects which are also supported by grants from the federal government or other persons provided the grants are consistent with the other objectives of the department. The purpose of this preference is to use the alternative energy research development and demonstration account for matching moneys in order to support more substantial research.

(3) The department may give preference to research centers unattached to existing educational institutions where several investigators can share supporting services. However, this shall not be interpreted to prohibit the department from awarding grants to existing educational institutions.

(4) The department may give preference to research centers which make information available to individuals, small businesses, and small communities seeking the use of renewable energy sources in their homes, plants, places of business, and small communities.

(5) All information resulting from such research shall be made available to the public and shall not become the private property of or under the exclusive control of any one (1) company or person.

(6) The department is under no requirement to expend or commit available alternative energy research, development and demonstration funds when in its judgment such expenditures or commitments would be unproductive.

History: En. 84-7412 by Sec. 7, Ch. 501,
L. 1975.

84-7413. Biennial report. The department shall report its expenditures and other activities under this act to the legislature at the beginning of each regular legislative session.

84-7501. Citation. This act may be cited as "The Montana Economic Land Development Act."

History: En. 84-7501 by Sec. 1, Ch. 549, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act establishing a procedure for the economic development of Montana through local governmental control, based on land growth patterns established through economic value as a supplement to zoning with economic inducements and penalties; providing authorization to local governments to develop planned development procedures; and providing standards of land usage; and providing an effective date.

84-7502. Policy. The legislature finds that we as a state are currently facing problems in our economic development that will not only cause concern to our state's future but also cutbacks in our state's growth and currently lack to proper development. Inasmuch as many of these economic concerns are based on land use decisions, the state should develop a land use policy which will direct Montana's land use growth through the enactment of a program which will:

(1) enable local control and local decisions to be foremost in determining the state growth pattern;

(2) allow taxation on land and structures to be based on proper land utilization; providing for tax incentives for proper land utilization and tax increases for land developmental abuse;

(3) create a land use policy which does not block economic progress, but rather the development of a program which will meet the social and economic standards necessarily brought about through economic progress;

(4) develop a program which protects our state's beauty and natural features as well as our heritage of agricultural wealth by curbing urban sprawl; and

(5) institute a land use system growth program which supplements zoning and which is structured through local control, and one which is not to be final in action, but rather one of continuing action, whereby land use decisions can continually be re-evaluated and one which would curb unnecessary governmental regulations.

History: En. 84-7502 by Sec. 2, Ch. 549,

84-7503. Purpose. Montanans are faced with a nation hungry for timber, coal, minerals, and recreation opportunities, causing a future in Montana whose heritage appears headed for rapid development and growth. This act, therefore, is designed to meet Montana's needs in a unique way; by reducing the need for zoning and other land control measures and placing our future development under a free market system controlled not by land regulation, but by economics. Specific goals are:

(1) to protect prime agricultural land as it is the backbone of today's Montana economy and the heart of tomorrow's need for a well-fed and healthy economy, keeping Montana's position, in the future, as the breadbasket of the nation;

(2) to encourage urban growth in an inward pattern, rather than a sprawl development, yet through the use of open space provide a greater percentage of open land and a higher density on developed land within the urban area;

(3) to guide industrial and commercial development in Montana;

(4) to develop a program which is controlled and directed on a local level, within the actual land use direction and classification left wherever possible with the local landowner; and

(5) in general, to provide for Montana a land use directional policy which will not regulate our future but rather motivate it into a pattern of desirable economic growth based on the development of private enterprise.

(16) "Budget period" means the period of time, from the start to finish of a growing season for agricultural land, or the construction period in the case of a new or remodeled construction.

(17) "State administrating agency" means the department of community affairs and the department of revenue acting jointly to administer this act. All planning functions required to implement section 84-7505 shall be assigned to the department of community affairs and all taxation responsibilities relating to classifications for tax purposes shall be assigned to the department of revenue.

84-7505. Operation. (1) Within two (2) years of the passage of this act the governing body shall set standards wherein their jurisdictional area is classified into general areas described in this section unless the existing classification system conforms to the provisions of this act. The preparation of a plan by the governing body shall be made after the following steps have been taken regarding the lands in their jurisdictional areas:

(a) a complete inventory of the land and its usage by the governing body, including:

- (i) land types, based on federal standards;
- (ii) the floodplain of all streams and rivers;
- (iii) current vegetation patterns, i.e., cropland, irrigated land, range-land, nonproductive land;
- (iv) developed land; and
- (v) all federal, state, or Indian land.

Decisions shall be co-ordinated with the department of revenue.

(2) After collection of this data it shall be displayed in public for a minimum of thirty (30) days. During the period the material is displayed there shall be notification made of a public meeting at which time the materials will be displayed, described, and the method of classification will be explained to the general public. Any changes of land classification suggested shall be taken under advisement by the governing body and at their discretion be encompassed into the land classification.

(3) Within one hundred twenty (120) days of the adoption of the plan the governing body shall indicate on a map the proposed land categories in their jurisdictional area and so notify all landowners in the jurisdictional area, by registered mail. This notification shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) the classification, or classifications, given the individual landowners' land;

(b) the meaning of the classification; and

(c) a time and place for a hearing to be held, within thirty (30) days of notice for purposes of discussing the general classification(s).

(4) Following the public meeting the governing body may or may not reclassify any land in accordance with requests made at the meeting.

(5) A final land use plan shall then be prepared by the governing body, which plan shall reflect a combination of existing uses of land in a manner which through prudent use encompasses both growth and conservation. This plan shall then be submitted to the state administration agency not later than January 2, 1978. If a city or county has failed to prepare this plan within the required time, the department of community affairs or its agent shall prepare the plan.

(6) In preparing the plan, the following categories shall be used:

(a) agricultural;

(b) recreational;

(c) residential;

(d) commercial;

(e) industrial; and

(f) open space.

History: En. 84-7505 by Sec. 5, Ch. 549,
L. 1975.

84-7506. County option. After the provisions of section 84-7505 have been complied with and all public hearings held, the local governing body may proceed directly into further implementation provided in section 84-7507 or hold an election of electors within the affected land area. If the voters reject further implementation of the classification plan, the plan may not be implemented and no new election on that plan or any other plan may be held for the period of one (1) year.

History: En. 84-7506 by Sec. 6, Ch. 549,

84-7507. Classification. The department of revenue shall conduct hearings upon the classifications of land according to desirable use proposed by each governing body within the county and shall, after considering the record of such hearings, make the final classification of the desirable usage of land in each county as proposed by the governing body if such proposals are in accordance with the following criteria:

(1) Taxable land shall be classified as agricultural when such action would:

- (a) encourage the preservation of prime agricultural soils, or
- (b) encourage the preservation of those limited areas of the state which contain the proper combination of soil and topographical characteristics necessary for intense agricultural development, or

(c) discourage those uses and activities which are incompatible with the rural character of a district, or

(d) provide minimal development standards which would assure the continuation of the open and rural character of the district and permit only those uses and activities which are compatible with this rural character.

(2) Taxable land shall be classified as recreational when such action would:

(a) discourage those uses and activities which would create congestion, noise, or hazards incompatible with recreation activities established on the land, or

(b) encourage the continuation or initiation of outdoor recreation on suitable lands.

(3) Taxable land shall be classified as residential when such action would:

(a) conserve the character of established residential neighborhoods as has been done by municipal zoning, or

(b) encourage the growth of cities and towns in efficient patterns while discouraging wasteful urban sprawl, or

(c) open new lands to residential areas provided such usage is accompanied by utility expansion, streets, and other needed and related facilities such as schools and commercial developments, if such development is considered necessary by the governing body.

(4) Taxable land shall be classified as industrial when such action would:

(a) be in character with existing uses, or

(b) shield the surrounding area from noise, glare, pollution, or other actions or activities objectionable to the general public, or

(c) provide areas of land contiguous rather than spread over the community or area and located in such locations where the prevailing wind and water flow pattern is favorable to the inhabitants of the area.

(5) Taxable land shall be classified as commercial when:

(a) it would be in character with existing uses, or

(b) it is located in such a pattern or manner to provide needed services to a growing community, or

(c) its highest and best use is determined to be commercial, said usage being based on decisions of mutual advantage of both customers and merchants, or

(d) when the classification of the land will promote the most desirable developments in each area, conserve the value of land, and thus promote public safety, convenience, prosperity, and welfare.

(6) Taxable land may be taken from the tax base and classified open space, whether public or private, when:

(a) it is to the public benefit to provide for the preservation of permanent open space, green belts, or similar landscape features, or

(b) such action will provide land to screen or otherwise hide through visual control objectionable man-made features, or

(c) such action will provide land to encourage, assist, and provide means for more desirable urban and rural developments.

(7) Such classifications of desirable use shall be accepted by the department of revenue.

History: En. 84-7507 by Sec. 7, Ch. 549,
L. 1975.

84-7508. Management of classified area. Once land is classified into a taxable classification, it shall be managed by the governing body to encourage its continued usage in that classification. Changes in classification shall be subject to review by the department, however, the department cannot override the decision of the governing body either in connection with such changes or in connection with the original classification pursuant to section 84-7507, without cause. Items for cause are:

(1) That the intended use in the reclassification of agricultural land would not be to the benefit of the general community because it would not:

(a) assure that those portions of the state containing prime agricultural soils would be preserved for agricultural purposes, or

(b) encourage the use and preservation of those limited and irreplaceable portions of the state which contain the proper combination of soil and topographical characteristics for intense agricultural development.

(2) That the intended use in the reclassification of recreational land would not be to the benefit of the general community because it would not:

(a) protect recreational development, so far as is possible and appropriate in each area, against the establishment of uses which would create hazards, offensive noise, or offensive activities, or

(b) protect existing recreational development against congestion, so far as is possible and diminish its effectiveness as a recreational unit.

(3) That the intended use by reclassification of residential land would not be to the benefit of the general community because it would not:

(a) encourage the construction of, and the continued use of, the land for various residential purposes, if in fact this was its best and natural usage, or

(b) prohibit commercial and industrial uses of the land and to prohibit any other use which would substantially interfere with the development or continuation of residential uses, or

(c) prohibit any use which because of its character or size creates requirements and costs for public services, such as police and fire protection, water supply and sewage facilities, substantially in excess of such requirements and costs if the district were developed solely for residential purposes.

(4) That the intended use by reclassification of any land category to industrial land would not be to the benefit of the general community because its reclassification would not:

(a) provide facilities to minimize traffic congestion, or

(b) provide for facilities and the operation of industries which minimize noise, glare, air pollution, water pollution, and fire and safety hazards in industrial districts, or

(c) provide beneficial, social, and economic pattern of growth for the area in which the land so classified occurs, or

(d) provide protection from offensive noise, vibration, smoke, dust, odors, heat, glare, or other objectionable influences.

(5) That the intended use by reclassification of any land category to commercial land would not be to the benefit of the general community because its reclassification would not:

(a) provide protection from offensive noise, vibration, smoke, and heavy traffic, or

(b) provide sufficient space in appropriate locations for the transaction of all types of commercial and miscellaneous service activities in beneficial relation to one another, and thus to strengthen the economic base of the community, or

(c) provide appropriate space, and in particular sufficient depth from the street, to satisfy the needs of modern commercial development, including the need for off-street parking in areas where a large proportion of customers come by automobile, or

(d) encourage the tendency of commercial development to concentrate, to the mutual advantage of both customers and merchants, and the urban pattern of growth.

(6) Once classified as open space, no land so classified may be reclassified until the provisions of section 62-605 have been met.

History: En. 84-7508 by Sec. 8, Ch. 549,
L. 1975.

84-7509. Subclassification of land. Under the provisions of this act the land outside the jurisdictional boundary of a city or town, which is classified either agricultural or recreational may be subclassified by the owner subject to the terms of sections 84-7510 and 84-7511.

History: En. 84-7509 by Sec. 9, Ch. 549,
L. 1975.

84-7510. Subclassification by owners of taxable land classified as agricultural. (1) With two (2) years following the classification of taxable land as agricultural, an owner thereof shall elect to subclassify his lands into classes A, B, C, or D, or any combination thereof. The department of revenue, upon receipt of the owner's election, shall revise the previously appraised value of such lands as follows:

Class A—appraisals shall be reduced twenty per cent (20%) from their levels immediately preceding the classification;

Class B—appraisals shall be reduced ten per cent (10%) from their levels immediately preceding the classification;

Class C—appraisals shall be reduced two per cent (2%) from their levels immediately preceding the classification;

Class D—appraisals shall be increased ten per cent (10%) from their levels immediately preceding the classification, and may be revalued in future years as provided by law to reflect market value.

(2) The owner of class A land, his heirs, successors, or assigns, may not convert the use of such lands to any nonagricultural purpose for twenty-five (25) years, nor may the subclassification be changed for twenty-five (25) years.

(3) The owner of class B land, his heirs, successors, or assigns, may not convert the use of such land to any nonagricultural purpose for ten (10) years, nor may the subclassification be changed for ten (10) years.

(4) The owner of class C land, his heirs, successors, or assigns, may change the subclassification within the agricultural classification at any time, and may petition the department of revenue at any time for reclassification into another subclassification. The department may grant this petition provided that if the subclassification is to class D, it shall not be granted until the petitioner has first paid the difference in taxes which would have been paid since the subclassification or ten (10) years, whichever is less, if during that period the land had been subclassified as class D.

(5) The owner of class D land, his heirs, successors, or assigns, may petition the department of revenue for reclassification into another category at any time, which petition shall be granted.

(6) If a voluntary subclassification of land has not been made by the owner of record within the two (2) year period, the department of revenue shall automatically place the land in class D and it shall remain in this classification unless before placing it in class D the owner of the land requests assistance from the local planning authority or the department of community affairs in determining which subclassification to elect. If this request is made by the owner of record the land will not be classified D until thirty (30) days after such assistance is provided by the local planning authority or department of community affairs.

History: En. 84-7510 by Sec. 10, Ch. 549,
L. 1975.

84-7511. Subclassification by owners of taxable land classified as recreational. (1) Within two (2) years following the classification of taxable land as recreational, in the event the land also qualifies as agricultural land, an owner thereof shall elect to subclassify any or all of his lands into class A, class B, or a combination of the two.

(2) The department shall appraise class B lands at their market value as recreational lands.

(3) The department of revenue, upon receipt of the owner's election, shall reduce the previously appraised value of class A lands by twenty-five per cent (25%) and shall thereafter maintain such appraisals at seventy-five per cent (75%) of the value of the land so long as it remains class A.

(4) The owner of class A land, his heirs, successors, and assigns, shall agree with the department of fish and game for a minimum of ten (10) years to permit public access across the land for outdoor recreational purposes, subject to such reasonable limitations for the protection of the land and the privacy of the persons residing thereon as the owner may stipulate. If this agreement or a renewal thereof is not in force, the subclassification of the land reverts to class B. The owner of class A recreational land, his heirs, successors, and assigns may not change the use of such land to any purpose incompatible with established recreational uses during the term of an agreement with the department of fish and game.

(5) The owner of class B land, his heirs, successors, and assigns, shall agree that in addition to meeting the standards of subsection (4) of this section, they further would agree to allow public camping and overnight stay upon their property in designated locations without charge.

(6) The department of revenue, in addition to any other tax schedule placed on the land, shall reduce the previously appraised value of class B land by forty per cent (40%) and shall thereafter maintain such appraisals at sixty per cent (60%) of the value of the land so long as it remains class B.

History: En. 84-7511 by Sec. 11, Ch. 549,

84-7512. Valuation of residential land. After classification as residential land, whether occupied or not, the land shall not change in value for tax purposes unless it meets or is governed by the following provisions:

(1) Class A—existing residential. Tax valuation changes shall be made in the following manner:

(a) If the existing usage is expanded or remodeled to expand land densities to a level ten per cent (10%) higher than the property surrounding that expanded or remodeled based on a measurement of nine hundred (900) feet from the property line of the piece of property being expanded or remodeled, then the conditions of class C new residential (multifamily) shall be followed.

(b) If existing residential property is remodeled to increase its valuation, the total valuation shall be reduced for the first five (5) years after the remodeling commencing in the amount of the remodeling costs the first year and, reducing in an amount of twenty per cent (20%) per year for each remaining year in the five (5) year period.

(c) Residential land whose usage is altered to one other than residential shall be valued at forty per cent (40%) over the normal valuation for that usage in the state, unless the change is approved by the governing body. This increase shall apply for the first ten (10) years, after which no additional tax shall be levied. If said improvement is approved by the governing body, it shall be taxed as described in subsection (3) of this section.

(d) If residential land is transferred from this category to any class of agricultural land, after the enactment of this act, there shall be an immediate reduction of value to the appropriate subclassification of the land into which the transferred land is reclassified.

(2) Class B—new residential (single family). Any land which is converted to new residential shall be evaluated as follows:

(a) Land transferred from productive land shall be valued in accordance with the appropriate sections of this act with the following exceptions:

(i) Land indicated as a planned unit developed and approved by the governing body shall be classified for tax purposes at ten per cent (10%) below the normal valuation in the area for similar developments.

(ii) Land transferred from nonproductive land to residential purposes shall be evaluated at the time of transfer in an amount to decrease the tax valuation as follows:

Land within the jurisdictional $4\frac{1}{2}$ mile limit of a community	20% a year for a period of 5 years
Land between $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles and 10 miles from the jurisdictional limit	10% a year for a period of 5 years
Land beyond 10 miles, measured from the ($4\frac{1}{2}$) mile limit of the nearest incorporated city in a direct line	5% a year for a period of 5 years

(iii) Land taken out of production and transferred to residential shall, in addition to any other provision of this act, be increased in taxable valuation in the following amounts:

Land within the jurisdictional $4\frac{1}{2}$ mile limit of a community	2% a year for a period of 10 years
Land between $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles and 10 miles from the jurisdictional limit	10% a year for a period of 10 years
Land beyond the 10 mile limit, measured from the nearest incorporated city in a direct line	25% a year for a period of 10 years

(3) Class C—new residential (multifamily). Land which is transferred from any use to multifamily other than planned unit development or recreational developments as approved by the governing authority in addition to any other provision of this act shall be valued as follows:

Existing Density	Change in Density	Increase (Decrease) in Appraised Value
0-1	+50%	+50%
1-3	+40%	+25%
3.1-9	+30%	+25%
9.1-18	+10%	+ 2%
Over 18	No change	No change

(4) Class D—commercial land. Land converted to commercial development within the classification of residential land shall be, in addition to any other portion of this act, valued as follows:

Existing Density	Change in Density	Increase (Decrease) in Appraised Value
0-1	+20%	+10%
1-3	+10%	+ 5%
3.1-9	+ 5%	+ 2%
9.1-18	No change	No change
18.1-36	—10%	— 5%

(a) Class A—all lands existing at the passage of this act, in a category of developed land, which lands are to continue in their existing tax categories for ten (10) years, and which, at the end of ten (10) years, if not remodeled or cleared, are to be taxed according to commercial land class C;

(b) Class B—those lands which expand an existing facility either through the remodeling or through a value increase of 10% or more from its approved value of an existing location or the acquisition of land to expand an existing facility, or both, meeting the following requirements, shall be so classified:

(i) when the expansion has no unfavorable or adverse effects on the property surrounding the facility, and

(ii) when the immediate cost of additional local services will be covered by the tax impact of the facility, or the expanded facility will meet these needs by its own resources, and

(iii) when the new facility will create new economic opportunities for those living in the community, and

(iv) when the new facility will not have an adverse effect on natural resources or scenic characteristics of the area, and

(v) when the development has been planned for and co-ordinated with the governing body.

(c) Class C—those lands and/or facilities which when remodeled or expanded will:

(i) cause a tax burden in the community because the expansion will require added community services to meet the impact,

(ii) not cause an unfavorable or adverse effect on the community,

(iii) the impact causes an increase in population by adding one per cent (1%) or more population measured in a fifty (50) mile radius from the point of expansion, or

(iv) provide needed and desired economic impact in the community.

(d) Class D—those lands and/or facilities which when remodeled or expanded will:

84-7517. Taxation and classification of new industrial land. After the termination of the construction period of a new industrial facility the following adjustments in valuations shall be made. The adjustments are in addition to current evaluation standards. Classification prior to location of facility means the classification existing prior to any attempt to obtain a variance without a change in the boundary under section 84-7523 for the location of that particular facility.

Location of Facility	Classification Prior to Industrial Land Classification

(1) To assist in developing green belts and providing needed open space both the private sector and the public, may acquire or dedicate open space. If open space is acquired by the governing body, it must be:

- (a) essential to the orderly growth and development of the area;
- (b) in accordance with the program of comprehensive planning for the area at the time of its creation; and
- (c) in accordance with the provisions of Montana law.

(2) Open space may be acquired by the governing body by purchase, trade or other means available other than condemnation. Once land is classified as open space, it must remain as such until it is determined by the governing body to be out of phase with the master plan, at which time the land may be traded for a feasible equivalent. Open space land dedicated under this act, once declared, either by the governing body or the public, may not be sold unless it meets the provisions of section 84-7519.

(2) Open space land dedicated in any agricultural zone may be used for agriculture as directed by the governing body, by the original owner dedicating the land and any successors in interest.

(3) No owner may classify more than ten per cent (10%) of his land open space without the permission of the governing body, however, he may place any amount into recreational land as defined by this act.

(2) Any increases in taxation to pay for the loss of revenue caused by this act shall be reflected in an increase in mill levies and not in an increase in the valuation of specific property.

(3) Any property under one (1) or more ownerships may be so classified as to meet one (1) or more of the standards of this act.

(4) Hospitals, churches, rest homes, nursing homes, governmental buildings, schools, colleges, or any charitable institution operating on a non-profit basis under section 84-202, may be located in any area of land so classified by this act, with the exception of recreational or open space classification.

84-7523. Changes in boundaries. After final adoption of a plan, the governing body, or any property owner may petition for a variance or a change in the boundary of any land use classification. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the petition, the governing body shall forward a copy of the petition to the affected municipal, regional, or county planning organization and the appropriate state agencies. After sixty (60) days but within one hundred twenty (120) days of the receipt of a petition, the governing body shall advertise a public hearing to be held in the county, and serve notice on the persons and agencies that have an interest in the subject of the petition, at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing date.

No petition shall be approved unless the petitioner submits proof that the area is needed for a use other than that for which the land is classified, and the following requirements have been fulfilled:

(1) The land is usable and adaptable for the use for which it is proposed to be classified or that a new use of the land would be more beneficial to the area; and

(2) Conditions and trends of development have so changed since the adoption of the existing classification, that the proposed classification is reasonable and desirable, and the land is capable of sustaining the use proposed; and

(3) That the proposed change shall offer the community relief from impact from an outside or uncontrollable influence facing the community because of new and substantial development.

Should the governing body approve the change in classification, it shall modify the existing land use plan to reflect such changes and change any taxable valuations as may be necessary.

Any increases or decreases in value specifically provided for under the terms of this act shall be made after consideration of all such reappraisals.

History: En. 84-7525 by Sec. 25, Ch. 549,

CHAPTER 76—BUILDING AND LOAN OR SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—TAXATION

Section

84-7601. Taxation of associations.

84-7601. Taxation of associations. (1) Every building and loan or savings and loan association subject to regulation under Title 7, chapter 1, R. C. M. 1947, shall be assessed for and pay taxes upon all real and personal property owned by the association, and also upon the moneyed capital employed in the business. The moneyed capital shall be ascertained by deducting from the amount of bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, including evidences of indebtedness secured by mortgage on real estate or personal property, of the associations, the amount standing to the credit of the members of an association, upon its books, and any indebtedness representing money borrowed for use as moneyed capital. The moneyed capital as so ascertained shall be taxed at the same rate and take the same classification as shares of stock in a national bank or moneyed capital coming into substantial competition therewith. The secretary of an association shall furnish to the department of revenue or its agent in the county in which the principal office of the association is located, within five (5) days after demand, a condensed statement verified by his oath, of the resources and liabilities of the association as disclosed by its books, at 12 noon on the first day of January in each year. If the secretary fails to make the statement hereby required, the department or its agent shall immediately obtain the information from any other available source, and for this purpose he shall have access to the books of the association. The department or its agent shall thereupon make an assessment of the real estate and personal property owned by the association, and of the moneyed capital employed in the business of the association, which assessment shall be as fair and equitable as he may be able to make from the best information available, or the assessor may, for the purpose of the assessment, adopt the figures disclosed by any prior report made by the association to any state or federal officer under a state or federal law. A person required by this section to make the statement provided for in this section, who fails to furnish it, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The amount standing to the credit of each member of an association, upon its books, shall be considered and held as the individual credit of each member, and each member shall list the shares held by him for taxation, at their real value in money, in the county of his residence, the same as other credits are listed, except shares from which loans have been made, or money advanced, by the association, and as to such shares they shall be listed for taxation at the net cash value of the stock, to be ascertained by deducting the loan from the cash value of the shares. Associations organized under or controlled by Title 7, chapter 1, are subject to taxation in no other way.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 431, and once by Ch. 388. Neither amendment mentioned or included the changes made by the other. Since there appears to be no conflict between them, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

In addition, Ch. 431, Laws of 1975, redesignated this section as Sec. 84-7001. Since there is already a Sec. 84-7001, the compiler has renumbered the section to appear here.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue or its agent" for "assessor of the county" throughout the section to implement Article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution.

Chapter 388, Laws of 1975, substituted "first day of January" for "first Monday of March" near the end of the fourth sentence of subsection (1).

Chapter 431, Laws of 1975, inserted "building and loan or savings and loan" and "subject to regulation under Title 7, chapter 1, R. C. M. 1947" in the first sentence of subsection (1); substituted "shall be ascertained" for "to be ascertained" in the second sentence of subsection (1); substituted near the end of subsection (1) "the assessor may" for "the department or its agents may"; designated the first paragraph as subsection (1) and the second paragraph as subsection (2); substituted "controlled by Title 7, chapter 1 are subject to" for "controlled by this act, shall be subject to"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

If the seller fails to tender the goods as provided by this section, the buyer may elect to recover an amount equal to the trade-in allowance stated in the agreement.

(3) If the seller refuses within the period prescribed by subsection (1) to return the cash down payment or goods tendered as down payment, he shall be liable to the buyer for the entire down payment and if the buyer is successful in his action therefor the court shall also award him one hundred dollars ($100) plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

(4) Until the seller has complied with this section the buyer may retain possession of goods delivered to him by the seller and shall have a lien on the goods in his possession or control for any recovery to which he may be entitled.

For the purpose of this section, forty (40) days shall be presumed to be a reasonable time.

The 1965 amendment inserted "created by will or otherwise"; inserted "or the rate or amount of" before "compensation"; substituted "such compensation as may be reasonable under the circumstances" for "the same compensation as an executor"; and deleted second and third sentences, for text of which see parent volume.

86-513. Trustee appointed by will, deed or agreement—income trust beneficiary—annual statement. The trustee or trustees appointed by any will, deed or agreement heretofore or hereafter executed shall mail or deliver at least annually to each income trust beneficiary a written itemized statement of all current receipts and disbursements made by the trustee of the funds of the trust, both principal and income, and upon the request of any such beneficiary shall furnish him an itemized statement of all property then held by such trustee, and may also file any such statement in the district court of the county in which the trustee or one of the trustees resides.

In addition thereto any such trustee or trustees, whenever it or they so desire, may file in the district court of the county in which the trustees or one of the trustees resides an intermediate account under oath showing:

- (1) the period covered by the account;
- (2) the total principal with which the trustee is chargeable according to the last preceding account or the inventory if there is no preceding account;
- (3) an itemized statement of all principal funds received and disbursed during such period;
- (4) an itemized statement of all income received and disbursed during such period, unless waived;
- (5) the balance of such principal and income remaining at the close of such period and how invested;
- (6) the names and addresses of all living beneficiaries, including contingent beneficiaries, of the trust, and a statement as to any such beneficiary known to be under legal disability;
- (7) a description of any possible unborn or unascertained beneficiary and his interest in the trust fund.

In addition thereto, after the time for termination of the trust shall have arrived, the trustee or trustees may file a final account in similar manner.

Upon the petition of any settlor or of any beneficiary of such a trust, after due notice thereof to the trustee, the district court in the county where the trustee or one of the trustees resides may direct the trustee or trustees thereof to file in said court such an account at any time subsequent to one year from the day on which such a report was last filed, or if none, then after one (1) year from the inception of the trust.

When any such account shall have been filed, the clerk of the court where filed shall fix a return day therefor and issue a notice as provided for herein. If each of the beneficiaries and the guardians and guardians ad litem, if any, is personally served with a copy of the notice, whether within or outside the state of Montana, at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the return day, then no publication of the notice shall be required; otherwise the trustee or trustees shall cause notice as provided for herein to be given by publishing the same at least once a week for three (3) successive weeks preceding the return day, the first publication to be at least twenty-five (25) days preceding the return day, such publication to be in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, or if none, then in adjoining county. And in any event, at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the return day, a copy of the notice shall be either served upon each beneficiary not represented by guardian or guardian ad litem or mailed to each such beneficiary not so served at such beneficiary's address last known to the trustee; and shall be either served upon each guardian and guardian ad litem, or mailed to each such guardian and guardian ad litem not so served at such guardian's or guardian ad litem's address last known to the trustee. Proof of service of the notice may be made by affidavit, as provided for service of summons in civil actions, or by written admission of service signed by the person served. The notice shall state the time and place for the return day, the name or names of the trustee or trustees who have filed the account, that the account has been filed, that the court is asked to settle such account, and that any objections or exceptions thereto must be filed with the clerk of said court on or before such return day.

Upon or before the return day, any beneficiary of the trust may file his written objections or exceptions to the account filed or to any action of the trustee or trustees set forth therein. The court may appoint either the legal guardian of a beneficiary, or a guardian ad litem to represent the interest of any such beneficiary who is an infant or of unsound mind or otherwise legally incompetent, or who is yet unborn or unascertained, and such beneficiary shall be bound by any action taken by such representative. Every unborn or unascertainable beneficiary shall be concluded by any action taken by the court for or against any living beneficiary of the same class or whose interests are similar to the interests of such unborn or unascertainable beneficiary.

At the same time, or at some later day fixed by the court if so requested by one or more of the parties, the court, without the intervention of a jury and after hearing all the evidence submitted, shall determine the correctness of the account and the validity and propriety of all actions of the trustee or trustees set forth therein including the purchase, retention and disposition of any of the property and funds of the trust, and shall render its decree either approving or disapproving the same or any part thereof, and, in addition, may surcharge the trustee or trustees for all losses, if any, caused by negligent or willful breaches of trust.

The decree so rendered shall be deemed final, conclusive and binding upon all the parties interested including all incompetent, unborn and unascertained beneficiaries of the trust, subject only to the right of appeal hereinafter stated.

The decree so rendered shall be a final order from which any party in interest may appeal as in civil actions to the district court of the state of Montana.

This chapter shall not apply to resulting trusts, constructive trusts, business trusts where certificates of beneficial interest are issued to the beneficiaries, investment trusts, voting trusts, insurance trusts prior to the death of the insured, trusts in the nature of mortgages or pledges, trusts created by judgment or decree of a federal court or of the district court when not sitting in probate, liquidation trusts or trusts for the sole purpose of paying dividends, interest or interest coupons, salaries, wages or pensions; nor shall this chapter apply to executors, administrators or guardians.

The settlor of any trust governed by this chapter may waive any or all of the provisions of this act requiring periodical statements to beneficiaries or may add additional duties in the instrument creating the trust; and any beneficiary entitled to an accounting under this act may waive such an accounting by a separate instrument delivered to the trustee or trustees.

CHAPTER 8—MANAGEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS

Section 86-801.	Definitions.
86-802.	Endowment funds subject to appropriation and expenditure.
86-803.	Donor's intention restricting expenditure of net appreciation.
86-804.	Allowable investments.
86-805.	Delegation of investment authority—advisory service.
86-806.	Ordinary business care and prudence.
86-807.	Release of restrictions in gift instrument.
86-808.	Uniformity of construction.
86-809.	Citation of act.

86-801. Definitions. In this act:

(1) "Institution" means an incorporated or unincorporated organization organized and operated exclusively for educational, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes, or a governmental organization to the extent that it holds funds exclusively for any of these purposes.

(2) "Institutional fund" means a fund held by an institution for its exclusive use, benefit, or purposes, but does not include

(a) a fund held for an institution by a trustee that is not an institution, or

(b) a fund in which a beneficiary that is not an institution has an interest, other than possible rights that could arise upon violation or failure of the purposes of the fund.

(3) "Endowment fund" means an institutional fund, or any part thereof, not wholly expendable by the institution on a current basis under the terms of the applicable gift instrument.

(4) "Governing board" means the body responsible for the management of an institution or of an institutional fund.

(5) "Historic dollar value" means the aggregate fair value in dollars of

(a) an endowment fund at the time it became an endowment fund,

(b) each subsequent donation to the fund at the time it is made, and

(c) each accumulation made pursuant to a direction in the applicable gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The determination of historic dollar value made in good faith by the institution is conclusive.

(6) "Gift instrument" means a will, deed, grant, conveyance, agreement, memorandum, writing or other governing document (including the terms of any institutional solicitations from which an institutional fund resulted) under which property is transferred to or held by an institution as an institutional fund.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to establish guidelines for the management and use of investments held by eleemosynary institutions and funds.

86-802. Endowment funds subject to appropriation and expenditure. The governing board may appropriate for expenditure for the uses and purposes for which an endowment fund is established so much of the net appreciation, realized and unrealized, in the fair value of the assets of an endowment fund over the historic dollar value of the fund as is prudent under the standard established by section 6 [86-806]. This section does not limit the authority of the governing board to expend funds as permitted under other law, the terms of the applicable gift instrument or the charter of the institution.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-803. Donor's intention restricting expenditure of net appreciation. Section 2 [86-802] does not apply if the applicable gift instrument indicates the donor's intention that net appreciation shall not be expended. A restriction upon the expenditure of net appreciation may not be implied from a designation of a gift as an endowment, or from a direction or authorization in the applicable gift instrument to use only "income," "interest," "dividends," or "rents, issues or profits," or "to preserve the principal intact," or a direction which contains other words of similar import. This rule of construction applies to gift instruments executed or in effect before or after the effective date of this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-804. Allowable investments. In addition to an investment otherwise authorized by law or by the applicable gift instrument, and without restriction to investments a fiduciary may make, the governing board, subject to any specific limitations set forth in the applicable gift instrument or if the applicable law other than law relating to investment by a fiduciary, may:

(1) invest and reinvest an institutional fund in any real or personal property deemed advisable by the governing board, whether or not it produces a current return, including mortgages, stocks, bonds, debentures and other securities of profit or nonprofit corporations, shares in or obligations of associations, partnerships or individuals, and obligations of any government or subdivision or instrumentality thereof;

(2) retain property contributed by a donor to an institutional fund for as long as the governing board deems advisable;

(3) include all or part of any institutional fund in any pooled or common fund maintained by the institution; and

(4) invest all or any part of an institutional fund in any other pooled or common fund available for investment, including shares or interests in regulated investment companies, mutual funds, common trust funds, investment partnerships, real estate investment trusts or similar organizations in which funds are commingled and investment determinations are made by persons other than the governing board.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-805. Delegation of investment authority—advisory service. Except as otherwise provided by the applicable gift instrument or by applicable law relating to governmental institutions or funds, the governing board may:

- (1) delegate to its committees, officers or employees of the institution or the fund, or agents, including investment counsel, the authority to act in place of the board in investment and reinvestment of institutional funds;
- (2) contract with independent investment advisers, investment counsel or managers, banks, or trust companies, so to act; and
- (3) authorize the payment of compensation for investment advisory or management services.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-806. Ordinary business care and prudence. In the administration of the powers to appropriate appreciation, to make and retain investments and to delegate investment management of institutional funds, members of a governing board shall exercise ordinary business care and prudence under the facts and circumstances prevailing at the time of the action or decision. In so doing they shall consider long- and short-term needs of the institution in carrying out its educational, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes, its present and anticipated financial requirements, expected total return on its investments, price level trends and general economic conditions.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-807. Release of restrictions in gift instrument. (1) With the written consent of the donor, the governing board may release, in whole or in part, a restriction imposed by the applicable gift instrument on the use or investment of an institutional fund.

(2) If written consent of the donor cannot be obtained by reason of his death, disability, unavailability or impossibility of identification, the governing board may apply in the name of the institution to the appropriate court for release of a restriction imposed by the applicable gift instrument on the use or investment of an institutional fund. The attorney general shall be notified of the application and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. If the court finds that the restriction is obsolete, inappropriate or impracticable, it may by order release the restriction in whole or in part. A release under this subsection may not change an endowment fund to a fund that is not an endowment fund.

(3) A release under this section may not allow a fund to be used for purposes other than the educational, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes of the institution affected.

(4) This section does not limit the application of the doctrine of cy pres.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

Separability Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 389, Laws 1973 read "If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared severable."

86-808. Uniformity of construction. This act shall be so applied and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this act among those states which enact it.

87-103. Benefits. (a) Payment of benefits. Benefits are payable from the fund to any individual who is or becomes unemployed and eligible for benefits as is herein prescribed; provided, however, that wages earned for services performed as an employee representative as defined in the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (52 Stat. 1094), or for services performed for an employer, as defined in said act, shall not be included for the purposes of determining eligibility or weekly benefit amount under this act. All benefits shall be paid through public employment offices in the state of Montana, or other agencies designated by the division, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the division may prescribe.

(b) Weekly benefit amount. Any individual whose benefit year begins on or after July 1, 1971, shall receive as his weekly benefit amount, an amount equal to one twenty-sixth (1/26) of his total wages for insured work paid during the calendar quarter of his base period in which his wages were highest. Such weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of one dollar ($1), shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of one dollar ($1).

On or before May 31 of each year, the total wages paid by all employers as reported on contribution reports submitted on or before such date for the preceding calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly number of individuals employed during the same preceding calendar year as reported on such contribution reports. The amount thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two (52) and the average weekly wage, rounded to the nearest cent, thus determined. Fifty per cent (50%) of the average weekly wage shall constitute the maximum weekly benefit amount and shall apply to all maximum weekly benefit amount claims for benefits filed to establish a benefit year commencing on or after July 1 of the same year. Such maximum weekly benefit amount if not a multiple of one dollar ($1), shall be computed to the nearest multiple of one dollar ($1). Beginning on July 1, 1975, the fifty per cent (50%) of the average weekly wage shall be raised to fifty-five per cent (55%) and beginning July 1, 1976, be raised to sixty per cent (60%) of the average weekly wage.

The minimum weekly benefit amount shall be twelve dollars ($12).

The division shall prepare and publish annually a benefit schedule in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(c) Qualifying wages. To qualify as an insured worker an individual must have been paid wages for insured work in the quarters of his base period, other than the quarter in which his wages were highest, an amount totaling not less than thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount.

(d) Wage record. The division shall maintain a record of the wages paid to an individual in accordance with wages earned by him for employment by employers during each quarter.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment made substantial deletions at the beginning and end of the first sentence in subsection (a); rewrote the benefits schedule, generally increasing the amounts payable; increased the maximum weekly benefit from $34 to $42; reduced the minimum weekly benefit from $15 to $13; rewrote subsection (c) to substitute the requirement of earnings totaling one and one-half times the high-quarter earnings for a requirement of $100 in earnings other than in the high quarter; and made numerous minor changes in phraseology.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote subsections (b) and (c), slightly reducing benefits in the lower wage brackets and slightly increasing benefits in the higher wage brackets, reducing the minimum weekly benefit from $13 to $12, and increasing the maximum weekly benefit from $42 to $47 effective July 1, 1971 and to $52 effective January 1, 1972.

The 1973 amendment substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; deleted from subsection (b) first and second paragraphs setting minimum and maximum weekly benefit amounts; added new second, third and fourth paragraphs to subsection (b); substituted "in the quarters of his base period, other than the quarter in which his wages were highest, an amount" in subsection (c) for "in his base period"; and substituted "thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount" at the end of subsection (c) for "one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times his high-quarter wages during his base period including the high quarter."

The 1975 amendment added the last sentence in the second paragraph of subsection (b).

87-104. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to any eligible individual during any benefit year shall be:

(a) (1) Thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount if he is qualified as an insured worker as defined in section 87-103 (c), and does not qualify under subsection (2) or (3) below.

(2) Twenty (20) times his weekly benefit amount if in addition to meeting the requirements of section 87-103 (c), he has been paid wages of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for insured work in each of two (2) quarters in his base period other than the quarter in which his wages were highest.

(3) Twenty-six (26) times his weekly benefit amount if in addition to meeting the requirement of section 87-103 (c), he has been paid wages of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for insured work in each of three (3) quarters in his base period other than the quarter in which his wages were highest.

(4) Extended benefits if he is qualified as provided under the provisions of this subsection.

(a) Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise—

(1) "Extended benefit period" means a period which

(A) begins with the third week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(i) a week for which there is a national "on" indicator, or

(ii) a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(B) ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later:

(i) the third week after the first week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a state "off" indicator, or

(ii) the thirteenth consecutive week of such period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the fourteenth week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(2) There is a "national 'on' indicator" for a week if the U.S. Secretary of Labor determines that for each of the three (3) most recent completed calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and one-half per cent ($4\frac{1}{2}\%$).

(3) There is a "national 'off' indicator" for a week if the U.S. Secretary of Labor determines that for each of the three (3) most recent completed calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and one-half per cent (4½%).

(4) There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the division determines, in accordance with the regulations of the U.S. Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this act—

(A) equaled or exceeded one hundred and twenty per cent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen (13) week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, and

(B) equaled or exceeded four per cent (4%).

(5) There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if the division determines, in accordance with the regulations of the U.S. Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this act—

(A) was less than one hundred and twenty per cent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen (13) week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, or

(B) was less than four per cent (4%).

(6) "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection, means the percentage derived by dividing

(i) the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent thirteen (13) consecutive-week period, as determined by the division on the basis of his reports to the U.S. Secretary of Labor, by

(ii) the average monthly employment covered under this act for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such thirteen (13) week period.

(7) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this act or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits.

(8) "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period.

(9) "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(A) has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this act or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this subparagraph an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although (i) as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits.

(B) his benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week; and

(C) (i) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the U.S. Secretary of Labor; and (ii) has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law he is considered an exhaustee.

(11) "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the U.S. Secretary of Labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(b) Effect of state law provisions relating to regular benefits on claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.—Except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this section, as provided in the regulations of the division, the provisions of this act which apply to claims for, or the payment of, regular benefits shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.

(c) Eligibility requirements for extended benefits.—An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in this eligibility period only if the division finds that with respect to such week:

(1) he is an "exhaustee" as defined in subsection (a)(10),

(2) he has satisfied the requirements of this act for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits; including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits.

(d) Weekly extended benefit amount.—The weekly extended benefit amount payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in his eligibility period shall be an amount equal to the weekly benefit amount payable to him during his applicable benefit year.

(e) Total extended benefit amount. — The total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect to his applicable benefit year shall be the least of the following amounts:

(1) fifty per cent (50%) of the total amount of regular benefits which were payable to him under this act in his applicable benefit year;

(2) thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount which was payable to him under this act for a week of total unemployment in the applicable benefit year.

(f) (1) Beginning and termination of extended benefit period.—Whenever an extended benefit period is to become effective in this state (or in all states) as a result of a state or a national “on” indicator, or an extended benefit period is to be terminated in this state as a result of state and national “off” indicators, the division shall make an appropriate public announcement.

(2) Computations required by the provisions of subsection (a)(6) shall be made by the division, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the U.S. Secretary of Labor.

(3) The effective date of subsection (a)(4) of this section shall be January 1, 1972.

(b) an individual disqualified by and pursuant to section 87-106, subsections (a), (b) and (c), shall have his maximum weekly duration reduced by the number of weeks equal to the number of weeks of disqualification.

(c) Effective with respect to compensation for weeks of unemployment beginning before December 31, 1976, and beginning after December 31, 1974, the determination of whether there has been a state “on” or “off” indicator beginning or ending an extended benefit period shall be made under this subsection as if paragraph (a) did not contain subparagraph (4)(a)(4)(A) and (4)(a)(5)(A) thereof.

The 1969 amendment designated the former section as subdivision “(a),” substituted “subsection (2) or (3)” for “subsection (b) or (c)” at the end of subsection (a) (1); redesignated former subsections (a) (b) and (c) as subsections (1), (2) and (3) of subdivision (a); and added subdivision (b).

(a) He has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report at an employment office in accordance with such regulation as the division may prescribe, except that the division may, by regulation, prescribe that such types of cases or situations with respect to which it finds that compliance with such requirements would be oppressive, or would be inconsistent with the purposes of this act, provide for registration and reporting for work by mail or through other governmental agencies.

(b) to (d) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(e) An individual who received benefits during a benefit year must perform services for remuneration after the beginning of that year as a condition for receiving benefits in a second benefit year. Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 323 and once by Ch. 368. Since the changes made by Ch. 368 were included in the changes made by Ch. 323, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Burden of Proof

Unemployment compensation claimant has the burden of showing that he is not disqualified from the receipt of benefits. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

Type of Work

Under statute providing that claimant must be available for work and seeking work, claimant was not eligible where all his applications were either for work in which he had no experience or work which he had no prospect of securing; claimant voluntarily removed himself from only then-existing labor market in area for which he was qualified by refusal to accept farm or ranch work because he despised it. Noone v. Reeder, 151 M 248, 441 P 2d 309.

Withdrawal from Labor Market

Claimant, who voluntarily withdrew himself from the active labor market, rendered himself ineligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

87-106. Disqualification for benefits. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits—

(a) If he has left work without good cause attributable to the employment for a period of not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) weeks (in addition to and immediately following the waiting period), as determined by the division according to the circumstances in each case; but, he shall not be disqualified if the division finds that:

(1) He left his employment because of personal illness or injury not associated with misconduct, or left his employment upon the advice of a licensed and practicing physician, and after recovering from his illness or injury when recovery is certified by a licensed and practicing physician, he returned to his employer and offered his service and his regular or comparable suitable work was not available, if so found by the division, provided he is otherwise eligible.

(b) If he has been discharged:

(1) For misconduct connected with his work, or affecting his employment, for a period of not less than two (2) nor more than nine (9) weeks (in addition to and immediately following the waiting period), as determined by the division in each case according to the seriousness of the misconduct.

(2) For gross misconduct connected with his work or committed on the employer's premises, as determined by the division, for a period of twelve (12) months.

(c) If he failed, without good cause, either to apply for available and suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the division or to accept suitable work offered to him which he is physically able and mentally qualified to perform, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the division. Such disqualification shall continue for the week in which such failure occurred and for not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) weeks in addition to the waiting week which immediately follow such week as determined by the division according to the circumstances in each case.

(1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the division shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and previous earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(2) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) For any week with respect to which the division finds that his total unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which he is or was last employed, provided that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the division that—

(1) and (2) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Provided, that if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purpose of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises; provided, further, that if the division, upon investigation, shall find that such labor dispute is caused by the failure or refusal of any employer to conform to the provisions of any law of the state wherein the labor dispute occurs or of the United States pertaining to collective bargaining, hours, wages or other conditions of work, such labor dispute shall not render the workers ineligible for benefits.

(e) For any week with respect to which he is receiving or has received payment in the form of—

(1) Wages in lieu of notice or separation or termination allowance;

(2) Compensation for disability under the Workmen's Compensation Law or the Occupational Disease Law of this or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, provided, however, that when an injured claimant has ceased to draw compensation benefits and shall have returned to the labor market, he shall then be entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under this title, if he shall be otherwise qualified. Provided further, that compensation which is received as a payment for a permanent partial disability shall not be computed to be spread over a period of weeks in advance so as to bar the recipient from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under this title, provided the recipient has returned to the labor market and is otherwise qualified;

(3) Benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act or any state unemployment compensation act or similar laws of any state or of the United States. This disqualification does not apply to any week with respect to which an individual is receiving or has received benefits under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States, if such benefits are paid pursuant to section 87-129.

Receipt of any wages, compensation or benefits as set forth in subsection (1), (2), or (3) above, after payment of unemployment benefits, and with respect to the same week for which unemployment benefits were received, will thereupon require such individual to repay such unemployment benefits and the division may collect such unemployment benefits in the same manner as provided for collection of benefits under section 87-145 (d).

(f) During the school year (within the autumn, winter and spring seasons of the year) or the vacation periods within such school year or during any prescribed school term if claimant is a student regularly attending an established educational institution. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this subsection, no otherwise eligible individuals shall be denied benefits for any week because he is in training approved by the division, nor shall such individual be denied benefits with respect to any week in which he is in training approved by the division by reason of the application of provisions in subsection (c) of this section or the application of provisions in section 87-105 (c).

(g) Where retired and receiving retirement compensation paid in whole or in part from funds furnished by an employing unit, which when prorated on a weekly basis, exceeds two (2) times the average weekly benefit amount paid during the last fiscal year, such disqualification to be applied as follows: All wages earned by such individual in the employment from which he has been retired shall not be considered or included in determining his wage credits or weekly benefit amount under sections 87-103 and 87-105. This disqualification does not apply to retired federal personnel, and does not extend to the receipt of benefits under the Federal Social Security Act, as amended.

(h) For any week wherein claimant leaves her most recent employment during pregnancy, and due to such pregnancy, and such disqualifications shall continue through the period of pregnancy unless claimant presents evidence of her physical ability to work at such employment. At any time after the seventh month of pregnancy a claimant, to establish eligibility, must present evidence of physical ability to work at such employment. Further, at any time during the first two (2) months following childbirth, a claimant, to establish eligibility, must present evidence of her physical ability to work at such employment. In any of the cases set forth hereinbefore, such evidence of eligibility must be in the form of certificate of a duly licensed physician that such claimant is physically able to work at her most recent employment, and such evidence must be presented as often as requested by the division.

Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such regulations in places readily accessible to individuals in his service and shall make available to each such individual at the time he becomes unemployed, a printed statement of such regulations. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the division to each employer without cost to him.

(b) Initial determination. A representative designated by the division, and hereinafter referred to as a deputy, shall promptly examine the claim and, on the basis of the facts found by him, shall either determine whether or not such claim is valid, and if valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and the maximum duration thereof, or shall refer such claim or any question involved therein to an appeals referee who shall make his decision with respect thereto in accordance with the procedure prescribed in subsection (e) of this section. No determination or redetermination of an initial or additional claim shall be made under this section unless five (5) days' notice of the time and place of the claimant's interview for examination of the claim is mailed to each interested party. The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and any other interested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. The deputy may for good cause reconsider his decision and shall promptly notify the claimant and such other interested parties of his amended decision and the reasons therefor.

(c) Finality of determination. A determination or redetermination shall be deemed final unless an interested party entitled to notice thereof applies for reconsideration of the determination or appeals therefrom within five (5) days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) days after such notification was mailed to his last known address provided, that such period may be extended for good cause.

Misconduct

The court properly concluded that refusal to train a new employee and refusal to work overtime constituted simple misconduct under this statute. Gaunce v. Board of Labor Appeals, — M —, 524 P 2d 1108.

Prior Workmen's Compensation Settlement

Claimant was barred from receiving unemployment compensation benefits by reason of prior lump-sum workmen's compensation settlement during the period which lump-sum settlement was intended to cover. Keller v. Reeder, 149 M 322, 425 P 2d 830.

(d) Appeals referee. To hear and decide disputed claims, the division shall appoint such impartial appeals referee as are necessary for the proper administration of this act, consisting of salaried examiners selected in accordance with section 87-123. No person shall participate on behalf of the division in any case in which he is an interested party. The division may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of an appeals referee.

(e) Notice of decision of appeals referee and time for appeal. After a hearing an appeals referee shall make findings and conclusions promptly and on the basis thereof affirm, modify, or reverse the deputy's determination or redetermination. Each interested party shall be furnished promptly a copy of the decision and the supporting findings and conclusions; this decision shall be final unless further review is initiated pursuant to subsection (g) of this section within five (5) days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, provided, that such period may be extended for good cause.

(f) Prompt payment of claims. Notwithstanding any provision in subsection (b), (c) or (g) of this section, benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination under this section, or the decision of an appeals referee, the board of labor appeals or a reviewing court under subsection (g) of this section upon the issuance of such determination, redetermination or decision (regardless of the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review that is provided with respect thereto in subsection (g) of this section, as the case may be, or the pendency of any such application, filing, or petition), unless and until such determination, redetermination, or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in accordance with such modifying or reversing redetermination or decision.

If a deputy's determination or redetermination allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by an appeals referee, or by the board of labor appeals, or if a decision of an appeals referee allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by the board of labor appeals, such benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of any further appeal or the disposition of such appeal and no injunction, supersedeas, stay or other writ or process suspending the payment of such benefits shall be issued by the board or any court; but if such decision is finally modified or reversed to deny benefits, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. Benefits shall not be paid for any weeks of unemployment involved in such modification or reversal that begins after such final decision.

The division will promptly transmit all records pertinent to the appeal to the board. When a decision is rendered by the board with copies of such decision to all interested parties, including the division, that decision shall become final unless an interested party requests a rehearing or initiates judicial review by filing a petition in district court within thirty (30) days of the date of mailing of the board's decision to his last known address.

(a) Procedure. The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the division for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not such regulations conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules or procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed. The division shall have continuing jurisdiction over all claims filed for benefits to revise, modify, alter, cancel and amend all orders, findings and determinations made therein at any time and shall not lose such jurisdiction unless and until the jurisdiction of such claim and subject matter thereof has been taken by a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceedings filed therein as provided for in subsection (d) of this section.

(b) Witness fees. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the division. Such fees shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering this act.

(c) Appeal to courts. Any decision of the board of labor appeals in the absence of an appeal therefrom as herein provided shall become final ten days after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof shall be permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted his remedies before the board of labor appeals as provided by this act. The division or board of labor appeals shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial action involving any such decision, and may be represented in any such judicial action by any qualified attorney employed by the division or board of labor appeals and has been designated by it for that purpose, or at the division's or board of labor appeals' request, by the attorney general.

(d) Court review. Within ten days after the decision of the board of labor appeals has become final, any party aggrieved thereby may secure judicial review thereof by commencing an action in the district court of the county in which said party resides against the board of labor appeals for the review of its decision, in which action any other party to the proceeding before the board of labor appeals shall be made a defendant. In such action, a petition which need not be verified, but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served upon a member of the board of labor appeals or its designate for service of process and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there shall be left with the party so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants and the board of labor appeals shall forthwith mail one such copy to each such defendant. With its answer, the board of labor appeals shall certify and file with said court all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with its findings of fact and decision therein. The board of labor appeals may also in its discretion, certify to such court questions of law involved in any decision by it. In any judicial proceeding under this section, the findings of the board of labor appeals as to the facts, if supported by evidence and in the absence of fraud, shall be conclusive, and the jurisdiction of said court shall be confined to questions of law. Such action, and the questions so certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workmen's compensation law of this state. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the said district court to the supreme court of Montana in the same manner, but not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, as is provided in civil cases. It shall not be necessary, in any judicial proceeding under this section, to enter exceptions to the rulings of the division or board of labor appeals and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. Upon the final determination of such judicial proceeding, the division shall enter an order in accordance with such determination. A petition for judicial review shall not act as a supersedeas or stay unless the division or board of labor appeals shall so order.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "division" or "board of labor appeals" for "commission" throughout the section; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Findings of Commission

Finding of unemployment compensation commission that claimant was not available for and seeking work as required by section 87-105 was proper where the evidence showed that claimant quit his job to protect his social security retirement benefits; he knew that his employer would not rehire him if he failed to report off from work; he went to Minnesota to take a rest; and he failed to seek full-time employment. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

Scope of Judicial Review

Under that portion of statute relating to court review, findings of fact by commission, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive and confine scope of judicial review to questions of law. Noone v. Reeder, 151 M 248, 441 P 2d 309; Gaunce v. Board of Labor Appeals, — M —, 524 P 2d 1108.

87-109. Contributions. (a) Payment. (1) Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this act, with respect to wages, as defined in section 87-149 (c), paid for employment (as defined in this act) occurring during such calendar year. Such contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the division for the fund in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the wages of individuals in his employ.

(2) In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one (1) cent.

(b) Rate of contribution.

(1) Each employer shall pay contributions at the rate of three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) of wages, as defined in section 87-149 (c) paid by him with respect to such employment, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

Nonprofit organizations defined in section 501 (c) (3) of the federal internal revenue code and which are exempt from tax under section 501 (a) of such code may elect to make payments in lieu of contributions; the state and its political subdivisions specifically covered by this act and those electing coverage shall make payments in lieu of contributions.

A group of nonprofit organizations may elect with the approval of the division to act as a group in fulfilling the requirements of this subsection or of this act.

(2) Employers required or eligible to elect to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay into the fund an amount equivalent to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals based on wages paid by such employing unit. If benefits paid an individual are based on wages paid by both such employer and one (1) or more other employers, the amount payable by such employer to the fund shall bear the same ratio to total benefits paid to the individual as the base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total amount of base period wages paid to the individual by all his base period employers. If the base period wages of an individual include wages from more than one (1) such employer, the amount to be paid into the fund with respect to the benefits paid to such individual shall be prorated among the liable employers in proportion to the wages paid to such individual by each such employer during the base period. The amount of payment required from such employers shall be ascertained by the division quarterly and shall become due and payable by such employer quarterly as directed in this act. Penalty and interest for delinquency shall be assessed such employers as specified in section 87-135.

(3) Any nonprofit organizations as defined in subsection (b) (1) of this section electing to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions must file with the division a written notice of its election not later than thirty (30) days immediately following the date of the determination of subjectivity to this act. This election shall be for a period of not less than two (2) years.

(A) Any nonprofit organization may terminate its election to make payments in lieu of contributions after two (2) calendar years from the effective date of such election by filing a written notice with the division not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the taxable year for which such termination is effective.

(B) Any nonprofit organization defined in subsection (b) (1) of this section which has been paying contributions for at least two (2) taxable years may change to payments in lieu of contributions by filing with the division a written notice to that effect within thirty (30) days before the beginning of the taxable year for which the change is effective.

(C) If the nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions, the division may terminate the election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next taxable year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the next taxable year.

(4) Payments in lieu of contributions by the state and its political subdivisions shall be an amount equivalent to the amount of benefits paid to individuals based on wages paid by the state and its political subdivisions. The method of determining benefits attributable shall be the same as that set forth in subsection (b) (2) of this section.

(A) From the date of subjectivity to this act through December 31, 1974, payments shall equal three-tenths per cent (.3%) of total wages paid employees for services in employment during the calendar quarter. Employing units covered under this act after December 31, 1974, shall make payments equal to four-tenths per cent (.4%) of total wages paid employees for services in employment during the calendar quarter.

(B) The rates shall be adjusted after three (3) calendar years of subjectivity and the rate shall equal a calculated percentage of total wages paid. Such percentage being derived by dividing the total sum of benefits charged to the employer's account for all past periods which are completed transactions by September 30 immediately preceding the computation date by total wages paid by said employing unit through December immediately preceding the computation date.

(C) When an employing unit becomes eligible for a rate adjustment the division shall determine whether the total payments for the three (3) calendar years and subsequent calendar years is less than, or in excess of, the total sum of benefits charged to the employer accounts. Each employing unit whose total payments for the period are less than the benefit charges shall be liable for payment of the unpaid balance. Such amount shall be due within thirty (30) days from the notice given by the division. If the total payments exceed the amount so determined for the period, the excess may, at the discretion of the division, be refunded or retained as part payments which may be required from the next calendar year.

(c) Experience rating.

The division shall for each calendar year, classify employers in accordance with their actual contributions and unemployment experience and shall determine for each employer the experience factor which shall apply to him throughout the calendar year in order to reflect said experience and classification. The division shall apply such form of classification or experience rating system which is best calculated to rate individually and most equitably the employment for each employer and to encourage the stabilization of employment.

In making such classification, the division shall take account, each to an equal extent, of the following factors relating to the unemployment hazard shown by each employer on the basis of (1) average annual net percentage declines in total payrolls for the last three (3) years prior to computation date; (2) number of years the employer has paid contributions; and (3) average quarterly percentage declines in total payrolls for the last three (3) years prior to computation date. The computation date is hereby fixed as of the close of business on June 30 of the preceding calendar year.

Wages shall be adjusted in the determination of the annual and quarterly decrease percentages of any employer's payroll in whose factory or establishment there was in any year in the qualifying period of such employer, a stoppage of work due to a strike which caused a decrease in such employer's payroll of such magnitude that his actual quarterly and annual payroll caused by such a decrease or decreases when used with other annual and quarterly payroll decreases, if any, in his qualifying period would cause an increase in such employer's contribution rate. An employer's adjusted quarterly payroll for that quarter in which such stoppage of work existed shall be determined by multiplying each such payroll or adjusted payroll for the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which such stoppage of work existed by the average quarterly variation ratio. The average quarterly variation ratio shall be computed by

(1) dividing the payroll, or if adjusted, the adjusted payroll, for that quarter in each of the prior years of an employer's qualifying period which corresponds to the respective quarter in which a stoppage of work due to a strike existed, by the payroll or adjusted payroll for the respective quarter immediately preceding such corresponding quarter, and

(2) totaling the ratio thus obtained and dividing by the number of such ratios.

EMPLOYER CLASSIFICATIONS:

Employers, for the second calendar quarter of the calendar year 1975 and thereafter, shall be grouped into fourteen (14) classes, to be designated as classes I through XIV, respectively, in accordance with their experience factor.

Each employer shall be in the class listed below on the same horizontal line on which his experience factor appears, and each qualified employer shall pay the contribution rate assigned to his class pursuant to the provisions of reserve to total wages.

The division shall determine the experience factor applicable to each employer for any calendar year subject to the following limitations:

(1) Each employer's rate shall be three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) unless and until there have been three (3) years prior to the computation date throughout which the employer has paid contributions at the maximum tax rate set by law for each of such years and has reported and paid contributions during each of the three (3) calendar years immediately preceding the computation date and with respect to such three (3) calendar years has filed all contribution reports prescribed by the division and paid all contributions due with respect to the three (3) calendar years before March 31 of the rate year. Upon payment of past-due contributions the division shall, for the current year, compute a rate for the next succeeding quarter following the payment.

(2) The classified contribution rates for the calendar year 1969, and thereafter, except as hereinafter provided, shall be: five-tenths of one per centum (.5%), seven-tenths of one per centum (.7%), nine-tenths of one per centum (.9%), one and one-tenth per centum (1.1%), one and three-tenths per centum (1.3%), one and five-tenths per centum (1.5%), one and seven-tenths per centum (1.7%), one and nine-tenths per centum (1.9%), two and one-tenth per centum (2.1%), two and three-tenths per centum (2.3%), two and five-tenths per centum (2.5%), two and seven-tenths per centum (2.7%), two and nine-tenths per centum (2.9%), and three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%).

(3) The division shall by regulation adopt such procedures as may be necessary for the substitution, merging or acquisition of an employer account by an employing unit, and the transfer of such employer account, rights, contributions, payroll experience and ratings to the successor employing unit or units.

(4) The division shall by regulation provide for the proper notification of employers of the classification and rate of contribution applicable to their accounts. Such notification shall be final for all purposes unless and until such employer files a written request with the division for a redetermination or hearing thereon within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice.

(5) "Annual total payroll" means the total of the four (4) quarters of total payrolls of an employer preceding the computation date as fixed herein.

(e) Contribution appeals.

Any person aggrieved by any decision, determination, or redetermination of the division involving contribution liability, contribution rate, application for refund or the charging of benefit payments to employers making payment in lieu of contributions is entitled to a review by the division or its authorized representative, hereinafter referred to as a deputy. The decision of the deputy shall be deemed to be the decision of the division. The division or the deputy conducting the review may refer the matter to an appeal referee, may decide the application for review on the basis of such facts and information as may be obtained or may hear argument to secure further facts. After such review, notice of the decision shall be given to the employing unit. Such decision made pursuant to such review shall be deemed to be the final decision of the division unless the employing unit or any other such interested party, within five (5) calendar days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from this decision. Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 105, and once by Ch. 368. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment designated the former section as subsection (a) and added subsection (b).

Chapter 105, Laws of 1975, substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; redesignated subsections (a) and (b) as subsections (1) and (2); sub-

For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the division's own initiative. If the division shall determine that an employer has paid contributions to this state under this act, when such contributions should have been paid to another state, under a similar act of such other state, transfer of such contributions to such other state shall be made upon discovery, or upon proof of payment that such other state has been fully paid, then refund to such employer shall be made at any time upon application without limitation of time. In the event that this act is not certified by the secretary of labor under section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, 1939, for any year, then and in that event, refunds shall be made of all contributions required under this act from employers for that year.

therein specified, not more than ninety (90) days from the date of the certificate. The said sheriff shall, within five (5) days after the receipt of the certificate, file with the clerk of the district court of his county a copy thereof and thereupon the said clerk of the district court shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the employer mentioned in the certificate, and in the appropriate columns the amount of contributions due and the penalties for which the certificate is issued and the date when such copy is filed and thereupon the amount of such certificate so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in real property or chattels real of the employer against whom it is filed in the same manner as a judgment docketed in the office of such clerk. The said sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgment of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the certificate, to be collected in the same manner.

Upon making such summary or jeopardy assessment, the division shall immediately notify the employer in writing by personal service or by registered mail in the usual course, at the last known principal place of business operated by the said employer. Such assessment shall be final unless the employer shall protest such assessment in writing within fifteen (15) days after service of the notice, or within the same period of time the said employer shall file a correct, signed and sworn report and statement as provided by the act and the regulations of the division. Upon written protest being filed as above set forth, a day certain for the hearing thereof shall be fixed by the division and notice thereof mailed to the employer. At such hearing, the facts ascertained by the division shall be conclusive and the division may upon the basis of such facts ascertained assess the amount due, modify, set aside or revise the prior assessment and require the employer to pay the amount due with penalty and interest as provided for in this act. Attorney's Fees

Attorney who failed to notify unemployment compensation commission that he represented three clients on a contingent fee basis, which the court determined could be considered a debt for "necessaries" under section 87-143, and not having requested notification from the commission so that he could collect his fee from the three men, was unable to proceed against either the commission or the state. McAlear v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 145 M 458, 405 P 2d 219.

87-143. No assignment of benefits—exemptions.

Attorney's Fees

Where services rendered by attorney restored three men to the rolls of the unemployment compensation commission, set aside a one-year purge of their names from those rolls, and cleared their names of fraud, court concluded that under such facts attorney's fees should be considered a debt incurred for "necessaries." McAlear v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 145 M 458, 405 P 2d 219.

87-145. Penalties—falsity or willful nondisclosure—violations by employer or agent—violation of act or regulations—wrongfully collecting benefits. (B) A period of not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty-two (52) weeks have elapsed since the date of such determination by the division, the length of time of the disqualification as herein described to be determined by the division in accordance with the severity of each case.

Employee or Independent Contractor

Despite fact that this section is used as a guide in the determination of the relationship between an employer and an individual performing services, the well established test in determining whether an individual is an employee or an independent contractor is also a guide to be used; lessee of self-service gasoline station was an employee for purposes of this act where he was required to make three reports weekly and daily bank deposits to lessor accounts, where the lessee was required to order gasoline from a distributor named by the lessor and where the total control of the gasoline lay with the lessor. *Pat Griffin Co. v. Independent Contractor operational costs himself, hauled logs from paper company's logging operation site to its log pond, was compensated by weight hauled, could take off any days he chose or could work for others, could hire any relief driver he wanted, could refuse any load he did not want, could choose any route of travel he wanted, and was working under a written contract describing him as an independent contractor and requiring him to carry his own industrial insurance, despite the fact that he had to enter the company's premises to load and unload and that the company determined the hours when crews would be available to assist in loading and unloading. St. Regis Paper Co., Forest Products Division v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 157 M 548, 487 P 2d 524.

Logging trucker was an independent contractor and not covered by unemployment compensation under subdivision (j) (5) of this section where he provided his own truck, licensed and insured it in his own name, repaired it and paid

Where individuals operating Gasamat stations were required to make three reports weekly and daily bank deposits to Gasamat accounts, and were required to order gasoline from distributor named by Gasamat and total control of gasoline was with Gasamat, individuals were employees of Gasamat, and not independent contractors. Pat Griffin Co. v. Employment Security Commission, — M —, 519 P 2d 147.

Timber

A contract for sale of standing timber may be enforced under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code or under general contract law of realty. Pegg v. Mid-State Development Corp., — M —, 529 P 2d 1399.

Part 2—Form, Formation and Readjustment of Contract

87A-2-201. Formal requirements—statute of frauds.

Memorandum of Oral Contract

When farmer accepted and endorsed an advance payment check to which was attached a memorandum referring by number to previously executed grain purchase contracts of which he had been furnished copies, farmer either signed a memorandum of a prior oral contract or he accepted an offer made by the tender of the purchase contracts and he was bound by the terms of the purchase contracts, including the quantity sold, even though he had not executed the contracts themselves. Cargill, Inc. v. Wilson, — M —, 532 P 2d 988.

87A-2-205. Firm offers.

Offer to Buy

Tender to a farmer of a copy of a standard grain purchase contract, executed by a dealer, constituted at least an offer by the dealer to buy the stated quantity of grain from the farmer. Cargill, Inc. v. Wilson, — M —, 532 P 2d 988.

87A-2-206. Offer and acceptance in formation of contract.

Acceptance of Offer

Farmer accepted dealer's offer to buy stated quantity of grain by receiving without objection an executed copy of standard grain purchase contract, by receiving and endorsing an advance payment check to which was attached a memorandum referring by number to the grain purchase contract, and by failing to object for four months to quantity stated. Cargill, Inc. v. Wilson, — M —, 532 P 2d 988.

Part 3—General Obligation and Construction of Contract

87A-2-314. Implied warranty—merchantability—usage of trade.

Breach of Warranty

Implied warranties of merchantability and fitness were not met by artificial insemination service which sold semen to cattle rancher who had experienced a ninety-five per cent calf crop via natural service prior to using artificial insemination, where the rancher experienced a seventy per cent calf crop with artificial insemination in the first year and only a seven per cent calf crop in the second year using semen from the same bull under almost identical conditions; the only logical inference was that the semen purchased for use in the second year was defective. Waddell v. American Breeders Service, Inc., 161 M 221, 505 P 2d 417.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Manufacturer's Warranty

Seller who did not manufacture laundry equipment made no implied warranty of fitness for intended use within former statute providing that one who manufactures an article under order for particular purpose warrants by sale that it is reasonably fit for that purpose, especially in view of seller's disclaimer printed on reverse side of sales agreement. Ryan v. Ald, Inc., 149 M 367, 427 P 2d 53.

87A-2-315. Implied warranty—fitness for particular purpose.

Amendment of Complaint

Granting plaintiff's motion to amend complaint to include theory of implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose was error where motion was presented shortly before trial and plaintiff had relied upon theory of negligence through the entire course of pretrial proceedings; warranty theory was foreign to the proper pleading of the case and required defendant to be prepared for an entirely different defense theory. McGuire v. Nelson, — M —, 508 P 2d 558.

Breach of Warranty

Implied warranties of merchantability and fitness were not met by artificial insemination service which sold semen to cattle rancher who had experienced a ninety-five per cent calf crop via natural service prior to using artificial insemination, where the rancher experienced a seventy per cent calf crop with artificial insemination in the first year and only a seven per cent calf crop in the second year using semen from the same bull under almost identical conditions; the only logical inference was that the semen purchased for use in the second year was defective. Waddell v. American Breeders Service, Inc., 161 M 221, 505 P 2d 417.

87A-2-316. Exclusion or modification of warranties.

Used Farm Equipment—Implied Warranties

Implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for purpose were inapplicable to sale of used farm combine where buyer owned a large farm-ranch operation and had been in the farm business for a substantial length of time and knew or should have known that used machinery was customarily not warranted beyond a sharing of the cost of repairs and he acquiesced in sharing of repair expenses for more than a year. Spurgeon v. Jamieson Motors, — M —, 521 P 2d 924.

Part 4—Title, Creditors and Good Faith Purchasers

87A-2-401. Passing of title—reservation for security—limited application of this section. Each provision of this chapter with regard to the rights, obligations and remedies of the seller, the buyer, purchasers or other third parties applies irrespective of title to the goods except where the provision refers to such title. In so far as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this chapter and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:

(1) to (3) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(4) For transactions involving interstate shipment of cattle the seller may issue a regular title or bill of sale, or give a conditional transfer of title or bill of sale. The conditional transfer of title or bill of sale is fully validated and the title passes when the following conditions are met:

(a) the bank on which the buyer's warrant, check, or draft was drawn, notifies the seller, or his designated bank, that the instrument of payment has cleared the bank for payment, and

(b) a copy of the notification from the buyer's bank is attached to the conditional transfer of title or bill of sale.

(5) A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance reverts title to the goods in the seller. Such reversion occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale."

History: En. Sec. 2-401, Ch. 264, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 130, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted subdivision (4); and redesignated former subdivision (4) as subdivision (5).

Part 6—Breach, Repudiation and Excuse

87A-2-607. Effect of acceptance, etc.

Timeliness of Notice of Breach

In action to recover for breach of warranty of semen sold to cattle rancher by artificial insemination service, buyer gave timely notice of breach of warranty by informing seller of calf crop failure ten months after artificial insemination process. Waddell v. American Breeders Service, Inc., — M —, 505 P 2d 417.

Part 7—Remedies

87A-2-715. Buyer's incidental and consequential damages.

Consequential Damages

Consequential damages are those that ordinarily follow the breach of a contract in the usual course of events, or that reasonable men would have foreseen as a probable result of the breach, and thus in the case of defective semen sold for artificial insemination, the loss of a calf crop would be reasonably foreseeable, but the loss of a second calf crop which might have been produced by the unborn calf crop is not reasonably foreseeable. Baden v. Curtiss Breeding Service, 380 F Supp 243.

87A-2-719. Contractual modification or limitation of remedy.

Limitation of Damages

Clause in telephone company contract for "yellow pages" advertising, limiting liability for errors and omissions in advertising was a valid and binding limitation rather than a contract fixing damages. State ex rel. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co. v. District Court, 160 M 443, 503 P 2d 526.

CHAPTER 3—COMMERCIAL PAPER

Part 1—Short Title, Form and Interpretation

87A-3-112. Terms and omissions not affecting negotiability.

Cross-Reference

Waiver of statutory exemptions in unsecured note unenforceable, sec. 93-5813.1.

Part 4—Liability of Parties

87A-3-407. Alteration.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Material Alteration

In conviction of grand larceny, in which defendant had stolen and subsequently cashed check, the tearing of the check and its repair did not constitute spoilation under former section 55-907, so as to make the check a nonnegotiable instrument. State v. Romero, 146 M 77, 404 P 2d 500.

Part 5—Presentment, Notice of Dishonor and Protest

87A-3-508. Notice of dishonor.

Oral Notice of Dishonor Insufficient Under Circumstances

Oral notice of dishonor of check was insufficient to release payor bank from strict liability rule under section 87A-4-302 where bank president told payee that, although it would take time, checks would clear because things were looking better but checks were never paid and bank made withdrawals from drawer's account to apply against loans not in default. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

87A-3-511. Waived or excused presentment, etc.Applicability

Subsection (4) does not apply to demand items; payor bank was not excused from failure to comply with "midnight deadline" rule of 87A-4-302 by subsection

(4) of this section where checks presented by payees were demand items. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

CHAPTER 4—BANK DEPOSITS AND COLLECTIONSPart 1—General Provisions and Definitions*87A-4-103. Variation by agreement, etc.*Agreement Excusing Payor Bank from Noncompliance with "Midnight Rule"

There was no agreement between payor bank and payees excepting bank from strict liability for noncompliance with "midnight rule" of section 87A-4-302 in its failure to give timely notice of dishonor of checks since: (1) bank's holding and paying of one check as to each of two of the payees was not sufficient to form "a sequence of previous conduct" necessary to establish a course of dealing from which an agreement excusing noncompliance with "midnight rule" could be implied under sections 87A-1-201 (3) and 87A-1-205 (1); and (2) alleged understanding with one payee's agent would not be considered an agreement in view of bank's unique position as drawer's creditor. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Custom and Practice

Custom and practice are relevant under subsection (3), if at all, only with respect to establishment of what standard constitutes ordinary care; where payor bank was subject to higher standard of care because of its status as creditor of drawer of checks, its failure to comply with "midnight rule" of section 87A-4-302 in handling checks for collection could not be excused on ground that established custom and practice of Montana banking industry was to hold such checks for an arbitrary length of time in absence of special instructions and writing. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Interest on Judgment

Determination by the court that the bank was liable for payment of dishonored checks was based on contract law of negotiable instruments, and the provisions of this statute for damages for negligence or bad faith do not apply. Sun River Cattle Co. v. Miners' Bank of Montana, — M —, 525 P 2d 19.

87A-4-108. Delays.Construction

Effect of subsection (2) of this section is to excuse a payor bank from the standard of strict accountability of section 87A-4-302 and to hold it to a standard of "diligence as the circumstances require"; under subsection (2) there must be a showing that the circumstances were beyond the control of the bank and that the bank exercised such diligence as the circumstances required; the burden of proof is on the bank. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Degree of Diligence Required

Degree of diligence required of payor bank attempting to come under "escape clause" provisions of subsection (2) was greater than it otherwise would have been where bank had financed and refinanced drawers of checks and refinancing loans had not yet been completely repaid; showing of diligence required more than testimony as to normal operating procedures; evidence that armored car which delivered checks to clearinghouse broke down on day checks were presented by payees and that clearinghouse's computer malfunctioned after checks were received by it the next day was insufficient to meet bank's burden of proof of excuse for violation of "midnight deadline" where there was no testimony as to what happened on day after checks were initially received by bank; bank was therefore liable for face amount of checks under strict accountability rule of section 87A-4-302. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Part 3—Collection of Items—Payor Banks

87A-4-302. Payor bank's responsibility for late return of item.

"Accountable" Construed

The word "accountable" as used in this section is synonymous with "liable." Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miner's Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Construction

Essentially this section says that in absence of a valid defense, retention by payor bank of a demand item beyond the "midnight deadline" without either paying, returning or giving notice of dishonor renders the bank liable to the payee for the face amount of the item. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Interest on Judgment

Determination by the court that the bank was liable for payment of dishonored checks by virtue of this section was based on contract law of negotiable instruments, and interest was ordered from the second day after the bank's final receipt of the checks. Sun River Cattle Co. v. Miners' Bank of Montana, — M —, 525 P 2d 19.

"Midnight Rule"—Failure to Give Notice of Dishonor

"Midnight rule" was applicable to payor bank and rendered it liable to payees for face amount of checks presented for collection since: (1) the checks were demand items and section 87A-3-511 (4) was thus inapplicable and did not operate to excuse failure to give timely notice of dishonor; (2) there was no agreement between the parties under section 87A-4-103 excepting bank from strict liability since bank's holding and paying of one check as to each of two of the plaintiffs was not sufficient to form "a sequence of previous conduct" necessary to establish a course of dealing from which an agreement could be implied under sections 87A-1-201 (3) and 87A-1-205 (1); (3) alleged understanding with one payee's agent would not be considered an agreement under section 87A-4-103 in view of bank's unique position as drawers' creditor; (4) any oral notice of dishonor given to one plaintiff was ineffective under the circumstances; and (5) custom and practice were not relevant since their relevancy lay only in establishing what standard should constitute ordinary care and bank was subject to more than ordinary standard of care because of its unique position. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Strict Accountability

Degree of diligence required of payor bank attempting to come under "escape clause" provisions of 87A-4-108 (2) was greater than it would otherwise have been where bank had financed and refinanced drawers of checks and refinancing loans had not yet been completely repaid; evidence that armored car which delivered checks to clearinghouse broke down on day checks were presented by payees and that clearinghouse's computer malfunctioned after checks were received by it the next day was insufficient excuse for bank's delay beyond "midnight deadline" and did not relieve it of liability for face amount of checks under the strict accountability rule imposed by this section where there was no testimony as to what happened on day after checks were received by bank. Sun River Cattle Co., Inc. v. Miners Bank of Montana N. A., — M —, 521 P 2d 679.

Part 3—Purchase

87A-8-307. Effect of delivery without endorsement, etc.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Gift of Stock Certificate

Although endorsement may not be absolutely necessary to valid gift of stock certificates, fact that alleged donor had not endorsed certificates as required under former law was evidence that no delivery occurred and hence that there was no valid gift. Bodine v. Bodine, 149 M 29, 422 P 2d 650.

87A-8-319. Statute of frauds.

Option Agreement

Evidence of payment of money pursuant to the purchase of real estate for the purpose of persuading seller to hold the deal open for a certain period of time, and the subsequent actions of the seller in holding the property off the market, were sufficient to establish a valid option agreement, as well as to show that the agreement had been fully performed. Lynch v. Shields, — M —, 529 P 2d 348.

ent volume, were repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 101, Laws 1959. Section 53-138 was repealed by Sec. 5, Ch. 256, Laws 1965.

Part 3—Rights of Third Parties—Perfected and Unperfected Security Interests—Rules of Priority

87A-9-302.1. Financing statements of transmitting utilities—definitions. As used in this act,

(a) "Transmitting utility" means: (1) Any corporation or other business entity primarily engaged, pursuant to rights or franchises issued by and subject to the jurisdiction of a state or federal regulatory body, in the railroad or street railway business, the telephone or telegraph business, the transmission of oil, gas or petroleum products by pipeline, or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas or water, and (2) any other corporation primarily engaged in the production, transmission or distribution of electricity, or the furnishing of telephone service, whether or not such corporation is subject to the jurisdiction of a state or federal regulatory body.

(b) "Uniform Commercial Code" means Chapters 1 through 10 of Title 87A of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1947.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 76, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 279, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act relating to the Uniform Commercial Code of Montana by adding a new section to be known and codified as section 87A-9-408, relating to the filing by certain public utilities of certain instruments required to be filed under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code; providing for a repealing clause; providing for a severability clause; and providing for an effective date.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment subdivided subsection (a), designating the first sentence as subsection (a)(1) and adding subsection (a)(2), and made minor changes in punctuation.

87A-9-302.2. Place of filing of utility financing statement—contents—perfection of security interest. Financing statements of a transmitting utility, notwithstanding sections 87A-9-302(3), 87A-9-302(4), 87A-9-401(1), 87A-9-402, 87A-9-403, 87A-9-404, 87A-9-405 and 87A-9-406 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

(b) When the financing statement covers goods of a transmitting utility which are or are to become fixtures, no description of the real estate concerned is required;

(c) A security interest in rolling stock of a transmitting utility may be perfected either as provided in section 20 (c) of the Interstate Commerce Act or by filing a financing statement pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code as provided in subsection (a).

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 76, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 279, L. 1967.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 279, Laws 1967 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

87A-9-306. "Proceeds"—secured party's rights, etc.

-Application of Proceeds

Where debtor's liquor license had been purchased with advances from bank under security agreement, proceeds from sale of such license were to be applied first to notes secured by such security agreement, then to note secured by an attachment, and finally to other obligations, since sale contract provided that all proceeds were to be placed in escrow with bank to whom all debts were owed. Gallatin Trust & Savings Bank v. Darrah, 153 M 228, 456 P 2d 288.

Res Judicata

Bankruptcy court's rulings that bankrupt did not exchange collateral within twelve months of petition in bankruptcy and that bankrupt did not hold legal title to property received in exchange did not preclude holder of security interest in the collateral from attempting to trace the collateral, and the holder was not liable for malicious prosecution even though it was later held that the security interest was unperfected because filed in the wrong office. 3-D Lumber Co. v. Belgrade State Bank, 157 M 481, 487 P 2d 1136.

Unperfected Security Interest

Subsection (2) did not apply and holder of security interest was not allowed to trace the proceeds of collateral exchanged, where the security interest had not been perfected because it had been filed in the wrong office. Belgrade State Bank v. Elder, 157 M 1, 482 P 2d 135.

87A-9-312. Priorities among conflicting security interests, etc.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Ranking of Priorities

Under statute making liquor license transferable personal property capable of being mortgaged to secure existing debt and other statute providing that mortgage first given, acknowledged and recorded was entitled to priority, owner of note secured by properly recorded mortgage on liquor license was entitled to foreclose mortgage notwithstanding claim of lessor based on covenant in lease whereby lessee agreed not to move liquor license from property. Gaskill v. Severovic, 149 M 340, 426 P 2d 582.

87A-9-401. Place of filing—erroneous filing—removal of collateral.

Forestry and Logging

Forestry and logging are not farming for the purposes of subdivision (1)(a) of this section; filing with the secretary of state is necessary to perfect a security interest on equipment used for that purpose. Belgrade State Bank v. Elder, 157 M 1, 482 P 2d 135.

87A-9-402. Formal requisites of financing statement—amendments.

(1) A financing statement is sufficient if it is signed by the debtor and the secured party, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. Except for financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R.C.M. 1947 when the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned and the name of the record owner or record lessee thereof. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by both parties.

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Name of debtor (or assignor) _____

Name of secured party (or assignee) _____ third sentence and added "and the name of the record owner or record lessee thereof" after "real estate concerned"; and, in subsection (3), inserted after the name and address of the secured party "Name of record owner or record lessee" and "Address."

Amendments

The 1967 amendment, in subsection (1), inserted "Except for financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R. C. M. 1947" at the beginning of the 87A-9-403. What constitutes filing—duration of filing—effect of lapsed filing—duties of filing officer. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) A filed financing statement which states a maturity date of the obligation secured of five (5) years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty (60) days. Any other filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such sixty-day period after a stated maturity date or on the expiration of such five-year period, as the case may be, unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected. A filed financing statement which states that the obligation secured is payable on demand is effective for five (5) years from the date of filing.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party (i) within six (6) months before [and] sixty (60) days after a stated maturity date of five (5) years or less, and (ii) otherwise within six (6) months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five (5) years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon its lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it.

(5) Except financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R.C.M., 1947, if the instrument covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are, or are to become fixtures, or timber, said instrument shall be indexed in accordance with the requirements applicable to the recording of mortgages of real estate under the laws of this state. For the purpose of such indexing, each of the debtor (or assignor) and the record owner or record lessee of any real estate described in the financing statement shall be considered a mortgagor with respect to the financing statement and the secured party (or assignee) shall be considered a mortgagee with respect to the financing statement.

(6) If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement shall be two dollars ($2).

Amendments

The 1967 amendment added a new subsection (5); redesignated old subsection (5) as new subsection (6); and substituted "data" for "date" after "furnishing filing" in the second sentence.

The 1971 amendment increased the fee specified at the end of subsection (6) from one dollar to two dollars; deleted from the end of subsection (6) a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such original or continuation statement"; and made minor changes in style.

87A-9-404. Termination statement. (1) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number, and by document number, as the case may be. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must include or be accompanied by the assignment or a statement by the secured party of record that he has assigned the security interest to the signer of the termination statement. The uniform fee for filing and indexing such an assignment or statement thereof shall be two dollars ($2). If the affected secured party fails to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars ($100), and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(2) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. The filing officer shall remove from the files, mark "terminated" and send or deliver to the secured party the financing statement and any continuation statement, statement of assignment or statement of release pertaining thereto. If the original financing statement or any continuation statement has been indexed in the records relating to real estate mortgages, the termination statement must be indexed in accordance with the requirements applicable to releases of real estate mortgages.

(3) If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement shall be two dollars ($2).

Part 5—Default

87A-9-504. Secured party's right to dispose of collateral after default, etc.

Commercially Reasonable Disposition of Property

Sale of business machinery at private sale for $300 was not commercially unreasonable where guarantors of lease were given advance notice of the sale and declined to bid over $300 for the property; that one of the business machines was later placed on sale to the public for $295 failed to show the sale to be commercially unreasonable since the increase in price was normal, taking into account the expenses of preparation for sale and the commercial mark-up common to the particular trade. Business Finance Co., Inc. v. Red Barn, Inc. — M —, 517 P 2d 383.

Sale as a Unit Is Reasonable

Indication that a better price could have been received at foreclosure sale of a mountain logger, if it had been sold for parts, was not evidence that the sale was unreasonable, since the Uniform Commercial Code does not require the secured creditor to disassemble the collateral and sell it piece by piece. James Talcott, Inc. v. Reynolds, — M —, 529 P 2d 352.

87A-9-505. Compulsory disposition of collateral, etc.

Effect of Notice of Intent to Sell Pledged Collateral

Defaulting debtors could not rely on subsection 2 of this section to contend that secured party's actions in achieving a sale constituted a rescission and satisfaction of the debt so as to bar further recovery where defaulting debtors were given notice of an intent to enforce security interest by means of a sale of pledged collateral and where secured party obtained a writ of mandate ultimately effectuating a sale. Stensvad v. Miners and Merchants Bank of Roundup, — M —, 517 P 2d 715.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Conditional Sales Contract

Upon default of conditional sales contract, seller could treat contract as existing but broken by buyer and maintain action for damages for breach under former statute. White v. Nollmeyer, 151 M 387, 443 P 2d 873.

87A-9-507. Secured party's liability for failure to comply with this part.

Commercially Reasonable

The reasonableness of the sale is determined, not by the price that is ultimately received for the collateral, but by the manner in which the sale is conducted; and where defendant acted in good faith and even transported collateral to auction in another state hoping to find a better market, he conducted the sale in a commercially reasonable manner. James Talcott, Inc. v. Reynolds, — M —, 529 P 2d 352.

Compliance with Notice Provisions

Plaintiff complied with the notice provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code when he sent notice of foreclosure sale to debtor by ordinary mail, since the receipt of mail is presumed if the procedure of the mailing is carried out in a regular manner. James Talcott, Inc. v. Reynolds, — M —, 529 P 2d 352.

water conservation, was repealed by Sec. 7, Ch. 158, Laws 1967.

89-101.1. Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Water Resources Act."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 158, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 118, Ch. 253, L. 1974.

Title of Act

An act providing for the Montana Water Resources Act of 1967; providing an expanded statement of state necessity and policy relating to water resources; amending section 89-103, R. C. M. 1947, providing that name of the state water conservation board shall be changed to Montana water resources board; providing additional powers for the Montana water resources board; providing for a comprehensive inventory of water resources; providing for a state water plan; amending section 89-102, R. C. M. 1947, providing additional definitions; amending section 89-813, R. C. M. 1947, providing that county clerks and recorders shall furnish the Montana water resources board with copies of water appropriations and transfers of water appropriations; and repealing section 89-101, R. C. M. 1947.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment substituted "chapter" for "act" and deleted "of 1967" after "Water Resources Act."

89-101.2. State necessity and policy. It is hereby declared that:

(1) The general welfare of the people of Montana, in view of the state's population growth and expanding economy, requires that water resources of the state be put to optimum beneficial use and not wasted.

(2) The public policy of the state is to promote the conservation, development and beneficial use of the state's water resources to secure maximum economic and social prosperity for its citizens.

(3) The state, in the exercise of its sovereign power, acting through the department of natural resources and conservation shall co-ordinate the development and use of the water resources of the state so as to effect full utilization, conservation and protection of its water resources.

(4) The development and utilization of water resources, and the efficient, economic distribution thereof, are vital to the people in order to protect existing uses and to assure adequate future supplies for domestic, industrial, agricultural and other beneficial uses.

(5) The water resources of the state must be protected and conserved to assure adequate supplies for public recreational purposes and for the conservation of wildlife and aquatic life.

(6) The public interest requires the construction, operation and maintenance of a system of works for the conservation, development, storage, distribution and utilization of water, which construction, operation and maintenance is a single object and is in all respects for the welfare and benefit of the people of the state.

(7) It is necessary to co-ordinate local, state and federal water resource development and utilization plans and projects through a single agency of state government, the department of natural resources and conservation.

(8) The greatest economic benefit to the people of Montana can be secured only by the sound co-ordination of development and utilization of water resources with the development and utilization of all other resources of the state.

(9) To achieve these objectives, and to protect the waters of Montana from diversion to other areas of the nation, it is essential that a comprehensive, co-ordinated multiple-use water resource plan be progressively formulated, to be known as the "state water plan."

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 158, L. 1967;
amd. Sec. 119, Ch. 253, L. 1974.

The department is under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned under this act except from the funds provided by this act, and in any proceedings to condemn, orders may be made by the court having jurisdiction of the suit, action or proceeding as may be warranted by law and the facts.

(2) In condemnation proceedings brought under the the powers of eminent domain for the purpose of carrying out this act, all persons interested in the title of or holding liens upon the property sought to be acquired as disclosed by the public records, shall be made parties, and the court in the action shall partition and distribute the damages awarded, if any, among those persons as their rights appear. If there is controversy between them the court may direct the amount of the damage awarded to be paid into court to abide the result of further appropriate proceedings either at law or in equity.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted the subsection designations; substituted "department" for "board" in three places in subsection (1); inserted "subject to the approval of the board under section 89-103.2" near the beginning of subsection (1); and made minor changes in phraseology throughout the section.

89-105. (349.5) Power of department to construct works and to act beyond jurisdiction. (1) Subject to the approval of the board, the department may construct works, the cost of the construction to be paid wholly by means of or with the proceeds of revenue bonds hereinafter authorized or of a grant to aid in financing the construction from the United States or any instrumentality or agency thereof and of other funds provided under the authority of this act. Before constructing a project, the department shall estimate the cost of the project, the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating it, and the revenues to be derived therefrom, and a project may not be constructed unless, according to the estimates, the revenues to be derived will be sufficient to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating it, and to pay the principal and interest of revenue bonds which may be issued for the cost of the project; however, in connection with the issuance of revenue bonds, the failure of the department to make the estimates required by this section or to make them in proper form does not affect the validity or enforceability of those bonds or of the trust indenture, resolution or other security therefor.

(2) However, should the bid of the lowest responsible bidder on any capital improvement associated with public works as defined in this section exceed the department estimates of the cost of the improvements by more than five per cent (5%), the department shall obtain approval from the water user association before the bid is accepted; however, capital improvements of an emergency nature necessary to protect life or property or to supply immediate needs for water do not require such approval.

(3) The purpose of this act is to meet, so far as possible, a statewide need for the conservation and use of water, through the construction and operation of projects designed for those purposes. The department may make investigations as are necessary to plan and carry out a comprehensive state-wide program of water conservation. The projects to be finally constructed shall qualify as parts of the state-wide program and shall be approved by the board upon the showing of their prospective ability to meet, through the sale of water or other services, the cost of operation, maintenance and repair and the amortization of the cost of the construction; however, the failure of the board to determine the prospective ability of a project does not affect the validity or enforceability of the bonds or of the trust indenture, resolution, or other security therefor.

(4) The department may exercise any of its powers:

(a) In an adjoining state, unless the exercise of that power is not permitted under the laws of that state or of the United States.

(b) In a national forest or public domain of the United States adjoining, or located in, the state of Montana, unless the exercise of those powers is not permitted under the laws of the United States.

(c) In an adjoining country unless the exercise of those powers is not permitted under the laws of that country or of the United States or under the treaties between that country and the United States.

89-106. Department may construct irrigation works across streams, highways, etc. (1) The department may construct irrigation works across any stream of water, watercourse, streets, avenues, highways, railways, canals, ditches or flumes in such manner as to afford security to life and property. The department shall restore the same, when so crossed or intersected, to its former state, as near as may be, so as not to destroy its usefulness. A company whose railroads are intersected or crossed by the works shall unite with the department in forming the intersection and crossing. If the railroad company and the department, or the owners and controllers of the property, thing, or franchise so to be crossed cannot agree upon the amount to be paid therefor, or the points or the manner of the crossing or intersections, the amount shall be ascertained and determined in all respects as herein provided in respect to taking of land for public use.

(2) This section does not require the payment to the state or any subdivision thereof, of a sum for the right to cross a public highway with the works. A right of way is hereby given, dedicated, and set apart to locate, construct, and maintain the works over and through the lands which are the property of this state.

Sections 89-107 and 89-108 (Secs. 1, 2, Ch. 155, L. 1937), authorizing the water conservation board to construct the Sidney pumping project and divert water from the Yellowstone river, were repealed by Sec. 108, Ch. 253, Laws of 1974.

89-111. (349.8) Trust indenture, resolution and covenants of board.

(1) In the discretion of the board, a series of the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside of the state. Each trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state of Montana. The filing of a trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property covered by the trust indenture is located is constructive notice of its contents to all persons from the time of the filing, and the recording of the trust indenture or its contents is not necessary.

(2) Either the resolution providing for the issuance of bonds or the trust indenture may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as are reasonable and proper, not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the state, the board, and the department in relation to the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance, operation, repair, and insurance of the works, the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and it may provide that the works shall be acquired, constructed, or partly acquired and partly constructed and paid for under the supervision and approval of consulting engineers employed or designated by the department and satisfactory to the original purchasers of the bonds issued therefor, their successors, assigns, or nominees, who may be given the right to require that security given by contractors and by any depositary of the proceeds of the bonds or receipts and revenues of the works, or other moneys pertaining thereto, shall be satisfactory to the purchasers, successors, assigns, or nominees. The resolution or indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and trustee, restricting the individual rights of action of bondholders as is customary in trust indentures, deeds of trusts and mortgages securing bonds or debentures of corporations. No enumeration of particular powers hereby granted shall be construed to impair any general grant of power herein contained. All expenses incurred in carrying out the trust indenture may be treated as a part of the cost of maintenance, operation and repairs of the works affected by the indenture.

(3) In connection with the issuance of the bonds for the purpose of paying in whole, or as supplemented by a grant from the United States or any instrumentality or agency thereof, the cost of the works or project, or in order to secure the payment of the bonds, the board may:

(b) Covenant against pledging all or any part of the income, profit and revenue of the works or project and all moneys received from the sale or disposal of water, use of water, water storage, or other service, and from the operation, lease, sale or other disposition of all or any part of the works or project.

(c) Covenant against mortgaging all or any part of the works or project, or against permitting or suffering any lien thereon.

(d) Covenant to fix and establish such prices, rates and charges for water and other services made available in connection with the works or project so as to provide at all times funds which will be sufficient, (1) to pay all costs of operation and maintenance of the works or project together with necessary repairs thereto, and (2) to meet and pay the principal and interest of all the bonds as they severally become due and payable, and (3) to create such reserves for the principal and interest of all the bonds and for the meeting of contingencies in the operation and maintenance of the works or project as the board determines; and make such further covenants as to such prices, rates and charges as the board determines.

(e) Create special funds, in addition to those required by this act, for moneys reserved for principal and interest on bonds or for the meeting of contingencies in the operation and maintenance of the works or project and determine the manner in which, and the depositary or depositaries in which, those funds shall be deposited and the manner in which they shall be secured, and it is lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the state to act as that depositary and to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as required by the board.

(f) Provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed or mutilated bonds.

(g) Covenant against extending the time for the payment of the principal or interest on any of the bonds, directly or indirectly by any means or in any manner.

(h) Prescribe and covenant as to the events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of the bonds shall become or may be declared due before maturity and as to the terms and conditions upon which the declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(i) Covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation.

proportion of them may enforce the covenant or exercise the right of foreclosure.

(3) The department may take into consideration the decrees of the courts of this state having jurisdiction, which purport to adjudicate the waters of a stream or its tributaries, and a fair, reasonable, equitable reconciliation shall be made between the claimants asserting rights under different decrees and between decreed rights and asserted rights of appropriation not adjudicated by any court.

Persons who have heretofore acquired rights to the use of water shall, within six (6) months after the publication of this chapter, file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the water right is situated, a declaration in writing, except notice be already given of record as required by this chapter, or a declaration in writing be already filed as required* by this section, containing the same facts as required in the notice provided for record in section 89-810 of this chapter, and verified as required in said last-mentioned section, in cases of notice of appropriation of water; provided, that a failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall in nowise work a forfeiture of such heretofore acquired rights, or prevent any such claimant from establishing such rights in the courts. From and after July 1, 1967, the county clerk and recorder shall forward to the water resources board a copy of any instrument of water appropriation or instrument transferring any water appropriation which is filed as provided in this section.

89-847. Declaration of policy as to adjudication of waters of the state. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state and necessary for the welfare of the state and its citizens, that the waters of this state and especially interstate streams arising out of the state be investigated and adjudicated as soon as possible in order to protect the rights of water users in this state and negotiate interstate compacts in relation thereto, and that the state water conservation board make investigations to secure necessary information and initiate and carry on actions therefor.

89-849. Appointment of referee to take testimony. In said actions the state water conservation board, or in any action pending for the adjudication of a water right, any party thereto, may make application to the court for the appointment of some competent person or persons to act as a referee or referees in said cause and to take testimony therein, and the court may appoint a referee or referees who shall proceed as herein set forth. In said order of reference the court may submit to said referee or referees any or all issues of fact in said cause.

(h) Persons who had put ground water to a beneficial use, including subirrigation or other natural process, prior to January 1, 1962 had a four (4) year period after January 1, 1962 to file a "declaration of vested ground water rights" in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the claimed right was situated. The right to file a "declaration of vested ground water rights" expired on January 1, 1966; therefore, any person desiring to file on ground water put to beneficial use prior to January 1, 1962, but not filed on by December 31, 1965 may file a "notice of completion." The appropriators right will commence on the date the notice is filed, except as hereinafter provided.

The county clerk shall transmit copies to the office of the administrator and the bureau of mines and geology. The administrator shall attend to filing copies in any other counties affected by the appropriation.

The "declaration of vested ground water rights" as provided for, to be filed on from January 1, 1962 to January 1, 1966 shall be taken and received in all courts of this state as prima facie evidence of the statements therein contained.

Failure to comply with this requirement shall in nowise work a forfeiture of such rights, or prevent any such claimant from establishing such rights in the courts, but he must maintain the burden of proving such unrecorded rights. Provided, however, that persons who have filed the water well log form, provided for in sections 1 and 2 of chapter 58, session laws of Montana, 1957, shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this section. These latter forms may be returned to the county clerks by the administrator for the purpose of correction or for the entry of material facts necessary to fully complete the filing.

Any person, persons, association or corporation, owning or in possession of lands susceptible of irrigation from any stream, the waters of which are so diminished by prior appropriations that a sufficient amount of water for the irrigation of their lands cannot be obtained from the natural flow of the stream, who shall construct a reservoir, or shall purchase or lease water from a reservoir owned by the department of natural resources and conservation, or another, or shall otherwise acquire an interest in such reservoir, or in water stored therein, which is so located that because of natural or other obstacles the water impounded therein cannot be conducted to the lands which they desire to irrigate, may, provided the stored water can be discharged into the stream in such a manner that it can be used beneficially by prior appropriators, divert the natural flow of the stream for the irrigation of their lands in lieu of an equal amount of stored water, provided, however, that such exchange can be made without injury to said prior appropriators.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment substituted "department of natural resources and conservation" for "state water conservation board of the state of Montana."

Lawful Exchange

Owners of rights in canal who, because of the topography of the area, could not transport water from canal directly to their land, properly diverted the natural flow of creek for use on their land and replaced the water with water from the canal which intersected with stream below point of diversion. Thompson v. Harvey, — M —, 519 P 2d 963.

Misuse of Channel

Where petitioners for order authorizing change in point of diversion on creek asserted that protestors had misused channel on Deep Creek, by exchanging canal water for stream water which was removed at points above canal, this use of channel was specifically authorized in Montana law, and protestors did not have unclean hands. Thompson v. Harvey, — M —, 519 P 2d 963.

89-865. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Water Use Act."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing a system for the appropriation and use of surface and groundwater; providing a procedure for the determination and confirmation of existing water rights; establishing a system of centralized records of all water rights; repealing sections 89-121 through 89-123, 89-801 through 89-804, 89-807 through 89-816, 89-829 through 89-842, 89-844 and 89-845, 89-847 through 89-855, 89-857 through 89-864, 89-2912, 89-2913, 89-2919 through 89-2925, and 89-2935, R. C. M. 1947; amending sections 89-1001, 89-2911, 89-2915, 89-2917, and 89-2918, R. C. M. 1947.

89-866. Declaration of policy and purpose. (1) Pursuant to article IX of the Montana constitution, the legislature declares that any use of water is a public use, and that the waters within the state are the property of the state for the use of its people and are subject to appropriation for beneficial uses as provided in this act.

(2) A purpose of this act is to implement article IX, section 3(4) of the Montana constitution, which requires that the legislature provide for the administration, control, and regulation of water rights and establish a system of centralized records of all water rights. The legislature declares that this system of centralized records recognizing and establishing all water rights is essential for the documentation, protection, preservation and future beneficial use and development of Montana's water for the state and its citizens, and for the continued development and completion of the comprehensive state water plan.

(3) It is the policy of this state and a purpose of this act to encourage the wise use of the state's water resources by making them available for appropriation consistent with this act, and to provide for the wise utilization, development, and conservation of the waters of the state for the maximum benefit of its people with the least possible degradation of the natural aquatic ecosystems. In pursuit of this policy, the state encourages the development of facilities which store and conserve waters for beneficial use, for the maximization of the use of those waters in Montana, for the stabilization of stream flows, and for groundwater recharge.

(4) Pursuant to article IX, section 3(4) of the Montana constitution, it is further the policy of this state and a purpose of this act to recognize and confirm all existing rights to the use of any waters for any useful or beneficial purpose.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

"All Existing Rights"

The right to acquire water rights is a valuable right, and its value often depends on its priority; hence, to deprive plaintiff of his priority by dismissal because petition was filed under former law is to deprive him of an existing and valuable water right. General Agriculture Corp. v. Moore, — M —, 534 P 2d 859.

Beneficial Impoundment

Counterclaim against petition of irrigation district for additional appropriation of water was properly denied where evidence was uncontradicted that water was going to waste and that impoundment would be beneficial. Sunset Irrigation District v. Ailport, — M —, 531 P 2d 1349.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Defective Notice of Appropriation

A notice of appropriation filed before the 1885 act but defective in that it was not verified as required by former sections 89-810 and 89-813 not only was not accorded the status of prima facie evidence under former section 89-814 but was not even admissible in evidence. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 111.

Where a notice of appropriation was dated 1886, referred to acts taking place in 1886, and was recorded in 1886, but the notary's certificate was dated 1885, it is obvious from the instrument itself that the date in the notary's certificate was a clerical error, and the notice may be received as prima facie evidence of a right dating from 1886. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 112.

Rebuttal of Prima Facie Evidence

A notice of appropriation meeting the requirements of former section 89-810 and filed in 1886 was admissible in evidence and entitled to be treated as prima facie evidence under former section 89-814 but was not sufficient in itself to establish a water right from that date when its efficacy was destroyed by the claimant's own statement that he first used the water in 1961. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 113.

89-872. Declarations of existing rights. (1) The department shall obtain from the district court an order pursuant to section 89-873 requiring each person claiming an existing right within a specified area or from a specified source to file a declaration of existing right within one (1) year after the effective date of the order. The department shall publish notice of the order once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks prior to its effective date in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected area. Before the last date of publication, the department shall also serve a copy of the order by certified mail upon each appropriator or his successor in interest within the specified area or from the specified source who has requested mailed notice of the order or of whom the department can readily obtain knowledge, and to each person owning or being possessed of lands bordering on the stream or source as ascertained from the land ownership records of the appropriate county. The department shall file in its records proof of service of the notice by affidavit of the publisher in the case of notice by publication, and by its own affidavit in the case of service by mail.

(a) The department of fish and game may represent the public for purposes of establishing any prior and existing public recreational use in existing right determinations under this act, provided that the foregoing shall not be construed in any manner as a legislative determination of whether or not a recreational use sought to be established prior to July 1, 1973, is or was a beneficial use.

(2) A declaration shall be made under oath by each person claiming an existing right to use water within the specified area or from the specified source on a form provided by the department. The department shall make the forms available through its offices and the offices of the county clerks and recorders. The information required by the department may include, but is not limited to, the date of appropriation, the date the water was first applied to a beneficial use, the amount of water appropriated, the purpose of the appropriation, the place and means of diversion, the place of use, the time during which the water is diverted and used each year, and a true copy or the docket number of any judicial decree, notice, or other claim or evidence upon which the existing right was initiated or is based.

(3) Declarations shall be sent to the department by certified mail, with a return receipt requested. The return receipt is conclusive evidence of receipt, by the department, of the declaration.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted subdivision (1)(a).

The 1975 amendment substituted "shall obtain from the district court an order pursuant to section 89-873" for "shall make an order" at the beginning of subsection (1).

89-873. Filing of petition. (1) Proceedings for the determination of existing rights shall be commenced by the department in the district court of the judicial district in which the source or area is located. The department shall request by petition, and the district court shall issue an order requiring each person claiming an existing right within a specified area or from a specified source to file a declaration as provided in section 89-872.

(2) If the source or area is in two (2) or more judicial districts, the department shall notify the district court of each of the judicial districts of its intent to file the petition. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice, the judges of those district courts shall agree on which district shall receive the petition and shall notify the department of their decision. If the district judges fail to agree or to notify the department, the department shall file the petition in the district court of the judicial district in which it determines that the greatest number of existing rights are likely to be located.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment rewrote subsection (1) which read: "The department shall, within a reasonable time after gathering all data necessary under section 7 of this act, file a petition for determination of existing rights in the source or area specified in the order made under section 8. The department shall file the petition in the district court of the judicial district in which the source or area is located"; substituted "district shall receive the petition" in the second sentence in subsection (2) for "district judge shall hear the petition"; and substituted at the end of the last sentence "in which it determines that the greatest number of existing rights are likely to be located" for "in which the greatest number of persons named in the petition reside."

89-874. Contents of petition. (1) Within a reasonable time after gathering all data necessary under section 89-871, the department shall file with the district court the names of all persons who have filed declarations under section 89-872 and of all other persons who appear from the data gathered by the department to have existing rights to the use of waters within the specified area or from the specified source.

(2) The department shall also file with the district court all data gathered under section 89-871.

(3) If the district court determines that additional data is necessary prior to issuing the preliminary decree in order to determine the extent of an existing right, it may direct the department or the person claiming the right to obtain the necessary data.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 452, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "Within a reasonable time after gathering all data necessary under section 89-871, the department shall file with the district court the names" in subsection (1) for "The petition shall state the names"; substituted "shall also file with the district court all data gathered under section 89-871" in subsection (2) for "shall file with the petition all data gathered under section 7 of this act"; and made a minor change in style.

89-875. Preliminary decree. (1) Within a reasonable time after the department files with the district court the material required by section 89-874, the court shall issue a preliminary decree. The preliminary decree shall be based on the data submitted by the department and on any additional data obtained by the court.

(2) The preliminary decree shall contain the information, and make the determinations, findings, and conclusions, required for the final decree under section 89-877.

(3) The district court shall send a copy of the preliminary decree by certified mail with return receipt requested to the department and to each person named in the material submitted under section 89-874 or named in the preliminary decree. The return receipt shall be appended to the preliminary decree. The costs of mailing the copies shall be paid by the department.

(4) A person named in the material or in the preliminary decree may inspect the data upon which the decree is based at any time, and he may purchase copies of any of the data.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 452, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "after the department files with the district court the material required by section 89-874" in subsection (1) for "after the filing of a petition for determination of existing rights"; substituted "submitted by the department" for "submitted with the petition" in subsection (1); substituted "section 89-877" for "section 13 of this act" in subsection (2); substituted "material submitted under section 89-874" for "the petition filed under section 9 of this act" in subsection (3); and substituted "the material" in subsection (4) for "the petition."

89-876. Hearing on preliminary decree. (1) The department or a person named in the material filed under section 89-874 or named in the preliminary decree, or any other person for good cause shown, who objects to the preliminary decree is entitled to a hearing thereon before the district court.

(2) A request for a hearing shall be filed with the district court, and a copy served on the department by certified mail, within ninety (90) days after receipt of the preliminary decree. The district court shall, for good cause shown, reasonably extend this time limit if application for the extension is made within ninety (90) days after receipt of the preliminary decree. A person requesting a hearing on his objections to the preliminary decree shall also serve, by certified mail with return receipt requested, a copy of his request on any person whose rights or priorities will be affected if the objections are sustained in the hearing. The rights and priorities of a person who is not served shall not be affected by the result of the hearing.

(3) The request for a hearing shall contain a precise statement of the findings and conclusions, in the preliminary decree, with which the person requesting the hearing disagrees. The request shall specify the paragraphs and pages containing the findings and conclusions to which objection is made. The request shall state the specific grounds and evidence on which the objections are based. The request shall also state the names of all other persons on whom it is served.

(4) If more than one person requests a hearing on objections to the preliminary decree, the court may in its discretion hold a single hearing. Each hearing shall be conducted as are other civil actions, but the parties to the hearing may by agreement and with the court's permission waive any of the procedural or evidentiary rules, or may submit only written evidence. Only evidence which is referred to in a request may be introduced in a hearing.

(5) In each hearing, the department shall be a party and is entitled to be heard on objections made by any person. The department shall be granted adequate time, prior to a hearing, to gather evidence pertinent to any objection to be heard in the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 452, L. 1973;
amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "in the material filed under section 89-874" for "in the petition filed under section 9 of this act" in subsection (1).

89-877. Final decree. (1) The court shall, on the basis of the preliminary decree and on the basis of any hearing that may have been held, enter a final decree affirming or modifying the preliminary decree. If no request for a hearing is filed within the time allowed, the preliminary decree automatically becomes final, and the court shall enter it as the final decree.

(2) The final decree shall establish the existing rights and priorities, of the persons named in the petition, for the source or area under consideration.

(3) The final decree shall state the findings of fact, along with any conclusions of law, upon which the existing rights and priorities of each person named in the decree are based.

(4) For each person who is found to have an existing right, the final decree shall state:

- (a) the name and post-office address of the owner of the right;
- (b) the amount of water included in the right;
- (c) the date of priority of the right;
- (d) the purpose for which the water included in the right is used;
- (e) the place of use and a description of the land to which the right is appurtenant;
- (f) the source of the water included in the right;
- (g) the place and means of diversion;
- (h) the approximate time during which the water is used each year;
- (i) any other information necessary to fully define the nature and extent of the right.

(5) The final decree in each existing right determination is final and conclusive as to all existing rights in the source or area under consideration. After the final decree there shall be no existing rights to water in the area or source under consideration except as stated in the decree.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Collateral Attack

A decree giving appropriator the right to use water on certain named land outside the drainage area where appropriated could not be attacked in a later proceeding on the ground that appropriator had never applied water to that land. McIntosh v. Graveley, 159 M 72, 495 P 2d 186.

89-878. Appeals from final decree. (1) A person whose existing rights and priorities are determined in the final decree may appeal the determination only if:

(a) he requested a hearing and appeared and entered objections to the preliminary decree; or

(b) his rights as determined in the preliminary decree were altered as the result of a hearing, at which he appeared, requested by another person.

(2) An appeal from the final decree shall be taken as provided by the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-879. Certificate of water right. When a final decree is entered, the court shall send a copy to the department. The department shall, on the basis of the final decree, issue to each person decreed an existing right a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder, in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located, for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the person to whom the right is decreed.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-880. Right to appropriate—application for permit. (1) After July 1, 1973, a person may not appropriate water except as provided in this act. A person may only appropriate water [for a] for a beneficial use. A right to appropriate water may not be acquired by any other method, including by adverse use, adverse possession, prescription or estoppel; the method prescribed by this act is exclusive.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a person may not appropriate water or commence construction of diversion, impoundment, withdrawal, or distribution works therefore except by applying for and receiving a permit from the department. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the department. The department shall make the forms available through its offices and the offices of the county clerks and recorders. The department shall return a defective application for correction or completion together with the reasons for returning it. An application does not lose priority of filing because of defects, if the application is corrected, completed and refiled with the department within thirty (30) days after its return to the applicant, or within a further time as the department may allow.

(3) The department may cease action upon an application for a permit and return it to the applicant when it finds that the application is not in good faith or does not show a bona fide intent to appropriate water for a beneficial use. An application returned for any of these reasons shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for which it was returned, and there shall be no right to a priority date based upon the filing of the application. Returning an application pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed a final decision of the department.

(4) A permit issued prior to a final determination of existing rights is provisional and is subject to that final determination. The amount of the appropriation granted in a provisional permit shall be reduced or modified where necessary to protect and guarantee existing rights determined in the final decree. A person may not obtain any vested right, to an appropriation obtained under a provisional permit, by virtue of construction of diversion works, purchase of equipment to apply water, planting of crops, or other action, where the permit would have been denied or modified if the final decree had been available to the department.

(5) Outside the boundaries of a controlled ground-water area, a permit is not required before appropriating ground water by means of a well with a maximum yield of less than one hundred (100) gallons a minute. Within sixty (60) days of completion of the well, the appropriator shall file notice of completion on a form provided by the department at its offices and at the offices of the county clerks and recorders. Upon receipt of the notice, the department shall automatically issue a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder, in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located, for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator. The date of filing of the notice of completion is the date of priority of the right.

(6) A person who desires to convert a nonproductive oil or gas well to a water well may do so immediately, but shall file a notice of completion or apply for a permit, depending on the maximum yield of the well, as otherwise provided in this act. The date of appropriation shall be the date of filing the notice of completion or the application for a permit.

(7) A person may also appropriate water, without applying for or prior to receiving a permit, under rules adopted by the board under section 89-869 of this act.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 452, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 238, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has bracketed the repeated words in the second sentence of subsection (1) to indicate an error in the 1975 amendatory act.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment substituted "may not appropriate water * * * except by" for "may appropriate water only by" in subsection (2); deleted "for domestic, agricultural, or livestock purposes" after "appropriating groundwater" in subsection (4); and made a minor change in style.

The 1975 amendment substituted "July 1, 1973" for "the effective date of this act" in subsection (1); inserted subsection (3); redesignated former subsections (3) to (6) as subsections (4) to (7); deleted the first two sentences of subsection (6) which read: "Persons required to file well logs and other information under the laws governing the conservation of oil and gas and who do so in compliance with those laws, shall be considered to have complied with all of the filing requirements of this act to the extent it applies to wells subject to those laws. The date of appropriation shall be the date that written notice of intention to drill is given to the board of oil and gas conservation"; added the last sentence of subsection (6); and redesignated references to the subsections within the section.

89-881. Notice of application. (1) Upon receipt of a proper application for a permit, the department shall prepare a notice containing the facts pertinent to the application and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the source once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks. Before the last date of publication, the department shall also serve the notice by certified mail upon an appropriator of water or applicant for or holder of a permit who, according to the records of the department, may be affected by the proposed appropriation. A notice shall also be served upon any public agency that has reserved waters in the source under section 89-890. The department may, in its discretion, also serve notice upon any state agency or other person the department feels may be interested in or affected by the proposed appropriation. The department shall file in its records proof of service by affidavit of the publisher in the case of notice by publication, and by its own affidavit in the case of service by mail.

(2) The notice shall state that by a date set by the department (not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the last date of publication) persons may file with the department written objections to the application.

(3) The requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the department finds, on the basis of information reasonably available to it, that the appropriation as proposed in the application will not adversely affect the rights of other persons.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 452, L. 1973; Amendments
amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

The 1975 amendment added subsection (3); and made a minor change in style.

89-882. Objections. (1) An objection to an application must be filed by the date specified by the department under section 17 (2) [89-881 (2)].

(2) The objection must state the name and address of the objector, and facts tending to show that there are no unappropriated waters in the proposed source, that the proposed means of appropriation are inadequate, that the property, rights, or interests of the objector would be adversely affected by the proposed appropriation, or the objector may state any other objections to the proposed appropriation he considers pertinent.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-883. Hearings on objections. If the department determines that an objection to an application for a permit states a valid objection to the issuance of the permit, it shall hold a public hearing on the objection within sixty (60) days from the date set by the department for the filing of objections, after serving notice of the hearing by certified mail upon the applicant and the objector. The department may consolidate hearings if more than one (1) objection is filed to an application. The department shall file in its records proof of the service by affidavit of the department.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-884. Action on application. (1) The department shall grant, deny, or condition an application for a permit in whole or in part within one hundred twenty (120) days after the last date of publication of the notice of application if no hearing is held, and within one hundred eighty

(180) days if a hearing is held; however, in either case the time may be extended upon agreement of the applicant, or, in extraordinary cases, not more than thirty (30) days upon order of the department. If the department orders the time extended it shall serve a notice of the extension and the reasons therefor by certified mail upon the applicant and each person who has filed an objection as provided by section 89-882.

(2) However, an application may not be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions, or limitations specified by the department, nor denied, unless the applicant is first granted an opportunity to be heard. If no objection is filed against the application, but the department is of the opinion that the application should be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions or limitations specified by it, or that the application should be denied, the department shall prepare a statement of its opinion and the reasons therefor. The department shall serve a statement of its opinion by certified mail upon the applicant, together with a notice that the applicant may obtain a hearing by filing a request therefor within thirty (30) days after the notice is mailed. The notice shall further state that the application will be modified in a specified manner, or denied, unless a hearing is requested.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment added to the first sentence of subsection (1) "however, in either case the time may be extended upon agreement of the applicant, or, in extraordinary cases, not more than thirty (30) days upon order of the department"; and added the second sentence in subsection (1).

89-885. Criteria for issuance of permit. The department shall issue a permit if:

- (1) there are unappropriated waters in the source of supply;
- (2) the rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;
- (3) the proposed means of diversion or construction are adequate;
- (4) the proposed use of water is a beneficial use;
- (5) the proposed use will not interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved;
- (6) an applicant for an appropriation of fifteen (15) cubic feet per second or more proves by clear and convincing evidence that the rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 452, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 156, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment added subdivision (6); and made a minor change in punctuation.

Beneficial Impoundment

Counterclaim against petition of irrigation district for additional appropriation of water was properly denied where evidence was uncontradicted that water was going to waste and that impoundment would be beneficial. Sunset Irrigation District v. Ailport, — M —, 531 P 2d 1349.

89-886. Terms of permit. (1) The department may issue a permit for less than the amount of water requested, but in no case may it issue a permit for more water than is requested or than can be beneficially used without waste for the purpose stated in the application. The department may require modification of plans and specifications for the appropriation or related diversion or construction. It may issue a permit subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators, and it may issue temporary or seasonal permits. A permit shall be issued subject to existing rights and any final determination of those rights made under this act.

(2) The department may limit the time for commencement of the appropriation works, completion of construction and actual application of the water to the proposed beneficial use. In fixing those time limits, the department shall consider the cost and magnitude of the project, the engineering and physical features to be encountered, and, on projects designed for gradual development and gradually increased use of water, the time reasonably necessary for that gradual development and increased use. For good cause shown by the permittee, the department may in its discretion reasonably extend time limits.

(3) The original of the permit shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation, and a copy shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the permit to the permittee.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-887. Revocation of permit. If the work on an appropriation is not commenced, prosecuted, or completed within the time stated in the permit or an extension thereof, or if the water is not being applied to the beneficial use contemplated in the permit, or if the permit is otherwise not being followed, the department may after notice require the permittee to show cause why the permit should not be revoked. If the permittee fails to show sufficient cause, the department may revoke the permit.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-888. Certificate of water right. (1) Upon actual application of water to the proposed beneficial use within the time allowed, the permittee shall notify the department that the appropriation has been properly completed. The department may then inspect the appropriation, and if it determines that the appropriation has been completed in substantial accordance with the permit, it shall issue the permittee a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county wherein the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation, and a duplicate shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator.

(2) Except as provided in section 16 (4) [89-880 (4)] of this act, a certificate of water right in a particular source may not be issued prior to a general determination under this act of existing rights in that source.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-889. Reservoirs. A person intending to appropriate water by means of a reservoir shall apply for a permit as prescribed in this act.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-890. Reservation of waters. (1) The state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or the United States or any agency thereof, may apply to the board to reserve waters for existing or future beneficial uses, or to maintain a minimum flow, level, or quality of water throughout the year or at such periods or for such length of time as the board designates.

(2) Upon receiving an application, the department shall proceed in accordance with sections 89-881 through 89-883. After the hearing provided in section 89-883, the board shall decide whether to reserve the water for the applicant. The department's costs of giving notice, holding the hearing, conducting investigations, and making records, incurred in acting upon the application to reserve water, except the cost of salaries of the department's personnel, shall be paid by the applicant.

(3) The board may not adopt an order reserving water unless the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board:

- (a) the purpose of the reservation;
- (b) the need for the reservation;
- (c) the amount of water necessary for the purpose of the reservation;
- (d) that the reservation is in the public interest. If the purpose of the reservation requires construction of a storage or diversion facility, the applicant shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that there will be progress toward completion of the facility and accomplishment of the purpose with reasonable diligence in accordance with an established plan.

(4) After the adoption of an order reserving waters, the department may reject an application and refuse a permit for the appropriation of reserved waters, or may, with the approval of the board, issue the permit subject to such terms and conditions it considers necessary for the protection of the objectives of the reservation.

(5) A reservation under this section shall date from the date the order reserving the water is adopted by the board, and shall not adversely affect any rights in existence at that time.

(6) The board shall, periodically but not less than every ten (10) years, review existing reservations to ensure that the objectives of the reservation are being met. Where the objectives of the reservation are not being met, the board may extend, revoke or modify the reservation.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 452, L. 1973;
amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

shall not adversely affect any rights in existence at that time" in subsection (5) for "shall not affect any rights in existence when the order reserving water is adopted"; and made minor changes in style.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "shall date from the date the order reserving the water is adopted by the board, and

89-891. Priority. (1) As between appropriators, the first in time is the first in right. Priority of appropriation does not include the right to prevent changes by later appropriators in the condition of water occurrence, such as the increase or decrease of streamflow, or the lowering of a water table, artesian pressure or water level, if the prior appropriator can reasonably exercise his water right under the changed conditions.

(2) Priority of appropriation made under this act dates from the filing of an application for a permit with the department, except as otherwise provided in section 16 [89-880] of this act.

(3) Priority of appropriation perfected before the effective date of this act shall be determined as provided in sections 6 through 15 [89-870 through 89-879] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Right of Priority

Priority of application for water appropriation is an existing right which is preserved from extinction by repeal of the former law by the provisions of article IX, section 3 of the 1972 Montana constitution. General Agriculture Corp. v. Moore, — M —, 534 P 2d 859.

89-891.1. Water turned into natural channels. Water appropriated under an existing right or pursuant to this act may be turned into the natural channel of another stream, or from a reservoir into the natural channel, and withdrawn or diverted at a point downstream for beneficial use, but the waters of that stream may not thereby be diminished in quantity or deteriorated in quality to the detriment of a prior appropriator. Water stored in a reservoir under an existing right or pursuant to this act which is turned into a natural channel for withdrawal or diversion and beneficial use downstream shall not be considered a part of the natural flow of that stream.

Title of Act

An act recognizing the right to turn water into natural channels, adding a new section to the Water Use Act.

89-892. Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use or place of storage except as permitted under this section and approved by the department.

(2) The department shall approve the proposed change if it determines that the proposed change will not adversely affect the rights of other persons. If the department determines that the proposed change might adversely affect the rights of other persons, notice of the proposed change shall be given in accordance with section 89-881. If the department determines that an objection filed by a person whose rights may be affected states a valid objection to the proposed change, the department shall hold a hearing thereon prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. Objections shall meet the requirements of section 89-882(2), and hearings shall be held in accordance with section 89-883.

(3) An appropriator of more than fifteen (15) cubic feet per second may not change the purpose of use of an appropriation right from an agricultural use to an industrial use.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted the second sentence in subsection (2); substituted "If the department determines * * * valid objection to the proposed change" in the third sentence for "If a person whose rights may be affected files an objection to the proposed change"; deleted after the present third sentence a sentence which read "Notice of the proposed change shall be given in accordance with section 17 [89-881] of this act"; and made minor changes in style.

The 1975 amendment substituted "storage except as permitted under this section and approved by" in subsection (1) for "storage without receiving prior approval of such change from"; and added subsection (3).

Enlargement of Dam

Permission for additional appropriation on adjudicated stream was proper where findings indicated that there was surplus water to be appropriated, there would be no injury to prior appropriators, impoundment of water would be beneficial, and the proposed dam could be operated so as not to interfere with others. Sunset Irrigation District v. Airport, — M —, 531 P 2d 1349.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Burden of Proof

In petition for order authorizing change in point of diversion on creek, where objectors were able to show that proposed diversion would reduce by 20% the amount of water available for those with inferior rights located above canal, district court was correct in refusing to authorize the change. Thompson v. Harvey, — M —, 519 P 2d 963.

Diversion Point Changed

Appropriator was entitled to move his point of diversion downstream, so long as he installed measuring devices to ensure that he took no more than would have been available at his original point of diversion, and the fact that a water commissioner might have to be employed to oversee the appropriation was not the kind of burden on other appropriators that would prevent the change. McIntosh v. Graveley, 159 M 72, 495 P 2d 186.

Remedies of Servient Owner

Changes in a ditch appurtenant to a water right did not forfeit the ditch right or justify the use of self-help by the servient landowner to fill in a portion of the ditch. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 108.

Substantial Change

Under former section 89-803, the owner of a ditch appurtenant to a water right could change the location by minor meandering along the course of the ditch and its marginal land with a dozer to account for topographical adjustments in the terrain, so long as he did not add any new burden to the servient estate or cause any additional damage thereto. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 109.

Use of Water Changed

Where appropriator had a decreed right to use water for irrigation of specified land outside the drainage area, his use of the water on other land outside the drainage area did not impose an undue burden on other appropriators, so long as he did not increase the amount of water diverted from the drainage area. McIntosh v. Graveley, 159 M 72, 495 P 2d 186.

89-893. Transfer of appropriation right. (1) The right to use water under a permit or certificate of water right shall pass with a conveyance of the land, or transfer by operation of law, unless specifically exempted therefrom. All transfers of interests in appropriation rights shall be without loss of priority.

(2) The person receiving the appropriation interest shall file with the department notice of the transfer on a form prescribed by the department.

(3) An appropriator may not sever all or any part of an appropriation right from the land to which it is appurtenant, or sell the appropriation right for other purposes or to other lands, or make the appropriation right appurtenant to other lands, without obtaining prior approval from the department. The department shall approve the proposed change if it determines that the proposed change will not adversely affect the rights of other persons. If the department determines that the proposed change might adversely affect the rights of other persons, notice of the proposed change shall be given in accordance with section 89-881. If the department then determines that an objection filed by a person whose rights may be affected states a valid objection to the proposed change, the department shall hold a hearing thereon prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. Objections shall meet the requirements of section 89-882(2) and hearings shall be held in accordance with section 89-883.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 452, L. 1973; posed transfer if the requirements of amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 238, L. 1974. section 28(2) [89-8922] are met."

Amendments

The 1974 amendment rewrote subsection (2) which read: "A copy of an instrument which transfers an interest in an appropriation right shall be filed with the department and the county, in which the point of diversion or place of use is located, by the person receiving the appropriation interest"; and rewrote the second sentence of subsection (3) which read: "The department shall approve the pro-

Effective Date

Section 5, Ch. 238, Laws of 1974 read "This act is effective on its passage and approval. The amendments made by this act apply to any application for a permit, change in appropriation right, or transfer of appropriation right, received by the department before the effective date of this act, and which has not yet been approved, granted, denied, or modified." Approved March 21, 1974.

89-894. Abandonment of appropriation right. (1) If an appropriator ceases to use all or a part of his appropriation right with the intention of wholly or partially abandoning the right, or if he ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions with the intention of not complying with those terms and conditions, the appropriation right shall, to that extent, be deemed considered abandoned and shall immediately expire.

(2) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right, or ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions, for a period of ten (10) successive years, and there was water available for his use, there shall be a prima facie presumption that the appropriator has abandoned his right in whole or for the part not used.

(3) This section does not apply to existing rights until they have been determined in accordance with this act.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Intent to Abandon

Mere nonuser of a ditch appurtenant to a water right is not sufficient to establish abandonment; there must be concurrent intent to abandon. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 107.

89-895. Procedure for declaring appropriation rights abandoned. (1) When the department has reason to believe that an appropriator may have abandoned his appropriation right under section 30 [89-894], or when another appropriator in the opinion of the department files a valid claim that he has been or will be injured by the resumption of use of an appropriation right alleged to have been abandoned, the department shall petition the district court which determined the existing rights in the source of the appropriation in question to hold a hearing to determine whether the appropriation right has been abandoned. Proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and appeal shall be taken in accordance with the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

(2) At the hearing, the burden of proof shall be on the department which must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the appropriation has been abandoned under section 30 [89-894] of this act.

(3) The determination of the court shall be appended to the final decree. The department shall keep a copy of the determination in its office in Helena.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-896. Supervision of water distribution. (1) The district courts shall supervise the distribution of water among all appropriators. This supervisory authority includes the supervision of all water commissioners appointed prior or subsequent to the effective date of this act. The supervision shall be governed by the principle that first in time is first in right.

(2) When a water distribution controversy arises upon a source of water in which existing rights have not been determined according to sections 89-870 through 89-879, any party to the controversy may petition the district court for relief. The department shall be served with process in any proceeding under this subsection and shall, within a reasonable time thereafter, notify the court whether it intends in its discretion, within a reasonable time, to begin proceedings to determine existing rights in the source, in accordance with this act. The department may, if it declines to commence proceedings to determine existing rights in the source, intervene as a party in the proceeding. The district court from which relief is sought may grant such injunctive or other relief which is necessary and appropriate to preserve property rights or the status quo pending the department's decision whether to determine existing rights in the source, or the department's decision to intervene as a party, as the case may be. If the department does not proceed to obtain a determination of existing rights, the district court shall settle only the controversy between the parties.

(3) A controversy between appropriators from a source which has been the subject of a general determination of existing rights under sections 89-870 through 89-879 shall be settled by the district court which issued the final decree. The order of the district court settling the controversy may not alter the existing rights and priorities established in the final decree. In cases involving permits issued by the department, the court may not amend the respective rights established in the permits or alter any terms of the permits unless the permits are inconsistent or interfere with rights and priorities established in the final decree. The order settling the controversy shall be appended to the final decree, and a copy shall be filed with the department. The department shall be served with process in any proceeding under this subsection, and the department may, in its discretion, intervene in the proceeding.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment deleted "As of the effective date of this act" from the beginning of subsection (1); inserted "or subsequent" in subsection (1); added "any party to the controversy may petition the district court for relief" to the end of the first sentence of subsection (2); inserted "shall be served with process in any proceeding under this subsection and shall, within a reasonable time thereafter, notify the court whether it intends" in the second sentence of subsection (2); inserted "to" before "begin proceedings" in the second sentence of subsection (2); inserted the third and fourth sentences of subsection (2); substituted the last sentence of subsection (3) for a former subsection (4) which read "The department shall be named as a party in any proceeding under this section and shall be served with process"; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

89-897. Prevention of waste. (1) If the department ascertains, by a means reasonably considered sufficient by it, that a person is wasting water, using water unlawfully, or preventing water from moving to another person having a prior right to use the same, it may petition the district court to:

(a) regulate the controlling works of an appropriation as may be necessary to prevent the wasting or unlawful use of water, or to secure water to a person having a prior right to its use; the department may attach to the controlling works a written notice properly dated and signed, setting forth the fact that the controlling works have been properly regulated by it, which notice shall be legal notice to all persons interested in the appropriation or distribution of the water; or

(b) order the person wasting, unlawfully using, or interfering with another's rightful use of the water to cease and desist from doing so, and to take such steps as may be necessary to remedy the waste, unlawful use, or interference; or

(2) The department may also direct its own attorney or request the attorney general or county attorney to bring suit to enjoin such waste, unlawful use, or interference.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-898. Entry on land—inspections. Any employee or agent of the department authorized by the director may enter upon any land to carry out the purpose of this act, including, but not limited to, entry to make inspections the department considers necessary of proposed works, source of water, location of the proposed use, construction of works and other inspections to ascertain whether or not persons are complying with this act. The department or its agent shall give reasonable notice to the landowner of its intention to enter upon the land. The department is responsible for actual damages done to any property.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-899. Legal assistance. (1) When requested by the department, the attorney general and the county attorneys within their respective counties shall perform legal services and conduct legal proceedings necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The department may also employ legal counsel to enforce this act and to conduct proceedings under it.

(2) If an appropriator who is a citizen of Montana becomes involved in a controversy to which any agency of the federal government or another state is a party, the department may in its discretion intervene as a party or provide necessary legal assistance to the citizen of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-100. Hearings before board—Administrative Procedure Act. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a final decision of the department under this act is entitled to a hearing before the board. A person desiring a hearing before the board pursuant to this section shall notify the department in writing within ten (10) days of the final decision.

(2) The Montana Administrative Procedure Act (Title 82, chapter 42, R. C. M. 1947) governs administrative proceedings conducted under this act, except that the common law and statutory rules of evidence shall apply only upon stipulation of all parties to a proceeding.

(1); added the second sentence in subsection (1); and added "except that the common law and statutory rules of evidence shall apply only upon stipulation of all parties to a proceeding" to subsection (2).

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted "under this act" in the first sentence of subsection

89-8-101. Penalties. A person who violates or refuses or neglects to comply with sections 16 (1), 28 (1), and 29 (3) [89-880 (1), 89-892 (1), and 89-893 (3)] of this act, or of any order of the department, or of any rule of the board, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-102. Deposit of fees and penalties. All fees and penalties collected under this act shall be deposited in the state general fund. All penalties or fines imposed by any court for a violation of this act shall be deposited in the general fund of the county where the court presides and shall be disposed of in the same manner as any other penalty or fine.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-102.1. Saving clause. Nothing in this act abates or otherwise adversely affects the validity of any filing, notice, or judicial proceeding commenced under the law as it existed before July 1, 1973.

History: En. 89-8-102.1 by Sec. 14, Ch. 485, L. 1975.

Saving Clause

Section 15 of Ch. 485, Laws 1975 read "This act applies to applications currently pending with the department, as well as applications filed with the department after the effective date of this act."

89-8-102.2. Fees for environmental impact statements. (1) Whenever the department determines that the filing of an application (or a combination of applications) for a permit or approval under this chapter requires the preparation of an environmental impact statement as prescribed by the Montana Environmental Policy Act (Title 69, chapter 65, R. C. M. 1947), and the application (or combination of applications) involves the use of ten thousand (10,000) or more acre feet per year or fifteen (15) or more cubic feet per second of water, the applicant shall pay to the department the fee prescribed in subsection (2) of this section. The department shall notify the applicant in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of a correct and complete application (or a combination of applications), if it determines that an environmental impact statement and fee is required.

(2) Upon notification by the department under subsection (1) of this section, the applicant shall pay a fee based upon the estimated cost of constructing, repairing or changing the appropriation and diversion facilities according to the declining scale as follows: two per cent (2%) of the estimated cost up to one million dollars ($1,000,000); plus one per cent (1%) of the estimated cost over one million dollars ($1,000,000) and up to twenty million dollars ($20,000,000); plus one-half of one per cent (0.5%) of the estimated cost over twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and up to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000); plus one-quarter of one per cent (0.25%) of the estimated cost over one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) and up to three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000); plus one-eighth of one per cent (.125%) of the estimated cost over three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000). The fee shall be deposited in the earmarked revenue fund to be used by the department only to comply with the Montana Environmental Policy Act in connection with the application(s). Any amounts paid by the applicant but not actually expended by the department shall be refunded to the applicant.

(3) No fee as prescribed by this section may be assessed against an applicant for a permit or approval if the applicant has also filed an application for a certificate of environmental compatibility and public need pursuant to the Montana Utility Siting Act (Title 70, chapter 8, R. C. M. 1947), and the appropriation or use of water involved in the application(s) for permit or approval has been or will be studied by the department pursuant to that act.

(4) This act shall apply to all applications, pending or hereinafter filed, for which the department has not, as of the effective date of this act, commenced writing an environmental impact statement. This act shall not apply to any application the fee for which would not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(5) Failure to submit the fee as required by this section shall void the application(s).

History: En. 89-8-102.2 by Sec. 1, Ch. 356, L. 1975.

Title of Act

impact statements upon certain applications for water right permits or approvals; and providing for an immediate effective date.

Section 2 of Ch. 356, Laws 1975 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved April 9, 1975.

89-8-103. Statement of legislative findings and policy. The legislature, noting that appropriations have been claimed, that applications have been filed for, and that there is further widespread interest in making substantial appropriations of water in the Yellowstone River Basin, finds that these appropriations threaten the depletion of Montana's water resources to the significant detriment of existing and projected agricultural, municipal, recreational and other uses, and of wildlife and aquatic habitat. The legislature further finds that these appropriations foreclose the options to the people of this state to utilize water for other future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum flows for the protection of existing rights and aquatic life. The legislature pursuant to its mandate and authority under article IX of the Montana constitution, declares that it is the policy of this state that before these proposed appropriations are acted upon existing rights to water in the Yellowstone basin must be accurately determined for their protection, and that reservations of water within the basin must be established as rapidly as possible for the preservation and protection of existing and future beneficial uses.

History: En. 89-8-103 by Sec. 1, Ch. 116, L. 1974.

Title of Act

An act providing for the suspension of action on certain applications for permits to appropriate surface water or for changes in purpose of use in the Yellowstone River Basin for three (3) years or until existing rights have been determined, whichever occurs first; making reservations established under the Montana Water Use Act preferred uses over such permits; and providing for an immediate effective date.

89-8-104. Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, in this act:

(1) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation.

(2) "Basin" means the Yellowstone River Basin.

(3) "Application" means an application for a permit under the Montana Water Use Act to appropriate surface water from any source of supply within the basin for either or both of the following purposes:

(a) a reservoir with a total planned capacity of fourteen thousand (14,000) acre feet or more, or

(b) for a flow rate greater than twenty (20) cubic feet of water per second.

The term also includes an application for approval under section 89-892, R. C. M. 1947, to change the purpose of use.

(4) "Reservation" means a reservation of water provided for by section 89-890 of the Montana Water Use Act.

History: En. 89-8-104 by Sec. 2, Ch. 116, L. 1974.

89-8-105. Suspension of action. (1) The department may not grant or otherwise take any action on an application until either of the following first occurs:

(a) three (3) years have elapsed from the effective date of this act, or

(b) a final determination of existing rights has been made in the source of supply in accordance with the Montana Water Use Act.

(2) A reservation established before such application for permit is granted is a preferred use over the right to appropriate water pursuant to the permit, and the permit, if granted, shall be issued subject to that preferred use.

History: En. 89-8-105 by Sec. 3, Ch. 116,

89-8-106. When department may suspend action. The department may suspend action on applications not meeting the definition of application in section 2 [89-8-104] of this act if it determines, after a public hearing conducted under the contested case procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act, that the cumulative impact of those applications, if granted, would be contrary to the policies and purposes of this act. If the department suspends action on such applications, the provisions of section 3 [89-8-105] of this act apply.

History: En. 89-8-106 by Sec. 4, Ch. 116,

The United States or any agency thereof may not apply for a reservation of water in the basin under section 89-890, R. C. M. 1947, until the requirements of section 3 [89-8-105] of this act are met. Particular emphasis shall be given to applications to reserve water for agricultural, municipal, and minimum flow purposes for the protection of existing rights and aquatic life.

History: En. 89-8-110 by Sec. 8, Ch. 116, L. 1974.

89-8-111. Severability. If a part of this [act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. CHAPTER 10—WATER COMMISSIONERS—DETERMINATION OF JOINT RIGHTS

Section 89-1001. Appointment of water commissioners—authority—compensation.

89-1001. (7136) Appointment of water commissioners—authority—compensation. (1) Whenever the rights of persons to use the waters of any stream, ditch or extension of ditch, watercourse, spring, lake, reservoir, or other source of supply have been determined by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the judge of the district court having jurisdiction of the subject matter, upon the application of the owners of at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the water rights affected by the decree, in the exercise of his discretion, to appoint one or more commissioners, who shall have authority to admeasure and distribute to the parties owning water rights in the source affected by the decree the waters to which they are entitled, according to their rights as fixed by the decree and by any certificates and permits issued under the Montana Water Use Act provided that when petitioners make proper showing that they are not able to obtain the application of the owners of at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the water rights affected, and they are unable to obtain the water to which they are entitled, the judge of the district court having jurisdiction may, in his discretion, appoint a water commissioner.

(2) When the existing rights of all appropriators from a source or in an area have been determined in a final decree issued under the Montana Water Use Act, the judge of the district court which issued the final decree shall upon application by the department of natural resources and conservation appoint a water commissioner. The water commissioner shall distribute to the appropriators, from the source or in the area, the water to which they are entitled.

(3) The department of natural resources and conservation or any person or corporation operating under contract with the department, or any other owner of stored waters may petition the court to have such stored waters distributed by the water commissioners appointed by said court. The court may thereupon make an order requiring the commissioner or commissioners appointed by the court to distribute such stored water when and as released to water users entitled to the use thereof.

(4) Upon the issuance of such order the water commissioner or commissioners shall have authority and it is hereby made his or their duty to admeasure and distribute to the users thereof as their interests may appear and be required, the stored and supplemental waters stored and as released by the department of natural resources and conservation under provisions of the state Water Conservation Act, chapter 1 of this title, to be diverted into and through said streams, ditch or extension of ditch, watercourse, spring, lake, reservoir, or other source of supply in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as decreed water rights are admeasured and distributed, and such water commissioner or commissioners and the owners and users of such stored and supplemental waters shall be bound by and be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, provided that the admeasurements and distribution of such stored and supplemental waters shall in no way interfere with decreed water rights. The purpose of this act is to provide a uniform, equitable and economical distribution of adjudicated, stored and supplemental waters.

(5) At the time of the appointment of such water commissioner or commissioners the district court shall fix their compensation, and the owners and users of the distributed waters shall pay their proportionate share of such fees and compensation.

(6) Upon the application of the board or boards of one (1) or more irrigation districts entitled to the use of water stored in a reservoir which is turned into the natural channel of any stream and withdrawn or diverted at a point downstream for beneficial use, the district court of the judicial district wherein the most irrigable acres of the irrigation district or districts are situated may appoint a water commissioner to equitably admeasure and distribute such stored water to said irrigation district or districts from the channel of the stream into which it has been turned. A commissioner appointed under this subsection has the powers of any commissioner appointed under this chapter, limited only by the purposes of this subsection. His compensation is set by the appointing judge and paid by the requesting district or districts; in all other matters the provisions of this chapter apply so long as they are consistent with this subsection.

History: Earlier acts relating to water commissioners were Secs. 1 to 3, pp. 136 and 137, Laws of 1899, and chapter 64, Laws of 1905. These acts appeared as sections 4881 to 4889, Revised Codes 1907, and were repealed by chapter 43, serted subsection (2); renumbered former subsections (2), (3) and (4) as (3), (4) and (5); substituted references to the department of natural resources and conservation for references to the state water conservation board throughout the section; substituted "the distributed waters" for "decreed, stored and supplemental waters" near the end of subsection (5); and made minor changes in phraseology. The 1975 amendment added subsection (6).

Purpose of Summary Proceeding

The district court had no authority in

CHAPTER 12—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—ORGANIZATION

Section 89-1201. Creation of irrigation districts—percentage of titleholders required—what constitutes evidence of title—report of department of natural resources and conservation—payment of expenses.

89-1208. Compensation of commissioners—penalty for interest in contract—bonds of commissioners.

89-1215. Records required to be kept—examination by department of community affairs.

89-1201. (7166) Creation of irrigation districts—percentage of titleholders required—what constitutes evidence of title—report of department of natural resources and conservation—payment of expenses. (1) Sixty per centum in number of the holders of title or evidence of title to lands sought to be included in an irrigation district and which are susceptible of irrigation, such holders of title or evidence of title also representing sixty per centum of the acreage of said lands, may propose the establishment and organization of an irrigation district under the provisions of this act; provided, however, that when any of such land sought to be included in such irrigation district is covered by mortgage or other lien then the owner or owners of such land shall first procure the written consent of the holder of such mortgage or other lien before proposing the establishment and organization of such irrigation district. Irrigation districts may be formed in order to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of Congress which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation, or maintenance of constructed works, or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands. When so organized, such district shall have the powers conferred or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon such irrigation district, provided, however, that in all irrigation districts organized in connection with United States reclamation projects a majority of the holders of title or evidence of title to lands sought to be included in such irrigation district under the provisions of the act, may propose the establishment and organization of such district.

(2) The certificate of the county clerk and recorder, or the certificate of the department of state lands, shall be sufficient evidence of title for the purpose of this act. Where lands have been purchased from the state and part or all of the purchase money has been paid, but the patents or deeds from the state to such lands have not been issued, the receipt or receipts held by the purchasers, or the certificate of the department of state lands showing the payments on account of purchase, shall be evidence of title to such lands under this act.

(3) Before any such district shall be established, there shall be presented to the district court at the hearing on the petition for such establishment, a written report or opinion from the department of natural resources and conservation on the engineering features involved and the possibilities of water supplies accompanied by a copy of the decree of the district court showing the adjudicated water rights in said streams from which said waters are to be diverted. For this purpose, a copy of the petition provided for in section 89-1202 and of all maps and other papers filed with the same, shall be filed with the department at the time the original petition is filed with the clerk of the district court. The expense, if any, incurred by the department in the investigation and report upon the proposed district shall be certified, with the report, and that the department shall, within a period of one hundred twenty days from the filing of said petition with the department, render its report, as herein provided, to the said district court, and shall be assessed as costs in said hearing, which costs shall be paid by the district in event of its establishment and in event such petition be denied, then such costs shall be paid by the petitioners; provided, however, that such report or opinion shall be not requested or obtained, and shall not be necessary, whenever it is proposed to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of Congress which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation or maintenance of constructed works, or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district laws.

History: The first irrigation district act was Ch. 70, L. 1907, appearing as Secs. 2309-2402, Rev. C. 1907; repealed by Ch. 146, L. 1909.

89-1705. (7212) Details relating to bonds. (1) All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the standard weight and fineness [fineness] existing at the time of the issue; and shall run for a period not longer than forty (40) years from their date, but may contain a clause providing for their prior redemption and payment, at the option of the board of commissioners of the district, on any interest payment date after five (5) years from their date. Instead of straight maturity bonds, bonds may be issued to mature serially at such times and in such amounts as the board of commissioners shall determine, but no bonds so issued shall run for a longer period than forty (40) years from the date of issue. Said bonds shall bear interest from their date until paid, payable annually or semiannually, the installments of interest to date of maturity of principal to be evidenced by appropriate coupons attached to each bond. Said bonds and interest coupons shall be payable at such place or places, within or without the state of Montana, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe.

(2) Such bonds shall be of such denomination or denominations, and in such form, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe. An issue of bonds is hereby defined to be all the bonds issued in accordance with a resolution or order of the board of commissioners. Each issue of the bonds of a district shall be numbered consecutively as authorized, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively. The board of commissioners shall fix the date of said bonds, or may divide any issue into two (2) or more divisions and fix different dates for the bonds of each respective division. The date of any bond must be subsequent to the order or resolution authorizing it and prior to its delivery to a purchaser from the district.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has inserted the bracketed word "fineness." This was the term used prior to 1971 amendment.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum" after "until paid" in the third sentence of subsection (1); and made minor changes in style.

89-1706. (7213) Liens of bonds. All bonds issued hereunder and all amounts to be paid to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 89-1301 provided, shall be a lien upon all the lands originally or at any time included in the district for the irrigation and benefit of which said irrigation district was organized and said bonds were issued, and for the benefit of which such contract between the district and the United States was made, except upon such lands as may at any time be included in such district on account of the exchange or substitution of water under the provisions of section 89-1611, if any there be; and all such lands shall be subject to a special tax or assessment for the payment of the interest on and principal of said bonds; and all amounts to be paid to the United States under any such contract between the district and the United States, and said special tax or assessment, shall constitute a first and prior lien on the land against which levied, to the same extent and with like force and effect as taxes levied for state and county purposes.

All liens herein created shall remain upon the lands for a period of eight (8) years after the date of maturity of the obligation; thereafter, the lands and the titles thereto shall be free from any such liens.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second paragraph.

89-1708. (7215) Delivery of bonds—disposition of proceeds. If bonds are sold for cash, they shall be delivered by the board of commissioners to the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the district is located, who shall deliver them to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price, and after making a complete record of them. Delivery of the bonds may be made by the county treasurer to the purchaser at any place or places inside or outside this state, and the county treasurer may receive the proceeds of the sale of the bonds at the place or places of delivery. The county treasurer shall place the proceeds of the sale to the credit of the district, and the proceeds shall be paid out by the county treasurer only upon the written order of the board of commissioners, signed by the president and secretary under the seal of the district. The proceeds shall be spent only for the purpose for which the bonds were issued. If any portion of the funds realized from the sale of bonds is not needed immediately for the purpose for which the bonds were issued, the board of commissioners may direct the investment of the funds, and any other surplus funds of the district, [or] any portion thereof, in interest-bearing securities of the United States, or of the state of Montana, or in interest-bearing certificates of deposit of national or state banks approved by the department of community affairs. A bank shall furnish an indemnity bond to be approved by the board of commissioners and the department of community affairs. The county treasurer shall transfer to the credit of the district, and place to the credit of the fund or funds as the board of commissioners may direct, all interest received upon money or securities of the district entrusted to his care.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 146, L. 1909; re-en. Sec. 7215, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 157, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 258, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 145, Ch. 431, L. 1975.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has substituted the bracketed word "or" in this section for "of," to correct an apparent typographical error in the 1975 amendatory act.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "and any other surplus funds of the district" after "investment of such fund" in the fifth sentence.

The 1975 amendment deleted "when-ever, in its judgment, the same may be to the best interest of the district" in the fifth sentence after "the board of commissioners"; substituted "department of community affairs" for "state superintendent of banks" at the end of the fifth and sixth sentences; and made changes in phraseology and punctuation.

89-1712. (7226.1) Refunding bonds. Any irrigation district may issue refunding bonds.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 155, L. 1929; amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 315, L. 1974.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment deleted a second clause providing that an act relating to irrigation districts under the jurisdiction of the public service commission applied to such refunding bonds. For prior text, see parent volume.

(2) It shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of the district, in the order or resolution authorizing and directing the issuance of bonds of the district, mentioned in section 89-1703, to provide for the annual levy and collection of a special tax or assessment upon all the lands included in the district and subject to taxation and assessment as aforesaid, sufficient in amount to meet the interest on said bonds promptly when and as the same accrues, and to discharge the principal thereof at their maturity, or respective maturities, and to meet all payments due or to become due to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 89-1301 provided, at the times such payments by such contract become due and payable. Where straight maturity bonds are issued, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of the district to create and maintain a sinking fund sufficient to pay and discharge said bonds at maturity. If said bonds shall be issued for twenty (20) years or less, there shall be annually levied for such sinking fund a special tax or assessment, as aforesaid, sufficient to produce a net amount represented by the quotient found by dividing the aggregate amount of the principal of the bonds by the number of years the bonds have to run; but if said bonds are issued for more than twenty (20) years, then it shall not be necessary to levy a special tax or assessment for sinking fund until the twentieth year prior to the maturity of the bonds, at which time and each year thereafter there shall be levied and collected a special tax or assessment sufficient to produce a net sum equal to one-twentieth ($1/20$) part of the aggregate amount of the principal of the bonds.

(4) In the event that for any reason any special tax or assessment hereinabove provided for cannot or shall not be levied and collected in time to meet any interest falling due on any bonds issued hereunder, then the board of commissioners shall have the power and authority, and it shall be their duty, to provide for and pay such interest when due, either out of any of the funds in hand in the treasury of the district not otherwise appropriated, or by warrants drawn against the next district tax or assessment levied or to be levied. Said warrants shall be in addition to those mentioned in section 89-1701.

(4) Any land or lands which may for any reason have escaped assessment in any previous year or years may be assessed or listed for the omitted years and omitted charges, in any subsequent year at the time of the making of the assessment in and for such subsequent year, but no such assessment shall be made later than three years after the occurrence of such omission.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted subdivision (3) and renumbered former subdivisions (4) and (5) as subdivisions (3) and (4).

89-1805. (7235.1) Determination of irrigable area. (1) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) At such meeting, the board shall proceed to determine and fix the number of acres in each tract or subdivision irrigable from the works or proposed works of the district, and shall hear all persons interested who may appear, and shall continue in session from day to day (exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays) as long as may be necessary and until said determination of irrigable area shall have been completed. The board shall hear all evidence offered, including maps and surveys caused to be prepared by it as well as maps and surveys prepared by any owner of lands. Upon such determination, the irrigable area so fixed shall become, and thereafter be, the acreage upon which any special tax or assessment shall be levied, and each irrigable acre shall pay at the same rate as every other acre of irrigable land in said district shall pay; and any special tax or assessment levied for any purpose shall be a lien upon the entire forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in the district of which said irrigable area forms a part, and said lien shall attach to said entire tract as of the first day of January in the year in which said special tax or assessment is levied.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 157, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 22, Ch. 388, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "the first day of January" for "the first Monday of March" in the last sentence of subsection (2).

89-1806. (7235.2) Determination of irrigable area — apportionment and distribution of costs of proposed works or improvements. (1) Whenever a petition for the issuance of bonds of any irrigation district organized hereunder shall have been filed, as hereinbefore in section 89-1703 provided, the board of commissioners of such district shall examine, or cause to be examined, each forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in said district, and cause a careful topographical survey and map to be made, in the manner provided for in section 89-1805. Upon such examination, the board shall determine the number of irrigable acres in each such tract; and shall apportion and distribute the cost of the works or improvements for which said bonds are to be issued, over the tracts within said district according to the irrigable area in each of said tracts or subdivisions, so that each such irrigable acre shall be required to bear the same burden of such costs as each other irrigable acre in said district, and the special tax or assessment levied to meet the principal of and interest on said bonds so authorized, shall become a lien upon the entire tract of which such irrigable area forms a part or portion as of the first day of January of the year in which such special tax or assessment is levied, and the number of irrigable acres in each such tract as so determined shall not be diminished but may be increased during the term for which any such bonds may be issued or until the bonds shall be liquidated in full.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 157, L. 1923;
amd. Sec. 23, Ch. 388, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "the first day of January" for "the first Monday in March" near the end of subsection (1).

89-1811. (7239) County treasurer as custodian of district funds. The county treasurer of the county wherein the office of an irrigation district is located shall be the custodian of all funds belonging to the district, and he shall pay out such funds upon the order of the board of commissioners, except as to payments on bonds and interest, for which no order shall be necessary. Where any portion of the funds belonging to a district have been collected for the purpose of establishing a reserve fund, the county treasurer shall pay such portion to the district on order of the district's board of commissioners, who shall have authority to invest the same in state or federal bonds or in savings certificates of institutions insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation. Where moneys of a district in the United States contract fund established pursuant to section 89-1809 are in excess of those needed to pay a district's next succeeding annual contract obligation or obligations to the United States, such excess, or any part thereof, may, upon order of the district's board of commissioners, and with the consent of the United States officer administering the contract for which the contract fund has been established, be paid to the district for use in meeting other obligations of the district. Such orders of the board of commissioners shall be signed by the president and secretary of the board, and shall bear the official seal of the district.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 146, L. 1909;
amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 145, L. 1915; re-en. Sec.
7239, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 137,
L. 1971.

Compiler's Notes

The reference to section 89-1809 appearing in the third sentence of this section is apparently erroneous. The probable intent was to refer to subdivision (3) of section 89-1801.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment divided the former first sentence into the present first and fourth sentences; deleted "and payments under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States, as in section 89-1301 provided" before "for which no order shall be necessary" at the end of the first sentence; inserted new second and third sentences; deleted a final sentence reading "Where such orders are for the payment of money for construction work, the same shall be accompanied by and attached to the written estimate of the engineer in charge of such construction work"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

89-1812. (7240) Collection of taxes or assessment. On or before the third Monday in August of each year the board of commissioners shall furnish the agent of the department of revenue in each county in which any of the lands of the district are situate, a correct list of all the district lands in such county, together with the amount of the total taxes or assessments against said lands for district purposes. The agent of the department of revenue in each county shall immediately thereafter cause said assessment roll to be entered in the assessment book of said county for each year, and prior to the delivery of the assessment book to the county treasurer. The county treasurer of each county shall collect such taxes or assessments in the same manner and at the same time as county and state taxes.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 146, L. 1909; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 96, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 7240, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 14, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 65, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "agent of the department of revenue" for "county assessor" in two places in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution.

89-1832. (7250) Sale or transfer of lands.

Highway Condemnation

State highway commission acquiring land for highway purposes is not liable for assessment and taxes by irrigation district since land taken will no longer benefit from services provided by district, notwithstanding contention of district that takings so reduced total irrigable acreage of district as to increase per-acre cost of operation and maintenance of remainder. Helena Valley Irrig. Dist. v. State Highway Commission, 150 M 192, 433 P 2d 791.

CHAPTER 19—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—LIMITATION OF INDEBTEDNESS—VALIDATION OF WARRANTS—BANKRUPTCY—FINANCIAL AID

89-1905. Conveyance of property of irrigation districts to department of natural resources and conservation. In addition to all other powers heretofore granted any irrigation district, existing under the laws of Montana, for the purpose of securing financial aid in any form from the department of natural resources and conservation, an irrigation district may convey, assign, transfer and set over to the department all or any part of its property, including all water rights, rights of way, and easements for reservoirs, reservoir sites, canals, ditches, laterals, and head gates, as may be required by the department as a condition to furnishing such financial aid or assistance.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment substituted references to "department of natural resources and conservation" for references to "state water conservation board"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

All of the above classes of lands, improvements, railways, public utilities, irrigation ditches, counties, cities, towns, townsites and subdivisions shall be liable to assessment for the construction of the proposed drainage system in such proportions as may seem just and equitable.

The benefits to accrue from the construction of the proposed drainage system, to a railway, county, incorporated city or town, and lands included within a platted townsite or subdivision being of a different character than those to accrue to agricultural lands shall be considered in apportioning the assessment, and also, the damages and inconvenience caused by seepage and waste waters from irrigation ditches and from the higher lands, shall be considered in apportioning the assessment to them.

Provided that in the case of the construction of levees or other flood control facilities, lands and improvements which are located or constructed at an elevation which is greater than the elevation of the design flood level which said levees or other flood control facilities are designed to protect against shall not be assessed for the payment of any part of the cost of constructing the levees or other flood control facilities nor shall such lands or improvements be assessed for the payment of any part of the cost for repairs thereto, maintenance thereof nor the incidental expenses attached to the establishment of such drainage district.

The assessment against each tract, lot, easement, town, city, county, irrigation ditch, railroad, public utility, individual or corporation owner thereof which will be benefited by the proposed work or which, in any manner, contributes to the swamped, seeped, bogged or waterlogged condition of any land within said district and the proportionate share of cost of construction of the proposed drainage system, which each of them should bear shall be shown in tabular form, the columns of which shall be headed as follows: Column 1—Owners of property assessed; 2—Description of property assessed; 3—Number of acres assessed; 4—Amount of benefits assessed; 5—Number of acres taken for right of way; 6—Value of property taken; 7—Damages; 8—Assessment for costs; which shall be known as the assessment roll. Where property, persons or corporations, public or private, contribute to the damaged condition of the lands to be reclaimed, it shall not be necessary to assess in such assessment roll the benefits to be derived by or accruing to them.

Designation or modification of an area of controlled ground water use may be proposed to the board by the department on its own motion or by petition signed by at least twenty (20) or one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) (whichever is the lesser number) of the users of ground water in a ground water area wherein there is alleged to be factual data showing: (1) that ground water withdrawals are in excess of recharge to the aquifer or aquifers within such ground water area; (2) that excessive ground water withdrawals are very likely to occur in the near future because of consistent and significant increases in withdrawals from within the ground water area; or (3) that significant disputes regarding priority of rights, amounts of ground water in use by appropriators, or priority of type of use are in progress within the ground water area.

When such a proposal is thus made, the department shall fix a time and place for a hearing, which time shall not be less than thirty (30) days from the making of the proposal. The department, or the petitioners (as the case may be) shall publish a notice of the hearing setting forth therein

The department or the petitioners (as the case may be) shall also cause a copy of the notice together with a copy of the petition to be served by mail, not less than twenty (20) days before the hearing on all persons, other than the petitioners, who have theretofore filed a declaration of a claim or notice of appropriation to withdraw ground water from the particular ground water area or subarea involved in the proceedings. A copy of the notice together with a copy of the proposal shall be mailed to each person at his last known address and such service shall be complete upon depositing it in the post office, postage prepaid, addressed to each person on whom it is to be served. If the board finds on the basis of the hearing and other information obtained by the department that the withdrawal of ground water in such area or subarea exceeds the safe annual yield of ground water as measured by the recharge of the area or subarea, it shall order the aggregate withdrawal of ground water from such area or subarea decreased so that it shall not exceed such annual yield. Except for domestic use, such decrease shall conform to the priority of the pertinent rights and shall prevail for the term of shortage in the available supply. The department may enforce the order; require persons to cease such excessive withdrawals in reverse order of their priority of rights; and bring an action for an injunction in a district court of a district in which all or part of the area affected is located, in addition to all other remedies.

(2) The order of the board shall be published and mailed by the department in the manner and for the length of time as prescribed by section 89-2914 for the publication and mailing of the notice of hearing except that a copy of the written findings of the board shall be mailed instead of a copy of the proposal, and except further, that a copy of the order together with a copy of the written findings shall be mailed to each petitioner at his last known address. Upon publication and mailing of such order, as prescribed herein, the order shall be final and conclusive unless an appeal therefrom is taken.

(3) Once a petition has been filed and an order has been made limiting the withdrawal of ground water from a particular ground water area or subarea, as provided in this section, the board may after notice and hearing as heretofore provided in this section, modify or revoke its order upon a showing by any interested party and a finding by the board that conditions have materially changed since the prior order. While a matter is pending before the board, the department may restrict further development of the subarea.

(1) Any person claiming a right to withdraw ground water (whether or not from a controlled area) or the department at its discretion, may initiate a hearing by the department for the ascertainment of all existing rights to the use of the ground water in the ground area or subarea involved. The department shall produce at the hearing a map showing and describing all the lands included in the ground water area or subarea, and copies of all data upon which any prior designation or modification order was based. The waiving or assignment of rights by mutual agreement for either temporary or extended periods, shall not modify or cancel the relative priorities of the rights.

(2) Within any designated or modified controlled ground water area or subarea wherein oil and/or gas wells produce either fresh, brackish, or saline water associated with oil and gas, the volume of production of which is dependent entirely on the oil and/or gas withdrawals, such production of water shall be under the prior jurisdiction of the board of oil and gas conservation. Hearings pertaining to the production, use, or disposal of water from those wells shall be held by that board in accordance with the procedures established by that board. The department may petition the board of oil and gas conservation for hearings in regard to those operations and it shall be notified by the board of oil and gas conservation of those hearings instigated by other parties, when those hearings involve operations within a controlled ground water area or subarea.

(3) Hereafter, in a hearing for the ascertainment and finding of priorities, involving rights to the use of ground waters, all appropriators of ground water or of surface water in the particular controlled area, or subarea shall be included as parties and notified in the manner provided in section 89-2914.

It may also determine the level below which the ground water may not be drawn by appropriators. The department shall act in administering and enforcing the order, as provided in section 89-2915.

(2) A copy of the order shall be recorded in the office of the clerk and recorder of each county in which the particular ground water area or subarea is located. If the order is not appealed, the order of the department shall be final and conclusive when it is published and mailed as provided for orders issued under section 89-2915.

A person may appropriate ground water in a controlled area only by applying for and receiving a permit from the department in accordance with the Montana Water Use Act. The department may not grant a permit if the withdrawal would be beyond the capacity of the aquifer or aquifers in the ground water area to yield ground water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift (in the case of pumping developments) or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure (in case of artesian developments).

It shall also require all flowing wells to be so capped or equipped with valves that the flow of water can be stopped when the water is not being put to beneficial use. Likewise, both flowing and nonflowing wells shall be so constructed and maintained as to prevent the waste, contamination or pollution of ground waters through leaky casings, pipes, fittings, valves, or pumps either above or below the land surface, provided however, in the following cases the withdrawal or use of ground water shall not be construed as waste under this act:

(1) the withdrawal of reasonable quantities of ground water in connection with the construction, development, testing, or repair of a well or other means of withdrawal of ground waters;

(2) the inadvertent loss of ground water owing to breakage of a pump, valve, pipe, or fitting, if reasonable diligence is shown by the person in effecting the necessary repair;

(3) the disposal of ground water without further beneficial use that must be withdrawn for the sole purpose of improving or preserving the utility of land by draining the same, or that removed from a mine to permit mining operations or to preserve the mine in good condition;

(4) the disposal of ground water used in connection with production, for reduction, smelting and milling metallic ores and industrial minerals, or that displaced from an aquifer by the storage of other mineral resources.

Sealing "Shot" Hole

Sealing "shot" holes by pouring excess cuttings down into the holes and plugging the orifices by forcing an aluminum plug into the holes so that the tops of the plugs were below plow depth, did not violate this section when the holes were only four and one-half inches in diameter and expert testimony indicated that seismographic holes tended to slough, cave and release lateral support from materials around the hole causing pressure from the weight of the earth above to force the material towards the center, sealing the hole. *Haynie v. provide for certain duties and powers of the Montana water resources board as prescribed; to provide for a floodway obstruction removal fund; to declare certain acts unlawful; and to provide for penalties.

89-3502. Policy and purposes. (1) The policy and purposes of this act are to guide development of the floodway areas of this state consistent with the enumerated findings; to recognize the right and need of water-courses to periodically carry more than the normal flow of water; to provide state co-ordination and technical assistance to local units in management of floodway areas; to co-ordinate federal, state and local management activities for floodway areas; to encourage local governmental units to manage flood-prone lands including the adoption, enforcement and administration of land-use regulations; and to provide the department of natural resources and conservation with authority necessary to carry out a comprehensive floodway management program for the state.

(2) Specifically, it is the purpose of this act to:

(a) restrict or prohibit uses which are dangerous to health, safety of property in times of flood or cause increased flood heights or velocities;

(b) require that uses vulnerable to floods, including public facilities which serve such uses, be provided with flood protection at the time of initial construction;

(c) develop and provide information to identify lands which are unsuited for certain development purposes because of flood hazard;

(d) distinguish between the land-use regulations applied to the designated floodway and those applied to that portion of the designated floodplain not contained within the designated floodway;

(e) apply more restrictive land-use regulations within the designated floodway;

(f) ensure that regulations and minimum standards adopted under this act, in so far as possible, balance the greatest public good with the least private injury.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1974, once by Ch. 253 and once by Ch. 271. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments:

Amendments

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, inserted the numerical subsection designations; changed the subdivision designations in subsection (2) from numerals to small letters; substituted "department of natural resources and conservation" for "Montana water resources board" near the end of subsection (1); and made minor changes in punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, added subdivisions (d), (e), and (f) to subsection (2).

Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted subdivision (1) for a parallel definition of a "flood of fifty-year frequency"; and inserted the definition of "department" in subdivision (4).

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, substituted "this chapter" for "this act" in the introductory clause; substituted "board of natural resources and conservation provided for in section 82A-1509" in subdivision (3); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, deleted a definition of "artificial obstruction" as meaning any obstruction which is not a natural obstruction; substituted "board of natural resources and conservation" for "Montana water resources board" in subdivision (3); inserted subdivision (6); deleted a definition of "Floodway-encroachment lines" as meaning the lines limiting a designated floodway; added "of a flood of one hundred (100) year frequency" at the end of the definition of "Floodplain" in subdivision (10); inserted "Floodplain or" before "Floodway" in subdivision (12); substituted "Artificial obstruction" for "Obstruction" in subdivision (13); inserted "obstruction which is not a natural obstruction which includes any" before "dam" in subdivision (13); inserted "floodplain or" before "floodway" in subdivision (13); inserted subdivision (16); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

89-3504. Program for delineation of floodplains and floodways—land-use regulations. (1)(a) The department shall initiate a comprehensive program for the delineation of designated floodplains and designated floodways for every watercourse and drainway in the state. It shall make a study relating to the acquiring of flood data, and may enter into arrangements with the United States geological survey, the United States army corps of engineers or any other state or federal agency for such acquisition.

(b) Before the board establishes by order a designated floodplain or a designated floodway, the department shall consult with the affected political subdivisions. Consultation shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(i) specifically requesting that the political subdivisions submit pertinent data concerning flood hazards, including flooding experiences, plans to avoid potential hazards, estimates of economic impacts of flooding on the community, both historical and prospective, and such other data as considered appropriate;

(ii) notifying local officials, including members of the county commission, city council and planning board, of the progress of surveys, studies and investigations and of proposed findings, along with information concerning data and methods employed in reaching such conclusions; and

(iii) encouraging local dissemination of information concerning surveys, studies and investigations, so that interested persons will have an opportunity to bring relevant data to the attention of the department.

(2) When sufficient data have been acquired by the department, the board shall establish, by order, after a public hearing, the designated floodplain within which a political subdivision may establish land-use regulation.

When sufficient data have been acquired, the board shall establish, by order, after a public hearing, the designated floodway within which a political subdivision may establish land-use regulation. These designations shall be based upon reasonable hydrological certainty. When the designated floodplain or the designated floodway has been established, the department shall furnish this data to officials of the political subdivision having jurisdiction over those areas together with a map outlining the areas involved, a copy of this act, adopted rules of the board, and suggested minimum standards adopted by the board. These standards and rules shall reflect gradations in flood hazard based on criteria as outlined in section 89-3507(2). In adopting these standards, rules, and regulations, the board shall consider local input from the affected political subdivisions. The department shall record all designated floodplains or designated floodways established by the board in the office of the county clerk and recorder of each county in which those floodplains or floodways are found. The board may alter the floodplains or floodways at any later time, by order, after a public hearing if a re-evaluation of the then available flood data warrants it. Notice of a hearing or order of the board establishing or altering the floodplains or floodways shall be given by publishing the notice once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper published or of general circulation in the area involved, the last publication of which shall be not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing or the effective date of the order.

(3) Upon transmittal of the floodplain information to officials of a political subdivision, the political subdivision has six (6) months from the date of transmittal to adopt land-use regulations which meet or exceed the minimum standards of the board. If within the six (6) month period the political subdivision has failed to adopt the land-use regulations, the department shall enforce the minimum standards within the designated floodplain or the designated floodway as established by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and no artificial obstruction or nonconforming use shall be established by any person within the designated floodplain or the designated floodway, unless specifically authorized by the board. When necessary for compliance with federal flood insurance requirements, the board may shorten the six (6) month period upon notification to the political subdivision and publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected area once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "one hundred (100) year frequency" for "fifty-year frequency" throughout the section.

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, substituted "The department" for "The board" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(a); inserted "by the department" after "have been acquired" in the first sentence of subsection (2); substituted "department" for "board" in the provisions requiring the furnishing of data to political subdivisions and recording of designated floodplains or designated floodways in subsection (2); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, revised the section to substituted provisions for delineation and establishment of "designated floodplains and designated floodways" for "prior provisions for delineation" of "designated floodways" and establishment of

"floodway-encroachment lines"; changed the period within which political subdivisions are required to adopt line-use regulations from one year to six months; added the last sentence of subsection (3); and made minor changes in phraseology, punctuation, and style.

89-3505. Artificial obstructions and nonconforming uses as nuisances. An artificial obstruction or nonconforming use in a designated floodplain or designated floodway enforced under section 89-3504(3) and not exempt under section 89-3506 is a public nuisance unless a permit has been obtained for such artificial obstruction or nonconforming use from the department or the responsible political subdivision.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504; and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, substituted "section 89-3504(3)" for "89-3504, subsections (3) or (4)"; substituted "section 89-3506" for "section 6 of this act"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, inserted "designated floodplain or" before "designated floodway" and substituted "department or the responsible political subdivision" for "board" at the end of the section.

89-3506. Establishment of artificial obstructions or nonconforming uses unlawful—permitted open space uses—prohibited nonconforming uses.

(1) It is unlawful for a person to establish an artificial obstruction or nonconforming use within a designated floodplain or a designated floodway, without a permit from the department or the responsible political subdivision. This act does not affect any existing artificial obstruction or nonconforming use established in the designated floodplain or designated floodway before the land-use regulations adopted by the political subdivision are effective or before the board has enforced a designated floodplain or a designated floodway under section 89-3504(3); however, a person may not make nor may an owner allow alterations of an artificial obstruction or nonconforming use within a designated floodplain or a designated floodway whether the obstruction proposed for alteration was located in the floodplain or floodway before or after the effective date of this act except upon express written approval of the department or the responsible political subdivision. Maintenance of an obstruction is not an alteration.

(2) The following open space uses shall be permitted within the designated floodway, to the extent that they are not prohibited by any other ordinance or statute, and provided they do not require structures other than portable structures, fill, or permanent storage of materials or equipment: (a) agricultural uses; (b) industrial-commercial uses such as loading areas, parking areas, emergency landing strips; (c) private and public recreational uses such as golf courses, tennis courts, driving ranges, archery ranges, picnic grounds, boat launching ramps, swimming areas, parks, wildlife management and natural areas, game farms, fish hatcheries, shooting preserves, target ranges, trap and skeet ranges, hunting and fishing areas, hiking and horseback riding trails; (d) forestry, including processing of forest products with portable equipment; (e) residential uses such as lawns, gardens, parking areas and play areas; (f) excavations subject to the issuance of a permit under section 89-3507.

(3) Permits shall be granted for the following uses within that portion of the floodplain not contained within the designated floodway, to the extent that they are not prohibited by any other ordinance, regulation or statute:

(a) any use permitted in the designated floodway;

(b) structures, including, but not limited to, residential, commercial, and industrial structures, provided that:

(i) such structures meet the minimum standards adopted by the board;

(ii) residential structures are constructed on fill such that the lowest floor elevation (including basements) is two (2) feet above the one hundred (100) year flood elevation;

(iii) commercial and industrial structures are either constructed on fill as specified in subparagraph (ii) above, or are adequately floodproofed up to an elevation no lower than two (2) feet above the one hundred (100) year flood elevation. Such floodproofing shall be in accordance with the minimum standards adopted by the board.

(4) The following nonconforming uses shall be prohibited within the designated floodway: (a) A building for living purposes or place of assembly or permanent use by human beings; (b) a structure or excavation that will cause water to be diverted from the established floodway, cause erosion, obstruct the natural flow of water, or reduce the carrying capacity of the floodway; (c) the construction or permanent storage of an object subject to flotation or movement during flood level periods.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504 in the second sentence of subsection (1); and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, substituted "before the land-use regulations adopted by the political subdivisions are effective or" for "prior to the effective date of this act and" in the second sentence of subsection (1); substituted "section 89-3504 (3)" for "section 89-3504, subsections (3) or (4)" in the second sentence of subsection (1); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, inserted references to "designated floodplain"; substituted "the department or responsible political subdivision" for "the board" at the end of the first sentence and at the end of the second sentence in subsection (1); inserted subsection (3); redesignated former subsection (3) as (4); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

89-3507. Permits for obstructions—application—factors considered—fees. (1) The department or the responsible political subdivision may issue permits for the establishment or alteration of artificial obstructions and nonconforming uses which would otherwise violate section 89-3506. The application for the permit shall be submitted to the department and contain such information as the department or the responsible political subdivision requires, including complete maps, plans, profiles and specifications of the obstruction or use and watercourse or drainway.

(2) In passing upon the application, the department or the responsible political subdivision shall consider in accordance with the minimum standards established by the board: (a) the danger to life and property by water which may be backed up or diverted by the obstruction or use; (b) the danger that the obstruction or use will be swept downstream to the injury of others; (c) the availability of alternate locations; (d) the construction or alteration of the obstruction or use in such a manner as to lessen the danger; (e) the permanence of the obstruction or use; (f) the anticipated development in the foreseeable future of the area which may be affected by the obstruction or use; and, (g) such other factors as are in harmony with the purpose of this act. The department or the responsible political subdivision may make a part of the permit any reasonable conditions it may consider advisable. In order for the permit to continue to remain in force, the obstruction or use must be maintained so as to comply with the conditions and specifications of the permit.

(3) Permits for obstructions or uses to be established in the designated floodplain or designated floodway of watercourses must be specifically approved or denied within a reasonable time by the department or the responsible political subdivision; permits for obstructions or uses in the designated floodplains or designated floodways shall be conclusively deemed to have been granted sixty (60) days after the receipt of the application by the department or the responsible political subdivision, or after such time as the board or the responsible political subdivision specifies, unless the department or the responsible political subdivision notifies the applicant that the permit is denied. The responsible political subdivision shall send to the department a copy of each permit granted pursuant to this section.

(4) An application for a permit shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of ten dollars ($10) which the state treasurer shall credit to the floodway obstruction removal fund.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, substituted references to "the department or the responsible political subdivision" for references to "the board" in subsections (1), (2), and (3); substituted references to "artificial obstructions and nonconforming uses" and to "obstruction or use" for references to "obstructions" and to "obstruction" in subsections (1), (2), and (3); inserted "in accordance with minimum standards established by the board" near the beginning of the first sentence in subsection (2); inserted references to "designated floodplains" in subsection (3); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

89-3508. Powers and duties of department relative to obstructions.

(1) Where an obstruction to a designated floodway established under section 89-3504(2) has been created by fallen trees, silt, debris, wreckage, unanchored automobile bodies, and like matter, the department may, in its discretion, remove the obstruction, in which case the cost of removal shall be borne by the department; and

(2) Where, after investigation, notice, and hearing, an order has been issued by the board to the owner of an obstruction not exempt under section 89-3506 for its removal or repair, and the order is not complied with within such reasonable time as may be prescribed, or if the owner cannot be found or determined, the department may make or cause the removal or repairs to be made, the cost of which shall be borne by the owner and shall be recoverable in the same manner as debts are now recoverable by law.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504 near the beginning of subdivision (1); and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, deleted an introductory phrase which read: "The powers and duties of the board relative to obstructions in a board floodway shall include the following"; substituted references to "department" for references to "board" in two places in subsection (1) and in one place in subsection (2); substituted "section 89-3504(2)" for "section 89-3504, subsections (2) or (4)" in subsection (1); inserted "by the board" after "issued" near the beginning of subsection (2); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, inserted "designated" before "floodway" in subsection (1).

89-3509. Authority to enter and investigate lands or waters. The department or the responsible political subdivision may make reasonable entry upon any lands and waters in the state for the purpose of making an investigation, survey, removal, or repair contemplated by this act. An investigation of a natural or artificial obstruction or nonconforming use shall be made by the department either on its own initiative, on the written request of any three (3) titleholders of land abutting the watercourse or drainway involved, or on the written request of a political subdivision.

89-3510. Obstructions exempt where drainage area is small. This act shall not extend to any obstruction in the floodplain or floodway of a watercourse or drainway where the drainage area above the same, either within or without the state, is less than twenty-five (25) square miles in extent, unless a particular watercourse or drainway is expressly declared to be within the coverage of this act by order of the board.

The 1974 amendment inserted "floodplain" before "floodway."

89-3511. Orders and rules—judicial remedy. The board may adopt such orders and rules as are necessary to implement this act. If an order is issued to the owner of an artificial obstruction or nonconforming use not exempt under section 89-3506 for its removal or repair, the order shall not become effective less than ten (10) days after a hearing is held relating to the order. In addition to any requirement imposed by section 89-3504 (2), where an order is issued which affects with particularity the land adjacent to a watercourse or drainway, notice of the contents of the order and of any required hearing shall be mailed by the department to the titleholder of the land not less than ten (10) days before the effective date of the order, or, if there is a required hearing, to the titleholder of the land and to the owner of the artificial obstruction or nonconforming use not less than ten (10) days before the date of the hearing; however, the notice need not be given to the owner of the artificial obstruction or nonconforming use for an order issued pursuant to section 89-3508 (2) if the owner cannot be found or determined. All orders and rules adopted by the board shall be on file at the offices of the department and in the office of the county clerk of each county affected by the order or rule. A person aggrieved by any order of the board issued under this act may appeal from the order to a court of competent jurisdiction within thirty (30) days after its effective date. If an appeal is taken, enforcement of the order shall be stayed pending the outcome of the appeal. Service of notice of the appeal shall be made upon the department.

89-3512. Floodway obstruction removal fund. The state treasurer shall establish the floodway obstruction removal fund and credit to the fund for the removal of obstructions as provided in section 89-3508 (1), such money specifically appropriated by the legislature. The department may allocate money from the floodway obstruction removal fund for purposes provided in section 89-3508 (1).

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 203, Ch. 253, L. 1974.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment deleted "or re-appropriated during any biennium" after

"specifically appropriated" in the first sentence; substituted "department" for "Montana water resources board" in the second sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

89-3513. Penalties for violation. (1) Any person who violates section 6 [89-3506] of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100), or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ten (10) days, or be both so fined and imprisoned. Each day's continuance of a violation shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3514. Permit construed as added requirement—exception—immunity. (1) The granting of a permit under this act does not affect any other type of approval required by any other statute or ordinance of the state, of any political subdivision or of the United States, but is an added requirement; however, if a political subdivision enacts in harmony with the purposes of this act permit issuance ordinances, regulations or resolutions and land-use ordinances, regulations or resolutions which meet or exceed the minimum standards of the board, and if the administrative and enforcement procedures established for those ordinances, regulations, or resolutions are found acceptable by the board, no permit from the department is required; however, if the board determines that there is a failure by a political subdivision to comply with the intent, purposes and provisions of this act and the minimum standards adopted thereunder, the powers of the political subdivision may be suspended after hearing, and the minimum standards adopted by the board shall be enforced by the department until such time as the board determines that the political subdivision will comply. The grant or denial of a permit does not have an effect on a remedy of a person at law or in equity; however, where it is shown that there is a wrongful failure to comply with this act, there is a rebuttable presumption that the obstruction was the proximate cause of the flooding of the land of a person bringing suit.

(2) An action for damages sustained because of injury caused by an obstruction for which a permit has been granted under this act may not be brought against the state, the board, a member of the board, or the department. This act does not interfere with the right of the United States to regulate interstate commerce or the navigable waters of the United States.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1974, once by Ch. 253 and once by Ch. 271. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 253, Laws of 1974, substituted "or the department" for "or its employees or agents" at the end of the first sentence in subsection (2) and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 271, Laws of 1974, rewrote the portion of the first sentence in subsection (1) after the word "however" which read: "that if a political subdivision enacts and enforces land-use regulations which meet or exceed the minimum standards of the board, the board's recommendations in regard to artificial obstructions or nonconforming uses shall be advisory only"; deleted former subsection (2) which read: "No permit for the construction of any structure to be established within a designated floodway shall be granted by any political subdivision unless the applicant has first obtained the permit required by this act, or until the board acknowledges that such structure would not be an obstruction within the meaning of this act"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Effective Date

Section 12 of Ch. 271, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 21, 1974.

89-3515. Remedies not exclusive. The use of any one of the remedies or powers given to the board or the department in this act is not a bar to the exercise of any other remedy or power given by this act.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 205, Ch. 253, L. 1974.

Separability Clause

Section 16 of Ch. 393, Laws 1971 read "If any section in this act or any part of any section is declared invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration of invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof."

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted "or the department" after "board" and made a minor change in phraseology.

CHAPTER 36—RENEWABLE RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

- Section 89-3601. Policy.
 89-3602. Definitions.
 89-3603. Renewable resource development loans.
 89-3604. State renewable resource development grants.
 89-3605. State and local renewable resource development loans.
 89-3606. Renewable resource development bonds.

 89-3609. Authorization of bonds.

89-3601. Policy. In the development of the natural resources of the state it is essential to distinguish between those which are and those which are not renewable; to make proper charges through taxation and otherwise for the depreciation of nonrenewable resources; and to invest a proper proportion of the tax and other revenues from nonrenewable resources in the replacement thereof with developments of renewable natural resources that will preserve for the citizens the benefit of the state's natural heritage and to ensure that the quality of existing public resources such as land, air, water, fish, wildlife and recreational opportunities are not significantly diminished by developments supported by this act. In order to finance such developments it is necessary to borrow in anticipation of the receipt of the revenues, so that replacement will not lag behind consumption. The purpose of this act is to provide a procedure for borrowing in the most economical way for this purpose, and to authorize the creation of debt to finance the first stage of the program, and to describe the types of projects, loans, and grants to be included in the program.

History: En. 89-3601 by Sec. 1, Ch. 533, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act relating to the renewable resource development program of the state, providing the method of accounting for funds appropriated for the program, providing for the creation of state debt by the issuance of bonds in anticipation of the receipt of such funds, supported by the pledge of the full faith and credit of the state, providing for making renewable resource development loans and grants, and appropriating coal tax revenues and general fund money for these purposes.

89-3602. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this act:

(1) "Renewable resource development program" means such developments in the public interest of renewable natural resources of the state as shall from time to time be acquired, constructed, and financed from funds appropriated to the accounts referred to in this section, and from the proceeds of bonds issued in anticipation of the receipt of these funds. Renewable resource developments shall, whenever practicable, be multiple-use projects, and shall not significantly diminish the quality of existing public resources such as land, air, water, fish, wildlife and recreational opportunities.

(2) "Renewable resource development bonds" mean all series of bonds authorized by law to be issued pursuant to section 89-3606 to finance any part of the renewable resource development program, or to refund any such bonds.

(3) "Renewable resource development account," or "clearance fund account," mean a separate account which is created within the bond and insurance clearance fund established in section 79-410, and shall be segregated by the treasurer from all other money in that or any other fund in the state treasury and used only to pay costs of the renewable resource development program, upon order of the department of administration or the board of natural resources and conservation under authority and within limitations provided by law.

(4) "Renewable resource development bond account," or "sinking fund account," mean a separate account which is created within the sinking fund established in section 79-410, and shall be segregated by the treasurer from all other money in that or any other fund in the treasury and used only as provided for herein.

(5) "Treasurer" means the state treasurer.

History: En. 89-3602 by Sec. 2, Ch. 533, L. 1975.

89-3603. Renewable resource development loans. (1) The board of natural resources and conservation is authorized upon proper application and upon recommendation of the department of natural resources and conservation to make loans from the renewable resource development account established by this act to farmers and ranchers of the state of Montana who, without regard to their form of business organization:

(a) are citizens of the United States and are citizens and residents of the state of Montana;

(b) have sufficient farming or ranching training and experience which, in the opinion of the department, is sufficient to assure the likelihood of the success of the proposed operations; and

(c) are or will become owner-operators of farms or ranches.

(2) The department shall solicit and consider in its evaluation of proposed projects the views of interested and affected departments, boards, agencies and other subdivisions of state and federal government and of other interested and affected persons.

(3) The board may make the renewable resource development loans provided for by this section for any worthwhile project for the conservation, management, utilization, development, or preservation of the land, water, fish, wildlife, recreational, and other renewable resources in the state; and for the refinancing of existing indebtedness incurred in the expansion or rehabilitation of projects for those purposes.

(4) The board shall make no renewable resource development loan which exceeds the lesser of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or eighty per cent (80%) of the fair market value of the security given therefor. In determining the fair market value for the security given for any loan, the department shall consider appraisals made by qualified appraisers and such other factors it considers important.

(5) The period for repayment of loans pursuant to this act may not exceed thirty (30) years.

(6) The board shall from time to time establish by rule the interest rate at which loans may be made under this act, provided that in no case may the rate be greater than one (1) percentage point greater than the prevailing interest rate on the renewable resource development bonds provided for in this act.

(7) The state shall have a lien upon a project constructed with money from the renewable resource development account for the amount of the loan, together with the interest thereon. This lien may attach to all project facilities, equipment, easements, real property and property of any kind of nature owned by the debtor, including all water rights. The board shall file either a financing statement or a real estate mortgage covering the loan, its amount, terms and a description of the project with the county recorder of each county in which the project or any part thereof is located. The county recorder shall record the lien in a book kept for the recording of liens and it shall be indexed as other liens are required by law to be indexed. The lien shall be valid until paid in full or otherwise discharged. The lien shall be foreclosed in accordance with applicable state law governing foreclosure of mortgages and liens.

(8) The board may adopt rules as required to govern the terms and conditions for making loans, security instruments, and agreements pursuant to this act.

(9) No member, officer, attorney, or other employee of the board or the department shall, directly or indirectly, be the beneficiary of or receive any fee, commission, gift, or other consideration for or in connection with any transaction or business under this act other than such salary, fee, or other compensation as he may receive as such member, officer, attorney, or employee. Any person violating any provision of this section shall, upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or imprisonment for not more than two (2) years or both.

(10) The department shall administer the loans made by the board pursuant to this act, and may accept and utilize voluntary and uncompensated services, and, with the consent of the agency concerned, utilize the officers, employees, equipment, and information of any agency of the federal government, or of any agency of Montana government, or of any political subdivision within Montana.

History: En. 89-3603 by Sec. 3, Ch. 533,

89-3604. State renewable resource development grants. (1) The department of administration may recommend to the governor that grants from the renewable resource development account provided for by this act be made to any department, agency, board, commission, or other division of state government. Unless specifically authorized by the legislature, no bond proceeds shall be used for the purpose of making grants; grants may only be made in such sums as may be deposited in the sinking fund account from the collection of the strip coal mines license tax payable under the provisions of section 84-1302 as provided in section 89-3607.

(2) The department shall solicit and consider in its evaluation of proposed projects the views of interested and affected departments, boards, agencies and other subdivisions of state and federal government and of other interested and affected persons.

(3) The governor shall submit those grant proposals having his approval to the legislature by the twentieth day of any legislative session. Those grant proposals approved by the legislature shall be administered by the department.

(4) The grants provided for by this section may be made for the purchase, lease, or construction of projects for the conservation, management, utilization, development or preservation of the land, water, fish, wildlife, recreational and other renewable resources in the state; for the purpose of feasibility and design studies for such projects; for development of plans for the rehabilitation, expansion or modification of existing projects; and for such other and further similar purposes as the legislature may approve.

(5) The department may adopt rules as required to govern the terms and conditions for making grants pursuant to this section.

History: En. 89-3604 by Sec. 4, Ch. 533,

89-3605. State and local renewable resource development loans. (1) The department of administration may recommend to the governor that loans be made from the renewable resource development account established by this act to any department, agency, board, commission or other division of state government, or to any city, county, or other political subdivision or local government body of the state.

(2) The department shall solicit and consider in its evaluation of proposed projects the views of interested and affected departments, boards, agencies and other subdivisions of state and federal government and of other interested and affected persons.

(3) The governor shall submit those loan proposals having his approval to the legislature by the twentieth day of any legislative session. Those loan proposals approved by the legislature shall be administered by the department.

(4) The provisions of section 89-3603, subsection (2) and subsections (4) through (9) shall govern and apply to the local renewable resource loans herein provided for.

(5) Both the loans provided for by this section and the grants provided for by section 89-3604 may be submitted to the governor and approved by the legislature as may be necessary to jointly finance any project.

History: En. 89-3605 by Sec. 5, Ch. 533,

89-3606. Renewable resource development bonds. (1) Within the limits authorized by section 89-3609, and within the further limitations in this section, the state board of examiners may issue and sell bonds of the state in such manner as it considers necessary and proper to finance the renewable resource development program. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state shall be pledged for the prompt and full payment of all bonds so issued and interest and redemption premiums payable thereon according to their terms.

(2) Each series of such bonds shall be issued by the state board of examiners upon request of the department of administration or the board of natural resources and conservation, in such denominations and forms, whether payable to bearer with attached interest coupons or registered as to principal or as to both principal and interest, with such provisions for conversion or exchange and for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the issuance of definitive bonds, bearing interest at such rate or rates, maturing at such time or times not exceeding thirty (30) years from date of issue, subject to optional or mandatory redemption at such earlier times and prices and upon such notice, with such provisions for payment and discharge by the deposit of funds or securities in escrow for that purpose, and payable at the office of such banking institution or institutions within or outside the state, as the board shall determine subject to the limitations contained in this section.

(3) In the issuance of each series of such bonds the interest rates and the maturities and any mandatory redemption provisions thereof shall be established in such manner that the funds then specifically pledged and appropriated by law to the sinking fund account will in the judgment of the board be received in an amount sufficient in each year to pay all principal, redemption premiums, and interest due and payable in that year with respect to that and all prior series of such bonds, except outstanding bonds as to which the obligation of the state has been discharged by the deposit of funds or securities sufficient for their payment in accordance with the terms of the resolutions by which they are authorized to be issued.

(4) In all other respects the state board of examiners is authorized to prescribe the form and terms of the bonds, and shall do whatever is lawful and necessary for their issuance and payment. Such bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto shall be signed by the members of the state board of examiners, and the bonds shall be issued under the great seal of the state of Montana. The bonds and coupons may be executed with facsimile signatures and seal in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed by law. The state treasurer shall keep a record of all such bonds issued and sold.

(5) All proceeds of bonds issued hereunder, other than refunding bonds, shall be deposited in the clearance fund account, except that any principal and accrued interest received in repayment of the loans provided for in this act shall be deposited in the sinking fund account. All proceeds of refunding bonds shall be deposited in the sinking fund account and applied to the payment and redemption of outstanding bonds issued hereunder as directed by the board, whether at maturity or on any previous date on which they may be prepaid according to their terms.

(6) The state board of examiners is authorized to issue refunding bonds at such times and in such amounts, if any, as may be necessary to pay principal or interest due which cannot be paid from funds then on hand in the sinking fund account. It may also issue refunding bonds to refund outstanding bonds before maturity, for the purpose of extending the maturities thereof so far as determined by the board to be necessary to assure that the funds then pledged to the sinking fund account will be sufficient for payment of principal and interest due in subsequent years. It may also issue refunding bonds to refund outstanding bonds before maturity for the purpose of reducing the interest cost or the total amount of principal and interest payable thereon.

(7) No refunding bonds may be issued and sold more than three (3) months before all bonds refunded thereby mature or are called for redemption unless the proceeds thereof, with any other funds in the sinking fund account which are needed and available for the purpose, or securities purchased from such proceeds and other funds, are deposited with a suitable banking institution within or outside the state, in escrow for the retirement of the refunded bonds at maturity or at a prior date or dates on which they have been called for redemption in accordance with their terms, in an amount and in a manner sufficient under the provisions securing the refunded bonds so that the state's obligation to pay the same, from sources other than the escrow fund, is discharged.

(8) No new debt may be created by the issuance of refunding bonds in accordance with this section, but such refunding bonds shall evidence the debt previously created and shall be secured by the pledge of the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state and by the further provisions of this act in the same manner as the bonds refunded thereby.

History: En. 89-3606 by Sec. 6, Ch. 533,

89-3607. Sinking fund account. (1) The state may by enactment of the legislature or the people levy, impose, assess, and pledge and appropriate to the sinking fund account any tax, charge, fee, rental or other income from any designated source. The state reserves the right to modify from time to time the nature and amount of special taxes and other revenues pledged and appropriated to the sinking fund account, provided that the aggregate resources so pledged and appropriated are determined by the legislature to be sufficient for the prompt and full payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premiums when due on all bonds payable from that account, and provided that the pledge of the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state for the security of all such bonds shall be and remain irrevocable until they are fully paid.

(2) Money in the sinking fund account shall be used first to pay interest, principal and redemption premiums when due and payable with respect to renewable resource development bonds; second to accumulate a reserve for the further security of such payments, to the amount required each month to meet those payments due within twelve (12) months thereafter; and third to restore the reserve to this amount after each payment.

(3) After the reserve provided for in subsection (2) above is in the sinking fund, money at any time received in the sinking fund in excess of that amount shall be transferred by the treasurer to the clearance fund account. If the balance at any time on hand in the sinking fund is not sufficient for compliance with subsection (2), and is not restored to the required amount within three (3) months thereafter, from funds specifically pledged and appropriated to the sinking fund account, the treasurer shall transfer thereto from the general fund an amount sufficient to restore the required balance.

(4) The state pledges and appropriates and directs to be credited to the sinking fund account as received two and one-half per cent ($2\frac{1}{2}\%$) of all money from time to time received from the collection of the strip coal mines license tax payable under the provisions of section 84-1302, or the equivalent provision of any severance tax enacted in lieu of such license tax, and such additional amount thereof, if any, as may be required from time to time to provide sufficient funds for the purposes stated in subsection (2) above; provided that no more than two and one-half per cent ($2\frac{1}{2}\%$) of such tax collections shall be deemed to be pledged for the purpose of section 89-3606, subsection (3).

History: En. 89-3607 by Sec. 7, Ch. 533,

89-3608. Clearance fund account. (1) In addition to any funds herein provided for the clearance fund account, the state may by enactment of the legislature or the people levy, impose, assess and pledge and appropriate to the clearance fund account any tax, charge, fee, rental or other income from any source.

(2) The state pledges and appropriates and directs to be credited from the general fund to the clearance fund account three hundred ninety thousand, nine hundred seventy-four dollars ($390,974) for its initial funding to be used and administered as provided for in this act. When sufficient funds have been accumulated in the clearance fund account from bond proceeds or as otherwise provided for in this act, the legislature directs that three hundred ninety thousand, nine hundred seventy-four dollars ($390,974) be appropriated from the clearance fund account and credited to the general fund.

(3) The costs of the board of examiners, the board of natural resources and conservation, the department of natural resources and conservation, and the department of administration incurred in the administration of this act shall be met from the clearance fund account moneys which shall from time to time as needed be transferred to an earmarked revenue fund established for that purpose.

(4) The board of examiners, the department of natural resources and the department of administration may, within the limits of appropriation made therefor, make necessary expenditures for the purchase or hire of such personnel, facilities, and services as they may from time to time find necessary for the proper administration of this act.

(5) The general fund appropriation provided for by subsection (2) of this section as the initial funding for the programs provided for by this act shall be appropriated and used as follows for the biennium ending June 30, 1977:

	For Fiscal Year Ending 6/30/76	For Fiscal Year Ending 6/30/77

(6) The moneys deposited in the clearance fund account as provided for in section 6 [89-3606] of this act shall be appropriated and used as follows for the biennium ending June 30, 1977:

	For Fiscal Year Ending 6/30/76	For Fiscal Year Ending 6/30/77
Department of Natural Resources and Conservation

89-3609. Authorization of bonds. The legislature, through the enactment of this law by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of each house, authorizes the creation of state debt in an amount not to exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000), and the issuance and sale of renewable resource development bonds in this amount, for the purpose of providing funds appropriated to the clearance fund account for developments included in the renewable resource development program.

Separability Clause

Section 10 of Ch. 533, Laws 1975 read
"If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

	89-3703.	Work for which permit required.
	89-3704.	Criteria for issuance of permits.

	89-3710.	Judicial enforcement and review.
	89-3711.	Penalty.
	89-3712.	Funding.

89-3701. Declaration of policy. The legislature finds and declares that the natural lakes of Montana are high in scenic and resource values and that the conservation and protection of these lakes is important to the continued value of lakeshore property as well as to the state's residents and visitors who use and enjoy the lakes. The legislature further declares that local governments should play the primary public roles in establishing policies to conserve and protect lakes. Local governments do not have adequate statutory powers to protect their lake areas, and it is the purpose of this act to confer such powers on local governments, provided that such powers are exercised to maintain public health, welfare, and safety.

Title of Act

An act to protect lakeshores by requiring a permit for any work which would alter or diminish a lake; requiring local governing bodies to adopt regulations governing the issuance of such permits; providing for variances, judicial review, and funding; and providing an effective date.

89-3702. Definitions. As used in this act—

(1) "Lake" means a body of standing water, and the area within its lakeshore, occurring naturally rather than by virtue of constructed impoundments (although a natural lake whose level is raised and whose area is increased by the construction of impoundments includes the additional level and area), having a water surface area of at least one hundred sixty (160) acres for at least six (6) months in a year of average precipitation as such averages are determined by the United States Geological Survey, not used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and navigable by canoes and small boats. A local governing body may by resolution change the minimum size in the definition of a lake so that this act may apply to natural lakes in the county no smaller than twenty (20) acres in water surface area.

(2) "Lakeshore" is the perimeter of a lake when the lake is at mean annual high water elevation, including the land within twenty (20) horizontal feet from that high water elevation.

(3) "Mean annual high water elevation" is the mean average of the highest elevation of a lake in each of at least five (5) consecutive years, excluding any high levels caused by erratic or unusual weather or hydrological conditions. A highest elevation caused by operation of a dam or other impoundment counts toward the establishment of the mean annual high water elevation.

(4) "Local governing body" or "governing body" is that unit of local government authorized to administer the Montana Subdivision and Platting Act on the land adjoining a lake or part of a lake subject to this act.

History: En. 89-3702 by Sec. 2, Ch. 527, L. 1975.

89-3703. Work for which permit required. A person who proposes to do any work which will alter or diminish the course, current, or cross-sectional area of a lake or its lakeshore must first secure a permit for the work from the local governing body. Without limitation, the following activities are, when conducted below mean annual high water elevation, examples of work for which a permit is required: construction of channels and ditches; dredging of lake bottom areas to remove muck, silt, or weeds; lagooning; filling; constructing breakwaters of pilings; wharves and docks.

History: En. 89-3703 by Sec. 3, Ch. 527,

89-3704. Criteria for issuance of permits. (1) Before January 1, 1976, every governing body having jurisdiction over an area containing a lake shall adopt regulations, in the form of criteria, for the issuance or denial of permits for work in lakes. Where a planning board has been created under section 11-3801 for an area containing a lake, the governing body shall seek the recommendations of the planning board as to the regulations to be adopted under this act.

(2) The regulations shall favor issuance if the proposed work will not, during either its construction or its utilization:

- (a) materially diminish water quality,
- (b) materially diminish habitat for fish or wildlife,
- (c) interfere with navigation or other lawful recreation,
- (d) create a public nuisance, or
- (e) create a visual impact discordant with natural scenic values, as determined by the local governing body, where such values form the predominant landscape elements.

(3) The local governing body may provide a summary procedure to permit work which it finds has a minimal or insignificant impact on a lakeshore.

(4) A governing body whose area contains more than one lake may adopt regulations in differing form for the various lakes, recognizing the physical and social differences between lakes.

(5) The requirements of subsection (2) of this section are minimum requirements and do not restrict a local governing body from adopting such stricter or additional regulations as may be authorized by other statutes.

(6) The department of natural resources and conservation may, upon petition of five (5) owners or thirty per cent (30%) of the owners of land abutting a lake, whichever is smaller, adopt such regulations for the particular lake. The department may then exercise the powers conferred upon a local governing body by this act until the governing body adopts the necessary regulations.

History: En. 89-3704 by Sec. 4, Ch. 527,

89-3705. Application for permits—procedure. A person seeking a permit for work in a lake shall apply to the local governing body, and shall pay an application fee of ten dollars ($10) to the governing body. Where a planning board has been created under section 11-3801 for the area containing the lake in question, the governing body shall seek the recommendation of the planning board as to the compliance of the proposed work with the criteria for the issuance of a permit. The planning board shall report its recommendations to the governing body as to whether the proposed work conforms to the criteria for issuance of a permit, and may require the applicant to submit additional information before the board reports its recommendations. In areas where a planning board is not established, the functions of a planning board under this section shall be exercised by the local governing body.

History: En. 89-3705 by Sec. 5, Ch. 527,
L. 1975.

89-3706. Consideration of applications by governing body. Unless the applicant agrees to an extension of time, the governing body shall grant or deny permission for the work within ninety (90) days of receiving an application for a permit. If the governing body finds that the proposed work conforms to the criteria for issuing a permit it shall issue a permit or conditional permit. If the governing body finds that the work does not conform to the criteria, it shall deny the application.

History: En. 89-3706 by Sec. 6, Ch. 527,

89-3707. Variance procedure. A governing body which proposes to grant a variance from its regulations under this act shall first prepare an environmental impact statement at the expense of the applicant which conforms to the requirements of regulations adopted pursuant to this act, distribute this statement to interested residents, and conduct a public hearing on the proposed action.

History: En. 89-3707 by Sec. 7, Ch. 527,

89-3708. Restoration—property rights. (1) A person who performs work in a lake after the effective date of this act without a permit for that work shall, if required by the local governing body or the district court, restore the lake to its condition before he disturbed it.

(2) Work or development authorized or approved under this act shall not create a vested property right in the permitted development, other than in the physical structure, if any, so developed.

The terms do not include meters for the measurement of electricity, gas (natural or manufactured), or water when they are operated in a public utility system. Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "The department may adopt reasonable rules necessary" for "The sealer shall issue such reasonable regulations as are necessary" in the final paragraph; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

90-171. Method of sale of commodities—packages—declarations of quantity and origin—variations—exemptions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this act, a commodity in package form introduced or delivered for introduction into or received in intrastate commerce, kept for the purpose of sale, or offered or exposed for sale in intrastate commerce, shall bear on the outside of the package definite, plain, and conspicuous declarations of: (a) the identity of the commodity in the package unless it can easily be identified through the wrapper or container, (b) the net quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or count, and (c) in the case of any package kept, offered, or exposed for sale, or sold in any place other than on the premises where packed, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor, as may be prescribed by rules adopted by the department.

(2) In connection with the declaration required under subsection 1(b), neither the qualifying term “when packed,” nor words of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count (for example, “jumbo,” “giant,” “full,” and the like) that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in a package may be used.

(3) Under subsection 1 (b) the department shall, by rule, establish: (a) reasonable variations to be allowed, which may include variations below the declared weight or measure caused by ordinary and customary exposure, only after the commodity is introduced into intrastate commerce, to conditions that normally occur in good distribution practice and that unavoidably result in decreased weight or measure, (b) exemptions as to small packages, and (c) exemptions as to commodities put up in variable weights or sizes for sale intact and either customarily not sold as individual units or customarily weighed or measured at time of sale to the consumer.

(4) The marking provisions of this section do not apply to unwrapped loaves of bread or to berries and small fruits, sold in conformance with the applicable provisions of this act.

“department” for “sealer” and “rule” for “regulation” in subsections (1) and (3); added subsection (4); and made minor changes in phraseology, punctuation and style.

90-172. Method of sale of commodities—declarations of unit price on random packages. In addition to the declarations required by section 19 [90-171] of this act, any commodity in package form, the package being one of a lot containing random weights, measures, or counts of the same commodity and bearing the total selling price of the package, shall bear on the outside of the package a plain and conspicuous declaration of the price per single unit of weight, measure, or count.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-173. Method of sale of commodities—misleading packages. A commodity in package form may not be wrapped, or in a container made, formed, or filled, so as to mislead the purchaser as to the quantity of the contents of the package. The contents of a container may not fall below a reasonable standard of fill which may be prescribed for that commodity by the department.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 99, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 160, Ch. 431, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted “department” for “sealer”; and made minor changes in phraseology.

90-174. Method of sale of commodities—advertising packages for sale. Whenever a commodity in package form is advertised in any manner and the retail price of the package is stated in the advertisement, there shall be closely and conspicuously associated with such statement of price a declaration of the basic quantity of contents of the package as is required by law or regulation to appear on the package: provided, that, where the law or regulation requires a dual declaration of net quantity to appear on the package, only the declaration that sets forth the quantity in terms of the smaller unit of weight or measure (the declaration that is required to appear first and without parenthesis on the package) need appear in the advertisement: And provided further, that there shall not be included as part of the declaration required under this section such qualifying terms as "when packed," "minimum," "not less than," or any other terms of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count (for example, "jumbo," "giant," "full," and the like) that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in the package.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-175. Sale by net weight. When a commodity is sold on the basis of weight, the net weight of the commodity shall be employed, and all contracts concerning commodities shall be so construed.

Whenever an advertised, posted, or labeled price per unit of weight, measure, or count includes a fraction of a cent, all elements of the fraction shall be prominently displayed and the numeral or numerals expressing the fraction shall be immediately adjacent to, of the same general design and style as, and at last one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the height and width of the numerals representing the whole cents.

90-178. Bread. Each loaf of bread and each unit of a twin or multiple loaf of bread produced or procured for sale, kept, offered, exposed for sale, or sold, whether or not the bread is wrapped or sliced, shall weigh one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) pound, one (1) pound, one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) pounds, or a multiple of one (1) pound, avoirdupois weight, within reasonable variations or tolerances that shall be adopted by rules of the department. This section does not apply to biscuits, buns, or rolls weighing eight (8) ounces or less, or to "stale bread" sold and expressly represented at the time of sale as such.

If the department desires to retain it as evidence, it shall issue a weight slip in place of the ticket for delivery to the purchaser. If the purchaser himself carries away his purchase, the vendor shall be required only to give to the purchaser at the time of sale a delivery ticket stating the number of pounds of commodity delivered to him.

Conduct Amounting to False Pretenses

Misdemeanors under former Packaged Commodities Offered for Sale Act and former False Weight and Measures Act were not lesser included offenses of felony of obtaining money by false pretenses since above acts required "sale" while felony statute does not; state has discretionary power to choose under which law it will charge defendant and the fact that two statutes overlap in prohibiting same act does not mean that the defendant can only be prosecuted under statute providing lesser penalty. State v. Lagerquist, 152 M 21, 445 P 2d 910.

90-189. Injunction. The department may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for, and that court upon hearing and for cause shown may grant, a temporary or permanent injunction restraining a person from violating any provision of this act.

90-190. Presumptive evidence. For the purposes of this act, proof of the existence of a weight or measure or a weighing or measuring device in or about any building, enclosure, stand, or vehicle in which or from which is shown that buying or selling is commonly carried on, is, in the absence of credible evidence to the contrary, presumptive proof of the regular use of that weight or measure or weighing or measuring device for commercial purposes and of the use by the person in charge of the building, enclosure, stand, or vehicle.

Dower Subject to Inheritance Tax

A widow who takes property under statutory dower allowance takes under the intestate laws and the property will be subject to inheritance tax. Stovall v. Department of Revenue, — M —, 527 P 2d 62.

Tenants in Common

Where husband died after he and his wife had conveyed land owned as tenants in common to sons, reserving a life estate with right of survivorship, wife, who obtained deceased husband's one-half interest in land was subject to inheritance tax on husband's interest under section 91-4405, but sons' interests were not taxable until termination of the mother's life estate. In re Hess' Estate, 145 M 552, 403 P 2d 748.

91-4402. (10400.1) Transfers in contemplation of death.

Possession Postponed

Where husband and wife held real property as tenants in common, but transferred one half of the property to one son, and the other half to the other son, reserving a life estate in each piece of property with right of survivorship, on father's death sons were not subject to inheritance tax until termination of the mother's intervening life estate. In re Hess' Estate, 145 M 552, 403 P 2d 748.

91-4405. (10400.1) Joint estates, government bonds, tenants, etc.

Applicable Property

Since the 1951 amendment, this section, including the clause excepting from taxation property shown to have belonged to the survivor and not the decedent, applies whether the property is tangible or intangible or whether the purchase price or the actual property is the subject of the joint tenancy. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

Corporate Stock

Corporate stock registered in both the husband's and wife's names, but purchased by the wife, and in her possession, was not subject to inheritance tax on death of husband. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

Nontaxable Transfers

The 1951 amendment, stipulating that upon the death of one of the spouses, "the right of the survivor or survivors to the immediate possession or ownership is a taxable transfer," when read in conjunction with the clause excepting property shown to have belonged originally to the survivor, shows that a "transfer" is taxed, but what in reality is not a "transfer" is not taxed. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

91-4407. (10400.1) Tax on clear market value—deductions.

Clear Market Value

Clear market value as used in this section means net value in the open market as determined by price willing but not obligated buyer would pay and willing but not obligated seller would accept, with both parties knowing all pertinent facts affecting value. In re Estate of Power, 156 M 100, 476 P 2d 506.

Valuation of United States Treasury

bonds redeemable at par in discharge of federal estate tax liability must be based on clear market value on date of decedent's death for purposes of this section rather than on par value. In re Estate of Power, 156 M 100, 476 P 2d 506.

91-4411. (10400.3a) Estate tax. (a) In addition to the inheritance taxes hereinabove imposed, an estate tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every decedent leaving an estate which is subject to the federal estate tax imposed by the United States of America under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and which has, in whole or in part, a taxable situs in this state. The tax hereby imposed upon the transfer of each such estate shall be equal to the maximum tax credit allowable for state death taxes against the federal estate tax imposed with respect to the portion of the decedent's estate having a taxable situs in this state, less the inheritance taxes, if any, due this state, it being the purpose and intent of this section to impose only such additional taxes hereunder as may be necessary to give this state the full benefit of the maximum tax credit allowable against the federal estate tax imposed with respect to a decedent's estate which has a taxable situs in this state. If only a portion of a decedent's estate has a taxable situs in this state, such maximum tax credit shall be determined by multiplying the entire amount of the credit allowable against the federal estate tax for state death taxes by the percentage which the value of the portion of the decedent's estate which has a taxable situs in this state bears to the value of the entire estate. The tax imposed herein shall be collected by the several county treasurers or the department of revenue for deposit with the state treasurer and distributed as hereafter provided. For the purpose of this tax, the taxable situs of property shall be the same as the taxable situs for inheritance tax purposes.

(b) When payable. The estate tax shall be payable to the county treasurer of the county in which such estate is being probated at the same time, or times, at which the United States tax is payable and shall bear interest, if any, at the same rate and for the same period as such United States tax.

(c) Liability. Administrators, executors, trustees and grantees under a conveyance, made during the grantor's life and taxable hereunder, shall be liable for such taxes with interest, until the same have been paid.

(d) Lien. Said taxes and interest shall be, and remain, a lien on the property for a period of ten (10) years from the date of death, unless sooner paid.

(e) Extension of time. The district court of the county in which such estate is being probated may, for cause shown, extend the time of payment of said tax whenever the circumstances of the case require.

(f) Duplicate returns. It shall be the duty of the personal representative of the estate of any decedent, whose estate may be subject to the payment of a United States estate tax, to file duplicates of the United States estate tax returns with the district court of the county in which such estate is being probated and with the department of revenue. He shall also file with such court and with the department a certificate or other evidence from the bureau of internal revenue showing the amount of the United States estate tax as computed by that department. The department of revenue shall enter an order determining such state estate tax and the amount thereof so due and payable. Any person in interest aggrieved by such determination shall have the same right to apply for district court determination and of rehearing and appeal as is now provided for in the determination of inheritance taxes.

(g) Intent of subdivisions (a) to (h). It is hereby declared to be the intent and purpose of subdivisions (a) to (h) to obtain for this state the benefit of the credit allowed under the provisions of said Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that this state may be entitled by the provisions of said act, by imposing additional taxes and the same shall be liberally construed to effect this purpose.

(h) Provisions applicable. The provisions of sections 91-4401 to 91-4456, inclusive, relating to the tax on inheritances and transfers, shall apply to the taxes imposed by subdivisions (a) to (h), in so far as the same are applicable and not in conflict with the provisions hereof.

FOREWORD

This pamphlet contains the complete text of the Uniform Probate Code adopted by Chapter 365, Laws of 1974, effective July 1, 1975, as amended by the Forty-fourth Legislature in 1975.

Various portions of this Uniform Probate Code, designated as Title 91A, either embody, supersede or conflict with statutes now contained principally in Title 91 of the Revised Codes of Montana. The Repealing Clause of Chapter 365 is set forth following section 91A-6-104 on page 172 herein.

Included in this pamphlet as notes following most of the sections of the Uniform Probate Code are the Official Comments prepared by the Joint Editorial Board for the Uniform Probate Code, an arm of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform Probate Code. The Comments have been edited occasionally for adaptation to the Montana version of the Uniform Code.

The Index to the Uniform Probate Code prepared by its Joint Editorial Board, modified in substance as required by variations in the Montana adoption, appears at the end of this pamphlet commencing on page 173.

M. 1947; and providing an effective date.

91A-1-102. Purposes—rules of construction. (1) This code shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(2) The underlying purposes and policies of this code are:

(a) to simplify and clarify the law concerning the affairs of decedents, missing persons, protected persons, minors and incapacitated persons;

(b) to discover and make effective the intent of a decedent in distribution of his property;

(c) to promote a speedy and efficient system for liquidating the estate of the decedent and making distribution to its successors;

(d) to make uniform the law among the various jurisdictions.

History: En. 91A-1-102 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-1-103. Supplementary general principles of law applicable. Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this code, the principles of law and equity supplement its provisions.

History: En. 91A-1-103 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-1-104. Severability. If any provision of this code or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the code which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this code are declared to be severable.

History: En. 91A-1-104 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-1-105. Construction against implied repeal. This code is a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter and no part of it shall be deemed impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if it can reasonably be avoided.

History: En. 91A-1-105 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-1-106. Effect of fraud and evasion. Whenever fraud has been perpetrated in connection with any proceeding or in any statement filed under this code or if fraud is used to avoid or circumvent the provisions or purposes of this code, any person injured thereby may obtain appropriate relief including restitution against the perpetrator of the fraud or any person benefiting from the fraud, whether innocent or not (other than a bona fide purchaser for value and without notice). Any proceeding must be commenced within two (2) years after the discovery of the fraud, but no proceeding may be brought against one not a perpetrator of the fraud later than five (5) years after the time of commission of the fraud. This section has no bearing on remedies relating to fraud practiced on a decedent during his lifetime which affects the succession of his estate.

History: En. 91A-1-106 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This is an overriding provision that provides an exception to the procedures and limitations provided in the code. The remedy of a party wronged by fraud is intended to be supplementary to other protections provided in the code and can be maintained outside the process of settlement of the estate. Thus, if a will which is known to be forgery is probated informally, and the forgery is not discovered until after the period for contest has run, the defrauded heirs still could bring a fraud action under this section. Or if a will is fraudulently concealed after the testator's death and its existence not discovered until after the basic three-year period (section [91A-3-108]) has elapsed, there still may be an action under this section. Similarly, a closing statement normally provides binding protection for the personal representative after six months from filing (section [91A-3-1006]). However, if there is fraudulent misrepresentation or concealment in the preparation of the claim, a later suit may be brought under this section against the personal representative for damages; or restitution may be obtained from those distributees who benefit by the fraud. In any case innocent purchasers for value are protected.

Any action under this section is subject to usual rules of res judicata; thus, if a forged will has been informally probated, an heir discovers the forgery, and then there is a formal proceeding under section [91A-3-1001] of which the heir is given notice, followed by an order of complete settlement of the estate, the heir could not bring a subsequent action under section [91A-1-106] but would be bound by the litigation in which the issue could have been raised.

The usual rules for securing relief for fraud on a court would govern, however.

The final limitation in this section is designed to protect innocent distributees after a reasonable period of time. There is no limit (other than the two years from discovery of the fraud) against the wrongdoer. But there ought to be some limit after which innocent persons who have built up expectations in good faith cannot be deprived of the property by a restitution action.

The time of "discovery" of a fraud is a fact question to be determined in the individual case. In some situations persons may not actually know that a fraud has been perpetrated but have such strong suspicion and evidence that a court may conclude there has been a discovery of the fraud at that stage. On the other hand there is no duty to exercise reasonable care to discover fraud; the burden should not be on the heirs and devisees to check on the honesty of the other interested persons or the fiduciary.

91A-1-107. Evidence as to death or status. In proceedings under this code the rules of evidence in courts of general jurisdiction including any relating to simultaneous deaths, are applicable unless specifically displaced by the code. In addition, the following rules relating to determination of death and status are applicable:

(1) a certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purporting to be issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred is prima facie proof of the fact, place, date and time of death and the identity of the decedent;

(2) a certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that a person is missing, detained, dead, or alive is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances and places disclosed by the record or report;

(3) a person who is absent for a continuous period of seven (7) years, during which he has not been heard from, and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search or inquiry is presumed to be dead. His death is presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is sufficient evidence for determining that death occurred earlier.

History: En. 91A-1-107 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment substitutes "period of seven (7) years" for "period of five (5) years" in subdivision (3).

Editorial Board Comment

Subsection (3) is inconsistent with section 1 of Uniform Absence as Evidence of Death and Absentees' Property Act (1938).

Proceedings to secure protection of property interests of an absent person may be commenced as provided in [section 91A-5-401].

The preliminary paragraph is designed to accommodate the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act, if it is a part of a state's law. [The Uniform Simultaneous Death Act, Sections 91-423 to 91-430, is repealed effective July 1, 1975.]

91A-1-108. Acts by holder of general power. For the purpose of granting consent or approval with regard to the acts or accounts of a personal representative, including relief from liability or penalty for failure to post bond, or to perform other duties the sole holder or all coholders of a presently exercisable general power of appointment, including one in the form of a power of amendment or revocation, are deemed to act for beneficiaries to the extent their interests (as objects, takers in default, or otherwise) are subject to the power.

History: En. 91A-1-108 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

from registering the trust so long as the power of revocation continues.

"General power," as used in this section, is intended to refer to the common-law concept, rather than to tax or other statutory meanings. A general power, as used herein, is one which enables the power holder to draw absolute ownership to himself.

Editorial Board Comment

The status of a holder of a general power in estate litigation is dealt with by section [91A-1-403].

This section permits the settlor of a revocable trust to prevent the trustee

(6) "Court" means the court having jurisdiction in matters relating to the affairs of decedents. This court in this state is known as district court.

(7) "Conservator" means a person who is appointed by a court to manage the estate of a protected person.

(8) "Devise," when used as a noun, means a testamentary disposition of real or personal property and when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by will.

(9) "Devisee" means any person designated in a will to receive a devise. In the case of a devise to an existing trust or trustee, or to a trustee on trust described by will, the trust or trustee is the devisee and the beneficiaries are not devisees.

(10) "Disability" means cause for a protective order as described by section 91A-5-401.

(11) "Distributee" means any person who has received property of a decedent from his personal representative other than as a creditor or purchaser. A testamentary trustee is a distributee only to the extent of distributed assets or increment thereto remaining in his hands. A beneficiary of a testamentary trust to whom the trustee has distributed property received from a personal representative is a distributee of the personal representative. For purposes of this provision, "testamentary trustee" includes a trustee to whom assets are transferred by will, to the extent of the devised assets.

(12) "Estate" includes the property of the decedent, trust, or other person whose affairs are subject to this code as originally constituted and as it exists from time to time during administration.

(16) "Formal proceedings" means those conducted before a judge with notice to interested persons.

(18) "Heirs" means those persons, including the surviving spouse, who are entitled under the statutes of intestate succession to the property of a decedent.

(19) "Incapacitated person" is as defined in section 91A-5-101.

(20) "Informal proceedings" mean those conducted without notice to interested persons by the clerk of court for probate of a will or appointment of a personal representative.

(21) "Interested person" includes heirs, devisees, children, spouses, creditors, beneficiaries and any others having a property right in or claim against a trust estate or the estate of a decedent, ward or protected person which may be affected by the proceeding. It also includes persons having priority for appointment as personal representative, and other fiduciaries representing interested persons. The meaning as it relates to particular persons may vary from time to time and must be determined according to the particular purposes of, and matter involved in, any proceeding.

(22) "Issue" of a person means all his lineal descendants of all generations, with the relationship of parent and child at each generation being determined by the definitions of child and parent contained in this code.

(23) "Lease" includes an oil, gas, coal or other mineral lease.

(24) "Letters" includes letters testamentary, letters of guardianship, letters of administration, and letters of conservatorship.

(25) "Minor" means a person who is under eighteen (18) years of age.

(26) "Mortgage" means any conveyance, agreement or arrangement in which property is used as security.

(27) "Nonresident decedent" means a decedent who was domiciled in another jurisdiction at the time of his death.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two (2) or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal entity.

(30) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an organization, or other legal entity.

(31) "Personal representative" includes executor, administrator, successor personal representative, special administrator, and persons who perform substantially the same function under the law governing their status. "General personal representative" excludes special administrator.

(32) "Petition" means a written request to the court for an order after notice.

(33) "Proceeding" includes action at law and suit in equity.

(34) "Property" includes both real and personal property or any interest therein and means anything that may be the subject of ownership.

(35) "Protected person" is as defined in section 91A-5-101.

(36) "Protective proceeding" is as defined in section 91A-5-101.

(37) "Securities" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease, collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing.

(38) "Settlement," in reference to a decedent's estate, includes the full process of administration, distribution and closing.

(39) "Special administrator" means a personal representative as described by sections 91A-3-614 through 91A-3-618.

(41) "Successor personal representative" means a personal representative, other than a special administrator, who is appointed to succeed a previously appointed personal representative.

(42) "Successors" means those persons, other than creditors, who are entitled to property of a decedent under his will or this code.

(44) "Testacy proceeding" means a proceeding to establish a will or determine intestacy.

(45) "Trust" includes any express trust, private or charitable, with additions thereto, wherever and however created. It also includes a trust created or determined by judgment or decree under which the trust is to be administered in the manner of an express trust. "Trust" excludes other constructive trusts, and it excludes resulting trusts, conservatorships, personal representatives, custodial arrangements pursuant to Title 67, chapter 18, business trusts providing for certificates to be issued to beneficiaries, common trust funds, voting trusts, security arrangements, liquidation trusts, and trusts for the primary purpose of paying debts, dividends, interest, salaries, wages, profits, pensions, or employee benefits of any kind, and any arrangement under which a person is nominee or escrowee for another.

(46) "Trustee" includes an original, additional, or successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by court.

(47) "Ward" is as defined in section 91A-5-101.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment substituted the definition of "Clerk" or "clerk of court" in subdivision (5) for a definition of "Registrar"; deleted "trust accounts as defined in Article VI" after "personal representatives" in the second sentence of subdivision (45); and made minor changes in phraseology.

Articles VI and VII, referred to in the Comment were omitted from the Montana enactment.

Editorial Board Comment

Additional sections with special definitions for [Chapter 5] and [Article] VI are [91A-5-101] and 6-101. Except as controlled by special definitions applicable to [chapter 5], the definitions in [91A-1-201] apply to the entire code.

The definition of "trust" and the use of the term in Article VII eliminate procedural distinctions between testamentary and inter vivos trusts. Article VII does not deal with questions of substantive validity of trusts where a difference between inter vivos and testamentary trusts will continue to be important.

The exclusions from the definition of "trust" are modeled basically after those in section 1, Uniform Trustees' Powers Act. The exclusions in the act for "a trust created in deposits in any financial institution, or other trust the nature of which does not admit of general trust administration" are omitted above. The first of these is inappropriate because of Article VI's treatment of "Totten Trusts." Moreover, the probate court remedies and procedures being established by Article VII would seem suitable to unclassified trustee-beneficiary relationships that are in the nature of express trusts. Perhaps many controversies involving "hold and deliver" trusts or other dubious arrangements will involve the issue of whether there is a trust, but there would seem to be no harm in conferring jurisdiction on the probate court for these controversies.

The meanings of "child," "issue" and "parent" are related to section [91A-2-109].

See Comment, section 7-101, concerning the definition of "trustee."

The subject of appearance is covered by section [91A-1-304].

91A-1-403. Pleadings—when parties bound by others—notice. In formal proceedings involving trusts or estates of decedents, minors, protected persons, or incapacitated persons, and in judicially supervised settlements, the following apply:

(1) Interests to be affected shall be described in pleadings which give reasonable information to owners by name or class, by reference to the instrument creating the interests, or in other appropriate manner.

(2) Persons are bound by orders binding others in the following cases:

(a) Orders binding the sole holder or all coholders of a power of revocation or a presently exercisable general power of appointment, including one in the form of a power of amendment, bind other persons to the extent their interests (as objects, takers in default, or otherwise) are subject to the power.

(b) To the extent there is no conflict of interest between them or among persons represented, orders binding a conservator bind the person whose estate he controls; orders binding a guardian bind the ward if no conservator of his estate has been appointed; orders binding a trustee bind beneficiaries of the trust in proceedings to probate a will establishing or adding to a trust, to review the acts or accounts of a prior fiduciary and in proceedings involving creditors or other third parties; and orders binding a personal representative bind persons interested in the undistributed assets of a decedent's estate in actions or proceedings by or against the estate. If there is no conflict of interest and no conservator or guardian has been appointed, a parent may represent his minor child.

(c) An unborn or unascertained person who is not otherwise represented is bound by an order to the extent his interest is adequately represented by another party having a substantially identical interest in the proceeding.

(3) Notice is required as follows:

(a) Notice as prescribed by section 91A-1-401 shall be given to every interested person or to one who can bind an interested person as described in (2)(a) or (2)(b) above. Notice may be given both to a person and to another who may bind him.

(b) Notice is given to unborn or unascertained persons, who are not represented under (2)(a) or (2)(b) above, by giving notice to all known persons whose interests in the proceedings are substantially identical to those of the unborn or unascertained persons.

(4) At any point in a proceeding, a court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interest of a minor, an incapacitated, unborn, or unascertained person, or a person whose identity or address is unknown, if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate. If not precluded by conflict of interests, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests. The court shall set out its reasons for appointing a guardian ad litem as a part of the record of the proceeding.

Editorial Board Comment

A general power, as used here and in section [91A-1-108], is one which enables the power holder to draw absolute ownership to himself. The section assumes a valid general power. If the validity of the power itself were in issue, the power holder could not represent others, as for example, the takers in default.

INTESTATE SUCCESSION

The general rules of civil procedure are applicable where not replaced by specific provision, see section [91A-1-304]. Those rules would determine the mode of giving notice or serving process on a minor or the mode of notice in class suits involving large groups of persons made party to a suit.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

Part 1 of [Chapter 2] contains the basic pattern of intestate succession historically called descent and distribution. It is no longer meaningful to have different patterns for real and personal property, and under the proposed statute all property not disposed of by a decedent's will passes to his heirs in the same manner. The existing statutes on descent and distribution in the United States vary from state to state. The most common pattern for the immediate family retains the imprint of history, giving the widow a third of realty (sometimes only for life by her dower right) and a third of the personalty, with the balance passing to issue. Where the decedent is survived by no issue, but leaves a spouse and collateral blood relatives, there is wide variation in disposition of the intestate estate, some states giving all to the surviving spouse, some giving substantial shares to the blood relatives. The code attempts to reflect the normal desire of the owner of wealth as to disposition of his property at death, and for this purpose the prevailing patterns in wills are useful in determining what the owner who fails to execute a will would probably want.

A principal purpose of this [chapter] and [Chapter 3] of the code is to provide suitable rules and procedures for the person of modest means who relies on the estate plan provided by law. For a discussion of this important aspect of the code, see 3 Real Property, Probate and Trust Journal (Fall 1968) p. 199.

The principal features of Part 1 are:

(1) A larger share is given to the surviving spouse, if there are issue, and the whole estate if there are no issue or parent.

(2) Inheritance by collateral relatives is limited to grandparents and those descended from grandparents. This simplifies proof of heirship and eliminates will contests by remote relatives.

(3) An heir must survive the decedent for five days in order to take under the statute. This is an extension of the reasoning behind the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act and is similar to provisions found in many wills.

(4) Adopted children are treated as children of the adopting parents for all inheritance purposes and cease to be children of natural parents; this reflects modern policy of recent statutes and court decisions.

(5) In an era when inter vivos gifts are frequently made within the family, it is unrealistic to preserve concepts of advancement developed when such gifts were rare. The statute provides that gifts during lifetime are not advancements unless declared or acknowledged in writing.

While the prescribed patterns may strike some as rules of law which may in some cases defeat intent of a decedent, this is true of every statute of this type. In assessing the changes it must therefore be borne in mind that the decedent may always choose a different rule by executing a will.

91A-2-101. Intestate estate. Any part of the estate of a decedent not effectively disposed of by his will passes to his heirs as prescribed in the following sections of this code.

History: En. 91A-2-101 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-102. Share of spouse. The intestate share of the surviving spouse is:

(1) if there is no surviving issue or if there are surviving issue all of whom are issue of the surviving spouse also, the entire remaining estate;

(2) if there are surviving issue one (1) or more of whom are not issue of the surviving spouse, as follows:

(a) if there is surviving only one (1) such child, or the issue of one (1) such child, one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the intestate estate;

(b) if there are surviving more than one (1) such child, or one (1) such child and the issue of one (1) or more deceased children, one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the intestate estate.

History: En. 91A-2-102 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 363, L. 1975.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment omitted a subdivision reading as follows: "if there is no surviving issue but the decedent is survived by a parent or parents, the first [$50,000] plus one-half of the balance of the intestate estate."

Editorial Board Comment

This section gives the surviving spouse a larger share than most existing statutes on descent and distribution. In doing so, it reflects the desires of most married persons, who almost always leave all of a moderate estate or at least one-half of a larger estate to the surviving spouse when a will is executed. A husband or wife who desires to leave the surviving spouse less than the share provided by this section may do so by executing a will, subject of course to possible election by the surviving spouse to take an elective share of one-third under Part 2 of this [chapter]. Moreover, in the small estate (less than $50,000 after homestead allowance, exempt property, and allowances) the surviving spouse is given the entire estate if there are only children who are issue of both the decedent and the surviving spouse; the result is to avoid protective proceedings as to property otherwise passing to their minor children.

See section [91A-2-802] for the definition of spouse which controls for purposes of intestate succession.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted "or if there are surviving issue all of whom are issue of the surviving spouse also" in subsection (1); substituted "entire remaining estate" in subsection (1) for "entire intestate estate"; deleted former subsection (2) which read: "if there are surviving issue all of whom are issue of the surviving spouse also, the first fifty thousand dollars (\$50,000), plus one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the balance of the intestate estate"; and substituted present subsection (2) and subdivisions (2)(a) and (b) for former subsection (3) which read: "if there are surviving issue one (1) or more of whom are not issue of the surviving spouse, one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the intestate estate."

91A-2-103. Share of heirs other than surviving spouse. The part of the intestate estate not passing to the surviving spouse under section 91A-2-102, or the entire intestate estate if there is no surviving spouse, passes as follows:

(1) to the issue of the decedent; if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the decedent they take equally, but if of unequal degree, then those of more remote degree take by representation;

(2) if there are surviving several children, or one (1) child, and the issue of one (1) or more children, and any such surviving child dies under age, and not having been married, all the estate that came to such deceased child by inheritance from the decedent, in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by representation; and if, at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them have left issue, to the issue of all other children of the same parent; and if all the issue are in the same degree of kinship to such child, they take equally, but if of unequal degree then those of more remote degree take by representation;

(3) if there is no surviving issue, to his parent or parents equally;

(4) if there is no surviving issue or parent, to the brothers and sisters and the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister, by representation;

(5) if there is no surviving issue, parent, brother, sister, or children or grandchildren of a deceased brother or sister, to the next of kin, in equal degree, except that where there are two (2) or more collateral kindred, in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearer ancestors must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote.

History: En. 91A-2-103 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 363, L. 1975.

Compiler's Notes

Subdivision (5) of this section is not part of the corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners.

Editorial Board Comment

This section provides for inheritance by lineal descendants of the decedent, parents and their descendants, and grandparents and collateral relatives descended from grandparents; in line with modern policy, it eliminates more remote relatives tracing through great-grandparents.

In general the principle of representation (which is defined in section [91A-2-106]) is adopted as the pattern which most decedents would prefer.

If the pattern of this section is not desired, it may be avoided by a properly executed will or, after the decedent's death, by renunciation by particular heirs under section [91A-2-801].

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted subsection

(2); redesignated former subsections (2) and (3) as (3) and (4); substituted "children or grandchildren of any" for "issue of each" in subsection (4) before "deceased brother or sister"; deleted at the end of subsection (4) "if there is no surviving brother or sister, the issue of brothers and sisters take equally if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the decedent, but if of unequal degree then those of more remote degree take by representation"; deleted former subsection (4) which read: "if there is no surviving issue, parent or issue of a parent, but the decedent is survived by one or more grandparents or issue of grandparents, half of the estate passes to the paternal grandparents if both survive, or to the surviving paternal grandparent, or to the issue of the paternal grandparents if both are deceased, the issue taking equally if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the decedent, but if of unequal degree those of more remote degree take by representation; and the other half passes to the maternal relatives in the same manner; but if there be no surviving grandparent or issue of grandparent on either the paternal or the maternal side, the entire estate passes to the relatives on the other side in the same manner as the half"; and in subsection (5) substituted "parent, brother, sister, or children or grandchildren of a deceased brother or sister" for "parent or issue of a parent, grandparent or issue of a grandparent, the estate passes."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Nieces and Nephews

Where decedent was survived only by nieces and nephews and children of deceased nephews, the nieces and nephews took per capita, and the children of the deceased nephews took per stirpes, the share that their fathers would have taken. In re Estate of Brown, 158 M 413, 432 P 2d 914.

Surviving parent

Where decedent left no surviving wife or children and his father was dead, his mother was the sole beneficiary of his estate under former statute. Cowan v. Pacific Gamble Robinson Co., 232 F Supp 403.

Undevised Remainder

Holographic will, which devised a life estate to the surviving spouse and which provided that if it became necessary to liquidate the estate it should be divided equally between testator's wife and son and daughter, did not make a testamentary disposition of the remainder after the life estate and therefore remainder would be distributed according to intestate succession. In re Hetland's Estate, — M —, 531 P 2d 367.

91A-2-104. Requirement that heir survive decedent for one hundred twenty (120) hours. Any person who fails to survive the decedent by one hundred twenty (120) hours is deemed to have predeceased the decedent for purposes of homestead allowance, exempt property and intestate succession, and the decedent's heirs are determined accordingly. If the time of death of the decedent or of the person who would otherwise be an heir, or the times of death of both, cannot be determined, and it cannot be established that the person who would otherwise be an heir has survived the decedent by one hundred twenty (120) hours, it is deemed that the person failed to survive for the required period. This section is not to be applied where its application would result in a taking of intestate estate by the state under section 91A-2-105.

History: En. 91A-2-104 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is a limited version of the type of clause frequently found in wills to take care of the common accident situation, in which several members of the same family are injured and die within a few days of each other. The Uniform Simultaneous Death Act provides only a partial solution, since it applies only if there is no proof that the parties died otherwise than simultaneously. [The Uniform Simultaneous Death Act, sections 91-423 to 91-430, is repealed effective July 1, 1975.] This section requires an heir to survive by five days in order to succeed to decedent's intestate property; for a comparable provision as to wills, see section [91A-2-601]. This section avoids multiple administrations and in some instances prevents the property from passing to persons not desired by the decedent. The five-day period will not hold up administration of a decedent's estate because sections [91A-3-302 and 91A-3-307] prevent informal probate of a will or informal issuance of letters for a period of five days from death. The last sentence prevents the survivorship requirement from affecting inheritances by the last eligible relative of the intestate who survives him for any period.

I.R.C. § 2056(b) (3) makes it clear that an interest passing to a surviving spouse is not made a "terminable interest" and thereby disqualified for inclusion in the marital deduction by its being conditioned on failure of the spouse to survive a period not exceeding six months after the decedent's death, if the spouse in fact lives for the required period. Thus, the intestate share of a spouse who survives the decedent by five days is available for the marital deduction. To assure a marital deduction in cases where one spouse fails to survive the other by the required period, the decedent must leave a will. The marital deduction is not a problem in the typical intestate estate. The draftsmen and Special Committee concluded that the statute should accommodate the typical estate to which it applies, rather than the unusual case of an unplanned estate involving large sums of money.

91A-2-105. No taker. If there is no taker under the provisions of sections 91A-2-102 and 91A-2-103 the intestate estate passes to the state of Montana.

History: En. 91A-2-105 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-106. Representation. If representation is called for by this code, the estate is divided into as many shares as there are surviving heirs in the nearest degree of kinship and deceased persons in the same degree who left issue who survive the decedent, each surviving heir in the nearest degree receiving one (1) share and the share of each deceased person in the same degree being divided among his issue in the same manner.

Editorial Board Comment

Under the system of intestate succession in effect in some states, property is directed to be divided "per stirpes" among issue or descendants of identified ancestors. Applying a meaning commonly associated with the quoted words, the estate is first divided into the number indicated by the number of children of the ancestor who survive, or who leave issue who survive. If, for example, the property is directed to issue "per stirpes" of the intestate's parents, the first division would be by the number of children of parents (other than the intestate) who left issue surviving even though no person of this generation survives. Thus, if the survivors are a child and a grandchild of a deceased brother of the intestate and five children of his deceased sister, the brother's descendants would divide one-half and the five children of the sister would divide the other half. Yet, if the parent of the brother's grandchild also had survived, most statutes would give the seven nephews and nieces equal shares because it is commonly provided that if all surviving kin are in equal degree, they take per capita.

The draft rejects this pattern and keys to a system which assures that the first and principal division of the estate will be with reference to a generation which includes one or more living members.

91A-2-109. Meaning of child and related terms. If, for the purposes of intestate succession, a relationship of parent and child must be established to determine succession by, through, or from a person:

- (1) An adopted person shall inherit as the child of an adopting parent.
- (2) In cases not covered by (1), a person born out of wedlock is a child of the mother. That person is also a child of the father, if:

(a) the natural parents participated in a marriage ceremony before or after the birth of the child, even though the attempted marriage is void; or

(b) the paternity is established by an adjudication before the death of the father or is established thereafter by clear and convincing proof, except that the paternity established under this subparagraph (b) is ineffective to qualify the father or his kindred to inherit from or through the child unless the father has openly treated the child as his, and has not refused to support the child.

Illegitimate Children

Application record for University of California Hospital, dated Sept. 8, 1948, signed by decedent, listing names of illegitimate children born in 1950 and 1951, did not meet requirements of former statute permitting illegitimate child to inherit from father who had acknowledged child as his in writing. In re Dauenhauer's Estate, — M —, 535 P 2d 1005.

California law governed the question of the legitimacy of purported children of decedent who were born in California to an unrecognized common-law marriage and who had resided in California and had no contacts in Montana. In re Dauenhauer's Estate, — M —, 535 P 2d 1005.

91A-2-110. Advancements. If a person dies intestate as to all his estate, property which he gave in his lifetime to an heir is treated as an advancement against the latter's share of the estate only if declared in a contemporaneous writing by the decedent or acknowledged in writing by the heir to be an advancement. For this purpose the property advanced is valued as of the time the heir came into possession or enjoyment of the property or as of the time of death of the decedent, whichever first occurs. If the recipient of the property fails to survive the decedent, the property is not taken into account in computing the intestate share to be received by the recipient's issue, unless the declaration or acknowledgment provides otherwise.

History: En. 91A-2-110 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section alters the common law relating to advancements by requiring written evidence of the intent that an inter vivos gift be an advancement. The statute is phrased in terms of the donee being an "heir" because the transaction is regarded as of decedent's death; of course, the donee is only a prospective heir at the time of the transfer during lifetime. Most inter vivos transfers today are intended to be absolute gifts or are carefully integrated into a total estate plan.

If the donor intends that any transfer during lifetime be deducted from the donee's share of his estate, the donor may either execute a will so providing or, if he intends to die intestate, charge the gift as an advance by a writing within the present section. The present section applies only when the decedent died intestate and not when he leaves a will.

This section applies to advances to collaterals (such as nephews and nieces) as well as to lineal descendants. The statute does not spell out the method of taking account of the advance, since this process is well settled by the common law and is not a source of litigation.

91A-2-111. Alienage. No person is disqualified to take as an heir because he or a person through whom he claims is an alien unless the country in which he resides does not allow reciprocity.

History: En. 91A-2-111 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as adopted by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 2-112; the Montana enactment omitted section 2-111 of the Uniform Probate Code pertaining to debts owed to the decedent.

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of this section is to eliminate the ancient rule that an alien cannot acquire or transmit land by descent, a rule based on the feudal notions of the obligations of the tenant to the King. Although there never was a corresponding rule as to personalty, the present section is phrased in light of the basic premise of the code that distinctions between real and personal property should be abolished.

This section has broader vitality in light of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in Zschernig v. Miller (1968) 389 U.S. 429, 19 L.Ed.2d 683, 88 S.Ct. 664, holding unconstitutional a state statute providing for escheat if a nonresident alien cannot meet three requirements: the existence of a reciprocal right of a United States citizen to take property on the same terms as a citizen or inhabitant of the foreign country, the right of United States citizens to receive payment here of funds from estates in the foreign country, and the right of the foreign heirs to receive the proceeds of the local estate without confiscation by the foreign government. The rationale was that such a statute involved the local probate court in matters which essentially involve United States foreign policy, whether or not there is a governing treaty with the foreign country. Hence, the statute is "an intrusion by the State into the field of foreign affairs which the Constitution entrusts to the President and the Congress."

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

The sections of this part describe a system for common-law states designed to protect a spouse of a decedent who was a domiciliary against donative transfers by will and will substitutes which would deprive the survivor of a "fair share" of the decedent's estate. Optional sections adapting the elective share system to community property jurisdictions were contained in preliminary drafts, but were dropped from the final code. Problems of disherison of spouses in community states are limited to situations involving assets acquired by domiciliaries of common-law states who later become domiciliaries of a community property state, and to instances where substantially all of a deceased spouse's property is separate property. Representatives of community property states differ in regard to whether either of these problem areas warrant statutory solution.

Almost every feature of the system described herein is or may be controversial. Some have questioned the need for any legislation checking the power of married persons to transfer their property as they please. See Plager, "The Spouse's Nonbarrable Share: A Solution in Search of a Problem," 33 Chi.L.Rev. 681 (1966). Still, all common-law states except the Dakotas appear to impose some restriction on the power of a spouse to disinherit the other. In some, the ancient concept of dower continues to prevent free transfer of land by a married person. In most states, including many which have abolished dower, a spouse's protection is found in statutes which give a surviving spouse the power to take a share of the decedent's probate estate upon election rejecting the provisions of the decedent's will. These statutes expand the spouse's protection to all real and personal assets owned by the decedent at death, but usually take no account of various will substitutes which permit an owner to transfer ownership at his death without use of a will. Judicial doctrines identifying certain transfers to be "illusory" or to be in "fraud" of the spouse's share have been evolved in some jurisdictions to offset the problems caused by will substitutes, and in New York and Pennsylvania, statutes have extended the elective share of a surviving spouse to certain nontestamentary transfers.

Questions relating to the proper size of a spouse's protected interest may be raised in addition to those concerning the need for, and method of assuring, any protection. The traditions in both common-law and community property states point toward some capital sum related to the size of the deceased spouse's holdings rather than to the needs of the surviving spouse. The community property pattern produces one-half for the surviving spouse, but is somewhat misleading as an analogy, for it takes no account of the decedent's separate property. The fraction of one-third, which is stated in section [91A-2-201], has the advantage of familiarity, for it is used in many forced-share statutes.

Although the system described herein may seem complex, it should not complicate administration of a married person's estate in any but very unusual cases. The surviving spouse rather than the executor or the probate court has the burden of asserting an election, as well as the burden of proving the matters which must be shown in order to make a successful claim to more than he or she has received. Some of the apparent complexity arises from section [91A-2-202], which has the effect of compelling an electing spouse to allow credit for all funds attributable to the decedent when the spouse, by electing, is claiming that more is due. This feature should serve to reduce the number of instances in which an elective share will be asserted. Finally, section [91A-2-204] expands the effectiveness of attempted waivers and releases of rights to claim an elective share. Thus, means by which estate planners can assure clients that their estates will not become embroiled in election litigation are provided.

Uniformity of law on the problems covered by this part is much to be desired. It is especially important that states limit the applicability of rules protecting spouses so that only estates of domiciliary decedents are involved.

91A-2-201. Right to elective share. (1) If a married person domiciled in this state dies, the surviving spouse has a right of election to take an elective share of one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the augmented estate under the limitations and conditions hereinafter stated.

(2) If a married person not domiciled in this state dies, the right, if any, of the surviving spouse to take an elective share in property in this state is governed by the law of the decedent's domicile at death.

Editorial Board Comment

See section [91A-2-802] for the definition of "spouse" which controls in this part.

Under the common law a widow was entitled to dower, which was a life estate in a fraction of lands of which her husband was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage. Dower encumbers titles and provides inadequate protection for widows in a society which classifies most wealth as personal property. Hence the states have tended to substitute a forced share in the whole estate for dower and the widower's comparable common-law right of curtesy. Few existing forced-share statutes make adequate provisions for transfers by means other than succession to the surviving spouse and others. This and the following sections are designed to do so. The theory of these sections is discussed in Fratcher, "Toward Uniform Succession Legislation," 41 N.Y.U. L.Rev. 1037, 1050-1064 (1966). The existing law is discussed in MacDonald, Fraud on the Widow's Share (1960). Legislation comparable to that suggested here became effective in New York on Sept. 1, 1966. See Decedent Estate Law, § 18.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Invalid Renunciation

Widow's renunciation of her husband's will was not valid, even though widow purchased family home from executor and executed a deed quitclaiming all interest in real and personal property of the estate, and even though there may have been no fraud, misrepresentation or breach of confidential relationship, in view of evidence that widow did not know her rights, did not understand terms of will and did not understand the significance of signing the quitclaim deed. Ericksen v. Ericksen, 152 M 179, 448 P 2d 144.

91A-2-202. Augmented estate. The augmented estate means the estate reduced by funeral and administration expenses, homestead allowance, family allowances and exemptions, and enforceable claims, to which is added the sum of the following amounts:

(1) The value of property transferred by the decedent at any time during marriage, to or for the benefit of any person other than the surviving spouse, to the extent that the decedent did not receive adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth for the transfer, if the transfer is of any of the following types:

(a) any transfer under which the decedent retained at the time of his death the possession or enjoyment of, or right to income from, the property;

(b) any transfer to the extent that the decedent retained at the time of his death a power, either alone or in conjunction with any other person, to revoke or to consume, invade or dispose of the principal for his own benefit;

(c) any transfer whereby property is held at the time of decedent's death by decedent and another with right of survivorship;

(d) any transfer made within three (3) years of death of the decedent to the extent that the aggregate transfers to any one donee in any of the years exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(2) Any transfer is excluded if made with the written consent or joinder of the surviving spouse. Property is valued as of the decedent's death except that property given irrevocably to a donee during lifetime of the decedent is valued as of the date the donee came into possession or enjoyment if that occurs first. Nothing herein shall cause to be included in the augmented estate any life insurance, accident insurance, joint annuity, or pension payable to a person other than the surviving spouse.

(3) The value of property owned by the surviving spouse at the decedent's death, plus the value of property transferred by the spouse at any time during marriage to any person other than the decedent which would have been includable in the spouse's augmented estate if the surviving spouse had predeceased the decedent, to the extent the owned or transferred property is derived from the decedent by any means other than testate or intestate succession without a full consideration in money or money's worth. For purposes of this subsection:

(a) Property derived from the decedent includes, but is not limited to, any beneficial interest of the surviving spouse in a trust created by the decedent during his lifetime, any property appointed to the spouse by the decedent's exercise of a general or special power of appointment also exercisable in favor of others than the spouse, any proceeds of insurance (including accidental death benefits) on the life of the decedent attributable to premiums paid by him, any lump sum immediately payable and the commuted value of the proceeds of annuity contracts under which the decedent was the primary annuitant attributable to premiums paid by him, the commuted value of amounts payable after the decedent's death under any public or private pension, disability compensation, death benefit or retirement plan, exclusive of the federal social security system, by reason of service performed or disabilities incurred by the decedent, and the value of the share of the surviving spouse resulting from rights in community property in this or any other state formerly owned with the decedent. Premiums paid by the decedent's employer, his partner, a partnership of which he was a member, or his creditors, are deemed to have been paid by the decedent.

(b) Property owned by the spouse at the decedent's death is valued as of the date of death. Property transferred by the spouse is valued at the time the transfer became irrevocable, or at the decedent's death, whichever occurred first. Income earned by included property prior to the decedent's death is not treated as property derived from the decedent.

(c) Property owned by the surviving spouse as of the decedent's death, or previously transferred by the surviving spouse, is presumed to have been derived from the decedent except to the extent that the surviving spouse establishes that it was derived from another source.

History: En. 91A-2-202 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of the concept of augmenting the probate estate in computing the elective share is twofold: (1) to prevent the owner of wealth from making arrangements which transmit his property to others by means other than probate deliberately to defeat the right of the surviving spouse to a share, and (2) to prevent the surviving spouse from electing a share of the probate estate when the spouse has received a fair share of the total wealth of the decedent either during the lifetime of the decedent or at death by life insurance, joint tenancy assets and other nonprobate arrangements.

Thus essentially two separate groups of property are added to the net probate estate to arrive at the augmented net estate which is the basis for computing the one-third share of the surviving spouse. In the first category are transfers by the decedent during his lifetime which are essentially will substitutes, arrangements which give him continued benefits or controls over the property. However, only transfers during the marriage are included in this category. This makes it possible for a person to provide for children by a prior marriage, as by a revocable living trust, without concern that such provisions will be upset by later marriage. The limitation to transfers during marriage reflects some of the policy underlying community property. What kinds of transfers should be included here is a matter of reasonable difference of opinion. The fine-spun tests of the Federal Estate Tax Law might be utilized, of course. However, the objectives of a tax law are different from those involved here in the Probate Code, and the present section is therefore more limited. It is intended to reach the kinds of transfers readily usable to defeat an elective share in only the probate estate.

In the second category of assets, property of the surviving spouse derived from the decedent and property derived from the decedent which the spouse has, in turn, given away in a transaction that is will-like in effect or purpose, the scope is much broader. Thus a person can during his lifetime make outright gifts to relatives and they are not included in this first category unless they are made within two years of death (the exception being designed to prevent a person from depleting his estate in contemplation of death). But the time when the surviving spouse derives her wealth from the decedent is immaterial; thus if a husband has purchased a home in the wife's name and made systematic gifts to the wife over many years, the home and accumulated wealth she owns at his death as a result of such gifts ought to, and under this section do, reduce her share of the augmented estate. Likewise, for policy reasons life insurance is not included in the first category of transfers to other persons, because it is not ordinarily purchased as a way of depleting the probate estate and avoiding the elective share of the spouse; but life insurance proceeds payable to the surviving spouse are included in the second category, because it seems unfair to allow a surviving spouse to disturb the decedent's estate plan if the spouse has received ample provision from life insurance. In this category no distinction is drawn as to whether the transfers are made before or after marriage.

Depending on the circumstances it is obvious that this section will operate in the long run to decrease substantially the number of elections. This is because the statute will encourage and provide a legal base for counseling of testators against schemes to disinherit the spouse, and because the spouse can no longer elect in cases where substantial provision is made by joint tenancy, life insurance, lifetime gifts, living trusts set up by the decedent, and the other numerous nonprobate arrangements by which wealth is today transferred. On the other hand the section should provide realistic protection against disinheritance of the spouse in the rare case where decedent tries to achieve that purpose by depleting his probate estate.

The augmented net estate approach embodied in this section is relatively complex and assumes that litigation may be required in cases in which the right to an elective share is asserted. The proposed scheme should not complicate administration in well planned or routine cases, however, because the spouse's rights are freely releasable under section [91A-2-204] and because of the time limits in section [91A-2-205]. Some legislatures may wish to consider a simpler approach along the lines of the Pennsylvania Estates Act provision reading:

"A conveyance of assets by a person who retains a power of appointment by will, or a power of revocation or consumption over the principal thereof, shall at the election of his surviving spouse, be treated as a testamentary disposition so far as the surviving spouse is concerned to the extent to which the power has been reserved, but the right of the surviving spouse shall be subject to the rights of any income beneficiary whose interest in income becomes vested in enjoyment prior to the death of the conveyor. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any contract of life insurance purchased by a decedent, whether payable in trust or otherwise."

In passing, it is to be noted that a Pennsylvania widow apparently may claim against a revocable trust or will even though she has been amply provided for by life insurance or other means arranged by the decedent. Penn. Stats. Annot. Title 20, § 301.11(a).

The New York Estates, Powers and Trusts Law § 5-1.1(b) also may be suggested as a model. It treats as testamentary dispositions all gifts causa mortis, money on deposit by the decedent in trust for another, money deposited in the decedent's name payable on death to another, joint tenancy property, and transfers by decedent over which he has a power to revoke or invade. The New York law also expressly excludes life insurance, pension plans, and United States savings bonds payable to a designated person. One of the drawbacks of the New York legislation is its complexity, much of which is attributable to the effort to prevent a spouse from taking an elective share when the deceased spouse has followed certain prescribed procedures. The scheme described by sections [91A-2-201] et seq. of this draft, like that of all states except New York, leaves the question of whether a spouse may or may not elect to be controlled by the economics of the situation, rather than by conditions on the statutory right. Further, the New York system gives the spouse election rights in spite of the possibility that the spouse has been well provided for by insurance or other gifts from the decedent.

91A-2-203. Right of election personal to surviving spouse. The right of election of the surviving spouse may be exercised only by him. In the case of a protected person, the right of election may be exercised only by order of the court in which protective proceedings as to his property are pending, after finding that exercise is necessary to provide adequate support for the protected person during his probable life expectancy.

91A-2-204. Waiver of right to elect and of other rights. The right of election of a surviving spouse and the rights of the surviving spouse to homestead allowance, exempt property and family allowance, or any of them, may be waived, wholly or partially, before or after marriage, by a written contract, agreement or waiver signed by the party waiving after fair disclosure. Unless it provides to the contrary, a waiver of "all rights" (or equivalent language) in the property or estate of a present or prospective spouse or a complete property settlement entered into after or in anticipation of separation or divorce is a waiver of all rights to elective share, homestead allowance, exempt property and family allowance by each spouse in the property of the other and a renunciation by each of all benefits which would otherwise pass to him from the other by intestate succession or by virtue of the provisions of any will executed before the waiver or property settlement.

The right to homestead allowance is conferred by section [91A-2-401], that to exempt property by section [91A-2-402], and that to family allowance by section [91A-2-403]. The right to renounce interests passing by testate or intestate succession is recognized by section [91A-2-801]. The provisions of this section, permitting a spouse or prospective spouse to waive all statutory rights in the other spouse's property seem desirable in view of the common and commendable desire of parties to second and later marriages to ensure that property derived from prior spouses passes at death to the issue of the prior spouses instead of to the newly acquired spouse. The operation of a property settlement as a waiver and renunciation takes care of the situation which arises when a spouse dies while a divorce suit is pending.

91A-2-205. Proceeding for elective share—time limit. (1) The surviving spouse may elect to take his elective share in the augmented net estate by filing in the court and mailing or delivering to the personal representative, if any, a petition for the elective share within six (6) months after the first publication of notice to creditors for filing claims which arose before the death of the decedent, or within one year of the date of death, whichever time limitation first expires. The court may extend the time for election as it sees fit for cause shown by the surviving spouse before the time for election has expired.

(2) The surviving spouse shall give notice of the time and place set for hearing to persons interested in the estate and to the distributees and recipients of portions of the augmented net estate whose interests will be adversely affected by the taking of the elective share.

(3) The surviving spouse may withdraw his demand for an elective share at any time before entry of a final determination by the court.

(4) After notice and hearing, the court shall determine the amount of the elective share and shall order its payment from the assets of the augmented net estate or by contribution as appears appropriate under section 91A-2-207. If it appears that a fund or property included in the augmented net estate has not come into the possession of the personal representative, or has been distributed by the personal representative, the court nevertheless shall fix the liability of any person who has any interest in the fund or property or who has possession thereof, whether as trustee or otherwise. The proceeding may be maintained against fewer than all persons against whom relief could be sought, but no person is subject to contribution in any greater amount than he would have been if relief had been secured against all persons subject to contribution.

(5) The order or judgment of the court may be enforced as necessary in suit for contribution or payment in other courts of this state or other jurisdictions.

History: En. 91A-2-205 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-206. Effect of election on benefits by will or statute. (1) The surviving spouse's election of his elective share does not affect the share of the surviving spouse under the provisions of the decedent's will or intestate succession unless the surviving spouse also expressly renounces in the petition for an elective share the benefit of all or any of the provisions. If any provision is so renounced, the property or other benefit which would otherwise have passed to the surviving spouse thereunder is treated, subject to contribution under subsection 91A-2-207(2), as if the surviving spouse had predeceased the testator.

(2) A surviving spouse is entitled to homestead allowance, exempt property and family allowance whether or not he elects to take an elective share.

History: En. 91A-2-206 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The election does not result in a loss of benefits under the will (in the absence of renunciation) because those benefits are charged against the elective share under sections [91A-2-201, 91A-2-202 and 91A-2-207(1)].

91A-2-207. Charging spouse with property received—liability of others for balance of elective share. (1) In the proceeding for an elective share, property which is part of the augmented estate which passes or has passed to the surviving spouse by testate or intestate succession or other means and which has not been renounced, including that described in section 91A-2-202(3), is applied first to satisfy the elective share and to reduce the amount due from other recipients of portions of the augmented estate.

(2) Remaining property of the augmented estate is so applied that liability for the balance of the elective share of the surviving spouse is equitably apportioned among the recipients of the augmented estate in proportion to the value of their interests therein.

(3) Only original transferees from, or appointees of, the decedent and their donees, to the extent the donees have the property or its proceeds, are subject to the contribution to make up the elective share of the surviving spouse. A person liable to contribution may choose to give up the property transferred to him or to pay its value as of the time it is considered in computing the augmented estate.

Section

91A-2-301. Omitted spouse.

91A-2-301. Omitted spouse. (1) If a testator fails to provide by will for his surviving spouse who married the testator after the execution of the will, the omitted spouse shall receive the same share of the estate he would have received if the decedent left no will unless it appears from the will that the omission was intentional or the testator provided for the spouse by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(2) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the devises made by the will abate as provided in section 91A-3-902.

History: En. 91A-2-301 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Section [91A-2-508] provides that a will is not revoked by a change of circumstances occurring subsequent to its execution other than as described by that section. This section reflects the view that the intestate share of the spouse is what the decedent would want the spouse to have if he had thought about the relationship of his old will to the new situation. The effect of this section should be to reduce the number of instances where a spouse will claim an elective share.

91A-2-302. Pretermitted children. (1) If a testator fails to provide in his will for any of his children born or adopted after the execution of his will, the omitted child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which he would have received if the testator had died intestate unless:

- (a) it appears from the will that the omission was intentional;
- (b) when the will was executed the testator had one (1) or more children and devised substantially all his estate to the other parent of the omitted child; or
- (c) the testator provided for the child by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(2) If at the time of execution of the will the testator fails to provide in his will for a living child solely because he believes the child to be dead, the child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which he would have received if the testator had died intestate.

(3) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the devises made by the will abate as provided in section 91A-3-902.

History: En. 91A-2-302 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section provides for both the case where a child was born or adopted after the execution of the will and not foreseen at the time and thus not provided for in the will, and the rare case where a testator omits one of his existing children because of mistaken belief that the child is dead.

Although the sections dealing with advancement and ademption by satisfaction ([sections 91A-2-110 and 91A-2-612]) provide that a gift during lifetime is not an advancement or satisfaction unless the testator's intent is evidenced in writing, this section permits oral evidence to establish a testator's intent that lifetime gifts or nonprobate transfers such as life insurance or joint accounts are in lieu of a testamentary provision for a child born or adopted after the will. Here there is no real contradiction of testamentary intent, since there is no provision in the will itself for the omitted child.

To preclude operation of this section it is not necessary to make any provision, even nominal in amount, for a testator's present or future children; a simple recital in the will that the testator intends to make no provision for then living children or any the testator thereafter may have would meet the requirement of [subdivision (1)(a)].

Under subsection [(3)] and section [91A-3-902], any intestate estate would first be applied to satisfy the share of a pretermitted child.

This section is not intended to alter the rules of evidence applicable to statements of a decedent.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

This part describes certain rights and values to which a surviving spouse and certain children of a deceased domiciliary are entitled in preference over unsecured creditors of the estate and persons to whom the estate may be devised by will. If there is a surviving spouse, all of the values described in this part, which total $8,500 plus whatever is allowed to the spouse for support during administration, pass to the spouse. Minor or dependent children become entitled to the homestead exemption of $5,000 and to support allowances if there is no spouse, and may receive some of the support allowance if they live apart from the surviving spouse. The exempt property section confers rights on the spouse, if any, or on all children, to $3,500 in certain chattels, or funds if the unencumbered value of chattels is below the $3,500 level. This provision is designed in part to relieve a personal representative of the duty to sell household chattels when there are children who will have them.

These family protection provisions supply the basis for the important small estate provisions of [Chapter 3], Part 12.

States adopting the code may see fit to alter the dollar amounts suggested in these sections, or to vary the terms and conditions in other ways so as to accommodate existing traditions. Although creditors of estates would be aided somewhat if all family exemption provisions relating to probate estates were the same throughout the country, there is relatively less need for uniformity of law regarding these provisions than is true of any of the other parts of this article. Still, it is quite important for all states to limit their homestead, allowance and exempt property provisions, if any, so that they apply only to estates of decedents who were domiciliaries of the state.

Notice that section [91A-2-104] imposes a requirement of survival of the decedent for 120 hours on any spouse or child claiming under this part.

91A-2-401. Homestead allowance. (1) A surviving spouse of a decedent who was domiciled in this state is entitled to a homestead allowance as provided in sections 33-101 through 33-129, R. C. M. 1947. If there is no surviving spouse, each minor child and each dependent child of the decedent is entitled to a homestead allowance as provided in sections 33-101 through 33-129, R. C. M. 1947, divided by the number of minor and dependent children of the decedent. The homestead allowance is exempt from and has priority over all claims against the estate. Homestead allowance is in addition to any share passing to the surviving spouse or minor or dependent child by the will of the decedent unless otherwise provided, by intestate succession or by way of elective share.

(2) If no homestead has been selected, designated and recorded prior to the decedent's death, the personal representative shall select, designate, set apart and cause to be recorded a homestead for the use of the surviving spouse and minor children and this section shall take effect as if the homestead had been declared before the decedent's death.

Editorial Board Comment

See section [91A-2-802] for the definition of "spouse" which controls in this part. Also, see section [91A-2-104]. Waiver of homestead is covered by section [91A-2-204]. "Election" between the provision of a will and homestead is covered by section [91A-2-206].

A set dollar amount for homestead allowance [$5,000 in the official text] was dictated by the desirability of having a certain level below which administration may be dispensed with or be handled summarily, without regard to the size of allowances under section [91A-2-402]. The "small estate" line is controlled largely, though not entirely, by the size of the homestead allowance. This is because Part 12 of [Chapter 3] dealing with small estates rests on the assumption that the only justification for keeping a decedent's assets from his creditors is to benefit the decedent's spouse and children.

Another reason for a set amount is related to the fact that homestead allowance may prefer a decedent's minor or dependent children over his other children. It was felt desirable to minimize the consequence of application of an arbitrary age line among children of the testator.

91A-2-402. Exempt property. In addition to the homestead allowance, the surviving spouse of a decedent who was domiciled in this state is entitled from the estate to value not exceeding three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) in excess of any security interests therein in household furniture, automobiles, furnishings, appliances and personal effects. If there is no surviving spouse, children of the decedent are entitled jointly to the same value. If encumbered chattels are selected and if the value in excess of security interests, plus that of other exempt property, is less than three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500), or if there is not three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) worth of exempt property in the estate, the spouse or children are entitled to other assets of the estate, if any, to the extent necessary to make up the three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) value. Rights to exempt property and assets needed to make up a deficiency of exempt property have priority over all claims against the estate, except that the right to any assets to make up a deficiency of exempt property shall abate as necessary to permit prior payment of homestead allowance and family allowance. These rights are in addition to any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or children by the will of the decedent unless otherwise provided, by intestate succession, or by way of elective share.

History: En. 91A-2-402 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Unlike the exempt values described in sections [91A-2-401 and 91A-2-403], the exempt values described in this section are available in a case where the decedent left no spouse but left only adult children. The possible difference between beneficiaries of the exemptions described by sections [91A-2-401 and 91A-2-403], and this section, explain the provision in this section which establishes priorities.

Section [91A-2-204] covers waiver of exempt property rights, and section [91A-2-206] covers the question of whether a decedent's will may put a spouse to an election with reference to exemptions.

91A-2-403. Family allowance. In addition to the right to homestead allowance and exempt property, if the decedent was domiciled in this state, the surviving spouse and minor children whom the decedent was obligated to support and children who were in fact being supported by him are entitled to a reasonable allowance in money out of the estate for their maintenance during the period of administration, which allowance may not continue for longer than one (1) year if the estate is inadequate to discharge allowed claims. The allowance may be paid as a lump sum or in periodic installments. It is payable to the surviving spouse, if living, for the use of the surviving spouse and minor and dependent children; otherwise to the children, or persons having their care and custody; but in case any minor child or dependent child is not living with the surviving spouse, the allowance may be made partially to the child or his guardian or other person having his care and custody, and partially to the spouse, as their needs may appear. The family allowance is exempt from and has priority over all claims but not over the homestead allowance.

The family allowance is not chargeable against any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or children by the will of the decedent unless otherwise provided, by intestate succession, or by way of elective share. The death of any person entitled to family allowance terminates his right to allowances not yet paid.

History: En. 91A-2-403 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The allowance provided by this section does not qualify for the marital deduction under the Federal Estate Tax Act because the interest is terminable. A broad code must provide the best possible protection for the family in all cases, even though this may not provide desired tax advantages for certain larger estates. In estates falling in the federal estate tax bracket where careful planning may be expected, it is important to the operation of formula clauses that the family allowance be clearly terminable or clearly nonterminable. With the proposed section clearly creating a terminable interest, estate planners can create a plan which will operate with certainty. Finally, in order to facilitate administration of this allowance without court supervision it is necessary to provide a fairly simple and definite framework.

In determining the amount of the family allowance, account should be taken of both the previous standard of living and the nature of other resources available to the family to meet current living expenses until the estate can be administered and assets distributed. While the death of the principal income producer may necessitate some change in the standard of living, there must also be a period of adjustment. If the surviving spouse has a substantial income, this may be taken into account. Whether life insurance proceeds payable in a lump sum or periodic installments were intended by the decedent to be used for the period of adjustment or to be conserved as capital may be considered. A living trust may provide the needed income without resorting to the probate estate. If a husband has been the principal source of family support, a wife should not be expected to use her capital to support the family.

Obviously, need is relative to the circumstances, and what is reasonable must be decided on the basis of the facts of each individual case. Note, however, that under the next section the personal representative may not determine an allowance of more than $500 per month for one year; a court order would be necessary if a greater allowance is reasonably necessary.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Discretion of Court

Probate court did not abuse its discretion in denying widow's petition for family allowance where she received from $2800 to $6400 per year as income from the assets of the estate and in addition received the monthly income of $154 from social security and $75 from the rental of her home, all of which income was sufficient for her care in the nursing home where she resided. Estate of Glein, — M —, 512 P 2d 1151.

91A-2-404. Source, determination and documentation. If the estate is otherwise sufficient, property specifically devised is not used to satisfy rights to homestead and exempt property. Subject to this restriction, the surviving spouse, the guardians of the minor children, or children who are adults may select property of the estate as homestead allowance and exempt property. The personal representative may make these selections if the surviving spouse, the children or the guardians of the minor children are unable or fail to do so within a reasonable time or if there are no guardians of the minor children. The personal representative may execute an instrument or deed of distribution to establish the ownership of property taken as homestead allowance or exempt property. He may determine the family allowance in a lump sum not exceeding six thousand dollars ($6,000) or periodic installments not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) per month for one (1) year, and may disburse funds of the estate in payment of the family allowance and any part of the homestead allowance payable in cash. The personal representative or any interested person aggrieved by any selection, determination, payment, proposed payment, or failure to act under this section may petition the court for appropriate relief, which relief may provide a family allowance larger or smaller than that which the personal representative determined or could have determined.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

Part 5 of [Chapter 2] deals with capacity and formalities for execution and revocation of wills. If the will is to be restored to its role as the major instrument for disposition of wealth at death, its execution must be kept simple. The basic intent of these sections is to validate the will whenever possible. To this end, the age for making wills is lowered to eighteen, formalities for a written and attested will are kept to a minimum, holographic wills written and signed by the testator are authorized, choice of law as to validity of execution is broadened, and revocation by operation of law is limited to divorce or annulment. However, the statute also provides for a more formal method of execution with acknowledgment before a public officer (the self-proved will).

91A-2-501. Who may make a will. Any person eighteen (18) or more years of age who is of sound mind may make a will.

History: En. 91A-2-501 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section states a uniform minimum age of eighteen for capacity to execute a will. "Minor" is defined in section [91A-1-201], and may involve a different age than that prescribed here.

91A-2-502. Execution. Except as provided for holographic wills, writings within section 91A-2-513, and wills within section 91A-2-506, every will shall be in writing signed by the testator or in the testator's name by some other person in the testator's presence and by his direction, and shall be signed by at least two (2) persons each of whom witnessed either the signing or the testator's acknowledgment of the signature or of the will.

History: En. 91A-2-502 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The formalities for execution of a witnessed will have been reduced to a minimum. Execution under this section normally would be accomplished by signature of the testator and of two witnesses; each of the persons signing as witnesses must "witness" any of the following: the signing of the will by the testator, an acknowledgment by the testator that the signature is his, or an acknowledgment by the testator that the document is his will. Signing by the testator may be by mark under general rules relating to what constitutes a signature; or the will may be signed on behalf of the testator by another person signing the testator's name at his direction and in his presence. There is no requirement that the testator publish the document as his will, or that he request the witnesses to sign, or that the witnesses sign in the presence of the testator or of each other. The testator may sign the will outside the presence of the witnesses if he later acknowledges to the witnesses that the signature is his or that the document is his will, and they sign as witnesses. There is no requirement that the testator's signature be at the end of the will; thus, if he writes his name in the body of the will and intends it to be his signature, this would satisfy the statute. The intent is to validate wills which meet the minimal formalities of the statute.

A will which does not meet these requirements may be valid under section [91A-2-503] as a holograph.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Attestation Clause—Presumption of Due Execution

Where testator did not sign will in presence of witnesses, had attesting witnesses sign on separate occasions without knowing document was will, and crossed out portions of typewritten document, purported will was not executed and attested in substantial compliance with statute and there was no presumption of due execution, in spite of presence of attestation clause. In re Birkeland's Estate, — M —, 519 P 2d 154.

Declaration to Attesting Witness

Evidence that testator did not verbally declare to attesting witnesses that document was his last will and testament but that he merely handed pen to the witness and by motion indicated that he wished the witness to sign the attestation clause did not establish a deficiency in execution since the declarations by the testator were not required to be in exact terms but could be implied from his conduct and the attendant circumstances. Wallin v. Kinyon Estate, — M —, 519 P 2d 1236.

Substantial Compliance

In order for will to be validly executed, substantial compliance with former statute on execution of will was required and not merely compliance with substantial portion of statute; there was no substantial compliance where testator procured signatures of attesting witnesses on separate occasions and attempted to conceal nature of document from them and one witness testified he did not know if testator's signature was on document at time he attested to it. In re Birkeland's Estate, — M —, 519 P 2d 154.

91A-2-503. Holographic will. A will which does not comply with section 91A-2-502 is valid as a holographic will, whether or not witnessed, if the signature and the material provisions are in the handwriting of the testator.

History: En. 91A-2-503 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section enables a testator to write his own will in his handwriting. There need be no witnesses. The only requirement is that the signature and the material provisions of the will be in the testator's handwriting. By requiring only the "material provisions" to be in the testator's handwriting (rather than requiring, as some existing statutes do, that the will be "entirely" in the testator's handwriting) a holograph may be valid even though immaterial parts such as date or introductory wording be printed or stamped. A valid holograph might even be executed on some printed will forms if the printed portion could be eliminated and the handwritten portion could evidence the testator's will. For persons unable to obtain legal assistance, the holographic will may be adequate.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Hearing and Testimony

It was error to deny petition for probate of holographic will without hearing and testimony as to whether will was entirely in testator's handwriting and entitled to probate. In re Craddock's Estate, — M —, 530 P 2d 483.

91A-2-504. Self-proved will. An attested will may at the time of its execution or at any subsequent date be made self-proved, by the acknowledgment thereof by the testator and the affidavits of the witnesses, each made before an officer authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state, and evidenced by the officer's certificate, under official seal, attached or annexed to the will in form and content substantially as follows:

A self-proved will may be admitted to probate as provided in sections [91A-3-303, 91A-3-405 and 91A-3-406] without the testimony of any subscribing witness, but otherwise it is treated no differently than a will not self-proved. Thus, a self-proved will may be contested (except in regard to signature requirements), revoked, or amended by a codicil in exactly the same fashion as a will not self-proved. The significance of the procedural advantage for a self-proved will is limited to formal testacy proceedings because section [91A-3-303] dealing with informal probate dispenses with the necessity of testimony of witnesses even though the instrument is not self-proved under this section.

91A-2-505. Who may witness—effect of witness by beneficiary. (1) Any person generally competent to be a witness may act as a witness to a will.

(2) A will is not invalid because the will is signed by an interested witness.

(3) All beneficial devises made in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, are void, unless there are two (2) other competent subscribing witnesses to the same; but a mere charge on the estate of the testator does not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will.

(4) If a witness, to whom any beneficial devise, void under the preceding section, is made, would have been entitled to any share of the estate of the testator if the testator had died intestate, such witness succeeds to so much of the share as would be distributed to him under intestate succession, not exceeding the devise or bequest made to him in the will.

Editorial Board Comment

This section simplifies the law relating to interested witnesses. Interest no longer disqualifies a person as a witness, nor does it invalidate or forfeit a gift under the will. Of course, the purpose of this change is not to foster use of interested witnesses, and attorneys will continue to use disinterested witnesses in execution of wills. But the rare and innocent use of a member of the testator's family on a home-drawn will would no longer be penalized. This change does not increase appreciably the opportunity for fraud or undue influence. A substantial gift by will to a person who is one of the witnesses to the execution of the will would itself be a suspicious circumstance, and the gift could be challenged on grounds of undue influence. The requirement of disinterested witnesses has not succeeded in preventing fraud and undue influence; and in most cases of undue influence, the influencer is careful not to sign as witness but to use disinterested witnesses.

An interested witness is competent to testify to prove execution of the will, under section [91A-3-406].

91A-2-506. Choice of law as to execution. A written will is valid if executed in compliance with section 91A-2-502 or 91A-2-503 or if its execution complies with the law at the time of execution of the place where the will is executed, or of the law of the place where at the time of execution or at the time of death the testator is domiciled, has a place of abode or is a national.

History: En. 91A-2-506 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section permits probate of wills in this state under certain conditions even if they are not executed in accordance with the formalities of section [91A-2-502].

Such wills must be in writing but otherwise are valid if they meet the requirements for execution of the law of the place where the will is executed (when it is executed in another state or country) or the law of testator's domicile, abode or nationality at either the time of execution or at the time of death. Thus, if testator is domiciled in state 1 and executes a typed will merely by signing it without witnesses in state 2 while on vacation there, the court of this state would recognize the will as valid if the law of either state 1 or state 2 permits execution by signature alone. Or if a national of Mexico executes a written will in this state which does not meet the requirements of section [91A-2-502] but meets the requirements of Mexican law, the will would be recognized as validly executed under this section. The purpose of this section is to provide a wide opportunity for validation of expectations of testators. When the Uniform Probate Code is widely adopted, the impact of this section will become minimal.

A similar provision relating to choice of law as to revocation was considered but was not included. Revocation by subsequent instruments are covered. Revocations by act, other than partial revocations, do not cause much difficulty in regard to choice of laws.

91A-2-507. Revocation by writing or by act. A will or any part thereof is revoked

(1) by a subsequent will which revokes the prior will or part expressly or by inconsistency; or

(2) by being burned, torn, canceled, obliterated, or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking it by the testator or by another person in his presence and by his direction.

History: En. 91A-2-507 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Revocation of a will may be by either a subsequent will or an act done to the document. If revocation is by a subsequent will, it must be properly executed. This section employs the traditional language which has been interpreted by the courts in many cases. It leaves to the court the determination of whether a subsequent will which has no express revocation clause is inconsistent with the prior will so as to revoke it wholly or partially, and in the case of an act done to the document the determination of whether the act is a sufficient burning, tearing, canceling, obliteration or destruction and was done with the intent and for the purpose of revoking. The latter necessarily involves exploration of extrinsic evidence, including statements of testator as to intent.

The section specifically permits partial revocation. Each court is free to apply its own doctrine of dependent relative revocation.

The section does not affect present law in regard to the case of accidental destruction which is later confirmed by revocatory intention.

91A-2-508. Revocation by divorce or annulment—no revocation by other change in circumstances. If after executing a will the testator is divorced or his marriage annulled, the divorce or annulment revokes any disposition or appointment of property made by the will to the former spouse, any provision conferring a general or special power of appointment on the former spouse, and any nomination of the former spouse as executor, trustee, conservator, or guardian, unless the will expressly provides otherwise. Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of revocation by divorce or annulment passes as if the former spouse failed to survive the decedent, and other provisions conferring some power or office on the former spouse are interpreted as if the spouse failed to survive the decedent. If provisions are revoked solely by this section, they are revived by testator's remarriage to the former spouse. For purposes of this section, divorce or annulment means any divorce or annulment which would exclude the spouse as a surviving spouse within the meaning of section 91A-2-802(2). A decree of separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this section. No change of circumstances other than as described in this section revokes a will.

History: En. 91A-2-508 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The section deals with what is sometimes called revocation by operation of law. It provides for revocation by a divorce or annulment only. No other change in circumstances operate to revoke the will; this is intended to change the rule in some states that subsequent marriage or marriage plus birth of issue operate to revoke a will. Of course, a specific devise may be adeemed by transfer of the property during the testator's lifetime except as otherwise provided in this code; although this is occasionally called revocation, it is not within the present section.

The provisions with regard to invalid divorce decrees parallel those in section [91A-2-802]. Neither this section nor [91A-2-802] includes "divorce from bed and board" as an event which affects devises or marital rights on death.

But see section [91A-2-204] providing that a complete property settlement entered into after or in anticipation of separation or divorce constitutes a renunciation of all benefits under a prior will, unless the settlement provides otherwise.

Although this section does not provide for revocation of a will by subsequent marriage of the testator, the spouse may be protected by section [91A-2-301] or an elective share under section [91A-2-201].

91A-2-509. Revival of revoked will. (1) If a second will which, had it remained effective at death, would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked by acts under section 91A-2-507, the first will is revoked in whole or in part unless it is evident from the circumstances of the revocation of the second will or from testator's contemporary or subsequent declarations that he intended the first will to take effect as executed.

(2) If a second will which, had it remained effective at death, would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked by a third will, the first will is revoked in whole or in part, except to the extent it appears from the terms of the third will that the testator intended the first will to take effect.

History: En. 91A-2-509 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section adopts a limited revival doctrine. If testator executes will no. 1 and later executes will no. 2, there is a question as to whether testator intended to die intestate or have will no. 1 revived as his last will. Under this section will no. 1 can be probated as testator's last will if his intent to that effect can be established. For this purpose testimony as to his statements at the time he revokes will no. 2 or at a later date can be admitted. If will no. 2 is revoked by a third will, will no. 1 would remain revoked except to the extent that will no. 3 showed an intent to have will no. 1 effective.

91A-2-510. Incorporation by reference. Any writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification.

History: En. 91A-2-510 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-511. Testamentary additions to trusts. A devise or bequest, the validity of which is determinable by the law of this state, may be made by a will to the trustee of a trust established or to be established by the testator or by the testator and some other person or by some other person (including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts) if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument (other than a will) executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will or in the valid last will of a person who has predeceased the testator (regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust). The devise is not invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or after the death of the testator. Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, the property so devised is not deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but becomes a part of the trust to which it is given and shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the instrument or will setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before the death of the testator (regardless of whether made before or after the execution of the testator's will), and, if the testator's will so provides, including any amendments to the trust made after the death of the testator. A revocation or termination of the trust before the death of the testator causes the devise to lapse.

Editorial Board Comment

This is section 1 of the Uniform Testamentary Additions to Trusts Act.

91A-2-512. Events of independent significance. A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events which have significance apart from their effect upon the dispositions made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. The execution or revocation of a will of another person is such an event.

History: En. 91A-2-512 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-513. Separate writing identifying bequest of tangible property. Whether or not the provisions relating to holographic wills apply, a will may refer to a written statement or list to dispose of items of tangible personal property not otherwise specifically disposed of by the will, other than money, evidences of indebtedness, documents of title, and securities, and property used in trade or business. To be admissible under this section as evidence of the intended disposition, the writing must either be in the handwriting of the testator or be signed by him and must describe the items and the devisees with reasonable certainty. The writing may be referred to as one to be in existence at the time of the testator's death; it may be prepared before or after the execution of the will; it may be altered by the testator after its preparation; and it may be a writing which has no significance apart from its effect upon the dispositions made by the will.

History: En. 91A-2-513 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

As part of the broader policy of effectuating a testator's intent and of relaxing formalities of execution, this section permits a testator to refer in his will to a separate document disposing of certain tangible personalty. The separate document may be prepared after execution of the will, so would not come within section [91A-2-510] on incorporation by reference. It may even be altered from time to time. It need only be either in the testator's handwriting or signed by him. The typical case would be a list of personal effects and the persons whom the testator desired to take specified items.

Part 6—Rules of Construction

 91A-2-610. Exercise of power of appointment.
 91A-2-611. Construction of generic terms to accord with relationships as defined for intestate succession.
 91A-2-612. Ademption by satisfaction.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

Part 6 deals with a variety of construction problems which commonly occur in wills. All of the "rules" set forth in this part yield to a contrary intent expressed in the will and are therefore merely presumptions. Some of the sections are found in all states, with some variation in wording; others are relatively new. The sections deal with such problems as death before the testator (lapse), the inclusiveness of the will as to property of the testator, effect of failure of a gift in the will, change in form of securities specifically devised, ademption by reason of fire, sale and the like, exoneration, exercise of power of appointment by general language in the will, and the kinds of persons deemed to be included within various class gifts which are expressed in terms of family relationships.

91A-2-601. Requirement that devisee survive testator by one hundred twenty (120) hours. A devisee who does not survive the testator by one hundred twenty (120) hours is treated as if he predeceased the testator, unless the will of decedent contains some language dealing explicitly with simultaneous deaths or deaths in a common disaster, or requiring that the devisee survive the testator or survive the testator for a stated period in order to take under the will.

This parallels section [91A-2-104] requiring an heir to survive by 120 hour in order to inherit.

91A-2-602. Choice of law as to meaning and effect of wills. The meaning and legal effect of a disposition in a will shall be determined by the local law of a particular state selected by the testator in his instrument unless the application of that law is contrary to the public policy of this state otherwise applicable to the disposition.

History: En. 91A-2-602 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

New York Estates, Powers & Trusts Law Sec. 3-5.1(h) and Illinois Probate Act Sec. 896(b) direct respect for a testator's choice of local law with reference to personal and intangible property situated in the enacting state. This provision goes further and enables a testator to select the law of a particular state for purposes of interpreting his will without regard to the location of property covered thereby. So long as local public policy is accommodated, the section should be accepted as necessary and desirable to add to the utility of wills. Choice of law regarding formal validity of a will is in section [91A-2-506]. See also sections [91A-3-202 and 91A-3-408].

91A-2-603. Rules of construction and intention. The intention of a testator as expressed in his will controls the legal effect of his dispositions. The rules of construction expressed in the succeeding sections of this part apply unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Creation of Life Estate

Holographic will stating "I want her to have free use of and administer my estate for life or as long as she cares to" created a life estate. In re Hetland's Estate, — M —, 531 P 2d 367.

Devise with Explanation

Devise of testator's entire estate to his wife, stating that his reason for so doing was the knowledge that she would be fair and equitable to all of the children, did not limit the testamentary gift or the wife's right to devise the property solely to her own children. Stapleton v. DeVries, — M —, 535 P 2d 1267.

Division of Residue

Holographic will making specific bequests to various persons' children and directing that any residue be divided by percentage "to all of them more or less" was construed to bequeath specific sums to children as classes rather than individually but with children to participate equally as individuals in residue. In re Estate of Jensen, 152 M 495, 452 P 2d 418.

Establishment of Will

Presumption created by former statute requiring that construction which would prevent total intestacy be preferred over another construction did not aid in making a will out of an instrument which showed no testamentary intent other than use of the word "will," but rather spoke in terms of authorizing present acts with respect to personal property. In re Estate of Gasparovich, 158 M 21, 487 P 2d 1148.

Precatory Words

Language in will devising entire estate to wife and adding, "with knowledge that she will be fair and equitable to all of my children, the issue of myself and my former wife, as well as the issue of herself and myself" did not create a trust for the benefit of children of former wife. Stapleton v. DeVries, — M —, 535 P 2d 1267.

Undevised Remainder

Clause in holographic will providing for distribution plan if it became necessary to liquidate the estate was not a testamentary disposition, and upon the death of the surviving spouse, the estate was distributed according to intestate succession. In re Hetland's Estate, — M —, 531 P 2d 367.

91A-2-604. Construction that will passes all property—after-acquired property. A will is construed to pass all property which the testator owns at his death including property acquired after the execution of the will.

History: En. 91A-2-604 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-605. Anti-lapse—deceased devisee—class gift. If a devisee who is a grandparent or a lineal descendent of a grandparent of the testator is dead at the time of execution of the will, fails to survive the testator, or is treated as if he predeceased the testator, the issue of the deceased devisee who survive the testator by one hundred twenty (120) hours take in place of the deceased devisee and if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the devisee they take equally, but if of unequal degree then those of more remote degree take by representation. One who would have been a devisee under a class gift if he had survived the testator is treated as a devisee for purposes of this section whether his death occurred before or after the execution of the will.

History: En. 91A-2-605 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section prevents lapse by death of a devisee before the testator if the devisee is a relative and leaves issue who survives the testator. A relative is one related to the testator by kinship and is limited to those who can inherit under section [91A-2-103] (through grandparents); it does not include persons related by marriage. Issue includes adopted persons and illegitimates to the extent they would inherit from the devisee; see sections [91A-1-201 and 91A-2-109]. Note that the section is broader than some existing anti-lapse statutes which apply only to devises to children and other descendants, but is narrower than those which apply to devises to any person. The section is expressly applicable to class gifts, thereby eliminating a frequent source of litigation. It also applies to the so-called "void" gift, where the devisee is dead at the time of execution of the will. This, though contrary to some decisions, seems justified. It still seems likely that the testator would want the issue of a person included in a class term but dead when the will is made to be treated like the issue of another member of the class who was alive at the time the will was executed but who died before the testator.

The five-day survival requirement stated in section [91A-2-601] does not require issue who would be substituted for their parent by this section to survive their parent by any set period.

Section [91A-2-106] describes the method of division when a taking by representation is directed by the code.

91A-2-606. Failure of testamentary provision. (1) Except as provided in section 91A-2-605 if a devise other than a residuary devise fails for any reason, it becomes a part of the residue.

(2) Except as provided in section 91A-2-605 if the residue is devised to two (2) or more persons and the share of one (1) of the residuary devisees fails for any reason, his share passes to the other residuary devisee, or to other residuary devisees in proportion to their interests in the residue.

History: En. 91A-2-606 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

If a devise fails by reason of lapse and the conditions of section [91A-2-605] are met, the latter section governs rather than this section. There is also a special rule for renunciation contained in section [91A-2-801]; a renounced devise may be governed by either section [91A-2-605] or the present section, depending on the circumstances.

91A-2-607. Change in securities—accessions—nonademption. (1) If the testator intended a specific devise of certain securities rather than the equivalent value thereof, the specific devisee is entitled only to:

(a) as much of the devised securities as is a part of the estate at time of the testator's death;

(b) any additional or other securities of the same entity owned by the testator by reason of action initiated by the entity;

(c) securities of another entity owned by the testator as a result of a merger, consolidation, reorganization or other similar action initiated by the entity; and

(d) any additional securities of the entity owned by the testator as a result of a plan of reinvestment if it is a regulated investment company.

(2) Distributions prior to death with respect to a specifically devised security not provided for in subsection (1) are not part of the specific devise.

History: En. 91A-2-607 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Subsection [(2)] is intended to codify existing law to the effect that cash dividends declared and payable as of a record date occurring before the testator's death do not pass as a part of the specific devise even though paid after death. See section 4, Revised Uniform Principal and Income Act [secs. 67-1901 et seq.].

91A-2-608. Nonademption of specific devises in certain cases—sale by conservator—unpaid proceeds of sale, condemnation or insurance. (1) If specifically devised property is sold by a conservator, or if a condemnation award or insurance proceeds are paid to a conservator as a result of condemnation, fire, or casualty, the specific devisee has the right to a pecuniary devise equal to so much of the sale price, condemnation award or insurance proceeds as remains in the estate and is identifiable at the time of the decedent's death.

This subsection does not apply if subsequent to the sale, condemnation, or casualty, it is adjudicated that the disability of the testator has ceased and the testator survives the adjudication by one (1) year. The right of the specific devisee under this subsection is reduced by any right he has under subsection (2).

(2) A specific devisee has the right to the remaining specifically devised property and:

(a) any balance of the purchase price (together with any security interest) owing from a purchaser to the testator at death by reason of sale of the property;

(b) any amount of a condemnation award for the taking of the property unpaid at death;

(c) any proceeds unpaid at death on fire or casualty insurance on the property; and

(d) property owned by testator at his death as a result of foreclosure, or obtained in lieu of foreclosure, of the security for a specifically devised obligation.

History: En. 91A-2-608 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-2-609. Non-exoneration. A specific devise passes subject to any security interest existing at the date of death, without right of exoneration, regardless of a general directive in the will to pay debts.

History: En. 91A-2-609 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

See section [91A-3-814] empowering the personal representative to pay an encumbrance under some circumstances; the last sentence of that section makes it clear that such payment does not increase the right of the specific devisee. The present section governs the substantive rights of the devisee. The common-law rule of exoneration of the specific devise is abolished by this section, and the contrary rule is adopted.

For the rule as to exempt property, see section [91A-2-402].

91A-2-610. Exercise of power of appointment. A general residuary clause in a will, or a will making general disposition of all of the testator's property, does not exercise a power of appointment held by the testator unless specific reference is made to the power or there is some other indication of intention to include the property subject to the power.

History: En. 91A-2-610 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Although there is some indication that more states will adopt special legislation on powers of appointment, and this code has therefore generally avoided any provisions relating to powers of appointment, there is great need for uniformity on the subject of exercise by a will purporting to dispose of all of the donee's property, whether by a standard residuary clause or a general recital of property passing under the will. Although a substantial number of states have legislation to the effect that a will with a general residuary clause does manifest an intent to exercise a power, the contrary rule is stated in the present section for two reasons: (1)

this is still the majority rule in the United States, and (2) most powers of appointment are created in marital deduction trusts and the donor would prefer to have the property pass under his trust instrument unless the donee affirmatively manifests an intent to exercise the power.

Under this section and section [91A-2-603] the intent to exercise the power is effective if it is "indicated by the will." This wording permits a court to find the manifest intent if the language of the will interpreted in light of all the surrounding circumstances shows that the donee intended an exercise, except, of course, if the donor has conditioned exercise on an express reference to the original creating instrument. In other words, the modern liberal rule on interpretation of the donee's will would be available.

the child of the father unless the person is openly and notoriously so treated by the father."

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners adds at the end of the section: "but a person born out of wedlock is not treated as

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of this section is to facilitate a modern construction of gifts, usually class gifts, in wills.

91A-2-612. Ademption by satisfaction. Property which a testator gave in his lifetime to a person is treated as a satisfaction of a devise to that person in whole or in part, only if the will provides for deduction of the lifetime gift, or the testator declares in a contemporaneous writing that the gift is to be deducted from the devise or is in satisfaction of the devise, or the devisee acknowledges in writing that the gift is in satisfaction. For purpose of partial satisfaction, property given during lifetime is valued as of the time the devisee came into possession or enjoyment of the property or as of the time of death of the testator, whichever occurs first.

History: En. 91A-2-612 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section parallels section [91A-2-110] on advancements and follows the same policy of requiring written evidence that lifetime gifts are to be taken into account in distribution of an estate, whether testate or intestate. Although courts traditionally call this "ademption by satisfaction" when a will is involved, and "advancement" when the estate is intestate, the difference in terminology is not significant. Some wills expressly provide for lifetime advances by a hotchpot clause. Where the will is silent, the above section would require either the testator to declare in writing that the gift is an advance or satisfaction or the devisee to acknowledge the same in writing. The second sentence on value accords with section [91A-2-110] and would apply if property such as stock is given. If the devise is specific, a gift of the specific property during lifetime would adeem the devise by extinction rather than by satisfaction, and this section would be inapplicable. If a devisee to whom an advancement is made predeceases the testator and his issue take under section [91A-2-605], they take the same devise as their ancestor; if the devise is reduced by reason of this section as to the ancestor, it is automatically reduced as to his issue. In this respect the rule in testacy differs from that in intestacy; see section [91A-2-110].

Part 7—Contractual Arrangements Relating to Death

Section

91A-2-701. Contracts concerning succession.

91A-2-701. Contracts concerning succession. A contract to make a will or devise, or not to revoke a will or devise, or to die intestate, if executed after the effective date of this act, can be established only by

- (1) provisions of a will stating material provisions of the contract;
- (2) an express reference in a will to a contract and extrinsic evidence proving the terms of the contract; or
- (3) a writing signed by the decedent evidencing the contract.

The execution of a joint will or mutual wills does not create a presumption of a contract not to revoke the will or wills.

History: En. 91A-2-701 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

It is the purpose of this section to tighten the methods by which contracts concerning succession may be proved. Oral contracts not to revoke wills have given rise to much litigation in a number of states; and in many states if two persons execute a single document as their joint will, this gives rise to a presumption that the parties had contracted not to revoke the will except by consent of both.

This section requires that either the will must set forth the material provisions of the contract, or the will must make express reference to the contract and extrinsic evidence prove the terms of the contract, or there must be a separate writing signed by the decedent evidencing the contract. Oral testimony regarding the contract is permitted if the will makes reference to the contract, but this provision of the statute is not intended to affect normal rules regarding admissibility of evidence.

Part 8—General Provisions

Section

91A-2-801. Renunciation of succession.

91A-2-802. Effect of divorce, annulment and decree of separation.

91A-2-803. Effect of homicide on intestate succession, wills, joint assets, life insurance and beneficiary designations.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

Part 8 contains three general provisions which cut across both testate and intestate succession. The first section permits renunciation; the existing law in most states permits renunciation of gifts by will but not by intestate succession, a distinction which cannot be defended on policy grounds. The second section deals with the effect of divorce and separation on the right to elect against a will, exempt property and allowances, and an intestate share. The last section, an optional provision, spells out the legal consequence of murder on the right of the murderer to take as heir, devisee, joint tenant or life insurance beneficiary.

91A-2-801. Renunciation of succession. (1) A person (or his personal representative) who is an heir, devisee, person succeeding to a renounced interest, beneficiary under a testamentary instrument or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument may renounce in whole or in part the succession to any property or interest therein by filing a written instrument within the time and at the place hereinafter provided. The instrument shall

- (a) describe the property or part thereof or interest therein renounced,
- (b) be signed by the person renouncing, and
- (c) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof.

(2) The writing specified in (1) must be filed within six (6) months after the death of the decedent or the donee of the power, or if the taker of the property is not then finally ascertained not later than six (6) months after the event by which the taker or the interest is finally ascertained. The writing must be filed in the court of the county where proceedings concerning the decedent's estate are pending, or where they would be pending if commenced. A copy of the writing also shall be mailed to the personal representative of the decedent.

(3) Unless the decedent or donee of the power has otherwise indicated by his will, the interest renounced, and any future interest which is to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the termination of the interest renounced, passes as if the person renouncing had predeceased the decedent, or if the person renouncing is one designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument, as if the person renouncing had predeceased the donee of the power. In every case the renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date of death of the decedent or the donee, as the case may be.

(4) Any assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge or transfer of property therein or any contract therefor, written waiver of the right to renounce or any acceptance of property by an heir, devisee, person succeeding to a renounced interest, beneficiary or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, or sale or other disposition of property pursuant to judicial process, made before the expiration of the period in which he is permitted to renounce, bars the right to renounce as to the property.

(5) The right to renounce granted by this section exists irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the person renouncing in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction.

(6) This section does not abridge the right of any person to assign, convey, release, or renounce any property arising under any other section of this code or other statute.

(7) Any interest in property which exists on the effective date of this section, but which has not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity, or the taker of which has not then become finally ascertained, may be renounced after the effective date of this section as provided herein. An interest which has arisen prior to the effective date of this section in any person other than the person renouncing is not destroyed or diminished by any action of the person renouncing taken under this section.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is designed to facilitate renunciation in order to aid postmortem planning. Although present law in all states permits renunciation of a devise under a will, the common law did not permit renunciation of an intestate share. There is no reason for such a distinction, and some states have already adopted leg-isolation permitting renunciation of an intestate share. Renunciation may be made for a variety of reasons, including carrying out the decedent's wishes not expressed in a properly executed will.

Under the rule of this section, renounced property passes as if the renouncing person had failed to survive the decedent. In the case of intestate property, the heir who would be next in line in succession would take; often this will be the issue of the renouncing person, taking by representation. For consistency the same rule is adopted for renunciation by a devisee; if the devisee is a relative who leaves issue surviving the testator, the issue will take under section [91A-2-605]; otherwise disposition will be governed by section [91A-2-606] and general rules of law.

The section limits renunciation to six months after the death of the decedent or if the taker of the property is not ascertained at that time, then six months after he is ascertained. If the personal representative is concerned about closing the estate within that six months' period in order to make distribution, he can obtain a waiver of the right to renounce. Normally this should be no problem, since the heir or devisee cannot renounce once he has taken possession of the property.

The presence of a spendthrift clause does not prevent renunciation under this section.

91A-2-802. Effect of divorce, annulment and decree of separation. (1)

A person who is divorced from the decedent or whose marriage to the decedent has been annulled is not a surviving spouse unless, by virtue of a subsequent marriage, he is married to the decedent at the time of death. A decree of separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this section.

(2) For purposes of sections 91A-2-101 through 91A-2-404 and of 91A-3-203, a surviving spouse does not include:

(a) a person who obtains or consents to a final decree or judgment of divorce from the decedent or an annulment of their marriage, which decree or judgment is not recognized as valid in this state, unless they subsequently participate in a marriage ceremony purporting to marry each to the other, or subsequently live together as man and wife;

(b) a person who, following a decree or judgment of divorce or annulment obtained by the decedent, participates in a marriage ceremony with a third person; or

(c) a person who was a party to a valid proceeding concluded by an order purporting to terminate all marital property rights.

Editorial Board Comment

See section [91A-2-508] for similar provisions relating to the effect of divorce to revoke devises to a spouse.

Although some existing statutes bar the surviving spouse for desertion or adultery, the present section requires some definitive legal act to bar the surviving spouse. Normally, this is divorce. Subsection [(1)] states an obvious proposition, but subsection [(2)] deals with the difficult problem of invalid divorce or annulment, which is particularly frequent as to foreign divorce decrees but may arise as to a local decree where there is some defect in jurisdiction; the basic principle underlying these provisions is estoppel against the surviving spouse. Where there is only a legal separation, rather than a divorce, succession patterns are not affected; but if the separation is accompanied by a complete property settlement, this may operate under section [91A-2-204] as a renunciation of benefits under a prior will and by intestate succession.

91A-2-803. Effect of homicide on intestate succession, wills, joint assets, life insurance and beneficiary designations. (1) A surviving spouse, heir or devisee who feloniously and intentionally kills the decedent is not entitled to any benefits under the will or under this article, and the estate of decedent passes as if the killer had predeceased the decedent.

Property appointed by the will of the decedent to or for the benefit of the killer passes as if the killer had predeceased the decedent.

(2) Any joint tenant who feloniously and intentionally kills another joint tenant thereby effects a severance of the interest of the decedent so that the share of the decedent passes as his property and the killer has no rights by survivorship. This provision applies to joint tenancies in real and personal property, joint accounts in banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions and other institutions, and any other form of co-ownership with survivorship incidents.

(3) A named beneficiary of a bond, life insurance policy, or other contractual arrangement who feloniously and intentionally kills the principal obligee or the person upon whose life the policy is issued is not entitled to any benefit under the bond, policy or other contractual arrangement, and it becomes payable as though the killer had predeceased the decedent.

(4) Any other acquisition of property or interest by the killer shall be treated in accordance with the principles of this section.

(5) A final judgment of conviction of felonious and intentional killing is conclusive for purposes of this section. In the absence of a conviction of felonious and intentional killing the court may determine by a preponderance of evidence whether the killing was felonious and intentional for purposes of this section.

(6) This section does not affect the rights of any person who, before rights under this section have been adjudicated, purchases from the killer for value and without notice property which the killer would have acquired except for this section, but the killer is liable for the amount of the proceeds or the value of the property. Any insurance company, bank, or other obligor making payment according to the terms of its policy or obligation is not liable by reason of this section unless prior to payment it has received at its home office or principal address written notice of a claim under this section.

A growing group of states have enacted statutes dealing with the problems covered by this section, and uniformity appears desirable. The section is confined to intentional and felonious homicide and excludes the accidental manslaughter killing.

At first it may appear that the matter dealt with is criminal in nature and not a proper matter for probate courts. However, the concept that a wrongdoer may not profit by his own wrong is a civil concept, and the probate court is the proper forum to determine the effect of killing on succession to property of the decedent. There are numerous situations where the same conduct gives rise to both criminal and civil consequences. A killing may result in criminal prosecution for murder and civil litigation by the murdered person's family under wrongful death statutes. While conviction in the criminal prosecution under this section treated as conclusive on the matter of succession to the murdered person's property, acquittal does not have the same consequences. This is because different considerations as well as a different burden of proof enter into the finding of guilty in the criminal prosecution. Hence it is possible that the defendant on a murder charge may be found not guilty and acquitted, but if the same person claims as an heir or devisee of the decedent, he may in the probate court be found to have feloniously and intentionally killed the decedent and thus be barred under this section from sharing in the estate. An analogy exists in the tax field, where a taxpayer may be acquitted of tax fraud in a criminal prosecution but found to have committed the fraud in a civil proceeding. In many of the cases arising under this section there may be no criminal prosecution because the murderer has committed suicide.

Part 9—Custody and Deposit of Wills

Section

91A-2-901. Deposit of will with court for safekeeping.

91A-2-902. Duty of custodian of will—liability.

91A-2-901. Deposit of will with court for safekeeping. A will may be deposited by the testator or his agent with any court for safekeeping, under rules of the court. The will shall be kept confidential. During the testator's lifetime a deposited will shall be delivered only to him or to a person authorized in writing signed by him to receive the will. A conservator may be allowed to examine a deposited will of a protected testator under procedures designed to maintain the confidential character of the document to the extent possible, and to assure that it will be resealed and left on deposit after the examination. Upon being informed of the testator's death, the court shall notify any person designated to receive the will and deliver it to him on request; or the court may deliver the will to the appropriate court.

History: En. 91A-2-901 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Many states already have statutes permitting deposit of wills during a testator's lifetime. Most of these statutes have elaborate provisions governing purely administrative matters: how the will is to be enclosed in a sealed wrapper, what is to be endorsed on the wrapper, the form of receipt or certificate given to the testator, the fee to be charged, how the will is to be opened after testator's death and who is to be notified. Under this section, details have been left to court rule, except as other relevant statutes such as one governing fees may apply.

It is, of course, vital to maintain the confidential nature of deposited wills. However, this obviously does not prevent the opening of the will after the death of the testator if necessary in order to determine the executor or other interested persons to be notified. Nor should it prevent opening the will to microfilm for confidential record storage, for example. These matters could again be regulated by court rule.

It is suggested that in the near future it may be desirable to develop a central filing system regarding the presence of deposited wills, because the mobility of our modern population makes it probable that the testator will not die in the county where his will is deposited. Thus a statute might require that the local registrar notify an appropriate official, that the will is on file; the state official would in effect provide a clearinghouse for information on location of deposited wills without disrupting the local administration.

The provision permitting examination of a will of a protected person by the conservator supplements section [91A-5-427].

91A-2-902. Duty of custodian of will—liability. After the death of a testator and on request of an interested person, any person having custody of a will of the testator shall deliver it with reasonable promptness to a person able to secure its probate and if none is known, to an appropriate court. Any person who willfully fails to deliver a will is liable to any person aggrieved for the damages which may be sustained by the failure. Any person who willfully refuses or fails to deliver a will after being ordered by the court in a proceeding brought for the purpose of compelling delivery is subject to penalty for contempt of court.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

The provisions of this [chapter] describe the Flexible System of Administration of Decedents' Estates. Designed to be applicable to both intestate and testate estates and to provide persons interested in decedents' estates with as little or as much by way of procedural and adjudicative safeguards as may be suitable under varying circumstances, this system is the heart of the Uniform Probate Code.

The organization and detail of the system here described may be expressed in varying ways and some states may see fit to reframe parts of this article to better accommodate local institutions. Variations in language from state to state can be tolerated without loss of the essential purposes of procedural uniformity and flexibility, if the following essential characteristics are carefully protected in the re-drafting process:

(1) Post-mortem probate of a will must occur to make a will effective and appointment of a personal representative by a public official after the decedent's death is required in order to create the duties and powers attending the office of personal representative. Neither is compelled, however, but both are left to be obtained by persons having an interest in the consequence of probate or appointment. Estates descend at death to successors identified by any probated will, or to heirs if no will is probated, subject to rights which may be implemented through administration.

(2) Two methods of securing probate of wills which include a nonadjudicative determination (informal probate) on the one hand, and a judicial determination after notice to all interested persons (formal probate) on the other, are provided.

(3) Two methods of securing appointment of a personal representative which include appointment without notice and without final adjudication of matters relevant to priority for appointment (informal appointment), on the one hand, and appointment by judicial order after notice to interested persons (formal appointment) on the other, are provided.

(4) A five-day waiting period from death preventing informal probate or informal appointment of any but a special administrator is required.

(5) Probate of a will by informal or formal proceedings or an adjudication of intestacy may occur without any attendant requirement of appointment of a personal representative.

(6) One judicial, in rem, proceeding encompassing formal probate of any wills (or a determination after notice that the decedent left no will), appointment of a personal representative and complete settlement of an estate under continuing supervision of the court (supervised administration) is provided for testators and persons interested in a decedent's estate, whether testate or intestate, who desire to use it.

(7) Unless supervised administration is sought and ordered, persons interested in estates (including personal representatives, whether appointed informally or after notice) may use an "in and out" relationship to the court so that any question or assumption relating to the estate, including the status of an estate as testate or intestate, matters relating to one or more claims, disputed titles, accounts of personal representatives, and distribution, may be resolved or established by adjudication after notice without necessarily subjecting the estate to the necessity of judicial orders in regard to other or further questions or assumptions.

(8) The status of a decedent in regard to whether he left a valid will or died intestate must be resolved by adjudication after notice in proceedings commenced within three years after his death. If not so resolved, any will probated informally becomes final, and if there is no such probate, the status of the decedent as intestate is finally determined, by a statute of limitations which bars probate and appointment unless requested within three years after death.

(9) Personal representatives appointed informally or after notice, and whether supervised or not, have statutory powers enabling them to collect, protect, sell, distribute and otherwise handle all steps in administration without further order of the court, except that supervised personal representatives may be subjected to special restrictions on power as endorsed on their letters.

(10) Purchasers from personal representatives and from distributees of personal representatives are protected so that adjudications regarding the testacy status of a decedent or any other question going to the propriety of a sale are not required in order to protect purchasers.

(11) Provisions protecting a personal representative who distributes without adjudication are included to make nonadjudicated settlements feasible.

(12) Statutes of limitation bar creditors of the decedent who fail to present claims within four months after legal advertising of the administration and unsecured claims not previously barred by nonclaim statutes are barred after three years from the decedent's death.

Overall, the system accepts the premise that the court's role in regard to probate and administration, and its relationship to personal representatives who derive their power from public appointment, is wholly passive until some interested person invokes its power to secure resolution of a matter. The state, through the court, should provide remedies which are suitable and efficient to protect any and all rights regarding succession, but should refrain from intruding into family affairs unless relief is requested, and limit its relief to that sought.

91A-3-101. Devolution of estate at death—restrictions. The power of a person to leave property by will, and the rights of creditors, devisees, and heirs to his property are subject to the restrictions and limitations contained in this code to facilitate the prompt settlement of estates. Upon the death of a person, his real and personal property devolves to the persons to whom it is devised by his last will or to those indicated as substitutes for them in cases involving lapse, renunciation, or other circumstances affecting the devolution of testate estates, or in the absence of testamentary disposition, to his heirs, or to those indicated as substitutes for them in cases involving renunciation or other circumstances affecting devolution of intestate estates, subject to homestead allowance, exempt property and family allowance, to rights of creditors, elective share of the surviving spouse, and to administration.

History: En. 91A-3-101 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-102. Necessity of order of probate for will. Except as provided in section 91A-3-1201, to be effective to prove the transfer of any property or to nominate an executor, a will must be declared to be valid by an order of informal probate by the clerk, or an adjudication of probate by the court, except that a duly executed and unrevoked will which has not been probated may be admitted as evidence of a devise if (1) no court proceeding concerning the succession or administration of the estate has occurred, and

(2) either the devisee or his successors and assigns possessed the property devised in accordance with the provisions of the will, or the property devised was not possessed or claimed by anyone by virtue of the decedent's title during the time period for testacy proceedings.

Editorial Board Comment

The basic idea of this section follows Section 85 of the Model Probate Code. The exception referring to section [91A-3-1201] relates to affidavit procedures which are authorized for collection of estates worth less than $5,000.

Section [91A-3-107] and various sections in Parts 3 and 4 of this [chapter] make it clear that a will may be probated without appointment of a personal representative, including any nominated by the will.

The requirement of probate stated here and the limitations on probate provided in [section 91A-3-108] mean that questions as to testacy may be eliminated simply by the running of time. Under these sections, an informally probated will cannot be questioned after the later of three years from the decedent's death or one year from the probate whether or not an executor was appointed, or, if an executor was appointed, without regard to whether the estate has been distributed. If the decedent is believed to have died without a will, the running of three years from death bars probate of a late-discovered will and so makes the assumption of intestacy conclusive.

The exceptions to the section (other than the exception relevant to small estates) are not intended to accommodate cases of late-discovered wills. Rather, they are designed to make the probate requirement inapplicable where circumstances led survivors of a decedent to believe that there was no point to probating a will of which they may have had knowledge. If any will was probated within three years of death, or if letters of administration were issued in this period, the exceptions to the section are inapplicable. If there has been no proceeding in probate, persons seeking to establish title by an unprobated will must show, with reference to the estate they claim, either that it has been possessed by those to whom it was devised or that it has been unknown to the decedent's heirs or devisees and not possessed by any.

It is to be noted, also, that devisees who are able to claim under one of the exceptions to this section may not obtain probate of the will or administration of the estate to assist them in their efforts to obtain the estate in question. The exceptions are to a rule which bars admission of a will into evidence, rather than to the section barring late probate and late appointment of personal representatives. Still, the exceptions should serve to prevent two "hard" cases which can be imagined readily. In one, a surviving spouse fails to seek probate of a will, giving her the entire estate of the decedent because she is informed or believes that all of her husband's property was held by them jointly, with right of survivorship. Later, it is discovered that she was mistaken as to the nature of her husband's title. The other case involves a devisee who sees no point to securing probate of a will in his favor because he is unaware of any estate. Subsequently, valuable rights of the decedent are discovered.

91A-3-103. Necessity of appointment for administration. Except as otherwise provided in sections 91A-4-101 through 91A-4-401, inclusive, to acquire the powers and undertake the duties and liabilities of a personal representative of a decedent, a person must be appointed by order of the court or clerk, qualify and be issued letters. Administration of an estate is commenced by the issuance of letters.

History: En. 91A-3-103 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section makes it clear that appointment by a public official is required before one can acquire the status of personal representative. "Qualification" is dealt with in section [91A-3-601]. "Letters" are the subject of section [91A-1-305]. Section [91A-3-701] is also related, since it deals with the time of accrual of duties and powers of personal representatives.

See [section 91A-3-108] for the time limit on requests for appointment of personal representatives.

In [Chapter 4, sections 91A-4-201 and 91A-4-207] permit a personal representative from another state to obtain the powers of one appointed locally by filing evidence of his authority with a local court.

91A-3-104. Claims against decedent—necessity of administration. No proceeding to enforce a claim against the estate of a decedent or his successors may be revived or commenced before the appointment of a personal representative. After the appointment and until distribution, all proceedings and actions to enforce a claim against the estate are governed by the procedure prescribed by sections 91A-3-101 through 91A-3-1203. After distribution a creditor whose claim has not been barred may recover from the distributees as provided in section 91A-3-1005 or from a former personal representative individually liable as provided in section 91A-3-1006. This section has no application to a proceeding by a secured creditor of the decedent to enforce his right to his security except as to any deficiency judgment which might be sought therein.

History: En. 91A-3-104 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This and sections of Part 8 [Chapter 3], are designed to force creditors of decedents to assert their claims against duly appointed personal representatives. Creditors of a decedent are interested persons who may seek the appointment of a personal representative (section [91A-3-301]). If no appointment is granted to another within 45 days after the decedent's death, a creditor may be eligible to be appointed if other persons with priority decline to serve or are ineligible (section [91A-3-203]). But, if a personal representative has been appointed and has closed the estate under circumstances which leave a creditor's claim unbarred, the creditor is permitted to enforce his claims against distributees, as well as against the personal representative if any duty owed to creditors under [sections 91A-3-807 or 91A-3-1003] has been breached. The methods for closing estates are outlined in sections [91A-3-1001 through 91A-3-1003]. Termination of appointment under sections [91A-3-608 et seq.] may occur though the estate is not closed and so may be irrelevant to the question of whether creditors may pursue distributees.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Hospital Expenses

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law, who had distributed assets of decedent's estate without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

91A-3-105. Proceedings affecting devolution and administration—jurisdiction of subject matter. Persons interested in decedents' estate may apply to the clerk for determination in the informal proceedings provided in sections 91A-3-301 through 91A-3-311 of this act, and may petition the court for orders in formal proceedings within the court's jurisdiction including but not limited to those described in sections 91A-3-401 through 91A-3-505 of this act. The district court has exclusive jurisdiction of all probate matters.

History: En. 91A-3-105 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners substitutes for the second sentence in the section, above, two sentences as follows: "The court has exclusive jurisdiction of formal proceedings to determine how decedents' estates subject to the laws of this state are to be administered, expended and distributed. The court has concurrent jurisdiction of any other action or proceeding concerning a succession or to which an estate, through a personal representative, may be a party, including actions to determine title to property alleged to belong to the estate, and of any action or proceeding in which property distributed by a personal representative or its value is sought to be subjected to rights of creditors or successors of the decedent."

Editorial Board Comment

This and other sections of [Chapter 3] contemplate a nonjudicial officer who will act on informal application and a judge who will hear and decide formal petitions. See section [91A-1-307] which permits the judge to perform or delegate the functions of the [clerk]. However, the primary purpose of [Chapter 3] is to describe functions to be performed by various public officials, rather than to prescribe how these responsibilities should be assigned within a given state or county. Hence, any of several alternatives to the organizational scheme assumed for purposes of this draft would be acceptable.

For example, a state might assign responsibility for maintenance of probate files and records, and for receiving and acting upon informal applications, to existing, limited power probate offices. Responsibility for hearing and deciding formal petitions would then be assigned to the court of general jurisdiction of each county or district.

91A-3-106. Proceedings within exclusive jurisdiction of court. In proceedings within the exclusive jurisdiction of the court where notice is required by this code or by rule, interested persons may be bound by the orders of the court in respect to property in or subject to the laws of this state by notice in conformity with section 91A-1-401. An order is binding as to all who are given notice of the proceeding though less than all interested persons are notified.

History: En. 91A-3-106 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The language in this and the preceding section which divides matters coming before the probate court between those within the court's "exclusive" jurisdiction and those within its "concurrent" jurisdiction would be inappropriate if probate

If separate courts or officers are not feasible, it may be preferable to concentrate authority for allocating responsibility respecting formal and informal proceedings in the judge. To do so helps fix responsibility for the total operation of the office. This is the assumption of this draft.

It will be up to each adopting state to select the organizational arrangement which best meets its needs.

If the office with jurisdiction to hear and decide formal petitions is the county or district court of general jurisdiction, there will be little basis for objection to the broad statement of concurrent jurisdiction of this section. However, if a more specialized "estates" court is used, there may be pressure to prevent it from hearing negligence and other actions involving jury trials, even though it may be given unlimited power to decide other cases to which a personal representative is a party. A system for certifying matters involving jury trials to the general trial court could be provided, although the alternative of permitting the estates court to empanel juries where necessary might not be unworkable. In any event, the jurisdiction of the "estates" or "probate" court in regard to negligence litigation would only be concurrent with that of the general trial court. The important point is that the estates court, whatever it is called, should have unlimited power to hear and finally dispose of all matters relevant to determination of the extent of the decedent's estate and of the claims against it. The jury trial question is peripheral.

See the Comment to the next section regarding adjustments which might be made in the code by a state with a single court of general jurisdiction for each county or district.

matters were assigned to a branch of a single court of general jurisdiction. [See Compiler's Notes following section 91A-3-105.] The code could be adjusted to an assumption of a single court in various ways. Any adjusted version should contain a provision permitting the court to hear and settle certain kinds of matters after notice as provided in [91A-1-401]. It might be suitable to combine the secand sentences of [91A-1-305] and [91A-1-306] into a single section as follows:

"The court may hear and determine formal proceedings involving administration and distribution of decedents' estates after notice to interested persons in conformity with Section 1-401. Persons notified are bound though less than all interested persons may have been given notice."

An adjusted version also might provide:

"Subject to general rules concerning the proper location of civil litigation and jurisdiction of persons, the court (meaning the probate division) may hear and determine any other controversy concerning a succession or to which an estate, through a personal representative, may be a party."

The propriety of this sort of statement would depend upon whether questions of docketing and assignment, including the division of matters between co-ordinate branches of the court, should be dealt with by legislation.

91A-3-107. Scope of proceedings—proceedings independent—exception.

Unless supervised administration as described in sections 91A-3-501 through 91A-3-505 is involved, (1) each proceeding before the court or clerk is independent of any other proceeding involving the same estate;

(2) petitions for formal orders of the court may combine various requests for relief in a single proceeding if the orders sought may be finally granted without delay. Except as required for proceedings which are particularly described by other sections of this code, no petition is defective because it fails to embrace all matters which might then be the subject of a final order;

(3) proceedings for probate of wills or adjudications of no will may be combined with proceedings for appointment of personal representatives; and

(4) a proceeding for appointment of a personal representative is concluded by an order making or declining the appointment.

Editorial Board Comment

This section and others in [Chapter 3] describe a system of administration of decedents' estates which gives interested persons control of whether matters relating to estates will become occasions for judicial orders. Sections [91A-3-501 through 91A-3-505] describe supervised administration, a judicial proceeding which is continuous throughout administration. It corresponds with the theory of administration of decedents' estates which prevails in many states. See, section 62, Model Probate Code. If supervised administration is not requested, persons interested in an estate may use combinations of the formal proceedings (order by judge after notice to persons concerned with the relief sought), informal proceedings (request for the limited response that nonjudicial personnel of the probate court are authorized to make in response to verified application) and filings provided in the remaining parts of [Chapter 3] to secure authority and protection needed to administer the estate. Nothing except self-interest will compel resort to the judge. When resort to the judge is necessary or desirable to resolve a dispute or to gain protection, the scope of the proceeding if not otherwise prescribed by the code is framed by the petition. The securing of necessary jurisdiction over interested persons in a formal proceeding is facilitated by sections [91A-3-106 and 91A-3-602]. [Section 91A-3-201] locates venue for all proceedings at the place where the first proceeding occurred.

91A-3-108. Probate, testacy and appointment proceedings—time limit—exception. No informal probate or appointment proceeding or formal testacy or appointment proceeding, other than a proceeding to probate a will previously probated at the testator's domicile and appointment proceedings relating to an estate in which there has been a prior appointment, may be commenced more than three (3) years after the decedent's death, except (1) if a previous proceeding was dismissed because of doubt about the fact of the decedent's death, appropriate probate, appointment or testacy proceedings may be maintained at any time thereafter upon a finding that the decedent's death occurred prior to the initiation of the previous proceeding and the applicant or petitioner has not delayed unduly in initiating the subsequent proceeding;

(2) appropriate probate, appointment or testacy proceedings may be maintained in relation to the estate of an absent, disappeared or missing person for whose estate a conservator has been appointed, at any time within three (3) years after the conservator becomes able to establish the death of the protected person; and

(3) a proceeding to contest an informally probated will and to secure appointment of the person with legal priority for appointment in the event the contest is successful, may be commenced within the later of twelve (12) months from the informal probate or three (3) years from the decedent's death.

These limitations do not apply to proceedings to construe probated wills or determine heirs of an intestate, nor do they limit the right of interested persons to commence informal probate or appointment proceedings or formal testacy or appointment proceedings at any time after three (3) years from the decedent's death if there have been no previous formal or informal probate or appointment proceedings commenced in respect of that decedent. In cases under (1) or (2) above, the date on which a testacy or appointment proceeding is properly commenced shall be deemed to be the date of the decedent's death for purposes of other limitations provisions of this code which relate to the date of death.

Compiler's Notes

The next to last sentence in the corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners reads as follows: "These limitations do not apply to proceedings to construe probated wills or determine heirs of an intestate."

Editorial Board Comment

This section establishes a basic limitation period of three years within which it may be determined whether a decedent left a will and to commence administration of his estate. But, an exception assures that heirs will have at least one year after an informal probate to initiate a contest and to secure administration of the estate as intestate.

If no will is probated within three years from death, the section has the effect of making the assumption of intestacy final. If a will has been informally probated within the period, the section has the effect of making the informal probate conclusive after three years or within twelve months from informal probate, if later. Heirs or devisees can protect themselves against change within the three years of assumption concerning whether the decedent left a will or died intestate by bringing a formal proceeding shortening the period to that described in sections [91A-3-412 and 91A-3-413].

A personal representative who has been appointed under an assumption concerning testacy which may be reversed in the three-year period if there has been no formal proceeding, is protected by section [91A-3-703]. It relieves a personal representative of liability for surcharge for certain distributions made pursuant to an informally probated will, or under authority of informally issued letters of administration. Distributees who receive an estate distributed before the three-year period expires where there has been no formal determination accelerating the time for certainty, remain potentially liable to persons determined to be entitled by formal proceedings instituted within the basic period under sections [91A-3-909 and 91A-3-1007].

Purchasers from personal representatives and distributees may be protected without regard to whether the three-year period has run. See sections [91A-3-713 and 91A-3-910].

All creditors' claims are barred after three years from death. See section [91A-3-803(1)(b)]. Because of this, and since any possibility that letters may be issued at any time would be seen as a "cloud" on the title of heirs or devisees otherwise secure under [91A-3-101], the three-year statute of limitations applies to bar appointment of a personal representative after the basic period has passed. Section 83 of the Model Probate Code barred probate and administration after five years, and other statutes imposing time limits on these proceedings are cited at pp. 307-310 of Model Probate Code. A qualification covers the situation where a closed administration is sought to be reopened to administer after-discovered assets. See section [91A-3-1009]. If there has been no probate or appointment within three years, and if either exception to section [91A-3-102] applies, devisees under a late-discovered will may use a will to establish their title. But, they may not secure probate of the will, nor may they obtain appointment of a personal representative. The same pattern applies to heirs who, in a case where there has been no administration, discover assets after the three-year period has run. Such persons will not be able to protect purchasers with the ease of those interested in an estate where a personal representative has been appointed.

The basic premise underlying all of these time provisions is that interested persons who want to assume the risks implicit in the three-year period of limitations should be provided legitimate means by which they can do so. At the same time, parties should be afforded ample opportunity for earlier protection if they want it.

No statute of limitation running on a cause of action belonging to a decedent which had not been barred as of the date of his death, shall apply to bar a cause of action surviving the decedent's death sooner than four (4) months after death. A cause of action which, but for this section, would have been barred less than four (4) months after death, is barred after four (4) months unless tolled.

Part 2—Venue for Probate and Administration—Priority to Administer—Demand for Notice

Section

- 91A-3-201. Venue for first and subsequent estate proceedings—location of property.
- 91A-3-202. Appointment or testacy proceedings—conflicting claim of domicile in another state.
- 91A-3-203. Priority among persons seeking appointment as personal representative.
- 91A-3-204. Demand for notice of order or filing concerning decedent's estate.

91A-3-201. Venue for first and subsequent estate proceedings—location of property. (1) Venue for the first informal or formal testacy or appointment proceedings after a decedent's death is:

(a) in the county where the decedent had his domicile at the time of his death; or

(b) if the decedent was not domiciled in this state, in any county where property of the decedent was located at the time of his death.

(2) Venue for all subsequent proceedings within the exclusive jurisdiction of the court is in the place where the initial proceeding occurred, unless the initial proceeding has been transferred as provided in section 91A-1-303 or (3) of this section.

(3) If the first proceeding was informal, on application of an interested person and after notice to the proponent in the first proceeding, the court, upon finding that venue is elsewhere, may transfer the proceeding and the file to the other court.

(4) For the purpose of aiding determinations concerning location of assets which may be relevant in cases involving nondomiciliaries, a debt, other than one evidenced by investment or commercial paper or other instrument in favor of a nondomiciliary, is located where the debtor resides or, if the debtor is a person other than an individual, at the place where it has its principal office. Commercial paper, investment paper and other instruments are located where the instrument is. An interest in property held in trust is located where the trustee may be sued.

Editorial Board Comment

Sections [91A-1-303 and 91A-3-201] cover the subject of venue for estate proceedings. Sections [91A-3-202, 91A-3-301, 91A-3-303 and 91A-3-309] also may be relevant.

Provisions for transfer of venue appear in section [91A-1-303].

The interplay of these several sections may be illustrated best by examples:

(1) A formal probate or appointment proceeding is initiated in A County. Interested persons who believe that venue is in B County rather than A County must raise their question about venue in A County, because [91A-1-303] gives the court in which the proceeding is first commenced authority to resolve disputes over venue. If the court in A County erroneously determines that it has venue, the remedy is by appeal.

(2) An informal probate or appointment application is filed and granted without notice in A County. If interested persons wish to challenge the registrar's determination of venue, they may not simply file a formal proceeding in the county of their choice and thus force the proponent in the prior proceeding to debate the question of venue in their county [section 91A-3-201(2)] locates the venue of any subsequent proceeding where the first proceeding occurred. The function of [subsection (2)] is obvious when one thinks of subsequent proceedings as those which relate to claims, or accounts, or to efforts to control a personal representative. It is less obvious when it seems to locate the forum for squabbles over venue at the place accepting the first informal application. Still, the applicant seeking an informal order must be careful about the statements he makes in his application because he may be charged with perjury under section [91A-1-309] if he is deliberately inaccurate. Moreover, the registrar must be satisfied that the allegations in the application support a finding of venue. [Section 91A-3-201(3)] provides a remedy for one who is upset about the venue-locating impact of a prior order in an informal proceeding and who does not wish to engage in full litigation about venue in the forum chosen by the other interested person unless he is forced to do so. Using it, he may succeed in getting the A County court to transfer the proceedings to the county of his choice. He would be well advised to initiate formal proceedings if he gets the chance, for if he relies on informal proceedings, he, too, may be "bumped" if the judge in B County agrees with some movant that venue was not in B County.

(3) If the decedent's domicile was not in the state, venue is proper under [sections 91A-3-201 and 91A-1-303] in any county where he had assets.

One contemplating starting administration because of the presence of local assets should have several other sections of the code in mind. First, by use of the recognition provisions in [chapter 4], it may be possible to avoid administration in any state other than that in which the decedent was domiciled. Second, section [91A-3-203] may apply to give priority for local appointment to the representative appointed at domicile. Third, under section [91A-3-309], informal appointment proceedings in this state will be dismissed if it is known that a personal representative has been previously appointed at domicile.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Residence of Decedent

County where intestate decedent was domiciled had sole and exclusive jurisdiction over the estate and where order from another county recited the correct domicile but nevertheless issued letters of administration, the order was void on its face and subject to both collateral and direct attack. In re Estate of Brown, 156 M 170, 477 P 2d 882.

91A-3-202. Appointment or testacy proceedings—conflicting claim of domicile in another state. If conflicting claims as to the domicile of a decedent are made in a formal testacy or appointment proceeding commenced in this state, and in a testacy or appointment proceeding after notice pending at the same time in another state, the court of this state must stay, dismiss, or permit suitable amendment in, the proceeding here unless it is determined that the local proceeding was commenced before the proceeding elsewhere. The determination of domicile in the proceeding first commenced must be accepted as determinative in the proceeding in this state.

History: En. 91A-3-202 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is designed to reduce the possibility that conflicting findings of domicile in two or more states may result in inconsistent administration and distribution of parts of the same estate. Section [91A-3-408] dealing with the effect of adjudications in other states concerning testacy supports the same general purpose to use domiciliary law to unify succession of property located in different states.

Whether testate or intestate, succession should follow the presumed wishes of the decedent whenever possible. Unless a decedent leaves a separate will for the portion of his estate located in each different state, it is highly unlikely that he would want different portions of his estate subject to different rules simply because courts reach conflicting conclusions concerning his domicile. It is pointless to debate whether he would prefer one or the other of the conflicting rules, when the paramount inference is that the decedent would prefer that his estate be unified under either rule rather than wasted in litigation.

The section adds very little to existing law. If a previous estate proceeding in State A has determined that the decedent was a domiciliary of A, persons who were personally before the court in A would be precluded by the principles of res judicata or collateral estoppel (and full faith and credit) from relitigating the issue of domicile in a later proceeding in State B. Probably, it would not matter in this setting that domicile was a jurisdictional fact. Stoll v. Gottlieb (1938) 305 U.S. 165, 83 L.Ed. 104, 59 S.Ct. 134. Even if the parties to a present proceeding were not personally before the court in an earlier proceeding in State A involving the same decedent, the prior judgment would be binding as to property subject to the power of the courts in A, on persons to whom due notice of the proceeding was given. Riley v. New York Trust

Co. (1942) 315 U.S. 343, 86 L.Ed. 885, 62 S.Ct. 608; Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank and Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 94 L.Ed. 865, 70 S.Ct. 652.

Where a court learns that parties before it are also parties to previously initiated litigation involving a common question, traditional judicial reluctance to deciding unnecessary questions, as well as considerations of comity, are likely to lead it to delay the local proceedings to await the result in the other court. A somewhat more troublesome question is involved when one of the parties before the local court manifests a determination not to appear personally in the prior initiated proceedings so that he can preserve his ability to litigate contested points in a more friendly, or convenient, forum. But, the need to preserve all possible advantages available to particular litigants should be subordinated to the decedent's probable wish that his estate not be wasted in unnecessary litigation. Thus, the section requires that the local claimant either initiate litigation in the forum of his choice before litigation is started somewhere else, or accept the necessity of contesting unwanted views concerning the decedent's domicile offered in litigation pending elsewhere.

It is to be noted, in this connection, that the local suitor always will have a chance to contest the question of domicile in the other state. His locally initiated proceedings may proceed to a valid judgment accepting his theory of the case unless parties who would oppose him appear and defend on the theory that the domicile question is currently being litigated elsewhere. If the litigation in the other state has proceeded to judgment, section [91A-3-408] rather than the instant section will govern. If this section applies, it will mean that the foreign proceedings are still pending, so that the local person's contention concerning domicile can be made therein even though until the defense of litigation elsewhere is offered in the local proceedings, he may not have been notified of the foreign proceeding.

91A-3-203. Priority among persons seeking appointment as personal representative. (1) Whether the proceedings are formal or informal, persons who are not disqualified have priority for appointment in the following order:

(a) the person with priority as determined by a probated will including a person nominated by a power conferred in a will;

(b) the surviving spouse of the decedent who is a devisee of the decedent;

(c) other devisees of the decedent;

(d) the surviving spouse of the decedent;

(e) other heirs of the decedent;

(f) public administrator;

(g) forty-five (45) days after the death of the decedent, any creditor.

(2) An objection to an appointment can be made only in formal proceedings. In case of objection the priorities stated in (1) apply except that

(a) if the estate appears to be more than adequate to meet exemptions and costs of administration but inadequate to discharge anticipated unsecured claims, the court, on petition of creditors, may appoint any qualified person;

(b) in case of objection to appointment of a person other than one whose priority is determined by will by an heir or devisee appearing to have a substantial interest in the estate, the court may appoint a person who is acceptable to heirs and devisees whose interests in the estate appear to be worth in total more than half of the probable distributable value, or, in default of this accord any suitable person.

(3) A person entitled to letters under (b) through (e) of (1) above, may nominate a qualified person to act as personal representative. Any person entitled to letters may renounce his right to nominate or to an appointment by appropriate writing filed with the court. When two (2) or more persons share a priority, those of them who do not renounce must concur in nominating another to act for them, or in applying for appointment.

(4) Conservators of the estates of protected persons, or if there is no conservator, any guardian except a guardian ad litem of a minor or incapacitated person, may exercise the same right to nominate, to object to another's appointment, or to participate in determining the preference of a majority in interest of the heirs and devisees that the protected person or ward would have if qualified for appointment.

(5) Appointment of one who does not have priority, including priority resulting from renunciation or nomination determined pursuant to this section, may be made only in formal proceedings. Before appointing one without priority, the court must determine that those having priority, although given notice of the proceedings, have failed to request appointment or to nominate another for appointment, and that administration is necessary.

(6) No person is qualified to serve as a personal representative who is:

(a) under the age of eighteen (18);

(b) a person whom the court finds unsuitable in formal proceedings.

(7) A personal representative appointed by a court of the decedent's domicile has priority over all other persons except where the decedent's will nominates different persons to be personal representative in this state and in the state of domicile. The domiciliary personal representative may nominate another, who shall have the same priority as the domiciliary personal representative.

(8) This section governs priority for appointment of a successor personal representative but does not apply to the selection of a special administrator.

History: En. 91A-3-203 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The priorities applicable to informal proceedings are applicable to formal proceedings. However, if the proceedings are formal, a person with a substantial interest may object to the selection of one having priority other than because of will provisions. The provision for majority approval which is triggered by such a protest can be handled in a formal proceeding since all interested persons will be before the court, and a judge capable of handling discretionary matters, will be involved.

In considering this section as it relates to a devise to a trustee for various beneficiaries, it is to be noted that "interested persons" is defined by [section 91A-1-201 (21)] to include fiduciaries. Also [sections 91A-1-403(2) and 91A-3-912] show a purpose to make trustees serve as representatives of all beneficiaries. The provision in [(4)] is consistent.

If a state's statutes recognize a public administrator or public trustee as the appropriate agency to seek administration of estates in which the state may have an interest, it would be appropriate to indicate in this section the circumstances under which such an officer may seek administration. If no officer is recognized locally, the state could claim as heir by virtue of [section 91A-2-105].

Subsection [(7)] was inserted in connection with the decision to abandon the effort to describe ancillary administration in [chapter 4]. Other provisions in [chapter 3] which are relevant to administration of assets in a state other than that of the decedent's domicile are [section 91A-1-301] (territorial effect), [section 91A-3-201] (venue), [section 91A-3-308] (informal appointment for nonresident decedent delayed thirty days), [section 91A-3-309] (no informal appointment here if a representative has been appointed at domicile), [section 91A-3-815] (duty of personal representative where administration in more than one state) and [sections 91A-4-201 through 91A-4-205] (local recognition of foreign personal representatives).

Causes for Disqualifying

Fact that named executors might have used undue influence in obtaining property of testator before death, thereby giving rise to claim in behalf of estate against executors, was not in itself evidence of want of integrity such as would disqualify them. Creditor as Administrator

Former statute dealing with issuance of letters testamentary gave power to nominate executor to testator, so that court was required to appoint person named in will as executor unless he was incompetent under statute. In re Estate of Graf, 150 M 577, 437 P 2d 371.

91A-3-204. Demand for notice of order or filing concerning decedent's estate. Any person desiring notice of any order or filing pertaining to a decedent's estate in which he has a financial or property interest, may file a demand for notice with the court at any time after the death of the decedent stating the name of the decedent, the nature of his interest in the estate, and the demandant's address or that of his attorney. The clerk shall mail a copy of the demand to the personal representative if one has been appointed. After filing of a demand, no order or filing to which the demand relates shall be made or accepted without notice as prescribed in section 91A-1-401 to the demandant or his attorney. The validity of an order which is issued or filing which is accepted without compliance with this requirement shall not be affected by the error, but the petitioner receiving the order or the person making the filing may be liable for any damage caused by the absence of notice. The requirement of notice arising from a demand under this provision may be waived in writing by the demandant and shall cease upon the termination of his interest in the estate.

Forcing one who seeks informal probate or informal appointment to make oath before a public official concerning the details required of applications should deter persons who might otherwise misuse the no-notice feature of informal proceedings. The application is available as a part of the public record. If deliberately false representation is made, remedies for fraud will be available to injured persons without specified time limit (see [Chapter 1]). The section is believed to provide important safeguards that may extend well beyond those presently available under supervised administration for persons damaged by deliberate wrongdoing.

Section [91A-1-309] deals with verification.

91A-3-302. Informal probate—duty of clerk of court—effect of informal. Upon receipt of an application requesting informal probate of a will, the clerk, upon making the findings required by section 91A-3-303 shall issue a written statement of informal probate if at least one hundred twenty (120) hours have elapsed since the decedent's death. Informal probate is conclusive as to all persons until superseded by an order in a formal testacy proceeding. No defect in the application or procedure relating thereto which leads to informal probate of a will renders the probate void.

Model Probate Code Sections 68 and 70 contemplate probate by judicial order as the only method of validating a will. This "umbrella" section and the sections it refers to describe an alternative procedure called "informal probate." It is a statement of probate by the [clerk]. A succeeding section describes cases in which informal probate is to be denied.

"Informal probate" is subjected to safeguards which seem appropriate to a transaction which has the effect of making a will operative and which may be the only official reaction concerning its validity. "Informal probate," it is hoped, will serve to keep the simple will which generates no controversy from becoming involved in truly judicial proceedings. The procedure is very much like "probate in common form" as it is known in England and some states.

91A-3-303. Informal probate—proof and findings required. (1) In an informal proceeding for original probate of a will, the clerk shall determine whether:

- (a) the application is complete;
- (b) the applicant has made oath or affirmation that the statements contained in the application are true to the best of his knowledge and belief;
- (c) the applicant appears from the application to be an interested person as defined in section 91A-1-201(21);
- (d) on the basis of the statements in the application, venue is proper;
- (e) an original, duly executed and apparently unrevoked will is in the clerk's possession;
- (f) any notice required by section 91A-3-204 has been given and that the application is not within section 91A-3-304; and
- (g) it appears from the application that the time limit for original probate has not expired.

(2) The application shall be denied if it indicates that a personal representative has been appointed in another county of this state or except as provided in subsection (4) below, if it appears that this or another will of the decedent has been the subject of a previous probate order.

(3) A will which appears to have the required signatures and which contains an attestation clause showing that requirements of execution under section 91A-2-502, 91A-2-503 or 91A-2-506 have been met shall be probated without further proof. In other cases the clerk may assume execution if the will appears to be properly executed, or he may accept a sworn statement or affidavit of any person having knowledge of the circumstances of execution, whether or not the person was a witness to the will.

(4) Informal probate of a will which has been previously probated elsewhere may be granted at any time upon written application by any interested person, together with deposit of an authenticated copy of the will and of the statement probating it from the office or court where it was first probated.

(5) A will from a place which does not provide for probate of a will after death and which is not eligible for probate under subsection (1) above, may be probated in this state upon receipt by the clerk of a duly authenticated copy of the will and a duly authenticated certificate of its legal custodian that the copy filed is a true copy and that the will has become operative under the law of the other place.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners substitutes for the last sentence in the first paragraph of subsection (3) and subdivisions (a) to (c) thereof the following language: "In other cases, the Registrar may assume execution if the will appears to have been properly executed, or he may accept a sworn statement or affidavit of any person having knowledge of the circumstances of execution, whether or not the person was a witness to the will."

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of this section is to permit informal probate of a will which from a simple attestation clause, appears to have been executed properly. It is not necessary that the will be notarized as is the case with "pre-proved" wills in some states. If a will is "pre-proved" as provided in [Chapter 2], it will, of course, "appear" to be well executed and include the recital necessary for easy probate here. If the instrument does not contain a proper recital by attesting witnesses, it may be probated informally on the strength of an affidavit by a person who can say what occurred at the time of execution.

Except where probate or its equivalent has occurred previously in another state, informal probate is available only where an original will exists and is available to be filed. Lost or destroyed wills must be established in formal proceedings. See section [91A-3-402]. Pendency of formal probate proceedings blocks under section [91A-3-401].

Amendments

The 1975 amendment deleted "and that it is self-proved as provided by section 91A-2-504" before "shall be probated without further proof" at the end of the first sentence of subsection (3); and substituted the second sentence of subsection (3) for: "In other cases the clerk shall admit the will to probate on the following proof:

"(a) on the testimony of one of the subscribing witnesses that the will was executed as required by this code and that the testator was of sound mind at the time of its execution;

"(b) if it appears at the time of the filing of the application to have the will informally admitted to probate that none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the county or are capable of appearing and that the sworn or affirmed statement of one of the witnesses to the will has been taken or can be taken within the state within the next ten (10) days, the clerk shall admit the will to probate on the sworn or affirmed written statement of such witness that he has examined the original or a photostatic copy of the will, that he recognizes it as the will of the decedent witnessed by him on the date stated, that the will was executed in all particulars as required by law and that the testator was of sound mind at the time;

"(c) if none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the county and are capable of testifying at the time of the application for informal probate and the execution of the will cannot be proved under either of the foregoing subdivisions, the clerk may accept the sworn or affirmed statement or affidavit of any person having knowledge of the circumstances of the execution, and may accept proof of the handwriting of the testator and of the subscribing witnesses or any of them."

91A-3-304. Informal probate unavailable in certain cases. Applications for informal probate which relate to one (1) or more of a known series of testamentary instruments (other than wills and codicils), the latest of which does not expressly revoke the earlier, shall be declined.

History: En. 91A-3-304 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The [clerk] handles the informal proceeding, but is required to decline applications in certain cases where circumstances suggest that formal probate would provide desirable safeguards.

91A-3-305. Informal probate—clerk not satisfied. If the clerk is not satisfied that a will is entitled to be probated in informal proceedings because of failure to meet the requirements of sections 91A-3-303 and 91A-3-304 or any other reason, he may decline the application. A declination of informal probate is not an adjudication and does not preclude formal probate proceedings.

History: En. 91A-3-305 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of this section is to recognize that the [clerk] should have some authority to deny probate to an instrument even though all stated statutory requirements may be said to have been met. Denial of an application for informal probate cannot be appealed. Rather, the proponent may initiate a formal proceeding so that the matter may be brought before the judge in the normal way for contested matters.

91A-3-306. Informal probate—notice requirements. The moving party must give notice as described by section 91A-1-401 of his application for informal probate (1) to any person demanding it pursuant to section 91A-3-204; and

(2) to any personal representative of the decedent whose appointment has not been terminated.

No other notice of informal probate is required.

History: En. 91A-3-306 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This provision assumes that there will be a single office within each county or other area of jurisdiction of the probate court which can be checked for demands for notice relating to estates in that area. If there are or may be several registrars within a given area, provision would need to be made so that information concerning demands for notice might be obtained from the chief registrar's place of business.

91A-3-307. Informal appointment proceedings—delay in order—duty of clerk—effect of appointment. (1) Upon receipt of an application for informal appointment of a personal representative other than a special administrator as provided in section 91A-3-614, if at least one hundred twenty (120) hours have elapsed since the decedent's death, the clerk, after making the findings required by section 91A-3-308, shall appoint the applicant subject to qualification and acceptance; provided, that if the decedent was a nonresident, the clerk shall delay the order of appointment until thirty (30) days have elapsed since death unless the personal representative appointed at the decedent's domicile is the applicant, or unless the decedent's will directs that his estate be subject to the laws of this state.

(2) The status of personal representative and the powers and duties pertaining to the office are fully established by informal appointment.

An appointment, and the office of personal representative created thereby, is subject to termination as provided in sections 91A-3-608 through 91A-3-612, but is not subject to retroactive vacation.

History: En. 91A-3-307 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-3-703] describes the duty of a personal representative and the protection available to one who acts under letters issued in informal proceedings. The provision requiring a delay of thirty days from death before appointment of a personal representative for a nonresident decedent is new. It is designed to permit the first appointment to be at the decedent's domicile. See section [91A-3-203].

91A-3-308. Informal appointment proceedings—proof and findings required. (1) In informal appointment proceedings, the clerk must determine whether:

- (a) the application for informal appointment of a personal representative is complete;
- (b) the applicant has made oath or affirmation that the statements contained in the application are true to the best of his knowledge and belief;
- (c) the applicant appears from the application to be an interested person as defined in section 91A-1-201(21);
- (d) on the basis of the statements in the application, venue is proper;
- (e) any will to which the requested appointment relates has been formally or informally probated; but this requirement does not apply to the appointment of a special administrator;
- (f) any notice required by section 91A-3-204 has been given;
- (g) from the statements in the application, the person whose appointment is sought has priority entitling him to the appointment.

(2) Unless section 91A-3-612 controls, the application must be denied if it indicates that a personal representative who has not filed a written statement of resignation as provided in section 91A-3-610(3) has been appointed in this or another county of this state, that (unless the applicant is the domiciliary personal representative or his nominee) the decedent was not domiciled in this state and that a personal representative whose appointment has not been terminated has been appointed by a court in the state of domicile, or that other requirements of this section have not been met.

History: En. 91A-3-308 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Sections [91A-3-614 and 91A-3-615] make it clear that a special administrator may be appointed to conserve the estate during any period of delay in probate of a will. Even though the will has not been approved, section [91A-3-614] gives priority for appointment as special administrator to the person nominated by the will which has been offered for probate. Section [91A-3-203] governs priorities for appointment. Under it, one or more of the same class may receive priority through agreement of the others.

The last sentence of the section is designed to prevent informal appointment of a personal representative in this state when a personal representative has been previously appointed at the decedent's domicile. Sections [91A-4-204 and 91A-4-205] may make local appointment unnecessary. Appointment in formal proceedings is possible, however.

91A-3-309. Informal appointment proceedings—clerk not satisfied. If the clerk is not satisfied that a requested informal appointment of a personal representative should be made because of failure to meet the requirements of sections 91A-3-307 and 91A-3-308, or for any other reason, he may decline the application. A declination of informal appointment is not an adjudication and does not preclude appointment in formal proceedings.

History: En. 91A-3-309 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Authority to decline an application for appointment is conferred on the [clerk].

Appointment of a personal representative confers broad powers over the assets of a decedent's estate. The process of declining a requested appointment for unclassified reasons should be one which a [clerk] can use quickly and informally.

91A-3-310. Informal appointment proceedings—notice requirements.

The moving party must give notice as described by section 91A-1-401 of his intention to seek an appointment informally: (1) to any person demanding it pursuant to section 91A-3-204; and

(2) to any person having a prior or equal right to appointment not waived in writing and filed with the court. No other notice of an informal appointment proceeding is required.

History: En. 91A-3-310 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-311. Informal appointment proceedings—unavailable in certain cases. If an application for informal appointment indicates the existence of a possible unrevoked testamentary instrument which may relate to property subject to the laws of this state, and which is not filed for probate in this court, the clerk shall decline the application.

- 91A-3-414. Formal proceedings regarding appointment of personal representative.

91A-3-401. Formal testacy proceedings—nature—when commenced.

A formal testacy proceeding is litigation to determine whether a decedent left a valid will. A formal testacy proceeding may be commenced by an interested person filing a petition as described in section 91A-3-402(1) in which he requests that the court, after notice and hearing, enter an order probating a will, or a petition to set aside an informal probate of a will or to prevent informal probate of a will which is the subject of a pending application, or a petition for an order that the decedent died intestate.

A petition may seek formal probate of a will without regard to whether the same or a conflicting will has been informally probated. A formal testacy proceeding may, but need not, involve a request for appointment of a personal representative.

During the pendency of a formal testacy proceeding, the clerk shall not act upon any application for informal probate of any will of the decedent or any application for informal appointment of a personal representative of the decedent.

Unless a petition in a formal testacy proceeding also requests confirmation of the previous informal appointment, a previously appointed personal representative, after receipt of notice of the commencement of a formal probate proceeding, must refrain from exercising his power to make any further distribution of the estate during the pendency of the formal proceeding. A petitioner who seeks the appointment of a different personal representative in a formal proceeding also may request an order restraining the acting personal representative from exercising any of the powers of his office and requesting the appointment of a special administrator. In the absence of a request, or if the request is denied, the commencement of a formal proceeding has no effect on the powers and duties of a previously appointed personal representative other than those relating to distribution.

History: En. 91A-3-401 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The word "testacy" is used to refer to the general status of a decedent in regard to wills. Thus, it embraces the possibility that he left no will, any question of which of several instruments is his valid will, and the possibility that he died intestate as to a part of his estate, and testate as to the balance. See section [91A-1-201(44)].

The formal proceedings described by this section may be: (i) an original proceeding to secure "solemn form" probate of a will; (ii) a proceeding to secure "solemn form" probate to corroborate a previous informal probate; (iii) a proceeding to block a pending application for informal probate, or to prevent an informal application from occurring thereafter; (iv) a proceeding to contradict a previous order of informal probate; (v) a proceeding to secure a declaratory judgment of intestacy and a determination of heirs in a case where no will has been offered. If a pending informal application for probate is blocked by a formal proceeding, the applicant may withdraw his application and avoid the obligation of going forward with prima facie proof of due execution. See section [91A-3-407]. The petitioner in the formal proceedings may be content to let matters stop there, or he can frame his petition, or amend, so that he may secure an adjudication of intestacy which would prevent further activity concerning the will.

If a personal representative has been appointed prior to the commencement of a formal testacy proceeding, the petitioner must request confirmation of the appointment to indicate that he does not want the testacy proceeding to have any effect on the duties of the personal representative, or refrain from seeking confirmation, in which case, the proceeding suspends the distributive power of the previously appointed representative. If nothing else is requested or decided in respect to the personal representative, his distributive powers are restored at the completion of the proceeding, with section [91A-3-703] directing him to abide by the will. "Distribute" and "distribution" do not include payment of claims. See [sections 91A-1-201(11), 91A-3-807 and 91A-3-902].

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Hearing Required

Issues of fact affecting the validity of a will are to be tried; where proponent of will submitted affidavit that no hearing had been held, and the record contained no minute entry indicating that a hearing had been held, the appeals court would not indulge in the presumption that proceedings had been held. In re Craddock's Estate, — M —, 530 P 2d 483.

Second Hearing

Proponent of holographic will was entitled to full hearing before substituted judge, after original petition for probate of will had been heard by judge who was subsequently disqualified and no rulings had been made on the merits and no transcript of the first hearing had been prepared. In re Craddock's Estate, — M —, 530 P 2d 483.

91A-3-402. Formal testacy or appointment proceedings—petition—contents. (1) Petitions for formal probate of a will, or for adjudication of intestacy with or without request for appointment of a personal representative, must be directed to the court, request a judicial order after notice and hearing and contain further statements as indicated in this section. A petition for formal probate of a will

(a) requests an order as to the testacy of the decedent in relation to a particular instrument which may or may not have been informally probated and determining the heirs,

(b) contains the statements required for informal applications as stated in the five (5) subparagraphs under section 91A-3-301(1), the statements required by subparagraphs (b) and (c) of section 91A-3-301(2), and

(c) states whether the original of the last will of the decedent is in the possession of the court or accompanies the petition.

If the original will is neither in the possession of the court nor accompanies the petition and no authenticated copy of a will probated in another jurisdiction accompanies the petition, the petition also must state the contents of the will, and indicate that it is lost, destroyed, or otherwise unavailable.

(2) A petition for adjudication of intestacy and appointment of an administrator in intestacy must request a judicial finding and order that the decedent left no will and determining the heirs, contain the statements required by (1) and (4) of section 91A-3-301 and indicate whether supervised administration is sought. A petition may request an order determining intestacy and heirs without requesting the appointment of an administrator, in which case, the statements required by subparagraph (b) of section 91A-3-301(4) above may be omitted.

History: En. 91A-3-402 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

If a petitioner seeks an adjudication that a decedent died intestate, he is required also to obtain a finding of heirship. A formal proceeding which is to be effective on all interested persons must follow reasonable notice to such persons. It seems desirable to force the proceedings through a formal determination of heirship because the finding will bolster the order, as well as preclude later questions that might arise at the time of distribution.

Unless an order of supervised administration is sought, there will be little occasion for a formal order concerning appointment of a personal representative which does not also adjudicate the testacy status of the decedent. If a formal order of appointment is sought because of disagreement over who should serve, section [91A-3-414] describes the appropriate procedure.

The words "otherwise unavailable" in [the last paragraph of subsection (1)] are not intended to be read restrictively.

Section [91A-1-309] expresses the verification requirement which applies to all documents filed with the courts.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Lost Will

Those seeking to introduce a lost will had burden of proof that will was actually in existence or in existence in contemplation of law at time of decedent's death; if will was last seen in custody of deceased, petitioners were required to present clear, satisfactory and convincing evidence to overcome the rebuttable presumption that deceased destroyed the will. In re Estate of Neuman, — M —, 518 P 2d 800.

91A-3-403. Formal testacy proceeding; notice of hearing on petition.

(1) Upon commencement of a formal testacy proceeding, the court or clerk shall fix a time and place of hearing. Notice shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 91A-1-401 by the petitioner to the persons herein enumerated and to any additional person who has filed a demand for notice under section 91A-3-204 of this code.

Notice shall be given to the following persons: the surviving spouse, children, and other heirs of the decedent, the devisees and executors named in any will that is being, or has been, probated, or offered for informal or formal probate in the county, or that is known by the petitioner to have been probated, or offered for informal or formal probate elsewhere, and any personal representative of the decedent whose appointment has not been terminated. Notice may be given to other persons. In addition, the petitioner shall give notice by publication to all unknown persons and to all known persons whose addresses are unknown who have any interest in the matters being litigated.

(2) If it appears by the petition or otherwise that the fact of the death of the alleged decedent may be in doubt, or on the written demand of any interested person, a copy of the notice of the hearing on said petition shall be sent by registered mail to the alleged decedent at his last known address. The court shall direct the petitioner to report the results of, or make and report back concerning, a reasonably diligent search for the alleged decedent in any manner that may seem advisable, including any or all of the following methods:

(a) by inserting in one (1) or more suitable periodicals a notice requesting information from any person having knowledge of the whereabouts of the alleged decedent;

(b) by notifying law enforcement officials and public welfare agencies in appropriate locations of the disappearance of the alleged decedent;

(c) by engaging the services of an investigator. The costs of any search so directed shall be paid by the petitioner if there is no administration or by the estate of the decedent in case there is administration.

History: En. 91A-3-403 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 516, L. 1975.

Editorial Board Comment

Provisions governing the time and manner of notice required by this section and other sections in the code are contained in [91A-1-401].

The provisions concerning search for the alleged decedent are derived from Model Probate Code, Section 71.

Testacy proceedings involve adjudications that no will exists. Unknown wills as well as any which are brought to the attention of the court are affected. Persons with potential interests under unknown wills have the notice afforded by death and by publication. Notice requirements extend also to persons named in a will that is known to the petitioners to exist, irrespective of whether it has been probated or offered for formal or informal probate, if their position may be affected adversely by granting of the petition. But, a rigid statutory requirement relating to such persons might cause undue difficulty. Hence, the statute merely provides that the petitioner may notify other persons.

It would not be inconsistent with this section for the court to adopt rules designed to make petitioners exercise reasonable diligence in searching for as yet undiscovered wills.

Section [91A-3-106] provides that an order is valid as to those given notice, though less than all interested persons were given notice. Section [91A-3-1001 (2)] provides a means of extending a testacy order to previously unnotified persons in connection with a formal closing.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted "or clerk" in the first sentence of subsection (1).

91A-3-404. Formal testacy proceedings—written objections to probate. Any party to a formal proceeding who opposes the probate of a will for any reason shall state in his pleadings his objections to probate of the will.

History: En. 91A-3-404 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Model Probate Code section 72 requires a contestant to file written objections to any will he would oppose. The provision prevents potential confusion as to who must file what pleading that can arise from the notion that the probate of a will is in rem. The petition for probate of a revoking will is sufficient warning to proponents of the revoked will.

91A-3-405. Formal testacy proceedings—uncontested cases—hearings and proof. If a petition in a testacy proceeding is unopposed, the court may order probate or intestacy on the strength of the pleadings if satisfied that the conditions of section 91A-3-409 have been met, or conduct a hearing in open court and require proof of the matters necessary to support the order sought. If evidence concerning execution of the will is necessary, the affidavit or testimony of one (1) of any attesting witnesses to the instrument is sufficient. If the affidavit or testimony of an attesting witness is not available, execution of the will may be proved by other evidence or affidavit.

History: En. 91A-3-405 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

For various reasons, attorneys handling estates may want interested persons to be gathered for a hearing before the court on the formal allowance of the will. The court is not required to conduct a hearing, however.

If no hearing is required, uncontested formal probates can be completed on the strength of the pleadings. There is no good reason for summoning attestors when no interested person wants to force the production of evidence on a formal probate. Moreover, there seems to be no valid distinction between litigation to establish a will, and other civil litigation, in respect to whether the court may enter judgment on the pleadings.

91A-3-406. Formal testacy proceedings—contested cases—testimony of attesting witnesses. (1) If evidence concerning execution of an attested will which is not self-proved is necessary in contested cases, the testimony of at least one (1) of the attesting witnesses, if within the state competent and able to testify, is required. Due execution of an attested or unattested will may be proved by other evidence.

(2) If the will is self-proved, compliance with signature requirements for execution is conclusively presumed and other requirements of execution are presumed subject to rebuttal without the testimony of any witness upon filing the will and the acknowledgment and affidavits annexed or attached thereto, unless there is proof of fraud or forgery affecting the acknowledgment or affidavit.

History: En. 91A-3-406 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Model Probate Code section 76, combined with section 77, substantially unchanged. The self-proved will is described in [Chapter 2]. See section [91A-2-504]. The "conclusive presumption" described here would foreclose questions such as whether the witnesses signed in the presence of the testator. It would not preclude proof of undue influence, lack of testamentary capacity, revocation or any relevant proof that the testator was unaware of the contents of the document. The balance of the section is derived from Model Probate Code sections 76 and 77.

91A-3-407. Formal testacy proceedings—burdens in contested cases.

In contested cases, petitioners who seek to establish intestacy have the burden of establishing prima facie proof of death, venue, and heirship. Proponents of a will have the burden of establishing prima facie proof of due execution in all cases, and, if they are also petitioners, prima facie proof of death and venue. Contestants of a will have the burden of establishing lack of testamentary intent or capacity, undue influence, fraud, duress, mistake or revocation. Parties have the ultimate burden of persuasion as to matters with respect to which they have the initial burden of proof. If a will is opposed by the petition for probate of a later will revoking the former, it shall be determined first whether the later will is entitled to probate, and if a will is opposed by a petition for a declaration of intestacy, it shall be determined first whether the will is entitled to probate.

This section is designed to clarify the law by stating what is believed to be a fairly standard approach to questions concerning burdens of going forward with evidence in will contest cases.

Undue Influence—Burden of Proof

Contestant had burden of showing undue influence. In re Maricich's Estate, 145 M 146, 400 P 2d 873.

Undue Influence—Evidence

Substantial evidence of undue influence was shown where beneficiary under a second will was never close to the testator until learning of his bank account, and importuned upon testator while he was in a weakened condition, so that testator rejected his friends. Directed verdict upholding contested will was improper where there was evidence that testator was in a long period of declining physical and mental health due to terminal cancer and sedation, was influenced by a mutual fund salesman, and executed four wills within a six-month period, all of them disinheriting his natural children, making dispositions at great variance with previous wills, and tending to erode the estate. Hospital records of testator's terminal illness, during which he executed contested will, were relevant on issue of testamentary capacity and should have been admitted in will contest. Estate of Hall v. Milkovich, 158 M 438, 492 P 2d 1388.

Evidence that testator devised bulk of his estate to charitable institution and that public administratrix who had drafted will was named as executor of estate and that her fee was set at a higher figure by statute than that which a relative or other ordinary person would receive as executor was insufficient to set aside directed verdict allowing probate of will because evidence did not disclose that undue influence was actually exercised and that such influence resulted in testamentary provisions which were not those of the testator's will but those of the parties exercising such influence. Wallin v. Kinyon Estate, — M —, 519 P 2d 1236.

Undue Influence—What Constitutes

In considering undue influence, court could take into account confidential relationship of person attempting to influence testator, testator's physical and mental condition as it affected his ability to withstand influence, the unnaturalness of the disposition, and the demands made upon the testator in light of the circumstances. In re Maricich's Estate, 145 M 146, 400 P 2d 873.

91A-3-408. Formal testacy proceedings—will construction—effect of final order in another jurisdiction. A final order of a court of another state determining testacy, the validity or construction of a will, made in a proceeding involving notice to and an opportunity for contest by all interested persons must be accepted as determinative by the courts of this state if it includes, or is based upon, a finding that the decedent was domiciled at his death in the state where the order was made.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is designed to extend the effect of final orders of another jurisdiction of the United States. It should not be read to restrict the obligation of the local court to respect the judgment of another court when parties who were personally before the other court also are personally before the local court. An "authenticated copy" includes copies properly certified under the full faith and credit statute. If conflicting claims of domicile are made in proceedings which are commenced in different jurisdictions, section [91A-3-202] applies. This section is framed to apply where a formal proceeding elsewhere has been previously concluded. Hence, if a local proceeding is concluded before formal proceedings at domicile are concluded, local law will control.

Informal proceedings by which a will is probated or a personal representative is appointed are not proceedings which must be respected by a local court under either section [91A-3-202] or this section.

Nothing in this section bears on questions of what assets are included in a decedent's estate.

This section adds nothing to existing law as applied to cases where the parties before the local court were also personally before the foreign court, or where the property involved was subject to the power of the foreign court. It extends present law so that, for some purposes, the law of another state may become binding in regard to due execution or revocation of wills controlling local land, and to questions concerning the meaning of ambiguous words in wills involving local land. But, choice of law rules frequently produce a similar result. See § 240 Restatement of the Law, Second: Conflict of Laws, p. 73, Proposed Official Draft III, 1969.

This section may be easier to justify than familiar choice of law rules, for its application is limited to instances where the protesting party has had notice of, and an opportunity to participate in, previous litigation resolving the question he now seeks to raise.

91A-3-409. Formal testacy proceedings — order — foreign will. After the time required for any notice has expired, upon proof of notice, and after any hearing that may be necessary, if the court finds that the testator is dead, venue is proper and that the proceeding was commenced within the limitation prescribed by section 91A-3-108, it shall determine the decedent's domicile at death, his heirs and his state of testacy. Any will found to be valid and unrevoked shall be formally probated. Termination of any previous informal appointment of a personal representative, which may be appropriate in view of the relief requested and findings, is governed by section 91A-3-612. The petition shall be dismissed or appropriate amendment allowed if the court is not satisfied that the alleged decedent is dead. A will from a place which does not provide for probate of a will after death, may be proved for probate in this state by a duly authenticated certificate of its legal custodian that the copy introduced is a true copy and that the will has become effective under the law of the other place.

Model Probate Code section 80(a), slightly changed. If the court is not satisfied that the alleged decedent is dead, it may permit amendment of the proceeding so that it would become a proceeding to protect the estate of a missing and therefore "disabled" person. See [Chapter 5] of this code.

91A-3-410. Formal testacy proceedings—probate of more than one instrument. If two (2) or more instruments are offered for probate before a final order is entered in a formal testacy proceeding, more than one (1) instrument may be probated if neither expressly revokes the other or contains provisions which work a total revocation by implication. If more than one (1) instrument is probated, the order shall indicate what provisions control in respect to the nomination of an executor, if any. The order may, but need not, indicate how any provisions of a particular instrument are affected by the other instrument. After a final order in a testacy proceeding has been entered, no petition for probate of any other instrument of the decedent may be entertained, except incident to a petition to vacate or modify a previous probate order and subject to the time limits of section 91A-3-412.

History: En. 91A-3-410 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Except as otherwise provided in section [91A-3-412], an order in a formal testacy proceeding serves to end the time within which it is possible to probate after-discovered wills, or to give effect to late-discovered facts concerning heirship. Determination of heirs is not barred by the three-year limitation but a judicial determination of heirs is conclusive unless the order may be vacated.

This section authorizes a court to engage in some construction of wills incident to determining whether a will is entitled to probate. It seems desirable to leave the extent of this power to the sound discretion of the court. If wills are not construed in connection with a judicial probate, they may be subject to construction at any time. See section [91A-3-108].

91A-3-411. Formal testacy proceedings — partial intestacy. If it becomes evident in the course of a formal testacy proceeding that, though one (1) or more instruments are entitled to be probated, the decedent's estate is or may be partially intestate, the court shall enter an order to that effect.

History: En. 91A-3-411 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-412. Formal testacy proceedings—effect of order—vacation. Subject to appeal and subject to vacation as provided herein and in section 91A-3-413, a formal testacy order under sections 91A-3-409 through 91A-3-411, including an order that the decedent left no valid will and determining heirs, is final as to all persons with respect to all issues concerning the decedent's estate that the court considered or might have considered incident to its rendition relevant to the question of whether the decedent left a valid will, and to the determination of heirs, except that:

(1) the court shall entertain a petition for modification or vacation of its order and probate of another will of the decedent if it is shown that the proponents of the later-offered will were unaware of its existence at the time of the earlier proceeding or were unaware of the earlier proceeding and were given no notice thereof, except by publication.

(2) If intestacy of all or part of the estate has been ordered, the determination of heirs of the decedent may be reconsidered if it is shown that one (1) or more persons were omitted from the determination and it is also shown that the persons were unaware of their relationship to the decedent, were unaware of his death or were given no notice of any proceeding concerning his estate, except by publication.

(3) A petition for vacation under either (1) or (2) above must be filed prior to the earlier of the following time limits:

(a) If a personal representative has been appointed for the estate, the time of entry of any order approving final distribution of the estate, or, if the estate is closed by statement, six (6) months after the filing of the closing statement.

(b) Whether or not a personal representative has been appointed for the estate of the decedent, the time prescribed by section 91A-3-108 when it is no longer possible to initiate an original proceeding to probate a will of the decedent.

(c) Twelve (12) months after the entry of the order sought to be vacated.

(4) The order originally rendered in the testacy proceeding may be modified or vacated, if appropriate under the circumstances, by the order of probate of the later-offered will or the order redetermining heirs.

(5) The finding of the fact of death is conclusive as to the alleged decedent only if notice of the hearing on the petition in the formal testacy proceeding was sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the alleged decedent at his last known address and the court finds that a search under section 91A-3-403(2) was made.

If the alleged decedent is not dead, even if notice was sent and search was made, he may recover estate assets in the hands of the personal representative. In addition to any remedies available to the alleged decedent by reason of any fraud or intentional wrongdoing, the alleged decedent may recover any estate or its proceeds from distributees that is in their hands, or the value of distributions received by them, to the extent that any recovery from distributees is equitable in view of all of the circumstances.

History: En. 91A-3-412 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The provisions barring proof of late-discovered wills is derived in part from section 81 of Model Probate Code. The same section is the source of the provisions of (5) above. The provisions permitting vacation of an order determining heirs on certain conditions reflect the effort to offer parallel possibilities for adjudications in testate and intestate estates. See section [91A-3-401]. An objective is to make it possible to handle an intestate estate exactly as a testate estate may be handled. If this is achieved, some of the pressure on persons to make wills may be relieved.

If an alleged decedent turns out to have been alive, heirs and distributees are liable to restore the "estate or its proceeds." If neither can be identified through the normal process of tracing assets, their liability depends upon the circumstances. The liability of distributees to claimants whose claims have not been barred, or to persons shown to be entitled to distribution when a formal proceeding changes a previous assumption informally established which guided an earlier distribution, is different. See sections [91A-3-909 and [91A-3-1005].

91A-3-413. Formal testacy proceedings—vacation of order for other cause. For good cause shown, an order in a formal testacy proceeding may be modified or vacated within the time allowed for appeal.

91A-3-414. Formal proceedings regarding appointment of personal representative. (1) A formal proceeding for adjudication regarding the priority or qualification of one who is an applicant for appointment as personal representative, or of one who previously has been appointed personal representative in informal proceedings, if an issue concerning the testacy of the decedent is or may be involved, is governed by section 91A-3-402, as well as by this section. In other cases, the petition shall contain or adopt the statements required by section 91A-3-301(1) and describe the question relating to priority or qualification of the personal representative which is to be resolved. If the proceeding precedes any appointment of a personal representative, it shall stay any pending informal appointment proceedings as well as any commenced thereafter. If the proceeding is commenced after appointment, the previously appointed personal representative, after receipt of notice thereof, shall refrain from exercising any power of administration except as necessary to preserve the estate or unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) After notice to interested persons, including all persons interested in the administration of the estate as successors under the applicable assumption concerning testacy, any previously appointed personal representative and any person having or claiming priority for appointment as personal representative, the court shall determine who is entitled to appointment under section 91A-3-203, make a proper appointment and, if appropriate, terminate any prior appointment found to have been improper as provided in cases of removal under section 91A-3-611.

Editorial Board Comment

A petition raising a controversy concerning the priority or qualifications of a personal representative may be combined with a petition in a formal testacy proceeding. However, it is not necessary to petition formally for the appointment of a personal representative as a part of a formal testacy proceeding. A personal representative may be appointed on informal application either before or after formal proceedings which establish whether the decedent died testate or intestate or no appointment may be desired. See sections [91A-3-107, 91A-3-301(3), (4) and 91A-3-307]. Furthermore, procedures for securing the appointment of a new personal representative after a previous assumption as to testacy has been changed are provided by section [91A-3-612]. These may be informal, or related to pending formal proceedings concerning testacy. A formal order relating to appointment may be desired when there is a dispute concerning priority or qualification to serve but no dispute concerning testacy. It is important to distinguish formal proceedings concerning appointment from "supervised administration." The former includes any proceeding after notice involving a request for an appointment. The latter originates in a "formal proceeding" and may be requested in addition to a ruling concerning testacy or priority or qualifications of a personal representative, but is descriptive of a special proceeding with a different scope and purpose than those concerned merely with establishing the bases for an administration. In other words, a personal representative appointed in a "formal" proceeding may or may not be "supervised."

Another point should be noted. The court may not immediately issue letters even though a formal proceeding seeking appointment is involved and results in an order authorizing appointment. Rather, sections [91A-3-601] et seq. control the subject of qualification. Section [91A-1-305] deals with letters.

Part 5—Supervised Administration

Section

- 91A-3-501. Supervised administration—nature of proceeding.
- 91A-3-502. Supervised administration—petition—order.
- 91A-3-503. Supervised administration—effect on other proceedings.
- 91A-3-504. Supervised administration—powers of personal administration.
- 91A-3-505. Supervised administration—interim orders—distribution and closing orders.

91A-3-501. Supervised administration—nature of proceeding. Supervised administration is a single in rem proceeding to secure complete administration and settlement of a decedent's estate under the continuing authority of the court which extends until entry of an order approving distribution of the estate and discharging the personal representative or other order terminating the proceeding. A supervised personal representative is responsible to the court, as well as to the interested parties, and is subject to directions concerning the estate made by the court on its own motion or on the motion of any interested party. Except as otherwise provided in sections 91A-3-501 through 91A-3-505, or as otherwise ordered by the court, a supervised personal representative has the same duties and powers as a personal representative who is not supervised.

Editorial Board Comment

This and the following sections of this part describe an optional procedure for settling an estate in one continuous proceeding in the court. The proceeding is characterized as "in rem" to align it with the concepts described by the Model Probate Code. See Section 62, M.P.C. In cases where supervised administration is not requested or ordered, no compulsion other than self-interest exists to compel use of a formal testacy proceeding to secure an adjudication of a will or no will, because informal probate or appointment of an administrator in intestacy may be used. Similarly, unless administration is supervised, there is no compulsion other than self-interest to use a formal closing proceeding. Thus, even though an estate administration may be begun by use of a formal testacy proceeding which may involve an order concerning who is to be appointed personal representative, the proceeding is over when the order concerning testacy and appointment is entered. See section [91A-3-107]. Supervised administration, therefore, is appropriate when an interested person desires assurance that the essential steps regarding opening and closing of an estate will be adjudicated. See the Comment following the next section.

91A-3-502. Supervised administration—petition—order. A petition for supervised administration may be filed by any interested person or by a personal representative at any time or the prayer for supervised administration may be joined with a petition in a testacy or appointment proceeding. If the testacy of the decedent and the priority and qualification of any personal representative have not been adjudicated previously, the petition for supervised administration shall include the matters required of a petition in a formal testacy proceeding and the notice requirements and procedures applicable to a formal testacy proceeding apply. If not previously adjudicated, the court shall adjudicate the testacy of the decedent and questions relating to the priority and qualifications of the personal representative in any case involving a request for supervised administration, even though the request for supervised administration may be denied. After notice to interested persons, the court shall order supervised administration of a decedent's estate:

(1) if the decedent's will directs supervised administration, it shall be ordered unless the court finds that circumstances bearing on the need for supervised administration have changed since the execution of the will and that there is no necessity for supervised administration;

(2) if the decedent's will directs unsupervised administration, supervised administration shall be ordered only upon a finding that it is necessary for protection of persons interested in the estate; or

(3) in other cases if the court finds that supervised administration is necessary under the circumstances.

History: En. 91A-3-502 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The expressed wishes of a testator regarding supervised administration should bear upon, but not control, the question of whether supervised administration will be ordered. This section is designed to achieve a fair balance between the wishes of the decedent, and the interests of successors in regard to supervised administration.

Since supervised administration normally will result in an adjudicated distribution of the estate, the issue of will or no will must be adjudicated. This section achieves this by forcing a petition for supervised administration to include matters necessary to put the issue of testacy before the court. It is possible, however, that supervised administration will be requested because administrative complexities warranting it develop after the issue of will or no will has been resolved in a previously concluded formal testacy proceeding.

It should be noted that supervised administration, though it compels a judicial settlement of an estate, is not the only route to obtaining judicial review and settlement at the close of an administration. The procedures described in sections [91A-3-1101 and 91A-3-1102] are available for use by or against personal representatives who are not supervised. Also efficient remedies for breach of duty by a personal representative who is not supervised are available under Part 6 of this [chapter]. Finally, each personal representative consents to jurisdiction of the court as invoked by mailed notice of any proceeding relating to the estate which may be initiated by an interested person. Also, persons interested in the estate may be subjected to orders of the court following mailed notices made in proceedings initiated by the personal representative. In combination, these possibilities mean that supervised administration will be valuable principally to persons who see some advantage in a single judicial proceeding which will produce adjudications on all major points involved in an estate settlement.

91A-3-503. Supervised administration—effect on other proceedings.

(1) The pendency of a proceeding for supervised administration of a decedent's estate stays action on any informal application then pending or thereafter filed.

(2) If a will has been previously probated in informal proceedings, the effect of the filing of a petition for supervised administration is as provided for formal testacy proceedings by section 91A-3-401.

(3) After he has received notice of the filing of a petition for supervised administration, a personal representative who has been appointed previously shall not exercise his power to distribute any estate. The filing of the petition does not affect his other powers and duties unless the court restricts the exercise of any of them pending full hearing on the petition.

History: En. 91A-3-503 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The duties and powers of a personal representative are described in Part 7 of this [chapter]. The ability of a personal representative to create a good title in a purchaser of estate assets is not hampered by the fact that the personal representative may breach a duty created by statute, court order or other circumstances in making the sale. See section [91A-3-713]. However, formal proceedings against a personal representative may involve requests for qualification of the power normally possessed by personal representatives which, if granted, would subject the personal representative to the penalties for contempt of court if he disregarded the restriction. See section [91A-3-607]. If a proceeding also involved a demand that particular real estate be kept in the estate pending determination of a petitioner's claim thereto, notice of the pendency of the proceeding could be recorded as is usual under the jurisdiction's system for the lis pendens concept.

The word "restricts" in the last sentence is intended to negate the idea that a judicial order specially qualifying the powers and duties of a personal representative is a restraining order in the usual sense. The section means simply that some supervised personal representatives may receive the same powers and duties as ordinary personal representatives, except that they must obtain a court order before paying claimants or distributing, while others may receive a more restricted set of powers. Section [91A-3-607] governs petitions which seek to limit the power of a personal representative.

91A-3-504. Supervised administration—powers of personal administration. Unless restricted by the court, a supervised personal representative has, without interim orders approving exercise of a power, all powers of personal representatives under this code, but he shall not exercise his power to make any distribution of the estate without prior order of the court. Any other restriction on the power of a personal representative which may be ordered by the court must be endorsed on his letters of appointment and, unless so endorsed, is ineffective as to persons dealing in good faith with the personal representative.

History: En. 91A-3-504 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section provides authority to issue letters showing restrictions of power of supervised administrators. In general, persons dealing with personal representatives are not bound to inquire concerning the authority of a personal representative, and are not affected by provisions in a will or judicial order unless they know of it. But, it is expected that persons dealing with personal representatives will want to see the personal representative's letters, and this section has the practical effect of requiring them to do so. No provision is made for noting restrictions in letters except in the case of supervised representatives. See section [91A-3-713].

91A-3-505. Supervised administration—interim orders—distribution and closing orders. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, supervised administration is terminated by order in accordance with time restrictions, notices and contents of orders prescribed for proceedings under section 91A-3-1001. Interim orders approving or directing partial distributions or granting other relief may be issued by the court at any time during the pendency of a supervised administration on the application of the personal representative or any interested person.

History: En. 91A-3-505 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Since supervised administration is a single proceeding, the notice requirement contained in [section 91A-3-106] relates to the notice of institution of the proceedings which is described with particularity by section [91A-3-502]. The above section makes it clear that an additional notice is required for a closing order. It was discussed whether provision for notice of interim orders should be included. It was decided to leave the point to be covered by court order or rule. There was a suggestion for a rule as follows: "Unless otherwise required by order, notice of interim orders in supervised administration need be given only to interested persons who request notice of all orders entered in the proceeding." [Section 91A-1-402] permits any person to waive notice by a writing filed in the proceeding.

A demand for notice under section [91A-3-204] would entitle any interested person to notice of any interim order which might be made in the course of supervised administration.

Editorial Board Comment

This and related sections of this part describe details and conditions of appointment which apply to all personal representatives without regard to whether the appointment proceeding involved is formal or informal, or whether the personal representative is supervised. Section [91A-1-305] authorizes issuance of copies of letters and prescribes their content. The section should be read with section [91A-3-504] which directs endorsement on letters of any restrictions of power of a supervised administrator.

91A-3-602. Acceptance of appointment—consent to jurisdiction. By accepting appointment, a personal representative submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the estate that may be instituted by any interested person. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the personal representative, or mailed to him by ordinary first class mail at his address as listed in the application or petition for appointment or as thereafter reported to the court and to his address as then known to the petitioner.

Editorial Board Comment

Except for personal representatives appointed pursuant to section [91A-3-502], appointees are not deemed to be "officers" of the appointing court or to be parties in one continuous judicial proceeding that extends until final settlement. See section [91A-3-107]. Yet, it is desirable to continue present patterns which prevent a personal representative who might make himself unavailable to service within the state from affecting the power of the appointing court to enter valid orders affecting him. See Michigan Trust Co. v. Ferry (1912) 228 U.S. 346, 57 L.Ed. 867, 33 S.Ct. 550. The concept employed to accomplish this is that of requiring each appointee to consent in advance to the personal jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the estate that may be instituted against him. The section requires that he be given notice of any such proceeding, which, when considered in the light of the responsibility he has undertaken, should make the procedure sufficient to meet the requirements of due process.

91A-3-603. Bond not required without court order—exceptions. No bond is required of a personal representative appointed in informal proceedings, except (1) upon the appointment of a special administrator;

(2) when an executor or other personal representative is appointed to administer an estate under a will containing an express requirement of bond or

(3) when bond is required under section 91A-3-605.

Bond may be required by court order at the time of appointment of a personal representative appointed in any formal proceeding except that bond is not required of a personal representative appointed in formal proceedings if the will relieves the personal representative of bond, unless bond has been requested by an interested party and the court is satisfied that it is desirable. Bond required by any will may be dispensed with in formal proceedings upon determination by the court that it is not necessary. No bond is required of any personal representative who, pursuant to statute, has deposited cash or collateral with an agency of this state to secure performance of his duties.

History: En. 91A-3-603 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section must be read with the next three sections. The purpose of these provisions is to move away from the idea that bond always should be required of a probate fiduciary, or required unless a will excuses it. Also, it is designed to keep the registrar acting pursuant to applications in informal proceedings, from passing judgment in each case on the need for bond. The point is that the court and registrar are not responsible for seeing that personal representatives perform as they are supposed to perform. Rather, performance is coerced by the remedies available to interested persons. Interested persons are protected by their ability to demand prior notice of informal proceedings (section [91A-3-204]), to contest a requested appointment by use of a formal testacy proceeding or by use of a formal proceeding seeking the appointment of another person. Section [91A-3-105] gives general authority to the court in a formal proceeding to make appropriate orders as desirable incident to estate administration. This should be sufficient to make it clear that an informal application may be blocked by a formal petition which disputes the matters stated in the petition. Furthermore, an interested person has the remedies provided in sections [91A-3-605 and 91A-3-607]. Finally, interested persons have assurance under this code that their rights in respect to the values of a decedent's estate cannot be terminated without a judicial order after notice or before the passage of three years from the decedent's death.

It is believed that the total package of protection thus afforded may represent more real protection than a blanket requirement of bond. Surely, it permits a reduction in the procedures which must occur in uncomplicated estates where interested persons are perfectly willing to trust each other and the fiduciary.

91A-3-604. Bond amount—security—procedure—reduction. If bond is required and the provisions of the will or order do not specify the amount, unless stated in his application or petition, the person qualifying shall file a statement under oath with the clerk indicating his best estimate of the value of the personal estate of the decedent and of the income expected from the personal and real estate during the next year, and he shall execute and file a bond with the clerk, or give other suitable security, in an amount not less than the estimate. The clerk shall determine that the bond is duly executed by a corporate surety, or one or more individual sureties whose performance is secured by pledge of personal property, mortgage on real property or other adequate security. The clerk may permit the amount of the bond to be reduced by the value of assets of the estate deposited with a domestic financial institution (as defined in section 91A-6-101) in a manner that prevents their unauthorized disposition. On petition of the personal representative or another interested person the court may excuse a requirement of bond, increase or reduce the amount of the bond, release sureties, or permit the substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties.

History: En. 91A-3-604 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section permits estimates of value needed to fix the amount of required bond to be filed when it becomes necessary. A consequence of this procedure is that estimates of value of estates no longer need appear in the petitions and applications which will attend every administered estate. Hence, a measure of privacy that is not possible under most existing procedures may be achieved. A co-signature arrangement might constitute adequate security within the meaning of this section.

91A-3-605. Demand for bond by interested person. Any person apparently having an interest in the estate worth in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or any creditor having a claim in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), may make a written demand that a personal representative give bond. The demand must be filed with the clerk and a copy mailed to the personal representative, if appointment and qualification have occurred. Thereupon, bond is required, but the requirement ceases if the person demanding bond ceases to be interested in the estate, or if bond is excused as provided in section 91A-3-603 or 91A-3-604. After he has received notice and until the filing of the bond or cessation of the requirement of bond, the personal representative shall refrain from exercising any powers of his office except as necessary to preserve the estate. Failure of the personal representative to meet a requirement of bond by giving suitable bond within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice is cause for his removal and appointment of a successor personal representative.

Editorial Board Comment

The demand for bond described in this section may be made in a petition or application for appointment of a personal representative, or may be made after a personal representative has been appointed. The mechanism for compelling bond is designed to function without unnecessary judicial involvement. If demand for bond is made in a formal proceeding, the judge can determine the amount of bond to be required with due consideration for all circumstances. If demand is not made in formal proceedings, methods for computing the amount of bond are provided by statute so that the demand can be complied with without resort to judicial proceedings. The information which a personal representative is required by section [91A-3-705] to give each beneficiary includes a statement concerning whether bond has been required.

91A-3-606. Terms and conditions of bond. (1) The following requirements and provisions apply to any bond required by this part:

(a) Bonds shall name the state as obligee for the benefit of the persons interested in the estate and shall be conditioned upon the faithful discharge by the fiduciary of all duties according to law.

(b) Unless otherwise provided by the terms of the approved bond, sureties are jointly and severally liable with the personal representative and with each other. The address of sureties shall be stated in the bond.

(c) By executing an approved bond of a personal representative, the surety consents to the jurisdiction of the probate court which issued letters to the primary obligor in any proceedings pertaining to the fiduciary duties of the personal representative and naming the surety as a party. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the surety or mailed to him by registered or certified mail at his address as listed with the court where the bond is filed and to his address as then known to the petitioner.

(d) On petition of a successor personal representative, any other personal representative of the same decedent, or any interested person, a proceeding in the court may be initiated against a surety for breach of the obligation of the bond of the personal representative.

(e) The bond of the personal representative is not void after the first recovery but may be proceeded against from time to time until the whole penalty is exhausted.

(2) No action or proceeding may be commenced against the surety on any matter as to which an action or proceeding against the primary obligor is barred by adjudication or limitation.

91A-3-607. Order restraining personal representative. (1) On petition of any person who appears to have an interest in the estate, the court by temporary order may restrain a personal representative from performing specified acts of administration, disbursement, or distribution, or exercise of any powers or discharge of any duties of his office, or make any other order to secure proper performance of his duty, if it appears to the court that the personal representative otherwise may take some action which would jeopardize unreasonably the interest of the applicant or of some other interested person. Persons with whom the personal representative may transact business may be made parties.

(2) The matter shall be set for hearing within ten (10) days unless the parties otherwise agree. Notice as the court directs shall be given to the personal representative and his attorney of record, if any, and to any other parties named defendant in the petition.

Editorial Board Comment

Of section [91A-3-401] which provides for a restraining order against a previously appointed personal representative incident to a formal testacy proceeding. The above section describes a remedy which is available for any cause against a previously appointed personal representative, whether appointed formally or informally.

This remedy, in combination with the safeguards relating to the process for appointment of a personal representative, permit "control" of a personal representative that is believed to be equal, if not superior to that presently available with respect to "supervised" personal representatives appointed by inferior courts. The request for a restraining order may mark the beginning of a new proceeding but the personal representative, by the consent provided in section [91A-3-602], is practically in the position of one who, on motion, may be cited to appear before a judge.

91A-3-608. Termination of appointment—general. Termination of appointment of a personal representative occurs as indicated in sections 91A-3-609 to 91A-3-612, inclusive. Termination ends the right and power pertaining to the office of personal representative as conferred by this code or any will, except that a personal representative, at any time prior to distribution or until restrained or enjoined by court order, may perform acts necessary to protect the estate and may deliver the assets to a successor representative. Termination does not discharge a personal representative from liability for transactions or omissions occurring before termination, or relieve him of the duty to preserve assets subject to his control, to account therefor and to deliver the assets. Termination does not affect the jurisdiction of the court over the personal representative, but terminates his authority to represent the estate in any pending or future proceeding.

History: En. 91A-3-608 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

"Termination," as defined by this and succeeding provisions, provides definiteness respecting when the powers of a personal representative (who may or may not be discharged by court order) terminate.

It is to be noted that this section does not relate to jurisdiction over the estate in proceedings which may have been commenced against the personal representative prior to termination. In such cases, a substitution of successor or special representative should occur if the plaintiff desires to maintain his action against the estate.

It is important to note that "termination" is not "discharge." However, an order of the court entered under [section 91A-3-1001 or 91A-3-1002] both terminates the appointment of, and discharges, a personal representative.

91A-3-609. Termination of appointment—death or disability. The death of a personal representative or the appointment of a conservator for the estate of a personal representative, terminates his appointment. Until appointment and qualification of a successor or special representative to replace the deceased or protected representative, the representative of the estate of the deceased or protected personal representative, if any, has the duty to protect the estate possessed and being administered by his decedent or ward at the time his appointment terminates, has the power to perform acts necessary for protection and shall account for and deliver the estate assets to a successor or special personal representative upon his appointment and qualification.

History: En. 91A-3-609 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-610. Termination of appointment—voluntary. (1) An appointment of a personal representative terminates as provided in section 91A-3-1003, one (1) year after the filing of a closing statement.

(2) An order closing an estate as provided in section 91A-3-1001 or 91A-3-1002 terminates an appointment of a personal representative.

(3) A personal representative may resign his position by filing a written statement of resignation with the clerk after he has given at least fifteen (15) days' written notice to the persons known to be interested in the estate. If no one applies or petitions for appointment of a successor representative within the time indicated in the notice, the filed statement of resignation is ineffective as a termination of appointment and in any event is effective only upon the appointment and qualification of a successor representative and delivery of the assets to him.

History: En. 91A-3-610 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

[Subsection (3)] above provides a procedure for resignation by a personal representative which may occur without judicial assistance.

91A-3-611. Termination of appointment by removal—cause—procedure.

(1) A person interested in the estate may petition for removal of a personal representative for cause at any time. Upon filing of the petition, the court shall fix a time and place for hearing. Notice shall be given by the petitioner to the personal representative, and to other persons as the court may order. Except as otherwise ordered as provided in section 91A-3-607, after receipt of notice of removal proceedings, the personal representative shall not act except to account, to correct maladministration or preserve the estate. If removal is ordered, the court also shall direct by order the disposition of the assets remaining in the name of, or under the control of, the personal representative being removed.

(2) Cause for removal exists when removal would be in the best interests of the estate, or if it is shown that a personal representative or the person seeking his appointment intentionally misrepresented material facts in the proceedings leading to his appointment, or that the personal representative has disregarded an order of the court, has become incapable of discharging the duties of his office, or has mismanaged the estate or failed to perform any duty pertaining to the office. Unless the decedent's will directs otherwise, a personal representative appointed at the decedent's domicile, incident to securing appointment of himself or his nominee as ancillary personal representative, may obtain removal of another who was appointed personal representative in this state to administer local assets.

History: En. 91A-3-611 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Thought was given to qualifying [(1)] above so that no formal removal proceedings could be commenced until after a set period from entry of any previous order reflecting judicial consideration of the qualifications of the personal representative. It was decided, however, that the matter should be left to the judgment of interested persons and the court.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Examination of Administrator

In proceeding for removal of administrator for misappropriation of funds of estate, administrator could be examined as adverse witness as provided in Rule 43, M. R. Civ. P.; Rule 81, excluding statutory proceedings from Rules of Civil Procedure to extent that statutory proceedings are contrary to rules, did not bar examination of administrator as adverse witness. In re Estate and Guardianship of Wyman, 149 M 525, 429 P 2d 629.

Inventory of Assets

Administratrix who failed to file inventory and appraisal within three months after appointment, failed to file first accounting within six months after appointment, failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide estate with interest on money from sale of property, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate was properly removed. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

91A-3-612. Termination of appointment—change of testacy status. Except as otherwise ordered in formal proceedings, the probate of a will subsequent to the appointment of a personal representative in intestacy or under a will which is superseded by formal probate of another will, or the vacation of an informal probate of a will subsequent to the appointment of the personal representative thereunder, does not terminate the appointment of the personal representative although his powers may be reduced as provided in section 91A-3-401. Termination occurs upon appointment in informal or formal appointment proceedings of a person entitled to appointment under the later assumption concerning testacy. If no request for new appointment is made within thirty (30) days after expiration of time for appeal from the order in formal testacy proceedings, or from the informal probate, changing the assumption concerning testacy, the previously appointed personal representative upon request may be appointed personal representative under the subsequently probated will, or as in intestacy as the case may be.

History: En. 91A-3-612 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section and section [91A-3-401] describe the relationship between formal or informal proceedings which change a previous assumption concerning the testacy of the decedent, and a previously appointed personal representative. The basic assumption of both sections is that an appointment, with attendant powers of management, is separable from the basis of appointment; i. e., intestate or testate?; what will is the last will? Hence, a previously appointed personal representative continues to serve in spite of formal or informal proceedings that may give another a prior right to serve as personal representative. But, if the testacy status is changed in formal proceedings, the petitioner also may request appointment of the person who would be entitled to serve if his assumption concerning the decedent's will prevails. Provision is made for a situation where all interested persons are content to allow a previously appointed personal representative to continue to serve even though another has a prior right because of a change relating to the decedent's will. It is not necessary for the continuing representative to seek reappointment under the new assumption for section [91A-3-703] is broad enough to require him to administer the estate as intestate, or under a later probated will, if either status is established after he was appointed. Under section [91A-3-403], notice of a formal testacy proceeding is required to be given to any previously appointed personal representative. Hence, the testacy status cannot be changed without notice to a previously appointed personal representative.

91A-3-613. Successor personal representative. Sections 91A-3-301 through 91A-3-414 govern proceedings for appointment of a personal representative to succeed one whose appointment has been terminated. After appointment and qualification, a successor personal representative may be substituted in all actions and proceedings to which the former personal representative was a party, and no notice, process or claim which was given or served upon the former personal representative need be given to or served upon the successor in order to preserve any position or right the person giving the notice or filing the claim may thereby have obtained or preserved with reference to the former personal representative. Except as otherwise ordered by the court, the successor personal representative has the powers and duties in respect to the continued administration which the former personal representative would have had if his appointment had not been terminated.

History: En. 91A-3-613 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-614. Special administrator — appointment. A special administrator may be appointed:

(1) informally by the clerk on the application of any interested person when necessary to protect the estate of a decedent prior to the appointment of a general personal representative or if a prior appointment has been terminated as provided in section 91A-3-609;

(2) in a formal proceeding by order of the court on the petition of any interested person and finding, after notice and hearing, that appointment is necessary to preserve the estate or to secure its proper administration including its administration in circumstances where a general personal representative cannot or should not act. If it appears to the court that an emergency exists, appointment may be ordered without notice.

History: En. 91A-3-614 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The appointment of a special administrator other than one appointed pending original appointment of a general personal representative must be handled by the court. Appointment of a special administrator would enable the estate to participate in a transaction which the general personal representative could not, or should not, handle because of conflict of interest. If a need arises because of temporary absence or anticipated incapacity for delegation of the authority of a personal representative, the problem may be handled without judicial intervention by use of the delegation powers granted to personal representatives by section [91A-3-716].

91A-3-615. Special administrator—who may be appointed. (1) If a special administrator is to be appointed pending the probate of a will which is the subject of a pending application or petition for probate, the person named executor in the will shall be appointed if available, and qualified.

(2) In other cases, any proper person may be appointed special administrator.

History: En. 91A-3-615 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

In some areas of the country, particularly where wills cannot be probated without full notice and hearing, appointment of special administrators pending probate is sought almost routinely. The provisions of this code concerning informal probate should reduce the number of cases in which a fiduciary will need to be appointed pending probate of a will. Nonetheless, there will be instances where contests begin before probate and where it may be necessary to appoint a special administrator. The objective of this section is to reduce the likelihood that contestants will be encouraged to file contests as early as possible simply to gain some advantage via having a person who is sympathetic to their cause appointed special administrator. Most will contests are not successful. Hence, it seems reasonable to prefer the named executor as special administrator where he is otherwise qualified.

91A-3-616. Special administrator—appointed informally—powers and duties. A special administrator appointed by the clerk in informal proceedings pursuant to section 91A-3-614(1) has the duty to collect and manage the assets of the estate, to preserve them, to account therefor and to deliver them to the general personal representative upon his qualification. The special administrator has the power of a personal representative under the code necessary to perform his duties.

History: En. 91A-3-616 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-617. Special administrator—formal proceedings—power and duties. A special administrator appointed by order of the court in any formal proceeding has the power of a general personal representative except as limited in the appointment and duties as prescribed in the order. The appointment may be for a specified time, to perform particular acts or on other terms as the court may direct.

History: En. 91A-3-617 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-618. Termination of appointment—special administrator. The appointment of a special administrator terminates in accordance with the provisions of the order of appointment or on the appointment of a general personal representative. In other cases, the appointment of a special administrator is subject to termination as provided in sections 91A-3-608 through 91A-3-611.

 91A-3-703. General duties—relation and liability to persons interested in estate—standing to sue.
 91A-3-704. Personal representative to proceed without court order—exception.
 91A-3-705. Duty of personal representative—information to heirs and devisees.
 91A-3-706. Duty of personal representative; supplementary inventory and appraisal; employment of appraiser; copy to department of revenue.
 91A-3-707. Duty of personal representative—supplementary inventory—copy to department of revenue.
 91A-3-708. Duty of personal representative—possession of estate.
 91A-3-709. Power to avoid transfers.
 91A-3-710. Improper exercise of power—breach of fiduciary duty.
 91A-3-711. Sale, encumbrance or transaction involving conflict of interest—voidable—exceptions.
 91A-3-712. Persons dealing with personal representatives—protection.
 91A-3-713. Transactions authorized for personal representatives—exceptions.
 91A-3-715.1. Estate sales—inventory required—exception.
 91A-3-716. Powers and duties of successor personal representative.
 91A-3-717. Corepresentatives—when joint action required.
 91A-3-718. Powers of surviving personal representative.
 91A-3-719. Compensation of personal representative.
 91A-3-720. Compensation of attorney.
 91A-3-721. Expenses in estate litigation.

91A-3-701. Time of accrual of duties and powers. The duties and powers of a personal representative commence upon his appointment. The powers of a personal representative relate back in time to give acts by the person appointed which are beneficial to the estate occurring prior to appointment the same effect as those occurring thereafter. Prior to appointment, a person named executor in a will may carry out written instructions of the decedent relating to his body, funeral and burial arrangements. A personal representative may ratify and accept acts on behalf of the estate done by others where the acts would have been proper for a personal representative.

History: En. 91A-3-701 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section codifies the doctrine that the authority of a personal representative relates back to death from the moment it arises. It also makes it clear that authority of a personal representative stems from his appointment. The sentence concerning ratification is designed to eliminate technical questions that might arise concerning the validity of acts done by others prior to appointment. Section [91A-3-713(21)] relates to delegation of authority after appointment. The third sentence accepts an idea found in the Illinois Probate Act, § 79.

91A-3-702. Priority among different letters. A person to whom general letters are issued first has exclusive authority under the letters until his appointment is terminated or modified. If, through error, general letters are afterwards issued to another, the first appointed representative may recover any property of the estate in the hands of the representative subsequently appointed, but the acts of the latter done in good faith before notice of the first letters are not void for want of validity of appointment.

History: En. 91A-3-702 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The qualification relating to “modification" of an appointment is intended to refer to the change that may occur in respect to the exclusive authority of one with letters upon later appointment of a corepresentative or of a special administrator. The sentence concerning erroneous dual appointment is derived from recent New York legislation. See Section 704, Surrogate's Court Procedure Act.

Erroneous appointment of a second personal representative is possible if formal proceedings after notice are employed. It might be desirable for a state to promulgate a system whereby a notation of letters issued by each county probate office would be relayed to a central record keeping office which, in turn could indicate to any other office whether letters for a particular decedent, perhaps identified by social security number, had been issued previously. The problem can arise even though notice to known interested persons and by publication is involved.

91A-3-703. General duties—relation and liability to persons interested in estate—standing to sue. (1) A personal representative is a fiduciary who shall observe the standards of care applicable to trustees under the laws of the state of Montana. A personal representative is under a duty to settle and distribute the estate of the decedent in accordance with the terms of any probated and effective will and this code, and as expeditiously and efficiently as is consistent with the best interests of the estate. He shall use the authority conferred upon him by this code, the terms of the will, if any, and any order in proceedings to which he is party for the best interests of successors to the estate.

(2) A personal representative shall not be surcharged for acts of administration or distribution if the conduct in question was authorized at the time. Subject to other obligations of administration and of this code, an informally probated will is authority to administer and distribute the estate according to its terms. Subject to the provisions of this code, an order of appointment of a personal representative, whether issued in informal or formal proceedings, is authority to distribute apparently intestate assets to the heirs of the decedent if, at the time of distribution, the personal representative is not aware of a pending testacy proceeding, a proceeding to vacate an order entered in an earlier testacy proceeding, a formal proceeding questioning his appointment or fitness to continue, or a supervised administration proceeding. Nothing in this section affects the duty of the personal representative to administer and distribute the estate in accordance with the rights of claimants, the surviving spouse, any minor and dependent children and any pretermitted child of the decedent as described elsewhere in this code.

(3) Except as to proceedings which do not survive the death of the decedent, a personal representative of a decedent domiciled in this state at his death has the same standing to sue and be sued in the courts of this state and the courts of any other jurisdiction as his decedent had immediately prior to death.

History: En. 91A-3-703 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This and the next section are especially important sections for they state the basic theory underlying the duties and powers of personal representatives. Whether or not a personal representative is supervised, this section applies to describe the relationship he bears to interested parties. If a supervised representative is appointed, or if supervision of a previously appointed personal representative is ordered, an additional obligation to the court is created. See section [91A-3-501].

The fundamental responsibility is that of a trustee. Unlike many trustees, a personal representative's authority is derived from appointment by the public agency known as the court. But, the code also makes it clear that the personal representative, in spite of the source of his authority, is to proceed with the administration, settlement and distribution of the estate by use of statutory powers and in accordance with statutory directions. See sections [91A-3-107 and 91A-3-704]. Subsection [(2)] is particularly important, for it ties the question of personal liability for administrative or distributive acts to the question of whether the act was "authorized at the time." Thus, a personal representative may rely upon and be protected by a will which has been probated without adjudication or an order appointing him to administer which is issued in no-notice proceedings even though proceedings occurring later may change the assumption as to whether the decedent died testate or intestate. See section [91A-3-302] concerning the status of a will probated without notice and section [91A-3-102] concerning the ineffectiveness of an unprobated will. However, it does not follow from the fact that the personal representative distributed under authority that the distributees may not be liable to restore the property or values received if the assumption concerning testacy is later changed. See sections [91A-3-909 and 91A-3-1004]. Thus, a distribution may be "authorized at the time" within the meaning of this section, but be "improper" under the latter section.

[Subsection (3)] is designed to reduce or eliminate differences in the amenability to suit of personal representatives appointed under this code and under traditional assumptions. Also, the subsection states that so far as the law of the appointing forum is concerned, personal representatives are subject to suit in other jurisdictions. It, together with various provisions of [chapter 4] are designed to eliminate many of the present reasons for ancillary administrations.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Collection of Assets

Executor was not liable for loss occasioned to estate by virtue of decedent's stockbroker's theft of decedent's securities, which theft occurred prior to the death of decedent but was not discovered until one year after decedent's death; the executor was responsible for the "assets" existing in the estate of the decedent at the time of death, and the only "asset" of the estate existing at that time was a claim for the value of the securities stolen from decedent during his lifetime, which the executor attempted diligently to collect through instigation of receivership proceedings against brokerage firm owned by decedent's stockbroker. In re Estate of Schueren, — M —, 512 P 2d 1283.

Failure to Join Beneficiary

Although proper procedure was followed in bringing suit against administrator of estate without joining all beneficiaries, conduct of parties in perpetrating fraud on court required that judgment be vacated on motion of aggrieved beneficiary who was not party to suit. Selway v. Burns, 150 M 1, 429 P 2d 640.

Performance of Requests Not Required

Administratrix who signed petition promising final distribution of estate according to terms and provisions of will had no obligation to carry out precatory language of will suggesting the subsequent disposition of devise by devisee. Stapleton v. DeVries, — M —, 535 P 2d 1267.

91A-3-704. Personal representative to proceed without court order—exception. A personal representative shall proceed expeditiously with the settlement and distribution of a decedent's estate and, except as otherwise specified under this code or ordered in regard to a supervised personal representative, do so without adjudication, order, or direction of the court, but he may invoke the jurisdiction of the court, in proceedings authorized by this code, to resolve questions concerning the estate or its administration.

History: En. 91A-3-704 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is intended to confer authority on the personal representative to initiate a proceeding at any time when it is necessary to resolve a question relating to administration. Section [91A-3-105] grants broad subject matter jurisdiction to the probate court which covers a proceeding initiated for any purpose other than those covered by more explicit provisions dealing with testacy proceedings, proceedings for supervised administration, proceedings concerning disputed claims and proceedings to close estates.

91A-3-705. Duty of personal representative—information to heirs and devisees. Not later than thirty (30) days after his appointment every personal representative, except any special administrator, shall give information of his appointment to the heirs and devisees, including, if there has been no formal testacy proceeding and if the personal representative was appointed on the assumption that the decedent died intestate, the devisees in any will mentioned in the application for appointment of a personal representative. The information shall be delivered or sent by ordinary mail to each of the heirs and devisees whose address is reasonably available to the personal representative. The duty does not extend to require information to persons who have been adjudicated in a prior formal testacy proceeding to have no interest in the estate. The information shall include the name and address of the personal representative, indicate that it is being sent to persons who have or may have some interest in the estate being administered, indicate whether bond has been filed, and describe the court where papers relating to the estate are on file. The personal representative's failure to give this information is a breach of his duty to the persons concerned but does not affect the validity of his appointment, his powers or other duties. A personal representative may inform other persons of his appointment by delivery or ordinary first class mail.

History: En. 91A-3-705 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section requires the personal representative to inform persons who appear to have an interest in the estate as it is being administered, of his appointment. Also, it requires the personal representative to give notice to persons who appear to be disinherited by the assumption concerning testacy under which the personal representative was appointed. The communication involved is not to be confused with the notice requirements relating to litigation. The duty applies even though there may have been a prior testacy proceeding after notice, except that persons who have been adjudicated to be without interest in the estate are excluded. The rights, if any, of persons in regard to estates cannot be cut off completely except by the running of the three-year statute of limitations provided in section [91A-3-108], or by a formal judicial proceeding which will include full notice to all interested persons. The interests of some persons may be shifted from rights to specific property of the decedent to the proceeds from sale thereof, or to rights to values received by distributees. However, such a shift of protected interest from one thing to another, or to funds or obligations, is not new in relation to trust beneficiaries. A personal representative may initiate formal proceedings to determine whether persons, other than those appearing to have interests, may be interested in the estate, under section [91A-3-401] or, in connection with a formal closing, as provided by section [91A-3-1001].

No information or notice is required by this section if no personal representative is appointed.

91A-3-706. Duty of personal representative; supplementary inventory and appraisement; employment of appraiser; copy to department of revenue. Within three (3) months after his appointment, a personal representative, who is not a special administrator or a successor to another representative who has previously discharged this duty, shall prepare and file or mail an inventory, which inventory shall include listing of all property which the decedent owned, had an interest in or control over, individually, in common, or jointly, or otherwise had at the time of his death; or had possessory or dispositive rights over at the time of his death or had disposed of for less than its fair market value within three (3) years of his death; or which was affected by his death for the purpose of inheritance or estate taxes. The inventory shall include a statement of the full and true value of the decedent's interest in every item listed in such inventory. In this connection the personal representative shall appoint one (1) or more qualified and disinterested persons to assist him in ascertaining the fair market value as of the date of the decedent's death of all assets included in the estate. Different persons may be employed to appraise different kinds of assets included in the estate. The names and addresses of any appraiser shall be indicated on the inventory with the item or items he appraised.

The personal representative shall send a copy of the inventory to interested persons who request it, or he may file the original of the inventory with the court. In any event, a copy of the inventory and statement of value shall be mailed to the department of revenue.

Compiler's Notes

The first paragraph of the corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners reads as follows: "Within three months after his appointment, a personal representative, who is not a special administrator or a successor to another representative who has previously discharged this duty, shall prepare and file or mail an inventory of property owned by the decedent at the time of his death, listing it with reasonable detail, and indicating as to each listed item, its fair market value as of the date of the decedent's death, and the type and amount of any encumbrance that may exist with reference to any item." The second sentence in the second paragraph is omitted in the official text. Section 3-707 of the Uniform Probate Code, relating to employment to appraisers, is omitted from the Montana enactment.

Editorial Board Comment

This and the following sections eliminate the practice now required by many probate statutes under which the judge is involved in the selection of appraisers. If the personal representative breaches his duty concerning the inventory, he may be removed. Section [91A-3-611]. Or, an interested person seeking to surcharge a personal representative for losses incurred as a result of his administration might be able to take advantage of any breach of duty concerning inventory. The section provides two ways in which a personal representative may handle an inventory. If the personal representative elects to send copies to all interested persons who request it, information concerning the assets of the estate need not become a part of the records of the probate court. The alternative procedure is to file the inventory with the court. This procedure would be indicated in estates with large numbers of interested persons, where the burden of sending copies to all would be substantial. The court's role in respect to the second alternative is simply to receive and file the inventory with the file relating to the estate. See [91A-3-204], which permits any interested person to demand notice of any document relating to an estate which may be filed with the court.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "appoint one (1) or more qualified and disinterested persons to assist" for "appoint at least three (3) qualified and disinterested persons, any two (2) of whom may act to assist" toward the end of the first paragraph; and substituted "or he may file" in the second paragraph for "and he shall file" before "the original of the inventory."

91A-3-707. Duty of personal representative—supplementary inventory—copy to department of revenue. If any property not included in the original inventory comes to the knowledge of a personal representative or if the personal representative learns that the value or description indicated in the original inventory for any item is erroneous or misleading, he shall make a supplementary inventory or appraisal showing the market value as of the date of the decedent's death of the new item or the revised market value or descriptions, and the appraisers or other data relied upon, if any, and file it with the court if the original inventory was filed, or furnish copies thereof or information thereof to persons interested in the new information; and in any case shall mail a copy of it to the department of revenue.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-708; the requirement for mailing a copy of the supplementary inventory to the department of revenue was added in the Montana enactment.

91A-3-708. Duty of personal representative—possession of estate. Except as otherwise provided by a decedent's will and subject to the provisions of section 91-3205, R. C. M. 1947, every personal representative has a right to, and shall take possession or control of, the decedent's property, except that any real property or tangible personal property may be left with or surrendered to the person presumptively entitled thereto unless or until, in the judgment of the personal representative, possession of the property by him will be necessary for purposes of administration. The request by a personal representative for delivery of any property possessed by an heir or devisee is conclusive evidence, in any action against the heir or devisee for possession thereof, that the possession of the property by the personal representative is necessary for purposes of administration. The personal representative shall pay taxes on, and take all steps reasonably necessary for the management, protection and preservation of, the estate in his possession. He may maintain an action to recover possession of property or to determine the title thereto.

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-709; the Montana enactment inserted "and subject to the provisions of section 91-3205, R. C. M. 1947" in the first sentence of the section.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-3-101] provides for the devolution of title on death. Section [91A-3-710] defines the status of the personal representative with reference to "title" and "power" in a way that should make it unnecessary to discuss the "title" to decedent's assets which his personal representative acquires. This section deals with the personal representative's duty and right to possess assets. It proceeds from the assumption that it is desirable whenever possible to avoid disruption of possession of the decedent's assets by his devisees or heirs. But, if the personal representative decides that possession of an asset is necessary or desirable for purposes of administration, his judgment is made conclusive in any action for possession that he may need to institute against an heir or devisee. It may be possible for an heir or devisee to question the judgment of the personal representative in later action for surcharge for breach of fiduciary duty, but this possibility should not interfere with the personal representative's administrative authority as it relates to possession of the estate.

This code follows the Model Probate Code in regard to partnership interests. In the introduction to the Model Probate Code, the following appears at p. 22:

"No provisions for the administration of partnership estates when a partner dies have been included. Several states have statutes providing that unless the surviving partner files a bond with the probate court, the personal representative of the deceased partner may administer the partnership estate upon giving an additional bond. Kan. Gen. Stat. (Supp. 1943) §§ 59-1001 to 59-1005; Mo. Rev. Stat. Ann. (1942) §§ 81 to 93. In these states the administration of partnership estates upon the death of a partner is brought more or less completely under the jurisdiction of the probate court. While the provisions afford security to parties in interest, they have caused complications in the settlement of partnership estates and have produced much litigation. Woener, Administration (3rd ed., 1923) §§ 128 to 130; annotation, 121 A.L.R. 860. These statutes have been held to be inconsistent with section 37 of the Uniform Partnership Act [secs. 63-101 et seq.] providing for winding up by the surviving partner. Davis v. Hutchinson (C.C.A. 9th, 1929) 36 F.(2d) 309. Hence the Model Probate Code contains no provision regarding partnership property except for inclusion in the inventory of the decedent's proportionate share of any partnership. See § 120. However, it is suggested that the Uniform Partnership Act should be included in the statutes of the states which have not already enacted it."

91A-3-709. Power to avoid transfers. The property liable for the payment of unsecured debts of a decedent includes all property transferred by him by any means which is in law void or voidable as against his creditors, and subject to prior liens, the right to recover this property, so far as necessary for the payment of unsecured debts of the decedent, is exclusively in the personal representative.

If any exercise of power concerning the estate is improper, the personal representative is liable to interested persons for damage or loss resulting from breach of his fiduciary duty to the same extent as a trustee of an express trust. The rights of purchasers and others dealing with a personal representative shall be determined as provided in sections 91A-3-711 and 91A-3-712.

Editorial Board Comment

An interested person has two principal remedies to forestall a personal representative from committing a breach of fiduciary duty. (1) Under section [91A-3-607] he may apply to the court for an order restraining the personal representative from performing any specified act or from exercising any power in the course of administration. (2) Under section [91A-

3-611] he may petition the court for an order removing the personal representative.

Evidence of a proceeding, or order, restraining a personal representative from selling, leasing, encumbering or otherwise affecting title to real property subject to administration, if properly recorded under the laws of this state, would be effective to prevent a purchaser from acquiring a marketable title under the usual rules relating to recordation of real property titles.

In addition, sections [91A-1-302 and 91A-3-105] authorize joinder of third persons who may be involved in contemplated transactions with a personal representative in proceedings to restrain a personal representative under section [91A-3-607].

91A-3-711. Sale, encumbrance or transaction involving conflict of interest—voidable—exceptions. Any sale or encumbrance to the personal representative, his spouse, agent or attorney, or any corporation or trust in which he has a substantial beneficial interest, or any transaction which is affected by a substantial conflict of interest on the part of the personal representative, is voidable by any person interested in the estate except one who has consented after fair disclosure, unless

(1) the will or a contract entered into by the decedent expressly authorized the transaction; or

(2) the transaction is approved by the court after notice to interested persons.

Editorial Board Comment

If a personal representative violates the duty against self-dealing described by this section, a voidable title to assets sold results. Other breaches of duty relating to sales of assets will not cloud titles except as to purchasers with actual knowledge of the breach. See section [91A-3-712]. The principles of bona fide purchase would protect a purchaser for value without notice of defect in the seller's title arising from conflict of interest.

91A-3-712. Persons dealing with personal representatives—protection. A person who in good faith and without notice either assists a personal representative or deals with him for value is protected as if the personal representative properly exercised his power. The fact that a person knowingly deals with a personal representative does not alone require the person to inquire into the existence of a power or the propriety of its exercise. Except for restrictions on powers of supervised personal representatives which are endorsed on letters as provided in section 91A-3-504, no provision in any will or order of court purporting to limit the power of a personal representative is effective except as to persons with actual knowledge thereof. A person is not bound to see to the proper application of estate assets paid or delivered to a personal representative. The protection here expressed extends to instances in which some procedural irregularity or jurisdictional defect occurred in proceedings leading to the issuance of letters, including a case in which the alleged decedent is found to be alive. The protection here expressed is not by substitution for that provided by comparable provisions of the laws relating to commercial transactions and laws simplifying transfers of securities by fiduciaries nor does it in any way limit the provisions of section 91A-3-1010.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-714; the Montana enactment added the phrase "nor does it in any way limit the provisions of section 91A-3-1010" at the end of the section.

Editorial Board Comment

This section qualifies the effect of a provision in a will which purports to prohibit sale of property by a personal representative. The provisions of a will may prescribe the duties of a personal representative and subject him to surcharge or other remedies of interested persons if he disregards them. See section [91A-3-703]. But, the will's prohibition is not relevant to the rights of a purchaser unless he had actual knowledge of its terms. Interested persons who want to prevent a personal representative from having the power described here must use the procedures described in sections [91A-3-501 to 91A-3-505]. Each state will need to identify the relation between this section and other statutory provisions creating liens on estate assets for inheritance and other taxes. The section cannot control whether a purchaser takes free of the lien of unpaid federal estate taxes. Hence, purchasers from personal representatives appointed pursuant to this code will have to satisfy themselves concerning whether estate taxes are paid, and if not paid, whether the tax lien follows the property they are acquiring. See section 6234, Internal Revenue Code.

The impact of formal recording systems beyond the usual probate procedure depends upon the particular statute. In states in which the recording system provides for recording wills as muniments of title, statutory adaptation should be made to provide that recording of wills should be postponed until the validity has been established by probate or limitation. Statutory limitation to this effect should be added to statutes which do not so provide to avoid conflict with power of the personal representative during administration. The purpose of the code is to make the deed or instrument of distribution the usual muniment of title. See sections [91A-3-907, 91A-3-908, 91A-3-910]. However, this is not available when no administration has occurred and in that event reliance upon general recording statutes must be had.

If a state continues to permit wills to be recorded as muniments of title, the above section would need to be qualified to give effect to the notice from recording.

91A-3-713. Transactions authorized for personal representatives—exceptions. Except as restricted by this code or otherwise provided by the will or by an order in a formal proceeding and subject to the priorities stated in section 91A-3-902, a personal representative, acting reasonably for the benefit of the interested persons, may properly:

- (1) retain assets owned by the decedent pending distribution or liquidation including those in which the representative is personally interested or which are otherwise improper for trust investment;

- (2) receive assets from fiduciaries, or other sources;

- (3) perform, compromise or refuse performance of the decedent's contracts that continue as obligations of the estate, as he may determine under the circumstances. In performing enforceable contracts by the decedent to convey or lease land, the personal representative, among other possible courses of action, may:

- (a) execute and deliver a deed of conveyance for cash payment of all sums remaining due or the purchaser's note for the sum remaining due secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on the land; or

- (b) deliver a deed in escrow with directions that the proceeds, when paid in accordance with the escrow agreement, be paid to the successors of the decedent, as designated in the escrow agreement;

- (4) satisfy written charitable pledges of the decedent irrespective of whether the pledges constituted binding obligations of the decedent or were properly presented as claims, if in the judgment of the personal representative the decedent would have wanted the pledges completed under the circumstances;

- (5) if funds are not needed to meet debts and expenses currently payable and are not immediately distributable, deposit or invest liquid assets of the estate, including moneys received from the sale of other assets, in federally insured interest-bearing accounts, readily marketable secured loan arrangements or other prudent investments which would be reasonable for use by trustees generally;

- (6) acquire or dispose of an asset, including land in this or another state, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; and manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, change the character of, or abandon an estate asset;

- (7) make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, demolish any improvements, raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings;

- (8) subdivide, develop or dedicate land to public use; make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; or adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving considerations; or dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

(9) enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee, with or without option to purchase or renew, for a term within or extending beyond the period of administration;

(10) enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement;

(11) with the consent of the heirs or devisees or the court, abandon property when, in the opinion of the personal representative, it is valueless, or is so encumbered, or is in condition that it is of no benefit to the estate;

(12) vote stocks or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy;

(13) pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities, unless barred by the provisions relating to claims;

(14) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the interest of the estate but the personal representative is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held;

(15) insure the assets of the estate against damage, loss and liability and himself against liability as to third persons;

(16) borrow money with or without security to be repaid from the estate assets or otherwise; and advance money for the protection of the estate;

(17) with the consent of the heirs or devisees or the court effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor, or extend, renew or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate. If the personal representative holds a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property of another person, he may, in lieu of foreclosure, accept a conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner thereof in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by lien;

(18) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the personal representative, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate;

(19) sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise;

(20) allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as permitted or provided by law;

(21) employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, or agents, even if they are associated with the personal representative, to advise or assist the personal representative in the performance of his administrative duties; act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and instead of acting personally, employ one (1) or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

(22) prosecute or defend claims, or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the personal representative in the performance of his duties;

(23) sell, mortgage, or lease any real or personal property of the estate or any interest therein for cash, credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances provided, however, no personal representative shall without prior court approval in a supervised proceeding, either directly or indirectly purchase any property of the estate he represents, nor shall he be interested in any such sale. All sales shall be fairly conducted and made for the best price obtainable.

(24) continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of his death:

(a) in the same business form for a period of not more than four (4) months from the date of appointment of a general personal representative if continuation is a reasonable means of preserving the value of the business including good will;

(b) in the same business form for any additional period of time that may be approved by order of the court in a formal proceeding to which the persons interested in the estate are parties; or

(c) throughout the period of administration if the business is incorporated by the personal representative and if none of the probable distributees of the business who are competent adults object to its incorporation and retention in the estate;

(25) incorporate any business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of his death;

(26) satisfy and settle claims and distribute the estate as provided in this code.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-715. The Montana enactment inserted the phrase "with the consent of the heirs or devisees or the court" at the beginning of subdivisions (11) and (17) and a subdivision in the Uniform Probate Code section authorizing provision "for exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate" was omitted.

Editorial Board Comment

This section accepts the assumption of the Uniform Trustee's Powers Act that it is desirable to equip fiduciaries with the authority required for the prudent handling of assets and extends it to personal representatives. The section requires that a personal representative act reasonably and for the benefit of the interested person. Subject to this and to the other qualifications described by the preliminary statement, the enumerated transactions are made authorized transactions for personal representatives. Subparagraphs [(26)] and (18) support the other provisions of the code, particularly section [91A-3-704], which contemplates that personal representatives will proceed with all of the business of administration without court orders.

In part, subparagraph (4) involves a substantive question of whether noncontractual charitable pledges of a decedent can be honored by his personal representative. It is believed, however, that it is not desirable from a practical standpoint to make much turn on whether a charitable pledge is, or is not, contractual. Pledges are rarely made the subject of claims. The effect of subparagraph (4) is to permit the personal representative to discharge pledges where he believes the decedent would have wanted him to do so without exposing himself to a surcharge. The holder of a contractual pledge may, of course, pursue the remedies of a creditor. If a pledge provides that the obligation ceases on the death of the pledgor, no personal representative would be safe in assuming that the decedent would want the pledge completed under the circumstances.

Subsection (3) is not intended to affect the right to performance or to damages of any person who contracted with the decedent. To do so would constitute an unreasonable interference with private rights. The intention of the subsection is simply to give a personal representative who is obligated to carry out a decedent's contracts the same alternatives in regard to the contractual duties which the decedent had prior to his death.

91A-3-714, 91A-3-715. Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 91A-3-714 and 91A-3-715 (Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974), relating to duty of personal representative to file final accounting and to prerequisite for sale of estate property, were repealed by Sec. 10, Ch. 516, Laws 1975. For present provisions on estate sales, see 91A-3-715.1.

91A-3-715.1. Estate sales—inventory required—exception. Save upon an order of court obtained after notice and hearing in a supervised proceeding or formal probate, no property of the estate may be sold unless an inventory and statement of value has been delivered to the state department of revenue.

91A-3-716. Powers and duties of successor personal representative. A successor personal representative has the same power and duty as the original personal representative to complete the administration and distribution of the estate, as expeditiously as possible, but he shall not exercise any power expressly made personal to the executor named in the will.

History: En. 91A-3-716 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-717. Corepresentatives—when joint action required. If two (2) or more persons are appointed corepresentatives and unless the will provides otherwise, the concurrence of all is required on all acts connected with the administration and distribution of the estate. This restriction does not apply when any corepresentative receives and receipts for property due the estate, when the concurrence of all cannot readily be obtained in the time reasonably available for emergency action necessary to preserve the estate, or when a corepresentative has been delegated to act for the others. Persons dealing with a corepresentative if actually unaware that another has been appointed to serve with him or if advised by the personal representative with whom they deal that he has authority to act alone for any of the reasons mentioned herein, are as fully protected as if the person with whom they dealt had been the sole personal representative.

History: En. 91A-3-717 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

With certain qualifications, this section is designed to compel corepresentatives to agree on all matters relating to administration when circumstances permit. Delegation by one to another representative is a form of concurrence in acts that may result from the delegation. A corepresentative who abdicates his responsibility to co-administer the estate by a blanket delegation breaches his duty to interested persons as described by section [91A-3-703]. Section [91A-3-713(21)] authorizes some limited delegations, which are reasonable and for the benefit of interested persons.

91A-3-718. Powers of surviving personal representative. Unless the terms of the will otherwise provide, every power exercisable by personal corepresentatives may be exercised by the one (1) or more remaining after the appointment of one (1) or more is terminated, and if one (1) of two (2) or more nominated as coexecutors is not appointed, those appointed may exercise all the powers incident to the office.

History: En. 91A-3-718 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Source, Model Probate Code section 102. This section applies where one of two or more corepresentatives dies, becomes disabled or is removed. In regard to coexecutors, it is based on the assumption that the decedent would not consider the powers of his fiduciaries to be personal, or to be suspended if one or more could not function. In regard to coadministrators in intestacy, it is based on the idea that the reason for appointing more than one ceases on the death or disability of either of them.

91A-3-719. Compensation of personal representative. (1) A personal representative is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services. Such compensation shall not exceed three per cent (3%) of the first forty thousand dollars ($40,000) of the value of the estate as reported for federal estate tax or state inheritance tax purposes, whichever is larger and two per cent (2%) of the value of the estate in excess of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) as reported for federal estate tax or state inheritance tax purposes, whichever is larger.

(2) In proceedings conducted for the termination of joint tenancies, the compensation of the personal representative shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the interest passing.

(3) In proceedings conducted for the termination of a life estate, the compensation allowed the personal representative shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the value of the life estate if it is terminated in connection with a probate or joint tenancy termination. If a life estate is terminated separately, the personal representative's compensation shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the value of the estate, except that it shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100).

(4) If there is more than one personal representative, only one compensation is allowed.

(5) The court may allow additional compensation for extraordinary services. Such additional compensation shall not be greater than the amount which is allowed for the original compensation.

(6) If the will provides for the compensation of the personal representative and there is no contract with the decedent regarding compensation, the personal representative may renounce the provision before qualifying and be entitled to compensation under the terms of this section. A personal representative also may renounce his right to all or any part of the compensation. A written renunciation of fee may be filed with the court.

History: En. 91A-3-719 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners reads as follows: "A personal representative is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services. If a will provides for compensation of the personal representative and there is no contract with the decedent regarding compensation, he may renounce the provision before qualifying and be entitled to reasonable compensation. A personal representative also may renounce his right to all or any part of the compensation. A written renunciation of fee may be filed with the court."

Editorial Board Comment

This section has no bearing on the question of whether a personal representative who also serves as attorney for the estate may receive compensation in both capacities. If a will provision concerning a fee is framed as a condition on the nomination as personal representative, it could not be renounced.

(4) If the services of more than one attorney are engaged, only one compensation shall be allowed.

(5) In cases where further compensation may be allowed to an attorney, the same must be fixed and determined by the court upon good cause shown after notice and hearing of an application therefor.

91A-3-721. Expenses in estate litigation. If any personal representative or person nominated as personal representative defends or prosecutes any proceeding in good faith, whether successful or not he is entitled to receive from the estate his necessary expenses and disbursements including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred.

History: En. 91A-3-721 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-720.

Editorial Board Comment

Litigation prosecuted by a personal representative for the primary purpose of enhancing his prospects for compensation would not be in good faith.

A personal representative is a fiduciary for successors of the estate (section [91A-3-703]). Though the will naming him may not yet be probated, the priority for appointment conferred by section [91A-3-203] on one named executor in a probated will means that the person named has an interest, as a fiduciary, in seeking the probate of the will. Hence, he is an interested person within the meaning of sections [91A-3-301 and 91A-3-401]. Section [91A-3-912] gives the successors of an estate control over the executor, provided all are competent adults. So, if all persons possibly interested in the probate of a will, including trustees of any trusts created thereby, concur in directing the named executor to refrain from efforts to probate the instrument, he would lose standing to proceed. All of these observations apply with equal force to the case where the named executor of one instrument seeks to contest the probate of another instrument. Thus, the code changes the idea followed in some jurisdictions that an executor lacks standing to contest other wills which, if valid, would supersede the will naming him, and standing to oppose other contests that may be mounted against the instrument nominating him.

91A-3-722. Proceedings for review of employment of agents and compensation of personal representatives and employees of estate—court to set disputed fee. Upon the filing of a motion for settlement of fees by the court filed by an interested person, the personal representative or the person employed by the personal representative and after notice to all interested persons, the propriety of employment of any person by a personal representative including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor or other specialized agent or assistant, the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, or the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the personal representative for his own services, shall be reviewed and determined by the court. In any dispute concerning fees, the court shall set the fee. Any person who has received excessive compensation from an estate for services rendered may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

History: En. 91A-3-722 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-721 and reads as follows: "After notice to all interested persons or on petition of an interested person or on appropriate motion if administration is supervised, the propriety of employment of any person by a personal representative including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor or other specialized agent or assistant, the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, or the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the personal representative for his own services, may be reviewed by the court. Any person who has received excessive compensation from an estate for services rendered may be ordered to make appropriate refunds."

Editorial Board Comment

In view of the broad jurisdiction conferred on the probate court by section [91A-3-105], description of the special proceeding authorized by this section might be unnecessary. But, the code's theory that personal representatives may fix their own fees and those of estate attorneys marks an important departure from much existing practice under which fees are determined by the court in the first instance. Hence, it seemed wise to emphasize that any interested person can get judicial review of fees if he desires it. Also, if excessive fees have been paid, this section provides a quick and efficient remedy.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

The need for uniformity of law regarding creditors' claims against estates is especially strong. Commercial and consumer credit depends upon efficient collection procedures. The cost of credit is pushed up by the cost of credit life insurance which becomes a practical necessity for lenders unwilling to bear the expense of understanding or using the cumbersome and provincial collection procedures found in fifty codes of probate.

The sections which follow facilitate collection of claims against decedents in several ways. First, a simple written statement mailed to the personal representative is a sufficient "claim." Allowance of claims is handled by the personal representative and is assumed if a claimant is not advised of disallowance. Also, a personal representative may pay any just claims without presentation and at any time, if he is willing to assume risks which will be minimal in many cases. The period of uncertainty regarding possible claims is only four months from first publication. This should expedite settlement and distribution of estates.

91A-3-801. Notice to creditors. Unless notice has already been given under this section, a personal representative upon his appointment shall publish a notice once a week for three (3) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county announcing his appointment and address and notifying creditors of the estate to present their claims within four (4) months after the date of the first publication of the notice or be forever barred, and proof of publication shall be filed with the clerk.

History: En. 91A-3-801 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment added the phrase "and proof of publication shall be filed with the clerk" at the end of this section.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-3-1203], relating to small estates, contains an important qualification on the duty created by this section.

Failure to advertise for claims would involve a breach of duty on the part of the personal representative. If, as a result of such breach, a claim is later asserted against a distributee under section [91A-3-1005], the personal representative may be liable to the distributee for costs related to discharge of the claim and the recovery of contribution from other distributees. The protection afforded personal representatives under section [91A-3-1003] would not be available, for that section applies only if the personal representative truthfully recites that he has advertised for claims as required by this section.

It would be appropriate, by court rule, to channel publications through the personnel of the probate court. See section [91A-1-401]. If notices are controlled by a centralized authority, some assurance could be gained against publication in newspapers of small circulation. Also, the form of notices could be made uniform and certain efficiencies could be achieved. For example, it would be compatible with this section for the court to publish a single notice each day or each week listing the names of personal representatives appointed since the last publication, with addresses and dates of nonclaim.

91A-3-802. Statutes of limitations. Unless an estate is insolvent the personal representative, with the consent of all successors, may waive any defense of limitations available to the estate. If the defense is not waived, no claim which was barred by any statute of limitations at the time of the decedent's death shall be allowed or paid. The running of any statute of limitations measured from some other event than death and advertisement for claims against a decedent is suspended during the four (4) months following the decedent's death but resumes thereafter as to claims not barred pursuant to the sections which follow. For purposes of any statute of limitations, the proper presentation of a claim under section 91A-3-804 is equivalent to commencement of a proceeding on the claim.

History: En. 91A-3-802 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section means that four months is added to the normal period of limitations by reason of a debtor's death before a debt is barred. It implies also that after the expiration of four months from death, the normal statute of limitations may run and bar a claim even though the nonclaim provisions of section [91A-3-803] have not been triggered. Hence, the nonclaim and limitation provisions of section [91A-3-803] are not exclusive.

It should be noted that under sections [91A-3-803 and 91A-3-804] it is possible for a claim to be barred by the process of claim, disallowance and failure by the creditor to commence a proceeding to enforce his claim prior to the end of the four-month suspension period. Thus, the regular statute of limitations applicable during the debtor's lifetime, the nonclaim provisions of sections [91A-3-803, 91A-3-804], and the three-year limitation of section [91A-3-803] all have potential application to a claim. The first of the three to accomplish a bar controls.

91A-3-803. Limitations of presentation of claims—exception. (1) All claims against a decedent's estate with the exception of claims for taxes and claims founded on tort which arose before the death of the decedent, including claims of the state and any subdivision thereof, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, founded on contract or other legal basis, if not barred earlier by other statute of limitations, are barred against the estate, the personal representative, and the heirs and devisees of the decedent, unless presented as follows:

(a) within four (4) months after the date of the first publication of notice to creditors if notice is given in compliance with section 91A-3-801; provided, claims barred by the nonclaim statute at the decedent's domicile before the first publication for claims in this state are also barred in this state; or

(b) within three (3) years after the decedent's death, if notice to creditors has not been published.

(2) All claims against a decedent's estate with the exception of claims for taxes and claims founded on tort which arise at or after the death of the decedent, including claims of the state and any subdivision thereof, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, founded on contract or other legal basis, are barred against the estate, the personal representative, and the heirs and devisees of the decedent, unless presented as follows:

(a) a claim based on a contract with the personal representative, within four (4) months after performance by the personal representative is due;

(b) any other claim, within four (4) months after it arises.

(3) Nothing in this section affects or prevents:

(a) any proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge, or other lien upon property of the estate; or

(b) to the limits of the insurance protection only, any proceeding to establish liability of the decedent or the personal representative for which he is protected by liability insurance.

History: En. 91A-3-803 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 352, L. 1975.

Editorial Board Comment

There was some disagreement among the Reporters over whether a short period of limitations, or of nonclaim, should be provided for claims arising at or after death. [Subsection (2)] was finally inserted because most felt it was desirable to accelerate the time when unadjudicated distributions would be final. The time limits stated would not, of course, affect any personal liability in contract, tort, or by statute, of the personal representative. Under section [91A-3-808] a personal representative is not liable on transactions entered into on behalf of the estate unless he agrees to be personally liable or unless he breaches a duty by making the contract. Creditors of the estate and not of the personal representative thus face a special limitation that runs four months after performance is due from the personal representative. Tort claims normally will involve casualty insurance of the decedent or of the personal representative, and so will fall within the exception of [subsection (3)]. If a personal representative is personally at fault in respect to a tort claim arising after the decedent's death, his personal liability would not be affected by the running of the special short period provided here.

The limitation stated in [subdivision (1)(b)] dovetails with the three-year limitation provided in section [91A-3-108] to eliminate most questions of succession that are controlled by state law after three years from death have elapsed. Questions of interpretation of any will probated within such period, or of the identity of heirs in intestacy are not barred, however.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted "for taxes and claims" in the first sentence of subsections (1) and (2).

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Actual Notice Unnecessary

Bank which failed to present claim on note against decedent's estate within statutory time was barred where notice by publication appeared in only newspaper in community of 1,800 citizens of which both bank and decedent were residents; bank's contention that it received no actual notice which could have been accomplished with ease and that to bar claim under such circumstances was deprivation of property without due process of law was rejected. Baker Nat. Bank v. Henderson, 151 M 526, 445 P 2d 574.

Contract Claims

All claims against estate arising from contract were required to be presented to executor within four months of first publication of notice to creditors. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

Mechanic's Lien

A mechanic's lien was not a claim arising upon a contract within meaning of the statute and the lien was lost because creditor's claim was not filed. Hammer v. Chapin, 256 F Supp 819.

91A-3-804. Manner of presentation of claims. Claims against a decedent's estate may be presented as follows:

(1) The claimant shall mail to the personal representative return receipt requested a written statement of the claim indicating its basis, the name and address of the claimant, and the amount claimed, or may file a written statement of the claim, in the form prescribed by rule, with the clerk of the court. The claim is deemed presented on the first to occur of receipt of the written statement of claim by the personal representative, or the filing of the claim with the court. If a claim is not yet due, the date when it will become due shall be stated. If the claim is contingent or unliquidated, the nature of the uncertainty shall be stated. If the claim is secured, the security shall be described. Failure to describe correctly the security, the nature of any uncertainty, and the due date of a claim not yet due does not invalidate the presentation made.

(2) The claimant may commence a proceeding against the personal representative in any court where the personal representative may be subjected to jurisdiction, to obtain payment of his claim against the estate, but the commencement of the proceeding must occur within the time limited for presenting the claim. No presentation of claim is required in regard to matters claimed in proceedings against the decedent which were pending at the time of his death.

(3) If a claim is presented under subsection (1), no proceeding thereon may be commenced more than sixty (60) days after the personal representative has mailed a notice of disallowance; but, in the case of a claim which is not presently due or which is contingent or unliquidated, the personal representative may consent to an extension of the sixty (60) day period, or to avoid injustice the court, on petition, may order an extension of the sixty (60) day period, but in no event shall the extension run beyond the applicable statute of limitations.

History: En. 91A-3-804 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The filing of a claim with the probate court under (2) of this section does not serve to initiate a proceeding concerning the claim. Rather, it serves merely to protect the claimant who may anticipate some need for evidence to show that his claim is not barred. The probate court acts simply as a depository of the statement of claim, as is true of its responsibility for an inventory filed with it under section [91A-3-706].

In reading this section it is important to remember that a regular statute of limitation may run to bar a claim before the nonclaim provisions run. See section [91A-3-802].

91A-3-805. Classification of claims. (1) If the applicable assets of the estate are insufficient to pay all claims in full, the personal representative shall make payment in the following order:

- (a) costs and expenses of administration;
- (b) reasonable funeral expenses and reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending him;
- (c) federal estate and Montana state estate and inheritance taxes;
- (d) debts with preference under federal and Montana law;
- (e) other federal and Montana state taxes;
- (f) all other claims.

(2) No preference shall be given in the payment of any claim over any other claim of the same class, and a claim due and payable shall not be entitled to a preference over claims not due.

History: En. 91A-3-805 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 352, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment added "and reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending to him" to subdivision (1)(b); inserted present subdivision (1)(c); re-wrote and designated as subdivision (1)(d) former subdivision (1)(c) which read: "debts and taxes with preference under federal law"; deleted former subdivision (1)(d) which read substantially the same as the matter added to subdivision (1)(b); deleted former subdivision (1)(e) which read: "debts and taxes with preference under the laws of this state"; and inserted present subdivision (1)(e).

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Circumvention of Payment Priorities

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law who had distributed assets of decedent's estate without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

91A-3-806. Allowance of claims. (1) As to claims presented in the manner described in section 91A-3-804 within the time limit prescribed in 91A-3-803, the personal representative may mail a notice to any claimant stating that the claim has been disallowed. If, after allowing or disallowing a claim, the personal representative changes his decision concerning the claim, he shall notify the claimant. The personal representative may not change a disallowance of a claim after the time for the claimant to file a petition for allowance or to commence a proceeding on the claim has run and the claim has been barred. Every claim which is disallowed in whole or in part by the personal representative is barred so far as not allowed unless the claimant files a petition for allowance in the court or commences a proceeding against the personal representative not later than sixty (60) days after the mailing of the notice of disallowance or partial allowance if the notice warns the claimant of the impending bar. Failure of the personal representative to mail notice to a claimant of action on his claim for sixty (60) days after the time for original presentation of the claim has expired has the effect of a notice of disallowance.

(2) Upon the petition of the personal representative or of a claimant in a proceeding for the purpose, the court may allow in whole or in part any claim or claims presented to the personal representative or filed with the clerk of the court in due time and not barred by subsection (1) of this section. Notice in this proceeding shall be given to the claimant, the personal representative and those other persons interested in the estate as the court may direct by order entered at the time the proceeding is commenced.

(3) A judgment in a proceeding in another court against a personal representative to enforce a claim against a decedent's estate is an allowance of the claim.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in any judgment in another court entered against the personal representative, allowed claims bear interest at the legal rate for the period commencing sixty (60) days after the time for original presentation of the claim has expired unless based on a contract making a provision for interest, in which case they bear interest in accordance with that provision.

History: En. 91A-3-806 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 516, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "disallowance" for "allowance" at the end of subsection (1).

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Claim for Hospital Expenses

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law, who had distributed assets without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 343, 457 P 2d 471.

Effect of Fraud

Final decree of distribution and discharge in probate would not be set aside on ground of inadvertence or fraud under statute or M. R. Civ. P., Rule 60(b), in absence of manifest abuse of court's discretion to grant relief thereunder, in case where moving party had every opportunity to protect his claim in probate and failed to do so. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Exclusive Nature of Procedure

Rule 41(e), M. R. Civ. P., providing for dismissal of action for failure to serve summons as provided therein, did not apply to service of summons in suit on rejected claim in probate which was governed exclusively by statute providing for contesting rejected claims in probate. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Summons After Discharge

Summons, in suit on rejected claim filed within three-month statutory limit, served after discharge in probate was not substantial compliance with statutory requirement to "bring suit" within three months of rejection of claim and relieved executrix of statutory duty to pay amount of disputed claim into court. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Variance Between Claim and Suit

Claim sued upon was required to be within scope of claim presented to executor, so that action for breach of contract to bequeath could not be predicated upon creditor's claim to recover debt. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

91A-3-807. Payment of claims. (1) Upon the expiration of four (4) months from the date of the first publication of the notice to creditors, the personal representative shall proceed to pay the claims allowed against the estate in the order of priority prescribed, after making provision for homestead, family and support allowances, for claims already presented which have not yet been allowed or whose allowance has been appealed, and for unbarred claims which may yet be presented, including costs and expenses of administration. By petition to the court in a proceeding for the purpose, or by appropriate motion if the administration is supervised, a claimant whose claim has been allowed but not paid as provided herein may secure an order directing the personal representative to pay the claim to the extent that funds of the estate are available for the payment.

(2) The personal representative at any time may pay any just claim which has not been barred, with or without formal presentation, but he is personally liable to any other claimant whose claim is allowed and who is injured by such payment if

(a) the payment was made before the expiration of the time limit stated in subsection (1) and the personal representative failed to require the payee to give adequate security for the refund of any of the payment necessary to pay other claimants; or

(b) the payment was made, due to the negligence or willful fault of the personal representative, in such manner as to deprive the injured claimant of his priority.

History: En. 91A-3-807 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-808. Individual liability of personal representative. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a personal representative is not individually liable on a contract properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the estate in the contract.

(2) A personal representative is individually liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts entered into by a personal representative in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate or on torts committed in the course of estate administration may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the personal representative in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the personal representative is individually liable therefor.

(4) Issues of liability as between the estate and the personal representative individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge or indemnification or other appropriate proceeding.

History: En. 91A-3-808 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

In the absence of statute an executor, administrator or a trustee is personally liable on contracts entered into in his fiduciary capacity unless he expressly excludes personal liability in the contract. He is commonly personally liable for obligations stemming from ownership or possession of the property (e.g., taxes) and for torts committed by servants employed in the management of the property. The claimant ordinarily can reach the estate only after exhausting his remedies against the fiduciary as an individual and then only to the extent that the fiduciary is entitled to indemnity from the property. This and the following sections are designed to make the estate a quasi-corporation for purposes of such liabilities. The personal representative would be personally liable only if an agent for a corporation would be under the same circumstances, and the claimant has a direct remedy against the quasi-corporate property.

91A-3-809. Secured claims. Payment of a secured claim is upon the basis of the amount allowed if the creditor surrenders his security; otherwise payment is upon the basis of one of the following:

(1) if the creditor exhausts his security before receiving payment, unless precluded by other law upon the amount of the claim allowed less the fair value of the security; or

(2) if the creditor does not have the right to exhaust his security or has not done so, upon the amount of the claim allowed less the value of the security determined by converting it into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the security was delivered to the creditor, or by the creditor and personal representative by agreement, arbitration, compromise or litigation.

History: En. 91A-3-809 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-810. Claims not due and contingent on unliquidated claims. (1) If a claim which will become due at a future time or a contingent or unliquidated claim becomes due or certain before the distribution of the estate, and if the claim has been allowed or established by a proceeding, it is paid in the same manner as presently due and absolute claims of the same class.

(2) In other cases the personal representative or, on petition of the personal representative or the claimant in a special proceeding for the purpose, the court may provide for payment as follows:

(a) if the claimant consents, he may be paid the present or agreed value of the claim, taking any uncertainty into account;

(b) arrangement for future payment, or possible payment, on the happening of the contingency or on liquidation may be made by creating a trust, giving a mortgage, obtaining a bond or security from a distributee, or otherwise.

History: En. 91A-3-810 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-811. Counterclaims. In allowing a claim the personal representative may deduct any counterclaim which the estate has against the claimant. In determining a claim against an estate a court shall reduce the amount allowed by the amount of any counterclaims and, if the counterclaims exceed the claim, render a judgment against the claimant in the amount of the excess. A counterclaim, liquidated or unliquidated, may arise from a transaction other than that upon which the claim is based. A counterclaim may give rise to relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the claim.

History: En. 91A-3-811 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-812. Execution and levies prohibited. No execution may issue upon nor may any levy be made against any property of the estate under any judgment against a decedent or a personal representative, but this section shall not be construed to prevent the enforcement of mortgages, pledges or liens upon real or personal property in an appropriate proceeding.

History: En. 91A-3-812 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-813. Compromise of claims. When a claim against the estate has been presented in any manner, the personal representative, with the consent of the heirs or devisees or the court may, if it appears for the best interest of the estate, compromise the claim, whether due or not due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated.

History: En. 91A-3-813 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-814. Encumbered assets. If any assets of the estate are encumbered by mortgage, pledge, lien, or other security interest, the personal representative may pay the encumbrance or any part thereof, renew or extend any obligation secured by the encumbrance or convey or transfer the assets to the creditor in satisfaction of his lien, in whole or in part, whether or not the holder of the encumbrance has filed a claim, if it appears to be for the best interest of the estate. Payment of an encumbrance does not increase the share of the distributee entitled to the encumbered assets unless the distributee is entitled to exoneration.

History: En. 91A-3-814 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-2-609] establishes a rule of construction against exoneration. Thus, unless the will indicates to the contrary, a specific devisee of mortgaged property takes subject to the lien without right to have other assets applied to discharge the secured obligation.

91A-3-815. Administration in more than one state—duty of personal representative. (1) All assets of estates being administered in this state are subject to all claims, allowances and charges existing or established against the personal representative wherever appointed.

(2) If the estate either in this state or as a whole is insufficient to cover all family exemptions and allowances determined by the law of the decedent's domicile, prior charges and claims, after satisfaction of the exemptions, allowances and charges, each claimant whose claim has been allowed either in this state or elsewhere in administrations of which the personal representative is aware, is entitled to receive payment of an equal proportion of his claim. If a preference or security in regard to a claim is allowed in another jurisdiction but not in this state, the creditor so benefited is to receive dividends from local assets only upon the balance of his claim after deducting the amount of the benefit.

(3) In case the family exemptions and allowances, prior charges and claims of the entire estate exceed the total value of the portions of the estate being administered separately and this state is not the state of the decedent's last domicile, the claims allowed in this state shall be paid their proportion if local assets are adequate for the purpose, and the balance of local assets shall be transferred to the domiciliary personal representative. If local assets are not sufficient to pay all claims allowed in this state the amount to which they are entitled, local assets shall be marshaled so that each claim allowed in this state is paid its proportion as far as possible, after taking into account all dividends on claims allowed in this state from assets in other jurisdictions.

Editorial Board Comment

Under section [91A-3-803(1)(a)], if a local (property only) administration is commenced and proceeds to advertisement for claims before nonclaim statutes have run at domicile, claimants may prove claims in the local administration at any time before the local nonclaim period expires. [This section] has the effect of subjecting all assets of the decedent, wherever they may be located and administered, to claims properly presented in any local administration. It is necessary, however, that the personal representative of any portion of the estate be aware of other administrations in order for him to become responsible for claims and charges established against other administrations.

91A-3-816. Final distribution to domiciliary personal representative.

The estate of a nonresident decedent being administered by a personal representative appointed in this state shall, if there is a personal representative of the decedent's domicile willing to receive it, be distributed to the domiciliary personal representative for the benefit of the successors of the decedent unless (1) by virtue of the decedent's will, if any, and applicable choice of law rules, the successors are identified pursuant to the local law of this state without reference to the local law of the decedent's domicile;

(2) the personal representative of this state, after reasonable inquiry, is unaware of the existence or identity of a domiciliary personal representative; or

(3) the court orders otherwise in a proceeding for a closing order under section 91A-3-1001 or incident to the closing of a supervised administration. In other cases, distribution of the estate of a decedent shall be made in accordance with the other parts of this article.

Part 9—Special Provisions Relating to Distribution

- 91A-3-909. Improper distribution—liability of distributee.
- 91A-3-910. Purchasers from distributees protected.
- 91A-3-911. Partition for purpose of distribution.

- 91A-3-913. Distribution to trustee.
- 91A-3-914. Disposition of unclaimed assets.
- 91A-3-915. Distribution to person under disability.
- 91A-3-916. Apportionment of estate taxes.

91A-3-901. Successors' rights if no administration. In the absence of administration, the heirs and devisees are entitled to the estate in accordance with the terms of a probated will or the laws of intestate succession. Devisees may establish title by the probated will to devised property. Persons entitled to property by homestead allowance, exemption or intestacy may establish title thereto by proof of the decedent's ownership, his death, and their relationship to the decedent. Successors take subject to all charges incident to administration, including the claims of creditors and allowances of surviving spouse and dependent children, and subject to the rights of others resulting from abatement, retainer, advancement, and ademption.

Editorial Board Comment

Title to a decedent's property passes to his heirs and devisees at the time of his death. See section [91A-3-101]. This section adds little to section [91A-3-101] except to indicate how successors may establish record title in the absence of administration.

91A-3-902. Distribution—order in which assets appropriated—abatement. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) and except as provided in connection with the share of the surviving spouse who elects to take an elective share, shares of distributees abate, without any preference or priority as between real and personal property, in the following order:

- (a) property not disposed of by the will;
- (b) residuary devises;
- (c) general devises;
- (d) specific devises.

For purposes of abatement, a general devise charged on any specific property or fund is a specific devise to the extent of the value of the property on which it is charged, and upon the failure or insufficiency of the property on which it is charged, a general devise to the extent of the failure or insufficiency. Abatement within each classification is in proportion to the amounts of property each of the beneficiaries would have received if full distribution of the property had been made in accordance with the terms of the will.

(2) If the will expresses an order of abatement, or if the testamentary plan or the express or implied purpose of the devise would be defeated by the order of abatement stated in subsection (1), the shares of the distributees abate as may be found necessary to give effect to the intention of the testator.

(3) If the subject of a preferred devise is sold or used incident to administration, abatement shall be achieved by appropriate adjustments in, or contribution from, other interests in the remaining assets.

History: En. 91A-3-902 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

A testator may determine the order in which the assets of his estate are applied to the payment of his debts. If he does not, then the provisions of this section express rules which may be regarded as approximating what testators generally want. The statutory order of abatement is designed to aid in resolving doubts concerning the intention of a particular testator, rather than to defeat his purpose. Hence, subsection [(2)] directs that consideration be given to the purpose of a testator. This may be revealed in many ways. Thus, it is commonly held that, even in the absence of statute, general legacies to a wife, or to persons with respect to which the testator is in loco parentis, are to be preferred to other legacies in the same class because this accords with the probable purpose of the legacies.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Federal Estate Taxes

In absence of clause in will prohibiting surviving spouse's share from being limited, reduced or lessened by estate taxes, the surviving spouse's share of the residuary estate was not exempt from its proportional share of the federal estate tax. Robinson v. United States, 369 F Supp 925.

91A-3-903. Successor's indebtedness offset against interest—defenses available. The amount of a noncontingent indebtedness of a successor to the estate if due, or its present value if not due, shall be offset against the successor's interest; but the successor has the benefit of any defense which would be available to him in a direct proceeding for recovery of the debt.

History: En. 91A-3-903 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-904. Interest on general pecuniary devise. General pecuniary devises bear interest at the legal rate beginning one (1) year after the first appointment of a personal representative until payment, unless a contrary intent is indicated by the will.

History: En. 91A-3-904 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Unlike the common law, this section provides that a general pecuniary devisee's right to interest begins one year from the time when administration was commenced, rather than one year from death. The rule provided here is similar to the common-law rule in that the right to interest for delayed payment does not depend on whether the estate in fact realized income during the period of delay. The section is consistent with section 5(b) of the Revised Uniform Principal and Income Act which allocates realized net income of an estate between various categories of successors.

91A-3-905. Penalty clause for contest. A provision in a will purporting to penalize any interested person for contesting the will or instituting other proceedings relating to the estate is unenforceable if probable cause exists for instituting proceedings.

History: En. 91A-3-905 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-906. Distribution in kind—valuation—method. (1) Unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will, the distributable assets of a decedent's estate shall be distributed in kind to the extent possible through application of the following provisions:

(a) A specific devisee is entitled to distribution of the thing devised to him, and a spouse or child who has selected particular assets of an estate as provided in section 91A-2-402 shall receive the items selected.

(b) Any homestead or family allowance or devise payable in money may be satisfied by value in kind provided

(i) the person entitled to the payment has not demanded payment in cash;

(ii) the property distributed in kind is valued at fair market value as of the date of its distribution, and

(iii) no residuary devisee has requested that the asset in question remain a part of the residue of the estate.

(c) For the purpose of valuation under paragraph (b) securities regularly traded on recognized exchanges, if distributed in kind, are valued at the price for the last sale of like securities traded on the business day prior to distribution, or if there was no sale on that day, at the median between amounts bid and offered at the close of that day. Assets consisting of sums owed the decedent or the estate by solvent debtors as to which there is no known dispute or defense are valued at the sum due with accrued interest or discounted to the date of distribution. For assets which do not have readily ascertainable values, a valuation as of a date not more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of distribution, if otherwise reasonable, controls. For purposes of facilitating distribution, the personal representative may ascertain the value of the assets as of the time of the proposed distribution in any reasonable way, including the employment of qualified appraisers, even if the assets may have been previously appraised.

(d) The residuary estate shall be distributed in kind if there is no objection to the proposed distribution and it is practicable to distribute undivided interests. In other cases, residuary property may be converted into cash for distribution.

(2) After the probable charges against the estate are known, the personal representative may mail or deliver a proposal for distribution to all persons who have a right to object to the proposed distribution. The right of any distributee to object to the proposed distribution on the basis of the kind or value of asset he is to receive, if not waived earlier in writing, terminates if he fails to object in writing received by the personal representative within thirty (30) days after mailing or delivery of the proposal.

History: En. 91A-3-906 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section establishes a preference for distribution in kind. It directs a personal representative to make distribution in kind whenever feasible and to convert assets to cash only where there is a special reason for doing so. It provides a reasonable means for determining value of assets distributed in kind. It is implicit in sections [91A-3-101, 91A-3-901] and this section that each residuary beneficiary's basic right is to his proportionate share of each asset constituting the residue.

91A-3-907. Distribution in kind—evidence. If distribution in kind is made, the personal representative shall execute an instrument or deed of distribution assigning, transferring or releasing the assets to the distributee as evidence of the distributee's title to the property.

History: En. 91A-3-907 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This and sections following should be read with section [91A-3-708] which permits the personal representative to leave certain assets of a decedent's estate in the possession of the person presumptively entitled thereto. The "release" contemplated by this section would be used as evidence that the personal representative had determined that he would not need to disturb the possession of an heir or devisee for purposes of administration.

Under section 3-711 [omitted in Montana] a personal representative's relationship to assets of the estate is described as the "same power over the title to property of the estate as an absolute owner would have." A personal representative may, however, acquire a full title to estate assets, as in the case where particular items are conveyed to the personal representative by sellers, transfer agents or others. The language of [this section] is designed to cover instances where the instrument of distribution operates as a transfer, as well as those in which its operation is more like a release.

91A-3-908. Distribution—right or title of distributee. Proof that a distributee has received an instrument or deed of distribution of assets in kind, or payment in distribution, from a personal representative, is conclusive evidence that the distributee has succeeded to the interest of the estate in the distributed assets, as against all persons interested in the estate, except that the personal representative may recover the assets or their value if the distribution was improper.

History: En. 91A-3-908 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of this section is to channel controversies which may arise among successors of a decedent because of improper distributions through the personal representative who made the distribution, or a successor personal representative. Section [91A-3-108] does not bar appointment proceedings initiated to secure appointment of a personal representative to correct an erroneous distribution made by a prior representative. But see section [91A-3-1005].

91A-3-909. Improper distribution—liability of distributee. Unless the distribution or payment no longer can be questioned because of adjudication, estoppel, or limitation, a distributee of property improperly distributed or paid, or a claimant who was improperly paid, is liable to return the property improperly received and its income since distribution if he has the property. If he does not have the property, then he is liable to return the value as of the date of disposition of the property improperly received and its income and gain received by him.

History: En. 91A-3-909 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The term "improperly" as used in this section must be read in light of section [91A-3-703] and the manifest purpose of this and other sections of the code to shift questions concerning the propriety of various distributions from the fiduciary to the distributees in order to prevent every administration from becoming an adjudicated matter. Thus, a distribution may be "authorized at the time" as contemplated by section [91A-3-703] and still be "improper" under this section. Section [91A-3-703] is designed to permit a personal representative to distribute without risk in some cases, even though there has been no adjudication. When an unadjudicated distribution has occurred, the rights of persons to show that the basis for the distribution (e.g., an informally probated will, or informally issued letters of administration) is incorrect, or that the basis was improperly applied (erroneous interpretation, for example) is preserved against distributees by this section.

The definition of "distributee" to include the trustee and beneficiary of a testamentary trust in [91A-1-201(11)] is important in allocating liabilities that may arise under sections [91A-3-909 and 91A-3-910] on improper distribution by the personal representative under an informally probated will. The provisions of [91A-3-909 and 91A-3-910] are based on the theory that liability follows the property and the fiduciary is absolved from liability by reliance upon the informally probated will.

91A-3-910. Purchasers from distributees protected. If property distributed in kind or a security interest therein is acquired by a purchaser, or lender, for value from a distributee who has received an instrument or deed of distribution from the personal representative, the purchaser or lender takes title free of any claims of the estate and incurs no personal liability to the estate, whether or not the distribution was proper. To be protected under this provision, a purchaser or lender need not inquire whether a personal representative acted properly in making the distribution in kind.

History: En. 91A-3-910 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The words "instrument or deed of distribution" are explained in section [91A-

3-907]. The effect of this section may be to make an instrument or deed of distribution a very desirable link in a chain of title involving succession of land. Cf. section [91A-3-901].

91A-3-911. Partition for purpose of distribution. When two (2) or more heirs or devisees are entitled to distribution of undivided interests in any real or personal property of the estate, the personal representative or one (1) or more of the heirs or devisees may petition the court prior to the formal or informal closing of the estate, to make partition. After notice to the interested heirs or devisees, the court shall partition the property in the same manner as provided by the law for civil actions of partition. The court may direct the personal representative to sell any property which cannot be partitioned without prejudice to the owners and which cannot conveniently be allotted to any one party.

History: En. 91A-3-911 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Ordinarily heirs or devisees desiring partition of a decedent's property will resolve the issue by agreement without resort to the courts. (See section [91A-3-912].) If court determination is necessary, the court with jurisdiction to administer the estate has jurisdiction to partition the property.

91A-3-912. Private agreements among successors to decedent binding on personal representative. Subject to the rights of creditors and taxing authorities, competent successors may agree among themselves to alter the interests, shares, or amounts to which they are entitled under the will of the decedent, or under the laws of intestacy, in any way that they provide in a written contract executed by all who are affected by its provisions. The personal representative shall abide by the terms of the agreement subject to his obligation to administer the estate for the benefit of creditors, to pay all taxes and costs of administration, and to carry out the responsibilities of his office for the benefit of any successors of the decedent who are not parties. Personal representatives of decedents' estates are not required to see to the performance of trusts if the trustee thereof is another person who is willing to accept the trust. Accordingly, trustees of a testamentary trust are successors for the purposes of this section. Nothing herein relieves trustees of any duties owed to beneficiaries of trusts.

History: En. 91A-3-912 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

It may be asserted that this section is only a restatement of the obvious and should be omitted. Its purpose, however, is to make it clear that the successors to an estate have residual control over the way it is to be distributed. Hence, they may compel a personal representative to administer and distribute as they may agree and direct. Successors should compare the consequences and possible advantages of careful use of the power to renounce as described by section [91A-2-801] with the effect of agreement under this section. The most obvious difference is that an agreement among successors under this section would involve transfers by some participants to the extent it changed the pattern of distribution from that otherwise applicable.

Differing from a pattern that is familiar in many states, this code does not subject testamentary trusts and trustees to special statutory provisions, or supervisory jurisdiction. A testamentary trustee is treated as a devisee with special duties which are of no particular concern to the personal representative. Article VII [omitted in Montana] contains optional procedures extending the safeguards available to personal representatives to trustees of both inter vivos and testamentary trusts.

91A-3-913. Distribution to trustee. (1) Before distributing to a trustee, the personal representative may require that the trust be registered if the state in which it is to be administered provides for registration and that the trustee inform the beneficiaries as provided in section 91A-7-303.

(2) If the trust instrument does not excuse the trustee from giving bond, the personal representative may petition the appropriate court to require that the trustee post bond if he apprehends that distribution might jeopardize the interests of persons who are not able to protect themselves, and he may withhold distribution until the court has acted.

(3) No inference of negligence on the part of the personal representative shall be drawn from his failure to exercise the authority conferred by subsections (1) and (2).

History: En. 91A-3-913 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The reference in subsection (1) to "section 91A-7-303" is erroneous; the Montana enactment omitted section 7-303 of the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners.

Editorial Board Comment

This section is concerned with the fiduciary responsibility of the executor to beneficiaries of trusts to which he may deliver. Normally, the trustee represents beneficiaries in matters involving third persons, including prior fiduciaries. Yet, the executor may apprehend that delivery to the trustee may involve risks for the safety of the fund and for him. For example, he may be anxious to see that there is no equivocation about the devisee's willingness to accept the trust, and no problem of preserving evidence of the acceptance. He may have doubts about the integrity of the trustee, or about his ability to function satisfactorily. The testator's selection of the trustee may have been based on facts which are still current, or which are of doubtful relevance at the time of distribution. If the risks relate to the question of the trustee's intention to handle the fund without profit for himself, a conflict of interest problem is involved. If the risk relates to the ability of the trustee to manage prudently, a more troublesome question is posed for the executor. Is he, as executor, not bound to act in the best interests of the beneficiaries?

In many instances involving doubts of this sort, the executor probably will want the protection of a court order. Sections [91A-3-1001 and 91A-3-1002] provide ample authority for an appropriate proceeding in the court which issued the executor's letters.

In other cases, however, the executor may believe that he may be adequately protected if the acceptance of the trust by the devisee is unequivocal, or if the trustee is bonded. The purpose of this section is to make it clear that it is proper for the executor to require the trustee to register the trust and to notify beneficiaries before receiving distribution. Also, the section complements section 7-304 [omitted in Montana] by providing that the personal representative may petition an appropriate court to require that the trustee be bonded.

Status of testamentary trustees under the Uniform Probate Code. Under the Uniform Probate Code, the testamentary trustee by construction would be considered a devisee, distributee, and successor to whom title passes at time of the testator's death even though the will must be probated to prove the transfer. The informally probated will is conclusive until set aside and the personal representative may distribute to the trustee under the informally probated will or settlement agreement and the title of the trustee as distributee represented by the instrument or deed of distribution is conclusive until set aside on showing that it is improper. Should the informally probated will be set aside or the distribution to the trustee be shown to be improper, the trustee as distributee would be liable for value received but purchasers for value from the trustee as distributee under an instrument of distribution would be protected. [The] definition of "distributee" [in 91A-1-201(11)] limits the distributee liability of the trustee and substitutes that of the trust beneficiaries to the extent of distributions by the trustee.

As a distributee as defined by [91A-1-201(11)] the testamentary trustee or beneficiary of a testamentary trust is liable to claimants like other distributees, would have the right of contribution from other distributees of the decedent's estate and would be protected by the same time limitations as other distributees [91A-3-1007].

Incident to his standing as a distributee of the decedent's estate, the testamentary trustee would be an interested party who could petition for an order of complete settlement by the personal representative or for an order terminating testate administration. He also could appropriately receive the personal representative's account and distribution under a closing statement. As distributee he could represent his beneficiaries in compromise settlements in the decedent's estate which would be binding upon him and his beneficiaries. See section [91A-3-912].

The general fiduciary responsibilities of the testamentary trustee are not altered by the Uniform Probate Code and the trustee continues to have the duty to collect and reduce to possession within a reasonable time the assets of the trust estate including the enforcement of any claims on behalf of the trust against prior fiduciaries, including the personal representative, and third parties.

91A-3-914. Disposition of unclaimed assets. (1) If an heir, devisee or claimant cannot be found, the personal representative shall distribute the share of the missing person to his conservator, if any, otherwise to the department of revenue to be deposited in the state escheat fund as provided in chapter 5, Title 91, R. C. M. 1947, as amended.

(2) Any person having any claim to a share deposited in the state escheat fund under the provisions of this code shall follow the procedures set out in sections 91-501 through 91-526, concerning escheated estates to claim such share.

* * *

This section applies when it is believed that a claimant, heir or distributee exists but he cannot be located. See [91A-2-105].

91A-3-915. Distribution to person under disability. A personal representative may discharge his obligation to distribute to any person under legal disability by distributing to his conservator, or any other person authorized by this code or otherwise to give a valid receipt and discharge for the distribution.

History: En. 91A-3-915 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-5-103] is especially important as a possible source of authority for a valid discharge for payment or distribution made on behalf of a minor.

91A-3-916. Apportionment of estate taxes. (1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "estate" means the gross estate of a decedent as determined for the purpose of federal estate tax and the estate tax payable to this state;

(b) "person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, corporation, government, political subdivision, governmental agency, or local governmental agency;

(c) "person interested in the estate" means any person entitled to receive, or who has received, from a decedent or by reason of the death of a decedent any property or interest therein included in the decedent's estate. It includes a personal representative, conservator, and trustee;

(d) "state" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;

(e) "tax" means the federal estate tax and any additional inheritance, estate or death taxes imposed by the laws of any state and interest and penalties imposed in addition to the tax;

(f) "fiduciary" means personal representative or trustee.

(2) Unless the will otherwise provides, the tax shall be apportioned among all persons interested in the estate. The apportionment is to be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all persons interested in the estate. The values used in determining the tax are to be used for that purpose. If the decedent's will directs a method of apportionment of tax different from the method described in this code, the method described in the will controls.

(3)(a) The court in which venue lies for the administration of the estate of a decedent, on petition for the purpose may determine the apportionment of the tax.

(b) If the court finds that it is inequitable to apportion interest and penalties in the manner provided in subsection (2), because of special circumstances, it may direct apportionment thereof in the manner it finds equitable.

(c) If the court finds that the assessment of penalties and interest assessed in relation to the tax is due to delay caused by the negligence of the fiduciary, the court may charge him with the amount of the assessed penalties and interest.

(d) In any action to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this code the determination of the court in respect thereto shall be prima facie correct.

(4)(a) The personal representative or other person in possession of the property of the decedent required to pay the tax may withhold from any property distributable to any person interested in the estate, upon its distribution to him, the amount of tax attributable to his interest. If the property in possession of the personal representative or other person required to pay the tax and distributable to any person interested in the estate is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the tax determined to be due from the person, the personal representative or other person required to pay the tax may recover the deficiency from the person interested in the estate. If the property is not in the possession of the personal representative or the other person required to pay the tax, the personal representative or the other person required to pay the tax may recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this act.

(b) If property held by the personal representative is distributed prior to final apportionment of the tax, the distributee shall provide a bond or other security for the apportionment liability in the form and amount prescribed by the personal representative.

(5)(a) In making an apportionment, allowances shall be made for any exemptions granted, any classification made of persons interested in the estate and for any deductions and credits allowed by the law imposing the tax.

(b) Any exemption or deduction allowed by reason of the relationship of any person to the decedent or by reason of the purposes of the gift inures to the benefit of the person bearing such relationship or receiving the gift; but if an interest is subject to a prior present interest which is not allowable as a deduction, the tax apportionable against the present interest shall be paid from principal.

(c) Any deduction for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes or death taxes of a foreign country paid by the decedent or his estate inures to the proportionate benefit of all persons liable to apportionment.

(d) Any credit for inheritance, succession or estate taxes or taxes in the nature thereof applicable to property or interests includable in the estate, inures to the benefit of the persons or interests chargeable with the payment thereof to the extent proportionately that the credit reduces the tax.

(e) To the extent that property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse or any charitable, public or similar gift or devise is not an allowable deduction for purposes of the tax solely by reason of an inheritance tax or other death tax imposed upon and deductible from the property, the property is not included in the computation provided for in subsection (2) hereof, and to that extent no apportionment is made against the property. The sentence immediately preceding does not apply to any case if the result would be to deprive the estate of a deduction otherwise allowable under section 2053(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States, relating to deduction for state death taxes on transfers for public, charitable, or religious uses.

(6) No interest in income and no estate for years or for life or other temporary interest in any property or fund is subject to apportionment as between the temporary interest and the remainder. The tax on the temporary interest and the tax, if any, on the remainder is chargeable against the corpus of the property or funds subject to the temporary interest and remainder.

(7) Neither the personal representative nor other person required to pay the tax is under any duty to institute any action to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person until the expiration of the three (3) months next following final determination of the tax. A personal representative or other person required to pay the tax who institutes the action within a reasonable time after the three (3) months' period is not subject to any liability or surcharge because any portion of the tax apportioned to any person interested in the estate was collectible at a time following the death of the decedent but thereafter became uncollectible. If the personal representative or other person required to pay the tax cannot collect from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person, the amount not recoverable shall be equitably apportioned among the other persons interested in the estate who are subject to apportionment.

(8) A personal representative acting in another state or a person required to pay the tax domiciled in another state may institute an action in the courts of this state and may recover a proportionate amount of the federal estate tax, of an estate tax payable to another state or of a death duty due by a decedent's estate to another state, from a person interested in the estate who is either domiciled in this state or who owns property in this state subject to attachment or execution. For the purposes of the action the determination of apportionment by the court having jurisdiction of the administration of the decedent's estate in the other state is prima facie correct.

91A-3-1001. Formal proceedings terminating administration—testate or intestate—order of general protection. (1) A personal representative or any interested person may petition for an order of complete settlement of the estate. The personal representative may petition at any time, and any other interested person may petition after one (1) year from the appointment of the original personal representative except that no petition under this section may be entertained until the time for presenting claims which arose prior to the death of the decedent has expired. The petition may request the court to determine testacy, if not previously determined, to consider the final account or compel or approve an accounting and distribution, to construe any will or determine heirs and adjudicate the final settlement and distribution of the estate. After notice to all interested persons and hearing the court may enter an order or orders, on appropriate conditions, determining the persons entitled to distribution of the estate, and, as circumstances require, approving settlement and directing or approving distribution of the estate and discharging the personal representative from further claim or demand of any interested person.

(2) If one (1) or more heirs or devisees were omitted as parties in, or were not given notice of, a previous formal testacy proceeding, the court, on proper petition for an order of complete settlement of the estate under this section, and after notice to the omitted or unnotified persons and other interested parties determined to be interested on the assumption that the previous order concerning testacy is conclusive as to those given notice of the earlier proceeding, may determine testacy as it affects the omitted persons and confirm or alter the previous order of testacy as it affects all interested persons as appropriate in the light of the new proofs. In the absence of objection by an omitted or unnotified person, evidence received in the original testacy proceeding shall constitute prima facie proof of due execution of any will previously admitted to probate, or of the fact that the decedent left no valid will if the prior proceedings determined this fact.

Editorial Board Comment

Subsection [(2)] is derived from § 64 (b) of the Illinois Probate Act (1967). Section [91A-3-106] specifies that an order is binding as to all who are given notice even though less than all interested persons were notified. This section provides a method of curing an oversight in regard to notice which may come to light before the estate is finally settled. If the person who failed to receive notice of the earlier proceeding succeeds in obtaining entry of a different order from that previously made, others who received notice of the earlier proceeding may be benefited. Still, they are not entitled to notice of the curative proceeding, nor should they be permitted to appear.

See also Comment following section [91A-3-1002].

91A-3-1002. Formal proceedings terminating testate administration—order construing will without adjudicating testacy. A personal representative administering an estate under an informally probated will or any devisee under an informally probated will may petition for an order of settlement of the estate which will not adjudicate the testacy status of the decedent. The personal representative may petition at any time, and a devisee may petition after one (1) year, from the appointment of the original personal representative, except that no petition under this section may be entertained until the time for presenting claims which arose prior to the death of the decedent has expired. The petition may request the court to consider the final account or compel or approve an accounting and distribution, to construe the will and adjudicate final settlement and distribution of the estate. After notice to all devisees and the personal representative and hearing, the court may enter an order or orders, on appropriate conditions, determining the persons entitled to distribution of the estate under the will, and, as circumstances require, approving settlement and directing or approving distribution of the estate and discharging the personal representative from further claim or demand of any devisee who is a party to the proceeding and those he represents. If it appears that a part of the estate is intestate, the proceedings shall be dismissed or amendments made to meet the provisions of section 91A-3-1001.

Editorial Board Comment

[This section] permits a final determination of the rights between each other and against the personal representative of the devisees under a will when there has been no formal proceeding in regard to testacy. Hence, the heirs in intestacy need not be made parties. Section [91A-3-1001] permits a final determination of the rights between each other and against the personal representative of all persons interested in an estate. If supervised administration is used, section [91A-3-505] directs that the estate be closed by use of procedures like those described in [section 91A-3-1001]. Of course, testacy will have been adjudicated before time for the closing proceeding if supervised administration is used.

91A-3-1003. Closing estates by sworn statement of personal representative. (1) Unless prohibited by order of the court and except for estates being administered in supervised administration proceedings, a personal representative may close an estate by filing with the court no earlier than six (6) months after the date of original appointment of a general personal representative for the estate, a verified statement stating that he, or a prior personal representative whom he has succeeded, has or have:

(a) published notice to creditors as provided by section 91A-3-801 and that the first publication occurred more than six (6) months prior to the date of the statement;

(b) fully administered the estate of the decedent by making payment, settlement or other disposition of all claims which were presented, expenses of administration and estate, inheritance and other death taxes, except as specified in the statement, and that the assets of the estate have been distributed to the persons entitled. If any claims remain undischarged, the statement shall state whether the personal representative has distributed the estate subject to possible liability with the agreement of the distributees or it shall state in detail other arrangements which have been made to accommodate outstanding liabilities;

(c) sent a copy thereof to all distributees of the estate and to all creditors or other claimants of whom he is aware whose claims are neither paid nor barred and has furnished a full account in writing of his administration to the distributees whose interests are affected thereby; and

(d) complied with the provisions of section 91A-3-1004.

(2) If no proceedings involving the personal representative are pending in the court one (1) year after the closing statement is filed, the appointment of the personal representative terminates.

Editorial Board Comment

The code uses "termination" to refer to events which end a personal representative's authority. See sections [91A-3-608], et seq. The word "closing" refers to circumstances which support the conclusions that the affairs of the estate either are, or have been alleged to have been, wound up. If the affairs of the personal representative are reviewed and adjudicated under either sections [91A-3-1001 or 91A-3-1002], the judicial conclusion that the estate is wound up serves also to terminate the personal representative's authority. See section [91A-3-610 (2)]. On the other hand, a "closing" statement under [this section] is only an affirmation by the personal representative that he believes the affairs of the estate to be completed. The statement is significant because it reflects that assets have been distributed. Any creditor whose claim has not been barred and who has not been paid is permitted by section [91A-3-1005] to assert his claim against distributees. The personal representative is also still fully subject to suit under sections [91A-3-602 and 91A-3-603], for his authority is not "terminated" under section [91A-3-610(2)] until one year after a closing statement is filed. Even if his authority is "terminated," he remains liable to suit unless protected by limitation or unless an adjudication settling his accounts is the reason for "termination." See sections [91A-3-1006 and 91A-3-608].

From a slightly different viewpoint, a personal representative may obtain a complete discharge of his fiduciary obligations through a judicial proceeding after notice. Sections [91A-3-1001 and 91A-3-1002] describe two proceedings which enable a personal representative to gain protection from all persons or from devisees only. A personal representative who neither obtains a judicial order of protection nor files a closing statement, is protected by [section 91A-3-703] in regard to acts or distributions which were authorized when done but which become doubtful thereafter because of a change in testacy status. On the other questions, the personal representative who does not take any of the steps described by the code to gain more protection, has no protection against later claims of breach of his fiduciary obligation other than any arising from consent or waiver of individual distributees who may have bound themselves by receipts given to the personal representative.

This section increases the prospects of full discharge of a personal representative who uses the closing statement route over those of a personal representative who relies on receipts. Full protection follows from the running of the six months' limitations period described in [section 91A-3-1006]. But, [the latter section's] protection does not prevent distributees from claiming lack of full disclosure. Hence, it offers little more protection than a receipt. Still, it may be useful to decrease the likelihood of later claim of nondisclosure. Its more significant function, however, is to provide a means for terminating the office of personal representative in a way that will be obvious to third persons.

91A-3-1004. Department of revenue certificate showing taxes paid or receipt of county treasurer—prerequisite of closing estate. In all probate proceedings under this code before final distribution to successors is made and before any petition is granted under sections 91A-3-1001, 91A-3-1002, or 91A-3-1003, there shall have been filed with the clerk a certificate from the department of revenue or a receipt from the county treasurer stating that any inheritance tax due on the assets of the estate has been paid. This section shall not prohibit such partial distribution as may become necessary in the course of administration.

Compiler's Notes

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted "or a receipt from the county treasurer" in the first sentence.

91A-3-1005. Liability of distributees to claimants. After assets of an estate have been distributed and subject to section 91A-3-1007, an undischarged claim not barred may be prosecuted in a proceeding against one (1) or more distributees. No distributee shall be liable to claimants for amounts in excess of the value of his distribution as of the time of distribution. As between distributees, each shall bear the cost of satisfaction of unbarred claims as if the claim had been satisfied in the course of administration. Any distributee who shall have failed to notify other distributees of the demand made upon him by the claimant in sufficient time to permit them to join in any proceeding in which the claim was asserted against him loses his right of contribution against other distributees.

History: En. 91A-3-1005 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-1004.

Editorial Board Comment

This section creates a ceiling on the liability of a distributee of "the value of his distribution" as of the time of distribution. The section indicates that each distributee is liable for all that a claimant may prove to be due, provided the claim does not exceed the value of the defendant's distribution from the estate. But, each distributee may preserve a right of contribution against other distributees. The risk of insolvency of one or more, but less than all distributees is on the distributee rather than on the claimant.

91A-3-1006. Limitations on proceedings against personal representative.

Unless previously barred by adjudication and except as provided in the closing statement, the rights of successors and of creditors whose claims have not otherwise been barred against the personal representative for breach of fiduciary duty are barred unless a proceeding to assert the same is commenced within six (6) months after the filing of the closing statement. The rights thus barred do not include rights to recover from a personal representative for fraud, misrepresentation, or inadequate disclosure related to the settlement of the decedent's estate.

History: En. 91A-3-1006 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-1005.

Editorial Board Comment

This and the preceding section make it clear that a claimant whose claim has not been barred may have alternative remedies when an estate has been distributed subject to his claim. Under this section, he has six months to prosecute an action against the personal representative if the latter breached any duty to the claimant. For example, the personal representative may be liable to a creditor if he violated the provisions of section [91A-3-807]. The preceding section describes the fundamental liability of the distributees to unbarred claimants to the extent of the value received. The last sentence emphasizes that a personal representative who fails to disclose matters relevant to his liability in his closing statement and in the account of administration he furnished to distributees, gains no protection from the period described here. A personal representative may, however, use section [91A-3-1001], or, where appropriate, [section 91A-3-1002] to secure greater protection.

91A-3-1007. Limitations on actions and proceedings against distributees.

Unless previously adjudicated in a formal testacy proceeding or in a proceeding settling the accounts of a personal representative or otherwise barred, the claim of any claimant to recover from a distributee who is liable to pay the claim, and the right of any heir or devisee, or of a successor personal representative acting in their behalf, to recover property improperly distributed or the value thereof from any distributee is forever barred at the later of three (3) years after the decedent's death; or one (1) year after the time of distribution thereof. This section does not bar an action to recover property or value received as the result of fraud.

History: En. 91A-3-1007 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-1006.

Editorial Board Comment

This section describes an ultimate time limit for recovery by creditors, heirs and devisees of a decedent from distributees. It is to be noted: (1) Section [91A-3-108] imposes a general limit of three years from death on one who must set aside an informal probate in order to establish his rights, or who must secure probate of a late-discovered will after an estate has been administered as intestate. Hence the time limit of [91A-3-108] may bar one who would claim as an heir or devisee sooner than this section, although it would never cause a bar prior to three years from the decedent's death. (2) This section would not bar recovery by a supposed decedent whose estate has been probated. See section [91A-3-412]. (3) The limitation of this section ends the possibility of appointment of a personal representative to correct an erroneous distribution as mentioned in sections [91A-3-1006 and 91A-3-1009]. If there have been no adjudications under section [91A-3-409], or possibly [91A-3-1001 or 91A-3-1002], estate of the decedent which is discovered after administration has been closed may be the subject of different distribution than that attending the estate originally administered.

The last sentence excepting actions or suits to recover property kept from one by the fraud of another may be unnecessary in view of the blanket provision concerning fraud in [Chapter 1]. See section [91A-1-106].

91A-3-1008. Certificate discharging liens securing fiduciary performance. After his appointment has terminated, the personal representative, his sureties, or any successor of either, upon the filing of a verified application showing, so far as is known by the applicant, that no action concerning the estate is pending in any court, is entitled to receive a certificate from the clerk that the personal representative appears to have fully administered the estate in question. The certificate evidences discharge of any lien on any property given to secure the obligation of the personal representative in lieu of bond or any surety, but does not preclude action against the personal representative or the surety.

History: En. 91A-3-1008 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 3-1007.

Editorial Board Comment

This section does not affect the liability of the personal representative, or of any surety, but merely permits a release of security given by a personal representative, or his surety, when, from the passage of time and other conditions, it seems highly unlikely that there will be any liability remaining undischarged. See section [91A-3-607].

91A-3-1009. Subsequent administration. If other property of the estate is discovered after an estate has been settled and the personal representative discharged or after one (1) year after a closing statement has been filed, the court upon petition of any interested person and upon notice as it directs may appoint the same or a successor personal representative to administer the subsequently discovered estate. If a new appointment is made, unless the court orders otherwise, the provisions of this code apply as appropriate; but no claim previously barred may be asserted in the subsequent administration.

Compiler's Notes

Editorial Board Comment

This section is consistent with section [91A-3-108] which provides a general period of limitations of three years from death for appointment proceedings, but makes appropriate exception for subsequent administrations.

91A-3-1010. Lien of state on estate property for unpaid inheritance taxes. All property which is affected by the death of the decedent and on which inheritance, estate or death taxes are due under the laws of this state is subject to the lien of the state of Montana until such taxes have been paid. This lien follows all property sold in the course of administration.

tion or distributed under this code until such time as all inheritance taxes have been paid and a receipt showing payment thereof has been filed with the clerk of court, subject to applicable statutes of limitations on state inheritance tax liens. The department of revenue may issue a consent to transfer any real or personal property in the estate of a decedent free of the lien for unpaid inheritance taxes upon proper application and under such rules and regulations as the department shall prescribe.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment deleted "provided that such transfer shall not jeopardize payment of the inheritance taxes due" at the end of the section.

91A-3-1011. Estate to be closed within two years. If an estate has not been closed within two (2) years from the date of appointment of the personal representative, the clerk of the district court shall notify the district judge thereof. The judge shall order the personal representative and his attorney to appear before the court and show cause why the estate has not been closed.

If, after the show cause hearing, the judge determines that good cause does not exist for failure to close the estate, the judge may make an order directing that the estate be closed within thirty (30) days and that the personal representative and his attorney receive no fee or other compensation from the estate.

Title of Act

An act to amend the Uniform Probate

Code to provide that a personal representative and his attorney may not receive a fee or other compensation for an estate not closed within two years unless good cause is shown to exist.

91A-3-1012. Final accounting to close estate. Before an estate may be finally closed and the personal representative relieved of his duties and obligations, he shall either file with the court or deliver to all interested persons an accounting under oath showing the amount of money received and expended by him, the amount of all claims presented against the estate and the names of the claimants and all other matters necessary to show the state of its affairs. Any interested person at any time during the course of the administration of an estate may for good cause shown require further accountings. If the personal representative is the sole beneficiary of the estate no accounting need be made.

Part 11—Compromise of Controversies

Section

91A-3-1101. Effect of approval of agreements involving trusts, inalienable interests, or interests of third persons.

91A-3-1102. Procedure for securing court approval of compromises.

91A-3-1101. Effect of approval of agreements involving trusts, inalienable interests, or interests of third persons. A compromise of any controversy as to admission to probate of any instrument offered for formal probate as the will of a decedent, the construction, validity, or effect of any probated will, the rights or interests in the estate of the decedent, of any successor, or the administration of the estate, if approved in a formal proceeding in the court for that purpose, is binding on all the parties thereto including those unborn, unascertained or who could not be located. An approved compromise is binding even though it may affect a trust or an inalienable interest. A compromise does not impair the rights of creditors or of taxing authorities who are not parties to it.

History: En. 91A-3-1101 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-3-1102. Procedure for securing court approval of compromises.

The procedure for securing court approval of a compromise is as follows:

(1) The terms of the compromise shall be set forth in an agreement in writing which shall be executed by all competent persons and parents acting for any minor child having beneficial interests or having claims which will or may be affected by the compromise. Execution is not required by any person whose identity cannot be ascertained or whose whereabouts is unknown and cannot reasonably be ascertained.

(2) Any interested person, including the personal representative or a trustee, then may submit the agreement to the court for its approval and for execution by the personal representative, the trustee of every affected testamentary trust, and other fiduciaries and representatives.

(3) After notice to all interested persons or their representatives, including the personal representative of the estate and all affected trustees of trusts, the court, if it finds that the contest or controversy is in good faith and that the effect of the agreement upon the interests of persons represented by fiduciaries or other representatives is just and reasonable, shall make an order approving the agreement and directing all fiduciaries under its supervision to execute the agreement. Minor children represented only by their parents may be bound only if their parents join with other competent persons in execution of the compromise. Upon the making of the order and the execution of the agreement, all further disposition of the estate is in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

History: En. 91A-3-1102 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section and the one preceding it outline a procedure which may be initiated by competent parties having beneficial interests in a decedent's estate as a means of resolving controversy concerning the estate. If all competent persons with beneficial interests or claims which might be affected by the proposal and parents properly representing interests of their children concur, a settlement scheme differing from that otherwise governing the devolution may be substituted. The procedure for securing representation of minors and unknown or missing persons with interests must be followed. See section [91A-1-403]. The ultimate control of the question of whether the substitute proposal shall be accepted is with the court which must find: "that the contest or controversy is in good faith and that the effect of the agreement upon the interests of parties represented by fiduciaries is just and reasonable."

The thrust of the procedure is to put the authority for initiating settlement proposals with the persons who have beneficial interests in the estate, and to prevent executors and testamentary trustees from vetoing any such proposal. The only reason for approving a scheme of devolution which differs from that framed by the testator or the statutes governing intestacy is to prevent dissipation of the estate in wasteful litigation. Because executors and trustees may have an interest in fees and commissions which they might earn through efforts to carry out testator's intention, the judgment of the court is substituted for that of such fiduciaries in appropriate cases. A controversy which the court may find to be in good faith, as well as concurrence of all beneficially interested and competent persons and parent-representatives provide prerequisites which should prevent the procedure from being abused. Thus, the procedure does not threaten the planning of a testator who plans and drafts with sufficient clarity and completeness to eliminate the possibility of good faith controversy concerning the meaning and legality of his plan.

Part 12—Procedure for Collection of Personal Property by Affidavit, Termination of Joint Tenancies and Life Estates, and Summary Administration Procedure for Small Estates

Section

91A-3-1201. Collection of personal property by affidavit.

91A-3-1202. Effect of affidavit.

91A-3-1203. Small estates—summary administrative procedure.

91A-3-1204. Small estates—closing by sworn statement of personal representative.

91A-3-1205. Procedures for termination of joint tenancies and life estates.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

The four sections which follow include two designed to facilitate transfer of small estates without use of a personal representative, and two designed to simplify the duties of a personal representative, who is appointed to handle a small estate. [The fifth section in this part is not part of the Uniform Probate Code.]

The Flexible System of Administration described by earlier portions of [Chapter 3] lends itself well to situations involving small estates. Letters may be obtained quickly without notice or judicial involvement. Immediately, the personal representative is in a position to distribute to successors whose deeds or transfers will protect purchasers. This route accommodates the need for quick and inexpensive transfers of land of small value as well as other assets. Consequently, it was unnecessary to frame complex provisions extending the affidavit procedures to land.

Indeed, transfers via letters of administration may prove to be less troublesome than use of the affidavit procedure. Still, it seemed desirable to provide a quick collection mechanism which avoids all necessity to visit the probate court. For one thing, unpredictable local variations in probate practice may produce situations where the alternative procedure will be very useful. For another, the provision of alternatives is in line with the overall philosophy of [Chapter 3] to provide maximum flexibility.

Figures gleaned from a recent authoritative report of a major survey of probated estates in Cleveland, Ohio, demonstrate that more than one-half of all estates in probate had a gross value of less than $15,000. This means that the principal measure of the relevance of any legislation dealing with probate procedures is to be found in its impact on very small and moderate sized estates. Here is the area where probate affects most people.

91A-3-1201. Collection of personal property by affidavit. (1) Thirty (30) days after the death of a decedent, any person indebted to the decedent or having possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the successor of the decedent upon being presented an affidavit made by or on behalf of the successor stating that:

(a) the value of the entire estate, wherever located, less liens and encumbrances, does not exceed fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500);

(b) thirty (30) days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;

(c) no application or petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction; and

(d) the claiming successor is entitled to payment or delivery of the property.

(2) A transfer agent of any security shall change the registered ownership on the books of a corporation from the decedent to the successor or successors upon the presentation of an affidavit as provided in subsection (1).

Editorial Board Comment

This section provides for an easy method for collecting the personal property of a decedent by affidavit prior to any formal disposition. Existing legislation generally permits the surviving widow or children to collect wages and other small amounts of liquid funds. [This section] goes further in that it allows the collection of personal property as well as money and permits any devisee or heir to make the collection. Since the appointment of a personal representative may be obtained easily under the code, it is unnecessary to make the provisions regarding small estates applicable to realty.

91A-3-1202. Effect of affidavit. The person paying, delivering, transferring, or issuing personal property or the evidence thereof pursuant to affidavit is discharged and released to the same extent as if he dealt with a personal representative of the decedent. He is not required to see to the application of the personal property or evidence thereof or to inquire into the truth of any statement in the affidavit. If any person to whom an affidavit is delivered refuses to pay, deliver, transfer, or issue any personal property or evidence thereof, it may be recovered or its payment, delivery, transfer, or issuance compelled upon proof of their right in a proceeding brought for the purpose by or on behalf of the persons entitled thereto. Any person to whom payment, delivery, transfer or issuance is made is answerable and accountable therefor to any person representative of the estate or to any other person having a superior right.

Sections [91A-3-201 and 91A-3-1202] apply to any personal property located in this state whether or not the decedent died domiciled in this state, to any successor to personal property located in this state whether or not a resident of this state, and, to the extent that the laws of this state may control the succession to personal property, to personal property wherever located of a decedent who died domiciled in this state.

91A-3-1203. Small estates—summary administrative procedure. If it appears from the inventory and appraisal that the value of the net distributable estate does not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), or the value of the entire estate, less liens and encumbrances, does not exceed homestead allowance, exempt property, family allowance, costs and expenses of administration, reasonable funeral expenses, and reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, the personal representative, without giving notice to creditors, may immediately disburse and distribute the estate to the persons entitled thereto and file a closing statement as provided in section 91A-3-1204.

The Montana enactment inserted "the value of the net distributable estate does

Editorial Board Comment

This section makes it possible for the personal representative to make a summary distribution of a small estate without the necessity of giving notice to creditors. Since the probate estate of many decedents will not exceed the amount specified in the statute, this section will prove useful in many estates.

91A-3-1204. Small estates—closing by sworn statement of personal representative. (1) Unless prohibited by order of the court and except for estates being administered by supervised personal representatives, a personal representative may close an estate administered under the summary procedures of section 91A-3-1203 by filing with the court, at any time after disbursement and distribution of the estate, a verified statement stating that:

(a) to the best knowledge of the personal representative, the value of the net distributable estate did not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), or the value of the entire estate, less liens and encumbrances, did not exceed homestead allowance, exempt property, family allowance, costs and expenses of administration, reasonable funeral expenses, and reasonable, necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent;

(b) the personal representative has fully administered the estate by payment of inheritance taxes and by disbursing and distributing it to the persons entitled thereto; and

(c) the personal representative has sent a copy of the closing statement to all distributees of the estate and to all creditors or other claimants of whom he is aware whose claims are neither paid nor barred and has furnished a full account in writing of his administration to the distributees whose interests are affected.

(2) If no actions or proceedings involving the personal representative are pending in the court one (1) year after the closing statement is filed, the appointment of the personal representative terminates.

(3) A closing statement filed under this section has the same effect as one filed under section 91A-3-1003.

Editorial Board Comment

The personal representative may elect to close the estate under section [91A-3-1002] in order to secure the greater protection offered by that procedure.

The remedies for fraudulent statement provided in section [91A-1-106] of course would apply to any intentional misstatements by a personal representative.

91A-3-1205. Procedures for termination of joint tenancies and life estates. (1) If the inventory in an estate asserts that all or any part of the property listed therein was held by the decedent in joint tenancy or that the decedent held a life estate in any of the property listed, or for any other reason a determination of inheritance tax is required, the personal representative shall file with the department of revenue copies of the instruments by which each such joint tenancy or life estate was created or other interest requiring determination of inheritance tax came into being or other evidence of the existence of such joint tenancy or life estate or other property interest requiring the determination of inheritance tax. The department of revenue shall examine the documents and shall determine the existence of each asserted joint tenancy, life estate or other property interest requiring a determination of inheritance tax.

(2) If it shall be determined that all of the property listed in the inventory was held in joint tenancy or was held by the decedent as a life estate or requires the determination of inheritance tax, or any combination thereof, the department of revenue shall issue its certificate showing that all such property was in joint tenancy or was held as a life estate or requires only the determination of inheritance tax, and stating the names of the surviving owners, remaindermen or possessors thereof or persons entitled to an interest therein. The certificate shall also contain an interlocutory certificate by the department of revenue as to the inheritance tax, if any, due the state of Montana by reason of the death of the decedent. The certificate shall be mailed to the clerk of the appropriate court and to the personal representative. If no dispute exists as to the amount of tax due, if any, the tax shall be paid as provided in the inheritance tax laws of this state. Upon the filing of the receipt showing payment of the tax, the clerk of court shall issue a certificate stating that the joint tenancies or life estates are terminated or other interest in property requiring determination of inheritance tax is properly vested, specifically describing the property and designating the surviving owners or possessors, or persons entitled to an interest therein. This certificate may be filed in the office of the clerk and recorder of any county in which any such property is located.

(3) (a) If not all the property in the inventory was joint tenancy or life estate property or property requiring only the determination of inheritance tax, the department of revenue shall:

(i) determine the inheritance tax, if any, due to the state of Montana by reason of the death of the decedent and mail its interlocutory certificate to the clerk of the appropriate court and to the personal representative, showing the amount of tax so determined;

(ii) determine what property listed in the inventory was joint tenancy or life estate property or property requiring only the determination of inheritance tax and mail to the clerk of the appropriate court and to the personal representative its certificate describing such joint tenancy and life estate property or property requiring only the determination of inheritance tax and naming the surviving owners or possessors thereof or persons entitled to an interest therein.

(b) If the value of the property not in joint tenancy or held by the decedent as a life estate or requiring only the determination of inheritance tax does not exceed the maximum for summary administration, the personal representative shall proceed under the summary procedure as to the nonjoint tenancy or life estate property which requires more than just the determination of inheritance tax shall pay any inheritance tax and shall file with the appropriate clerk and recorder a certified copy of the department of revenue's list of joint tenancy property.

(c) If the value of the property not held in joint tenancy or as a life estate and not held as property requiring only a determination of inheritance tax does not permit a summary procedure, the personal representative shall proceed under the applicable statutes for administration and distribution and shall include in his decree or instrument of final distribution the list of such joint tenancy or life estate property or property requiring determination of inheritance tax, listing the surviving owners or possessors thereof or persons entitled to an interest therein. Such decree or instrument of final distribution shall be deemed a termination of the joint tenancy or life estate or vesting of the property interest.

(4) If disputes exist as to tax computation, they shall be resolved as provided under the laws applicable to the determination of inheritance taxes.

FOREIGN PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES—ANCILLARY ADMINISTRATION

1. Definitions, 91A-4-101.
2. Powers of foreign personal representatives, 91A-4-201 to 91A-4-209.
3. Jurisdiction over foreign representatives, 91A-4-301 to 91A-4-303.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

This [chapter] concerns the law applicable in estate problems which involve more than a single state. It covers the powers and responsibilities in the adopting state of personal representatives appointed in other states.

Some provisions of the code covering local appointment of personal representatives for nonresidents appear in [Chapter 3]. These include the following: [91A-3-201] (venue), [91A-3-202] (resolution of conflicting claims regarding domicile), [91A-3-203] (priority as personal representative of representative previously appointed at domicile), [91A-3-307(1)] (thirty days delay required before appointment of a local representative for a nonresident), [91A-3-303(1)] (claims barred by nonclaim at domicile before local administration commenced are barred locally) and [91A-3-815] (duty of personal representative in regard to claims where estate is being administered in more than one state). See also [91A-3-308, 91A-3-611(1) and 91A-3-816]. Also, see section [91A-4-209].

The recognition provisions contained in [Chapter 4] and the various provisions of [Chapter 3] which relate to administration of estates of nonresidents are designed to coerce respect for domiciliary procedures and administrative acts to the extent possible.

The first part of [Chapter 4] contains some definitions of particular relevance to estates located in two or more states.

The second part of [Chapter 4] deals with the powers of foreign personal representatives in a jurisdiction adopting the Uniform Probate Code. There are different types of power which may be exercised. * * * [The text of the Comment discussing the types of power of foreign personal representatives is omitted since the Montana enactment substantially revised the Uniform Probate Code provisions. Cf. sections 4-201 to 4-207 of the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners.]

Part 3 provides for power in the local court over foreign personal representatives who act locally. If a local or ancillary administration has been started, provisions in [Chapter 3] subject the appointee to the power of the court. See section [91A-3-602]. In Part 3 of this [chapter], it is provided that a foreign personal representative submits himself to the jurisdiction of the local court by filing a copy of his appointment to get the powers provided in section [91A-4-207] or by doing any act which would give the state jurisdiction over him as an individual. In addition, the collection of funds as provided in section [91A-4-204] gives the court quasi-in rem jurisdiction over the foreign personal representative to the extent of the funds collected.

Finally, section [91A-4-303] provides that the foreign personal representative is subject to the jurisdiction of the local court "to the same extent that his decedent was subject to jurisdiction immediately prior to death." This is similar to the typical nonresident motorist provision that provides for jurisdiction over the personal representative of a deceased nonresident motorist, see Note, 44 Iowa L.Rev. 384 (1959). It is, however, a much broader provision. * * *

Part 4 of the [chapter] deals with the res judicata effect to be given adjudications for or against a foreign personal representative. Any such adjudication is to be conclusive on a local personal representative "unless it resulted from fraud or collusion . . . to the prejudice of the estate." This provision must be read with section [91A-3-408] which deals with certain out-of-state findings concerning a decedent's estate.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS UNDER DISABILITY AND THEIR PROPERTY

1. General provisions, 91A-5-101 to 91A-5-104.
2. Guardians of minors, 91A-5-201 to 91A-5-212.
3. Guardians of incapacitated persons, 91A-5-301 to 91A-5-313.
4. Protection of property of persons under disability and minors, 91A-5-401 to 91A-5-431.
5. Powers of attorney, 91A-5-501, 91A-5-502.

EDITORIAL BOARD COMMENT

[Chapter 5] * * * embodies separate systems of guardianship to protect persons of minors and mental incompetents. It also includes provisions for a type of power of attorney that does not terminate on disability of the principal which may be used by adults approaching senility or incompetence to avoid the necessity for other kinds of protective regimes. Finally, Part 4 of the [chapter] offers a system of protective proceedings, including conservatorships, to provide for the management of substantial aggregations of property of persons who are, for one reason or another, including minority and mental incompetence, unable to manage their own property.

It should be emphasized that the [chapter] contains many provisions designed to minimize or avoid the necessity of guardianship and protective proceedings, as well as provisions designed to simplify and minimize arrangements which become necessary for care of persons or their property. The power of attorney which confers authority notwithstanding later incompetence is one example of the former. Another is a facility of payment provision which permits relatively small sums owed to a minor to be paid whether or not there is a guardian or other official who has been designated to act for the minor. A new device tending to simplify necessary protective proceedings, is found in provisions in Part 4 which permit a judge to make appropriate orders concerning the property of a disabled person without appointing a fiduciary.

The highspots of the several parts of [Chapter 5], considered in somewhat more detail, include the following:

(a) The facility of payment clause, which is section [91A-5-103], permits one owing up to $5,000 per year to a minor to be validly discharged by payment to the minor, if he is over eighteen or married, to the minor's parent or grandparent or other adult with whom the minor resides, to a guardian, or by deposit in an account in the name of the minor.

(b) A provision in Part 2 permits the surviving parent of a minor to designate a guardian by will. A similar provision in Part 3 authorizes a parent or spouse to designate a guardian for an incapacitated person by will. Such designation becomes effective upon probate of the will and the filing of an acceptance by the guardian. Thereafter the status of guardian and ward arises. It is like guardianship of the person, rather than of estate. It is described as a parental relationship without the parental obligation of support. The relationship follows the guardian and ward and is properly recognized and implemented, as and when necessary, by the courts of any jurisdiction where these persons may be located. No requirement of periodic reports or accounts is imposed on a testamentary guardian. The question of his proper expenditure of the small sums which he may receive for the ward is left to be settled by the guardian and ward after the ward attains full age. If the amounts involved become more than the guardian cares to be responsible for on this basis, he or any other interested person may seek the appointment of a property manager who is called a "conservator" by the code. The guardian may be eligible to be appointed to this position.

Part 2 also permits a testamentary guardian of a minor to receive and expend sums payable to the minor for the minor's support and education without court order. He may not pay himself for services, however, and is under a duty to deposit excess funds, or to seek a suitable property-protection order if other management is needed.

(c) A parent or guardian is permitted to delegate his authority for short periods as necessitated by anticipated absence or incapacity.

(d) As previously mentioned, Part 4 . . . deals with protective proceedings designed to permit substantial property interests of minors and others unable properly to manage their own affairs to be controlled by court order or managed by a conservator appointed by the court. The causes for inability of owner-management that are listed by the statute are quite broad. Technical incompetency is but one of several reasons why one may be unable to manage his affairs. See section [91A-5-401(2)]. The draftsmen's view was that reliance should be placed on the fact that the court applying the statute would be a full power court and on the various procedural safeguards, including a right to jury trial, to protect against unwise use of the proceedings, rather than to attempt to state and rely upon a narrow or technical test of lack of ability.

Section [91A-5-409] is important, for it makes it clear that a court entertaining a protective proceeding has full power, through its orders, to do anything the protected person himself might have done if not disabled. Another provision broadens the form of relief so that the court may handle a single transaction, like renewal of a mortgage, or a sale and related investment of proceeds, which is recommended in respect to the affairs of a protected person directly by its orders rather than through the appointment of a conservator.

(e) If a conservator is appointed, provisions in Part 4 of the draft give him broad powers of management that may be exercised without a court order. On the other hand, provision is made for restricting the managerial or distribution powers of a conservator, provided notation of the restriction appears on his letters of appointment. Unless restricted, the fiduciary may be able to distribute and end the arrangement without court order if he can meet the terms of the Act. Among other kinds of expenditures and disbursements authorized, payments for the support and education of the protected person as determined by a guardian of the protected person, if any, or by the conservator, if there is no guardian, are approved. Also, certain payments for the support of dependents of the protected person are approved by the code and hence would require no special approval.

(f) Other provisions in Part 4 round out the relationship of protective proceedings to creditors of the protected person and persons who deal with a conservator. Claims are handled by the conservator who is given a fiduciary responsibility to claimants and suitable discretion concerning allowance. If questions arise, the appointing court has all needed power to deal with disputes with creditors. The draft changes the common-law rule that contracts of a guardian are his personal responsibility. A conservator is not liable personally on contracts made for the estate unless he agrees to such liability. A section buttresses the managerial powers given to conservator by protecting all persons who deal with them.

(g) Another section seeks to reduce the importance of state lines in respect to the authority of conservators by permitting appointees of foreign courts to act locally. Also, it follows the pattern of [Chapter 3] dealing with ancillary administration of decedents' estates by giving the conservator appointed at the domicile of the protected person priority for appointment locally in case local administration of a protected person's assets becomes necessary.

(h) The many states which have adopted the Uniform Veterans Guardianship Act [secs. 91-4801 et seq., repealed effective July 1, 1975] now have two systems for protection of the property of minors and mental incompetents, one of which applies if the property was derived, in whole or in part, from benefits paid by the Veterans Administration and its minor or incompetent owner is or has been a beneficiary of the Veterans Administration, and the other of which applies to all other property. It is sometimes difficult to ascertain whether a person has ever received a benefit from the Veterans Administration and commonly impossible to determine whether property was derived in part from benefits paid by the Veterans Administration. Part 4 would provide a single system for the protection of property of minors and others unable to manage their own property, thus superseding the Uniform Veterans Guardianship Act. It would preserve the right of the Veterans Administration to appear in protective proceedings involving the property of its beneficiaries and would permit the imposition of the same safeguards provided by the superseded Uniform Veterans Guardianship Act.

Part 1—General Provisions

Section

- 91A-5-101. Definitions and use of terms.
 91A-5-102. Jurisdiction of subject matter—consolidation of proceedings.
 91A-5-103. Facility of payment or agreement.
 91A-5-104. Delegation of powers by parent or guardian.

91A-5-101. Definitions and use of terms. Unless otherwise apparent from the context, in this code:

(1) "incapacitated person" means any person who is impaired by reason of mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, advanced age, chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, or other cause (except minority) to the extent that he lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate responsible decisions concerning his person;

(2) "protective proceeding" means a proceeding under the provisions of section 91A-5-401 to determine that a person cannot effectively manage or apply his estate to necessary ends, either because he lacks the ability or is otherwise inconvenienced, or because he is a minor, and to secure administration of his estate by a conservator or other appropriate relief;

(3) "protected person" means a minor or other person for whom a conservator has been appointed or other protective order has been made;

(4) "ward" means a person for whom a guardian has been appointed. A "minor ward" is a minor for whom a guardian has been appointed solely because of minority.

History: En. 91A-5-101 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

"Conservator," "estate," "guardian," and "minor," and other terms having relevance to [Chapter 5], are defined in [91A-1-201]. "Disability" as defined in section [91A-1-201(10)] keys to an adjudication for the causes listed in section [91A-5-401]. The definition of "incapacitated" on the other hand contains the bases for appointment of a guardian under section 91A-5-303].

91A-5-102. Jurisdiction of subject matter—consolidation of proceedings. (1) The court has jurisdiction over protective proceedings and guardianship proceedings.

(2) When both guardianship and protective proceedings as to the same person are commenced or pending in the same court, the proceedings may be consolidated.

History: En. 91A-5-102 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-103. Facility of payment or agreement. Any person under a duty to pay or deliver money or personal property to a minor may perform this duty, in amounts not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per annum, by paying or delivering the money or property to:

(1) the minor, if he has attained the age of eighteen (18) years or is married;

(2) any person having the care and custody of the minor with whom the minor resides;

(3) a guardian of the minor; or

(4) a financial institution incident to a deposit in a federally insured savings account in the sole name of the minor and giving notice of the deposit to the minor.

This section does not apply if the person making payment or delivery has actual knowledge that a conservator has been appointed or proceedings for appointment of a conservator of the estate of the minor are pending. The persons, other than the minor or any financial institution under (4) above, receiving money or property for a minor, are obligated to apply the money to the support and education of the minor, but may not pay themselves except by way of reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses for goods and services necessary for the minor's support. Any excess sums shall be preserved for future support of the minor and any balance not so used and any property received for the minor must be turned over to the minor when he attains majority. Persons who pay or deliver in accordance with provisions of this section are not responsible for the proper application thereof.

History: En. 91A-5-103 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Where a minor has only a small amount of property, it would be wasteful to require protective proceedings to deal with the property. This section makes it possible for other persons, such as the guardian, to handle the less complicated property affairs of the ward. Protective proceedings, including the possible establishment of a conservatorship, will be sought where substantial property is involved.

This section does not go as far as many facility of payment provisions found in trust instruments which usually permit application of sums due minor beneficiary to any expense or charge for the minor. It was felt that a grant of so large an area of discretion to any category of person who might owe funds to a minor would be unwise. Nonetheless, the section as drafted should reduce the need for trust facility of payment provision somewhat, while extending opportunities to insurance companies and other debtors to minors for relatively simple methods of gaining discharge.

91A-5-104. Delegation of powers by parent or guardian. A parent or a guardian of a minor or incapacitated person, by a properly executed power of attorney, may delegate to another person, for a period not exceeding six (6) months, any of his powers regarding care, custody, or property of the minor child or ward, except his power to consent to marriage or adoption of a minor ward.

History: En. 91A-5-104 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section permits a temporary delegation of parental powers. For example, parents (or guardian) of a minor plan to be out of the country for several months. They wish to empower a close relative (an uncle, e.g.) to take any necessary action regarding the child while they are away. Using this section, they could execute an appropriate power of attorney giving the uncle custody and power to consent. Then if an emergency operation were required, the uncle could consent on behalf of the child; as a practical matter he would of course attempt to communicate with the parents before acting. The section is designed to reduce problems relating to consents for emergency treatment.

Part 2—Guardians of Minors

- 91A-5-210. Termination of appointment of guardian—general.
- 91A-5-211. Proceedings subsequent to appointment—venue.
- 91A-5-212. Resignation or removal proceedings.

91A-5-201. Status of guardian of minor—general. A person becomes a guardian of a minor by acceptance of a testamentary appointment or upon appointment by the court. The guardianship status continues until terminated, without regard to the location from time to time of the guardian and minor ward.

History: En. 91A-5-201 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-202. Testamentary appointment of guardian of minor. The parent of a minor may appoint by will a guardian of an unmarried minor. Subject to the right of the minor under section 91A-5-203, a testamentary appointment becomes effective upon filing the guardian's acceptance in the court in which the will is probated, if before acceptance, both parents are dead or the surviving parent is adjudged incapacitated. If both parents are dead, an effective appointment by the parent who died later has priority. This state recognizes a testamentary appointment effected by filing the guardian's acceptance under a will probated in another state which is the testator's domicile. Upon acceptance of appointment, written notice of acceptance must be given by the guardian to the minor and to the person having his care or to his nearest adult relations.

History: En. 91A-5-202 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment added the last sentence of this section.

91A-5-203. Objection by minor of fourteen (14) or older to testamentary appointment. A minor of fourteen (14) or more years may prevent an appointment of his testamentary guardian from becoming effective, or may cause a previously accepted appointment to terminate, by filing with the court in which the will is probated a written objection to the appointment before it is accepted or within thirty (30) days after notice of its acceptance. An objection may be withdrawn. An objection does not preclude appointment by the court in a proper proceeding of the testamentary nominee, or any other suitable person.

History: En. 91A-5-203 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-204. Court appointment of guardian of minor—conditions for appointment. The court may appoint a guardian for an unmarried minor if all parental rights of custody have been terminated or suspended by circumstances or prior court order. A guardian appointed by will as provided in section 91A-5-202 whose appointment has not been prevented or nullified under 91A-5-203 has priority over any guardian who may be appointed by the court but the court may proceed with an appointment upon a finding that the testamentary guardian has failed to accept the testamentary appointment within thirty (30) days after notice of the guardianship proceeding.

History: En. 91A-5-204 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The words "all parental rights of custody" are to be read with sections [91A-5-201 and 91A-5-209] which give testamentary and court-appointed guardians of minors certain parental rights respecting the minor. Hence, no authority to appoint a guardian for a minor exists if a testamentary guardian has accepted an effective appointment by will. The purpose of this restriction is to support and encourage testamentary appointments which may occur without judicial act. If a testamentary guardian proves to be unsatisfactory, removal proceedings as provided in section [91A-5-211] may be used if the objection device of section [91A-5-203] is unavailable.

91A-5-205. Court appointment of guardian of minor—venue. The venue for guardianship proceedings for a minor is in the place where the minor resides or is present.

History: En. 91A-5-205 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Section [91A-1-303] provides for conflicts of venue and for transfer of venue.

91A-5-206. Court appointment of guardian of minor—qualifications—priority of guardian's nominee. The court may appoint as guardian any person whose appointment would be in the best interests of the minor. The court shall appoint a person nominated by the minor, if the minor is fourteen (14) years of age or older, unless the court finds the appointment contrary to the best interests of the minor.

History: En. 91A-5-206 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Rather than provide for priorities among various classes of relatives, it was felt that the only priority should be for the person nominated by the minor. The important point is to locate someone whose appointment will be in the best interests of the minor. If there is contention among relatives over who should be named, it is not likely that a statutory priority keyed to degrees of kinship would help resolve the matter. For example, if the argument involved a squabble between relatives of the child's father and relatives of its mother, priority in terms of degrees of kinship would be useless.

Guardianships under this code are not likely to be attractive positions for persons who are more interested in handling a minor's estate than in his personal well-being. An order of a court having equity power is necessary if the guardian is to receive payment for services where there is no conservator for the minor's estate. Also, the powers of management of a ward's estate conferred on a guardian are restricted so that if a substantial estate is involved, a conservator will be needed to handle the financial matters.

91A-5-207. Court appointment of guardian of minor—procedure. (1) Notice of the time and place of hearing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian of a minor is to be given by the petitioner in the manner prescribed by section 91A-1-401 to:

- (a) the minor, if he is fourteen (14) or more years of age;
- (b) the person who has had the principal care and custody of the minor during the sixty (60) days preceding the date of the petition; and
- (c) any living parent of the minor.

(2) Upon hearing, if the court finds that a qualified person seeks appointment, venue is proper, the required notices have been given, the requirements of section 91A-5-204 have been met, and the welfare and best interests of the minor will be served by the requested appointment, it shall make the appointment. In other cases the court may dismiss the proceedings, or make any other disposition of the matter that will best serve the interest of the minor.

(3) If necessary, the court may appoint a temporary guardian, with the status of an ordinary guardian of a minor, but the authority of a temporary guardian shall not last longer than six (6) months.

(4) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the minor are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is fourteen (14) years of age or older.

History: En. 91A-5-207 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-208. Consent to service by acceptance of appointment—notice. By accepting a testamentary or court appointment as guardian, a guardian submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any interested person. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the guardian, or mailed to him by ordinary mail at his address as listed in the court records and to his address as then known to the petitioner. Letters of guardianship must indicate whether the guardian was appointed by will or by court order.

History: En. 91A-5-208 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The "long-arm" principle behind this section is well established. It seems desirable that the court in which acceptance is filed be able to serve its process on the guardian wherever he has moved. The continuing interest of that court in the welfare of the minor is ample to justify this provision. The consent to service is real rather than fictional in the guardianship situation, where the guardian acts voluntarily in filing acceptance. It is probable that the form of acceptance will expressly embody the provisions of this section, although the statute does not expressly require this.

91A-5-209. Powers and duties of guardian of minor. A guardian of a minor has the powers and responsibilities of a parent who has not been deprived of custody of his minor and unemancipated child, except that a guardian is not legally obligated to provide from his own funds for the ward and is not liable to third persons by reason of the parental relationship for acts of the ward. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties:

(1) He must take reasonable care of his ward's personal effects and commence protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the ward.

(2) He may receive money payable for the support of the ward to the ward's parent, guardian or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship or custodianship. He also may receive money or property of the ward paid or delivered by virtue of section 91A-5-103. Any sums so received shall be applied to the ward's current needs for support, care and education. He must exercise due care to conserve any excess for the ward's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the ward, in which case excess shall be paid over at least annually to the conservator. Sums so received by the guardian are not to be used for compensation for his services except as approved by order of court or as determined by a duly appointed conservator other than the guardian. A guardian may institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward.

(3) The guardian is empowered to facilitate the ward's education, social, or other activities and to authorize medical or other professional care, treatment, or advice. A guardian is not liable by reason of this consent for injury to the ward resulting from the negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent to have consented. A guardian may consent to the marriage or adoption of his ward.

(4) A guardian must report the condition of his ward and of the ward's estate which has been subject to his possession or control, as ordered by court on petition of any person interested in the minor's welfare or as required by court rule.

History: En. 91A-5-209 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

See section [91A-5-212]. See, also, section [91A-5-424(1)] which confers the powers of a guardian on a conservator who is responsible for the estate of a minor under eighteen for whom no guardian has been named.

91A-5-210. Termination of appointment of guardian—general. A guardian's authority and responsibility terminates upon the death, resignation or removal of the guardian or upon the minor's death, adoption, marriage or attainment of majority, but termination does not affect his liability for prior acts, nor his obligation to account for funds and assets of his ward. Resignation of a guardian does not terminate the guardianship until it has been approved by the court. A testamentary appointment under an informally probated will terminates if the will is later denied probate in a formal proceeding.

History: En. 91A-5-210 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-211. Proceedings subsequent to appointment—venue. (1) The court where the ward resides has concurrent jurisdiction with the court which appointed the guardian, or in which acceptance of a testamentary appointment was filed, over resignation, removal, accounting and other proceedings relating to the guardianship.

(2) If the court located where the ward resides is not the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed, the court in which proceedings subsequent to appointment are commenced shall in all appropriate cases notify the other court, in this or another state, and after consultation with that court determine whether to retain jurisdiction or transfer the proceedings to the other court, whichever is in the best interest of the ward. A copy of any order accepting a resignation or removing a guardian shall be sent to the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed.

History: En. 91A-5-211 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Under section [91A-1-302], the court is designated as the proper court to handle matters relating to guardianship. The present section is intended to give jurisdiction to the forum where the ward resides as well as to the one where appointment initiated. This has primary importance where the ward's residence has been moved from the appointing state. Because the court where acceptance of appointment is filed may as a practical matter be the only forum where jurisdiction over the person of the guardian may be obtained (by reason of section [91A-5-208]), that court is given concurrent jurisdiction.

91A-5-212. Resignation or removal proceedings. (1) Any person interested in the welfare of a ward, or the ward, if fourteen (14) or more years of age, may petition for removal of a guardian on the ground that removal would be in the best interest of the ward. A guardian may petition for permission to resign. A petition for removal or for permission to resign may, but need not, include a request for appointment of a successor guardian.

(2) After notice and hearing on a petition for removal or for permission to resign, the court may terminate the guardianship and make any further order that may be appropriate.

(3) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the ward are, or may be, inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is fourteen (14) or more years of age.

91A-5-301. Testamentary appointment of guardian for incapacitated person. (1) The parent of an incapacitated person may by will appoint a guardian of the incapacitated person. A testamentary appointment by a parent becomes effective when, after having given seven (7) days' prior written notice of his intention to do so to the incapacitated person and to the person having his care or to his nearest adult relative, the guardian files acceptance of appointment in the court in which the will is informally or formally probated, if prior thereto, both parents are dead or the surviving parent is adjudged incapacitated. If both parents are dead, an effective appointment by the parent who died later has priority unless it is terminated by the denial of probate in formal proceedings.

(2) The spouse of a married incapacitated person may by will appoint a guardian of the incapacitated person. The appointment becomes effective when, after having given seven (7) days' prior written notice of his intention to do so to the incapacitated person and to the person having his care or to his nearest adult relative, the guardian files acceptance of appointment in the court in which the will is informally or formally probated. An effective appointment by a spouse has priority over an appointment by a parent unless it is terminated by the denial of probate in formal proceedings.

(3) This state shall recognize a testamentary appointment effected by filing acceptance under a will probated at the testator's domicile in another state.

(4) On the filing with the court in which the will was probated of written objection to the appointment by the person for whom a testamentary appointment of guardian has been made, the appointment is terminated. An objection does not prevent appointment by the court in a proper proceeding of the testamentary nominee or any other suitable person upon an adjudication of incapacity in proceedings under the sections 91A-5-302 through 91A-5-313, inclusive.

History: En. 91A-5-301 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section, modeled after section [91A-5-205], is designed to give the surviving parent, or the spouse, of an incapacitated person, the ability to confer the authority of a guardian on a person designated by will. This opportunity may be most useful in cases where parents, during their lifetime, have arranged an informal or voluntary commitment of an incompetent child, and are anxious to designate another who can maintain contact with the patient and act on his behalf without the necessity of a sanity hearing. The person designated by will must act by filing acceptance of the appointment. This provides a check against will directions which might prove to be unwise or unnecessary after the parents' death. Moreover, the testamentary designee will have the risk of the possibility that the ward is not in fact incapacitated to prevent him from using the authority conferred to restrain the liberty of the ward. In cases of doubt, the testamentary appointee should petition for a court appointment under section [91A-5-303].

91A-5-302. Venue. The venue for guardianship proceedings for an incapacitated person is in the place where the incapacitated person resides or is present. If the incapacitated person is admitted to an institution pursuant to order of a court of competent jurisdiction, venue is also in the county in which that court sits.

History: En. 91A-5-302 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Venue in guardianship proceedings lies in the county where the incapacitated person is present, as well as where he resides. Thus, if the person is temporarily away from his county of usual abode, the court of the county where he happens to be may handle requests for guardianship proceedings relating to him. In protective proceedings, venue is normally in the county of residence. See section [91A-5-403]. See section [91A-1-303] for disposition when venue is in two counties, and for transfer of venue.

91A-5-303. Procedure for court appointment of a guardian of an incapacitated person. (1) The incapacitated person or any person interested in his welfare may petition for a finding of incapacity and appointment of a guardian.

(2) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall set a date for hearing on the issues of incapacity and unless the allegedly incapacitated person has counsel of his own choice, it shall appoint an appropriate official or attorney to represent him in the proceeding, who shall have the powers and duties of a guardian ad litem. The person alleged to be incapacitated shall be examined by a physician appointed by the court who shall submit his report in writing to the court and be interviewed by a visitor sent by the court. The visitor also shall interview the person seeking appointment as guardian, and visit the present place of abode of the person alleged to be incapacitated and the place it is proposed that he will be detained or reside if the requested appointment is made and submit his report in writing to the court. The person alleged to be incapacitated is entitled to be present at the hearing in person, and to see or hear all evidence bearing upon his condition. He is entitled to be present by counsel, to present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed physician and the visitor, and to trial by jury. The issue may be determined at a closed hearing without a jury if the person alleged to be incapacitated or his counsel so requests.

History: En. 91A-5-303 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The procedure here is similar to, but not precisely the same as, protective proceedings for certain disabled persons. It is not required that the visitor be a lawyer. In urban areas, the visitor may be a social worker capable of determining the needs of the person for whom the appointment is sought. By brackets, the National Conference indicates that enacting states should decide whether it is appropriate to create a right to jury trial. [Montana provides a right to jury trial.]

91A-5-304. Findings—order of appointment. The court may appoint a guardian as requested if it is satisfied that the person for whom a guardian is sought is incapacitated and that the appointment is necessary or desirable as a means of providing continuing care and supervision of the person of the incapacitated person. Alternatively, the court may dismiss the proceeding or enter any other appropriate order.

History: En. 91A-5-304 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The purpose of guardianship is to provide for the care of a person who is unable to care for himself. There is no reason to seek a guardian in those situations where the problems to be dealt with center around the property of a disabled person. In that event, a protective proceeding under Part 4 may be in order.

It is assumed that the standards suggested by the definition in section [91A-5-101] for the "incapacitated" person are different from those which will determine when a person may be committed as mentally ill. For example, involuntary commitment proceedings may well be inappropriate unless it is determined that the patient is or probably will become dangerous to himself or the person or property of others. As indicated in [91A-5-101], the meaning of "incapacitated" turns on whether the subject lacks "understanding or capacity to make or communicate responsible decisions concerning his person." There is overlap between the two sets of standards, but they are different. Hence, a finding that a person is "incapacitated" does not amount to a finding that he is mentally ill, or can be committed. In the reverse situation, if a person has been committed to institutional care and custody because of mental illness, it may be unnecessary to appoint a guardian for him. Nonetheless, it may be desirable to have a personal guardian for one who is or may be committed or who will be cared for by an institution. For one thing, a guardian, having custody, might arrange for a voluntary care arrangement like that which a parent for a minor and incapacitated child could establish. Moreover, the limited authority of a guardian over property of his ward may be appropriate in cases where the ward is committed. Because of the relationship between existing guardianship legislation and the handling of committed persons appears to vary considerably from state to state, the code was deliberately left rather general on points relevant to the relationship. Section [91A-5-312] qualifies the power of a guardian to determine the place of residence of a ward who has been committed.

91A-5-305. Acceptance of appointment—consent to jurisdiction. By accepting appointment, a guardian submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any interested person. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the guardian or mailed to him by ordinary mail at his address as listed in the court records and to his address as then known to the petitioner.

History: En. 91A-5-305 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The proceedings under [Chapter 5] are flexible. The court should not appoint a guardian unless one is necessary or desirable for the care of the person. If it develops that the needs of the person who is alleged to be incapacitated are not those which would call for a guardian, the court may adjust the proceeding accordingly. By acceptance of the appointment, the guardian submits to the court's jurisdiction in much the same way as a personal representative. Cf. [section 91A-3-602].

91A-5-306. Termination of guardianship for incapacitated person. The authority and responsibility of a guardian for an incapacitated person terminates upon the death of the guardian or ward, the determination of incapacity of the guardian, or upon removal or resignation as provided in section 91A-5-307. Testamentary appointment under an informally probated will terminates if the will is later denied probate in a formal proceeding. Termination does not affect his liability for prior acts nor his obligation to account for funds and assets of his ward.

History: En. 91A-5-306 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment added the last sentence of this section.

91A-5-307. Removal or resignation of guardian—termination of incapacity. (1) On petition of the ward or any person interested in his welfare, the court may remove a guardian and appoint a successor if in the best interests of the ward. On petition of the guardian, the court may accept his resignation and make any other order which may be appropriate.

(2) An order adjudicating incapacity may specify a minimum period, not exceeding one year, during which no petition for an adjudication that the ward is no longer incapacitated may be filed without special leave. Subject to this restriction, the ward or any person interested in his welfare may petition for an order that he is no longer incapacitated, and for removal or resignation of the guardian. A request for this order may be made by informal letter to the court or judge and any person who knowingly interferes with transmission of this kind of request to the court or judge may be adjudged guilty of contempt of court.

(3) Before removing a guardian, accepting the resignation of a guardian, or ordering that a ward's incapacity has terminated, the court, following the same procedures to safeguard the rights of the ward as apply to a petition for appointment of a guardian, may send a visitor to the residence of the present guardian and to the place where the ward resides or is detained, to observe conditions and report in writing to the court.

History: En. 91A-5-307 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The ward's incapacity is a question that may usually be reviewed at any time. However, provision is made for a discretionary restriction on review. In all review proceedings, the welfare of the ward is paramount.

91A-5-308. Visitor in guardianship proceedings. A visitor is, with respect to guardianship proceedings, a person who is trained in law, nursing or social work and is an officer, employee or special appointee of the court with no personal interest in the proceedings.

History: En. 91A-5-308 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The visitor should have professional training and should not have a personal interest in the outcome of the guardianship proceedings.

91A-5-309. Notices in guardianship proceedings. (1) In a proceeding for the appointment or removal of a guardian of an incapacitated person other than the appointment of a temporary guardian or temporary suspension of a guardian, notice of hearing shall be given to each of the following:

(a) the ward or the person alleged to be incapacitated and his spouse, parents and adult children;

(b) any person who is serving as his guardian, conservator or who has his care and custody; and

(c) in case no other person is notified under (a), at least one (1) of his closest adult relatives, if any can be found.

(2) Notice shall be served personally on the alleged incapacitated person, and his spouse and parents if they can be found within the state. Notice to the spouse and parents, if they cannot be found within the state, and to all other persons except the alleged incapacitated person shall be given as provided in section 91A-1-401. Waiver of notice by the person alleged to be incapacitated is not effective unless he attends the hearing or his waiver of notice is confirmed in an interview with the visitor. Representation of the alleged incapacitated person by a guardian ad litem is not necessary.

History: En. 91A-5-309 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The persons entitled to notice in guardianship proceeding are usually fewer in number than those in a protective proceeding. Cf. [section 91A-5-405]. Required notice shall be given in accordance with the general notice provision of the code. See section [91A-1-401].

91A-5-310. Temporary guardians. If an incapacitated person has no guardian and an emergency exists, the court may exercise the power of a guardian pending notice and hearing. If an appointed guardian is not effectively performing his duties and the court further finds that the welfare of the incapacitated person requires immediate action, it may, with or without notice, appoint a temporary guardian for the incapacitated person for a specified period not to exceed six (6) months. A temporary guardian is entitled to the care and custody of the ward and the authority of any permanent guardian previously appointed by the court is suspended so long as a temporary guardian has authority. A temporary guardian may be removed at any time. A temporary guardian shall make any report the court requires. In other respects the provisions of this code concerning guardians apply to temporary guardians.

History: En. 91A-5-310 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The temporary guardian is analogous to a special administrator under sections [91A-3-614 through 91A-3-618]. His appointment would be obtained in emergency situations or as a protective device against default by a guardian. The temporary guardian has all the powers of a guardian, except as the order appointing him may provide otherwise.

91A-5-311. Who may be guardian—priorities. (1) Any competent person or a suitable institution may be appointed guardian of an incapacitated person.

(2) Persons who are not disqualified have priority for appointment as guardian in the following order:

- (a) the spouse of the incapacitated person;
- (b) an adult child of the incapacitated person;
- (c) a parent of the incapacitated person, including a person nominated by will or other writing signed by a deceased parent;
- (d) any relative of the incapacitated person with whom he has resided for more than six (6) months prior to the filing of the petition;
- (e) a person nominated by the person who is caring for him or paying benefits to him.

History: En. 91A-5-311 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-312. General powers and duties of guardian. (1) A guardian of an incapacitated person has the same powers, rights and duties respecting his ward that a parent has respecting his unemancipated minor child except that a guardian is not liable to third persons for acts of the ward solely by reason of the parental relationship. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties, except as modified by order of the court:

(a) to the extent that it is consistent with the terms of any order by a court of competent jurisdiction relating to detention or commitment of the ward, he is entitled to custody of the person of his ward and may establish the ward's place of abode within or without this state.

(b) If entitled to custody of his ward he shall make provision for the care, comfort and maintenance of his ward and, whenever appropriate, arrange for his training and education. Without regard to custodial rights of the ward's person, he shall take reasonable care of his ward's clothing, furniture, vehicles and other personal effects and commence protective proceedings if other property of his ward is in need of protection.

(c) A guardian may give any consents or approvals that may be necessary to enable the ward to receive medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment or service.

(d) If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, he may:

(i) institute proceedings to compel any person under a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward to perform his duty;

(ii) receive money and tangible property deliverable to the ward and apply the money and property for support, care and education of the ward; but, he may not use funds from his ward's estate for room and board which he, his spouse, parent, or child have furnished the ward unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the court made upon notice to at least one (1) of the next of kin of the incompetent ward, if notice is possible. He must exercise care to conserve any excess for the ward's needs.

(e) A guardian is required to report the condition of his ward and of the estate which has been subject to his possession or control, as required by the court or court rule.

(f) If a conservator has been appointed, all of the ward's estate received by the guardian in excess of those funds expended to meet current expenses for support, care, and education of the ward must be paid to the conservator for management as provided in this code, and the guardian must account to the conservator for funds expended.

(2) Any guardian of one for whom a conservator also has been appointed shall control the custody and care of the ward, and is entitled to receive reasonable sums for his services and for room and board furnished to the ward as agreed upon between him and the conservator, provided the amounts agreed upon are reasonable under the circumstances. The guardian may request the conservator to expend the ward's estate by payment to third persons or institutions for the ward's care and maintenance.

History: En. 91A-5-312 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The guardian is responsible for the care of the person of his ward. This section gives him the powers necessary to carry out this responsibility. Where there are no protective proceedings, the guardian also has limited authority over the property of the ward. Where the ward has substantial property, it may be desirable to have protective proceedings to handle his property problems. The same person, of course, may serve as guardian and conservator. Section [91A-5-408] authorizes the court to make preliminary orders protecting the estate once a petition for appointment of a conservator is filed.

91A-5-313. Proceedings subsequent to appointment—venue. (1) The court where the ward resides has concurrent jurisdiction with the court which appointed the guardian, or in which acceptance of a testamentary appointment was filed, over resignation, removal, accounting and other proceedings relating to the guardianship.

(2) If the court located where the ward resides is not the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed, the court in which proceedings subsequent to appointment are commenced shall in all appropriate cases notify the other court, in this or another state, and after consultation with that court determine whether to retain jurisdiction or transfer the proceedings to the other court, whichever may be in the best interest of the ward. A copy of any order accepting a resignation or removing a guardian shall be sent to the court in which acceptance of appointment is filed.

91A-5-401. Protective proceedings. Upon petition and after notice and hearing in accordance with the provisions of this part, the court may appoint a conservator or make other protective order for cause as follows:

(1) Appointment of a conservator or other protective order may be made in relation to the estate and affairs of a minor if the court determines that a minor owns money or property that requires management or protection which cannot otherwise be provided, has or may have business affairs which may be jeopardized or prevented by his minority, or that funds are needed for his support and education and that protection is necessary or desirable to obtain or provide funds.

(2) Appointment of a conservator or other protective order may be made in relation to the estate and affairs of a person if the court determines that

(a) the person is unable to manage his property and affairs effectively for reasons such as mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, advanced age, chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, confinement, detention by a foreign power, or disappearance; and

(b) the person has property which will be wasted or dissipated unless proper management is provided, or that funds are needed for the support, care and welfare of the person or those entitled to be supported by him and that protection is necessary or desirable to obtain or provide funds.

History: En. 91A-5-401 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This is the basic section of this part providing for protective proceedings for minors and disabled persons. "Protective proceedings" is a generic term used to describe proceedings to establish conservatorships and obtain protective orders. "Disabled persons" is used in this section to include a broad category of persons who, for a variety of different reasons, may be unable to manage their own property. Since the problems of property management are generally the same for minors and disabled persons, it was thought undesirable to treat these problems in two separate parts. Where there are differences, these have been separately treated in specific sections.

The Comment to section [91A-5-304], supra, points up the different meanings of incapacity (warranting guardianship), and disability.

91A-5-402. Protective proceedings—jurisdiction of affairs of protected persons. After the service of notice in a proceeding seeking the appointment of a conservator or other protective order and until termination of the proceeding, the court in which the petition is filed has:

(1) exclusive jurisdiction to determine the need for a conservator or other protective order until the proceedings are terminated;

(2) exclusive jurisdiction to determine how the estate of the protected person which is subject to the laws of this state shall be managed, expended or distributed to or for the use of the protected person or any of his dependents;

(3) concurrent jurisdiction to determine the validity of claims against the person or estate of the protected person and his title to any property or claim.

History: En. 91A-5-402 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

While the bulk of all judicial proceedings involving the conservator will be in the court supervising the conserva-torship third parties may bring suit against the conservator or the protected person on some matters in other courts. Claims against the conservator after his appointment are dealt with by section [91A-5-428].

91A-5-403. Venue. Venue for proceedings under this part is:

(1) in the place in this state where the person to be protected resides whether or not a guardian has been appointed in another place; or

(2) if the person to be protected does not reside in this state, in any place where he has property.

History: En. 91A-5-403 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

Venue for protective proceedings lies in the county of residence (rather than domicile) or, in the case of the non-resident, where his property is located. Unitary management of the property is obtainable through easy transfer of proceedings (section [91A-1-303(2)]) and easy collection of assets by foreign conservators (section [91A-5-431]).

91A-5-404. Original petition for appointment or protective order.

(1) The person to be protected, any person who is interested in his estate, affairs or welfare including his parent, guardian, or custodian, or any person who would be adversely affected by lack of effective management of his property and affairs may petition for the appointment of a conservator or for other appropriate protective order.

(2) The petition shall set forth to the extent known, the interest of the petitioner; the name, age, residence and address of the person to be protected; the name and address of his guardian, if any; the name and address of his nearest relative known to the petitioner; a general statement of his property with an estimate of the value thereof, including any compensation, insurance, pension or allowance to which he is entitled; and the reason why appointment of a conservator or other protective order is necessary. If the appointment of a conservator is requested, the petition also shall set forth the name and address of the person whose appointment is sought and the basis of his priority for appointment.

History: En. 91A-5-404 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-405. Notice. (1) On a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order, the person to be protected and his spouse or, if none, his parents, must be served personally with notice of the proceeding at least fourteen (14) days before the date of hearing if they can be found within the state, or, if they cannot be found within the state, they must be given notice in accordance with section 91A-1-401. Waiver by the person to be protected is not effective unless he attends the hearing or, unless minority is the reason for the proceeding, waiver is confirmed in an interview with the visitor.

(2) Notice of a petition for appointment of a conservator or other initial protective order, and of any subsequent hearing, must be given to any person who has filed a request for notice under section 91A-5-406 and to interested persons and other persons as the court may direct. Except as otherwise provided in (1), notice shall be given in accordance with section 91A-1-401.

History: En. 91A-5-405 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-406. Protective proceedings — request for notice — interested person. Any interested person who desires to be notified before any order is made in a protective proceeding may file with the clerk a request for notice subsequent to payment of any fee required by statute or court rule. The clerk shall mail a copy of the demand to the conservator if one has been appointed. A request is not effective unless it contains a statement showing the interest of the person making it and his address, or that of his attorney, and is effective only as to matters occurring after the filing. Any governmental agency paying or planning to pay benefits to the person to be protected is an interested person in protective proceedings.

History: En. 91A-5-406 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-407. Procedure concerning hearing and order on original petition. (1) Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order because of minority, the court shall set a date for hearing on the matters alleged in the petition. If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the minor are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the choice of the minor if fourteen (14) years of age or older. A lawyer appointed by the court to represent a minor has the powers and duties of a guardian ad litem.

(2) Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order for reasons other than minority, the court shall set a date for hearing.

Unless the person to be protected has counsel of his own choice, the court must appoint a lawyer to represent him who then has the powers and duties of a guardian ad litem. If the alleged disability is mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, advanced age, chronic use of drugs, or chronic intoxication, the court may direct that the person to be protected be examined by a physician designated by the court, preferably a physician who is not connected with any institution in which the person is a patient or is detained. The court may send a visitor to interview the person to be protected. The visitor may be a guardian ad litem or an officer or employee of the court.

(3) After hearing, upon finding that a basis for the appointment of a conservator or other protective order has been established, the court shall make an appointment or other appropriate protective order.

History: En. 91A-5-407 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The section establishes a framework within which professionals, including the judge, attorney and physician, if any, may be expected to exercise good judgment in regard to the minor or disabled person who is the subject of the proceeding. The National Conference accepts that it is desirable to rely on professionals rather than to attempt to draft detailed standards or conditions for appointment.

91A-5-408. Permissible court orders. The court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a conservator in respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

(1) While a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order is pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the court has power to preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may be required for his benefit or the benefit of his dependents.

(2) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other protective order exists with respect to a minor without other disability, the court has all those powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might be necessary for the best interests of the minor, his family and members of his household.

(3) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other protective order exists with respect to a person for reasons other than minority, the court has, for the benefit of the person and members of his household, all the powers over his estate and affairs which he could exercise if present and not under disability, except the power to make a will. These powers include, but are not limited to, power to make gifts, to convey or release his contingent and expectant interests in property including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, to exercise or release his powers as trustee, personal representative, custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment, to enter into contracts, to create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate which may extend beyond his disability or life, to exercise options of the disabled person to purchase securities or other property, to exercise his rights to elect options and change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies and to surrender the policies for their cash value, to exercise his right to an elective share in the estate of his deceased spouse and to renounce any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

(4) The court may exercise or direct the exercise of, its authority to exercise or release powers of appointment of which the protected person is donee, to renounce interests, to make gifts in trust or otherwise exceeding twenty per cent (20%) of any year's income of the estate or to change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies, only if satisfied, after notice and hearing, that it is in the best interests of the protected person, and that he either is incapable of consenting or has consented to the proposed exercise of power.

(5) An order made pursuant to this section determining that a basis for appointment of a conservator or other protective order exists, has no effect on the capacity of the protected person.

History: En. 91A-5-408 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The court, which is supervising a conservatorship, is given all the powers which the individual would have if he were of full capacity. These powers are given to the court that is managing the protected person's property since the exercise of these powers has important consequences with respect to the protected person's property.

91A-5-409. Protective arrangements and single transactions authorized. (1) If it is established in a proper proceeding that a basis exists as described in section 91A-5-401 for affecting the property and affairs of a person the court, without appointing a conservator, may authorize, direct or ratify any transaction necessary or desirable to achieve any security, service, or care arrangement meeting the foreseeable needs of the protected person. Protective arrangements include, but are not limited to, payment, delivery, deposit or retention of funds or property, sale, mortgage, lease or other transfer of property, entry into an annuity contract, a contract for life care, a deposit contract, a contract for training and education, or addition to or establishment of a suitable trust.

(2) When it has been established in a proper proceeding that a basis exists as described in section 91A-5-401 for affecting the property and affairs of a person the court, without appointing a conservator, may authorize, direct or ratify any contract, trust or other transaction relating to the protected person's financial affairs or involving his estate if the court determines that the transaction is in the best interests of the protected person.

(3) Before approving a protective arrangement or other transaction under this section, the court shall consider the interests of creditors and dependents of the protected person and, in view of his disability, whether the protected person needs the continuing protection of a conservator. The court may appoint a special conservator to assist in the accomplishment of any protective arrangement or other transaction authorized under this section who shall have the authority conferred by the order and serve until discharged by order after report to the court of all matters done pursuant to the order of appointment.

History: En. 91A-5-409 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

It is important that the provision be made for the approval of single transactions or the establishment of protective arrangements as alternatives to full conservatorship. Under present law, a guardianship often must be established simply to make possible a valid transfer of land or securities. This section eliminates the necessity of the establishment of long-term arrangements in this situation.

91A-5-410. Who may be appointed conservator—priorities. (1) The court may appoint an individual, or a corporation with general power to serve as trustee, as conservator of the estate of a protected person. The following are entitled to consideration for appointment in the order listed:

(a) a conservator, guardian of property or other like fiduciary appointed or recognized by the appropriate court of any other jurisdiction in which the protected person resides;

(b) an individual or corporation nominated by the protected person if he is fourteen (14) or more years of age and has, in the opinion of the court, sufficient mental capacity to make an intelligent choice;

(c) the spouse of the protected person;

(d) an adult child of the protected person;

(e) a parent of the protected person, or a person nominated by the will of a deceased parent;

(f) any relative of the protected person with whom he has resided for more than six (6) months prior to the filing of the petition;

(g) a person nominated by the person who is caring for him or paying benefits to him.

(2) A person in priorities (a), (c), (d), (e), or (f) may nominate in writing a person to serve in his stead. With respect to persons having equal priority, the court is to select the one who is best qualified of those willing to serve. The court, for good cause, may pass over a person having priority and appoint a person having less priority or no priority.

History: En. 91A-5-410 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

A flexible system of priorities for appointment as conservator has been provided. A parent may name a conservator for his minor children in his will if he deems this desirable.

91A-5-411. Bond. The court may require a conservator to furnish a bond conditioned upon faithful discharge of all duties of the trust according to law, with sureties as it shall specify. Unless otherwise directed, the bond shall be in the amount of the aggregate capital value of the property of the estate in his control plus one (1) year's estimated income minus the value of securities deposited under arrangements requiring an order of the court for their removal and the value of any land which the fiduciary, by express limitation of power, lacks power to sell or convey without court authorization. The court in lieu of sureties on a bond, may accept other security for the performance of the bond, including a pledge of securities or a mortgage of land.

History: En. 91A-5-411 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

are somewhat more strict than the requirements for personal representatives. Cf. section [91A-3-603].

Editorial Board Comment

The bond requirements for conservators

91A-5-412. Terms and requirements of bond. (1) The following requirements and provisions apply to any bond required under section 91A-5-411:

(a) unless otherwise provided by the terms of the approved bond, sureties are jointly and severally liable with the conservator and with each other;

(b) by executing an approved bond of a conservator, the surety consents to the jurisdiction of the court which issued letters to the primary obligor in any proceeding pertaining to the fiduciary duties of the conservator and naming the surety as a party defendant. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the surety or mailed to him by registered or certified mail at his address as listed with the court where the bond is filed and to his address as then known to the petitioner;

(c) on petition of a successor conservator or any interested person, a proceeding may be initiated against a surety for breach of the obligation of the bond of the conservator;

(d) the bond of the conservator is not void after the first recovery but may be proceeded against from time to time until the whole penalty is exhausted.

(2) No proceeding may be commenced against the surety on any matter as to which an action or proceeding against the primary obligor is barred by adjudication or limitation.

History: En. 91A-5-412 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-413. Acceptance of appointment—consent to jurisdiction. By accepting appointment, a conservator submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the estate that may be instituted by any interested person. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the conservator, or mailed to him by registered or certified mail at his address as listed in the petition for appointment or as thereafter reported to the court and to his address as then known to the petitioner.

History: En. 91A-5-413 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-414. Compensation and expenses. If not otherwise compensated for services rendered, any visitor, lawyer, physician, conservator or special conservator appointed in a protective proceeding is entitled to reasonable compensation from the estate.

History: En. 91A-5-414 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-415. Death, resignation or removal of conservator. The court may remove a conservator for good cause, upon notice and hearing, or accept the resignation of a conservator. A conservator so appointed succeeds to the title and powers of his predecessor.

History: En. 91A-5-415 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners contains a second sentence reading: "After his death, resignation or removal the court may appoint another conservator."

91A-5-416. Petitions for orders subsequent to appointment. (1) Any person interested in the welfare of a person for whom a conservator has been appointed may file a petition in the appointing court for an order

(a) requiring bond or security or additional bond or security, or reducing bond,

(b) requiring an accounting for the administration of the trust,

(c) directing distribution,

(d) removing the conservator and appointing a temporary or successor conservator, or

(e) granting other appropriate relief.

(2) A conservator may petition the appointing court for instructions concerning his fiduciary responsibility.

(3) Upon notice and hearing, the court may give appropriate instructions or make any appropriate order.

(4) For purposes of this section, any person, institution or agency which is furnishing or supplying any money for support or care of a person for whom a conservator has been appointed is a person interested in the welfare of such protected person.

History: En. 91A-5-416 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

The Montana enactment added the provision designated as subsection (4).

Editorial Board Comment

Once a conservator has been appointed, the court supervising the trust acts only upon the request of some moving party.

91A-5-417. Conservator to act as fiduciary. In the exercise of his powers, a conservator is to act as a fiduciary and shall observe the standards of care applicable to trustees.

History: En. 91A-5-417 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-418. Inventory and records. Within ninety (90) days after his appointment, every conservator shall prepare and file with the appointing court a complete inventory of the estate of the protected person together with his oath or affirmation that it is complete and accurate so far as he is informed. The conservator shall provide a copy thereof to the protected person if he can be located, has attained the age of fourteen (14) years, and has sufficient mental capacity to understand these matters, and to any parent or guardian with whom the protected person resides. The conservator shall keep suitable records of his administration and exhibit the same on request of any interested person.

History: En. 91A-5-418 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-419. Accounts. Every conservator must account to the court for his administration of the trust upon his resignation or removal, and at other times as the court may direct. On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator may account to the court, or he may account to the former protected person or his personal representative. Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to his liabilities concerning the matters considered in connection therewith; and an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or his successors relating to the conservatorship. In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in his control, to be made in any manner the court may specify.

History: En. 91A-5-419 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The persons who are to receive notice of intermediate and final accounts will be identified by court order as provided in section [91A-5-405(2)]. Notice is given as described in [91A-1-401]. In other respects, procedures applicable to accountings will be as provided in court rule.

91A-5-420. Conservators—title by appointment. The appointment of a conservator vests in his title as trustee to all property of the protected person, presently held or thereafter acquired, including title to any property theretofore held for the protected person by custodians or attorneys in fact. The appointment of a conservator is not a transfer or alienation within the meaning of general provisions of any federal or state statute or regulation, insurance policy, pension plan, contract, will or trust instrument, imposing restrictions upon or penalties for transfer or alienation by the protected person of his rights or interest, but this section does not restrict the ability of persons to make specific provision by contract or dispositive instrument relating to a conservator.

History: En. 91A-5-420 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section permits independent administration of the property of protected persons once the appointment of a conservator had been obtained. Any interested person may require the conservator to account in accordance with section [91A-5-419]. As a trustee, a conservator holds title to the property of the protected person. The appointment of a conservator is a serious matter and the court must select him with great care. Once appointed, he is free to carry on his fiduciary responsibilities. If he should default in these in any way, he may be made to account to the court.

Unlike a situation involving appointment of a guardian, the appointment of a conservator has no bearing on the capacity of the disabled person to contract or engage in other transactions.

91A-5-421. Recording conservator's letters. Letters of conservatorship are evidence of transfer of all assets of a protected person to the conservator. An order terminating a conservatorship is evidence of transfer of all assets of the estate from the conservator to the protected person, or his successors. Subject to the requirements of general statutes governing the filing or recordation of documents of title to land or other property, letters of conservatorship, and orders terminating conservatorships, may be filed or recorded to give record notice of title as between the conservator and the protected person.

History: En. 91A-5-421 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-422. Sale, encumbrance or transaction involving conflict of interest—voidable—exceptions. Any sale or encumbrance to a conservator, his spouse, agent or attorney, or any corporation or trust in which he has a substantial beneficial interest, or any transaction which is affected by a substantial conflict of interest is voidable unless the transaction is approved by the court after notice to interested persons and others as directed by the court.

History: En. 91A-5-422 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-423. Persons dealing with conservators—protection. A person who in good faith either assists a conservator or deals with him for value in any transaction other than those requiring a court order as provided in section 91A-5-408, is protected as if the conservator properly exercised the power. The fact that a person knowingly deals with a conservator does not alone require the person to inquire into the existence of a power or the propriety of its exercise, except that restrictions on powers of conservators which are endorsed on letters as provided in section 91A-5-426 are effective as to third persons. A person is not bound to see to the proper application of estate assets paid or delivered to a conservator. The protection here expressed extends to instances in which some procedural irregularity or jurisdictional defect occurred in proceedings leading to the issuance of letters. The protection here expressed is not by substitution for that provided by comparable provisions of the laws relating to commercial transactions and laws simplifying transfers of securities by fiduciaries.

History: En. 91A-5-423 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-424. Powers of conservator in administration. (1) A conservator has all of the powers conferred herein and any additional powers conferred by law on trustees in this state. In addition, a conservator of the estate of an unmarried minor under the age of eighteen (18) years, as to whom no one has parental rights, has the duties and powers of a guardian of a minor described in section 91A-5-209 until the minor attains the age of eighteen (18) or marries, but the parental rights so conferred on a conservator do not preclude appointment of a guardian as provided by sections 91A-5-201 through 91A-5-212, inclusive.

(2) A conservator has power without court authorization or confirmation, to invest and reinvest funds of the estate as would a trustee.

(3) A conservator, acting reasonably in efforts to accomplish the purpose for which he was appointed, may act without court authorization or confirmation, to

(a) collect, hold and retain assets of the estate including land in another state, until, in his judgment, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even though they include an asset in which he is personally interested;

(b) receive additions to the estate;

(c) continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise;

(d) acquire an undivided interest in an estate asset in which the conservator, in any fiduciary capacity, holds an undivided interest;

(e) invest and reinvest estate assets in accordance with subsection (2);

(f) deposit estate funds in a bank including a bank operated by the conservator;

(g) acquire or dispose of an estate asset including land in another state for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; and to manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, change the character of, or abandon an estate asset;

(h) make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings;

(i) subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or to partition by giving or receiving considerations; and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

(j) enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the conservatorship;

(k) enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement;

(l) grant an option involving disposition of an estate asset, to take an option for the acquisition of any asset;

(m) vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy;

(n) pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities;

(o) sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; to consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise;

(p) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the conservatorship so that title to the security may pass by delivery, but the conservator is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the stock so held;

(q) insure the assets of the estate against damage or loss, and the conservator against liability with respect to third persons;

(r) borrow money to be repaid from estate assets or otherwise; to advance money for the protection of the estate or the protected person, and for all expenses, losses, and liability sustained in the administration of the estate or because of the holding or ownership of any estate assets and the conservator has a lien on the estate as against the protected person for advances so made;

(s) pay or contest any claim; to settle a claim by or against the estate or the protected person by compromise, arbitration, or otherwise; and to release, in whole or in part, any claim belonging to the estate to the extent that the claim is uncollectible;

(t) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the conservator, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care, administration and protection of the estate;

(u) allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as provided by law, including creation of reserves out of income for depreciation, obsolescence, or amortization, or for depletion in mineral or timber properties;

(v) pay any sum distributable to a protected person or a dependent of the person who is a minor or incompetent, without liability to the conservator, by paying the sum to the distributee or by paying the sum for the use of the distributee either to his guardian or if none, to a relative or other person with custody of his person;

(w) employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, or agents, even though they are associated with the conservator to advise or assist him in the performance of his administrative duties; to act upon their recommendation without independent investigation; and instead of acting personally, to employ one (1) or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

(x) prosecute or defend actions, claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of estate assets and of the conservator in the performance of his duties; and

(y) execute and deliver all instruments which will accomplish or facilitate the exercise of the powers vested in the conservator.

History: En. 91A-5-424 by Sec. 1, Ch.
365, L. 1974.

91A-5-425. Distributive powers and duties of conservator. (1) A conservator may expend or distribute income or principal of the estate without court authorization or confirmation for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person and his dependents in accordance with the following principles:

(a) The conservator is to consider recommendations relating to the appropriate standard of support, education and benefit for the protected person made by a parent or guardian, if any. He may not be surcharged for sums paid to persons or organizations actually furnishing support, education or care to the protected person pursuant to the recommendations of a parent or guardian of the protected person unless he knows that the parent or guardian is deriving personal financial benefit therefrom, including relief from any personal duty of support, or unless the recommendations are clearly not in the best interests of the protected person.

(b) The conservator is to expend or distribute sums reasonably necessary for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person with due regard to

(i) the size of the estate, the probable duration of the conservatorship and the likelihood that the protected person, at some future time, may be fully able to manage his affairs and the estate which has been conserved for him;

(ii) the accustomed standard of living of the protected person and members of his household;

(iii) other funds or sources used for the support of the protected person.

(c) The conservator may expend funds of the estate for the support of persons legally dependent on the protected person and others who are members of the protected person's household who are unable to support themselves, and who are in need of support.

(d) Funds expended under this subsection may be paid by the conservator to any person, including the protected person to reimburse for expenditures which the conservator might have made, or in advance for services to be rendered to the protected person when it is reasonable to expect that they will be performed and where advance payments are customary or reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

(2) If the estate is ample to provide for the purposes implicit in the distributions authorized by the preceding subsections, a conservator for a protected person other than a minor has power to make gifts to charity and other objects as the protected person might have been expected to make in amounts which do not exceed in total for any year twenty per cent (20%) of the income from the estate.

(3) When a minor who has not been adjudged disabled under section 91A-5-401(2) attains his majority, his conservator, after meeting all prior claims and expenses of administration, shall pay over and distribute all funds and properties to the former protected person as soon as possible.

(4) When the conservator is satisfied that a protected person's disability (other than minority) has ceased, the conservator, after meeting all prior claims and expenses of administration, shall pay over and distribute all funds and properties to the former protected person as soon as possible.

(5) If a protected person dies, the conservator shall deliver to the court for safekeeping any will of the deceased protected person which may have come into his possession, inform the executor or a beneficiary named therein that he has done so, and retain the estate for delivery to a duly appointed personal representative of the decedent or other persons entitled thereto. If after forty (40) days from the death of the protected person no other person has been appointed personal representative and no application or petition for appointment is before the court, the conservator may apply to exercise the powers and duties of a personal representative so that he may proceed to administer and distribute the decedent's estate without additional or further appointment. Upon application for an order granting the powers of a personal representative to a conservator, after notice to any person demanding notice under section 91A-3-204 and to any person nominated executor in any will of which the applicant is aware, the court may order the conferral of the power upon determining that there is no objection, and endorse the letters of the conservator to note that the formerly protected person is deceased and that the conservator has acquired all of the powers and duties of a personal representative. The making and entry of an order under this section shall have the effect of an order of appointment of a personal representative as provided in section 91A-3-308 and sections 91A-3-601 through 91A-3-1010, inclusive, except that estate in the name of the conservator, after administration, may be distributed to the decedent's successors without prior retransfer to the conservator as personal representative.

History: En. 91A-5-425 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section sets out those situations wherein the conservator may distribute property or disburse funds during the continuance of or on termination of the trust. Section [91A-5-416(2)] makes it clear that a conservator may seek instructions from the court on questions arising under this section. Subsection [(5)] is derived in part from § 11.80.150 Revised Code of Washington.

91A-5-426. Enlargement or limitation of powers of conservator. Subject to the restrictions in section 91A-5-408(4), the court may confer on a conservator at the time of appointment or later, in addition to the powers conferred on him by sections 91A-5-424 and 91A-5-425, any power which the court itself could exercise under sections 91A-5-408(2) and 91A-5-408(3). The court may, at the time of appointment or later, limit the powers of a conservator conferred by the court, and may at any time relieve him of any limitation. If the court limits any power conferred on the conservator by section 91A-5-424 or section 91A-5-425, the limitation shall be endorsed upon his letters of appointment.

History: En. 91A-5-426 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section makes it possible to appoint a fiduciary whose powers are limited to part of the estate or who may conduct important transactions, such as sales and mortgages of land, only with special court authorization. In the latter case, a conservator would be in much the position of a guardian of property under the law currently in force in most states, except that he would have title to the property. The purpose of giving conservators title as trustees is to ensure that the provisions for protection of third parties have full effect. The Veterans Administration may insist that, when it is paying benefits to a minor or disabled, the letters of conservatorship limit powers to those of a guardian under the Uniform Veteran's Guardianship Act [secs. 91-4801 et seq., repealed effective July, 1975] and require the conservator to file annual accounts.

The court may not only limit the powers of the conservator but may expand his powers so as to make it possible for him to act as the court itself might act.

91A-5-427. Preservation of estate plan. In investing the estate, and in selecting assets of the estate for distribution under subsections (1) and (2) of section 91A-5-425, in utilizing powers of revocation or withdrawal available for the support of the protected person, and exercisable by the conservator or the court, the conservator and the court should take into account any known estate plan of the protected person, including his will, any revocable trust of which he is settlor, and any contract, transfer or joint ownership arrangement with provisions for payment or transfer of benefits or interests at his death to another or others which he may have originated. The conservator may examine the will of the protected person.

History: En. 91A-5-427 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-428. Claims against protected person—enforcement. (1) A conservator must pay from the estate all just claims against the estate and against the protected person arising before or after the conservatorship upon their presentation and allowance. A claim may be presented by either of the following methods:

(a) the claimant may deliver or mail to the conservator a written statement of the claim indicating its basis, the name and address of the claimant and the amount claimed;

(b) the claimant may file a written statement of the claim, in the form prescribed by rule, with the clerk of the court and deliver or mail a copy of the statement to the conservator.

A presented claim is allowed if it is not disallowed by written statement mailed by the conservator to the claimant within sixty (60) days after its presentation. A claim is deemed presented on the first to occur of receipt of the written statement of claim by the conservator, or the filing of the claim with the court. The presentation of a claim tolls any statute of limitation relating to the claim until thirty (30) days after its disallowance.

(2) A claimant whose claim has not been paid may petition the court for determination of his claim at any time before it is barred by the applicable statute of limitation, and, upon due proof, procure an order for its allowance and payment from the estate. If a proceeding is pending against a protected person at the time of appointment of a conservator or is initiated against the protected person thereafter, the moving party must give notice of the proceeding to the conservator if the outcome is to constitute a claim against the estate.

(3) If it appears that the estate in conservatorship is likely to be exhausted before all existing claims are paid, preference is to be given to prior claims for the care, maintenance and education of the protected person or his dependents and existing claims for expenses of administration.

History: En. 91A-5-428 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-429. Individual liability of conservator. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a conservator is not individually liable on a contract properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the estate in the contract.

(2) The conservator is individually liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of property of the estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts entered into by a conservator in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate, or on torts committed in the course of administration of the estate may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the conservator in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the conservator is individually liable therefor.

(4) Any question of liability between the estate and the conservator individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification, or other appropriate proceeding or action.

History: En. 91A-5-429 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-5-430. Termination of conservatorship. The protected person, his personal representative, the conservator or any other interested person may petition the court to terminate the conservatorship. A protected person seeking termination is entitled to the same rights and procedures as in an original proceeding for a protective order. The court, upon determining after notice and hearing that the minority or disability of the protected person has ceased, may terminate the conservatorship. Upon termination, title to assets of the estate passes to the former protected person or to his successors subject to provision in the order for expenses of administration or to conveyances from the conservator to the former protected persons or his successors, to evidence the transfer.

History: En. 91A-5-430 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

The persons entitled to notice of a petition to terminate a conservatorship are identified by section [91A-5-405].

Any interested person may seek the termination of a conservatorship when there is some question as to whether the trust is still needed. In some situations (e.g., the individual who returns after being missing) it may be perfectly clear that he is no longer in need of a conservatorship.

An order terminating a conservatorship may be recorded as evidence of the transfer of title from the estate. See [section 91A-5-421].

91A-5-431. Payment of debt and delivery of property to foreign conservator without local proceedings. Any person indebted to a protected person, or having possession of property or of an instrument evidencing a debt, stock or chose in action belonging to a protected person may pay or deliver to a conservator, guardian of the estate or other like fiduciary appointed by a court of the state or residence of the protected person, upon being presented with proof of his appointment and an affidavit made by him or on his behalf stating:

(1) that no protective proceeding relating to the protected person is pending in this state; and

(2) that the foreign conservator is entitled to payment or to receive delivery.

If the person to whom the affidavit is presented is not aware of any protective proceeding pending in this state, payment or delivery in response to the demand and affidavit discharges the debtor or possessor.

History: En. 91A-5-431 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

person resides, first priority for appointment as conservator in this state. A foreign conservator may easily obtain any property in this state and take it to the residence of the protected person for management.

Part 5—Powers of Attorney

Section

91A-5-501. When power of attorney not affected by disability.

91A-5-502. Other powers of attorney not revoked until notice of death or disability.

91A-5-501. When power of attorney not affected by disability. Whenever a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding his disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable by him as provided in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal at law or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his heirs, devisees and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent and not disabled. If a conservator thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the conservator rather than the principal. The conservator has the same power the principal would have had if he were not disabled or incompetent to revoke, suspend or terminate all or any part of the power of attorney or agency.

History: En. 91A-5-501 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section permits a person who is sui juris to execute a power of attorney which will become or remain effective in the event he should later become disabled. If the court should subsequently appoint a conservator, the latter may either permit the attorney in fact to continue to act or revoke the power of attorney. The section is based in part on Code of Va. (1950), Sec. 11-9.1.

91A-5-502. Other powers of attorney not revoked until notice of death or disability. (1) The death, disability, or incompetence of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing other than a power as described by section 91A-5-501, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability, or incompetence of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives.

(2) An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent stating that he did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney, actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney by death, disability or incompetence, is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record is likewise recordable.

(3) This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney.

History: En. 91A-5-502 by Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

Editorial Board Comment

This section adopts the civil law rule that powers of attorney are not revoked on death or disability until the attorney in fact has actual knowledge of the death or disability. Provision is made for proving lack of knowledge by affidavit and the recordation of the affidavit to protect transactions that might otherwise be invalidated at common law. The section is based on Code of Va. (1950), Sec. 11-9-2.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section

91A-6-101. Provisions for payment or transfer at death.

91A-6-102. Effective date.

91A-6-104. Uniform Probate Code takes precedence.

91A-6-101. Provisions for payment or transfer at death. (1) Any of the following provisions in an insurance policy, contract of employment, bond, mortgage, promissory note, deposit agreement, pension plan, trust agreement, conveyance or any other written instrument effective as a contract, gift, conveyance, or trust is deemed to be nontestamentary, and this code does not invalidate the instrument or any provision:

(a) that money or other benefits theretofore due to, controlled or owned by a decedent shall be paid after his death to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently;

(b) that any money due or to become due under the instrument shall cease to be payable in event of the death of the promisee or the promisor before payment or demand; or

(c) that any property which is the subject of the instrument shall pass to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently.

(2) Nothing in this section limits the rights of creditors under other laws of this state.

Compiler's Notes

The corresponding section in the Uniform Probate Code as promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners is designated as section 6-201.

Editorial Board Comment

This section authorizes a variety of contractual arrangements which have in the past been treated as testamentary. For example most courts treat as testamentary a provision in a promissory note that if the payee dies before payment is made the note shall be paid to another named person, or a provision in a land contract that if the seller dies before payment is completed the balance shall be canceled and the property shall belong to the vendee. These provisions often occur in family arrangements. The result of holding the provisions testamentary is usually to invalidate them because not executed in accordance with the statute of wills. On the other hand the same courts have for years upheld beneficiary designations in life insurance contracts. Similar kinds of problems are arising in regard to beneficiary designations in pension funds and under annuity contracts. The analogy of the power of appointment provides some historical base for solving some of these problems aside from a validating statute. However, there appear to be no policy reasons for continuing to treat these varied arrangements as testamentary. The revocable living trust and the multiple-party bank accounts, as well as the experience with United States government bonds payable on death to named beneficiaries, have demonstrated that the evils envisioned if the statute of wills is not rigidly enforced simply do not materialize. The fact that these provisions often are part of a business transaction and in any event are evidenced by a writing to eliminate the danger of "fraud."

Because the types of provisions described in the statute are characterized as nontestamentary, the instrument does not have to be executed in compliance with section [91A-2-502]; nor does it have to be probated, nor does the personal representative have any power or duty with respect to the assets involved.

The sole purpose of this section is to eliminate the testamentary characterization from the arrangements falling within the terms of the section. It does not invalidate other arrangements by negative implication. Thus it is not intended by this section to embrace oral trusts to hold property at death for named persons; such arrangements are already generally enforceable under trust law.

91A-6-102. Effective date. (1) This code takes effect on July 1, 1975.

(2) Except as provided elsewhere in this code, on the effective date of this code:

- (a) the code applies to any wills of decedents dying thereafter;
- (b) the code applies to any proceedings in court then pending or thereafter commenced regardless of the time of the death of decedent except to the extent that in the opinion of the court the former procedure should be made applicable in a particular case in the interest of justice or because of infeasibility of application of the procedure of this code;
- (c) every personal representative including a person administering an estate of a minor or incompetent holding an appointment on that date, continues to hold the appointment but has only the powers conferred by this code and is subject to the duties imposed with respect to any act occurring or done thereafter;
- (d) an act done before the effective date in any proceeding and any accrued right is not impaired by this code. If a right is acquired, extinguished or barred upon the expiration of a prescribed period of time which has commenced to run by the provisions of any statute before the effective date, the provisions shall remain in force with respect to that right;

(e) any rule of construction or presumption provided in this code applies to instruments executed and multiple-party accounts opened before the effective date unless there is a clear indication of a contrary intent.

History: En. 91A-6-102 by Sec. 3, Ch. 365, L. 1974.

91A-6-103. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 91A-6-103 (Sec. 17, Ch. 365, L. 1974), defining "administrator," "administrator with the will annexed," and "executor," was repealed by Sec. 10, Ch. 516, Laws 1975.

91A-6-104. Uniform Probate Code takes precedence. Should any provision of this act conflict with any provisions of other statutes of the state of Montana relating to probate, guardianship, or other subjects incorporated in this act, and such other statute or statutes was or were adopted prior to the enactment of this act, the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be controlling.

Hammond v. Hager*, 160 M 391, 503 P 2d 52, appeal dismissed 411 US 912, 36 L Ed 2d 303, 93 S Ct 1548.

92-204. (2839) Repealed.

Section 92-204 (Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 138, L. 1933; Sec. 1, Ch. 230, L. 1943; Sec. 2, Ch. 235, L. 1947; Sec. 1, Ch. 270, L. 1969), relating to elective coverage, to exclusion of other remedies, to remedies in tort against third parties, and to subrogation, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 493, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-204.1.

92-204.1. Election of employer and employee to come under act—action against third party causing injury—right to subrogation. Where both the employer and employee have elected to come under this act, the provisions of this act shall be exclusive, and such election shall be held to be a surrender by such employer and the servants, and employees of such employer and such employee, as among themselves, of their right to any other method, form or kind of compensation, or determination thereof, or to any other compensation, or kind of determination thereof, or cause of action at law, suit in equity, or statutory or common-law right or remedy, or proceeding whatever, for or on account of any personal injury to or death of such employee, except as such rights may be hereinafter specifically granted; and such election shall bind the employee himself, and in case of death shall bind his personal representative, and all persons having any right or claim to compensation for his injury or death, as well as the employer, and the servants and employees of such employer, and those conducting his business during liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency. The right to compensation and medical benefits as provided by this act shall not be affected by the fact that the injury, occupational disease or death is caused by the negligence of a third party other than the employer, or the servants or employees of the employer. Whenever such event shall occur to an employee while performing the duties of his employment and such event shall be caused by the act or omission of some persons or corporations other than his employer, or the servants or employees of his employer, then such employee, or in case of his death his heirs or personal representative shall, in addition to the right to receive compensation under this act, have a right to prosecute any cause of action he may have for damages against such persons or corporations. Further provided, that whenever such employee shall receive an injury while performing the duties of his employment and such injury or injuries, so received by such employee, are caused by the intentional and malicious act or omission of a servant or employee of his employer, then such employee, or in case of his death, his heirs or personal representatives, shall, in addition to the right to receive compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, have a right to prosecute any cause of action he may have for damages against such servants or employees of his employer, causing such injury. Provided, that the employer or insurer shall be entitled to full subrogation for all compensation and benefits paid or to be paid under this act, except as otherwise provided in this section. The employer's or insurer's right of subrogation shall be a first lien on such claim, judgment or recovery. The employee shall institute such third party action after giving the employer or insurer reasonable notice of his intention to institute such third party action. The employee may request that such insurer pay a proportionate share of the reasonable cost, including attorneys' fees, of such third party action. The insurer may elect not to participate in the cost of the third party action, but as such election is made the insurer shall be deemed to have waived fifty per cent (50%) of its subrogation rights granted by the section. Provided, however, that if an employee refuses or fails to institute such action within one (1) year from the date of injury, the employer or insurer may institute such third party action in his name and for his benefit or that of his personal representative. If the employee or his personal representative institutes such third party action, he shall be entitled to at least one-third ($1/3$) of the amount recovered by judgment or compromise settlement less his proportionate share of the reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees, in the event the amount of recovery is insufficient to provide him with that amount after payment of subrogation. In the event the employer or insurer institutes such third party action, he shall pay to the employee any amount recovered by judgment or settlement which is in excess of the amounts paid or to be paid under this act an employer's or insurer's reasonable costs and attorneys' fees. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the employer or insurer, including the division of workmen's compensation, from entering into compromise agreements in settlement of subrogation rights. If death results from the injury or occupational disease, the employer shall have a right of action against the third party for recovery of any amount paid under this act, and such right of action shall be in addition to any cause of action by the heirs or personal representative of the deceased. In the event that the amount of compensation and benefits payable under this act shall not have been fully determined at the time such employee or his heirs or personal representative, or the employer or insurer, shall receive settlement of his action, prosecuted as aforesaid, then the division shall determine what proportion of such settlement shall be allocated under subrogation and such determination may be appealed as any other determination of the division.

Title of Act

An act providing for election of employees and employees to come under the Workmen's Compensation Act; providing for actions against third party causing injury; providing for a right to subrogation; and repealing section 92-204, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 493, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-204, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Exclusive Remedy

Where employee was injured while performing work assigned to him under contract between his employer and second company, failure of second company to file timely injury report with industrial accident board prevented it from invoking exclusive jurisdiction in board as "exclusive remedy" after employee filed civil suit in district court. State ex rel. Broesder v. Industrial Accident Board, 154 M 178, 461 P 2d 456.

Injured employee receiving workmen's compensation benefits was barred from seeking damages for same injuries in negligence action against coemployee. Madison v. Pierce, 156 M 209, 478 P 2d 860.

Employee who had received workmen's compensation benefits for personal injury was precluded from maintaining action against owner of 98% of corporate stock on theory he was co-employee, since act granted immunity to co-employees. Baird v. Remoir, 156 M 348, 480 P 2d 186.

Where electric company's independent contractor was specifically required to carry workmen's compensation insurance, an employee of the contractor could not bring an action in tort against the electric company for injuries he suffered when a pole broke. Buerkle v. Montana Power Co., 157 M 57, 482 P 2d 564.

Employer's immunity from common-law liability remains even when there have been wanton, willful and intentional violations of safety statutes, and the immunity is abrogated only if the injury itself was intentionally inflicted. Enberg v. Anaconda Co., 158 M 135, 489 P 2d 1036.

Where both employer and employee elected to come under the Montana Workmen's Compensation Act, the provisions of the act were exclusive. If benefits provided by the act were not paid by the employer, the employee's sole remedy was with the workmen's compensation division. Carlson v. Anaconda Co., — M —, 529 P 2d 356.

Employee, having elected to be bound by workmen's compensation law, and being compensated thereunder, was not entitled to maintain an action against employer for negligence, notwithstanding contention that employer's actions were willful and therefore not within statute barring employee's action against employer for common-law negligence; employee was not third-party beneficiary of safety clauses in contract between employer and United States and could not maintain action against employer for common-law negligence in absence of express promise in contract between employer and United States to pay damages to employee for employer's negligence. Hensley v. United States, 279 F Supp 548.

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer and is liable for injury under Workmen's Compensation Act and claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

General Contractor's Liability

Bank which required independent contractor to provide workmen's compensation coverage against the claims of employees of a subcontractor was immune from suit by employee of subcontractor to recover damages suffered, allegedly due to bank's negligence. State ex rel. First Nat. Bank & Trust Co. v. District Court, — M —, 505 P 2d 408.

General employer was immune from suit by independent contractor's employee for injuries sustained in performing work on the general employer's electrical lines where contractor provided workmen's compensation coverage although general employer did not require it to do so in the contract. Fiscus v. Beartooth Electric, — M —, 522 P 2d 87.

Joint Venture As Employer

Individual members of joint venture are

"employers" within act and as such are immune from tort actions for death of employees of joint venture. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

Right To Sue Third Party

Provision in this section for exclusive remedy under this act does not preclude a defendant who is liable at common law to employee from seeking indemnity from plaintiff's employer as third-party defendant on an indemnity agreement. DeShaw v. Johnson, 155 M 355, 472 P 2d 298.

Plaintiff, who received workmen's compensation benefits for injuries sustained while in the employ of independent contractor, was denied claim against the landowners since they exercised no control over work area. Baird v. Chokatos, 156 M 32, 473 P 2d 547.

The amount of injured workman's recovery from uninsured motorist coverage cannot be reduced by any workmen's compensation benefits received by him; insurance commissioner had no authority to approve a policy providing for such reduction. Sullivan v. Doe, 159 M 50, 495 P 2d 193.

Employee of joint venture was entitled to sue engineering firm in relation of independent contractor as to joint venture for engineering firm's negligence causing injury to employee under that portion of statute (prior to 1969 amendment) giving right of action against third parties when injuries are caused by act of some person other than employer. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

Subrogation to Wrongful Death Settlement

Subrogation rights of employer's insurer extended to wrongful death benefits recovered from third-party tort-feasor by workman's surviving kin. Fisher v. Missoula White Pine Sash Co., — M —, 518 P 2d 795, holding that statement in Hardware Mutual Cas. Co. v. Butler, 116 M 73, 148 P 2d 563 that subrogation rights of employer and insurer against third-party tort-feasor may exist independently of the Workmen's Compensation Act was dictum and should be disregarded.

92-206. (2840) Compensation plan No. 3 exclusive, etc., when a public corporation is the employer. Where a public corporation is the employer, the terms, conditions, and provisions of compensation plan No. 3 shall be exclusive, compulsory, and obligatory upon both employer and employee. Any sums necessary to be paid under the provisions of this act by any public corporation shall be considered to be ordinary and necessary expense of such corporation, and the governing body of such public corporation shall make appropriation of and pay such sums, into the accident or administration fund, as the case may be, at the time and in the manner provided for in this act, notwithstanding that such governing body may have failed to anticipate such ordinary and necessary expense in any budget, estimate of expenses, appropriations, ordinances, or otherwise. Whenever a contractor is engaged as an employer in the performance of contract work for a public corporation, such employer must elect to be bound by the terms, conditions and provisions of either compensation plan No. 2 or compensation plan No. 3, and the terms, conditions and provisions of the plan chosen shall be compulsory and obligatory upon both employer and employee. Whenever any public corporation neglects or refuses to file with the division monthly payroll report of its employees, the division may levy an arbitrary assessment upon such public corporation in an amount of twenty-five dollars for each such assessment, which assessments shall be collected in the manner provided in this act for the collection of assessments.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "or any contractor engaged in the performance of contract work for such public corporation" after "is the employer" in the first sentence; and completely rewrote the third sentence.

The 1975 amendment substituted "division" for "board" in the last sentence; and made a minor change in phraseology.

92-207. (2841) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-207 (Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 119, L. 1939; Sec. 1, Ch. 135, L. 1941; Sec. 3, Ch. 235, L. 1947), relating to coverage of employers in hazardous industries, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 282, Laws 1973.

92-207.1. Employments covered. This act applies to all public employment and to all private employment not expressly exempted by section 92-202.1. If any employer shall fail to make said election, in the time and in the manner herein prescribed, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than six hundred dollars ($600) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. A failure to provide compensation for each employee shall be deemed a separate offense for the purposes of this act.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Hazardous Occupations

Custom combining was a hazardous business operation within meaning of former section 92-301, and as such the employer was required to carry workmen's compensation insurance, in the absence of which coverage the employer lost all common-law defenses as provided by section 92-201. State ex rel. Romero v. District Court, Eighth Judicial Dist., Cascade County, — M —, 513 P 2d 265.

92-208. (2842) Employees bound by act—election. Every employee whose employer is bound by the provisions of this act shall become subject to and be bound by the provisions of that plan of compensation which shall have been adopted by his employer except that pursuant to such rules and regulations as the division shall from time to time promulgate, and subject in all cases to the review of the division, officers of private corporations may elect not to be bound as employees under the act by a written notice in the form provided by the division, served in the following manner:

(1) If the employer has elected to be bound by the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, by delivering said notice to the board of directors of the employer.

(2) If the employer has elected to be bound by the provisions of compensation plan No. 2, by delivering said notice to the board of directors of the employer or the insurer.

(3) If the employer has elected to be bound or is bound by the provisions of compensation plan No. 3, by delivering said notice to the division of workmen's compensation.

(4) The appointment or election of an officer of a corporation for the purpose of excluding an employee from coverage under the act shall not entitle such officer to elect not to be bound as an employee under the act.

In any case, the notice shall be signed by the officer under oath or equivalent affirmation and is subject to the penalties for false swearing.

(5) The division shall review any officers of private corporation's election not to be bound as an employee to assure compliance with this act.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "that pursuant to such rules and regulations as the board shall from time to time promulgate, and subject in all cases to the approval of the board" in the preliminary paragraph.

The 1974 amendment substituted "division" for "board" in the preliminary paragraph; substituted "review of the division" for "approval of the board" in the preliminary paragraph; substituted "division of workmen's compensation" for "industrial accident board" at the end of subdivision (3); added subdivisions (4) and (5); and made minor changes in punctuation and style.

92-209. (2844) Employer shall make election before being bound—employee presumed to have elected. It is the intention of this act that any employer engaged in employments covered herein shall, before being bound by any of the compensation plans herein provided, elect to be so bound thereby, and that the employee shall be presumed to have elected to be subject to and bound by the provisions of the particular plan which may have been adopted by his employer, unless such employee shall affirmatively elect not to be bound by this act, as provided in section 92-208. Provided, that an employer, after having been bound by one or the other of the three plans, may be canceled as an employer under the act, when such employer actually ceases operating and files a signed statement to that effect with the division. Upon such filing the division shall return the deposit of said employer if all premiums are paid.

ployments covered herein" for "hazardous occupations as defined herein" near the beginning of the first sentence; substituted "division" for "board" in two places; substituted "shall return" for "may return" in the final sentence; and made a minor change in phraseology.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Employer

Where ultimate control of all details of work performed by plaintiff was in Yellowstone Pine, and plaintiff was supervised by another employee of same company, control over plaintiff was in Yellowstone Pine, and therefore plaintiff was employee of Yellowstone Pine, receiving benefits from workmen's compensation, and could not pursue common-law action against his employer. State ex rel. Ferguson v. District Court, — M —, 519 P 2d 151.

Joint Ventures

Individual members of joint venture are "employers" within meaning of act and as such are immune from tort actions for death of employees of joint venture. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

Transfer of Company Operation

Where milling company transferred its trucking facilities to a different location where they were operated on a break-even basis under supervision of assistant to the president of the company in order to avoid inclusion of truck drivers in union bargaining unit with rest of its employees, truck driver's employment had not been transferred so as to entitle him to bring common-law negligence action against the trucking operation as a separate employer since control remained in the company which supervised activities of its presidential assistant. State ex rel. Ferguson v. District Court, Eighteenth Judicial Dist., Gallatin County, — M —, 519 P 2d 151.

92-411. (2863) Employee and workman defined. (1) "Employee" and "workman" are used synonymously and mean every person in this state, including a contractor other than an "independent contractor" who is in the service of an employer as defined by the preceding section, under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, including aliens and also including minors, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, and all of the elected and appointed paid public officers and officers and members of boards of directors of quasi-public or private corporations while rendering actual service for such corporations for pay, including city and town firemen, highway patrolmen, police officers, county sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, truant officers and all peace officers, also all public officers and their deputies, assistants and employees, but excluding any person whose employment is both casual and not in the courses of the trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer, unless such employer has elected to be bound by the provisions of the compensation law, in which case all employees are included, whether their employment is casual or otherwise, and also excluding any employee engaged in household or domestic service.

(2) "Employee" also means a recipient of general relief who is performing work for a county of this state under the provisions of section 71-307, any juvenile performing work under authorization of a district court judge in a delinquency prevention or rehabilitation program, and any person receiving vocational rehabilitation training, or other on-the-job training under any state or federal vocational training program, whether or not under any appointment or contract of hire with an "employer" as defined in this title, and whether or not receiving payment from a third party.

(3) If the employer is a partnership, or sole proprietorship, such employer may elect to include as an "employee" within the provisions of this act, any member of such partnership, or the owner of the sole proprietorship, devoting full time to the partnership or proprietorship business. In the event of such election, the employer must serve upon the employer's insurance carrier and the division written notice naming the partners or sole proprietor to be covered, and no partner or sole proprietor shall be deemed an employee within this act until such notice has been given. For premium rate making, and for the determination of weekly wage for weekly compensation benefits, the insurance carrier shall assume a salary or wage of such electing "employee" to be nine hundred dollars ($900) per month.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment divided the section into subsections; substituted "division" for "industrial accident board" in subsection (3); inserted in the last sentence of subsection (3) "and for the determination of weekly wage for weekly compensation benefits"; increased the monthly amount specified at the end of subsection (3) from $500 to $900; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 308, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 15, 1971.

Airport Employee

Plaintiff under a contract of employment with the city-county airport was not an "actual" employee of the state of Montana under the accepted definitions. Keller v. State, 160 M 365, 503 P. 2d 29.

Employer

Where ultimate control of all details of work performed by plaintiff was in Yellowstone Pine, and plaintiff was supervised by another employee of same company, control over plaintiff was in Yellowstone Pine, and therefore plaintiff was employee of Yellowstone Pine, receiving benefits from workmen's compensation, and could not pursue common-law action against his employer. State ex rel. Ferguson v. District Court, — M —, 519 P 2d 151.

- (6) a brother or sister under the age of eighteen (18) years if dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of the injury. However, such a brother or sister is a beneficiary only until the age of eighteen (18) years and only when no beneficiary, as defined in subsections (1) through (5) of this section, exists.

an unmarried child under the age of twenty-two (22) years who is a full-time student in an accredited school; an invalid child or invalid children over the age of eighteen (18) years; provided, however, that no invalid child over the age of eighteen (18) years shall be considered a beneficiary unless dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of injury."

The 1975 amendment increased the maximum age for student beneficiaries in subdivision (3) from twenty-two to twenty-five years.

92-417. (2869) Child defined, to include whom. "Child" shall include a posthumous child, a dependent stepchild, a child legally adopted prior to the injury, an illegitimate child legitimized prior to the injury.

Aggravation of Pre-existing Condition

Four-year-old back injury aggravated by lifting heavy piece of material on job was not injury within purview of statute since claimant must establish that injury for which he seeks to recover is new injury resulting from unexpected cause. Phelan v. Vogel, 148 M 422, 422 P 2d 80.

Aneurysm

Workman who suffered aneurysm when right middle cerebral artery ruptured did not suffer compensable injury as defined in statute in light of evidence that at time of injury, he was engaged in performing ordinary activities of employment which would not cause aneurysm. Miller v. Sundance Recreation, Inc., 151 M 223, 441 P 2d 194.

Burden of Proof

Claimant who injured hand and received compensation for such injury was properly denied compensation for alleged "disabling cardiac damage" and "cardiac neurosis" since claimant could produce no substantial evidence to support such claim. Verdi v. American Smelting & Refining Co., 154 M 208, 461 P 2d 845.

Heart Attack

Where employee suffered fatal myocardial infarction at work but expert cardiologist testified that the attack was not a result of his employment, recovery was denied even though absolute proof was not possible. Ness v. Diamond Asphalt Co., 143 M 560, 393 P 2d 43.

Relationship between Accident and Disability

Evidence of claimant's mental problems existing prior to accident and doctor's testimony that it was speculation that claimant's failure to return to work was caused by accident was sufficient to sustain judgment denying recovery under statute for claimant's failure to establish direct relationship between industrial accident and physical condition after such accident. Schwartzkopf v. Industrial Accident Board, 149 M 488, 428 P 2d 468.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAWDisease Not Traceable to Injury

Where claimant was being treated for bursitis prior to time she lifted box which allegedly caused injury to her shoulder, and surgeon who had operated on shoulder admitted only to the "possibility" of a supraspinatus tendon tear, there was insufficient evidence upon which either the industrial accident board or district court could base award. La Forest v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 147 M 431, 414 P 2d 200.

Claimant's disability resulting from arteriosclerosis obliterans was the result of a disease not traceable to injury, and was not a compensable injury within the meaning of this section. McAndrews v. Schwartz, — M —, 523 P 2d 1379.

Spinal Cancer

Workmen's compensation was properly denied where claimant's decedent's death resulted from a spinal cancer that was neither caused by nor contributed to by accident in which decedent fractured his dorsal spine, there being no causal connection between the fracture and the cancerous tumor of the spine which caused death. Stordahl v. Rush Implement Co., 148 M 13, 417 P 2d 95, 98. (Dissenting opinion, 148 M 13, 417 P 2d 95, 99.)

Unusual Strain

Evidence that claimant, while in course and scope of employment, picked up heavy tray of dirty dishes from floor and suffered back strain and testimony of doctor that subsequent back condition resulted from unusual strain was sufficient to support claim of accidental injury within meaning of phrase "unusual strain" as used in statute. Jones v. Bair's Cafes, 152 M 13, 445 P 2d 923, explained in 157 M 328, 331, 485 P 2d 692.

Back injury consisting of a herniated disc, sustained when employee lifted mop pail full of water, resulted from a compensable "unusual strain" within meaning of this section. Robins v. Ogle, 157 M 328, 485 P 2d 692.

Claimant's testimony supporting two specific injuries, the first of which occurred while trying to lift a part of a meat grinder from a low sink and the second of which occurred one and one half month later while attempting to lift a fifty pound casing on a meat saw, coupled with evidence of a herniated disc which required surgery, constituted sufficient evidence of an unusual strain caused by a tangible happening of a traumatic nature. Love v. Ralph's Food Store, Inc. — M —, 516 P 2d 598.

Unexpected Cause

Claimant, whose routine job was lifting fifteen-pound blocks, was not entitled to compensation for back injury since strain from lifting blocks was not an injury resulting from an "unexpected cause." James v. V. K. V. Lumber Co., 145 M 466, 401 P 2d 282, distinguished in Jones v. Bair's Cafes, 152 M 13, 445 P 2d 923.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

General Contractor's Liability

Where injured employee's immediate employer was independent contractor and was required by general employer to carry workmen's compensation insurance under which injured employee received compensation, general employer was immune under former section 92-438 from common-law liability. Ashcraft v. Montana Power Co., 156 M 368, 480 P 2d 812.

Bank which required independent contractor to provide workmen's compensation coverage against the claims of employees of a subcontractor was immune from suit by employee of subcontractor to recover damages suffered, allegedly due to bank's negligence. State ex rel. First Nat. Bank & Trust Co. v. District Court, — M —, 505 P 2d 408.

General employer was immune from suit by independent contractor's employee for injuries sustained in performing work on the general employer's electrical lines where contractor provided workmen's compensation coverage although general employer did not require it to do so in the contract. Fiscus v. Beartooth Electric, — M —, 522 P 2d 87.

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer and is liable under Workmen's Compensation Act, so that claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

History: En. 92-440 by Sec. 1, Ch. 108,
L. 1973.

An act providing for a definition of "permanent partial disability" in the Workmen's Compensation Act.

92-441. Permanent total disability defined. "Permanent total disability" means a condition resulting from injury as defined in this act that results in the loss of actual earnings or earning capability that exists after the injured workman is as far restored as the permanent character of the injuries will permit and which results in the workman having no reasonable prospect of finding regular employment of any kind in the normal labor market.

History: En. 92-441 by Sec. 1, Ch. 109,
L. 1973.

CHAPTER 6—CLAIMS—LIABILITY FOR INJURY UNDER DIFFERENT PLANS OF ACT

- Section 92-601. Claims must be presented within what time.
92-607. Work to be paid for in property other than money—wages.
92-608. Compensation in case of death of employee—determination of beneficiary, etc.
92-609. Examination of employee by physician—request or order for—physician may testify.
92-614. Who liable for injuries under the different plans of act and in what amounts, extraterritorial application and reciprocity.
92-615. Notice of denial of claim by insurer.
92-616. Costs and attorneys' fees payable on denial of claim later found compensable.

- 92-617. Payments by insurer prior to a hearing—reimbursement.
 92-618. Payment by employer or insurer of fees for claimant's legal services and witnesses.
 92-619. Attorney's fees.

92-601. (2899) Claims must be presented within what time. In case of personal injury or death, all claims shall be forever barred unless presented in writing to the employer, the insurer, or the division, as the case may be, within twelve (12) months from the date of the happening of the accident, either by the claimant or someone legally authorized to act for him in his behalf.

The division may, upon a reasonable showing by the claimant of lack of knowledge of disability, waive the time requirement, up to an additional twenty-four (24) months.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 96, L. 1915; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 100, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 2899, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 34, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 264, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "under oath" following "in writing" in the first paragraph; substituted "division" for "board"; added the second paragraph; and made a minor change in style.

Estoppel to Invoke Statute

Industrial accident board's dismissal of claimant's workmen's compensation claim was proper where action was not commenced until twenty-three months after expiration of limitation period provided for in this section, and claimant failed to produce evidence which would indicate existence of latent injury or actions which would estop employer from invoking statute of limitations. Vetsch v. Helena Transfer & Storage Co., 154 M 106, 460 P 2d 757.

Since the burden is on claimant to file a claim and not on the insurer to solicit claims, insurer which deviated from its standard procedure by failing to send claimant a letter advising him to file a claim within one year and by neglecting to file the medical report with the board for several years was not estopped from relying on the statute of limitations where claimant was never misled by anyone connected with the insurer or the industrial accident board; any mistake in understanding of the law made by attorney who represented both claimant and employer in suit against third-party tort-feasor established no basis for estoppel where attorney had no knowledge of any mistake on his part and no intent to mislead claimant. Ricks v. Teslow Consol., — M —, 512 P 2d 1304.

Failure of employer to file an injury report or to inform claimant that a workmen's compensation claim must be filed within one year does not constitute equitable estoppel if the employee has not alleged any injury or need for medical attention. Bagley v. Hotel Florence Co., — M —, 526 P 2d 1372.

Multiple Claims

Claimant who filed a claim for compensation on January 16, 1969, covering an injury on August 26, 1968, was not barred from asserting claim to compensation arising from injury on July 12, 1968 where the two injuries were closely related and where the employer and his insurer had actual knowledge of the claim long before one year had elapsed following the alleged injury. Love v. Ralph's Food Store, Inc., — M —, 516 P 2d 598.

Common-Law Remedy

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer of claimant and is liable under Workmen's Compensation Act, so that claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

Independent Contractor's Coverage

Bank which required independent contractor to provide workmen's compensation coverage against the claims of employees of a subcontractor was immune from suit by employee of subcontractor to recover damages suffered, allegedly due to bank's negligence. State ex rel. First Nat. Bank & Trust Co. v. District Court, 161 M 127, 505 P 2d 408.

92-607. (2904) Work to be paid for in property other than money—wages. Where any employer procures any work to be done, payment for which is to be made in property other than money or its equivalent, and the value of which property is speculative or intangible, the wages of the employees receiving such compensation shall be determined by the division in accordance with the going wage for the same or similar work in the district or locality where the same is to be performed. However, where an employer procures any work to be done by any contractor, or through him by a subcontractor, the payment for which is to be made in property other than money or its equivalent, and the value of which property is speculative or intangible, then and in that event, the employer shall not be liable for compensation, but such liability shall fall upon the contractor or subcontractor, as the case may be.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2904, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 23, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "division" for "board"; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

92-608. (2905) Compensation in case of death of employee—determination of beneficiary, etc. (1) If an injured employee dies and the injury was the proximate cause of such death, then the beneficiary of the deceased, as the case may be, shall receive the same compensation as though the death occurred immediately following the injury, but the period during which the death benefit shall be paid shall be reduced by the period during or for which compensation was paid for the injury.

(2) If the employee shall die from some cause other than the injury, there shall be no liability for compensation after his death.

(3) The question as to who constitutes a beneficiary shall be determined as of the date of the happening of the accident to the employee, whether death shall immediately result therefrom or not.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2905, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 23, L. 1975.

able even after death. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted the subsection designations; and deleted references to major or minor dependents after "beneficiary" in subsections (1) and (3).

Death from Cause other than Injury

Clause providing that "if the employee shall die from some cause other than the injury, there shall be no liability for compensation after his death" means that if employee is receiving compensation as result of industrial injury and subsequently dies from causes other than injury, liability for further compensation by way of death benefits or continuing disability benefits is cut off; but statute does not terminate liability for compensation accrued prior to death and unpaid at time of death; thus, compensation for permanent partial disability existing between time of injury and time of death is pay-

"Proximate Cause" Defined

"Proximate cause" as used in statute, means that cause which in natural and continuous sequence, unbroken by any new and independent cause produces death, without which it would not have occurred; it does not mean that injury must be sole cause of death but that injury must be substantial contributing cause in sense that death would not have occurred but for injuries. Head injury received in compensable industrial accident occurring more than two years previous to death was not proximate cause of death in view of evidence that deceased drank to excess before and after accident, that immediate cause of death was suffocation from vomit after drinking bout and that even if deceased had taken six nembutal tablets given on prescription of doctor to relieve headaches, it could not have caused or contributed to death. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

92-609. (2906) Examination of employee by physician—request or order for—physician may testify. (1) Whenever in case of injury the right to compensation under this act would exist in favor of any employee, he shall, upon the written request of his employer or the insurer, submit from time to time to examination by a physician, who shall be provided and paid for by such employer or insurer, and shall likewise submit to examination from time to time by any physician selected by the division, or any member or examiner, or referee thereof.

(2) The request or order for such examination shall fix a time and place therefor, due regard being had to the convenience of the employee and his physical condition and ability to attend at the time and place fixed. The employee shall be entitled to have a physician, provided and paid for by himself, present at any such examination. So long as the employee, after such written request, shall fail or refuse to submit to such examination, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended. Any physician employed by the employer, the insurer, or the division, who shall make or be present at any such examination, may be required to testify as to the results thereof.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2906, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 23, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment inserted the subsection designations; and substituted "division" for "board" near the end of each subsection.

Absent Witness

It was improper for workmen's compensation hearing examiner, when confronted with conflicting medical testimony, to seek the opinion of an independent physician who was not a witness at the hearing without granting claimant an opportunity to cross-examine and rebut his findings. Rumsey v. Cardinal Petroleum, — M —, 530 P 2d 433.

dustrial accident board, and liability for treatment or malpractice, were repealed by Sec. 88, Ch. 23, Laws 1975.

92-614. (2911) Who liable for injuries under the different plans of act and in what amounts, extraterritorial application and reciprocity. (1) Every employer who shall become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan number one (1), and every employer and insurer who shall become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan number two (2), and the industrial accident fund where the employer of the injured employee has become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 3, shall be liable for the payment of compensation in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided to an employee who has elected to come under this act, and who shall receive an injury arising out of and in the course of his employment, or, in the case of his death from such injury, to his beneficiaries, if any.

(2) If a worker employed in this state who is subject to the provisions of this act temporarily leaves the state incidental to that employment and receives an injury arising out of and in the course of such employment, the provisions of this act shall apply to such worker as though he were injured within this state.

(3) If a worker from another state and his employer from another state are temporarily engaged in work within this state, this act shall not apply to them:

(a) if the employer and employee are bound by the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law or similar law of such other state which applies to them while they are in the state of Montana, and

(b) if the Workers' Compensation Act of this state is recognized and given effect as the exclusive remedy for workers employed in this state who are injured while temporarily employed in such other state.

(4) A certificate from an authorized officer of the workers' compensation department or similar agency of another state certifying that an employer of such other state is bound by the Workers' Compensation Act of the state and that its act will be applied to employees of the employer while in the state of Montana shall be prima facie evidence of the application of the Workers' Compensation Law of the certifying state.

(5) The division may, with the approval of the governor, enter into agreements with workers' compensation agencies of other states for the purpose of promulgating regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this act to carry out the extraterritorial application of the workers' compensation laws of the agreeing states.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2911, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 70, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 23, L. 1975.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted figures after the written numbers in the first paragraph; and added everything after the first paragraph.

The 1975 amendment inserted the subsection designations; deleted "or, if none, to his major dependents, if any; or, if none, to his minor dependents, if any" at the end of subsection (1); substituted "worker" for "workman" throughout the section; substituted "Workers'" for "Workmen's" throughout the section; substituted "division" in subsection (5) for "industrial accident board"; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Hourly Wages

Payment of hourly wages is not necessarily a universal condition precedent in determining compensability of injury, and where union contract expressly provided for travel allowance and the allowance was for the benefit of the employer, injuries to employees who were traveling to work arose out of and in the course of their employment. McMillen v. Arthur G. McKee & Co., — M —, 533 P 2d 1095.

Travel Allowance

Non-union employee who received travel allowance under terms of union contract was entitled to workmen's compensation benefits for injuries due to automobile accident while driving to work, even though the travel allowance was a per diem sum not based on the mileage driven. Ellingson v. Crick Co., — M —, 533 P 2d 1100.

Travel allowance paid by employer was an incentive to get men to come on the job; and accordingly, employees who were injured in single car accident on their way to work were injured in the course of their employment, and were entitled to workmen's compensation benefits. McMillen v. Arthur G. McKee & Co., — M —, 533 P 2d 1095.

92-615. Notice of denial of claim by insurer. Every insurer under any plan for the payment of workmen's compensation benefits shall within thirty (30) days of receipt of a claim for compensation either accept or deny the claim, and if denied shall inform the claimant and the division in writing of such denial. If the insurer determines to deny a claim on which payments have been made during a time of further investigation, or after a claim has been accepted, terminates biweekly compensation benefits, it may do so only after fifteen (15) days' written notice to the claimant and the division. However, an insurer may, after written notice to the claimant and the division, make payment of compensation benefits within thirty (30) days of receipt of a claim for compensation without such payments being construed as an admission of liability or a waiver of any right of defense.

Title of Act

An act requiring the insurer to accept or deny a claim within thirty (30) days of its filing; payment of weekly compensation until claimant returns to work; termination of compensation only upon notice and division approval; and payment of costs.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment inserted "for compensation" following "receipt of a claim" in the first sentence; inserted "and the division" after "inform the claimant" in the first sentence; deleted a sentence which read: "Biweekly compensation benefits shall be continuously paid until the claimant is fully released by his doctor, returns to work, or no longer suffers a loss of earnings capacity"; rewrote the present second sentence which read: "If the insurer determines to initially deny a claim, or after a claim has been accepted, terminates biweekly compensation benefits, it may do so only after fifteen (15) days written notice to the claimant and the division, and after written approval of the division"; and added the last sentence.

92-616. Costs and attorneys' fees payable on denial of claim later found compensable. In the event the insurer denies the claim for compensation or terminates compensation benefits, and the claim is later adjudged compensable, by the division or on appeal, the insurer shall pay reasonable costs and attorneys' fees as established by the division. However, under rules adopted by the division and in the discretion of the division, an insurer may suspend compensation payments for not more than thirty (30) days pending the receipt of medical information.

Amendments

The 1974 amendment rewrote this section which read: "In the event the insurer denies the claim, or terminates a claim that has already been accepted, and the claim is later determined to be compensable either through hearing or appeal to the courts, the insurer shall pay all costs incurred by the claimant, including reasonable attorneys' fees as established by the division."

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 173, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 11, 1974.

Constitutionality

The fact that attorney's fees are allowed to successful plaintiffs only and not to successful defendants does not violate the equal protection clause of the Montana constitution, since it is reasonable to impose the burden of attorney's fees upon the party whose refusal to pay a just claim renders the litigation necessary. McMillen v. Arthur G. McKee & Co., — M —, 533 P 2d 1095.

Insurer

The term "insurer" used in this section refers to every insurer under any one of the three plans for payment of benefits, and includes employers who are their own insurers under Plan I. McMillen v. Arthur G. McKee & Co., — M —, 533 P 2d 1095.

92-617. Payments by insurer prior to a hearing—reimbursement. If an insurer terminates biweekly compensation benefits and the termination of compensation benefits is disputed by the claimant, the division may, upon written request, order an insurer to pay additional biweekly compensation benefits prior to a hearing; but in no event may the biweekly compensation benefits be ordered to be paid under this section for a period exceeding forty-nine (49) days or for any period subsequent to the date of a hearing. If after a hearing it is held that the insurer was not liable for the compensation payments ordered by the division, the insurer has the right to be reimbursed for such payments by the claimant.

History: En. 92-617 by Sec. 1, Ch. 124, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act allowing the division of workmen's compensation to order insurers to pay workmen's compensation benefits subject to a subsequent hearing, and subject to reimbursement for nonliability.

92-618. Payment by employer or insurer of fees for claimant's legal services and witnesses. (1) If an employer or insurer pays or tenders payment of compensation under Title 92, but controversy relates to the amount of compensation due, and the settlement or award is greater than the amount paid or tendered by the employer or insurer, a reasonable attorney's fee as established by the division or the workmen's compensation judge if the case has gone to a hearing, based solely upon the difference between the amount settled for or awarded and the amount tendered or paid, may be awarded in addition to the amount of compensation.

(2) When an attorney's fee is awarded against an employer or insurer under this section there may be further assessed against the employer or insurer reasonable costs, fees, and mileage for necessary witnesses attending a hearing on the claimant's behalf. Both the necessity for the witness and the reasonableness of the fees must be approved by the division or the workmen's compensation judge.

History: En. 92-618 by Sec. 1, Ch. 187, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act providing for the payment of a workmen's compensation claimant's attorney and witness fees in certain cases.

92-619. Attorney's fees. (1) When an attorney represents or acts on behalf of a claimant or any other party on any workmen's compensation claim, the attorney shall submit to the division a contract of employment stating specifically the terms of the fee arrangement between the attorney and the claimant.

(2) The administrator of the division may regulate the amount of the attorney's fee in any workmen's compensation case. In regulating the amount of the fee, the administrator shall consider the time the attorney was required to spend on the case, the complexity of the case, and any other relevant matter the administrator may consider appropriate.

(3) If an attorney violates a provision of this section, a rule adopted under this section, or an order fixing attorney's fee under this section, he shall forfeit the right to any fee which he may have collected or been entitled to collect.

History: En. 92-619 by Sec. 1, Ch. 402, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act providing for disclosure to the division of workmen's compensation of attorney fee arrangements, and regulating attorney fees in workmen's compensation cases.

Attorney's Fees

Attorney who charged fees in excess of amount ordered by industrial accident board pursuant to this section was properly subject to discipline by public censure. In re Porter, 156 M 190, 478 P 2d 866.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 241, and once by Ch.

278. Neither amendatory act mentioned or included the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Title of Act

An act providing for compensation for injuries producing partial disability under the Workmen's Compensation Act; repealing section 92-703, R. C. M. 1947.

Amendments

Chapter 241, Laws of 1975, divided the section into subsections; inserted "weekly" before "compensation" near the end of subsection (1); and substituted "one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the state's average weekly wage" for "sixty dollars (\$60) a week" at the end of subsection (1).

Chapter 278, Laws of 1975, substituted "actual diminution in the worker's earning capacity measured in dollars" for "difference between the wages received at the time of the injury and the wages that the injured employee is capable of earning thereafter" in subsection (1).

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 155, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-703, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

Loss of Earnings

Employee who was able to return to his former employment only with the assistance and indulgence of his employer and fellow employees, was not entitled to present compensation for loss of earning ability, but was protected by order of workmen's compensation division retaining jurisdiction if there should be a subsequent loss of earning capacity. Ronshaugen v. Ramsey Engineering Co., — M —, 531 P 2d 1348.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Compensable Disability

Test of compensable disability was difference between wages received at time of injury and wages injured employee was able to earn thereafter in any suitable field of employment or profession subsequently entered under normal conditions, whether or not his earnings in that field were commonly called "wages." Olson v. Manion's Inc., — M —, 510 P 2d 6, 9.

Computation of Average Weekly Wage

Former section 92-703 did not incorporate the six-day week component under former section 92-422 in determining pre- or post-injury earnings for partial disability, and in this manner was different from former sections 92-701 and 92-702, which dealt with total disability. Mahlum v. Broeder, 147 M 386, 412 P 2d 572.

Pre- or post-injury compensation for partial disability under former section 92-703 was determined by dividing a man's earnings over a reasonable period of time by the total number of days he worked, excluding all overtime and then multiplying the average daily wage by the number of days actually worked each week. Mahlum v. Broeder, 147 M 386, 412 P 2d 572.

Earning Capacity—Loss of Earnings

Under former section 92-703, coupled with section 92-709, a claimant could have an award of temporary total disability payments during period he was entirely disabled, an award of temporary partial disability payments while his injury was still healing and he was partially able to earn wages, and an additional award for loss of prospective future earnings as the result of permanent partial disability. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

Wages Received at Time of Injury

Court found no room for interpretation of words "wages received at the time of the injury" in this section, despite directive of section 92-838 to construe provisions of Compensation Act liberally. Olson v. Manion's Inc., — M —, 510 P 2d 6, 9.

92-704. (2915) Repealed.

92-704.1. Compensation for injury causing death. (1) To beneficiaries as defined in section 92-413, subsections (1) through (4), weekly compensation benefits for injury causing death shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 2/3%) of the decedent's wages. The maximum weekly compensation benefits shall not exceed the state's average weekly wage. The minimum weekly compensation for death shall be fifty per cent (50%) of the state's average weekly wage, but in no event shall it exceed the decedent's actual wages at the time of his death.

(2) To beneficiaries as defined in section 92-413, subsections (5) and (6), weekly benefits shall be paid to the extent of the dependency at the time of the injury, subject to a maximum of sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 2/3%) of the decedent's wages. The maximum weekly compensation shall not exceed the state's average weekly wage.

(3) If the decedent leaves no beneficiary as defined in section 92-413, a lump sum payment of three thousand dollars ($3,000) shall be paid to the decedent's surviving parent or parents.

(4) Death benefits shall be paid to a widow or widower for life or until remarriage, and in the event of remarriage two (2) years' benefits shall be paid in a lump sum to the widow or widower. In all cases, benefits shall be paid to beneficiaries as defined in section 92-413.

History: En. 92-704.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 203, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 269, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 270, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 272, L. 1974.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended three times in 1974, once by Ch. 269, once by Ch. 270, and once by Ch. 272. All of the amendatory acts deleted a paragraph quoted in the amendment note below and additional changes were made by Ch. 269. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by all amendments.

Title of Act

An act providing compensation for injuries causing death under the Workmen's Compensation Act; repealing section 92-704, R. C. M. 1947.

Amendments

Chapter 269, Laws of 1974, inserted the subsection designation (1); inserted "to beneficiaries as defined in section 92-413, subsections (1) through (4)" at the beginning of subsection (1); inserted subsections (2) and (3); inserted the subsection designation (4); substituted "section 92-413" for "this act" at the end of subsection (4); and deleted a final paragraph which read: "In cases where it is determined that periodic benefits granted by the Social Security Act, 42 U. S. C. 301 (1935), are payable because of the injury causing death, the weekly benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by the amount of the federal periodic benefits for such week."

Chapters 270 and 272, Laws of 1974, deleted the paragraph quoted above in this note.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 203, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-704, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-704.2. Application of act. The provisions of this act apply prospectively only. However, the division shall pay to any widow, widower or beneficiary who did or shall become eligible for compensation for injury causing death after June 30, 1973, and before July 1, 1974, such sum or sums necessary to bring the total amount of compensation paid or to be paid as long as such person has, or remains eligible for compensation, to the amount such person would have received without the reduction for benefits granted by the Social Security Act. The division shall pay such sums in a lump sum as to compensation periods past and bi-weekly as to compensation to become due and from a special fund appropriated for this purpose.

History: En. 92-704.2 by Sec. 2, Ch. 270, L. 1974.

92-706.1. Medical and hospital services approved by the division are furnished. (1) In addition to the compensation provided by this act and as an additional benefit separate and apart from compensation, the following shall be furnished:

(a) After the happening of the injury, the employer or insurer shall furnish, without limitation as to length of time or dollar amount, reasonable services by a physician or surgeon, reasonable hospital services and medicines when needed, and such other treatment as may be approved by the division for the injuries sustained.

(b) The employer or insurer shall replace or repair prescription eyeglasses, prescription contact lenses, prescription hearing aids, and dentures that are damaged or lost as a result of an injury, as defined in section 92-418, arising out of and in the course of employment.

(2) All hospitals must submit to the division of workmen's compensation, a schedule of fees and charges for treatment of injured workmen to be in effect for at least a twelve (12) month period unless the division and the hospital agree to interim amendments of the schedule. The schedule must be submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to its effective date and shall not exceed the charges prevailing in the hospital for similar treatment of private patients.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 43, and once by Ch. 189. Neither amendatory act mentioned or included the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Title of Act

An act providing for medical and hospital services to be furnished injured claimants under the Workmen's Compensation Act; repealing section 92-706, R. C. M. 1947.

Amendments

Chapter 43, Laws of 1975, added subdivision (1)(b).

Chapter 189, Laws of 1975, divided the section into subsections and subdivisions; deleted "During the first thirty-six (36) months" at the beginning of subdivision (1)(a); inserted "without limitation as to length of time or dollar amount" in subdivision (1)(a); and deleted a second sentence in subdivision (1)(a) which read: "The division, upon application of the injured workman may, for good cause, grant reasonable extensions of the benefits provided in this section."

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of ch. 252, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-706, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Limit of Recovery

The district court had no authority to order payment of bills in excess of $5,000, where medical expenses were, at the time of the injury, limited to $5,000 under former section 92-706. McAndrews v. Schwartz, — M —, 523 P 2d 1379.

92-707. (2918) Compensation from what date paid. When an injured employee has a beneficiary who is entitled to compensation in case of the employee's death, no compensation shall be paid for the first week of any injury, but if disability continues one (1) week, compensation shall be paid from the date of injury. However, separate benefits of medical and hospital services shall be furnished from the date of injury.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 23 and once by Ch. 535. The changes by Ch. 535, as described in the following amendment note, were essentially incorporated in the amendment by Ch. 23 and the section was set forth by the compiler as it appears in the latter act.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "one (1) week" for "six weeks" in the first sentence, and "one (1) week" for "three weeks" in the second sentence.

Chapter 23, Laws of 1975, rewrote this section which read: "When an injured employee has no wife, child, father, mother, brother or sister residing within the United States who would be entitled to compensation in case of his death, no compensation shall be allowed or paid during the first week of any injury, except as may be required by the provisions of the preceding section, but if disability continues one (1) week, compensation shall be paid from the date of injury. Where the injured employee has a beneficiary or a major or minor dependent residing within the United States who would be entitled to compensation in case of his death, no compensation shall be paid for the first week of any injury, but if disability continues one (1) week, compensation shall be paid from the date of injury; provided, that separate benefits of medical and hospital services shall be furnished from date of injury."

Chapter 535, Laws of 1975, substituted "spouse" for "wife" in the first sentence and "the employee's death" for "his death" in the first and second sentences of this section as it read prior to the amendment by Ch. 23, Laws of 1975.

92-708. (2919) Compensation to run consecutively—manner of payment. Compensation shall run consecutively and not concurrently and payment shall not be made for two (2) classes of disability over the same period. Compensation due to beneficiaries shall be paid to the surviving spouse, if any, or if none, then divided equally among or for the benefit of the children. In cases where beneficiaries are a surviving spouse and stepchildren of such spouse the compensation shall be divided equally among all beneficiaries. Compensation due to beneficiaries as defined in section 92-413, subsections (5) and (6) where there is more than one (1), shall be divided equitably among them and the question of dependency and amount thereof shall be a question of fact for determination by the division.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted two provisos reading "provided that the total period over which compensation shall be payable for two or more classes of disability, including death, resulting from any compensable injury, shall not extend for a period of more than five hundred (500) weeks, and provided that no compensation shall be paid to a major or minor dependent who did not reside in the United States at the date of the happening of the injury" from the end of the first sentence; and substituted "division" for "board" at the end of the fourth sentence.

The 1974 amendment substituted "surviving spouse" for "surviving widow" in two places in the third sentence and rewrote the fourth sentence which read: "Compensation due to major dependents where there be more than one (1), shall be divided equitably among them and likewise as to minor dependents, and the question of dependency and amount thereof shall be a question of fact for determination by the division."

Effective Date

Section 4 of Ch. 269, Laws 1974 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 21, 1974.

92-709. (2920) Compensation in case of specified injuries. (1) In addition to temporary total disability benefits allowed in this act, indemnity benefits for loss of a member shall be paid at the weekly rate provided in section 92-703.1, and shall be paid for the following periods: For loss of:

In all cases of permanent injury to a member less than loss of the member compensation shall be paid for total temporary disability, without limitation as to time under section 92-701.1. In addition thereto, indemnity benefits for permanent disability to a member or members shall be proportionate to loss or loss of use of the member or members at the weekly rate provided in section 92-703.1. In all other cases of permanent injury, less than total, not included in the above schedule, the compensation for partial disability shall bear such relation to the periods stated in the above schedule as the disabilities bear to those produced by the injuries named in the schedule or to partial disability (500 weeks).

Loss of vision: Where central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses or the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees, the same as for loss of the eye.

Total loss of use: Indemnity benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

Disfigurement: The division may award proper and equitable indemnity benefits for serious face, head, or neck disfigurement, not to exceed twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) in addition to any other indemnity benefits payable under this section.

The loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or any two (2) thereof, in one (1) accident, in the absence of conclusive proof to the contrary shall constitute total disability, permanent in character. Provided, however, that the percentage of permanent disability caused by any single accident or injury shall be so computed as to cover the permanent disability caused by that particular injury without reference to any previous physical ailment or defect or to any injury previously suffered or any permanent disability caused thereby; provided, that no payment under this section shall be in lieu of the separate benefit of medical and hospital services and of any benefits paid under section 92-701.1 for temporary total disability.

Compiler's Notes

The subsection (1) designation was inserted by the 1975 amendment, apparently unintentionally; there are no other subsections.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation set forth in the various clauses in the preliminary paragraph from $29 to $35, from $32 to $38, from $36 to $42, from $40 to $46, from $45 to $51, and from $50 to $56; and increased the minimum weekly compensation set forth at the end of the preliminary paragraph from $25.50 to $31.50.

The 1967 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation set forth in the various clauses in the preliminary paragraph from $35 to $37 per week; from $38 to $40 per week; from $42 to $45 per week; from $46 to $50 per week; from $51 to $55 per week; from $56 to $60 per week; and increased the minimum weekly compensation set forth at the end of the preliminary paragraph from $31.50 to $34.50.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote the preliminary paragraph; for previous text, see parent volume and above notes relating to 1965 and 1967 amendments. The 1971 amendment also inserted "In all other cases of permanent injury, less than total, not included in the above schedule, the compensation shall bear such relation to the periods stated in the above schedule as the disabilities bear to those produced by the injuries named in the schedule or to total disability (500 weeks)" following the schedule of injuries; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment changed the statutory reference in the first sentence from 92-701 to 92-701.1; inserted "for loss of a member" twice in the preliminary clause; changed the statutory reference in the second sentence from 92-703 to 92-703.1; inserted the first two sentences following the schedule of payments; inserted "for partial disability" in the third sentence following the schedule of payments; substituted "partial" for "total" in the third sentence following the schedule of payments; deleted two paragraphs between the paragraphs headed "Total loss of use" and "Disfigurement"; substituted "division" for "board" under "Disfigurement"; and made a minor change in style.

The 1975 amendment deleted a sentence at the beginning of the section which read "In case of the following specified injuries, compensation for temporary total disability shall be paid at the weekly rate provided in section 92-701.1, during the healing period, but in no event shall the healing period for loss of a member exceed twenty-six (26) weeks"; substituted "In addition to temporary total disability benefits allowed in this act, indemnity benefits" for "In addition thereto but in lieu of any other compensation provided by this act, compensation" at the beginning of the section; and added at the end of the section "and of any benefits paid under section 92-701.1 for temporary total disability."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Additional Compensation

Under this section, coupled with former section 92-703, a claimant could have had an award of temporary total disability payments during period he was entirely disabled, an award of temporary partial disability payments while his injury was still healing and he was partially able to earn wages, and an additional award for loss of prospective future earnings as the result of permanent partial disability. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

Date of Accrual

Indemnity benefits accrue from the date the permanent nature of the disability becomes established. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

Partial Loss of Member

Award of 500 weeks' compensation for double vision in one eye was excessive in view of provision in this section allowing only 140 weeks' compensation for total blindness in one eye. Johnson v. Industrial Accident Board, 157 M 221, 483 P 2d 918.

92-709A. Repealed.Repeal

Section 92-709A (Sec. 1, Ch. 190, L. 1951; Sec. 195, Ch. 147, L. 1963), relating to compensation for second injuries, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 254, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-709.1.

92-709.1. Subsequent injury provisions — fund — procedures. (1) As used in this act:

(a) "Vocationally handicapped" means a person who has a medically certifiable permanent physical impairment which is a substantial obstacle to obtaining employment or to obtaining reemployment if employee should become unemployed considering such factors as the person's age, education, training, experience, and employment rejection.

(b) "Certifying agency" means the section of rehabilitation, division of workmen's compensation.

(c) "Certificate" means documentation issued by the certifying agency to an individual who is vocationally handicapped.

(d) "Fund" means the subsequent injury fund.

(2) A person who wishes to be certified as vocationally handicapped for purposes of this section may apply to the certifying agency on forms furnished by that agency. The certifying agency shall conduct an investigation and shall issue a certificate to a person who meets the requirements for vocationally handicapped certification.

(3) Upon commencement of employment or retention in employment of a certified vocationally handicapped person, the employer shall submit to the certifying agency, on forms furnished by the agency, all pertinent information requested by the agency. The certifying agency shall acknowledge receipt of the information. Failure to file the required information with the certifying agency within sixty (60) days after the first day of the vocationally handicapped person's employment or retention in employment, precludes the employer from the protection and benefits of this section unless the information is filed before an injury for which benefits are payable under this section.

(4) The administrator of the division shall promulgate rules for certification of vocationally handicapped persons.

(5) A person certified as vocationally handicapped who receives a personal injury arising out of and in the course of his employment and resulting in death or disability, shall be paid compensation in the manner and to the extent provided in this act, or in case of his death resulting from such injury, the compensation shall be paid to his beneficiaries or dependents. The liability of the employer for payment of compensation, for furnished medical care and burial as provided in this act shall be limited to those benefits occurring during the period of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury. Thereafter, all compensation and the cost of all medical care and burial shall be the liability of the fund.

(6) When a vocationally handicapped person receives a personal injury, the procedure and practice provided in this act applies to all proceedings under this section, except where specifically otherwise provided herein. Not less than ninety (90) nor more than one hundred fifty (150) days before the expiration of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury, the employer, carrier, or the industrial insurance fund, as the case may be, shall notify the fund whether it is likely that compensation may be payable beyond a period of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of the injury. The fund, thereafter, may review, at reasonable times, such information as the employer, carrier or industrial insurance fund as regarding the accident, and the nature and extent of the injury and disability.

(7) If the fund does not notify the carrier of its intent to dispute the payment of compensation, medical and burial benefits, the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund, shall continue to make payments on behalf of the fund, and shall be reimbursed by the fund for all benefits paid that pertain to the period beyond one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of the injury. However, at any time subsequent to one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury, the fund may notify the carrier of a dispute as to payment of benefits. The liability of the fund to reimburse the employer, carrier, or the industrial insurance fund shall be suspended thirty (30) days thereafter until the controversy is determined.

(8) The obligation imposed by this section on the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund to make payments on behalf of the fund does not impose an independent liability on the employer, carrier or industrial insurance fund. After the right to reimbursement has been established, reimbursement payment shall be made promptly on a proper showing every six (6) months. If the employer, carrier or the industrial insurance fund does not make the payments on behalf of the fund, the fund may make the payments directly to the persons entitled to the payments.

(9) If an employee was employed or retained in employment under the provisions of this act and a dispute or controversy arises as to payment of benefits or the liability therefor, the division shall hold a hearing and resolve all disputes. On motion made in writing by the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund, the administrator shall join the fund as a party defendant.

(10) The division within five (5) days of the entry of an order joining the fund as a party defendant shall give the fund written notice thereof not less than twenty (20) days before the date of hearing and shall include the name of employee, employer, and the date of the alleged injury or disability. The fund, named as a defendant, shall have ten (10) days after the date of notification to file objections to being named as party defendant. On the date of the hearing at which the liability of the parties is determined, the hearing examiner first shall hear arguments and take evidence concerning the joinder as party defendant. If the fund has filed timely objection, and if argument and evidence warrant, the hearing examiner shall grant a motion to dismiss.

(11) At the time of the hearing, the employer and fund may appear, cross-examine witnesses, give evidence and defend both on the issue of liability of the employer to the employee and on issue of the liability of the fund.

(12) The hearing examiner shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law determining the respective liability of the employer and the fund.

(13) Benefits payable from the fund may be converted into a lump sum payment only upon a substantial showing for an equitable cause, the advisability of the lump sum payment to be determined and approved by the administrator of the division.

(a) In every case of the death of an employee under this act, the insurer shall pay to the fund the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). In addition, the division may assess every insurer an amount not to exceed five per cent (5%) of the compensation paid in Montana in the preceding fiscal year. The assessment shall be transmitted annually to the subsequent injury fund by the employer or insurer.

(b) When in judgment of the administrator the amount of money in the subsequent injury fund is such that there is a surplus above and beyond projected liabilities, the administrator may at his discretion suspend or reduce further collection of assessments for a period of time determined by the administrator.

History: En. 92-709.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 254, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a subsequent injury fund in the Workmen's Compensation Act; and repealing section 92-709A, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 254, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-709A, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed, and the assets and liabilities acquired under this section are hereby transferred to the subsequent injury fund."

92-709.2. Disability benefits — indemnity benefits — election. (1) In addition to temporary total disability benefits allowed in this act, a worker whose injury results in partial disability is entitled to receive compensation under section 92-703.1 or indemnity benefits under section 92-709.

(2) A worker who has elected to proceed under section 92-709 may withdraw his election at any time and shall be entitled to compensation under section 92-703.1 during the remaining period of his disability, provided however, that he shall not be entitled to receive benefits under both sections during any month.

(3) A worker who has elected to proceed under section 92-703.1 may withdraw his election at any time and is entitled to receive indemnity benefits under section 92-709, provided however, that he shall not be entitled to a greater benefit including compensation paid under section 92-703.1, than he would have received if he had proceeded exclusively under section 92-709, and provided further that he shall not be entitled to receive benefits under both sections during any month.

History: En. 92-709.2 by Sec. 1, Ch. 386, L. 1975.

Title of Act

An act relating to the payment of partial disability or indemnity benefits; and amending section 92-709, R. C. M. 1947.

92-710. Occupational deafness. Regardless of other definitions of injury and time limitations imposed by this act, there shall be compensation awarded for occupational deafness as follows:

(1) "Occupational deafness" means permanent partial or permanent total loss of hearing of one or both ears due to prolonged exposure to noise in employment. "Noise" means sound capable of producing occupational deafness. "Noisy employment" means employment in the performance of which an employee is subjected to noise.

(a) Losses of hearing due to industrial noise for compensation purposes shall be confined to the frequencies of 500, 1000 and 2000 cycles per second. Loss of hearing ability for frequency tones above 2000 cycles per second is not to be considered as constituting disability for hearing.

(b) The per cent of hearing loss, for purposes of the determination of compensation claims for occupational deafness, shall be calculated as the average, in decibels, of the thresholds of hearing for the frequencies of 500, 1000 and 2000 cycles per second. Pure tone air conduction audiometric instruments, approved by nationally recognized authorities in this field, shall be used for measuring hearing loss. If the losses of hearing average 25 decibels or less in the three frequencies, as measured under ISO Standard 1964, such losses of hearing shall not then constitute any compensable hearing disability. If the losses of hearing average 92 decibels or more in the three frequencies, as measured under ISO Standard 1964, then the same shall constitute and be total or 100 per cent compensable hearing loss.

(c) In measuring hearing impairment the lowest measured losses in each of the three frequencies shall be added together and divided by three to determine the average decibel loss. For every decibel of loss exceeding 25 decibels an allowance of one and one-half per cent ($1\frac{1}{2}\%$) shall be made up to the maximum of one hundred per cent (100%), which is reached at 92 decibels.

(d) In determining the binaural percentage of loss, the percentage of impairment in the better ear shall be multiplied by five (5). The resulting figure shall be added to the percentage of impairment in the poorer ear and the sum of the two divided by six (6). The final percentage shall be representative of the binaural hearing impairment.

(e) Before determining the percentage of hearing impairment, in order to allow for the average amount of hearing loss from nonoccupational causes found in the population at any given age, there shall be deducted from the total average decibel loss, one-half decibel for each year of the employee's age over forty at the time of last exposure to industrial noise.

(f) No consideration shall be given to the question of whether or not the ability of an employee to understand speech is improved by the use of a hearing aid.

(2) No benefits shall be payable for temporary total or temporary partial disability under this act for loss of hearing due to prolonged exposure to noise.

(3) An employee who because of occupational deafness is transferred by his employer to other employment and thereby sustains actual wage loss, shall be compensated at the rate provided in section 92-703.1, not exceeding three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) in the aggregate from all employers. "Time of injury," "incurred such injury," "date of injury" in such case shall be the date of wage loss.

(4) Subject to the limitations herein contained, there shall be payable for total occupational deafness of one ear, forty (40) weeks of compensation; for total occupational deafness of both ears, two hundred (200) weeks of compensation; and for partial occupational deafness, compensation shall bear such relation to that named herein as disabilities bear to the maximum disabilities herein provided.

In cases covered by this subsection, "time of injury," "incurred such injury" or "date of injury" shall be exclusively the date of occurrence of any of the following events to an employee:

(a) Transfer because of occupational deafness to nonnoisy employment by an employer whose employment has caused occupational deafness;

(b) Retirement;

(c) Termination of the employer-employee relationship;

(d) Layoff, provided the layoff is complete and continuous for one year;

(e) No claim under this subsection shall be filed, however, until six (6) consecutive months of removal from noisy employment after the time of injury except that under subparagraph (d), such six (6) consecutive months period may commence within the last six (6) months of layoff.

(5) The limitation provisions in this act shall control claims arising under this subsection. Such provisions shall run from the first date upon which claim may be filed, or from the date of subsequent death, provided that no claim shall accrue to any dependent unless an award has been issued or liability admitted.

(6) No payment shall be made to an employee under this section unless he shall have worked in noisy employment for a total period of at least ninety (90) days for the employer from whom he claims compensation.

(7) Any amount paid to an employee under this section by an employer shall be credited against compensation payable by any employer to such employee for occupational deafness under subsections (3) and (4). No employee shall in the aggregate receive greater compensation from any or all employers for occupational deafness than that provided in this section for total occupational deafness.

(8) Occupational deafness as herein provided is distinguished from traumatic loss of hearing which is governed by the specific loss schedule hereinabove.

(9) An employer shall become liable for the entire occupational deafness to which his employment has contributed; but if previous deafness is established by hearing test or other competent evidence, whether or not the employee was exposed to noise within the six (6) months preceding such test, he shall not be liable for previous loss so established nor shall he be liable for any loss for which compensation has previously been paid or awarded.

(10) No claim shall be filed, however, unless the employee is exposed eight (8) hours daily and for a period of at least ninety (90) days as above required to noise intensity levels above 90 decibels.

(11) This act shall become effective January 1, 1974.

History: En. 92-710 by Sec. 1, Ch. 366, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 381, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

Section 1 of Ch. 366, Laws of 1971, enacted the section and assigned the section number in lieu of former section 92-710 R. C. M. 1947.

Title of Act

An act to provide compensation for loss of hearing resulting from exposure to industrial noise.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment reduced the hearing loss specified in the third sentence of subdivision (1) (b) from 26 to 25 decibels; reduced the hearing loss specified in the fourth sentence of subdivision (1) (b) and at the end of subdivision (1) (c) from 94 to 92 decibels; increased the hearing loss specified near the beginning of the second sentence of subdivision (1) (c) from 24 to 25 decibels; changed the statutory reference in subdivision (3) from 92-703 to 92-703.1; reduced the noise intensity level specified at the end of subdivision (10) from 100 to 90 decibels; changed the date specified in subdivision (11) from January 1, 1972 to January 1, 1974; and made changes in style.

92-715. (2926) Biweekly payments converted into a lump sum. The biweekly payments provided for in this act may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump-sum payment. Such conversion can only be made upon the written application of the injured worker or the worker's beneficiary, and shall rest in the discretion of the division, both as to the amount of such lump-sum payment and the advisability of such conversion. The division is hereby vested with full power, authority, and jurisdiction to compromise claims and to approve compromises of claims under this act. All settlements and compromises of compensation provided in this act are void without the approval of the division. Any approval of the division must be in writing and set forth specifically the reasons for such lump-sum or compromise payment. The division shall directly notify every claimant of any division order approving or denying a claimant's settlement or compromise of a claim.

Compiler's Notes

This chapter was amended three times in 1975, once by Ch. 9, once by Ch. 11 and once by Ch. 23. None of the amendatory acts mentioned the others. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by all three amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 9, Laws of 1975, substituted

"division" for "board" throughout the section; added the last sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

Chapter 11, Laws of 1975, deleted "which lump-sum payment shall not exceed the estimated value of the present worth of the deferred payments capitalized at the rate of two per centum (2%) per annum" from the end of the first sentence; and substituted "division" for "board" throughout the section.

Chapter 23, Laws of 1975, substituted "worker or the worker's beneficiary" in the second sentence for "workman, his beneficiary, or major or minor dependents, as the case may be"; substituted "division" for "board" throughout the section; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

Effective Date

Section 2, Ch. 11, Laws 1975 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 17, 1975.

Discretion of Board

Board had discretion to order lump-sum payment of award for permanent and total disability in light of medical testimony that disability was partly psychosomatic and chance of rehabilitation would be improved by complete settlement. Legowik v. Montgomery Ward & Co., 157 M 436, 486 P 2d 867.

Industrial accident board did not abuse discretion by denying lump-sum settlement where claimant had no pressing need and his only concerns were to pay attorney's fees expended in pressing claim and to put the lump-sum payment "on interest." Kent v. Sievert, 158 M 79, 489 P 2d 104.

Partial Lump-Sum Award

Division has authority to grant partial lump-sum award to claimant with that lump sum deducted from the last eighty payments of a 500 week award for partial disability; award of $3,200 as a partial lump-sum award was reasonable where claimant's employment prospects were negligible and he had past due indebtedness on his house and pickup truck and miscellaneous bills, including attorney fees; division should have determined estimated value of present worth of deferred payments and converted the lump sum to that amount. Kuehn v. National Farmers Union Property & Casualty Co., — M —, 521 P 2d 921.

Amendments

The 1975 amendment substituted "division" for "board" throughout the section.

Additional Evidence

Where a final decision to stop payments under workmen's compensation had been made by the industrial accident board, testimony of claimant's personal physician as to his examination of her more than six years earlier was relevant and should have been reconsidered by the board, "good cause" thus having been shown. Johnson v. Industrial Accident Board, 157 M 221, 483 P 2d 918.

Compromise Settlement

Where employee sought, agreed to and accepted a full and final compromise settlement of his compensation claim, board was precluded under this section from reconsidering his claim. State ex rel. Montana Phosphate Products Co. v. Industrial Accident Board, 156 M 466, 481 P 2d 684.

Degree of Permanent Physical Impairment Unknown

Where the board found that a compensable impairment existed, but the degree of permanent physical impairment was unknown, it was proper to award nominal disability indemnity under this section. Benoit v. Murphy Corp., 143 M 463, 391 P 2d 350.

Fraudulent Claim

Award of lump-sum settlement based on a petition forged by employer's claims manager did not determine injured employee's right to lump-sum settlement, and employee had no cause of action against the employer arising out of claims manager's subsequent forgery and conversion of the lump-sum check. Lewis v. Anaconda Co., 160 M 478, 503 P 2d 535.

92-827 to 92-836. (2953 to 2962) Repealed.

92-838. (2964) Court to give liberal construction to act.

Failure to List Children in Claim

Where claimant failed to list all of his children in his claim for compensation it did not constitute a waiver of the claim. Stokes v. Delaney & Sons, Inc., 143 M 516, 391 P 2d 698.

Wages at Time of Injury

Notwithstanding this section's directive to construe provisions of Compensation

Act liberally, court found no room for interpretation of words "wages received at the time of the injury" in former section 92-703. Olson v. Manion's Inc., — M —, 510 P 2d 6, 9.

History: En. 92-852 by Sec. 6, Ch. 537, L. 1975.

Repealing Clause

Section 7 of Ch. 537, Laws 1975 read "Sections 92-812, 92-813, 92-815 through 92-817, 92-819, 92-821, 92-822, 92-823, 92-824, 92-824.1, 92-825, 92-827 through 92-836, 92-1347, 92-1350, 92-1351, 92-1353 through 92-1355, 92-1357, 92-1359 through 92-1365, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

Effective Date

Section 8 of Ch. 537, Laws 1975 read "Section 1 [82A-1016] of this act is effective on passage and approval."

Court Required to Make Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

While there is no rule of law requiring the district court to adopt the proposed findings and conclusions of either litigant on appeal in a workmen's compensation case, and the court may request that the litigants submit such findings, or litigants may submit them without a request by the court, it is clear that the legislature intended that the court make findings of fact and conclusions of law in all cases on appeal. Stokes v. Delaney & Sons, Inc., 143 M 516, 391 P 2d 698.

Jurisdiction of District Court

District court had no jurisdiction to hear claimant's appeal from the decision of the industrial accident board when the court's seat was in neither the county of the employer's residence nor the county of the place of the accident. State ex rel. Glacier General Assurance Co. v. District Court, 143 M 569, 393 P 2d 54.

Payment Pending Appeal

Payment of benefits by insurance carrier in accordance with order of industrial accident board did not render appeal from such order moot and subject to dismissal, since under this section order of board must be carried out by carrier unless it makes application for stay, in view of fact that receipt for payment stated that it was "subject to claimant's appellate rights." Bigar v. Tri-State Sand & Gravel Inc., 157 M 459, 486 P 2d 881.

Every employer, so long as he continues in his employment, and so long as he continues to be bound by compensation plan No. 1, shall, at least

92-905. (2974) Requiring security of employer. If the division finds that an employer does not have the financial responsibility for the payment of the compensation herein provided to be paid, which might reasonably be expected to be chargeable to the employer during the fiscal year to be covered by the permission, the division must require the employer, before granting to him permission, or before continuing or engaging in such employment, subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, to give security for such payment, which security must be in such an amount as the division finds is reasonable and necessary to meet all liabilities of the employer, which may reasonably and ordinarily be expected to accrue during the fiscal year. The security must be deposited with the division, and may be a certain estimated per cent of the employer's last preceding annual payroll, or a certain per cent of the established amount of his annual payroll for the fiscal year or the security may be in the form of a bond or undertaking executed to the division in the amount to be fixed by it with two (2) or more sufficient sureties, which undertaking must be conditioned that the employer will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, all sums and amounts for which the employer shall become liable under the terms of this act to his employees during the fiscal year; or such security may consist of any state, county, municipal, or school district bonds, or the bonds or evidence of indebtedness of any individuals or corporations which the division deems solvent; and every such deposit and the character and amount of such securities shall at all times be subject to approval, revision, or change by the

However, if sufficient securities are already on deposit with the division, or if the division determines that the employer has sufficient financial responsibility to meet the liability of the employer, together with other liabilities already accrued, no such additional deposit or security shall be demanded.

Reduction of Benefits by Compensation Amount

The employer's obligation as a Plan I self-insurer is neither increased nor diminished by the group disability policy, and the reduction of benefits under the policy by the amount of compensation paid under the act is proper to prevent duplication of wage-loss benefits and does not alter the employer's obligation. Carlson v. Anaconda Co., — M —, 529 P 2d 356.

in this act provided for, and that the obligation shall not be affected by any default of the insured after the injury, or by any default in the giving of any notice required by such policy or by this act or otherwise. Such agreement shall be construed to be a direct promise by the insured to the person entitled to compensation. Before issuance of any policy by an insurer as herein authorized, such insurer must deposit with the division, bonds of the United States or the state of Montana, or of any school district, county, city or town in the state of Montana, or a corporate surety bond made out to and approved by the division, in an amount not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), as the division may determine. 92-1105. (2993) Intent and purpose of plan No. 3. (1) It is the intent and purpose of compensation plan No. 3 that each industry, trade, occupation or employment coming under the provisions of the plan shall be liable to pay for injuries happening to its employees coming under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act.

(2) All premiums, penalties, recoveries by subrogation, interest earned upon money belonging to the fund, and securities acquired by or through use of money shall be deposited in the industrial insurance account in the agency fund.

(3) The industrial insurance program shall be neither more nor less than self-supporting. Employments affected by the provisions hereof shall be divided by the division as a member of a rating organization into classes, whose rates may be readjusted at such times as the division as a member of such rating organization may actuarially determine. Separate accounts shall be kept of the amounts collected and expended in each class for actuarially determining rates but for payment of compensation and dividends the industrial insurance account shall be one and indivisible. The division as a member of such rating organization shall determine the hazards of the different classes of occupations or industries and fix the premiums therefor at the lowest rate consistent with maintenance of an actuarially sound industrial insurance fund, and the creation of actuarially sound surplus and reserves and for such purpose may adopt a system of schedule rating in such a manner as to take account of the peculiar hazard of each risk, and shall utilize the experience and information afforded to it as a member of such rating organization.

(4) In addition compensation plan No. 3 shall use an experience rating system for employers enrolled under it. This system shall reward employers with a better than average safety record, penalize employers with a worse than average safety record, and may provide for premium volume discount.

(5) The division in fixing rates shall provide for the expenses of administering the industrial insurance account allowed by law, the disbursements on account of injuries and deaths of employees in each class, an actuarially sound catastrophe reserve, reserves actuarially determined to meet anticipated and unexpected losses, and such other reserves and surplus as may be determined by the division as a member of such rating organization. The amounts of such reserves and surplus shall be as determined from time to time by the division to be adequate but not excessive for the purposes intended.

92-1105.1. Advanced rate for dangerous places of employment. If by reason of poor or careless management, or otherwise, any place of employment is unduly dangerous in comparison with other like places of employment, and the employer operating the same has not complied with the safety provisions of the Montana Safety Act, and the employer is under compensation plan number 3, the division, in addition to any other penalty provided, shall advance the rate upon such place of employment fifty (50) per cent. (1) "Weekly wage" means the average of the weekly earnings of the employee in the employ of an employer against whom compensation is awarded during the period of one year prior to the termination of the employment with such employer, or during such lesser period in such year as the employee has been in the employ of his employer. In case the employee is absent from employment during the period as a result of the occupational disease for which compensation is claimed, then the week or weeks in which the absence occurs shall not be included in the computation of the average weekly wage. If the period provided in this section for computation of the average weekly wage does not include four weeks, then the average weekly wage shall be such as, having regard to the previous wage of the employee, or of other employees of the same or most similar class working in the same or most similar employment in the same or neighboring locality, reasonably represents the weekly earning capacity of the disabled employee in the employment in which the employee is working at the time of his disablement.

(2) "Award" means the finding or decision of the division as to the amount of compensation due any disabled employee or the dependents of any deceased employee.

Provided that in the event of death or disability due to pneumoconiosis the following shall apply:

(a) If a miner who is suffering or has suffered from pneumoconiosis was employed for ten (10) years or more in one (1) or more coal mines there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the pneumoconiosis arose out of such employment.

(b) If a deceased miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in one (1) or more coal mines and died from a respirable disease there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the death was due to pneumoconiosis.

(c) If a miner is suffering or suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which (1) when diagnosed by chest roentgenogram yields one (1) or more large opacities (greater than one centimeter in diameter) and would be classified in category A, B, or C in the international classification of radiographs of the pneumoconioses by the international labor organization, (2) when diagnosed by biopsy or autopsy, yields massive lesions in the lung, or (3) when diagnosis is made by other means, would be a condition which would reasonably be expected to yield results described in clause (1) or (2) if diagnosis had been made in the manner prescribed in clause (1) or (2) then there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that such miner is totally disabled due to pneumoconiosis or that death was due to pneumoconiosis, as the case may be.

(6) The terms "employee," "workman," and "operative," as used herein, shall mean:

(8) "Major dependent" means if there be no beneficiary as defined in a preceding section, the father or mother, or the survivor of them, if actually dependent upon the decedent at the time of the decedent's disablement, then to the extent of such dependency, not to exceed, however, the maximum compensation provided for in this act.

(9) "Minor dependent" means if there be no beneficiary or major dependent as defined in the preceding section the brothers and sisters under the age of eighteen years, provided, however, that no invalid brother or invalid sister over the age of eighteen years shall be a "minor dependent" unless actually dependent upon the decedent at the time of the decedent's disablement. (17) "Payroll," "annual payroll" or "annual payroll for the preceding year," means the average annual payroll of the employer for the preceding calendar year, or, if the employer shall not have operated a sufficient or any length of time during such calendar year, twelve (12) times the average monthly payroll for the current year; provided, that an estimate may be made by the division for any employer starting in business where no average payrolls are available, such estimate to be adjusted by additional payment by the employer or refund by the division, as the case may actually be on December 31st of such current year.

(18) "Year," unless otherwise specified, means calendar year. "Fiscal year" means the period of time between the first day of July and the thirtieth (30th) day of the succeeding June.

(19) "Insurer" means any insurance company authorized to transact business in this state insuring any employer under this act.

(20) "Casual employment" means employment not in the usual course of trade, business, profession, or occupation of the employer.

(21) The term "physician" shall include "surgeon," and in either case shall mean one authorized by law to practice in this state.

(22) For the purpose of this act "silicosis" is defined as a chronic disease of the lungs caused by the prolonged inhalation of silicon dioxide (SiO_2) characterized by small discrete nodules of fibrous tissue similarly disseminated throughout both lungs, causing characteristic X-ray pattern, and by variable clinical manifestations.

(23) For the purpose of this act "pneumoconiosis" is defined as a chronic dust disease of the lung arising out of employment in coal mines, and includes anthracosis, coal workers' pneumoconiosis, silicosis, or anthracosilicosis arising out of such employment.

(24) "Workshift" means the work for which an employee is paid a day's wages.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1975, once by Ch. 535, and once by Ch. 182. Neither amendatory act mentioned or entirely incorporated the changes made by the other. Since there appears to be no conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted the proviso relating to pneumoconiosis, including paragraphs a through c, in subdivision 5; and inserted subdivision (23) defining "pneumoconiosis."

Chapter 182, Laws of 1975, substituted "Workers' Compensation Act" for "Workmen's Compensation Act" in the initial paragraph; substituted "employee" for "he" in the first sentence of subdivision

(1); substituted "division" for "board" in subdivisions (2) and (16); substituted the definition in subdivision (3) for "'Board' means the industrial accident board of the state of Montana"; substituted "the decedent's" for "his" at the end of the first sentence of subdivision (9); deleted former subdivisions 16 and 17 defining "Commissioner" and "Appointed member of the board"; deleted former subdivisions 24 and 25 relating to number and gender; deleted former subdivision 28, defining the Workmen's Compensation Act; and renumbered former subdivisions 18 to 23, 26, 26a and 27 as (16) to (21), (22), (23) and (24), respectively. For prior version, see parent volume and 1971 amendment note.

Chapter 535, Laws of 1975 deleted miscellaneous male pronouns; substituted some neuter pronouns for male pronouns; substituted "employee," "miner," and "decedent's" throughout the section for various male pronouns; and deleted "incapable of supporting himself, and" in subdivision (15) after "widower."

92-1304. Occupational disease. The term "occupational disease" shall mean all diseases arising out of or contracted from and in the course of employment.

all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment added "asbestosis" to item 1.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote this section. For prior text, see parent volume.

92-1310. Liability of last employer, exception. Where compensation is payable for an occupational disease the only employer liable shall be the employer in whose employment the employee was last injuriously exposed to the hazard of such disease, but in the case of silicosis the only employer liable shall be the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to harmful quantities of silicon dioxide (SiO₂) dust for a period of ninety (90) actual workshifts or more after July 1, 1958. Provided that in the case of pneumoconiosis any coal mine operator who has acquired a mine in the state or substantially all of the assets thereof, from a person who was an operator of such mine on or after December 30, 1969, is liable for, and must secure the payment of, all benefits which would have been payable by that person with respect to miners previously employed in such mine if acquisition had not occurred and that person had continued to operate such mine; and the prior operator of such mine shall not be relieved of any liability under this section.

2. No compensation shall be paid for a disease other than silicosis or due to ionizing radiation unless total disability results within one hundred twenty (120) days from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed; provided that the board upon good cause shown may waive this limitation in the interest of justice, but in any case said period may not be extended to more than one year from the date of last employment by the said employer.

4. No compensation shall be paid for death from any occupational disease other than silicosis or due to ionizing radiation unless death results within one (1) year from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed, except in those cases where death results during a period of continuous total disability from an occupational disease other than silicosis or ionizing radiation for which compensation has been paid or awarded, or for which a claim, compensable but for such death, is on file with the board. In such cases compensation shall be paid if death results within three (3) years from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "or due to ionizing radiation" following "silicosis" in paragraphs A 2 and B 4.

92-1312. Claims must be presented within what time. The provisions of section 92-601 shall not apply to claims filed under this act.

It is hereby provided in the case of disability resulting from occupational diseases as herein defined, including silicosis, that all claims therefor shall be forever barred unless the same shall be presented in writing under oath to the employer, the insurer or the board as the case may be within thirty (30) days after claimant has filed his notice of disability as provided in section 92-1313. In the case of death from an occupational disease, as herein defined, including silicosis, all claims therefor shall be forever barred unless the same shall be presented in writing under oath to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of filing the notice of death as provided in section 92-1313.

For the purpose of this act a claim for benefits on account of total disability or death of a miner due to pneumoconiosis is deemed to be timely filed if it is filed within three (3) years of the discovery of the total disability or the date of death.

Claims shall be filed in triplicate on forms to be furnished by the board and may be accompanied by a medical report of the claimant's attending physician. The provisions of this section as to the time for presenting claims for compensation shall prevail over any other provisions of this act to the contrary.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 155, L. 1959;
amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the last sentence, relating to pneumoconiosis claims, to the first paragraph.

92-1313. Notice of disability or death. The provisions of section 92-807 shall not apply to cases of disability or death from occupational diseases as in this act defined.

Notice of disability or death in respect to which compensation is payable under this act, except disability or death resulting from silicosis, shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the employee, his beneficiaries, or his dependents knew or should have known the nature of the impairment or cause of death and its relationship to the employment, but in no event, except in the case of disability or death due to ionizing radiation, shall notice be filed more than one year after the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

In cases of disability resulting from silicosis which are compensable under this act, notice of such disability shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the employee knew or should have known of the nature of the impairment and its relationship to employment, but in no event shall such notice be filed more than four (4) years after the last date upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

In cases of a death from silicosis which is compensable under this act, notice of such death shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, within thirty (30) days after the employee's beneficiaries or his dependents knew or should have known of the cause of death and its relationship to the employment, but in no event shall such notice be filed more than one (1) year after such death.

Such notice shall be valid only if filed in writing on forms to be furnished by the board, and shall contain the name and address of the employee and a statement of the time, place, nature, and cause of the disability or death, and shall be signed by the employee or by some other person on his behalf; or in case of death by any person claiming to be entitled to compensation for such death or by some person on his behalf.

Except if death occurs during the period of total disability described in section 92-1311, B.3., in which case the period of notice may be extended to the term of seven (7) years from the last day of said employment.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 155, L. 1959;
amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 92, L. 1965.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "except in the case of disability or death due to ionizing radiation" in the second paragraph.

92-1315. Procedure for medical examination. A. In order to determine the validity of claims made pursuant to the provisions of this act, the following procedure and no other shall be followed in the course of the medical examination of the claimant for official report to said board, claimant, employer, or insurer, as the case may be.

1. Upon the filing of a claim by a claimant for occupational disease disability, other than silicosis or pneumoconiosis, the board shall direct a member from said "medical committee" to examine and determine the disability of the claimant and submit a written report thereon to the board.

Upon the filing of a claim for compensation for silicosis disability under this act, the board shall direct an examination of and report to the board upon the claimant by said "pulmonary specialists," or one of them, including such X-ray and other pathological examination and tests as in the opinion of such specialist or specialists may be necessary for the purpose of determining diagnosis, disablement, and the nature and type of medical treatment, hospitalization and other care required. If the claim is not controverted as to any medical fact, the examination and report of one of said specialists, shall be deemed the examination and report of all "pulmonary specialists." If the claim is controverted as to any medical fact, the report shall be made by all of said specialists after a physical examination by at least two (2) of them. The findings and opinions of a majority of the number of said specialists then appointed shall constitute the findings and opinions of all of them. The contents of the report of said "pulmonary specialists" when placed in the record shall constitute prima facie evidence of fact as to the matter therein contained. The "pulmonary specialists" or any one (1) of them making the report shall be subject to examination upon demand of any interested parties.

The "pulmonary specialists," or any one (1) of them in order to assist in reaching a conclusion may require the attending physician or director of a hospital or a sanitarium or other place in which treatment or care is being given, or has been given, to attend at a convenient time and place to consult with said specialists, or any one of them and to describe the nature and type of care and treatment and furnish any other evidence which said specialist or specialists desire.

Upon receiving the written report of such examining physician or physicians so appointed, the board shall forthwith determine whether or not the claimant shall receive the benefits pursuant to this act and it shall forward notice of its determination together with a true and correct copy of said medical report to the claimant and the employer or insurer as the case may be.

2. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

B. The standards for determining death or total disability due to pneumoconiosis are as follows:

1. Total disability defined. A miner is under a total disability due to pneumoconiosis if: (a) He is suffering or suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which: (1) when diagnosed by chest roentgenogram, yields one or more large opacities (greater than one centimeter in diameter) and would be classified in category A, B, or C in the international classification of radiographs of the pneumoconioses by the international labor organization; or (2) when diagnosed by biopsy or autopsy, yields massive lesions in the lung, that is, shows the existence of progressive massive fibrosis; or (3) when established by diagnosis by means other than those specified in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph, would be a condition which could reasonably be expected to yield the results described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph had diagnosis been made as therein prescribed. Provided, however, that any diagnosis made under this clause shall be in accordance with generally accepted medical procedures for diagnosing pneumoconiosis.

(b) (1) He is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of pneumoconiosis which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months; or (2) where the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section are met, the finding that a miner is under a total disability is established by irrebuttable presumption.

2. Evaluating total disability. (a) Total disability may not be found for purposes of this part unless pneumoconiosis is the impairment involved. Whether or not pneumoconiosis in a particular case constitutes a disability as defined in 1. (b) is determined from all the facts of that case. Primary consideration is given to the severity of the individual's pneumoconiosis. Medical considerations alone can, except where other evidence rebuts a finding of "disability," e.g., the individual is actually engaging in substantial gainful activity, justify a finding that the individual is under a disability where his impairment is one that meets the duration requirement in 1. (b), and is listed in the appendix to this subpart.

(b) Pneumoconiosis may be found disabling if it does prevent the individual from engaging in any substantial gainful activity. Such an individual, however, shall be determined to be under a disability only if his pneumoconiosis is the primary reason for his inability to engage in substantial gainful activity. In any such case it must be established that the individual has a respiratory impairment because of pneumoconiosis, demonstrated on the basis of an MVV and FEV₁ which are equal to or less than the values specified in the following table or by a medically equivalent test.

Height	MVV(MBC) equal	FEV ₁ equal to
(Inches)	to or less than	and or less than

57 or less	52	1.4
58	53	1.4
59	54	1.4
60	55	1.5
61	56	1.5
62	57	1.5
63	58	1.5
64	59	1.6
65	60	1.6
66	61	1.6
67	62	1.7
68	63	1.7
69	64	1.8
70	65	1.8
71	66	1.8
72	67	1.9
73 or more	68	1.9

3. Evidence of pneumoconiosis. (a) A finding of the existence of pneumoconiosis may not be made in the absence of:

(1) A chest roentgenogram showing the existence of pneumoconiosis classified as category 1, 2, 3, A, B, or C, according to the international labor organization (1958), international labor organization (1968), or union internationale contra cancer/Cincinnati (1968) classifications of the pneumoconioses (if the chest roentgenogram is classified as category Z, it should be reclassified as category O or category 1 and only the latter accepted as evidence of pneumoconiosis); or

(2) An autopsy showing the existence of pneumoconiosis; or

(3) A biopsy (other than a needle biopsy) showing the existence of pneumoconiosis. Such biopsy would not be expected to be performed for the sole purpose of diagnosing pneumoconiosis. Where a biopsy is performed for other purposes, however, (e.g., in connection with a lung resection), the report thereof will be considered in determining the existence of pneumoconiosis.

(b) The roentgenogram, to conform to accepted medical standards, should represent a posterior-anterior view of the chest, taken at a distance of six (6) feet between the X-ray tube and the X-ray film on a 14 by 17 inch X-ray film.

(c) A report of autopsy or biopsy shall include a detailed gross (macroscopic) and microscopic description of the lungs or visualized portions of the lungs. If an operative procedure has been performed to obtain a portion of a lung, the evidence should include a copy of the operative note and the pathology report of the gross and microscopic examination of the surgical specimen. If an autopsy has been performed, the evidence should include a complete copy of the autopsy report.

4. Determining medical equivalence. (a) An individual's impairment shall be determined to be medically the equivalent of an impairment listed in the appendix to this subpart only if the medical findings with respect thereto are at least equivalent in severity and duration to the listed findings of the listed impairment.

(b) Any decision made under 2. (a) and 6. (a) as to whether an individual's impairment is medically the equivalent of an impairment listed in the appendix to this subpart, shall be based on medical evidence demonstrated by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, including a medical judgment furnished by one or more physicians designated by the board, relative to the question of medical equivalence.

(c) Any decision as to whether a medical test is medically equivalent to the test described in 2. (b) shall be based on appropriate medical evidence, including a judgment furnished by one or more physicians designated by the board, relative to the question of the medical equivalence of such test.

5. Evidence of origin of pneumoconiosis. (a) If a miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in coal mines and is suffering or has suffered from pneumoconiosis, it will be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the pneumoconiosis arose out of such employment.

(b) In any other case, a miner suffering or who has suffered from pneumoconiosis must submit the evidence necessary to establish that the pneumoconiosis arose out of employment in the coal mines.

6. Death due to pneumoconiosis. (a) A miner's death will be determined to have been due to pneumoconiosis if the miner suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which meets the requirements of 1. (a); or

(b) If a deceased miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in coal mines and died from a respirable disease, it will be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that his death was due to pneumoconiosis. Death will be found due to a respirable disease when death is ascribed to a chronic dust disease, or to another chronic disease of the lung. Death will not be found due to a respirable disease in those cases in which the disease reported does not suggest a reasonable possibility that death was, in fact, due to pneumoconiosis (e.g., cancer of the lung, disease due to trauma, pulmonary emboli); or

(c) Under circumstances other than those in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the claimant must submit the evidence necessary to establish that the miner's death was due to pneumoconiosis and that the pneumoconiosis arose out of employment in coal mines.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 155, L. 1959; Amendments
amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

The 1971 amendment inserted "or pneumoconiosis" after "other than silicosis" in the first paragraph of subdivision A 1; and added the present subsection B.

92-1315.1. Medical definition of totally disabling pneumoconiosis. A miner with pneumoconiosis, as evidenced in 3. of this part, plus one of the following sets of medical specifications, may be found to be under a total disability, in the absence of evidence rebutting such finding:

Title of Act

An act to provide revisions to "The Occupational Disease Act of Montana" in compliance with the mandate of the Congress of the United States as required by the provisions of Public Law 91-173 of the Ninety-first Congress; and providing for the payment of benefits for total disability or death to a coal miner due to defined pneumoconiosis substantially to, or greater than, the amount of benefits prescribed by said public law and to prescribe standards and definitions for determining death or total disability due to pneumoconiosis, which are substantially equivalent to those established by said public law and regulations by the secretary of health, education and welfare; and providing for the submission of any claim for benefits within three years of discovery of total disability or death from said disease; and providing for the liability of prior and successor operators for all benefits for miners at such mine on or after December 30, 1969; amending section 92-1303, R. C. M., 1947, relating to definitions of disablement and pneumoconiosis; amending section 92-1310, R. C. M., 1947, relating to liability of last employer; amending section 92-1312, R. C. M., 1947, relating to time in which a claim may be presented; amending section 92-1315, R. C. M., 1947, relating to procedure for medical examination; amending section 92-1321, R. C. M., 1947, relating to compensation benefits payable under said act; and providing an appendix setting forth appropriate charts for determination of disability and providing standards for interpretation thereof; and providing an effective date.

92-1321. Compensation benefits payable under this act. The compensation to which an employee temporarily totally disabled or permanently totally disabled by an occupational disease, or the beneficiaries and dependents of the employee in the case of death caused by an occupational disease, shall be entitled to under this act shall be the same payments which are payable to an injured employee, and such payments shall be made for the same period of time, as is provided in cases of temporary total disability, permanent total disability and in cases of injuries causing death under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the state of Montana. Benefit payments for total disability or death due to pneumoconiosis shall, for the purpose of this act, be made as follows:

a. In the case of total disability of a miner due to pneumoconiosis the disabled miner shall be paid benefits during the disability at the rate of one hundred fifty-five dollars ($155) per month.

b. In the case of death of a miner due to pneumoconiosis or of a miner receiving benefits under this part, benefits shall be paid to the miner's surviving spouse (if any) at the rate the deceased miner would receive such benefits if totally disabled.

c. In the case of an individual entitled to benefit payments under clause a. or b. who has one or more dependents, the benefit payments shall be increased at the rate of fifty per centum (50%) of such benefit payments, if such individual has one (1) dependent, seventy-five per centum (75%) if such individual has two (2) dependents, and one hundred per centum (100%) if such individual has three (3) or more dependents.

If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

Effective Date

Section 9 of Ch. 190, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 3, 1971.

92-1322. No compensation for partial disability.

Common-Law Action Denied

Provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act are exclusive, and therefore defendant who was not eligible to receive compensation because of partial disability due to occupational disease may not pursue his common-law remedy against his employer. Dayton v. Boeing Co., 389 F Supp 433.

92-1331. Rights of suit at common law.

Common-Law Action Denied

Provisions of Workmen's Compensation Act are exclusive, and therefore defendant who is not eligible to receive compensation because of partial disability due to occupational disease could not pursue his remedy at common law against his employer. Dayton v. Boeing Co., 389 F Supp 433.

Proof of Claim

Determination by industrial accident board that workman was not entitled to benefits for silicosis was not an exclusion of him from the act but was a finding he had not proved his claim; workman was not within class of employees "not eligible for compensation" and could not sue employer for his alleged ailments. Anaconda Co. v. District Court, Second Judicial Dist., Silver Bow County, 161 M 318, 506 P 2d 81.

92-1334. Compensation plans. Employers shall secure compensation to their employees under one of the following plans:

COMPENSATION PLAN NUMBER ONE

1. When and how employer may elect to adopt—direct payment to employee. Any employer in the industries, trades, works, occupations, or employments in this act specified as hazardous, by filing his election to become, subject to and be bound by compensation plan No. 1, upon furnishing satisfactory proof to the division of his solvency and financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits in this act provided for, and to discharge all liabilities which are reasonably likely to be incurred by him during the fiscal year for which such election is effective, may, by order of the said division, make such payments directly to his employees as they may become entitled to receive the same under the terms and conditions of this act.

2. Proof of solvency of employer electing plan No. 1 to be filed. Every such employer engaged in the state of Montana, in the industries, trades, works, occupations, or employments herein mentioned, and who shall have elected to be bound by such compensation plan No. 1, shall file such proof of his solvency within the time and in such form as may be prescribed by the rules or orders of the division.

3. Employer permitted to carry on business and settle directly with employee—renewal of application. If such employer, making such election, shall be found by the division to have the requisite financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits in this act provided for, then the division shall grant to such employer permission to carry on his business for the fiscal year within which such election is made, and such proof filed, or the remaining portion of such fiscal year, and to make such payments directly to his employees as they may become entitled to receive the same. Every employer, so long as he continues in his employment, and so long as he continues to be bound by such compensation plan No. 1, shall, at least thirty (30) days before the expiration of each fiscal year, renew his application to be permitted to continue to make such payments as aforesaid directly to his employees for the next ensuing fiscal year, and under like circumstances as those mentioned for the granting of such permission upon such first application, the division may renew the same from year to year.

4. Additional proof of solvency—revocation of order. The division may at any time require from any employer acting under compensation plan No. 1 additional proof of solvency and financial ability to pay the compensation provided by this act, and may at any time, upon notice to such employer of not less than ten (10) or more than twenty (20) days, after and upon a full hearing, revoke any order or approval theretofore made.

5. Requiring security of employer. If the division shall find that such employer has no financial responsibility for the payment of the compensation herein provided to be paid, which might reasonably be expected to be chargeable to such employer during the fiscal year to be covered by such permission, the division must so find, and must require such employer, before granting to him such permission, or before continuing or engaging in such employment, subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, to give security for such payment, which security must be in such an amount as the division finds reasonable and necessary to meet all liabilities of such employer, which may reasonably and ordinarily be expected to accrue during such fiscal year. The security must be deposited with the division, may be a certain estimated per cent of the employer's last preceding annual payroll, or a certain per cent of the established amount of his annual payroll for the fiscal year or the security may be in the form of a bond or undertaking executed to the division in the amount to be fixed by it with two or more sufficient sureties, which undertaking must be conditioned that such employer will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, all such sums and amounts for which the employer shall become liable under the terms of this act to his employees during said fiscal year; or such security may consist of any state, county, municipal, or school district bonds, or the bonds or evidence of indebtedness of any individuals or corporations which the division may deem solvent; and every such deposit and the character and amount of such securities shall at all times be subject to approval, revision, or change by the division as in its judgment may be required, and upon proof of the final payment of the liability for which such securities are given, such securities, or any remaining part thereof, shall be returned to the depositor. The division is liable for the value and safekeeping of all such deposits or securities.

6. Failure of employer to pay compensation—duty of division. Upon failure of the employer to pay any compensation provided for in this act, upon the terms and in the amounts and at the times when the same shall become due and payable, it shall be the duty of the division, upon demand of the person to whom compensation is due, to apply any deposits made with the division to the payment of the same, and it shall be its duty to take the proper steps to convert any securities on deposit with the division, or sufficient thereof, into cash and to pay the same upon the liabilities of the employer, accruing under the terms of this act, and it shall be its duty, in so far as the same shall be necessary, to collect and enforce the collection of the liability of all sureties upon any bonds which may be given by the said employer to ensure the payment of his said liability. And to these ends, and for these purposes, the division shall be deemed to be the owner of the deposit and security and the obligee in the bond in trust for the said purposes, and may proceed in its own name to recover upon such bonds, or foreclose and liquidate the securities.

7. When employer to make deposit or security to guarantee payment of compensation. Within thirty (30) days after the happening of an accident where death or the nature of the disability renders the amount of future payments certain, or reasonably certain, the employer shall make a deposit or give security as herein defined with the division for the protection and guaranty of the payment of such liability, in such sum as the division may direct. However, if sufficient securities are already on deposit with the division, or if the division has determined that the employer has sufficient financial responsibility to meet the liability of the employer, together with other liabilities already accrued, no such additional deposit or security shall be demanded.

8. When employer may be relieved from liability. Any employer against whom liability may exist for compensation under this act, may, with the approval of the division, be relieved therefrom by:

(1) Depositing the present value or the estimated present value of the total unpaid compensation for which such liability exists, assuming interest at five per cent (5%) per annum, with the division; or

(2) Purchasing an annuity within the limitations provided by law, in any insurance company granting annuities, and authorized to transact business in this state, subject to the approval of the division.

COMPENSATION PLAN NUMBER TWO

1.  [Same as parent volume.]

2. Duty of employer electing plan No. 2—amount of insurance necessary. Any employer electing to become subject to and bound by compensation plan No. 2 shall file with the division written acceptance of the provisions of compensation plan No. 2, together with a statement upon forms provided by the division of the nature of his employment, the character and location of his works, the number of men employed during the preceding year, or any part of the preceding year, and the probable number of men to be employed during the first fiscal year to be covered by such election, and the division shall thereupon determine the amount of insurance which will be reasonably necessary to secure the compensation with which the said employer may reasonably be expected to become chargeable during such fiscal year. And thereupon the employer shall file the policy or policies of insurance herein provided for with the division, which policy or policies shall insure in the amount so fixed by the division against any and all liability of the employer to pay the compensation and benefits provided for in this act. The amount of such insurance shall be fixed by the division for each ensuing fiscal year during which the employer shall engage in his employment, and shall remain subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 2, and for the purpose of fixing such amount of said insurance, the division may make all reasonable and necessary investigation, and the employer shall furnish to the division all information which it may require.

3. Policies to contain what. All policies insuring the payment of compensation under this act, must contain a clause to the effect that as between the employee and the insurer the notice to, or knowledge of the occurrence of the injury on the part of the insured, shall be deemed notice or knowledge, as the case may be, on the part of the insurer; that jurisdiction of the insured for the purpose of this act shall be jurisdiction of the insurer; and that the insurer shall, in all things, be bound by and subject to the awards, order, judgments, or decrees rendered against such insured.

4. Agreement to be contained in policies of insurance—deposit of bonds. No such policy shall be issued unless it contains the agreement of the insurer that it will promptly pay to the person entitled to compensation all the installments of compensation or other payments in this act provided for, and that the obligation shall not be affected by any default of the insured after the disablement or by any default in the giving of any notice required by such policy or by this act or otherwise. Such agreement shall be construed to be a direct promise by the insured to the person entitled to compensation. Before issuance of any policy by an insurer as herein authorized, such insurer must deposit with the division, bonds of the United States or the state of Montana, or of any school district, county, city or town in the state of Montana, in an amount not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) or more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) as the division may determine. If any insurer shall fail to discharge any liability after the amount thereof shall be determined by the division, and within the time limited by the division, it shall be the duty of the division to convert the bonds, or such part thereof as is necessary, into cash, and from the proceeds liquidate such liability in the manner hereinafter provided; and thereafter the insurer must make an additional deposit to meet any deficiency caused thereby. It is intended hereby to give the division the discretion in the matter of whether an insurer has failed to discharge any liability.

5. Policies made subject to this act—form of insurance. Every policy for the insurance of the compensation herein provided for, or against liability therefor, shall be deemed to be made subject to the provisions of this act. No insurer shall enter into any such policy of insurance unless its form shall have been approved by the division, as otherwise provided by law.

6. Renewals. Every renewal of such policy shall be made and delivered to the division at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the expiring policy.

7. Deposits by insurer with division. Within thirty (30) days of the happening of an accident where death or the nature of the disablement renders the amount of future payments certain or reasonably certain, the insurer shall make a deposit, as herein defined, with the division for the protection and guarantee of the payment of such liability in such sum as the division may direct. However, if the division deems the amount on deposit by the insurer under the provisions of paragraph 4 of plan two (2), in this section, sufficient to cover all liabilities of the insurer, then no further deposit shall be required.

8. How insurer relieved from liability. Any insurer against whom liability may exist for compensation under this act, may, with the approval of the division, be relieved therefrom by:

1. Depositing the present value or the estimated present value of the total unpaid compensation for which such liability exists, assuming interest at five per centum (5%) per annum, with the division; or

2. By purchasing an annuity within the limitations provided by law in any insurance company granting annuities, and authorized to transact business in this state, subject to the approval of the division.

9. Cancellation of insurance policy. No policy of insurance issued under the provisions of compensation plan No. 2 shall be canceled within the time limited for its expiration except upon thirty (30) days' notice to the employer in favor of whom such policy is issued, and to the division unless such policy sought to be canceled shall have been sooner replaced by other insurance.

10. Report of insurance companies to division. Every insurance company transacting business under this act shall, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the division, make and file with the division such reports of accidents as the division may require.

11. Policies to contain clause agreeing to do what—approval or change. Every policy or contract insuring against liability for compensation under compensation plan No. 2 must contain a clause to the effect that the insurer shall be directly and primarily liable to and will pay directly to the employee, or in case of death, to his beneficiaries, or major or minor dependents, the compensation, if any, for which the employer is liable. Every such policy shall at all times be subject to the approval, change, or revision by the division, and shall contain the clauses, agreements, and promises required by this act.

12. Deposits under plan No. 2 as security. Any deposit made under the provisions of compensation plan No. 2 shall be held in trust by the division as security for the payment of the liability for which the deposit was made. Such deposit may be reduced from time to time with the permission of the division, as the payment of the liability of the insurer may reduce the amount required to be on deposit. Such deposit may be changed or renewed when desired by the depositor, by withdrawing the same, or any part thereof, and substituting other deposits therefor; upon proof of the final payment of the liability for which such deposit was made, any deposit remaining shall be returned to the depositor. All earnings made by such deposit shall be first applied upon any liability of the depositors, and if no such liability exists, then such earnings shall upon demand be delivered to such depositor. The division shall be liable for the value and safekeeping of such deposit.

COMPENSATION PLAN NUMBER THREE

1. It is the intent and purpose of compensation plan No. 3 that each employer subject to and bound by this plan shall be liable and pay for all disability to employees due to occupational diseases coming under the provision of this plan, and that all funds collected by assessments as herein provided shall be paid into one common account to be known as the occupational disease compensation account in the agency fund, which account shall be devoted exclusively to the payment of all valid claims for disability from occupational diseases arising out of or in the course of employment coming under the provisions of compensation plan No. 3. Such account shall consist of all assessments and penalties received and paid into the account, or property and securities acquired by and through the use of money belonging to the account, and interest earned upon money belonging to the account, together with any money appropriated by the legislature for the purpose of this act. The accounts of employers insured in such account shall be kept in such a manner as the division may prescribe for the purpose of providing information and statistics necessary for determining any changes in rates of classification of employment. The occupational disease compensation account shall be neither more nor less than self-supporting.

2. Any employer, whether subject to and bound by this act or not, may elect to comply with the provisions of compensation plan No. 3 and pay into the occupational disease compensation account the premiums provided in this act, in which event such employer shall not be liable to respond in damages at common law or by statute for disability or death of an employee due to an occupational disease during the period covered by such premiums and shall enjoy the benefits and privileges of this act. The employee of such an employer shall be deemed to have elected to come under the provisions of this act unless such employee shall execute and file with the division on proper form to be furnished for that purpose, a specific election not to be so bound, in which event he shall not enjoy the benefits or privileges of this act until such election is withdrawn.

3. All employments, occupations, or industries affected by the provisions of compensation plan No. 3 shall be divided by the division for the purpose of the occupational disease compensation account into classes whose rates may be set and readjusted at such times as the division may determine. The division may rearrange the classes by withdrawing any employment embraced in one class and transferring it wholly or in part to another class. Separate counts shall be kept of the amounts collected and expended in each class for determining rates, but for paying compensation and dividends the account in the agency fund shall be one and indivisible. The division shall determine the hazard of the different classes of occupations or industries, and fix the rates of assessment therefor at a percentage of the annual total payroll of such employer at the lowest rate consistent with the maintenance of a solvent occupational disease compensation account, and the creation of necessary surpluses and reserves, and for such purpose may adopt a system of schedule rating in such a manner as to take account of the peculiar hazard of each individual risk. The division, in fixing rates, shall provide for the expenses of administering the account, the disbursements on account of occupational disease to employees in each class, reserves adequate to meet anticipated and unexpected losses, reserves adequate to carry the class to maturity, and such other necessary reserves and surpluses as may be determined by the division. The division is authorized, in its discretion, to apply tentative rates, subject to modification in accordance with the loss experience of such risks.

4. The initial payment of assessments provided for herein by employers, whether presently engaged in a business, occupation or industry, subject to this act, or an employer who enters such business, occupation or industry at some future date, and all subsequent payment of assessments herein provided shall be made at such times and in such amounts as may be ordered and prescribed by the division.

5. Any employer who is in default in the observance of any order of the division issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall, in addition to any other penalty provided by this act, be charged an advance of twenty-five per cent (25%) over the established rate, and such advance rate shall continue to be in force until such employer shall have ceased to be in such default.

6. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

7. The board of investments shall invest in bonds of the United States, bonds of the state of Montana, or bonds of any county, city, or school district in the state of Montana, or any other security which may be approved by the board of investments, and out of the same and its earnings shall be paid such compensation and benefits as the division may direct. However, when there is sufficient money in the occupational disease compensation account to meet such compensation payments, any surplus or earnings remaining may be invested in the securities specified in this section.

8. If any employer shall default in any payment to the occupational disease account, the sum due may be collected by an action at law in the name of the state and such right of action shall be cumulative. The division is hereby authorized, in its discretion, to cancel any employer's right to operate under compensation plan No. 3 for failure to pay the premiums due. When the division makes an order canceling an employer's right for failure to pay premiums or assessments the division shall make such order at least sixty (60) days before the cancellation becomes effective and send a formal notice to the sheriff or sheriffs of the county or counties wherein the employer is operating, and the said sheriff or sheriffs shall post a notice in at least three (3) conspicuous places where the workmen can readily see the notices to the effect that the division has canceled the right of the employer to operate under the act, and the notice shall give the date of the effectiveness of the order. After the cancellation date the employer shall have the same status as an employer who is not enrolled under the Occupational Disease Act.

When an employer's right to operate has been canceled by the division for failure to pay premiums and when the division, in its discretion, finds that the property and assets of the employer are not sufficient to pay premiums, the division may compromise the claim for premiums and accept a payment of an amount less than the total amount due.

9 and 10. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

11. Any cause of action assigned to the state under the provisions of subsection 10 of this section may be prosecuted or compromised by the division in its discretion.

12. Where an employee is entitled to compensation under compensation plan No. 3, he shall file with the division his application therefor, together with the certificate of the physician attending him, and the physician to lend all necessary assistance in making application for compensation and such proof of other matters as may be required by the rules of the division without charge to the employee. The filing of a certificate of the attending physician shall not constitute a sworn claim for compensation.

13. For proper compliance with the provisions of subsection 12 of this section, the physician, after approval by the division, shall be paid out of the occupational disease compensation account.

14. Where death results from an occupational disease, the parties entitled to compensation under compensation plan No. 3, or someone in their behalf, shall make application for the same to the division. The application must be accompanied with proof of death and proof of relationship, showing the parties entitled to compensation, certificate of the attending physician, if any, and such other proof as may be required by the division.

15. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

16. Disbursements out of the occupational disease compensation account in the agency fund shall be made by the division. If at any time there shall not be sufficient money in the occupational disease compensation account with which to pay any warrants drawn thereon, the employer, on account of whose workmen the warrant was drawn, shall pay the same, and upon his next contribution to such fund he shall be credited with the amount so paid, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date of such payment to the date upon which the next assessment becomes payable; and if the amount of the credit exceeds the amount of such assessment, he shall have a warrant upon such account for the excess, and if the warrant be not paid for want of funds, it shall be credited to such employer and be applied upon succeeding assessments.

17. All earnings made by the occupational disease compensation account by reason of interest paid for the deposit thereof, or otherwise, shall be credited to and become a part of the account, and the making of profit, either directly or indirectly, by any person, out of the use of the occupational disease compensation account shall constitute a felony, and on conviction thereof shall subject the person making such profit to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term not exceeding two (2) years, or a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or both such fine and imprisonment.
